"Ever since high school I wanted to play on the U.S. National Team, and I didn't care how long it was going to take. When I got to Iowa, we all had the same aspirations and always talked about teamwork, chemistry and working to get to that level. We went through and learned so much at Iowa that it carried us through in helping us make it to the next level."

"I chose Iowa because I knew it was the total package for me. I knew that by attending Iowa, I would reach my athletic and academic goals without question. The coaches truly care about each athlete, not only on the field, but in the classroom and socially as well. Iowa City felt like home the minute I stepped on campus. It has that comforting "college-town" feel. I can honestly say that I would not be where I am today without the support of my teammates, coaches, and administration at the University of Iowa."

Whether playing on the new Grant Field, or on the original facility that was introduced in 1989, opponents have usually left Iowa City unhappy. The Hawkeyes own an overall home record of 133-42, a conference record of 59-23 at home and an 11-2 record in NCAA Tournament games played in Iowa City. Originally named the Hawkeye Field Hockey Field, the facility was renamed in honor of former University of Iowa Women's Athletics Director and founder of Iowa Field Hockey Dr. Christine Grant on Sept. 22, 1991. The new field was re-dedicated on Oct. 8, 2006. The Hawkeyes set a home attendance record Oct. 24, 1993 with 1,339 fans watching Iowa defeat No. 4 Penn State, 4-0. Iowa has gone undefeated on its home field in six separate seasons, including a 40-game home winning streak.

"It is the best facility in the Big Ten."

KARA LENTZ (BIG TEN NETWORK)

"If I were a high school player looking to go to Iowa, I would take one step into that facility (Grant Field), and say 'Where do I sign?'. What a great facility. This place is start-of-the-art for college field hockey."

TRACEY GRIESBAUM
HEAD COACH
13TH YEAR

Tracey Griesbaum enters her 13th season as head coach at the University of Iowa in 2012. She has led the Hawkeyes to three Big Ten Tournament Championships (2006, 2007, 2008), one regular season Big Ten Championship, five NCAA Tournament appearances and the 2008 NCAA Final Four. Under Griesbaum, Iowa has earned 16 national All-America honors, 45 regional All-America honors, 44 All-Big Ten selections, three Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year awards and two Big Ten Freshman of the Year awards. She was a two-time national All-American at West Chester University and was also a six-year member of the U.S. National Team.

Griesbaum is 142-92 at Iowa and 155-113 overall. Griesbaum recorded her 100th career victory with a win at Fairfield in 2007. In addition, she recorded her 100th career victory as the head coach of the Hawkeyes with a win at Stanford in 2008.

Griesbaum led Iowa to its 21st NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011. The Hawkeyes finished 15-5 overall and ranked 12th nationally. She coached three All-Big Ten honorees and four regional All-Americans, including Jessica Barnett, who earned the program's 81st national All-America honor.

In 2008, Iowa enjoyed its best season under Griesbaum. She led the Black and Gold to their third-straight Big Ten Tournament championship. Griesbaum also led the Hawkeyes to their 20th NCAA Tournament appearance. Iowa defeated Louisville and Michigan State to advance to the NCAA Final Four. The Hawkeyes fell to eventual national champion Maryland 2-1 in double overtime and finished the season with an 18-5 record. She was later named the 2008 NFCA West Region Coach of the Year. Additionally, Griesbaum was inducted into the West Chester University Athletics Hall of Fame in February.

In the first year of the Griesbaum era, the Hawkeyes fielded an extremely young team that finished with a respectable 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

Year two, was better for the Hawkeyes. They finished with a record of 13-5, an appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game and ended the season ranked No. 12 by the NFCA. On their way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship game, Griesbaum led the Hawkeyes past the co-Big Ten regular season champions, Michigan State 3-2 in overtime.

In the third year under Griesbaum, the Hawkeyes finished with a 9-8 record and ranked No. 20 by the NFCHA. The Hawkeyes opened the season with a great shutout victory over eventual National Champion Wake Forest, 1-0. They closed the season with a 2-1, double overtime loss to the eventual national runner-up Penn State. Six of the Iowa losses came by only one goal.

In 2003, the Hawkeyes finished 11-8 with a final ranking of 16th by STX/NFCHA. During the season, Iowa reached as high as No. 6 in the poll. Six of Iowa's eight losses came from team ranked in the top ten.

During Griesbaum's fifth year, she directed the Hawkeyes to a 13-8 record and their 12th regular season Big Ten Championship with a 5-1 conference record. The Hawkeyes' exceptional play earned them a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in school history. Griesbaum was named Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Division I Coach of the Year by WomensFieldHockey.com for her efforts.

In 2005, Iowa fielded a young team that resembled Griesbaum's first Hawkeye squad in 2000. As in 2000, the '05 team finished the year with a 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

In 2006, Griesbaum guided the Hawkeyes to a 12-9 record, Big Ten Tournament Championship, an appearance in the NCAA Tournament and a final ranking of 14th in the STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association Poll. Iowa had a preseason rank of 12, but a tough schedule with many close losses dropped the Hawkeyes' rank. Six of Iowa's nine losses came against teams ranked in the top five and only two of their losses were by more than one point.

In 2007, Iowa finished 17-4, and ranked fifth nationally. The Hawkeyes also captured their second consecutive Big Ten Tournament championship. Additionally, the Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 19th time in the program's history. The Hawkeyes began the season ranked 10th, and at one point, were ranked as high as third.

Griesbaum has a long history with the United States Field Hockey program. She has served in many capacities within the USFHA, including a full-time assistant and head coach for the U.S. Under-21 Team. She led the Under-21 team to a second-place finish at the Pan American Junior Championships and a spot in the 2001 Junior World Cup, where she served as an assistant coach. Her work was good enough to earn her the 2000 United States Field Hockey Coach of the Year award.

