Hawkeye Soccer Notes

Over the last 21 games, Central Michigan is 17-1-3, with its only loss coming to Notre Dame in the second round of the NCAA tournament last season. Notre Dame advanced to the 2009 College Cup. The Chippewas defeated Big Ten opponent, Purdue, in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

CMU was lead by freshman phenom, Laura Twidle with seven goals and two assists. This years leading scorers through two games are Nicole Samuel and Chelsi Abbott with one goal each.

LAST WEEK

The Hawkeyes dropped their season opener last Friday to DePaul, 2-0.

RAINEY IS WINNINGEST COACH

Head Coach Ron Rainey led the team to nine wins last year, giving him 32 wins in his four seasons, the most of any head coach at Iowa.

Notable Iowa wins posted last season were over in-state rivals Iowa State and Northern Iowa, as well as Drake, earning the mythical state crown. The Black and Gold also downed Michigan on senior night.

SHOWALTER NAMED ALL-LEAGUE

Morgan Showalter was one of the Iowa soccer players to compete throughout the summer for the Iowa Rush women's soccer team based in Des Moines, IA. Showalter, a junior, was named to the Women's Premier Soccer League all-WPSL Third Team. The Cedar Rapids native played in five games, recording two goals and one assist.

Showalter was joined by fellow Hawkeyes Kat Lewis, Emily Moran and Stephanie Swanson on the Iowa Rush roster.
