IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

McMAHON'S HAT TRICK LEADS HAWKEYES TO 4-1 WIN OVER INDIANA

BLOOMINGTON, IN – The University of Iowa field hockey team defeated the Indiana Hoosiers, 4-1, Sunday afternoon in Bloomington.

Margot McMahon led the way with a hat trick. It was the second-career three-goal game for the St. Louis native.

Senior goalkeeper Barb Weinberg got the win, making six saves.

The Hawkeyes (4-5, 1-1) opened the scoring in the final five minutes of the first half on McMahon's first goal of the game.

Indiana (6-4) tied the game at 46:53 with a goal from Lydia Schrott on a penalty corner. McMahon re-gained the lead for the Hawkeyes four minutes later with her second unassisted goal.

Freshman Caroline Blaum scored her first career goal at the 56:18 mark off an assist from senior Sarah Dawson. McMahon added an insurance goal on a penalty stroke with 1:32 left in the game.

Iowa returns to action Thursday, October 7 against Pacific. The game will start at 3 p.m. and be played on Grant Field.
