David Skorton was appointed the 19th president of The University of Iowa on March 1, 2003. He has been a faculty member at the University since 1980. He holds joint appointments at the rank of professor in the Departments of Internal Medicine, Electrical and Computer Engineering, and Biomedical Engineering. President Skorton was appointed vice president for research in 1992 and, additionally, interim vice president for external relations in 2000. He served as vice president for research and external relations from March 2002 until he assumed the presidency. As vice president, he oversaw more than 30 administrative units and headed a research and development program that ranks among the nation's top 20 public research universities in obtaining external funding. He also continued his role as a physician, caring for adolescents and adults with inborn heart disease.

Co-founder and co-director of the UI Adolescent and Adult Congenital Heart Disease Clinic at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, President Skorton has focused his research on congenital heart disease in adolescents and adults, cardiac imaging, and computer image processing. His research was supported by the National Institutes of Health, the Department of Veteran Affairs, the American Heart Association and by private industry. He has published numerous articles, reviews, book chapters, and two major texts in the areas of cardiac imaging and image processing. He has served in a variety of administrative positions at The University of Iowa, including director of the Cardiovascular Image Processing Laboratory (1982-1996), director of the Division of General Internal Medicine (1985-1989), and associate chair for clinical programs in the Department of Internal Medicine (1989-1992).

A national leader in research ethics, President Skorton is charter past-president of the Association for the Accreditation of Human Research Protection Programs, Inc., the first entity organized specifically to accredit human research protection programs. He has served on the boards and committees of many national organizations, including the American College of Cardiology, the American Heart Association, the American Institute of Ultrasound in Medicine, the American Society of Echocardiography, the Association for the Accreditation of Human Research Protection Programs, the Association of American Universities, the Council on Competitiveness, and the Korea America Friendship Society. He has traveled widely in Europe and Asia on behalf of both academic and community projects.

President Skorton is actively engaged in service to the community and to the state of Iowa, particularly in regional and state economic development. He served on and chaired the Iowa City Area Development Group, served on the Cedar Rapids Chamber of Commerce Priority One Advisory Committee and the Technology Corridor Committee, and currently serves on the Cedar Rapids Symphony Orchestra Board of Directors. He is also a member of the Iowa Business Council and had served on the Iowa Department of Economic Development Board, the Governor's Life Sciences Advisory Committee, and the Iowa Research Council, of which he was president from 1999-2001.

President Skorton earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1970 and an M.D. in 1974, both from Northwestern University. Following a medical residency and cardiology fellowship at The University of California, Los Angeles, he came to The University of Iowa in 1980 as an instructor. He was named assistant professor of internal medicine in 1981 and assistant professor of electrical and computer engineering in 1982. He was promoted to associate professor in 1984 and to professor in 1988.

As a musician, Dr. Skorton has a longstanding interest in jazz. He grew up in Los Angeles surrounded by Latin music and worked as a professional jazz and R&B musician in the Chicago area. He has continued to study saxophone and flute in Iowa City and hosts a weekly program, "As Night Falls-Latin Jazz," on KSUI, the University's public FM radio station.

Director of Athletics Bob Bowsby is in his 15th year as the head of the University of Iowa intercollegiate athletics program.

As the chief administrator for Iowa's athletic department, Bowsby has earned a reputation as one of the most respected, energetic and ambitious athletic administrators in the nation. Over the past five years, Bowsby has guided and supervised the merger of the women and men's athletics departments. The combined entity encompasses 24 varsity sports and an annual budget in excess of $50 million.

As the head of Iowa athletics, Bowsby has been involved in the hiring of new head coaches in football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, swimming and wrestling, enabling Iowa to maintain its standing as one of the most visible, successful and progressive departments in college athletics.

A Waterloo native, Bowsby became Iowa's 10th Athletic Director in June, 1991, after serving in the same role at the University of Northern Iowa since 1984. He previously served as Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities at Northern Iowa.

Bowsby earned his bachelor's degree from Moorhead State University (Minnesota) in 1975 and his master's degree from the University of Iowa in 1978.

