Alford holds a career record of 293-173 (.629), including a 137-96 (.588) record at Iowa, a 78-29 (.729) record in four seasons (1992-95) at Div. III Manchester College and a four-year record (1996-99) of 78-48 (.619) at Southwest Missouri State. Alford ranks fourth among Iowa's head basketball coaches in career wins, just two wins from third place. Alford's 293 career victories are the most in the nation among all head coaches who are 42-years old or younger.

Alford has posted a 13-5 record in the Big Ten Conference Tournament, leading the Hawkeyes to the tournament title in both 2001 and 2006. His total wins and winning percentage in the event rank tops among all Big Ten coaches. Alford is 52-60 (.464) in Big Ten games after leading Iowa to a second place finish (11-5) in the 2006 regular season. Alford is 8-7 in the NCAA Tournament (3-4 in Div. I and 5-3 in Div. III) and 2-4 in the NIT.

Alford is the only Iowa coach to lead his Hawkeye teams to six consecutive winning seasons. Iowa has advanced to post-season action in each of the past six years and the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games in three of his seven seasons. Alford led Iowa into the second round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament in his second season and the Hawkeyes returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and 2006. Iowa advanced to the NIT in 2002, 2003 and 2004.

Alford led Southwest Missouri State to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1999 and in 1995 Manchester advanced to the NCAA championship game before suffering its first defeat of the season.

Alford is a 1987 graduate of Indiana, where he led the Hoosiers to the 1987 NCAA title. Alford was a member of the 1984 U. S. Olympic team that earned the Gold Medal and he was the 26th player selected in the NBA Draft following his senior season. Alford played four seasons in the NBA before beginning his coaching career.

At Indiana, Alford started 120 of 125 games in four seasons. He served as team captain in 1987 when the Hoosiers were 30-4. Steve concluded his college career as Indiana's all-time scoring leader with 2,438 points and he holds the Indiana record for career steals with 178. He was a consensus first team All-American and the Big Ten MVP as a senior.

Alford is a member of the Manchester College M Association Hall of Fame and the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2001 he was named one of the "Top 50 Athletes" in the history of the state of Indiana and was selected as a member of the 15-man Indiana University all-Century team. In 2004 he was one of five players selected to ESPN's Big Ten Conference Silver Anniversary team.

Alford is 1-0 vs. Texas-Pan American and has not coached against Bronc Coach Tom Schubert.

Schuberth, a native of Chicago, attended Mississippi State, where he was a three-time letterman and two-year starter. He ranked third in the Southeastern Conference in assists during the 1979-80 season. He attended Nevada-Las Vegas as a freshman, where he was a member of UNLV's Final Four team in 1977.

Schuberth has not coached against Iowa or Hawkeye Coach Steve Alford.

THE SERIES

Iowa holds a 2-0 series advantage over Texas-San Pan American. The Hawkeyes defeated the Broncs 110-64 in December, 1987 and 85-29 in December, 1992. Both previous meetings were regular season games and both were played in Iowa City.

IOWA/UTPA NOTES

- Coach Steve Alford is 1-0 against Texas-Pan American, and it is likely a win he remembers. That victory was an 83-71 win for Southwest Missouri State over the Broncs on Nov. 25, 1995 is Alford's first game on the Division I level after he had coached four seasons at Manchester College.
- UTPA's Tom Schuberth spent two years as a member of the California Chiefs, the opposing team of the Harlem Globetrotters. Schuberth served under Coach Kirk Speraw for four seasons at Central Florida. Speraw is a former Iowa basketball letterman.
- UTPA's Colin Lien, who averages 11.8 points and 6.7 rebounds, is a native of Waterloo. Lien is a senior at Texas-Pan American who attended Southeastern Community College in Burlington.
- UTPA's Larry Sheppard attended Iowa Western Community College before attending UTPA.
- UTPA Athletic Director Scott Street is a former Iowa student trainer.

