Coach Kirk Ferentz

The 2002 Associated Press Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year, Kirk Ferentz (pronounced FAIR-rintz, rhymes with parents), is in his fifth season as Iowa's head football coach. He resurrected the Iowa program and led the 2002 Hawkeyes to an 11-2 record, a Big Ten title and an Orange Bowl berth.

Ferentz, at Iowa, holds an overall record of 30-29 and an 19-20 mark in Big Ten games. He holds a 23-8 record in Iowa's last 31 games. In almost eight seasons as a college head coach his career mark is 42-50. Taking over a program that won three games in 1998, Ferentz guided the 2001 Hawkeyes to a 7-5 overall record, including a win in the Alamo Bowl over Texas Tech. Iowa in 2001 was 4-4 in the Big Ten, earning a fourth place tie.

Ferentz and the Hawkeyes posted a 3-9 record in 2000, winning two of the final three games of the season while playing one of the strongest schedules in the nation.

Twenty of Iowa's 59 games over the last four seasons have been decided by seven points or less and 22 of the 59 were played against opponents who were ranked in the top 25 at the time.

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) staff for six years.

Ferentz was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years. Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). He coordinated Iowa's running game during his coaching stint with the Hawkeyes. Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant, posting a 4-4 record. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986 & 1987) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) and Freedom Bowls (1984) highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Ferentz was born in Royal Oak, MI, and attended high school in Pittsburgh, PA. Kirk earned his bachelor's degree in English Education from the University of Connecticut in 1978, where he was a football captain.

WISCONSIN COACH BARRY ALVAREZ

Barry Alvarez is in his 14th year as a college head coach, all at Wisconsin. Alvarez has posted a career mark of 99-65-4 (.601). Alvarez is the winningest football coach in Wisconsin history. Alvarez previously was an assistant coach at Notre Dame (1987-89) and Iowa (1979-86) and he also coached at Mason City HS (1976-78). He has guided the Badgers to victories in the 1994, 1999 and 2000 Rose Bowls, the 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl, the 1996 Copper Bowl, the 2000 Sun Bowl, the 2002 Alamo Bowl, and Wisconsin also participated in the 1998 Outback Bowl. Alvarez was the Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1998.

Alvarez is 5-6 vs. Iowa and 3-1 vs. Hawkeye Coach Kirk Ferentz.

SANDERS AND KAEDING EARN BIG TEN HONORS

SS Bob Sanders and PK Nate Kaeding were both honored by the Big Ten after their outstanding performances in Iowa's 40-22 win over Minnesota.

Sanders led the Iowa defense with a season-high 16 tackles (10 solo), collected two tackles for loss, including one sack and forced a career-high three fumbles, recovering one. In one of the turning points of the game, Sanders forced and recovered a Minnesota fumble on Iowa's goal line in the second quarter, stopping a Golden Gopher scoring threat. The two-time first team all-Big Ten selection earned the second weekly honor of his career and first since the 2001 campaign.

PK Nate Kaeding was named co-Special Teams Player of the Week along with OSU punter B.J. Sander. Kaeding tied career highs in points in a game (16), field goals in a game (4) and longest field goal (55). In addition, the 16 points and four field goals in a game tie his own school record and the 55-yard field goal ties as the third longest field goal in school history. The senior has kicked four field goals in a game twice this season and four times in his career. This marks the second time this season and fifth time in Kaeding's career that he has earned the weekly honor from the Big Ten. He has earned the accolade at least once in each of his four years.

Iowa has had at least one conference Player of the Week five of the 11 weeks it has played. Below is a list of Iowa players named Big Ten Player of the Week.

- Saturday marks the fourth time this season that Iowa will be televised on ABC. The Hawkeyes are 2-1 in games televised on ABC this year. Iowa's loss came on the road at Ohio State (19-10).
- Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez is a win away from his 100th career coaching victory.
- Saturday features two of the league's top punt returners. Wisconsin's Jim Leonhard leads the conference with a 15.3 average on 28 attempts. Iowa's Ramon Ochoa ranks fourth with an average of 12.9 on 34 attempts.

WISCONSIN CRUISES PAST MICHIGAN STATE

Wisconsin snapped a three-game losing streak with a 56-21 victory over then-No. 15 Michigan State. The Badgers totaled 630 yards of total offense, compared to Michigan State's 310. Wisconsin took advantage of 11 Spartan penalties and three turnovers (2 interceptions, 1 fumble). QB Jim Sorgi completed 16-24 passes for a career-high 380 yards and five touchdowns. WR Lee Evans caught 10 passes for a school record 258 yards and five touchdowns. His five touchdowns tied a Big Ten record for touchdown receptions in a single game. RB Dwayne Smith rushed 21 times for a career-high 207 yards and three scores. The Badgers defense held Michigan State to 95 yards rushing and sacked Spartan QB Jeff Smoker five times.

Iowa 40, Minnesota 22

Iowa forced five turnovers en route to a 40-22 victory over No. 17 Minnesota on senior day. Iowa's senior class was responsible for 34 of Iowa's 40 points. The Hawkeye win was their third straight over the Golden Gophers and their third win over a nationally ranked opponent at home this year.

The Hawkeyes scored 37 straight points after Minnesota took a 6-3 lead into the second quarter. QB Nathan Chandler scored his fifth touchdown of the season on a two-yard run. RB Jermelle Lewis scored Iowa's second touchdown on a 34-yard run. PK Nate Kaeding finished the Hawkeyes scoring in the first half when he converted a 55-yard field goal, which matched his career high and tied the school record for the third longest field goal.

Kaeding converted two field goals (33 and 38) to open the scoring in the third quarter. WR Ramon Ochoa then caught a five-yard touchdown pass from Chandler to stretch Iowa's lead to 33-6. FB Edgar Cervantes scored on a one-yard scoring run to finish the Iowa scoring early in the fourth quarter.