Before leaving to accept her post with U.S.A. Field Hockey, Griesbaum was an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes for eight seasons. She helped Iowa win four Big Ten Championships, advancing to the NCAA Tournament six times and the Final Four four times.

While Griesbaum worked for the United States Team in a full-time capacity for only one year, she has served the organization for 20 years as a coach.

During the summer of 2012, Griesbaum served as an assistant coach of the Midwest Team in the USA Field Hockey Women's Senior High Performance Tournament. She also was an assistant coach in the USA Field Hockey Futures Elite Championship.

In 2006, Griesbaum was the head coach of the Midwest Region's EPTC Program team, which placed second at the national tournament. She also coached the Midwest in 2004 and attended the FIH Coaching Course held in conjunction with the Champions Challenge and coached at the Elite Team Trials.

Griesbaum was head coach of the 2000 Super Camp and B Camp, and an assistant coach for the 1999 Under-20 Junior National Team which toured Canada and Argentina.

During the summer of 1998, she worked with the USA Field Hockey program. She was the head coach for the USA Under-23 team that competed in the USFHA National Indoor Tournament, toured Holland playing various club teams and competed in Canada against the Canadian National and Under-23 squads.

Griesbaum has also coached at the USFHA A-camp since 1995. In 1998, she was one of 38 international coaches selected to attend the International Field Hockey coaching course, held in conjunction with the 1998 World Cup in Holland.

In the spring and summer of 1997, Griesbaum worked camps and coached the national teams throughout the country. She coached at the United States Field Hockey Association A-Camp and served as assistant coach for the United States Under-21 National Team that played in the Junior National World Cup Qualifying Tournament in January of 1997 (Santiago, Chile). Griesbaum participated in that same tournament as an assistant coach in Venezuela in the fall of 1992.

In 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2001-04 she was a selector at the National Futures Tournament in Maryland. Those same summers Griesbaum was a coach at the USFHA B-Camp. Following B-Camp she coached the Under-18 team in a mini-tournament held in Boston (1996).

During the summer of 1996, Griesbaum was the co-head coach of the U.S. Under-18 National Team which traveled to Montreal, Quebec to compete in the Montreal Cup.

As the head coach at LaSalle University in Philadelphia, PA, during the 1990 and 1991 seasons, Griesbaum led her team to a 13-21-3 overall record.

A 1989 graduate of West Chester University, Griesbaum earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts with a minor in health sciences and coaching. She was former Hawkeye coach Beth Beglin's first recruit at West Chester University in 1984 and was a three-time regional All-American and a two-time national All-American. In 1987 she was named the Pennsylvania Association Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (PAIAW) Field Hockey Player of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year.

Griesbaum, a 1987 Honda Broderick Award Nominee, also has extensive international playing experience. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1989-91, 1993 and the U.S. National Reserve Team in 1988. Griesbaum played on the U.S. National team that competed in the 1993 Intercontinental Cup. She played in the 1991 Pan American Games, World University Games and Olympic Qualifying Tournament. In addition, she was a two-time U.S. Olympic Festival participant, winning the Gold Medal in 1989. In 2003, she played in the North American Premiere Indoor League for Philadelphia, and played three years in the USFHA Summer League.

LISA CELLUCCI
 ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
 13TH YEAR

Lisa Cellucci enters her 13th season as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff in 2012. She is the recruiting coordinator, director of the Iowa Field Hockey Camp and primarily works with the goalkeepers and the defense. Cellucci, the all-time saves leader at Iowa, was a three-time All-American and a member of the U.S. National Team. In her 12 years at Iowa, the Hawkeyes have compiled a 142-92 record and have been consistently ranked in the NFHCA top 20.

Hawkeye goalkeepers have enjoyed tremendous success during Cellucci's time with Iowa. In 2011, Cellucci was a crucial part of the Black and Gold's success as Iowa reached its 21st NCAA Tournament in program history. She coached junior goalkeeper Kathleen McGraw to a conference-best five shutouts. Cellucci helped McGraw rank first in the Big Ten and 15th nationally in save percentage. In addition, McGraw's goals against average ranked 18th-best in the country and helped lead

Iowa to a 15-5 overall record and a national ranking of 12th. McGraw earned All-Big Ten and regional All-America honors. McGraw was named to the 2011 and 2012 USA U21 Junior National Squads and was named to the 2012 US National Team Development Squad.

In 2008, Cellucci was again a vital part of the Hawkeyes' success. She coached senior goalkeeper Lissa Munley to eight shutouts, including matches against three nationally ranked opponents. Cellucci helped Munley rank first in Big Ten shutouts, second in goals against average and third in save percentage. In addition, Iowa's goals against average ranked ninth-best in the country and helped lead Iowa to its third-straight Big Ten Tournament Championship, 20th NCAA Tournament appearance and 11th NCAA Final Four appearance.

Barb Weinberg, a 2005 graduate, became one of nation's top goalkeepers and went on to become a member of the USA National Team from 2005-2010. Under Cellucci's guidance Weinberg became a two-time all-American, three-time All-Big Ten selection and three time all-region pick.

As a player, Cellucci was one of the greatest goalkeepers ever to don the Black and Gold. During her four years with Iowa, the Broomall, PA, native was a three-time All-American, four-time All-Big Ten selection and four-time regional All-American.

In her playing days, Cellucci made an immediate impact for the Hawkeyes. As a freshman, she earned first team All-Big Ten, first team regional All-American and third team NFHCA All-American honors as she helped Iowa to a 16-4 record. Her sophomore campaign was even more impressive, when she went 18-3 and was first team All-Big Ten and a regional All-American, along with being second team NFHCA All-American.

