2010-11 Captains

Iowa captains are senior Jarryd Cole, junior Matt Gatens and sophomore Cully Payne

GATENS SIDELINED AFTER SUFFERING HAND INJURY

Junior Matt Gatens tore a tendon in his left, non-shooting hand, Oct. 26 during practice. The shooting guard had surgery Oct. 28 and is expected to miss 3-4 weeks.

Gatens, who has started every game in his Hawkeye career, was Iowa's leading scorer a year ago, averaging 12.3 points. The Iowa City native was also Iowa's top scoring threat from the free throw line (84-101, .832) and beyond the arc (58-177, .328) last season. Gatens earned all-Big Ten recognition as a freshman and sophomore. He was a member of the all-Big Ten Freshman team in 2009 and an honorable mention all-conference selection a year ago.

GATENS, COLE AND PAYNE NAMED CAPTAINS

Senior center Jarryd Cole, junior guard Matt Gatens and sophomore Cully Payne are Iowa's captains for the 2010-11 season.

Cole, a three-time captain, was Iowa's leading field goal shooter a year ago, shooting at a 57 percent clip. He ranked second in team rebounding (5.2) and blocks (14) and averaged 8.1 points. The native of Kansas City, Mo., was also Iowa's men's basketball Big Ten Sportsmanship Award Nominee. Gatens, who was an honorable mention all-conference honoree last season, led the Hawkeyes in three statistical categories: scoring (12.3), free throws (84-101, .832) and 3-pointers (58-177, .328). Payne directed the Hawkeye offense as a freshman, ranking among league leaders in assists. He was the only starting rookie floor general in the league in 2010. Payne averaged 8.7 points, 3.8 assists, three rebounds and ranked second on the team in triples with 42.

Head Coach Fran McCaffery

Fran McCaffery is in his first season as the head basketball coach at the University of Iowa and his 15th year overall as a college head coach. McCaffery spent five seasons (2005-10) as the head coach at Siena, six years at UNC-Greensboro (1999-2005) and three seasons at Lehigh (1985-88) before joining the Hawkeyes.

McCaffery has nearly three decades of Division I coaching experience. He is in his 29th season as a collegiate coach, 15 years as a head coach and 14 as an assistant.

McCaffery, 50, holds a career mark of 251-177 (.586) and guided his teams to six postseason appearances (five NCAA, one NIT). He is 0-0 (.000) at Iowa.

McCaffery's five years at Siena were the best in its 70-year history. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title the last three years.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 (.687) record in his five years with the program. He guided the Saints to four consecutive 20-win seasons, something that has never been accomplished before at the Siena.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year and 2010 District I Coach of the Year is the third winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins. McCaffery led his 2008 and 2009 teams to first round NCAA Tournament victories over Vanderbilt and Ohio State, respectively.

In his final two seasons at Siena, he coached the Saints to back-to-back 27-win campaigns and boasted a combined 39-3 (.929) record against MAAC opponents, which included MAAC Tournament contests.

McCaffery began his coaching career as an assistant at Penn (1982-83) and Lehigh (1983-85). Then at age 26, he became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when hired by Lehigh in 1985. After three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he spent 11 seasons as an assistant at Notre Dame (1988-99).

McCaffery played basketball at Wake Forest his freshman year (1977-78) and then concluded his collegiate playing career at Penn his final three seasons (1979-82).

He earned his B.S. degree in Economics from The Wharton School (Penn) in 1982. McCaffery also earned a Master of Education from Lehigh in 1985.

SCOUTING ILLINOIS-SPRINGFIELD

Ben Wierzba takes over as head coach this season after former Hawkeye Kevin Gamble left to take a position on the Providence staff. Prior to being named head coach at Illinois-Springfield (UIS), Wierzba spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Evansville. UIS is scheduled to play at Illinois-Chicago tonight in an exhibition.

Last season UIS posted an 11-14 record. It will be a season of new faces for the UIS men's basketball team in 2010-11, with nine newcomers on the roster.

The key loss for UIS is the departure of leading scorer and rebounder Richard Oruche, who finished his senior season scoring 19.8 points and grabbing 5.8 rebounds per game, both team highs. Oruche was a second-team All-GLVC pick.

The returning letterwinners are headlined by senior guard Brandon Farmer, who started all 24 games a year ago and averaged 10.2 points per outing, the second best on the team and the highest average among the returnees. Senior 3-point specialist Ryan Thornton, who led the team with 53 triples, is also back after averaging 7.5 points a year ago.

