

Men's Tennis Day 1 Recap at Purdue Invite

Action delayed due to inclement weather.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. – The first day of the Purdue invite was delayed three times due to inclement weather, forcing much of the action indoors. Due to the inclement weather, a number of singles and doubles matches scheduled for today were postponed and will resume play tomorrow morning. Eight of the nine Hawkeyes were able to play their singles matches today, with Michael Swank's opening match was delayed until tomorrow morning.

For the Hawkeyes, Brian Alden, Chase Tomlins, Nils Hallestrand and Andres Estenssoro all won their first round match and will advance onto the second round tomorrow.

Alden won his Flight B matchup against Freddy Abunk of Xavier 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. He moves on to face Mateus Silva (Purdue), the No. 3 seed in Flight B.

Tomlins defeated Derek Reinbold of Case Western by a 5-7, 7-6(5), 6-1 score to move on to face Gerard Guell of IPFW in the Flight C bracket.

Hallestrand, making his collegiate tennis debut, beat Rob Torsch of Xavier (score unavailable). He will play Pat O'Neill of IUPUI tomorrow in Flight C action.

Andres Estenssoro defeated Garret Cona of Toledo 7-5, 6-1. He will face Charlie Emhardt of Valparaiso.

Juan Estenssoro, Matt Hagan, Dominic Patrick and Joey White all lost their first round matches. They will begin play in their respective consolation brackets tomorrow morning.