During her senior campaign, Cellucci became Iowa's all-time saves leader by stopping her 494th shot in a 5-3 win over Ball State. She ended her career with 592 saves.

A member of the U.S. National Team from 1999-2000, Cellucci has extensive experience with the U.S. program. She played on the 1998 U.S. Under-23 National Team and on the U.S. Under-18 National Team in 1994. Cellucci also participated in three U.S. Olympic Festivals (1993, 1994 and 1995) and won a gold medal at the 1993 Festival and a bronze medal at the 1995 Festival.

She also has coaching experience at the national level, serving as an assistant coach for the Midwest USA High Performance Team from 2005-2012. She also coached at the 2003-2006 A-Camps and the 2000-2004 B-Camps and the USFHA Super Camp. During the summer of 2005, Cellucci coached in the U.S. EPTC program that finished second at the National Tournament and was a goalkeeping coach at the U.S. Elite Team Trials. In 2006, she joined Griesbaum on the staff of the EPTC Midwest team that placed third in the USA Field Hockey Championships in Virginia Beach, VA. Additionally, Cellucci coached the Junior National Team Camp in 2007 and 2008 and served as the Elite Team Trials coach from 2005 to 2006.

Before returning to Iowa as a coach, Cellucci was an assistant coach at James Madison, where she helped the Dukes to a 15-7 record and a spot in the NCAA Tournament in 1999.

Cellucci, who serves on the Board of Directors for the National Iowa Varsity Club, graduated from the University of Iowa in 1998 with a bachelor of arts degree in communication studies.

MEGHAN BEAMESDERFER
 ASSISTANT COACH
 SECOND YEAR

Meghan Beamesderfer enters her second year as an assistant coach at Iowa in 2012. Beamesderfer has spent the last six seasons as a member of the Iowa program. After lettering from 2006-09, she spent the 2010 season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

In 2011, she helped coach Iowa to its 21st NCAA Tournament appearance in program history. The Hawkeyes finished 15-5 overall and finished the season ranked 12th nationally. Beamesderfer coached three All-Big Ten honorees and four regional All-Americans, including Jessica Barnett, who earned the program's 81st national All-America honor.

"After spending four years in the program as a student-athlete, and one as an undergraduate assistant coach, it is an honor to be a part of this coaching staff," said Beamesderfer. "I have learned so many skills from Tracey (Griesbaum) and Lisa (Cellucci) and truly enjoy working with them."

"Having been a student at the University of Iowa and a member of the field hockey program, this position is special to me. The University of Iowa and all the traditions that come with being a Hawkeye are like no other place in the country. I am honored to be a part of it again."

"We are thrilled to have Meg back in our program," said Griesbaum. "She is a Hawkeye through-and-through. She left a lasting impression on this program as a student-athlete and now I am looking forward to working with her as part of the coaching staff. Meg's passion and work ethic did not go unnoticed as a student-athlete and now those qualities will be transferred into the coaching profession."

Beamesderfer also has national coaching experience, as she coached in the U.S.A. Field Hockey Future's Program in the summer of 2011.

Beamesderfer resumed her playing career in the summer of 2011, competing in the U.S.A. Women's National Championships for the Midwest High Performance Team. She was selected to the U.S.A. National Developmental Squad at the conclusion of the tournament.

A native of Lititz, Pa., she led Iowa to three-straight Big Ten Tournament titles (2006-08) and the 2008 NCAA Final Four. Beamesderfer was a two-time All-American, a four-time regional All-American and a three-time All-Big Ten honoree. In 2006, she was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. As a senior in 2009, she led the team in goals (10) and defensive saves (four) and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. Beamesderfer, who started all 84 career games played, was also a team captain and MVP.

She received a bachelor's degree in speech and hearing sciences from Iowa (in Dec. 2010).

COACHES

Head Coach: Tracey Griesbaum
Associate Head Coach: Lisa Cellucci
Assistant Coach: Meghan Beamesderfer
Head Athletic Trainer: Faye Thompson
Strength and Conditioning Coach: Gabby Quiggle

The University of Iowa field hockey team enters the 2012 campaign riding the momentum from a stellar 2011 season. Iowa made the program's 21st NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011 after finishing with a 15-5 record (4-2 Big Ten) and ended the season ranked No. 12 in the final NFCA poll.

"We had a solid season in 2011, but I know the work that we put in during the spring, along with elevated leadership, will allow us to raise our standard even more," said head coach Tracey Griesbaum. "We want to be playing in the NCAA Tournament and be competing for a Big Ten Championship."

The 2012 Hawkeyes return nine starters for a second consecutive season and welcome back 15 letterwinners, including team captains Jessica Barnett (back) and Kathleen McGraw (goalkeeper). A five member recruiting class will fill out the Iowa roster.

"We will have depth in every position this season," said Griesbaum. "We will have seven athletes that can play forward; six that can play in the midfield, and nine that can play in the backfield. We have two goalkeepers once again."

Griesbaum, the 2011 Dita/NFCA West Region Coach of the Year, enters her 13th season as the Hawkeyes' head coach. Griesbaum owns a 142-92 record at Iowa. She has mentored 16 national All-Americans, 45 regional All-Americans, 44 All-Big Ten selections, three Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award winners and two Big Ten Freshman of the Year honorees.

Associate head coach Lisa Cellucci enters her 13th year as a member of the coaching staff. Assistant coach Meghan Bemserfer returns to the sidelines for her second season.

"It is nice to have the same coaching staff back for the second year," said Griesbaum. "Our coaching staff is not only passionate about the sport of field hockey and coaching young women, but we are particularly motivated to excel as coaches at Iowa. We have strong ties to the Hawkeyes, and we will do whatever it takes to move this program forward with pride and integrity."