Sophomore forward Chigozie Umedai started nine times a year ago and averaged 5.1 points. Senior guard Kendall Burrage, who played his freshman season at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, started twice last season and averaged 4.3 points an outing.

There will be plenty of new faces for the Prairie Stars. Forward Michael Fakuade and guard Keith Smith transferred in from Northern Illinois and will be counted on immediately, while junior college guards Lester Hart and Jermaine Love-Roberts will also see large minutes from the outset.

THE RETURNING CAST

Iowa returns four starters and six lettermen from a year ago. The returning starters include senior center Jarryd Cole (6-7, 250), junior guard Matt Gatens (6-5, 215), sophomore guard Cully Payne (6-1, 190) and sophomore forward Eric May (6-5, 220). Gatens was Iowa's leading scorer, averaging 12.3 points, while also pulling down 4.3 rebounds starting all 32 games. Cole also started every game and averaged 8.1 points ranked second in rebounding (5.2). Payne, who was the only starting freshman point guard in the Big Ten last season, dished out a team-best 122 assists to go along with an 8.7 scoring average. May started the last 23 contests last year, and averaged nine points, 4.6 rebounds and collected team bests in blocks (26) and steals (34).

The other returning lettermen are junior forward Andrew Brommer (6-9, 235) and redshirt junior Devon Archie (6-9, 225). Archie received a medical redshirt last season due to injury.

Iowa's returning players, last season, played 65.6% of all minutes, accounting for 64.6% of Iowa's points and grabbing 40% of Iowa's rebounds. The group also had 75.3% of the steals and 75.1% of the assists last season. They combined to shoot 41.1% from the field, 30.8% from 3-point range and 70.9% from the free-throw line.

DIFFICULT SCHEDULE

The Hawkeyes will potentially play 20 games against teams that competed in the postseason a year ago, including 14 possible contests vs. teams that played in the NCAA Tournament.

In the ACC/Big Ten Challenge, Iowa will travel to Wake Forest. Both teams will have a new head coach on the sidelines. New Hawkeye Head Coach Fran McCaffery played for Wake Forest one season (1977-78), helping the Demon Deacons post a 19-10 record while starting 11 games.

Iowa will play two of its three in-state games at home. The Hawkeyes will host Northern Iowa (Dec. 7) and Iowa State (Dec. 10), while visiting Drake (Dec. 18).

SUPER SOPHS RETURN

Two of the Big Ten's most exciting and talented freshmen from a year ago return to the Hawkeyes. Eric May and Cully Payne were named to the Big Ten all-Freshman team by Sporting News. May was also recognized on the conference's all-freshman squad.

Last year, May became Iowa's first freshman to lead the team in blocks since Ryan Bowen in 1995. Furthermore, standing 6-foot-5, May became the shortest player to lead the team in rejections since 6-foot-5 James Winters did it in 1994. The native of Dubuque, Iowa, also averaged nine points and 4.6 rebounds.

Payne was the only Big Ten freshman starter at point guard last season. Payne became only the fourth Hawkeye freshman to lead the team in assists since 1974-75. His 122 assists rank third-best for an Iowa rookie in a single-season. The Schaumburg, Ill., native also averaged 8.7 points and three rebounds.

BROMMER IMPROVES FREE THROW SHOOTING

Junior Andrew Brommer has made remarkable improvement in his free throw shooting. After converting only 23 percent of his foul shots as a freshman, Brommer made 75 percent last season, missing only six attempts.

THREE STATE CHAMPS

Iowa's roster of 15 players includes three who won four state titles. Matt Gatens won a state title for Iowa City HS in 2008. Eric May won a state title for Dubuque Wahlert in 2008, while Zach McCabe's Bishop Heelan captured the state title in 2009 and 2010.

NO 3-POINTERS

Since the 3-point shot became part of the college game, Iowa has played 14 games in which it has failed to make a 3-point attempt. Iowa had made at least one 3-point basket in 53-straight games before missing all five attempts in a 71-61 home win over Purdue in 2004. Iowa's current streak includes at least one 3-point basket in 212 straight games.

ARCHIE SET TO MAKE DEBUT

After missing last season due to a medical redshirt, Devon Archie is healthy and looks to bolster the Hawkeye front court this season.

Archie sustained an injury to his left shoulder during Iowa's second practice a year ago.