- UTPA assistant Ben Johnson was a member of the Minnesota basketball team for two seasons (2003-04).

IOWA NOTES

- Iowa recently completed a five-game road swing that saw the Hawkeyes travel nearly 8,000 miles while competing in the Paradise Jam in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, along with playing single games at Arizona State and Virginia Tech. Including its opening game at home, Iowa has played in four different time zones (Atlantic, Eastern, Central, Mountain) through its first six games. This marks the first time since early in the 2000-01 season that Iowa has played five straight games away from home. Like this season, that five-game stretch in 2000-01 also included three games at a neutral site (Rainbow Classic). Iowa's longest consecutive road game streak under Steve Alford occurred in 1999-00 when the Hawkeyes played at Northern Iowa, Iowa State, Missouri and Drake, winning two of the four.
- Six games into the season, Iowa has already played opponents from four of the stronger leagues in the nation, including the Southeastern (Alabama), Big East (Villanova), Pac-10 (Arizona State) and Atlantic Coast (Virginia Tech).
- Senior guard Adam Haluska was recently named one of 50 candidates named to the pre-season Watch List for the Naismith Award, which goes annually to the Player of the Year.
- With 18 points in Iowa's loss to Villanova, senior Adam Haluska became the 39th Hawkeye player to surpass 1,000 career points. Haluska is in his third season at Iowa and has 1,050 points to rank 36th on Iowa's career list. His career total, including one season at Iowa State, stands at 1,334.
- Freshman Tyler Smith was named to the all-tournament team at the Paradise Jam. Smith scored in double figures in all three games. He led Iowa to its win over Toledo on the first round, collecting 28 points, six rebounds and five assists. Smith added 19 points in the loss to 10th-ranked Alabama and 13 points in the loss to Villanova.

HAWKEYE TIDBITS

- Three Hawkeye opponents, Alabama, Villanova and Arizona State, have all shot better than 50% from the field. In 34 games a year ago, Iowa allowed just three opponents to shoot as well as 50% from the field. Those were road games at Michigan State, Purdue and Minnesota, with Iowa losing two of the three. Iowa is 4-11 over the past four seasons when its opponent shoots 50% or better from the field.

History & Record Book Online

Iowa's History and Record Book, the supplement to the 2006-07 basketball media guide, is available online at hawkeyesports.com, the official website of the University of Iowa athletic department. After opening the Iowa website, click on Men's Basketball at the top of the page under "The Hawkeyes". Once at the basketball site, click on the History and Record Book on the right side of the page under the Stats and More heading. Copies of the History and Record Book are also available through the UI Sports Information office.

Freshman Tyler Smith and sophomore Cyrus Tate led Iowa on the boards, as each collected seven rebounds. Smith also added five assists and two steals, while Johnson added six rebounds and junior center Seth Gorney had five.

TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN DEFEATS ARLINGTON

Texas-Pan American earned a measure of revenge with a 74-73 home win Monday evening over Texas-Arlington, avenging its only loss of the young season. Texas-Pan American trailed 58-47 with 10 minutes remaining before rallying for the win. The Broncs tied the game at 69-69 with 3:29 remaining and again at 73-73 in the final minute. UTPA's Zach Trader hit a free throw with less than a second remaining to provide the winning margin after being fouled while grabbing a defensive rebound.

Brian Burrell led the Broncs with 26 points, connecting on 10-15 field goals. He also added six rebounds and five assists. Trader collected 12 points and Colin Lien added 10 points, nine rebounds and five assists.

IOWA HOME STREAK RANKS THIRD

Iowa currently holds the third longest home winning streak in the nation. Iowa won all 17 home games a year ago and has won 19 straight dating back to the final home game of the 2005 season. Iowa's last home loss was a 75-65 decision to Illinois on Feb. 19, 2005.