Cellucci handles the team's goalkeeping and defense. Cellucci, who set Iowa's career saves record as a goalkeeper from 1994-98, helped goalkeeper Kathleen McGraw lead the Big Ten and rank 15th nationally in save percentage (.768) in 2011. McGraw will become Cellucci's third four-year starter in 2012, joining Lissa Munley and Barb Weinberg. All three student-athletes earned All-Big Ten honors during their Hawkeye careers.

"Lisa's experience playing and coaching at an elite level always allows us to get better each year," said Griesbaum. "Her expertise lies in the goalkeeping and defensive positions, but she has an incredible impact on overall development of all the student-athletes."

Bemserfer has spent the last six seasons as a member of the Iowa program. In her first season as a coach in 2011, Bemserfer coached three All-Big Ten honorees and four regional All-Americans. Previously, she was a two-time All-American for the Hawkeyes from 2006-09. She was selected to the USA National Developmental Squad after competing in the USA Women's National Championship Tournament this summer.

"Meg continues to gain a ton of valuable experience as both a coach and an athlete," said Griesbaum. "She coached in the USA Field Hockey's Futures Program this year and was the coaching director of the Iowa field hockey camp this July. Meg once again excelled on the playing field this summer after a two-year hiatus from playing."

FORWARDS

Iowa welcomes back three starters at the forward position in senior Sarah Drake and juniors Aubrey Coleman and Kelsey Mitchell. The trio accounted for 19 goals in 2011 and will once again be counted on for major contributions.

"Sarah, Aubrey and Kelsey will be key returners on our forward line," said Griesbaum. "Drake can play in both the forward and midfield lines and she adds great skill and competitiveness on both sides of the ball. Aubrey has great physical ability and playmaking ability. Kelsey is savvy in and around the goal."

Drake returns for her senior campaign having started all 56 contests of her career. The Ann Arbor, Mich., native earned All-Big Ten and regional All-America honors in 2011 after finishing third on the team in points (20), goals (8) and assists (4). She also excelled in the classroom, earning Academic All-Big Ten and NFHCA National Academic Squad honors. In addition, she earned the Big Ten Distinguished Scholar Award that requires athletes to maintain at least a 3.7 GPA. Drake was a member of the Midwest Senior High Performance team this summer.

Coleman played in 20 games as a sophomore, starting 16. The junior from Mickleton, N.J., netted six goals in 2011, ranking fourth on the team. Coleman was a 2011 Academic All-Big Ten selection and spent her summer as part of the Midwest Senior High Performance team.

Mitchell, a junior hailing from Berlin, N.J., scored five goals for the Hawkeyes in 2011 after starting 18 of the team's 20 games. Mitchell earned Academic All-Big Ten honors at the conclusion of her sophomore season.

A pair of sophomores, Corinne Allen and Sara Watro, are also expected to contribute from the forward position. Allen and Watro were two of four true freshmen to see game action in 2011.

"Cori has solid skills and a high level of game sense," said Griesbaum. "Sara can cover a lot of ground with her speed and fitness. They all will be ready to contribute from day one."

Allen led all Hawkeye freshmen in games played (20), games started (11) and points (6). The Gibbsboro, N.J., native started Iowa's last seven games, including postseason matches against Indiana, No. 7 Michigan and No. 4 Maryland.

Watro saw action in nine games in 2011, and was a member of the NFHCA National Academic Squad.

Two heralded freshman, Natalie Cafone and Marisa Miro, will provide depth up front for Iowa.

Cafone was the 2011 New Jersey State Player of the Year. She also was selected as a first team NFHCA National and regional All-American. Cafone scored 135 goals and posted 80 assists during her high school career at West Essex High School in Fairfield, N.J., setting the school's career points record.

Miro, a Tamiment, Pa., native, holds East Stroudsburg High School's school record for single season assists and career assists. Miro has participated in the USA Futures program for three years.

"Natalie and Marisa will be our first year players on the forward line," said Griesbaum. "Marisa is tenacious, and Natalie has a ton of speed with a nose for the goal. They will be outstanding additions to an already skilled line."

MIDFIELDERS

Iowa will have a versatile midfield in 2012 that will enter the season with high expectations. The group mixes experience and youth, as it includes a senior, two sophomores and a freshman.

“We will have options, something we did not have much of last year,” said Griesbaum. “The midfield will have to be ready to dominate in key match-ups with our opponents. They will be asked to control the pace of the game and will be vital to how we attack and defend as a team.”

Geena Lesiak will be Iowa’s most experienced midfielder in 2012. Lesiak has started 54-of-56 games during her first three years in the Hawkeye program. The senior from Vorhees, N.J., ranked second on the team with five assists in 2011. Lesiak, who was an Academic All-Big Ten selection as a junior for the second time in her career, joined four of her teammates (Coleman, Drake, Kathleen McGraw, Danielle Peirson) on the Midwest High Performance team this summer.

“Geena has the ability to play anywhere on the field, but midfield would be an ideal spot for her,” said Griesbaum. “Geena has a very good all-around game. Her fundamental skills and tactical knowledge will be needed as a three-year starter.”

Sophomores Dani Hemeon and Brynn Gitt will look for expanded roles after seeing limited action as freshmen in 2011.

“They both have a year of invaluable experience to bring to the team this year,” said Griesbaum. “Their added strength and skill development will be much needed this season.”

Hemeon returns to Iowa City after a summer of national competition. The Gilroy, Calif., native competed on the 2012 California Senior High Performance team and was named to the 2012-13 USA U21 Junior National Squad and the 2012 Nation Team Development Squad. Hemeon saw action in 17 games for the Hawkeyes in 2011, making two starts. She tallied a goal and an assist.

