FREEMAN OUT OF ACTION

A surgical screw was inserted Nov. 2. Freeman is expected to be out of action four to six weeks. The native of Maywood, IL played in all 31 games a year ago, with 17 starts. He led the team in assists (3.7) while averaging 7.5 points and 2.9 rebounds per game.

Freeman was in the starting line-up against Simpson, collecting four points, one rebound, one assist and one steal in eight minutes before leaving the game.

"It's unfortunate for Tony and we all wish him a speedy recovery," said Iowa Coach Todd Lickliter. "Injuries are a part of athletics and a part of life. Tony has worked extremely hard to be ready for the start of the season. Our staff and players will have to make the necessary adjustments until Tony returns for the majority of the season."

GAME NOTES

- With an opening win over Idaho State, Iowa has now won 30 consecutive season-opening games, dating back to 1978, when it lost a road game to start the season. The Hawkeyes have won 45 straight home openers, dating back to a 62-54 loss to Ohio University to begin the 1962-63 season. Iowa Coach Todd Lickliter improved to 6-1 in season-opening games as a college head coach.
- Iowa holds an all-time record of 6-0 against current members of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Along with the three wins over Maryland Eastern Shore, Iowa has played Coppin State (2-0) and Morgan State (1-0).

HAWKEYES PLAYING SOLID DEFENSE

Iowa has played solid defense in opening the season with three straight wins. Hawkeye opponents are shooting just 35.6% from the field and 17.5% from three-point range. Iowa is allowing just 46.3 points per game and has not allowed any of three opponents to score more than 49 points. In each of its three games, Iowa has held its opponent to under 20 points in one of the two halves. Iowa opponents are averaging 17 turnovers per game and Iowa holds a rebounding advantage of plus five per game.

The last time Iowa held three straight opponents to under 50 points was 1984-85 when it won three straight games over Texas Tech (58-48), Georgia State (89-40) and Illinois Wesleyan (99-39).

IOWA TOPS FLORIDA GULF COAST

A strong second half led Iowa to a 62-49 win over Florida Gulf Coast Sunday afternoon in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The visitors hit six of their first seven shots from the field in taking a 14-8 advantage in the first three minutes. Iowa answered with a 9-0 scoring run over the next eight minutes to take a 17-14 advantage. Iowa also led by as many as six points in the opening half before scoring the last basket of the period to take a 32-30 advantage at the break.

The Hawkeye defense took over in the final 20 minutes, allowing the Eagles just 19 points in the second half. Iowa led throughout the second half, but the advantage was just four points with 8:52 to play. Iowa scored five straight points over the next two minutes and led by five or more the rest of the way, with the biggest advantage (61-47) coming with 1:11 to play.

Florida Gulf Coast shot just 28.6% from the field in the second half and just 38% for the game. The visitors also made just 6-23 (26.1%) three-point attempts and 5-11 (45.5%) free throws. After connecting on 42.9% of its first half field goals, Iowa shot 55% from the floor in the second half and 47.9% for the game. Iowa also held a 38-28 rebounding advantage, holding the aggressive Eagles to just seven offensive rebounds.

Senior guard Justin Johnson led Iowa with 19 points, seven rebounds, three assists and three steals. Freshman guard Jeff Peterson added nine points and four assists, while senior forward Seth Gorney grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds. Senior forward Kurt Looby added eight points and five rebounds and freshman forward Jarryd Cole contributed seven points, four rebounds and three steals.

UMES FALLS AT BRADLEY

Bradley shot 56.7% from the field in racing to a 53-28 halftime advantage and went on to take a 98-71 win over Maryland Eastern Shore in another first round game in the South Padre Island Invitational in Peoria.

The Braves also shot 56% in the second half and ended the game at 56.4%, while the visiting Hawks shot just 37.9% from the field and made just 19-39 (48.7%) free throw attempts. UMES collected 15 steals while forcing 24 Bradley turnovers, but Bradley's hot shooting was too much to overcome.

Four Hawk players scored in double figures, including Denzel Jackson and Marc Davis with 16 points each. Ed Tyson and reserve Milutin Mirjadic each added 11 points, while B.J. Nimocks collected nine points and nine rebounds.

IOWA SEEKS EIGHTH STRAIGHT

Iowa is seeking its eighth straight winning campaign, which would establish a school record. Iowa's current streak began with a 23-12 record in 2000-01 and includes three seasons of more than 20 wins and six post-season appearances (three NCAA, three NIT).

Iowa also had seven straight winning seasons from 1950 through 1956. Pops Harrison, Bucky O'Connor and Rollie Williams all coached the Hawkeyes during those years. Only a 10-10 record in 1949 kept Iowa from 13 consecutive winning seasons (1944-56).

Harrison coached Iowa to five straight winning seasons from 1944-48, Lute Olson coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1979-83, George Raveling and Tom Davis combined to coach Iowa to winning seasons from 1985-89 and Davis coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1995-99. Iowa had five consecutive winning seasons on three occasions, 1979-83, 1985-89 and 1995-99.

Iowa is one of four Big Ten teams to post a winning record in each of the last seven seasons, joining Illinois, Michigan State and Wisconsin.

JOHNSON AMONG SINGLE GAME LEADERS

Senior guard Justin Johnson connected on seven three-point field goals in Iowa's opening win over Idaho State. Johnson's 21 points marked a career high as he hit 7-12 three-point attempts. He did not make a two point field goal or attempt any free throws.

The seven three-pointers ties as the third best total for a single game at Iowa. Chris Kingsbury holds the record, hitting nine treys in two different games. Johnson joins Kingsbury (three times), Jeff Horner and Jeff Moe with seven three-pointers in a game.