Kaeding tied his own school records for kicking points in a game (16), field goals made in a game (4) and longest field goal made (55).

Chandler completed 17-28 passes for 210 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed six times for 29 yards and one touchdown. Lewis rushed for 63 yards on nine attempts and scored one touchdown. WR Ramon Ochoa caught his team-leading fifth touchdown reception this year and posted career highs in receptions (8) and receiving yards (92).

Iowa had four players record double figures in tackles: SS Bob Sanders (16), LB Abdul Hodge (16), LB Howard Hodges (12) and LB Chad Greenway (10). In addition to his season-high 16 tackles (10 solo), Sanders forced a career high three fumbles, recovered one fumble on the goal line and had one sack. Hodge's 16 tackles (9 solo) matches a career high.

The Big Ten honored Sanders and Kaeding's performances. Sanders was named Defensive Player of the Week, while Kaeding earned special teams accolades. Here are the statistics:

HAWKEYES THIRD IN BOWL APPEARANCES

Iowa ranks third in the Big Ten in bowl appearances. Ohio State and Michigan have received a conference-best 34 bowl bids each, while the Hawkeyes have gone to 18 bowls. Michigan State ranks fourth with 15. Penn State has gone to seven bowls while a member of the Big Ten Conference.

FINAL MINNESOTA GAME NOTES

- Iowa improved its record to 29-38-2 when playing for Floyd of Rosedale.
- Fred Russell's 46-yard opening kickoff return was Iowa's longest this season. The previous long was 38 yards by Ramon Ochoa at Iowa State (9/13). The 46-yard return also marked the longest kickoff return of his career. He had a 32-yard return vs. Indiana in 2001.
- Kaeding's 16 kicking points moved him past Dan Stultz of Ohio State for third in career kick scoring in the Big Ten Conference. Kaeding has 345 career kick points. Purdue's Travis Dorsch (1998-01) is second with 355 kick points.
- DT Jared Clauss and LB Grant Steen both returned to action on defense after they were both injured in Iowa's victory over Penn State (10/25).
- David Bradley posted a career long 75-yard punt in the second quarter. The 75-yard punt ties as the fifth-longest in school history tying, Nick Gallery's 75-yard punt vs. Indiana (10/14/95).
- Iowa recorded its fifth straight sellout of the season. Iowa finished the 2003 season with an average attendance of 65,798, its best home attendance average since 1998 (68,330).
- Iowa scored first for the first time since it scored a touchdown on its opening drive vs. Illinois. The Hawkeyes are 4-0 when they score first.
- Iowa had a season-low three penalties for five yards.
- Minnesota's five turnovers (4 fumbles, 1 interception) is a season high by Iowa's defense. Iowa had four turnovers in its 21-3 win over Miami, OH (8/30). Entering the game, Minnesota had 11 turnovers (6 interceptions, 5 fumbles) for the season.
- Iowa finished the season undefeated at home, marking the first undefeated home season since finishing 6-0 in 1997. This year marked the first time the Hawkeyes completed a season with a 7-0 home record.

IOWA EXTENDS HOME WINNING STREAK

Iowa's 40-22 win over Minnesota last week extended its home winning streak to 12. The 12-game home winning streak, dating back to 2002, is a new Kinnick Stadium record. Overall, Iowa's longest home winning streak is 20 games, dating from Nov. 19, 1918 to Oct. 20, 1923.

In Big Ten games only, Iowa's current streak of nine straight wins is the best for the Hawkeyes in Kinnick Stadium. Overall, Iowa won 10 straight home conference games from Nov. 9, 1918 to Oct. 20, 1923. The current nine-game win streak in conference games began with a 42-24 win over Minnesota in 2001.

LAST MEETING

Iowa continued its balanced play with a 20-3 victory over rival Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes out-gained the Badgers 405 to 215 en route to its sixth-straight conference win.

The Hawkeyes scored 17 unanswered points after Wisconsin tied the contest at three in the second quarter. With 1:03 left in the half, QB Brad Banks hooked-up with WR Maurice Brown for a 21-yard touchdown to give Iowa a 10-3 lead at the break.

PK Nate Kaeding connected on a 30-yard field goal followed by a Banks 23-yard touchdown pass to TE Dallas Clark to finish the scoring in the third quarter.

Banks led the Iowa offense with 296 yards of total offense. He completed 17-30 passes for a career-high 275 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed nine times for 21 yards.

Brown paced Iowa's receivers with six receptions for 107 yards and a touchdown. Clark caught five passes for 97 yards and a score. RB Jermelle Lewis led Iowa's ground attack with 81 yards on 25 attempts.

Defensively, LB Fred Barr and DB Derek Pagel each collected nine tackles to lead the Hawkeyes. Pagel also recorded his team-leading fourth interception and had a pass deflection. DE Jonathan Babineaux collected one of Iowa's three sacks and finished with six tackles. Here are the statistics:

KAEDING AND CLAUSS EARN ACADEMIC HONOR

PK Nate Kaeding and DL Jared Clauss have been named to the Verizon District VII first team Academic All-America squad. This marks the second consecutive year Kaeding has been selected to the first team. Clauss was named to the second team last season. Kaeding is a history major with a 3.48 GPA and Clauss is a communication studies major with a 3.53 GPA.

HAWKEYE COACHES IN THE HALL OF FAME

Iowa is currently tied for second with the most coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame with five. Iowa's inductees include Howard Jones, Dr. Eddie Anderson, Edward 'Slip' Madigan, Forest Evashevski and Hayden Fry. Nebraska boasts the most coaches in the Hall of Fame with six.

FOUR PUNT BLOCKS IS A FIRST FOR IOWA

For what is believed to be the first time in school history, Iowa has blocked four opponent punts in a single season.

Sean Considine blocked two punts in the win at Iowa State, Chris Smith blocked a Michigan punt in Iowa's 30-27 win over the Wolverines and Chad Greenway blocked a punt in the 26-14 win over Penn State. The first block at Iowa State and the block vs. Penn State were returned for Iowa touchdowns, while the Hawkeyes added a field goal following the second block at Iowa State and the block vs. Michigan.