Last season marked Iowa's first unbeaten home season in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, which opened in 1983. The 17 victories set a school record for home wins in a season. The Hawkeyes lost just one home game in 1993 (15-1) and 1996 (14-1).

- Iowa is 0-0 when scoring 80 points or more, 2-0 when scoring between 70-80 points, 0-4 when scoring between 60-70 points and 0-0 when scoring less than 60 points.
- Iowa is 1-0 when holding its opponent to less than 60 points, 1-2 when holding its opponent between 60-70 points and 0-2 when the opponent scores over 70 points.
- Iowa is 1-1 when collecting more assists than the opponent and 1-3 when the opponent has more assists.
- Iowa is 1-2 when having fewer turnovers than its opponent and 1-2 when the opponent has fewer turnovers.
- Iowa is 0-2 when collecting more steals than its opponent, 1-2 when the opponent has more steals and 1-0 when steals are equal.
- Iowa has had four players score in double figures in one game (Toledo) and three players score in double figures in three games. Iowa is 1-0 when four reach double figures, and 0-3 with three score in double figures and 0-2 with two players in double figures.
- Iowa is 2-1 when leading at halftime and 0-3 when trailing at intermission.
- Iowa is 2-2 when controlling the opening tip and 0-2 when not controlling the tip.
- Iowa is 0-1 in games decided by 10 points or less and 0-2 in games decided by five points or less.

OVERCOMING DEFICITS

The biggest deficit Iowa has overcome to get a victory is six points, that vs. Toledo.

The biggest deficit overcome by an Iowa opponent is 12 points, that by Arizona State.

SCORING BY HALVES

Iowa has outscored its opponents 182-180 in the first half and has been outscored 235-220 in the second half. Iowa has led at halftime in two of six games and the Hawkeyes have outscored their opponent in the second half in three games.

IOWA RALLYS IS SHORT AT VA TECH

Iowa rallied in the closing minutes at Virginia Tech, only to see the effort come up short in a 69-65 loss to the Hokies Wednesday night in Blacksburg, VA. VA Tech used a 10-0 scoring run late in the first half to break an 18-18 tie and take a 30-21 at halftime.

The Hokies increased the advantage to as many as 16 points in the second half and led by 15 points with 4:43 before rallied. Taking advantage of missed free throws by VA Tech, Iowa cut the margin to five points with 55 seconds left and to four with 33 seconds to play. The Hokies made just enough free throws to hold on for the win.

Iowa shot 42.6% from the field, including 45% from three-point range and added 10-13 (76.9%) free throws. The Hawkeyes also won the rebounding battle by a 37-31 margin.

Turnovers proved to be the difference in the game. Virginia Tech forced 19 Iowa turnovers and scored 25 points off those mistakes. The Hokies had just eight turnovers and Iowa scored just six points following those errors.

Senior Adam Haluska once again led Iowa's scoring with 24 points, and he connected in 9-17 field goals overall and 5-10 three-pointers before leaving the game with 39 seconds remaining with a sprained ankle. Tony Freeman added 11 points and Justin Johnson scored nine, all on three-point baskets.

The 19-game streak is a new mark for Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa's record for consecutive home wins is 24. That streak began in 1946-47 and ended in 1948-49. Last season marked Iowa's seventh perfect home season in school history and the first since 1966.

Iowa's current streak of 24 consecutive non-conference home wins ranks 14th-longest among Division I programs. That streak dates back to the final home game of the 2002-03 season, an NIT loss to Georgia Tech. Following is a list of the current longest home court winning streaks:

1.	Gonzaga	44
2.	Connecticut	25
3.	IOWA	19
	Akron	19
	Air Force	19

HENDERSON NEAR RETURN TO ACTION

Senior guard Mike Henderson, who has been out of action since suffering a hand injury in practice on Oct. 30, is close to his return. Henderson suffered a fracture to the pinkie finger on his right hand and underwent surgery two days later. Henderson had the cast removed on Monday, Nov. 27. Henderson could see limited action this weekend.