Gitt competed in three contests during her freshman season, and was named to the NFCA National Academic Squad.

Freshman Isabella Liciardello will be counted on to log major minutes for the Hawkeyes. Liciardello competed at the high school level since the seventh grade, ending her high school career with 75 goals and 67 assists.

“Bella is very versatile, but I see her adding the most to our midfield,” said Griesbaum.

Griesbaum will use forward Sarah Drake and back Jessica Barnett at the midfield position when needed.

“Jessica and Sarah may get some minutes in the midfield as their secondary position,” said Griesbaum. “JB and Drake would add physicality and an ability to dominate on both sides of the ball.”

BACKS

Similar to the midfield, the Hawkeye backfield in 2012 will offer a number of options for Griesbaum. The position has six players who have been in the program for three or more years. The unit will be led by team captain Jessica Barnett.

Barnett is one of four Hawkeye seniors (Drake, Lesiak, McGraw) who will become four-year starters in 2012. Barnett became Iowa's 81st All-American as a junior in 2011 after ranking second on the team in goals (11) and points (24). She was named first team All-Big Ten and a NFCA first team regional All-American. The North Vancouver, Canada, native was named Big Ten Player of the Week on three separate occasions to become the first Hawkeye since Kristy Gleason in 1992 to accomplish the feat. Barnett, who was also an Academic All-Big Ten selection, spent her summer competing internationally for the Canadian Junior National Team.

"We will not have a shortage of backs," said Griesbaum. "The depth and versatility in our backfield is incredible. With Jessica and Geena playing both in the midfield and backfield, we can call upon some younger players to step it up in the defense."

Three of the youngsters Griesbaum is alluding to are juniors Karly Johansen, Niki Schultheis and Marike Stribos.

"Karli, Niki, and Marike are all going to be juniors, and they all have been contributing players on the field for two seasons," said Griesbaum. "Their ability to execute consistently will allow us more versatility in the midfield and front field."

Johansen, who started all 20 games in 2011, played her best at the end of the season, as she garnered Big Ten All-Tournament team honors. The North Vancouver, Canada, native joined Barnett on the Canadian Junior National Team during the summer and also competed for the Canadian Senior National Team in a four-game test series versus the United States.

Schultheis and Stribos also started every contest in 2011. The pair both received Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, Academic All-Big Ten and NFCA National Academic Squad recognition. On the field, Schultheis ranked third on the team with four assists and fifth in goals (5) and points (14). Stribos paced the Hawkeyes with seven assists and added three goals.

Senior Sarah Pedrick and sophomore Danielle Peirson also return to the backfield. Pedrick has appeared in 17 career games and been named Academic All-Big Ten the last two seasons. Peirson returns to the Hawkeyes after missing the entire 2011 season due to injury. She doesn't lack experience, as she started all 17 games as a freshman in 2010. Peirson resumed competition this summer and was a member of the 2012 Midwest Senior High Performance Squad.

"Sarah and Dani will add so much to our team's effectiveness," said Griesbaum. "Sarah is a great competitor and has the ability to keep the play organized around her. Dani is a strong distributor who also understands the concepts very well."

Freshman Anna Haley and Liz Leh will round out the backfield. Both individuals were twice selected their high school's team MVP. Haley was a four-year varsity starter at Broadneck High School in Annapolis, Md., earning all-county honors on two occasions. Leh led Stroudsburg (Pa.) High School to a conference championship in 2011, and was a Lehigh Valley All-Area team selection.

GOALKEEPERS

The Hawkeyes claim two of top goalkeepers in the Big Ten in seniors Kelsey Boyce and Kathleen "Merty" McGraw. The tandem helped Iowa lead the conference with six shutouts in 2011.

"Kelsey and Kathleen are back for their fourth year in the program," said Griesbaum. "Having two goalkeepers of this caliber is pretty unheard of. They have trained side-by-side for the past three years, and their skills and knowledge have steadily improved over the past six semesters. I look for Kelsey and Merty to display great leadership to the defense and the team as whole this year."

Boyce has played in five games during her Hawkeye career, recording nine saves. She didn't allow a goal in 36:52 minutes of action in 2011.

"Kelsey is a great shot blocker and a strong communicator," said Griesbaum.

McGraw enters her fourth year in Iowa's goal after a junior season in which she earned first team NFHCA Regional All-America and second team All-Big Ten honors. She led the Big Ten with five shutouts and a .768 save percentage that ranked 15th nationally. The Atherton, Calif., native ranked second in the league with 106 saves (5.3 per game). McGraw received selections to the USA U21 Junior National Squad, the U.S. National Team Developmental Squad and the Midwest Senior High Performance Squad in 2012.

"Merty is an explosive goalkeeper who can take control of the defense," said Griesbaum.

Personal... Born Feb. 6, 1994... daughter of Nelson and Dee Miro.

"I chose Iowa because after my first visit I knew I was home. Iowa has prestigious and rigorous academics that will enable me to be a successful student-athlete. Iowa City offers a fun local life that surrounds a beautiful campus with an amazing Big Ten environment. To be a part of a top-rated field hockey program featuring the best of the best, including coaches, student-athletes, support staff and facilities, means the world to me. This program truly embodies what Iowa is all about family, tradition, pride, academics, leadership and the Black and Gold. I'm very excited and truly honored to have found and chosen a new family in the Hawkeye community."

ANNA HALEY - Freshman - Annapolis, Md.

"I chose the University of Iowa because I wanted to be a HAWKEYE. While on my first visit to Iowa City I couldn't help but be impressed with the amount of pride and excitement that filled this town. Varsity athletics and their athletes were truly appreciated and taken particularly seriously. I knew the field hockey program would also share that respect. I chose the University of Iowa field hockey program because I wanted to be challenged physically. I wanted to leave my college experience being the best possible athlete I could be. And I knew I would also be challenged academically. With Iowa's nationally recognized medical and creative writing programs, I felt comfortable that whatever field I decided to study I would come out educated. And as my Dad always told me, 'Go big or go home, Drake!' I went big."

