Post game comments by Minnesota Coach Cal Stoll:

"We were fortunate, we're glad we won."

"We thought we'd run into a hornets' nest down here today and we did."

"I don't know about Iowa-Minnesota football games, this is my first one, but I guess this was a typical one, huh?"

"We had to make a quick adjustment to their (Iowa's) unbalanced line. And we weren't ready for that guy -- what's his name, Ousley. His quick sprint-outs were effective."

"There were a lot of turning points in the game; there always are. But that long punt late in the game and then we came up with the safety as a result of it. That's makes a lot of difference, whether you're one point behind or one point ahead."

"I don't know of any names on Iowa that were impressive. I don't ever notice names, but I notice positions, and somebody on Iowa's defensive unit was playing some ball. Iowa's defense was good, I'll tell you that."

IOWA COACH FRANK LAUTERBUR

"I've never been more proud of any team during my entire coaching career than I am of this one. With just two minutes left in the game we stop them near the goal line and drive almost the length of the field. This team fought every second of the game and deserves more credit than they'll probably get."

"Skogman turned an ankle in the first half. He couldn't move very well on it. He just wasn't able to make the quick cuts a quarterback has to."

"We had planned to use the rollout a lot today, but had some missed balls early in the game."

"I thought Jensen had a fine game today and had a great effort on the TD run. Fetter had a tremendous effort on the long return."

"I think John Lawing is a fine quarterback and did a good job while he was in there. We made an adjustment to their option in the second half and shut it off pretty good. But the darn breakdowns and penalties hurt us again. We had them to the point where we could have broken the game open in the first half...but we just can't, for some reason, get over the hump."

"LaFleur is primarily responsible for stopping their no-huddle offense. He did a fine job of directing the team out there."

"We went out to win today and believe me, this team never quit once. They'll be back. Just give them a chance."