Henderson (6-3, 200), a Waterloo, IA native, started all 34 games a year ago. He averaged 7.6 points and 3.9 rebounds per outing while shooting 46.4% from three-point range. He earned the team "Most Improved Award" at the conclusion of the season.

As a junior Henderson scored in double figures in 11 games. He matched a career-high with 17 points in a win at Purdue and scored 16 points vs. Michigan State in the Big Ten Tournament and in a home win over Penn State. Henderson added 15 points and seven rebounds in an early season win over ninth-ranked Kentucky as Iowa was 11-0 when he scored in double figures.

THE HAWKEYE ROSTER

The Iowa roster includes 14 players. One of those players, David Palmer, will redshirt as a transfer from another Division I program. The squad includes two seniors, three juniors, six sophomores and three freshmen. Nine of the players are in their first year with the Iowa program.

Along with the four Iowans on the roster, there are two players from Illinois, Indiana and Tennessee and one from California, Ohio and Texas and St. John's, Antigua.

THE RETURNING CAST

Iowa returns two starters and five lettermen from 2006. The returning starters include seniors Adam Haluska and Mike Henderson, who each started all 34 games last season. Haluska was a third team all-Big Ten selection and an academic all-American.

With just five players returning from a year ago, Iowa returns 38.8% of its scoring, 27.9% of its rebounding, 40.8% of its assists and 41.8% of its steals. Iowa's returning players shot 42.9% from the field, 34.9% from three-point range and 77.4% from the free throw line.

HALUSKA OVER 1,000 POINTS

Guard Adam Haluska heads into his final season as Iowa's most honored player, both on the court and off. Along with earning third team all-Big Ten honors a year ago, Haluska is a two-time academic all-Big Ten honoree and a year ago he was recognized as an academic all-American.

Haluska has earned the Chris Street Award, one of the top Iowa team awards presented at the end of each season, in each of the past two years. Last season he was also named to the NABC District 12 all-District second team and he was a member of the all-tournament team in both the Hawkeye Challenge and the Guardians Classic.

Haluska surpassed 1,000 career points with his career-high 29-point performance in a win at Penn State last season. He has 1,334 points in his career, with 1,050 of those coming with the Hawkeyes. His 185 three-point field goals attempts last season rank sixth best at Iowa. He ranks sixth in career three-point field goals (140) and career attempts (389).

Haluska began the season with 29 points in the win over The Citadel, matching his career high. He also added five rebounds and six assists. He added 10 points and five rebounds in the win over Toledo and 18 points vs. Villanova. Haluska increased his consecutive free throw streak to 21 (including three last season) before missing his final attempt vs. Villanova. He added 24 points, four rebounds, three assists and two steals vs. Arizona State and had 24 points at Virginia Tech, hitting 9-17 field goals (5-10 treys).

He scored in double figures in 27 of 34 games a year ago and was named co-Big Ten Player of the Week for his play in wins over Indiana and Ohio State. He averaged 13.9 points and 4.7 rebounds and led Iowa in steals in 11 games.

Haluska has started all 104 games he has played in his career. His consecutive starts streak ranks 10th longest among all Division I players, according to STATS -- Chicago.

HENDERSON NUMBERS IMPROVED

Guard Mike Henderson played a key role in Iowa's 2006 success, improving his numbers in several categories from his sophomore season while earning the team "Most Improved Award". Henderson matched his career scoring high with 17 points in the win at Purdue. Henderson led Iowa in a home win over Penn State, collecting 16 points while connecting on 6-7 field goals and 3-4 free throws.

Henderson averaged 7.6 points and 3.9 rebounds per outing, improving his shooting to 48.7%. In Big Ten games only, he ranked sixth in league field goal percentage (54.9%). Henderson scored in double figures in 11 games after scoring 10 or more points just three times in his first two seasons.

Hawkeyes Add Three Recruits

Iowa basketball has signed three recruits, all high school seniors, to join the program next season.