The Hawkeyes blocked two punts, one field goal and one PAT attempt last season and last blocked three punts in 1991.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Iowa Head Coach Kirk Ferentz and his son, Brian, Ferentz are believed to be one of only five father-son duos in Division I this year. They join Lee Owens and his son Andy from Akron, Art Briles and his son Kendal from Houston, Tony Samuel and his son Travis from New Mexico State and Mike Bellotti and his son Luke from Oregon.

FIRST CAREER TOUCHDOWNS

Iowa has had 11 players record their first career touchdowns this year. The list includes FB Aaron Mickens (vs. Miami, OH), DB Sean Considine (vs. Buffalo), A.J. Johnson (vs. Buffalo), QB Nathan Chandler (vs. Buffalo), TE Erik Jensen (vs. Arizona State), TE Mike Follett (at Michigan State), WR Calvin Davis (vs. Michigan), PK Nate Kaeding (at Ohio State), WR Matt Melloy (vs. Penn State), SS Bob Sanders (Illinois) and TE Tony Jackson (Illinois).

TRUE FRESHMEN IN 2003

Iowa has had seven true freshmen see action this year, WR Scott Chandler, FB Champ Davis, WR James Townsend, RB A.J. Johnson, OL Mike Jones, WR Eric McCollom and QB Drew Tate.

Tate has played in five games and has completed 6-10 passes for 55 yards and one touchdown, which was a 13-yard pass completion to WR Matt Melloy vs. Illinois. The native of Baytown, TX, has also rushed five times for 46 yards.

Jones played and started his first five games at left guard the last five weeks.

Johnson has rushed 18 times for 46 yards.

Davis has rushed for 30 yards on six attempts, 22 of which came against Buffalo. Davis also caught three passes for 33 yards against the Bulls.

McCullom and Townsend saw their first action in Iowa's win over Arizona State. Townsend has caught three passes for 16 yards. McCullom has played primarily as a wide receiver, but did have one rushing attempt from the quarterback position. Chandler played in his first game at Michigan State and also saw action vs. Michigan, but did not catch a pass in either game.

Iowa had only two true freshmen play last season (DB Jovon Johnson and WR Clinton Solomon).

KAEDING NAMED LOU GROZA FINALIST

PK Nate Kaeding is in his final season after becoming the first Hawkeye to ever win the Lou Groza Award, which is given to the nation's top place kicker, last year. He is one of three finalists for the 2003 Lou Groza Award. The other finalists are Trey DiCarlo (Oklahoma) and Jonathon Nichols (Mississippi).

Kaeding was also named to the Verizon Academic all-District first team last week. After receiving numerous accolades last season, Kaeding entered his senior season on four pre-season all-America Teams (Sports Illustrated, Playboy, Athlon and The Sporting News).

Last week vs. Minnesota, Kaeding tied career highs in points in a game (16), field goals in a game (4) and longest field goal (55). In addition, the 16 points and four field goals in a game tied his own school record and the 55-yard field goal ties as the third longest in school history. His efforts earned him co-Special Teams Player of the Week, marking the second time this season and fifth time in his career that he has earned the accolade from the Big Ten.

Kaeding has kicked four field goals in a game twice this year and four times in his career. He first accomplished the feat in a win at Penn State in 2000. He also kicked four field goals in Iowa's Alamo Bowl win over Texas Tech in 2001 and at Iowa State this year.

Kaeding was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week for the first time this year on Sept. 15. He became Iowa's career scoring leader after he set a school record for most kicking points in a game (16) at Iowa State. Kaeding kicked four PATs and four field goals. Kaeding passed Ron Houghtlin as Iowa's all-time scoring leader, who held the record since 1987.

Kaeding has 345 career kick points and 351 overall. His 345 points rank third all-time in kick scoring in the Big Ten Conference. Purdue's Travis Dorsch (1998-01) is second with 355 kick points.

Kaeding collected his first career touchdown at Ohio State when he scored a five-yard touchdown on a fake field goal in the fourth quarter.

2003 Big Ten Standings

Penn State	1	6	.143	3	8	.273
Indiana	1	6	.143	2	9	.182
Illinois	0	7	.000	1	10	.091

Kaeding missed his third career PAT following a Penn State block in the second quarter this year. He had converted 56 straight PATs before the block. Kaeding's previous miss was at Penn State last year. It was also blocked.

For the season, Kaeding has converted 15-16 field goals and 33-34 PATs. He ranks seventh in the Big Ten in scoring (7.6) and fourth in kicking points (7.1) and field goals made (1.36).

Kaeding has made 62-78 career field goal attempts, including 22-27 from outside 40 yards and a perfect 4-4 from outside 50 yards, and 159-162 PATs. Kaeding is the school record holder for career field goals (62) and PATs (159). The 62 career field goals rank fifth in Big Ten history. Michigan's Remy Hamilton (1993-96) ranks fourth with 63.

A year ago, he was selected as a first team all-America selection by The Sporting News, the Football Writers Association, ESPN.com and CNN-SI.com and a second team choice by the Associated Press. He was also named to the first team all-Big Ten coaches team, while earning second team laurels by the media. Kaeding was also a 2002 Verizon Academic all-America second team selection.

Kaeding made 57-58 PATs and 21-24 field goals to finish last season with 120 points. Kaeding's 120 points are an Iowa single season scoring record and a Big Ten single season kick scoring record. He set an Iowa single season record for PATs made (57) and attempted (58). His only PAT miss and one of his three missed field goals were blocked.

The Coralville, IA, native had an overall consecutive field goal streak of 22 (19 in 2002) end after missing a 27-yard attempt vs. Wisconsin last year. Prior to that game, his last miss was in the first quarter of the 2001 Alamo Bowl win.

