"We are looking forward to hosting the men and women of Truman State this Friday," said Head Coach Marc Long. "They are a very strong team that has won multiple division II titles. It will be great way to officially kick off our first dual meet in the new pool."

"We are still finding out, especially with the newcomers, how people perform in different situations and what events they can perform in," added Long. "We will be anxious to try out different lineups to see what works early on, which will help us prepare for later in the season."
