THIS WEEK -- The University of Iowa men's golf team will travel to Toledo, OH, this week to compete in the 2009 NCAA Championships at the Inverness Club. Competition, consisting of both stroke-play and match-play, will be held from Tuesday to Saturday.

INVERNESS CLUB -- Built in 1903, Inverness is one of Donald Ross' most distinguished golf courses and home to eight major championships since 1920. Inverness has hosted four U.S. Opens, two PGA Championships, a U.S. Amateur Championship and a U.S. Senior Open. The original links were refurbished and lengthened to 7,255 yards by Arthur Hills in 1999.

IOWA NCAA HISTORY -- This week's trip marks the sixth NCAA Championship appearance Iowa has had and its first since 1995. The Hawkeyes have also qualified in 1939, 46, 57 and 1960. The Central Florida Regional was also Iowa's first since 1995, but its 12th overall appearance. The Hawkeyes have competed in regional competitions in 1939, 46, 49, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 95 and now in 2009.

NATIONAL COMPETITION -- The Hawkeyes will be among 30 teams and six individuals in the nation's premiere college golf event. Competition will consist of 54 holes of stroke-play with 18 holes each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Individual honors will then be awarded, but only the top eight teams will advance to the match-play competition. Two head-to-head rounds of match-play will be held Friday, followed by the championship match Saturday. This is the first year the NCAA Championships have followed this tournament-style format.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS -- Throughout the NCAA Regional tournament, the Hawkeyes broke 14 Iowa records, including eight individual and six team achievements. Among the most impressive, senior Cole Peevler and sophomore Brad Hopfinger both put together 36-hole scores of 136 which bests the old record set in 1993. As a team, the Hawkeyes carded two different 36-hole totals (561 and 554) which beat the 15-year old record of 563. Iowa also crushed the 54-hole record score of 854, set in 2005, when they put together a 837 (-15) to finish fifth at the regional competition.

HEAD COACH MARK HANKINS -- Hankins is in his second year as Iowa's head men's golf coach. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, at Michigan State, in 2005 and 2007. He led the Spartans to Big Ten Championships those years. Hankins also led the Spartans to five NCAA tournament appearances in his seven years as head coach. He is a native of Mt. Pleasant, IA, and a graduate of Iowa State.

QUOTING COACH HANKINS -- "We have to play the same way we did in Sorrento if we expect to receive the same gratification again at the end. At regionals the guys did a really good job staying focused on what they should have been focused on and that was playing each hole one at a time."

Iowa Coaches

MARK HANKINS

Second Year at Iowa
Iowa State University (1993)

Mark Hankins is in his second season as head men's golf coach at the University of Iowa. Hankins took over prior to last season after spending seven years as the head coach at Michigan State University.

The Hawkeyes have moved from 155th to 59th in the Golfweek Rankings since Hankins has taken over the program. Without a tournament title since the 2004 Hawkeye Intercollegiate, Iowa picked up a win at the 2008 Landfall Tradition in Wilmington, NC. The Hawkeyes also placed sixth in the 2009 Big Ten Championships, their best finish in eight years. Furthermore, Hankins coached the Black and Gold to a fifth place finish at last week's Southeast Regionals and a trip to the NCAA Championships this week in Toledo, OH. This marks the first time the Hawkeyes have qualified for the championships since 1995.

While at Michigan State, Hankins led the Spartans to 10 tournament titles, including two Big Ten Championships (2005 and 2007). In addition, he was voted Big Ten Coach of the Year twice by his peers (2005 and 2007). Hankins also guided Michigan State to five NCAA appearances in his seven years, including a 23rd place finish in the 2007 NCAA Division I National Championship.