GALLERY AMONG TOP LINEMEN

Senior offensive tackle Robert Gallery (6-7, 320) is a top candidate for the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award. He was last week named to the list of semi-finalists for the Lombardi Award. He was a first team all-Big Ten selection last season and he is the only returning starter in Iowa's offensive line. Gallery was also named to several pre-season all-America teams. He is a first team all-America selection by The Sporting News, Sports Illustrated and Playboy and a second team all-America pick by Athlon Sports. In addition to his talents on the field, Gallery has been a member of the academic all-Big Ten team in each of the last two years.

Gallery has started 42 consecutive games at tackle after moving from tight end his freshman year. His 42-game starting streak is tops in the Big Ten.

Gallery is the only Iowa player to be selected a team captain every week this year.

In addition, ESPN NFL Draft expert Mel Kiper Jr. has Gallery listed as his fourth overall prospect for next spring's draft.

JOHNSON ENDS SCORING THREATS

DB Jovon Johnson has intercepted four passes this year, two in the end zone.

Johnson returned his fourth interception of the year eight yards last week vs. Minnesota. It marked the second straight season that he has intercepted Minnesota QB Asad Abdul-Khaliq. He collected two interceptions against Miami (OH) quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, one of which came in the end zone. Johnson intercepted his third pass of the season, in the end zone, against Arizona State.

Johnson ranks second in the Big Ten in interceptions (4) and 45th in the nation. Additionally, he ranks ninth on the team in tackles (36) and is tied for first in pass break-ups (10). He ranks third in the Big Ten in passes defended (14).

He has eight interceptions in 23 career games, which ties for 15th in career interceptions at Iowa.

He was named Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Week along with Ohio State defensive end Simon Fraser on Sept. 1. Johnson led the Iowa secondary with two interceptions, the fifth and sixth of his career. Johnson returned his first interception 20 yards to the Iowa one-yard line, which led to Iowa's second touchdown. He intercepted his second pass in the end zone to erase a potential Miami (OH) scoring drive. He also finished with five tackles and three pass break-ups.

SANDERS LEADS IOWA SECONDARY

Senior SS Bob Sanders collected 10 tackles (5 solo) at Ohio State to top 300 career tackles. Sanders was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the second time in his career after collecting a season-high 16 tackles (10 solo), including two for loss and one sack, forcing a career-high three fumbles and recovering one vs. Minnesota. Sanders ranks ninth in school history with 339 career tackles. He is four tackles from moving past Aaron Kampman (1998-01) for eighth on Iowa's career tackle chart.

The native of Erie, PA, has collected 62 tackles in seven games this season. He ranks third on the team in tackles and leads the Big Ten in forced fumbles (6). All six forced fumbles have come in conference games.

Against Illinois, Sanders registered three tackles (2 solo), forced a fumble and recovered a fumble, which he returned three yards for his first career touchdown. The previous week vs. Penn State, Sanders forced two fumbles and registered six tackles (4 solo).

Sanders, who underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right foot Sept. 5, returned to Iowa's lineup at Michigan State after missing three games and recorded seven tackles (5 solo). Sanders collected seven tackles (six solo) and had one pass break-up vs. Michigan in his first start of the season.

Sanders is a candidate for the Jim Thorpe Defensive Back of the Year award and the Bronko Nagurski Defensive Player of the Year award. He was also named a pre-season first team all-American by The Sporting News and third team all-American by Athlon Sports.

Sanders did not start in Iowa's season-opener against Miami (OH) due to his foot injury, but did see significant minutes.

Sanders was a first team all-Big Ten selection by both the media and coaches last season and was named as a fourth team all-America selection by The Sporting News. It marked the second straight year Sanders was honored as a first team all-Big Ten selection.

BROWN RETURNS TO ACTION

After missing six games due to injury, WR Maurice Brown has returned to action. In his first game back from injury, Brown saw limited action and caught two passes for 31 yards vs. Illinois. At Purdue, Brown caught a career-high eight receptions and matched a career high with 129 receiving yards. He had a touchdown reception in the first half called back due to an Iowa penalty. Brown had at least 100 receiving yards for the first time this year and the sixth time in his career.

Last week vs. Minnesota, Brown caught two passes for 38 yards.

Brown ranks second on the team in receptions (26), receiving yards (407) and touchdown receptions (3).

The Big Ten This Week

November 15

Penn State at Michigan State, 11:02 a.m. (ESPN)

Ohio State at Michigan, 11:10 a.m. (ABC)

Northwestern at Illinois, 11:10 a.m. (ESPN Plus)

Purdue at Indiana, 11:10 a.m. (ESPN Plus)

Iowa at Wisconsin, 2:37 p.m. (ABC)

Idle: Minnesota

The native of Ft. Lauderdale, FL, had a 17-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter at Iowa State. Brown did not return to the game after making the touchdown reception, due to injury. He caught one touchdown pass in each of Iowa's first three games.

He caught four passes for 82 yards and one score in Iowa's win over Buffalo and seven passes for 78 yards and one TD in Iowa's season opening win over Miami (OH).

In his first full season as receiver, Brown established a new school record with 11 touchdown receptions. Brown finished with 966 receiving yards, which ranks fourth best in school history. The honorable mention all-Big Ten selection, also ranked fourth nationally with an average 20.1 yards per reception.

Brown's career totals include 75 receptions for 1,380 yards. He ranks 15th in receiving yards and 22nd in receptions on Iowa's career receiving charts.

CONSIDINE LEADS SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior DB Sean Considine blocked two Iowa State punts, tying the Iowa school record for blocked kicks in a game. His first block was recovered for a Hawkeye touchdown and the second resulted in a field goal. Considine blocked punts last season in wins over Purdue and Utah State, and both were recovered for touchdowns. Iowa's individual record for blocked kicks in a season is three and the record for career blocks is seven.