SARAH DRAKE - Senior - Ann Arbor, Mich.

"My commitment to play division one field hockey was an all or nothing decision. I knew that if I was going to dedicate a large sum of time to collegiate athletics I was going to pick a program that would allow me to reach my greatest potential as both an athlete and a student. Initially, Iowa field hockey's tradition of success both in the Big Ten and the NCAA caught my eye as a prospective student-athlete. However, after learning more about the University of Iowa and its pride and respect for women's athletics, it was clear that Iowa was where I would spend my next four years. The state-of-the-art training facilities, coupled with nationally respected academic curriculum, makes Iowa an exemplary place to be a collegiate athlete."

KATHLEEN MCGRAW - Senior - Atherton, Calif.

"When I first stepped on the University of Iowa campus, the expectations I had were completely exceeded on all levels. I was blown away by the athletic facilities, specifically Grant Field, as well as having the privilege to train on an indoor turf when necessary. I was also impressed by the academics, and knew that I was going to have everything I needed in order to be successful. The pride that the coaching staff and team exemplified was contagious, and it was very obvious to me that Iowa was the place where I was going to excel as both a student and an athlete. There is nowhere else I would rather be than here at the University of Iowa."

JESSICA BARNETT - Senior - North Vancouver, Canada

"I chose the University of Iowa because when I first stepped onto the campus in 2009, I knew I wanted to go there. Participating in the Junior Olympics that year was my first look at Iowa. Playing a week-long tournament on the beautiful new turf certainly helped my decision, and having Lisa (Cellucci) as my coach was fate. After my week in Iowa during that summer, I was able to get a feel for the entire University. Iowa offers the complete package. Being from California, I am a huge San Francisco Giants fan. I didn't know what it would be like to live in a place where there were no professional sports. Then, I realized, in Iowa, Hawkeye sports are professional. The University of Iowa will also allow me to pursue my academic goals. All my life I have wanted to work in the medical field. Recently, I have decided that I want to become a physical therapist with special focus on rehabilitation of injured athletes. At Iowa, I am given the opportunity to pursue that goal. And, at Iowa, I know my dream to play field hockey as long as I can, will become a reality. Coach Griesbaum and coach Cellucci will provide me with the knowledge and the encouragement I need to pursue field hockey at the national level. I'm so excited!"

DANI HEMEON - Sophomore - Gilroy, Calif.

"When I was looking for a college to attend, I had lofty expectations. Along with wanting to compete for an outstanding athletic program, I had really high academic standards. Luckily, Iowa fulfilled and exceeded all of my wishes. I could only hope that someday I'd be able to put on the Black and Gold uniform to play hockey for the Hawks. Iowa is consistently a top tier program and our facilities are second to none. The Tippie College of Business also sports a nationally ranked accounting program. Not only am I competing on my dream team, I am earning a degree from an awesome school. I really lucked out landing here at Iowa. I can't imagine going anywhere else."

KELSEY MITCHELL - Junior - Berlin, N.J.

Each summer, field hockey players from around the nation come to Iowa City for the Iowa Field Hockey Camp. Grant Field is considered one of the top complexes in the country and participants have the advantage of state-of-the-art facilities. Campers also play alongside accomplished college players. Campers ages 13-18 participate in the camp led by the Hawkeye coaching staff as well as current and former Iowa players.

Iowa City is a media saturated environment. And with no professional teams in the area, the Hawkeyes garner extensive coverage from newspapers, television and websites.

TELEVISION

With the launch of the Big Ten Network, the Big Ten is the only conference in the country that has its own national network devoted to athletics programming. Hawkeye field hockey fans can expect to see numerous games each year on the network in stunning hi-definition. Fans can also watch additional games online at BTN.com.

HAWKEYESPORTS.COM

Media and fans can also obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa -- hawkeyesports.com. Live stats (gametracker), box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, video, podcasts and more, including the all new interactive magazine (UI-Mag), can be found on the web site. Additional information, video, photos and more can be found on the team's Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Furthermore, hawkeyesports.com has a fresh look after the site was re-designed and re-launched in October 2010. The new and improved site has enhanced graphics, is easier to navigate, and has more content and video/audio for the diehard Hawkeye fan.

NEWSPAPER COVERAGE

Fans can also read about Hawkeye action in several newspapers/ websites throughout the state of Iowa. A few of the papers that cover the Hawkeyes on a regular basis include: The Des Moines Register, the Iowa City Press-Citizen, the Cedar Rapids Gazette, the Quad City Times, The Daily Iowan, the Voice of The Hawkeyes, the Burlington Hawkeye, the Waterloo Courier, and the Moline Dispatch.

BIG TEN™

When people think of collegiate field hockey, their thoughts primarily go out east, where Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East schools are often seen as national powerhouses. The Big Ten though has quickly become one of the premier field hockey conferences in the nation.

In the 28 years the conference has sponsored field hockey, Big Ten schools have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 79 times. The Iowa Hawkeyes lead the conference with 21 appearances, including four of the last six years.

Last season, four of the national tournament's 16 teams hailed from the Big Ten. Iowa was joined by Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State. The Hawkeyes lost at eventual national champion Maryland in the first round. It marked the 12th time in the last 13 years that the conference has had at least three or more representatives.

In 2010, Ohio State, Penn State, Michigan State and Michigan represented the conference in the national tournament field of 16 teams. The year before, Ohio State, Indiana and Michigan State all made the tournament.