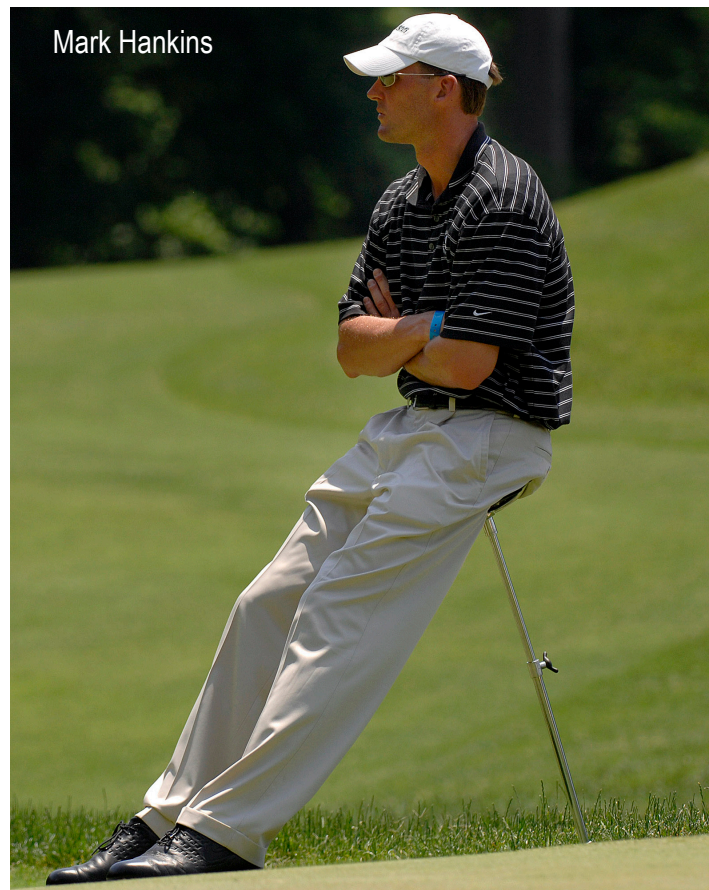

Hankins' resume at Michigan State also includes 64 top-10 finishes, national rankings during three different seasons including the fall 2004 season when his Spartan team was ranked seventh out of 290 Division I men's golf programs, 27 first team academic all-Big Ten selections, two academic All-Americans, two All-Americans, one Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and the first Big Ten Conference medalist in Michigan State men's golf history.

In his first two seasons (1999-2001) at Michigan State, the Green and White posted 19 top-10 finishes out of 22 tournaments. In 2002, Hankins guided the Spartans to its first trip to the NCAA Regionals since 1994 and established a ranking of 27th in the country. The 2003-04 campaign saw Michigan State post 11 top-20 finishes, including six in the top 10, and advance to the NCAA Regionals for the second straight year. The 2004-05 season was an impressive one for the Spartans, as they placed in the top five in nine of their 11 tournaments, including capturing the Big Ten championship. Hankins guided the Spartans to 10 top-five finishes his final two seasons at Michigan State (2005-07), including winning three tournament titles (2007 Boilermaker Invitational, 2007 Fossum Invitational and 2007 Big Ten Tournament).

Hankins' coaching resume also includes a two-year stint as head coach at the University of Texas at Arlington. There, Hankins led the Mavericks to a top-25 ranking in 1998 and 1999 and led them to eight Division I collegiate tournament titles in two seasons, the most in Division I golf during that time. In addition, the Mavericks qualified for two-straight NCAA regional berths, one NCAA national qualifier, and captured the Southland Conference Championship in 1999.

Hankins worked a total of three years as an assistant coach for men and women, and co-head coach of the men's golf program at his alma mater, Iowa State University. From 1995-1997 he worked as co-head coach for the Cyclones. During this time, Iowa State advanced to two NCAA regional berths and won three tournament titles. In his final season at Iowa State, the Cyclones broke every existing team record, individual scoring average, tournament wins and NCAA Regional finish.

His coaching experience also includes serving as head golf coach for the United States team that participated in the 2007 World University Games in Bangkok, Thailand.

In addition to coaching, Hankins has served as a professional at numerous country clubs and camps, including Ames Golf and Country Club, Cyclone Country Golf Camp, Cyclone Golf Academy, Des Moines Golf and Country Club and Iowa PGA Golf Academy. He is currently third vice president of the Golf Coaches of America Association.

During his playing career, Hankins earned all-Big Eight Conference honors his senior season at Iowa State (1993). His personal best round of 66 set a Cyclone individual scoring record. A three-time academic all-Big Eight honoree (1988, 1991 and 1993), Hankins was also named an academic all-American as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1993 and a master's degree in business administration in 1997 from Iowa State.

In addition to collegiate competition, Hankins has played on the Nike Tour, Golden State Tour, Tommy Armour Tour and participated in PGA Tour Qualifying.

Hankins said his expectations for the student-athletes who will compete for the UI under his direction will be successful both on the golf course and in the classroom.

"It's my responsibility to provide the platform for every member of our men's golf program to succeed athletically and academically. I want them to have a first-class experience and to graduate with a sense of pride about themselves and our university," he said.