In addition to his special teams success, he is a leader defensively as well. The native of Byron, IL, is second on the team in interceptions (2) and ranks fifth in tackles (48). He scored his first career points when he returned a fumble 18 yards against Buffalo.

He posted back-to-back career high tackle figures the last two weeks. At Purdue, Considine collected a career-high six tackles (5 solo) and bested that performance with seven tackles (6 solo) last week vs. Minnesota.

He collected a career-high six tackles (5 solo) at Purdue last week.

HODGES AND ROTH ON WATCH LISTS

Defensive ends Howard Hodges and Matt Roth were named to the pre-season watch list for the Ted Hendricks Defensive End of the Year Award. Hodges was also named to the watch list for the Outland Trophy, which goes to college football's top interior lineman and was named a pre-season third team all-American by Athlon Sports.

Hodges collected a career-high 12 tackles (11 solo) in Iowa's victory over Minnesota last week. He collected five tackles, including one sack vs. Penn State in week eight. He registered four tackles, including a career-high three sacks at Ohio State the previous week. At Michigan State, he registered five tackles, including two sacks. He ranks fourth in the Big Ten in sacks (0.81), ranks third on the Hawkeyes in TFL (10) and seventh in total tackles (45).

The native of Copperas Cove, TX, earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 when he recorded 62 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss and nine QB sacks.

Roth ranks second in the Big Ten in sacks (0.95) and fifth in tackles for loss (1.27), ranks second on the Hawkeyes in quarterback hurries (4) and eighth in tackles (42). He has recorded at least one sack in 14 of Iowa's last 18 games, dating back to last year.

Against Illinois, Roth forced a fumble that SS Bob Sanders returned for a three-yard touchdown and collected six tackles (4 solo). He matched his career high with three sacks. His efforts earned him his first Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Week honor.

The native of Villa Park, IL, led the Hawkeyes in sacks (10) and ranked 11th in tackles (48) in 2002. His 10 QB sacks ranked second in the Big Ten in all games and ranked first in conference games only (9). Roth ended the season recording at least one sack in each of the last seven games.

LEWIS HAS BIG GAME

Junior RB Jermelle Lewis scored a 34-yard touchdown, his first rushing touchdown this season vs. Minnesota last week. Lewis finished the game as Iowa's leading rusher (9 attempts, 63 yards). His first touchdown of the season came on an eight-yard reception at Purdue.

For the season, Lewis has rushed 27 times for 176 yards. The native of Bloomfield, CT, missed Iowa's first seven games recovering from off-season knee surgery.

IOWA STARTS ON OFFENSE

Iowa has started on offense in 51 of its last 53 games. Iowa's games at Miami, OH (9-7-02) and at Michigan State (9-27-03) are the only contests that the Hawkeyes didn't start on offense. Iowa has started the game on offense in 53 of 59 games under Kirk Ferentz.

LINEBACKERS ARE BIG TEN LEADERS

Linebackers Chad Greenway and Abdul Hodge have been a force in the middle of Iowa's defense this season. Hodge and Greenway rank one-two in the Big Ten in tackles, respectively. Both have collected double figures in tackles in six of Iowa's last nine games, including the last two contests.

Hodge ranks first in the Big Ten in tackles (10.8) and his 119 tackles tie for 22nd in single season tackles at Iowa.

Last week vs. Minnesota, Hodge tied a career high with 16 tackles (9 solo) and had one pass break-up. At Purdue, Hodge registered a game-high 11 tackles (7 solo), including one for loss. Against Illinois, Hodge collected a team-high nine tackles (7 solo) and recovered his second fumble in as many weeks. Against Penn State, Hodge recovered the first career fumble and returned the first quarter fumble 47 yards, the longest return by Iowa this year. The native of Ft. Lauderdale, FL, also registered five solo tackles against the Nittany Lions.

At Ohio State, he collected a career and game-high 16 tackles, including 1.5 for loss, had one pass break-up and forced a fumble on Iowa's goal line to stop an Ohio State scoring threat. Against Michigan, Hodge collected a game-high 13 tackles (3 solo), including one for loss. He registered 15 tackles at Iowa State and then matched his tackle total the next week vs. Arizona State.

Greenway ranks second in the league in tackles (10.6), ranks second on the Hawkeyes in TFL (10.5) and is tied for third in pass break-ups (5). His 117 tackles tie for 24th in single season tackles at Iowa.

Greenway has posted 10 tackles the last two games. Four of his 10 were solo last week vs. Minnesota, including two for loss. He also had one pass break-up. Greenway collected seven solo tackles and three assists at Purdue, including one half for loss. He collected eight tackles (2 solo), including one for loss and one pass break-up vs. Illinois. Against Penn State, he registered a game-high 11 tackles (9 solo). He recorded a career-high 17 tackles at Iowa State and duplicated his efforts vs. Arizona State. His performance earned him Big Ten co-Defensive Player of the Week laurels, the first of his career. At Ohio State, Greenway collected 10 tackles (5 solo), including 2.5 for loss. Along with leading the conference in tackles (10.7), he ranks fourth on the Hawkeyes in TFL (8.5).

CHANDLER DIRECTS HAWKEYE OFFENSE

Senior Nathan Chandler has completed 144-257 passes for 1,804 yards, 16 touchdowns and eight interceptions. His 1,804 yards passing rank 15th-best, while his 1,925 yards of total offense rank 14th-best in a single season at Iowa.

His pass efficiency rating of 129.3, ranks fifth in the Big Ten and 50th nationally. Chandler has thrown at least one touchdown pass in ten of Iowa's 11 games. Iowa's game at Ohio State marked the only time this year he failed to toss a touchdown pass. Chandler's 16 touchdown passes tie for third in the league. He has passed for over 200 yards in three straight games.

He has rushed the ball 72 times for 121 yards and five touchdowns. His five rushing touchdowns tie for first on the team with RB Fred Russell.