In 2008, Iowa, Michigan State and Penn State all made the tournament. The Nittany Lions fell to Princeton in the first round. Michigan State defeated defending national champion North Carolina in the first round before falling to Iowa in the second. The Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Semifinals before falling to eventual champion Maryland.

In 2007, Iowa, Penn State, Michigan and Michigan State all advanced to the tournament. Penn State fell to North Carolina in the national championship game. The Hawkeyes were defeated in double overtime against Boston during the first round.

In 2004, Michigan State reached the Final Four, making it the fourth consecutive year the Big Ten has sent a team to the Final Four. The league record for consecutive years in the National Semifinals is eight, when either Iowa or Northwestern reached the Final Four every year from 1983-1990.

In 2003, Michigan advanced to the Final Four for the third time in school history.

In 2002, the Big Ten had a pair of teams in the Final Four for the second-consecutive year when Michigan State and Penn State each won regional tournaments. The Nittany Lions advanced to the championship game and were the national runner-up.

In 2001, the Big Ten ended the year with five of its seven teams ranked in the top 20 by the NFHCA. Both Michigan and Michigan State represented the conference in the Final Four. The Wolverines went on to become the second Big Ten School to win the National Championship. Iowa was the first in 1986.

The Big Ten has been represented in the NCAA Final Four 23 times. The Hawkeyes lead the league with 11 Final Four appearances.

Individually, the Big Ten produces some of the top field hockey players in the nation. In the last eight seasons, the conference has produced 74 NFHCA All-Americans, 24 of which were on the first team.

The Big Ten Conference began sponsoring field hockey in 1981 with a conference tournament, then began full league play in 1982.

From 1989-91, five conference teams competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference along with the Northern Illinois Huskies. But when Penn State joined up with the Big Ten in 1991, the league resumed sponsoring a conference season.

In conference play, each team plays each other once, with the season ending with the Big Ten Tournament. The site of the Big Ten Tournament is determined on a rotating basis. The 2012 championship will be hosted by Iowa at Grant Field in Iowa City.

The Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences. Considered to be one of the most successful launches in cable television history, the Big Ten Network became the first network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million subscribers within its first 30 days on the air. With more than 350 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country.

The network is available up to an estimated 75 million households, and in all 50 states and Canada through agreements with more than 300 cable, satellite and telco affiliates. Customers of DIRECTV and DISH Network, have access to the network regardless of where they live, while Verizon and AT&T continue to roll out their FiOS and U-Verse services across the country. On cable, the network is available in 19 of the nation's 20 largest media markets. To get the channel number specific to your area and provider, visit <http://www.btn.com/channelfinder>.

The network operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, showcasing a wide array of classic-to-current sports and televising more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network.

The Hawkeyes have been televised 14 times over the last four seasons. Iowa appeared on BTN twice in 2011, three times by the network in 2009 and 2010 and six times in 2008. The Big Ten Tournament semifinals and finals are televised each year.

GARY BARTA
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Now in his seventh year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa and his 26th year in athletic administration, Gary Barta manages an athletics program that continues to gain momentum in two key areas -- on the playing field and in the classroom -- while enhancing the infrastructure that will serve as the foundation for future successes.

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 74 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in 2004-05) ties the best ever posted by UI athletics. That mark was a 13-point increase over the previous year and was nine points above the national average; UI student-athletes will establish another record when the latest figures are released in October. Last fall, the NCAA confirmed that all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark for the fourth straight year.

In figures released last fall, Iowa's score of 86 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate" or GSR, also matched a school record. Five different women's teams at the UI posted perfect 100 GSR scores. Iowa's GSR in football (83), men's (73) and women's (100) basketball all ranked above the national average for their respective sports.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2011-12. A significant number of Iowa's 24 programs reached postseason play. The Iowa football team reached bowl eligibility for the 11th straight season and competing in a bowl game for the fourth straight year and 10th time in the last 11 seasons. The women's basketball program participated in the NCAA Tournament for a fifth straight season and men's basketball returned to postseason competition under second-year coach Fran McCaffery, recording an 84-75 win over Dayton in front of 13,190 re-energized fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Hawkeye wrestling program, led by national champion Matt McDonough, made another run at a national title before placing third. The men's golf team placed 22nd nationally in its third appearance in the NCAA Championships in the last four seasons. Additionally, the UI men's track and field placed 23rd in the nation and the UI's men's swimming and diving program placed 26th at its national championship.

Iowa's field hockey team advanced to the NCAA Tournament and the Hawkeye softball team placed second in the Big Ten. Between the men's and women's track and field teams, 34 student-athletes competed at the NCAA Championships and 14 members of the UI men's and women's swimming and diving teams qualified for the Olympic Trials.

And, while the UI athletics department continues to earn high marks in integrity, academic excellence, and athletic performances. Barta also continues to oversee critical improvements and additions to the facilities used by the UI's talented student-athletes while maintaining a balanced and ever-growing operations budget that continues to be self-sustaining.

In addition to the competitive success the Hawkeyes recorded in 2011-12, the UI once again experienced tremendous success at the turnstiles. Iowa has sold every seat in historic Kinnick Stadium in each of the past two seasons, ranking 21st in national attendance both years. The UI will enter the 2012 home football season with all seven home games sold out once again and boasts waiting lists for not only season tickets, but also the premium seating options available inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box.

Attendance at home games of the UI's men's basketball team has climbed more than 30 percent the last two seasons. Iowa's attendance of 13,190 for a first round NIT game in Carver-Hawkeye Arena ranked as the highest attended game of the 2012 tournament.

