An Interview With:

COACH KIRK FERENTZ

COACH FERENTZ: A lot of things we need to clean up right now. There were a lot of good things out there, too, but mistakes we made helped hide that. Part of that was them playing really hard or whether it was us not playing well enough. But all that being said, there are some good things out there, and that's what we're going to have to build off of and try to clean up the mistakes. We were just happy to get the win.

Q. What did Jake show you there in the 4th quarter when he was able to bounce back after that interception?

COACH FERENTZ: That was a real tough sequence for us. We give up a touchdown and then right on the next possession give up the touchdown the other way on the pick six. That was a really tough play. But one thing about him, he's a resilient guy. He went right back to work and did a good job finishing game for us.

Q. How does it feel to snap that losing streak?

COACH FERENTZ: Well, we lost one last week and that's how I'm looking at it, so we're 1-1 right now, and I'm just happy -- so the best we could do today was win and get to 1-1 and now we'll try to build from that. We're excited about this season, but today is evidence that we still have a lot to of work to do and hopefully that work will begin tomorrow.

Q. Are you overly concerned (inaudible)?

COACH FERENTZ: That's just kind of college football. I said that on Tuesday, and I told our team the same thing. If you watch college football, that's the nature of the game. And you know, we're -- we've got a lot of work to do on our end. We've got a lot of new players playing, so for us the biggest thing is to push forward and improve, and I thought we improved during the week but there's some things today that didn't necessarily in my opinion reflect improvement, and those are the things we have to do a better job on.

Q. You're using a lot of young players or several anyway. What's your level of confidence with them?

COACH FERENTZ: Well, it's growing. I think what you see them do in practice certainly impacts that, and then some things today, you look at Daniels coming in, he looked like he belonged out there, Vandenberg as a receiver did some good things. He's been doing that in practice. He looked like he belonged. Desmond got educated a little bit, but as long as he'll learn, that'll be a good thing.

So some of those first-year guys, that's kind of where they're at, and then we've got some other guys that haven't played a lot, redshirt freshmen and sophomores that -- Kittle made a big play today in the passing game, but also had a holding penalty, so those are the things -- we've got to get that to balance.

Q. Will you get Jordan back next week?

COACH FERENTZ: I think he has a good chance. He kind of leveled off mid-week, Wednesday kind of stalled out, Thursday and then Friday was doing a lot better. I haven't asked. I assume he warmed up today. But they're optimistic he'll be back Tuesday.

all in favor of that. And again, he seems to know where he's going when he does it.

Q. Was the offensive line having some trouble knowing where the blitz was coming inside the 3-4?

COACH FERENTZ: It's a different set of rules, number one. In some instances, not everything, but there was some nuances, which I thought we did a pretty good job during the week on that. Then to their credit, they did some things in the blitz that were good, and part of that, their outside guys, at least from the sideline, run and pass, it looked like they were maybe giving those guys a two-way go, which is not always -- sometimes you figure a guy is going to be containing and he'd slip underneath the run or a pass block, and that caused some negative yardage plays for us or flushes.

So when you have that going on, it kind of puts guys on edge a little bit and freezes them, and to their credit, they were aggressive players, those outside guys.

Q. Are the penalties something you're seeing in practice?

COACH FERENTZ: No, no. They had one bad last week. I'll go back and check, but I don't remember it being a factor. The first half, again, the false starts, we had a couple of them there. I think all but one, we intentionally took a delay, but outside of that it was a mixed bag. But they all come at bad times, right down to the last one, a holding penalty after it looked like we had converted the 1st down, reached our objective there, and then end up back in a 3rd and 5 again, which is -- you're not going to win consistently doing that. We have to get that -- that's concentration and just knowing the situation.

Q. About that situation, what strides have to be made to be competitive and victorious at Iowa State?

COACH FERENTZ: I think we have to improve on everything, but finishing drives offensively, we've got to -- moving the ball is one thing, but you've got to finish drives. And then defensively just playing every series like it's our last.

Iowa vs. Missouri State Postgame Notes Sept. 7, 2013

Iowa rushed for 296 yards and four touchdowns to earn a 28-14 win over Missouri State today. It was the first meeting between the schools.

Iowa rushed 58 times against the Bears, the third highest total in a single game under Kirk Ferentz. Iowa rushed 59 times vs. Northwestern on Nov. 10, 2001, and 60 times vs. Kent State on Sept. 4, 2004.

Iowa's defense forced five three-and-outs and limited the Bears to 12 first downs and 197 yards total offense. The Hawkeyes limited Missouri State to five first downs and 67 yards total offense in the first half.

QB Jake Rudock complete 19-of-28 passes for 193 yards, and rushed 7 times for 33 yards, including two rushing touchdowns. Rudock spread the ball around, connecting with 10 different Hawkeyes.

TE C.J. Fiedorowicz and WR Kevonte Martin-Manley each extended their streak of consecutive games with a reception to 20. Fiedorowicz finished the game with three receptions, while Martin-Manley hauled in three passes.

LB James Morris recorded six tackles to raise his career total to 305. Morris ranks No. 16 on Iowa's career tackles list, trailing Mike Wells (313) for No. 15 on the all-time list. Morris also recorded his second career forced fumble.

RB Mark Weisman recorded his sixth career 100-yard game. He rushed for 180 yards, including two touchdowns, on a career-high 30 carries. His 180 rushing yards is the second highest total of his career (217 vs. Central Michigan, 9/22/12). He surpassed the century mark with a 10-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. He is the 42nd Hawkeye in school history to gain 1,000 career rushing yards.

TE George Kittle's 47-yard reception in the third quarter was a career-long and the second longest play of the season for Iowa (Jordon Cotton, 53-yard reception). Kittle's reception set up Iowa's third TD of the day (Weisman 3-yard TD rush).

PK Mike Meyer has made a school-record 88 consecutive PAT attempts, the eighth longest streak in Big Ten Conference history. That active streak ranks third in the nation (Baylor's Aaron Jones, 116; Northwestern's Jeff Budzien 106). Meyer's last PAT miss was in a 37-6 win over Michigan State on Oct. 30, 2010, in Iowa City. As a team, Iowa has gone 32 consecutive games without a missed or blocked PAT.

SS Tanner Miller recorded his fifth career interception, thwarting a Missouri State drive with a diving interception in Iowa's end zone. The Hawkeyes finished the game with a plus-one turnover margin. Iowa recovered a fumble, and threw an interception.

True freshmen RB LeShun Daniels and TE Matt VandeBerg saw action today for Iowa. Daniels carried six times for 30 yards, while VandeBerg caught 2 pass for 17 yards.

Desmond King made his first career start today. He is the first true freshman to start on defense since James Morris (vs. Michigan State, Oct. 30, 2010). King finished the game with 3 tackles and his first career fumble recovery.

Missouri State won the toss and elected to receive. Iowa has started the game on defense in 32-of-176 games under Kirk Ferentz. The Hawkeyes are 17-15 in those games.

Iowa is one victory away from capturing win No. 600 in program history. The Hawkeyes' overall record is 599-531-39 (.529). Iowa returns to the field Saturday, Sept. 14 at 5 p.m. (CT). The Hawkeyes travel to Ames, Iowa, to face Iowa State in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series. Fox Sports 1 will televise the game.