Last week vs. Minnesota, Chandler completed 17-28 passes for 210 yards and one touchdown, and he also scored on a two-yard run.

Against Illinois, Chandler completed 14-23 passes for a career-high 243 yards and one touchdown.

In Iowa's win over Michigan, Chandler collected career bests in completions (17), attempts (34) and passing yardage (195). He also threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in Iowa's upset win over then-No. 9 Michigan.

Against Arizona State, Chandler completed 15-23 passes for 154 yards, threw for three touchdowns and had one interception. He had thrown 67 passes (20 last season) before his first interception. The three scoring passes are the most for an Iowa QB since Brad Banks had four TD passes in an overtime win at Penn State last year.

Chandler directed the Iowa offense to its first victory over Iowa State in six tries in week three. Chandler completed 7-14 passes for 72 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed three times for 53 yards, including a career-long run of 42 yards in the second quarter.

Against Miami (OH), Chandler completed 12-19 for 129 yards, two touchdowns and 24 yards rushing. The native of Southlake, TX, was 6-6 for 37 yards on the Hawkeyes' first scoring drive and 7-7 for 40 yards in the first quarter. The scoring drive ended with Chandler's second career touchdown pass. Chandler threw the third touchdown of his career and the second of the game in the fourth quarter when he floated a 28-yard pass to Maurice Brown.

Chandler completed 8-11 passes for 113 yards and two touchdowns in Iowa's victory over Buffalo. He engineered touchdown drives on Iowa's first four possessions, before the coaching staff substituted Drew Tate late in the second quarter.

Chandler transferred to the University of Iowa after one season with Pasadena CC. Chandler saw action in five games last year. The native of Southlake, TX, completed 7-12 passes for 92 yards last year against Akron, which was his first game as a Hawkeye. Chandler threw his first touchdown pass, as a Hawkeye, in Iowa's convincing victory over Northwestern. Chandler finished the game completing 2-2 passes for 33 yards. He combined with QB Brad Banks' 10-10 for 197 yards to break the NCAA record for team passing percentage in a single game. The previous mark was 11-11.

Iowa held Ohio State to only one big play (34-yard passing play) and Purdue to two (20-yard rushing play and a 45-yard touchdown pass).

RUSSELL TOPS 1,000 YARDS

RB Fred Russell, who is a candidate for the Doak Walker Running Back of the Year Award, joined Sedrick Shaw (1994, 1995, 1996) and Ladell Betts (2000, 2001) as the only Iowa running backs to rush for over 1,000 yards in more than one season. On his last rushing attempt vs. Illinois, Russell scampered 14 yards for a touchdown, which also put him at 1,010 yards for the season. Last year, Russell rushed 220 times for 1,264 yards and nine touchdowns, becoming the 10th Iowa running back to surpass 1,000 yards in a season.

Last week vs. Minnesota, Russell rushed eight times for 23 yards. He also had two kickoff returns for 78 yards, including a 46-yard opening kickoff return that is the longest for the Hawkeyes this year and is a career long.

Against the Fighting Illini, Russell finished the game with 94 yards on 23 carries and two touchdowns. It marked the third time in his career that he rushed for two touchdowns in a game (vs. Akron and at Indiana – both in 2002).

Russell has rushed 243 times for 1,068 yards and five touchdowns. His 1,068 yards rank ninth on Iowa's single season rushing chart. Russell ranks second in the Big Ten and 28th nationally.

Russell led the Iowa offense in its victory over Penn State, rushing a career-high 36 times for 148 yards.

The native of Inkster, MI, has rushed for 100 yards or more in a game five times this year and 13 times in his career. He accomplished the feat in three consecutive games this year as Russell rushed 27 times for 154 yards vs. Arizona State, 23 times for 122 yards at Michigan State and 26 times for 110 yards vs. Michigan.

Russell started the 2003 campaign on the right foot as he rushed 22 times for 167 yards and one touchdown against Miami (OH). Additionally, Russell tallied the longest (66) and second-longest (58) runs of his career. Against Buffalo, Russell tallied 98 yards on 12 carries in a half of play against Buffalo. Russell ranks second in conference rushing (109.7) and sixth in all-purpose yards (110.7).

His career totals include 466 attempts for 2,450 yards and 15 touchdowns, which ranks sixth best for yardage among Iowa running backs. He is 84 yards from moving past Owen Gill (1982-85) for fifth. Russell's career 5.2 average ties for second all-time with Owen Gill (min. 400 attempts). Tavian Banks ranks first with a 5.9 average.

Russell was named to the first all-Big Ten coaches team last year, while he was a second team selection by the media. Russell ranked third in the Big Ten and 14th nationally in rushing (114.9) last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS SUCCESS

After a successful season last year, Iowa's special team continues to shine in 2003. Iowa has scored three special team and two defensive touchdowns this year.

Against Illinois, SS Bob Sanders scored his first career touchdown when he returned a fumble three yards for a touchdown. Against Penn State, LB Jermire Roberts scored his second career touchdown when he returned a blocked punt 26 yards for a score.

At Ohio State, the Hawkeyes scored a touchdown on a fake field goal. Holder David Bradley pitched the ball to place kicker Nate Kaeding, who ran five yards to the right corner of the end zone and scored.

At Iowa State, Sean Considine blocked two punts, both leading to points. Considine's first punt block was recovered in the end zone by Chris Smith, while Kaeding kicked a field goal after the second blocked punt. Against Michigan, DB Chris Smith blocked Iowa's third punt of the season in the third quarter that led to a Kaeding field goal.

Against Buffalo, Ramon Ochoa returned a punt 70 yards for a TD and Considine returned a fumble 18 yards for a score.

Iowa has returned 27 kickoffs for an average of 22.7, 41 punt returns for an average of 13.4. The Hawkeyes rank fourth in the Big Ten and 18th nationally in punt returns and second in the conference and 29th nationally in kickoff returns. Iowa's kickoff coverage unit yields 16.8 yards per return on 32 attempts, which ranks fourth in the Big Ten.