The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named Bowsby in 2001-02 as Central Region Athletic Director of the Year and Sports Business Journal selected him from the four regional award winners as the National Athletics Director of the Year. The award highlights the efforts of the athletic directors for their commitment and positive contributions to campuses and their surrounding communities. Bowsby was part of a 15-member commission on Opportunities in Athletics headed by US Secretary of Education, Rod Paige.

Bowsby served as chair of the NCAA Wrestling Committee and has served on NCAA committees on Financial Aid and Amateurism, the Special Committee to Review Amateurism Issues and the Special Committee to Review Financial Conditions in Athletics. Bowsby just ended a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Basketball Tournament Committee, serving as committee chairman two years (2004 & 2005). The committee selects, seeds, brackets and manages all rounds of the NCAA Basketball Tournament, including the Final Four.

Bob has served as an Executive Committee member with both the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and served in 2002-03 as President of the I-A Directors group.

Bowsby was also elected chair of the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee and represented the NCAA as one of two voting members on the United States Olympic Committee. Bowsby also was appointed by former United States Olympic Committee President LeRoy Walker to the NCAA/USOC Liaison Committee, chaired by George Steinbrenner and former NCAA President Cedric Dempsey. Bob has also served as a member of the Board of Governors for the National Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Bowsby is a charter member of the Iowa Olympics Committee and a current member of the Board of Directors of the Iowa Games. Bob is a board member of the Iowa Scholarship Fund, Inc. and a Board member on the Honda Awards program, which recognizes our nation's top female collegiate athletes each year.

He and his wife, Candice, have four children, Lisa, Matt, Rachel and Kyle. Bowsby was born Jan. 10, 1952.

Kirk Ferentz Head Football Coach Seventh Year at Iowa

Kirk Ferentz is in his seventh year as Iowa's head football coach and last November he signed a contract extension that carries through the 2012 season.

Under the direction of Ferentz and his staff, the Iowa football program has enjoyed its greatest success ever over the past three seasons. Iowa has compiled a 31-7 record in that time, winning at least 10 games each season and sharing the Big Ten title in 2002 and 2004. The Hawkeyes were 11-2 in 2002, 10-3 in 2003 and 10-2 a year ago. Iowa's 20 Big Ten victories are also the most for an Iowa team in any three year span.

Ferentz is 42-31 in six seasons at Iowa and his career mark is 54-52 in nine seasons as a collegiate head coach. His Big Ten record is 27-21.

The Hawkeyes have appeared in four straight bowl games, winning three of the four. Iowa concluded each of the last three seasons playing in Florida in January, a first in the history of the program. In 2001, Iowa defeated Texas Tech 19-16 in the Alamo Bowl to post a 7-5 final record.

After a loss to Southern California in the 2003 Orange Bowl, Iowa won the 2004 Outback Bowl with a 37-17 decision over Florida and the 2005 Capital One Bowl with a thrilling 30-25 win over LSU.

The Hawkeyes have finished eighth nationally in the final rankings in each of the last three years, joining Southern Cal, Oklahoma and Georgia as the only teams with that distinction. The Hawkeyes were the highest rated Big Ten Conference team at the end of the 2005 bowl season.

Iowa, in 2004, earned a share of the Big Ten title for the second time in three seasons. After opening conference play with a loss at Michigan, Iowa won its final seven regular season games, defeating Wisconsin 30-7 in Iowa City on the final weekend to earn the title share.

The Hawkeyes capped the season with their eighth straight victory, earning a 30-25 win over defending national champion LSU. Iowa scored on a 56-yard pass play on the final play of the Capital One Bowl in probably the most exciting, and dramatic, win in Iowa history. Seven of Iowa's 12 opponents were ranked at some point during the season.

Ferentz, as was the case in 2002, earned the Dave McClain Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year honor. Ferentz is one of just seven Big Ten coaches ever to guide a team to 10 wins or more in three straight seasons.

On a national scale, Iowa's record over the past three campaigns ranks eighth best in the nation. The current 18-game winning streak in Kinnick Stadium is the fourth longest active streak and Iowa's current eight-game overall win streak ranks fourth nationally. Iowa has won 13 straight Big Ten home games, also a school record, and 25 of its last 27 games in Kinnick.

Iowa ranks eighth in the nation in winning percentage (.816) over the past three seasons, ninth (.760) over the past four seasons and 10th (.800) over the past two years.

