Post game comments by Purdue Coach Jim Young:

"They (Hawkeyes) just dominated us in every area of the game!"

"Yes, we were certainly hurt by the shot gun (Iowa's offense) and by that quarterback draw. And that punting game was also a factor."

"Yes, Iowa's execution was good in about everything they did."

Post game comments by Iowa Coach Hayden Fry:

(Fry entered the briefing wearing a black eyeshade with blinking red lights on it and Iowa Hawkeyes and an I written on it.)

"WAAAAHOOOOOOO!!!!!! Twenty cotton-pickin' years, and we finally did itx (beat Purdue). We had a great opportunity to fold our tent for the season last week, and we didn't do it. I'm sorry I'm a little late. We had a celebration upstairs with a cake."

"Coach Young was very complimentary to us after the game--very generous. He asked me, 'Where did you get that offense? (the shotgun)?' I told him: 'Off the Purdue game films (because the Boilermakers run the shotgun so much). The quarterback draw was a planned play. We hoped they wouldn't rush us that much. All four of those plays (long gainers and Bohannon's touchdown) were quarterback draws. We also ran the statue of liberty and sweep off it. They played a lot of man-to-man defense, and we confused them on it."

"We have a bright future at Iowa. We have confidence, and now we can go out and recruit."

"We have a great defense. It was a temptation last week to get down on our offense. The defense made a special attempt to talk to the offense. They had meetings with them to motivate them."

"After the 20 years we've had, this victory has the greatest meaning because of what it means to the Iowa fans. It's unbelievable. We just have a fantastic defense."

"I don't want to talk about a bowl game. I don't even know if they play bowl games in America. I gave the team Sunday morning off. We usually spend Sunday morning medicating, running a 1,000 yards, just to see how everyone is. Then we have a prayer meeting. We'll skip the morning stuff, and then we'll meet in the afternoon."

"I love ~~the fans~~ everybody. I love the Hawks and the fans who have been so loyal and stayed with us. We just had to get over that stigma--20 years without a win."
