This Week

Iowa will be visiting the Indiana Hoosiers (1-0,9-1) at 3 p.m. Friday in Bloomington, IN.

Last Week

The University of Iowa field hockey team lost both games in overtime. On Friday, Michigan beat the Hawkeyes 2-1. Lauren Pfeiffer scored the Hawkeyes only goal of the game. Ohio State defeated the Hawkeyes 4-3 on Sunday. Two of Iowa's three goals came from Kara Zappone.

During the first 15 minutes of play Lissa Munley, Iowa goalkeeper, was tested with a number of shots. She was able to save five shots that were blasted her way, but the sixth shot snuck past her for the first goal of the game. After a timeout was called by Iowa's Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum, the Hawkeyes took the field with a newfound energy. They marched down the field and took four shots in a short amount of time. On a penalty corner during the 32nd minute Sickel pushed the ball to Pfeiffer who smashed it past the Wolverine defense tying the score 1-1. The score remained tied throughout the half.

During the second half, the Hawkeyes were very aggressive and moved the ball extremely well. Iowa out-shot Michigan 6-0 and out cornered them 4-1 during the second half, but the Hawkeyes were unable to get the ball into the goal. The score remained tied 1-1 at the end of regulation and the teams were headed for overtime.

No. 6 Ohio State improved their record to 7-0 overall and 1-0 in the Big Ten Conference after Sunday's win over the Hawkeyes.

Iowa scored first when junior Lindsey Duffy tipped her third goal of the season during the 17th minute. Ohio State bounced back, scoring two goals within five minutes of each other, making the score 2-1 in favor of Ohio State.

Early in the second half Hawkeye goalkeeper Munley saved two consecutive shots but on the second rebound Ohio State slipped the ball past Munley to make the score 3-1. A couple of minutes later Kara Zappone controlled a rebound and blasted the ball past the Buckeye goalkeeper. The Hawkeyes were encouraged by Zappone's goal and began to increase the pace of the game. With only 3 minutes left the Hawkeyes were awarded a penalty corner. Pfeiffer took a shot but it was saved, and once again Zappone controlled the rebound and put the ball into the goal for her second of the game and fourth of the season. The game remained tied at the end of regulation.

During overtime, Iowa was able to hold the Buckeyes from scoring on their first penalty corner. However, during the 97th minute Iowa was not able to stop them on their second corner. Yesenia Lucas scored her second goal, winning the game for the Buckeyes.