And while Ferentz has guided the Iowa program to great success on the field, the Hawkeyes have also made their mark in the classroom. In 2005, Iowa tied Southern Cal and Virginia Tech as having the best football student-athlete graduation rate (58%) among all Division I teams earning a bowl invitation. Among ranked teams over the last three years, only Iowa and Southern Cal have been in the top five in graduation rates.

Along with Ferentz earning conference and national Coach of the Year recognition, members of his staff have been well recognized as well. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the 2004 Frank Broyles Award, which recognizes the top Division I assistant coach in the nation. Lester Erb, Iowa's receivers and special teams coach, was named by Rivals.com as one of the top 25 recruiters in 2005 and Ron Aiken, Iowa's defensive line coach, was the American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002.

Under Ferentz and his staff, Hawkeye players have gathered all-Big Ten and national recognition at a record pace. Four Hawkeye players have earned national Player of the Year honors at their position in the past three seasons. Those include offensive lineman Robert Gallery (Outland Trophy), place kicker Nate Kaeding (Lou Groza Award), quarterback Brad Banks (Davey O'Brien Award and AP Player of the Year) and tight end Dallas Clark (John Mackey Award). Banks was also the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2002.

Banks was the Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and conference MVP in 2002 and guard Eric Steinbach was the Big Ten Lineman of the Year in 2002. Gallery in 2003 became the ninth Hawkeye to earn the Lineman of the Year award.

Another part of Iowa's success under Ferentz is reflected in the three most recent NFL drafts. In each of the past three drafts, five Iowa players have been selected, including six selections in the top 50 picks. In addition, five Hawkeye players signed NFL free agent contracts the day after the 2003 draft, nine signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2004 draft and three signed in 2005.

Over the past six seasons, 40-of-46 senior starters under Coach Ferentz, have been selected in the NFL Draft or signed to an NFL free agent contract.

Robert Gallery was the second selection in the 2004 NFL Draft, while Bob Sanders was selected in the second round as the first pick of the Indianapolis Colts. Nate Kaeding, a third round selection of the San Diego Chargers, became the first kicker since 2000 (and just the sixth ever) to be selected on the first day of the draft.

Iowa ranks second among Big Ten teams in number of players drafted over the past four years, having 18 players selected in that time. In the 2005 NFL Draft, DE Matt Roth and DT Jonathan Babineaux were second round selections and DB Sean Considine was selected in the fourth round.

Most pre-season polls picked Iowa somewhere in the bottom third of the 2003 Big Ten race. But the Hawkeyes fooled the experts by rising into the nation's top 10 four times during the year, getting as high as eighth in the season-ending poll. Iowa put the topping on the 2003 season by beating a favored Florida team (37-17) in the Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL on New Year's Day.

The 2003 Hawkeyes were the only Big Ten team to beat league champion Michigan (30-27). Five Hawkeyes were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two were named first team all-America. Offensive lineman Robert Gallery was named winner of the 2003 Outland Trophy, which goes to the nation's top collegiate interior lineman.

Kirk was named 2002 Associated Press and The Walter Camp Football Foundation's Coach of the Year. He was also named Big Ten Coach of the Year in a season that saw his team climb as high as third in the national rankings.

Ferentz led the 2002 Iowa football team to its first Big Ten title since 1990 and the most wins (11) in school history. The Hawkeyes also played in the BCS's FedEx Orange Bowl for the first time. Iowa finished the year ranked eighth in both major polls. Iowa posted impressive road wins at Penn State and Michigan on its way to the school's first undefeated Big Ten campaign since 1922. The win over Michigan was the most convincing by a Wolverine opponent, in Ann Arbor, since 1967.

The Orange Bowl appearance at the conclusion of the 2002 season followed a successful 2001 season that saw Iowa win three of its final four games. Iowa earned an invitation to the Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, TX, where the Hawkeyes defeated Texas Tech 19-16.

The foundation of Kirk's program at Iowa was established in his first two seasons and began to pay dividends late in the 2000 season when the Hawkeyes won in double overtime at Penn State. Iowa returned home the following week to post a 27-17 win over Big Ten co-champion Northwestern, ranked 12th in the nation at the time. That late-season success carried over into the winning campaign of 2001.