Those players include guard Dairese Gary from Concord HS in Elkhart, IN, forward Jake Kelly from Carmel HS in Carmel, IN and forward Jarryd Cole from Winnetonka HS in Kansas City, MO.

Gary (6-1, 205) has been in the starting line-up at Concord since his freshman season. As a junior, he averaged 22.3 points, four rebounds and two assists per game and was team captain. He has scored 896 career points heading into his final season after averaging 11 points a game as a sophomore.

Gary was a unanimous first team all-conference selection in the Northern Lakes Conference after earning honorable mention recognition as a sophomore. He was named to all-area and all-sectional teams and selected to the Indiana Junior All-Stars.

Gary helped a veteran Concord team post a 22-2 record his sophomore season, winning the sectional title. With a young team a year ago Concord posted an 11-10 record. In summer action, Gary has played with the Indiana Elite AAU team each of the past three summers.

Cole (6-7, 240), a native of Gladstone, MO, averaged 19 points and 14 rebounds per game as a junior at Winnetonka HS and is regarded as a relentless rebounder. He attended Iowa's Elite Camp this summer and had a solid summer with his Kansas City area AAU team.

Kelly (6-5, 175) is considered to be an outstanding shooter. He averaged 11.3 points, 4.9 rebounds and 2.3 assists as a prep junior. He made a solid impression at the Adidas Superstar Camp last spring and continued to shine throughout the summer.

Kelly helped his prep team post a 17-7 mark a year ago, shooting 51.2% from the field, 35% from three-point range and 81.8% from the free throw line. Guard Tony Freeman had a solid first season with the Hawkeyes a year ago and played well in Iowa's opening win. Freeman had a career high 11 assists and six rebounds in the opening game of the season. He added a career-best eight rebounds in the win over Toledo and added 16 points, four rebounds and three assists against Alabama. He led Iowa with five assists vs. Villanova and added 11 points (4-5 FGs, 2-2 FTs) against Virginia Tech.

Freeman, last season, played in 33 of 34 games, with four starts in the non-conference season. Freeman averaged 3.4 points and 1.3 rebounds and collected 53 assists and 19 steals. He is averaging 7.7 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.9 assists per game.

LOOBY HITS THE BOARDS

After sitting out last season as a redshirt, junior Kurt Looby began to prove that his hard work from a year ago will pay dividends. Looby led Iowa with 14 rebounds in the win over The Citadel and added three blocked shots as well. After playing just two minutes in the first half against Toledo, he ended the game with 13 points and nine rebounds, all in the second half. Looby added 13 points, seven rebounds and three blocked shots vs. Villanova and he added six points, four rebounds and three blocked shots vs. Virginia Tech. His 25 minutes of action in each of Iowa's first two games more than doubled his previous high (12 minutes vs. Penn State) and he played 28 minutes vs. Alabama.

TATE ON TARGET IN FIRST ACTION

Sophomore forward Cyrus Tate connected on 6-7 field goal attempts to score 13 points vs. The Citadel in his first action as a Hawkeye. It was more of the same in Iowa's win over Toledo as Tate hit 3-5 field goals and 3-4 free throws, collecting nine points, seven rebounds and two steals in 18 minutes. IOWA SEEKS SEVENTH STRAIGHT

Iowa, in 2007, is seeking its seventh consecutive winning season. The current streak of six straight ranks as the second longest in the history of Iowa basketball. Iowa's record for consecutive winning seasons is seven, from 1950 through 1956. Pops Harrison, Bucky O'Connor and Rollie Williams all coached the Hawkeyes during those years. Only a 10-10 record in 1949 kept Iowa from 13 consecutive winning seasons (1944-56).

Harrison coached Iowa to five straight winning seasons from 1944-48, Lute Olson coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1979-83, George Raveling and Tom Davis combined to coach Iowa to winning seasons from 1985-89 and Davis coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1995-99. Iowa had five consecutive winning seasons on three occasions, 1979-83, 1985-89 and 1995-99.