Last year, Iowa's special teams blocked four kicks (two punts, one field goal and one PAT attempt). All four blocks resulted in points for the Hawkeyes. Both blocked punts were recovered in the end zone, while the blocked field goal and PAT attempt were scooped up and returned for scores.

DEFENSE MAKES A STAND

- Iowa's defense has allowed only five field goals (15 points) in the second quarter and four touchdowns (28 points) in the third quarter this year. Iowa owns a 108-15 advantage in the second quarter and 94-28 in the third quarter.

- Iowa had four players post double figures in tackles last week vs. Minnesota (SS Bob Sanders – 16, LB Abdul Hodge – 16, LB Howard Hodges – 12, LB Chad Greenway – 10).

- Iowa's red zone defense is tops in the Big Ten. Hawkeye opponents score on only 63 percent (17-27) of their possessions inside the 20. The Hawkeyes have forced and recovered two fumbles on the goal line this year (at Ohio State and vs. Minnesota).

- Iowa's rushing defense has held seven of its last nine opponents to under 75 yards rushing. The Hawkeyes are the only team in the country to have held seven consecutive opponents to under 75 yards rushing. Purdue snapped Iowa's streak, rushing 44 times for 154 yards. Iowa State rushed for 71 yards on 40 attempts (1.78 avg.). Arizona State was held to 24 yards on 21 attempts (1.1 avg.), Michigan State collected only 45 yards on 32 carries (1.4 avg.), Michigan recorded 74 yards on 33 attempts (2.2 avg.), Ohio State collected 56 yards on 42 attempts (1.3 avg.), Penn State registered 38 yards on 28 carries (1.4 avg.), Illinois posted 59 yards on 26 attempts (2.3 avg.).

- The Hawkeyes held No. 24 Miami (OH) to three points in a 21-3 victory in week one. Since the week one loss to Iowa, the RedHawks have averaged 44.0 points per game and have won nine straight contests.

- Iowa's rushing defense has allowed only three plays of 20 yards or more this season. Iowa State's quarterback scrambled for a 25-yard touchdown in week three, Purdue running back Jerod Void had a 20-yard rush and Minnesota running back Thomas Tapeh had a 30-yard rush last week.

- The Hawkeyes have forced 18 fumbles this year, recovering 11. Iowa has returned two fumbles for touchdowns (Considine – 18 yards vs. Buffalo and Sanders – 3 yards vs. Illinois).

- Iowa held Penn State without a first down on its first four possessions. In addition, the Nittany Lions failed to convert on its first seven third down conversions and finished the game 2-15.

- Iowa has collected 30 sacks, which ranks fourth in the Big Ten.

- After gaining 16 yards on the first play of the second quarter (its longest play from scrimmage in the game), Arizona State went five straight possessions without a first down.

- After scoring on four of its first five possessions, Michigan failed to score on 11 of its last 12 possessions, which included a one play kneel down at the end of the half.

- Iowa's defense has allowed only 172 points (15.6) in 11 games, which ranks third in the Big Ten and ninth in the nation. Five of the opponents' 16 offensive touchdowns have come against Iowa's second team defense in the fourth quarter of three big wins (Buffalo, Iowa State, Illinois and Minnesota).

- DB Jovon Johnson leads the team with four interceptions this year. He collected his fifth and sixth career interception's in Iowa's season-opening win over Miami (OH). He recorded his seventh career theft in Iowa's win over Arizona State. Two of Johnson's four interceptions this year have come in the end zone.

- Iowa collected four interceptions against Miami (OH) quarterback and Heisman hopeful Ben Roethlisberger. It marked the first time Iowa collected four interceptions in a single-game since a 62-0 victory over Indiana in 1997. Iowa also had four interceptions in a win over Northern Iowa that season.

- Iowa's defense has collected 18 takeaways (11 interceptions and 9 fumbles).

- FS Sean Considine has collected two interceptions, two blocked punts and returned a fumble for a touchdown.

GAMES ON TELEVISION

Iowa's first nine games were televised. Iowa's game vs. Miami (OH) was shown to a national cable audience on ESPN2. Iowa's contest vs. Buffalo was televised by ESPN Plus. The Hawkeyes' game at Iowa State was televised on Fox Sports Net, while its game vs. Arizona State was on ESPN2. Iowa's conference opener at Michigan State was televised to a regional audience on ESPN Plus. ABC televised three consecutive Hawkeye games (vs. Michigan, at Ohio State and vs. Penn State). Iowa's game vs. Illinois was televised regionally on ESPN Plus. Iowa's last two contests (at Purdue and vs. Minnesota) were shown to a national cable audience on ESPN. Saturday's regular season finale at Wisconsin will be televised to a regional audience on ABC.

IOWA IN THE RED ZONE

The Hawkeyes have marched inside the red zone 46 times and scored 40 of those times (87.0%).

Iowa was a perfect 6-6 last week vs. Minnesota. The Hawkeyes scored three touchdowns and three field goals vs. the Golden Gophers. Iowa was also a perfect 6-6 vs. Illinois. The Hawkeyes posted four touchdowns and two field goals against the Fighting Illini.

Three of the Hawkeyes' red zone failures came when they had a comfortable lead and let the clock expire – once each against Miami (OH), Buffalo and Penn State. QB Nathan Chandler fumbled inside the five-yard line against Miami (OH) in Iowa's other scoring failure.

Hawkeye opponents have advanced inside the red zone 27 times and have scored 17 times (63.0%). Iowa's red zone defense ranks first in the Big Ten.