The UI wrestling team set another national attendance record by averaging 9,014 fans per home meet in 2011-12, leading the nation in attendance for the sixth straight year. The economic impact of the 2012 U.S. Olympic Wrestling Team Trials, hosted by the UI in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, exceeded $5 million, according to survey results released by the Iowa City/Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Attendance at home games of the UI's women's basketball games also remained strong as the program once again ranked among national leaders in 2011-12. The UI also registered increases in attendance at home volleyball, soccer, field hockey, women's gymnastics, men's gymnastics, softball and baseball events.

Since 2006, the Hawkeyes have invested more than $150 million in new and renovated athletic facilities. Upgrades include the restoration of historic Kinnick Stadium and Carver-Hawkeye Arena, as well as a new state-of-the-art aquatics center, a boathouse facility for the UI rowing program and an indoor and outdoor tennis complex. Another $60 million worth of improvements are underway in the form of the two phase football training center project and an indoor golf performance facility.

In late summer 2011, the UI completed a $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. That project included the construction of a practice facility for men's and women's basketball and volleyball, a 10,000-square-foot strength training and cardiovascular center, and an expansion to the Dan Gable Wrestling Complex, in addition to new locker room and support facilities for men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs, and office space for the majority of Iowa administrative and coaching staffs.

The Carver project included the installation of a statue of Gable at the facility's main entrance. That project was completed in time for the thousands of fans of the sport of wrestling to enjoy while attending the 2012 USA Wrestling Olympic Team Trials.

Phase I of a two-phase project for the UI football program was completed in August, 2012. Phase I includes the new indoor practice facility for Coach Kirk Ferentz' program that has competed on 10 bowl games over the past 11 seasons. Phase II includes construction of the new Iowa Football Operations Center, which will include new team locker rooms, team meeting rooms, athletic medical training space, video operations, and coaches offices and meeting rooms. Funded entirely through private support and revenue generated by the UI Athletics Department, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football. It will be constructed adjacent to the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility, immediately west of Kinnick Stadium and will be connected to the new indoor practice facility.

The 2010-11 season marked the first for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams in the UI's $69 million Campus Recreation and Wellness Center. The Hawkeyes hosted the 2012 Big Ten Championships and the UI men's squad responded by earning its highest Big Ten finish in 15 seasons.

Another of the latest additions to the facilities available to the UI's student-athletes is the Varsity Golf Complex practice facility for the men's and women's golf programs. Located at the southern edge of the UI's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course, the facility is expected to be completed for use this winter. It will provide the Hawkeyes a state-of-the-art facility that offers the opportunity for year-round training and practice.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders, that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his first six years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why he is currently overseeing a comprehensive review of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and has worked with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

Another favorite saying of his is, "Vision without resources is irrelevant." Over the course of his career he has been directly involved in raising hundreds of millions of dollars in support of intercollegiate athletics. This has remained a primary focus during his tenure at Iowa, where private support for the Hawkeyes continues to flourish despite a challenging economy.

Under Barta's leadership — and thanks to a talented athletics development staff — the UI has seen year-over-year improvement in annual giving in spite of the difficult economic environment. In addition, under Barta's direction, the UI generated more than $20 million of philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support for the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena and has already surpassed that level of support for the current football projects.

The UI also generated the $2 million in private support necessary to fully fund the Hawkeyes' new practice facility for its men's and women's golf programs.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (14) and a daughter, Madison (12). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

IOWA CONTINUES TO BUILD FOR SUCCESS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2011-12

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 74 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in 2004-05) ties the best ever posted by UI athletics. That mark was a 13-point increase over the previous year and was nine points above the national average; UI student-athletes will establish another record when the latest figures are released in October. IOWA WRESTLING

The Hawkeye wrestling team -- the national attendance leader in each of the last six seasons -- continued its dominance on the mat, finishing third at the NCAA Championships. Six Hawkeyes earned All-America accolades in 2012, including two-time national champion Matt McDonough. Iowa has claimed 23 national championships and 34 Big Ten titles in its 102-year history.

IOWA FOOTBALL

Iowa football continued its stellar play, finishing in the upper division of the Big Ten for the 10th time in the last 11 years. The Hawkeyes reached bowl eligibility for the 11th straight season and competed in the postseason for the fourth straight year.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The women's basketball team won its final eight games of the regular season to finish tied for second in the Big Ten and earn an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament. Head Coach Lisa Bluder has now led Iowa to five-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

IOWA MEN'S TRACK AND FIELD

The men's track and field team recorded a pair of top 25 finishes at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. The Hawkeyes crowned four Big Ten champions and nine All-Americans, including Erik Sowinski, who placed second in the 800 meters at the NCAA Championships.

IOWA MEN'S GOLF

Head coach Mark Hankins led the Hawkeyes to their third NCAA Championships appearance in the last four years. Iowa collected another top-25 national finish and multiple individuals earned honors throughout the season.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Second-year head coach Fran McCaffery led the Hawkeyes to 18 wins and an NIT bid a year ago. Iowa improved by seven wins from 2011 to 2012, as McCaffery continued to demonstrate his ability to rebuild programs and reenergize the fan base -- Iowa's attendance increased for the second straight year and ranked No. 31 nationally.

IOWA SWIMMING AND DIVING

The Iowa men's swimming and diving team posted its best finish in 17 years, placing fifth in the Big Ten and 26th at the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeye won a pair of Big Ten relay titles and five student-athletes went on to garner honorable mention All-America accolades. On the women's team, freshman Becky Stoughton became the first UI swimmer to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, and she was the first Hawkeye women's swimmer to earn All-America honors since 2005.

45 percent of UI students are from out of state

Ten University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the 10 best in the nation.
-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2013

With over 30,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (4%) ranks among the nations' lowest.
 (May, 2012).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

When a student-athlete considers her future, she should consider prospects beyond volleyball. She should consider where she wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, she should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes go after a loose ball or rebound.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.
Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
