The Match-Up

Northern Illinois will face its second Big Ten foe of the season on Thursday night when it travels to Iowa. The Huskies are still seeking the first win of the Mark Montgomery era after dropping a 59-57 decision to UW-Milwaukee last time out. NIU trailed by 12 at the half before staging a second half comeback that came up just short.

About Iowa

The Hawkeyes are 2-0 early in the 2011-12 season after posting victories over Chicago State and North Carolina A&T. Fran McCaffery is in his second season as the head coach in Iowa City, McCaffery led the Hawkeyes to an 11-20 record a season ago, 4-14 in the Big Ten Conference. Matt Gatens and Eric May lead the way for Iowa, Gatens is averaging 17.0 points per game and is coming off a career-best 27 against North Carolina A&T, while May is averaging 16.0 points per game.

Against the Hawkeyes

This is the sixth all-time meeting between the Huskies and Hawkeyes, Iowa has won each of the previous five. Four of the previous five meetings have taken place in Iowa City, including the most recent meeting, a 65-57 Hawkeye win on Dec. 6, 2003. The lone meeting in DeKalb took place on Nov. 29, 1980, a 61-47 victory for the Hawkeyes.

NIU Against the Big Ten

Northern Illinois is 7-43 all-time against current members of the Big Ten Conference. The Huskies' last win against a Big Ten team came on Dec. 14, 1999, when NIU won 55-51 at Wisconsin.

Montgomery Against Iowa

During his playing and coaching career at Michigan State, NIU head coach Mark Montgomery has faced off with Iowa 29 times, holding a 17-12 overall record against the Hawkeyes. Montgomery was 4-4 against Iowa as a player (1988-92) and 13-8 as a member of Tom Izzo's staff at Michigan State (2001-11).

Monty at Carver-Hawkeye

NIU head coach Mark Montgomery will be making his 14th trip to Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Montgomery is 5-8 in his previous 13 appearances in Iowa City. As a player at Michigan State, Montgomery and the Spartans went 2-2 on the road against the Hawkeyes. During his 10 seasons working under Tom Izzo, MSU had a 3-9 record at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Kids on the Floor

With a roster featuring eight freshmen, youth will definitely be served for the 2011-12 Huskies. Through the first two games of the season, just over 55 percent of the minutes played in the NIU lineup have been played by first year players.

Bolin Hits Career Bests

Aksel Bolin collected new career-highs in both rebounds and assists last time out against UW-Milwaukee (Nov. 14). Bolin grabbed nine rebounds and dished out four assists in the contest. The Asker, Norway native nearly recorded NIU's first double-double of the year, finishing with nine points to go along with his nine rebounds.

Balance Throughout the Lineup

Last time out against UW-Milwaukee, 10 different Huskies scored and all 11 Huskies that saw playing time recorded at least one rebound.

Bench Production

After getting just eight points from the bench in the season opener at Purdue, the Huskie reserves came up with a strong effort against UW-Milwaukee, outscoring the Panther bench 25-4. Zach Miller led the way for the NIU bench with nine points, seven of which came after halftime as the Huskies nearly overcame a 12-point halftime deficit to defeat UW-Milwaukee.

Twin Peaks

Freshmen twins Keith and Kevin Gray were the high rebounders in NIU's season opener against Purdue. Kevin Gray grabbed a game-high seven rebounds in 20 minutes of action while his brother Keith pulled down five rebounds in 16 minutes of play. No player for the Boilermakers grabbed more than five rebounds in the contest.

One of 56

Mark Montgomery is one of 56 new head coaches in NCAA Division I, and one of three new coaches in the Mid-American Conference. Montgomery joins Rob Murphy of Eastern Michigan and Rob Senderoff of Kent State as newcomers to the sidelines in the conference.

What's Back for the Huskies

Just five players return for NIU from the 2010-11 roster and the Huskies return the following percentages of production with those players:

- 33.8 percent of minutes played
- 32.0 percent of points scored
- 31.8 percent of rebounds
- 26.6 percent of assists
- 39.7 percent of blocks
- 27.4 percent of steals

A Third New Starter

In addition to Marquavese Ford and Abdel Nader, who both started their collegiate debut, Aksel Bolin also made his first career start in the season opener at Purdue. Bolin scored six points and grabbed three rebounds in his first career start.