Last week, Minnesota was 3-6, scoring two touchdowns and one field goal. Iowa forced three fumbles inside its own 20, including one at the goal line. Purdue was 2-3, collecting two touchdowns. Penn State is Iowa's only opponent this year not to have an offensive possession reach the red zone. Ohio State failed to score any points on two possessions inside the red zone. A fumble on the goal line and a fumbled snap on a field goal attempt halted two potential scoring drives. Michigan was a perfect 3-3, scoring two touchdowns and converting a field goal. Michigan State scored on all four possessions inside the red zone. Iowa stopped Arizona State's only red zone scoring threat when DB Jovon Johnson intercepted a pass at the goal line. Buffalo and Iowa State each tallied touchdowns, while Miami (OH) kicked a field goal. Miami (OH) was 1-2, Buffalo was 1-1, while Iowa State was 1-3.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Iowa has scored 53 points off 20 turnovers (9 interceptions and 11 fumbles), plus an additional 19 points following four blocked punts (2 at Iowa State, 1 vs. Michigan and 1 vs. Penn State).

Iowa scored six points (2 field goals) following five Minnesota turnovers last week.

SS Bob Sanders scored his first career touchdown on a three-yard fumble return against Illinois.

WR Matt Melloy caught a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Chandler following a 47-yard fumble return by LB Abdul Hodge vs. Penn State.

The Hawkeyes scored 10 points after creating two turnovers at Iowa State. QB Nathan Chandler found WR Maurice Brown in the end zone for a 17-yard score after LB Grant Steen recovered a fumble and PK Nate Kaeding connected on a 19-yard field goal after Steen intercepted a pass.

Against Buffalo, DB Sean Considine scored his first career touchdown when he returned a fumble 18 yards for a score in the first quarter. Brown caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from Chandler after Considine intercepted his second pass in as many weeks in the second quarter.

Iowa scored seven points off four Miami (OH) turnovers, all of which were interceptions. DB Jovon Johnson intercepted Miami (OH) quarterback Ben Roethlisberger on its own 21-yard line and returned the pick to the one-yard line, with RB Fred Russell scoring two plays later. The Hawkeyes' other three interceptions came inside the opponents' red zone. Chris Smith recorded his second career interception on Iowa's own three-yard line. Considine collected his first career interception when he picked off Roethlisberger at the 19-yard line. Finally, Johnson recorded his sixth career interception, and second of the day, in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

Iowa has turned the ball over 18 times, including four at Michigan State and three times each at Ohio State and vs. Penn State. Iowa State, Michigan State and Penn State are the only opponents to score any points following an Iowa turnover. The Cyclones scored a touchdown, the Spartans tallied 13 points (1 touchdown and 2 field goals) and the Nittany Lions scored a touchdown following the Hawkeye miscues.

SCHEDULE OVERVIEW

For the second straight season and for the third time in four years, Iowa's regular season schedule includes 12 games. Iowa will again play seven games in Kinnick Stadium, where it posted a 6-1 mark last season. Eight of Iowa's 12 opponents posted a 5-3 record in post-season bowl games last season. The newest additions to the slate included Arizona State in the non-conference and Ohio State and Illinois in the Big Ten.

Iowa's 2003 schedule includes seven home games: Miami (OH), Buffalo, Arizona State, Michigan, Penn State, Illinois and Minnesota. Road games are at Iowa State, Michigan State, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin. Iowa's bye week was Oct. 11 and does not have to play consecutive road games for the time since 1999.

The Hawkeyes do not play Indiana or Northwestern this year or next. The last time Iowa did not play the Hoosiers was 1990, while 1970 was the last time the Wildcats were not on Iowa's schedule.

HOME GROWN HAWKEYES

Iowa's roster of 113 players includes 45 players from Iowa. The roster includes 13 players from Illinois, 12 from Texas, eight from Florida, five from New Jersey and California, four from Wisconsin and Minnesota, three from Connecticut, Pennsylvania, two from Arkansas, Michigan and South Carolina and one from Alabama, Kansas, Indiana, New York and South Dakota.

LESTER ERB HONORED

Iowa's Lester Erb was named the American Football Monthly Division I Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. The winner is selected based on each team's accomplishments on the field during the 2002 season. Erb is in his fourth season as the Hawkeyes' wide receivers and special teams coach. Under Erb's direction, Iowa's special teams excelled in the kickoff, punting, place-kicking and kick blocks categories. Iowa topped the nation in kickoff returns (25.1 yard average) last year and finished third in Big Ten punt returns (11.8). Four opponent kicks were blocked and all turned into scores for the Hawkeyes.

RON AIKEN ON NCAA COMMITTEE

Iowa defensive line coach Ron Aiken is one of four Big Ten assistant coaches to be chosen to participate in the first NCAA Advanced Coaching Program, which is a component of the NCAA Coaches Academy. Aiken, along with Michigan assistant head coach John Campbell, Michigan State running backs coach/recruiting coordinator Reginald Mitchell and Illinois assistant coach Donald Thompson were among the 20 coaches selected to attend the Academy.

The Academy is designed to assist minority coaches in excelling in head coaching positions, to enhance and strengthen the skills that many ethnic minority coaches currently possess and to provide exposure and networking opportunities for these coaches. The program will be held Jan. 2-4 in Orlando, FL, and precedes the American Football Coaches Association convention.

WATCHING FROM ABOVE

Iowa's coaches in the press box during the season are Lester Erb (receivers and special teams), along with quality control assistant Jon McLaughlin and graduate assistant coaches Michael Ketchum and A.J. Blazek. That leaves Ken O'Keefe (offensive coordinator), Norm Parker (defensive coordinator), Phil Parker (defensive backs), Carl Jackson (running backs), Reese Morgan (offensive line), Darrell Wilson (linebackers), Ron Aiken (defensive line) and Eric Johnson (tight ends) on the sidelines.

ROSE BOWL EXPERIENCE

Four members of the Iowa coaching staff have coached or played in the Rose Bowl. Kirk Ferentz coached in two Rose Bowl games while on the Iowa staff and Carl Jackson coached in three Rose Bowl games as an Iowa assistant coach. Norm Parker and Phil Parker both coached in the Rose Bowl while on the staff at Michigan State.