Hankins is a native of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and a graduate of Iowa State University.

"It's great to be coming home and an honor for me to be the head men's golf coach at the University of Iowa," said Hankins.

"I am extremely excited by the support and enthusiasm the administration, alumni, and other friends of the golf program have shown throughout the search process. Gary (Barta) is clearly making a commitment to winning championships in every sport at the University of Iowa and I am eager to turn that commitment into reality in the sport of men's golf."

TYLER
STITH

Assistant Coach
Second Season
University of Iowa (2002)

Tyler Stith is in his second season as assistant men's golf coach at the University of Iowa.

He was a four-year letterwinner in golf at Iowa from 1999 to 2002. In 2002, Stith tied for 24th at the Big Ten Championships.

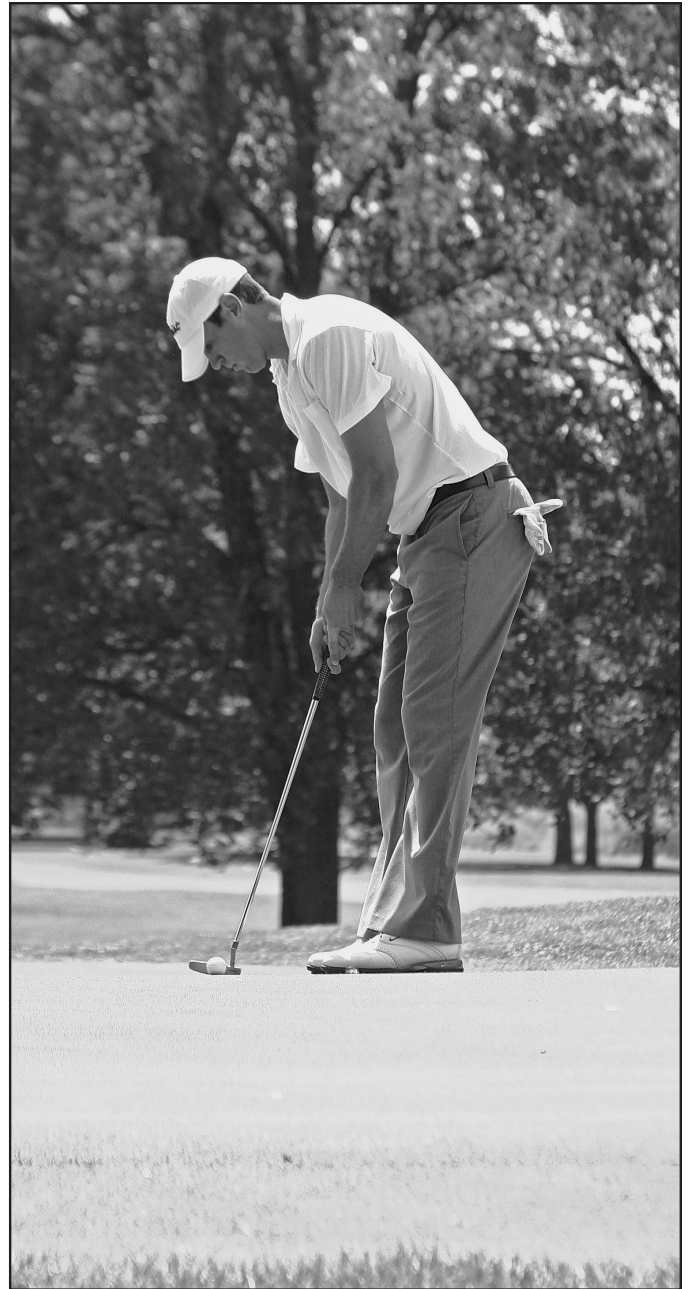

Stith graduated from the University of Iowa in 2002 with a business administration degree. He is a native of Mount Pleasant, IA.

Stith really enjoyed his time as a student-athlete at the University of Iowa.

"I loved it here," Stith said. "It was a dream of mine to play Division I golf. Growing up a Hawkeye fan, not far away in Mt. Pleasant, made it awesome playing for Iowa. My experience here was great."

After graduating from Iowa, Stith moved to Florida to pursue professional golf opportunities. He is happy to now be back in Iowa.

"This is a great opportunity," said Stith. "I plan to work on my PGA resume and would like to someday become a head coach or teaching professional. I am looking forward to helping out and working with Iowa's student-athletes. The opportunity is great and the chance to be a part of the university again is something I really look forward to."