Eight Make Their Debut

The eight freshmen on the NIU roster all made their collegiate debut in the season opener at Purdue. Two members of that freshmen class, Marquavese Ford and Abdel Nader, were in the starting lineup against the Boilermakers. In total, 124 of the 200 minutes played by the Huskies at Purdue were played by freshmen (62 percent).

Postseason Experience

The four coaches on the NIU staff (Mark Montgomery, Jon Borovich, Todd Townsend and Lou Dawkins), have made a combined 30 postseason appearances during their time in Division I college basketball, including 22 trips to the NCAA Tournament. The Huskie staff has a combined four Final Four appearances (three by Montgomery as a coach at MSU and one by Townsend as a player at Marquette).

Christian Looks to Build on End of Last Season

Antone Christian will look to build upon the strong finish he had to last season heading into 2011-12. Christian averaged 9.4 points per game over the final 14 games of last season. The Nashville, Tenn., native scored in double figures six times during those 14 contests, including a career-best 17 against Ohio (Feb. 5, 2011).

Putting in the Summer Work

Perhaps no player on the NIU roster has dedicated himself more to improving his game during the off-season than Tim Toler, as evidenced by his weight loss since last season. The Indianapolis, Ind., native has lost 40 pounds since last season, down to a playing weight near 260.

Mr. Inside and Mr. Outside

Tim Toler is Northern Illinois' leading returning scorer and rebounder, averaging 9.9 points and 5.5 rebounds a season ago. Not just a post player however, Toler shot 39.5 percent from three-point range last season (ninth-best in the Mid-American Conference), including 47.4 percent beyond the arc during conference play, third-best in the league.

The Familiar Five

Northern Illinois returns only five players from last season's roster (Aksel Bolin, Antone Christian, Tony Nixon, Tyler Storm and Tim Toler). Combined the quintet has appeared in 206 games entering the 2011-12 season.

Hello My Name Is...

A total of nine new faces are a part of the NIU roster for the 2011-12 season. The Huskies signed a pair of players, DeAndre Barnette and Zach Miller, last November. Four additional players joined the fold during the spring signing period, Marquavese Ford, Keith Gray, Kevin Gray and Abdel Nader. In addition, two recruited walk-ons were added to the Huskie roster, Stian Berg and Jeremiah Jackson, as well as Brandon Hayes who made the team during open tryouts in September.

Bringing in Winners

Among the six freshmen NIU signed for this season, all have come from winning high school programs. As seniors, the group had a combined record of 163-24, all six won conference championships, one (DeAndre Barnette) won a state championship and three more (Keith Gray, Kevin Gray and Zach Miller) had third-place state tournament finishes.

A First Since 1990

When the Huskies signed Abdel Nader last spring, he became the first Chicago Tribune All-State selection to sign with Northern Illinois since Mike Lipinsky in 1990. Nader was named to the Chicago Tribune All-State First Team along with Wayne Blackshear (Louisville), Ryan Boatright (Connecticut), Anthony Davis (Kentucky) and Chasson Randle (Stanford).

Nader Named Lindy's MAC Newcomer of the Year

Abdel Nader was named the Mid-American Conference Newcomer of the Year by Lindy's in their 2011-12 College Basketball Preview magazine. Nader averaged 23.8 points and 8.6 rebounds per game as a senior at Niles North High School, leading the school to its first-ever conference and sectional championships.

Huskies Picked to Finish 5th in MAC West

NIU was picked to finish in fifth-place in the Mid-American Conference West Division in the conference preseason media poll. Western Michigan was selected to win the MAC West, followed by Ball State, Central Michigan, Toledo, NIU and Eastern Michigan. In the MAC East, the media projected Kent State as the division winner, followed by Akron, Ohio, Miami, Buffalo and Bowling Green.

New Conference Tournament Format

The Mid-American Conference announced a new tournament format for this season. Like the previous format, seeds five through 12 will meet on campus sites in the first round. Those four winners will now meet in the second round in Cleveland, with the winners of those games advancing to meet seeds three and four in the third round. The top two seeds will receive byes to the semifinals where they will meet the third round winners.