Iowa is one of four Big Ten teams to post a winning record in each of the last six seasons, joining Illinois, Michigan State and Wisconsin. Iowa, in 2006, advanced to post-season play for the sixth straight season and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season.

Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series

Iowa currently leads the third annual Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series 5-2. Iowa was victorious in women's soccer (1-0, OT) and football (27-17), while Iowa State won volleyball (3-2).

The University of Iowa captured the inaugural Cy-Hawk Series in 2005 registering a 13-8 margin of victory. Iowa State evened the competition with its 13-8 triumph in 2006.

The nine-sport series awards two points (except football, which is worth three) to the winning school in each head-to-head match-up between the two institutions. Additionally, two points are awarded to an institution if the graduation rate of its student-athletes is greater than the national average as reported each fall by the NCAA. Iowa has earned the academic points in both 2005 and 2006, whereas Iowa State has failed to earn the extra points. Iowa garnered a 69% graduation rate in 2005, which was seven points higher than the national average of 62 percent.

For the first time in three years, volleyball was added to the competitive slate between the two schools. A new total of 21 points is up for grabs in 2006-07.

A commemorative Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series Cup, which stands 31 inches tall and weighs 19 pounds, is displayed on the winning team's campus for an entire year after a victory. Replica cups are also presented as "traveling trophies" for individual victorious teams in the head-to-head competition.

Here is the Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series schedule for 2006-07:

Date	Event	Site/Result
8/26	Volleyball (2 points)	L, 3-2
9/12	Soccer (2 points)	W, 1-0 (OT)
9/16	Football (3 points)	W, 27-17

Academic Opportunities

Two points for an institution if the student-athlete graduation rate for all student-athletes is greater than the national average for all student-athletes, according to the annual graduation rate report issued each September/October by the NCAA.

IOWA VS. RANKED FOES

Steve Alford has posted a 28-35 record against ranked opponents as Iowa's head coach, including a 10-4 mark in 2005-06. Iowa has played one ranked opponent this season, dropping a 72-60 decision to 10th-ranked Alabama.

The Hawkeyes, last season, defeated seventh-ranked Kentucky (67-63), 21st-ranked North Carolina State (45-42), sixth-ranked Illinois (63-48), 11th-ranked Indiana (73-60), 16th-ranked Ohio State (67-62), 20th-ranked Michigan (94-66), 21st-ranked Indiana (70-67), 16th-ranked Michigan State (66-54), 25th-ranked Wisconsin (59-44) and seventh-ranked Ohio State (67-62). Iowa dropped a 68-59 decision to second-ranked Texas, fell 66-52 at 24th-ranked Wisconsin, was defeated 85-55 at 11th-ranked Michigan State and lost at eighth-ranked Illinois, 71-59.

Alford's Hawkeye teams are 9-15 when playing teams ranked in the top 10, including wins over top-ranked Connecticut (70-68 in 1999-00), second-ranked Missouri (83-65 in 2001-02), fifth-ranked Ohio State (67-64 in 1999-00), sixth-ranked Illinois (63-48 in 2006), seventh-ranked Ohio State (67-60 in 2005-06), seventh-ranked Kentucky (67-63 in 2005-06), seventh-ranked Illinois (78-62 in 2000-01), eighth-ranked Illinois (68-61 in 2002-03) and 10th-ranked Michigan State (71-69 in 2005).

The 15 losses to top 10 teams have been three times to No. 1 (Duke, 2001-02 and Illinois twice in 2004-05), once to second-ranked (Texas, 2005-06), once to third-ranked (Illinois, 2000-01), twice to fourth-ranked (Michigan State, 1999-00 and 2000-01), twice to fifth-ranked (Tennessee, 2000-01 and Missouri, 2001-02), once to eighth-ranked Illinois, 2005-06), once to ninth-ranked (Kentucky, 2000-01) and four times to 10th-ranked (Michigan State, 2000, Illinois, 2002, Michigan State, 2005 and Alabama, 2006-07).