Johnson was held to just three points in the win over Northern Colorado (1-5 treys) while adding three rebounds and a career-high four assists. He came back with a strong performance in a win over Florida Gulf Coast, collecting 19 points, seven rebounds, three assists and three steals.

GORNEY GRABS CAREER HIGH

Senior forward Seth Gorney collected a career-best 11 rebounds in the win over Florida Gulf Coast. His previous best of nine rebounds came against Northern Iowa last season. Gorney is averaging six rebounds per game.

BOHALL GETS SCORING BEST

Sophomore guard Dan Bohall set a career scoring high with 14 points in the win over Northern Colorado. He made 3-6 field goals and 7-8 free throws and also collected six rebounds. He had a career-best six assists in a win over Idaho State and added eight points, four rebounds and four assists in a win over Florida Gulf Coast.

LOOBY IN THE PAINT

Senior Kurt Looby has played well through Iowa's first three games. Looby is averaging a team-best 7.3 rebounds and is scoring six points a game while shooting 72.7% from the field. Looby, who had a season-best 10 rebounds in the opening game of the season, also leads Iowa with seven blocked shots, raising his career total to 60 blocks.

TOP HOME PERCENTAGE

Iowa posted a 44-5 (.896) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the last three seasons (2005-07) and is 3-0 to start the 2007-08 campaign. That mark ranks as Iowa's best home court winning percentage over any three year period in which Iowa won at least 40 games.

Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series

Iowa State currently leads the fourth annual Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series, 10-3. The Cyclones have picked up victories in football, men's golf, volleyball and men's cross country. Both Iowa and Iowa State earned a point after a scoreless draw in women's soccer and Iowa gained two points in women's cross country.

Iowa captured the third Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series, 14-9 in 2006-07. The Hawkeyes hold a 2-1 advantage in the in-state competition against their rivals from Iowa State that began in 2005.

Last season, the Hawkeyes captured victories in women's soccer (1-0, OT), football (27-17), wrestling (24-6) men's basketball (77-59), women's swimming & diving (181.5-117.5) and softball (2-1).

Iowa captured the inaugural Cy-Hawk Series in 2005 registering a 13-8 margin of victory. Iowa State evened the competition with its own 13-8 triumph in 2006.

The 12-sport series awards two points (except football, which is worth three) to the winning school in each head-to-head match-up between the two institutions. Additionally, one point is awarded to an institution if the graduation rate of its student-athletes is greater than the national average as reported each fall by the NCAA. Iowa earned the academic points all three years, whereas Iowa State failed to earn the extra points in 2004 and 2005.

A new total of 27 points (13 events) is up for grabs in 2007-08.

A commemorative Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series Cup, which stands 31 inches tall and weighs 19 pounds, is displayed on the winning team's campus for an entire year after a victory. Replica cups are also presented as "traveling trophies" for individual victorious teams in the head-to-head competition.

This season's fourth annual Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series schedule is listed below:

The Iowa roster includes 11 players. The squad includes three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores and three freshmen.

Along with Iowa native Dan Bohall, the roster includes two players from Illinois and Indiana and one from Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas and St. John's, Antigua.

Hawkeyes Add Four Recruits

University of Iowa men's basketball Coach Todd Lickliter announced the signing of four student-athletes to national letters of intent to join the Hawkeye basketball program next fall.

The additions to the program are Iowa City native Matt Gatens, Anthony Tucker from Minnetonka, MN, Andrew Brommer from Rosemount, MN and Jermain Davis from Plymouth, MN.

Gatens (6-5, 210) attends Iowa City HS. He committed to the Iowa program as a 15-year-old ninth grader. A member of the varsity since his ninth grade season, Gatens averaged 18 points, 5.5 rebounds and four assists as a freshman.

He ranks as the all-time scoring leader at Iowa City HS with 1,353 career points heading into his senior season, a career average of 20 points per game. He is also an 82% career shooter from the free throw line.

At Iowa City High he has twice been named to the Iowa Newspaper Association all-state team and the Des Moines Register all-state team. He has earned all-conference recognition in the Mississippi Valley Conference in each of the past three seasons. His father, Mike, was an Iowa basketball letterman from 1974-76.

Tucker (6-4, 195) averaged 16.4 points and 5.7 rebounds as a junior at Minnetonka HS under Coach John Hedstrom. He has been a unanimous all-conference selection for three seasons and is the only player to be a unanimous selection as a ninth grader. He earned all-Metro honors and second team all-state recognition from the St. Paul Pioneer Press. He has scored 1,250 career points and could become Minnetonka's all-time scoring leader as a senior.

Tucker earned first team all-state honors last season after being named to the second all-state team as a sophomore. He is a two-year team captain and was recently named to the Minnetonka Honor Society for Leadership.

Brommer (6-9, 220) is a versatile forward who attends Rosemount HS and played two seasons on the same summer AAU team (43 Hoops) with Tucker.

Brommer begins his final prep season with 838 career points. He averaged 17 points, nine rebounds, three assists and three blocks per game as a junior as his prep team posted a 9-17 overall record.

Brommer serves as team captain for Coach Mike Manning and earned all-conference honors as both a sophomore and junior.

Davis (6-4, 200) is a shooting guard who is in his first season at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, IA after attending Southeastern Community College in Burlington as a freshman. In one season at Southeastern Davis averaged 10.9 points while leading the team in assists and ranking third in steals.

Davis attended Robbinsdale Cooper HS in New Hope, MN, where he helped his prep team post a 27-4 record as a senior. That team set a school record for wins in a season and finished second in the Class 4-A state tournament. Davis was named to the all-tournament team at the state tournament. He earned all-conference honors in the North Suburban Conference and shared conference MVP honors as a senior.

Davis averaged 15.3 points per game as a junior and senior and was named to the all-defensive team in the metro area.