NIU Inks Three for Class of 2012

NIU has inked a trio of players, Daveon "Petey" Balls, Mike Davis and Sam Mader to National Letters of Intent to join the Huskie men's basketball program next season. Balls is a 6-foot-1, 174-pound point guard out of Lawrence North High School in Indianapolis, Ind. Davis is a 6-foot-2, 185-pound shooting guard from Garfield Heights High School in Garfield Heights, Ohio. Mader is a 6-foot-9, 220-pound power forward from Appleton East High School in Appleton, Wis.

What Else is New

In addition to all of the changes the Huskies have experienced, one other rule change will be noticeable this season, the restricted area arc in the free-throw lane. Similar to the NBA rule, the restricted area will help officials determine block-charge fouls in the paint.

Looking Ahead

Northern Illinois will return home to the NIU Convocation Center on Sunday, Nov. 20, when the Huskies host Eastern Illinois at 1 p.m. The contest is a doubleheader with the NIU women who will host Temple at 3:30 p.m.

Mark Montgomery

Head Coach » Michigan State, 2003 First Season Overall » First at NIU

On March 24, 2011, Mark Montgomery was introduced as the 27th head coach in the history of the Northern Illinois University men's basketball program. Montgomery comes to NIU following 10 seasons at his alma mater, Michigan State University, six as an assistant coach and the last four as associate head coach.

Montgomery made 10 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament and three Final Four appearances with the Spartans since joining Tom Izzo's staff in 2001. He helped coach 26 All-Big Ten players at Michigan State and six players that went on to be selected in the National Basketball Association Draft, while on the bench for 235 MSU wins - an average of 23.5 victories per season.

In May of 2007, Montgomery was elevated to associate head coach by Michigan State head coach Tom Izzo.

During his 10-year coaching tenure with the Spartans, Montgomery mentored four players (Chris Hill, Kalin Lucas, Drew Neitzel and Travis Walton) that currently rank among the top-10 in career assists at Michigan State. In addition, Montgomery helped eight Spartan perimeter players reach the 1,000-point plateau in his time on the Michigan State staff and helped Lucas earn Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 2009 and Walton earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year recognition that same season.

Montgomery began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Central Michigan where he became a member of Jay Smith's first coaching staff in 1997-98. Following a 6-23 season in 1999-2000, the Chippewas made a worst-to-first turnaround the following season as they finished the 2000-01 campaign with a 20-8 record, winning the MAC with a conference mark of 14-4.

An outstanding player during his collegiate career, Montgomery was a four-year letterwinner at Michigan State from 1988-92. A 1992 All-Big Ten Third Team selection, Montgomery ended his career as the then-career leader in games played at MSU (126). A four-year starter for the Spartans, he was part of the 1990 Big Ten Championship team, three NCAA Tournament teams and an NIT Final Four. Montgomery ranks fourth on the career assists chart (561) after leading the team in assists as a junior (169) and senior (190).

He also ranks third on the MSU career steals list (168).

Montgomery averaged 5.3 points and 4.5 assists in his four years as a Spartan. In 1991-92, he averaged 7.0 points and 6.3 assists as a senior co-captain, leading his team to a 22-8 mark and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Montgomery was also a two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree during his playing days as a Spartan.

Following his collegiate career, Montgomery played four years of professional basketball in Europe. He averaged more than 25 points a game during his time playing in Germany, Lithuania and Sweden.

Montgomery received his bachelor's degree in food industry management from Michigan State. His family includes his wife, Alexandra.

MONTGOMERY'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent 10 seasons at Michigan State, six as an assistant coach and four as associate head coach. The Spartans advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of the 10 seasons, including three appearances in the Final Four (2005, 2009, 2010).
- Helped coach 26 All-Big Ten players at Michigan State and six players that went on to be selected in the NBA Draft.
- Has helped Michigan State rank in the top 25 nationally in defensive points allowed, defensive field goal percentage and rebounding margin in three of the last four seasons.
- Michigan State led the nation in rebounding margin in 2008-09 and 2009-10.
- In 2010, Montgomery was named by FoxSports.com as one of the top five high-major assistant coaches in the country.
- Named the top assistant coach in the Big Ten by national college basketball writer Jeff Goodman, based on a poll of league coaches.
- The conference championship was the first for Central Michigan since 1987 and the school recorded only its second 20-win season since 1976.
- Named to the All-Big Ten Third Team as a senior in 1992 and also served as a team captain that season.
- Played on the 1990 Big Ten championship team at Michigan State. Appeared in three NCAA Tournaments and an NIT Final Four as a player with the Spartans.
- Four-year starting guard still ranks third all-time in Michigan State history in steals (168) and fourth in assists (561).
- Twice earned Academic All-Big Ten honors during his playing career.