In the 63 games against ranked teams, Alford and his Iowa team are 13-9 in home games, 11-12 at neutral sites and 4-14 when playing ranked teams in their home arena.

IOWA PROGRAM REACHES 1,400 WINS

The Iowa basketball program reached 1,400 wins (now at 1,423) with a 79-46 victory over Texas-San Antonio on Nov. 26, 2005. Iowa is one of 37 NCAA Division I programs with as many as 1,400 wins. Iowa's basketball history includes 72 winning seasons and 24 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games. Iowa (with 22) is one of 31 programs to earn more than 20 invitations into the NCAA Tournament.

ANOTHER STRONG SCHEDULE

Playing five of its first six games on the road, Iowa again faces a demanding schedule in 2006-07. After opening the season at home, Iowa participated in the Paradise Jam, defeating Toledo before falling to Alabama and Villanova.

Iowa also played at Arizona State and Virginia Tech in November. The in-state series includes home dates with Northern Iowa and Iowa State and a visit to Drake before Big Ten play begins in January.

Alabama was ranked 10th at the time of its win over Iowa, while Villanova and Virginia Tech were listed among teams receiving votes in the early season rankings.

Iowa will play 17 regular season games against teams that advanced to post-season play a year ago. That includes two games vs. Illinois (NCAA), Indiana (NCAA), Michigan State (NCAA) Wisconsin (NCAA), Penn State (NIT) and Minnesota (NIT) and single games vs. Northern Iowa (NCAA), Ohio State (NCAA) and Michigan (NIT) Alabama (NCAA) and Villanova (NCAA).

IOWA ON THE TUBE

Nearly every Iowa game throughout the 2006-07 season will be televised, with the only exception being the first round of the Paradise Jam. Fox Sports televised the semi-finals and third place game of the eight-team tournament.

Most of Iowa's non-conference games will be televised on ESPN Regional. Games at Drake and VA Tech will be aired on ESPNU and the contest at Arizona State was on Fox.

During the Big Ten season, Iowa games vs. Michigan State, Indiana (twice), at Wisconsin and at Penn State will be televised on ESPN. Iowa's home game with Wisconsin can be seen on CBS and the home finale against Illinois could appear on either CBS or ESPN. All other conference games will be on ESPN Regional, while several conference games will be televised throughout the Big Ten Conference viewing area as part of the Big Ten regional network agreement with ESPN.

IOWA SCHEDULE NOTES

- Iowa has reached the title game in 11 of 13 in-season tournaments under Coach Steve Alford. The Hawkeyes have won their own Hawkeye Challenge in each of the seven years. Iowa was second in the Guardians Classic in both 2002 and 2006, second in the Maui Invitational in 2005 and second in the IKON Coaches vs. Cancer Classic in 2000. In the only events Iowa did not advance to the title game, the Hawkeyes placed third in the Rainbow Classic in 2001 and lost in the semi-finals of the 2006 Paradise Jam. Under Alford, Iowa is 26-7 while playing in tournament events during the season, plus 13-5 in the Big Ten Tournament and a combined 3-6 in the NIT and NCAA tournaments.
- Iowa is slated to play two schools which are headed by former University of Iowa presidents. Mary Sue Coleman is the President at the University of Michigan and David Skorton at Cornell University.
- Herb Sendek, the first year coach at Arizona State, was the head coach at North Carolina State a year ago when the Hawkeyes defeated the Wolfpack 45-42 in Iowa City as part of the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.
- Seth Greenberg, now the head coach at Virginia Tech, was the head coach at Long Beach State when Iowa defeated the Forty-Niners 101-79 in the finals of the 1993 Hawkeye Challenge.