2010-11: BOX SCORES

NIU: 34

Purdue: 96

November 11, 2011 • Mackey Arena
West Lafayette, Ind.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. -- The Northern Illinois men's basketball fell, 96-34, to Purdue in its season opener on Friday night on rededication night at Mackey Arena. Senior forward Tim Toler led the Huskies with 11 points.

Freshman wing Abdel Nader added nine points while freshman forward Kevin Gray grabbed a game-high seven rebounds. Purdue was led by All-American Robbie Hummel who scored a game-high 21 points.

The tenacious Boilermaker defense helped force NIU into 24.6 percent (14-of-57) shooting from the field and 28 turnovers as Purdue won its 18th-straight home game at Mackey Arena, tied for the third-longest home win streak in venue history.

Purdue jumped out to a quick start, scoring the first seven points of the contest before Nader got the Huskies on the scoreboard with a jumper from the right elbow.

The Boilermaker lead grew to 18-2 with 13:37 to play in the first half as Purdue opened the game 4-of-6 from beyond the three-point arc.

Following a timeout, Nader found sophomore guard Aksel Bolin at the basket to end the 11-0 Purdue run. The Huskies slowed down the Boilermaker momentum following the Bolin bucket, holding Purdue without a field goal for nearly five minutes.

Purdue pushed its lead to 46-17 with a 15-2 run late in the first half before Toler buried a triple from the wing just before the buzzer as the sounded to end the opening 20 minutes.

The Boilermakers shot 44.1 percent in the first half (15-of-34), including 46.2 percent from beyond the three-point arc (6-of-13), while holding NIU to just 26.7 percent shooting (8-of-30).

Purdue was red-hot out of the locker room in the second half, connecting on three triples in the first two minutes. The Boilermakers made 8-of-15 three-point attempts in the second half and finished the game 14-of-28 from beyond the arc.

NIU: 57

UW-Milwaukee: 59

November 14, 2011 • NIU Convocation Center
DeKalb, Ill.

DEKALB, Ill. -- Trailing by 12 at halftime, the Northern Illinois men's basketball team fought back saw its second half rally come up just short, falling 59-57 to UW-Milwaukee on Monday night at the NIU Convocation Center. Senior forward Tim Toler led the Huskies with 11 points and sophomore guard Aksel Bolin scored nine points and grabbed a career-best nine rebounds.

NIU held UW-Milwaukee to just 25.8 percent (8-of-31) shooting in the second half. The Huskies outscored the Panthers 25-4 off the bench, including nine from freshman guard Zach Miller; 10 different Huskies scored in the contest.

Both teams started slowly offensively, each going 2-of-7 from the floor to open the contest. Leading by a pair, Milwaukee used an 11-4 run to take a 17-8 lead just past the midway point of the opening half.

Toler converted an old-fashioned three-point play to cut the gap to six, but the Panthers scored the next five to push the lead to double figures, 22-11, with 6:25 to play before the half.

UW-Milwaukee extended its lead to 14, its largest lead of the half, with nine seconds left in the half before Miller hit a floater as time expired to cut the Panther lead to 35-23 at the intermission.

Trailing by 11 early in the second half, freshman wing Abdel Nader converted a three-point play and freshman guard Stian Berg made a layup on the break to pull NIU within a half-dozen, 37-31, with 16:13 left in the second half.

Following a timeout, freshman forward Keith Gray knocked down a 15-footer and freshman forward Kevin Gray put home a layup to pull the Huskies within a pair, 37-35.

A pair of free throws from Bolin brought the Huskies within one, 39-38, and a baseline jumper from Toler gave NIU the lead with just over 11 minutes remaining.

The lead swung back-and-forth until the Panthers, leading by one, used a five-point burst to take a 51-45 lead with just under four minutes to play.

NIU got back within three on four different occasions but was unable to get any closer until Miller nailed a triple with five seconds left.

After a Huskie foul, Paris Gully split a pair of free throws for Milwaukee and sophomore guard Antone Christian's desperation heave came up short as the Panthers escaped with a two-point win.