IOWA HAS STRONG FINISH

Following is a list of Iowa's accomplishments in 2006:

- Posted 25 wins, which ranks as the second highest total in school history. The Hawkeyes won 30 games in 1987 and 24 games in 1988. The 22 regular season wins tie as the second most in school history. The Hawkeyes won 27 regular season games in 1987 and 22 in both 1988 and 1989.
- Posted 10 wins in 14 games against top 25 teams. Iowa was 3-2 against top 10 teams.
- Prior to tournament play, Iowa was the only Division I team in the nation to record 10 wins against teams that were ranked in the top 25 at the time of the game.
- Posted 11 Big Ten wins, the most for an Iowa team since the 1996-97 team won 12 conference games. The 11 Big Ten wins are the most for Iowa since the Big Ten went to a 16-game league schedule in 1998.
- Won the Big Ten Conference Tournament with three straight wins. Iowa also won the event in 2001 and was second in 2002. Iowa is one of three teams with two tournament titles and Coach Steve Alford is the only Big Ten coach to take three teams to the championship game.
- Earned a tie for second place in the regular season standings. Iowa had not placed as high as second in the regular season since earning a tie for second with a 12-6 record in 1997.
- Earned a third seed in the NCAA Tournament. The three seed is the highest since the Hawkeyes were seeded second in the 1987 event. Iowa was also a three seed in 1981.
- Earned the No. two seed in the Big Ten Tournament. Iowa's previous best seed in the event was fourth in 2004.

- Advanced to the title game of the Big Ten Conference Tournament for the third time since 2001.

IOWA AT NEUTRAL SITES

Iowa is 1-2 in neutral site games this season, with all three games in the Paradise Jam. Iowa's three games in the Paradise Jam are the only neutral site games for the Hawkeyes prior to the 2007 Big Ten Tournament at the United Center in Chicago.

Iowa played six neutral site games in 2005-06, posting a 4-2 record. The Hawkeyes split neutral site games in the Guardians Classic, defeating ninth-ranked Kentucky in the semi-finals before falling to second-ranked Texas in the title game.

Iowa won three straight neutral site games at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis to claim the 2006 Big Ten Tournament title before falling in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at The Palace of Auburn Hills in Auburn Hills, MI.

NO THREE-POINTERS

Since the three-point shot became part of the college game, Iowa has played 14 games in which it has failed to make a three-point attempt. Iowa had made at least one three-point basket in 53 straight games before missing all five attempts in a 71-61 home win over Purdue in 2004. The five three-point attempts are the fewest attempted by a Steve Alford team at Iowa. Iowa's current streak includes at least one three-point basket in 93 straight games.

Following is a list of games in which Iowa did not make a three-point basket (11-3 record). During the 1982-83 season, when the three-point shot was first added, the number of three-point attempts in some games is unavailable.

HAWKEYES LOOKING FOR HEROES

Is there a hero among you, your friends, your family?

Coach Steve Alford and the Iowa Hawkeyes are looking for heroes, people who have gone above and beyond to help others.

“There are wonderful things being done each day in every community across the state of Iowa by outstanding people,” said Hawkeye Coach Steve Alford. “Our basketball staff feels the “Heroes Among Us” program is an easy way to salute the friends and neighbors of ours who are making a difference in the lives of their friends and neighbors.”

Nomination forms for the “Heroes Among Us” program are available online at hawkeyesports.com, the official web site of the Iowa Hawkeyes. Fans can print their nomination form by visiting the men’s basketball home page and clicking on the “Heroes Among Us” line under the “Features” heading.

The UI will select one here to be saluted at each Hawkeye home game throughout the remainder of the season. The hero, and the individual who nominated them, will be provided pairs of tickets to the game and a $10 gift certificate to the Official Iowa Hawk Shop. The hero will also be recognized when they are in attendance.

This marks the second year of the “Heroes Among Us” program, as 15 Iowans were recognized at home games a year ago.