Ferentz was named Iowa's 25th head football coach on December 2, 1998. He replaced Hayden Fry, who retired following 20 years at Iowa. Ferentz has been a collegiate head coach nine years. He joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been a part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) organization for six years.

Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986-87) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) Freedom (1984) highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Offensive lines under the direction of Ferentz anchored four of Iowa's highest scoring offenses. Five of Iowa's top offensive teams, in terms of yards gained per game, were operating behind Ferentz coached offensive lines. And, seven of Iowa's top 10 passing teams of all time occurred during the Ferentz years of the 1980's.

Kirk's coaching career began as a student assistant (1977) at his alma mater, Connecticut. The next two years (1978-79) were spent at Worcester Academy, where Kirk also taught English literature. He served as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Pittsburgh during the 1980 season. That Pittsburgh team (coached by Jackie Sherrill) finished with an 11-1 record and a number two national ranking.

He joined Fry's staff in 1981 and the Hawkeyes won their first conference title and Rose Bowl berth in over 20 years. A string of 19 straight non-winning seasons came to an end in 1981. Ferentz continued as Iowa's line coach thru the 1989 season.

Eleven Hawkeyes, coached by Ferentz, went on to play in the National Football League. They were John Alt, Rob Baxley, Dave Croston, Scott Davis, Mike Devlin, Chris Gambol, Mike Haight, Ron Hallstrom, Joel Hilgenberg, Bob Kratch and Brett Miller. Alt, Haight and Hallstrom were first round picks in the NFL draft and five of his players were first team all-Big Ten.

He was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years before being hired by Bill Belichick and the Cleveland Browns.

Kirk served as the honorary chair of the University of Iowa's 1999-00 United Way campaign and he serves on the National Advisory Board of the Bethesda Family Services Foundation. Kirk and his wife, Mary, made a $100,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts in 2003.

Ferentz was born August 1, 1955, in Royal Oak, MI. He attended Upper St. Clair high school in Pittsburgh. He graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in English Education. He was a football captain and an academic all-Yankee Conference linebacker at UConn.

Kirk was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002 and inducted into the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May, 2003.

Kirk and his wife, Mary, have five children. They are Brian (22), Kelly (20), Joanne (18), James (16) and Steven (12). Brian, an offensive lineman, is a member of the Iowa football team.

Ken O'Keefe*Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks*Seventh Year at Iowa*Recruits Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Ohio

Ken O'Keefe is in his seventh season as offensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. O'Keefe is in his sixth season as Iowa's quarterbacks coach after coaching Hawkeye wide receivers in 1999.

As the Hawkeyes began the 2004 season, they knew their chances for success on offense would depend on the play of an untested quarterback. Under the direction of O'Keefe, sophomore Drew Tate answered those questions, and more.

In leading Iowa to a share of the Big Ten title and a Capital One Bowl win over defending national champion LSU, Tate posted big numbers. Forced to the air due to multiple injuries to Iowa running backs, Tate earned first team all-Big Ten honors while passing for 2,786 yards and 20 touchdowns. His 56-yard scoring strike on the final play of the Capital One Bowl will go down as one of, if not the, top plays in Hawkeye history.

Tate completed over 62% of his passes a year ago, ranking second in the Big Ten in passing efficiency (134.7), passing yards (232.2) and fourth in total offense (225.8). He was the MVP of the bowl game.

Under O'Keefe's direction, Iowa in 2004 ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, passing efficiency and redzone offense. When everyone knew Iowa had to pass, the Hawkeyes still passed and passed well, winning their final eight games on the way to a 10-2 final record.

Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four seasons, earning a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004. The Hawkeyes have won 31 games in the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa's current streak of Bowl games began with a 19-16 win over Texas Tech in the 2001 Alamo Bowl.

In his first year as a starter, Nathan Chandler in 2003 directed the balanced Iowa offense as the Hawkeyes posted a 10-3 overall record. Chandler passed for over 2,000 yards as Iowa's offense averaged 161.2 passing yards and 172.4 rushing yards per game. Senior RB Fred Russell rushed for over 1,000 yards for the second straight season. Chandler signed a free agent contract with Buffalo.

Ken coached QB Brad Banks to all-America honors in 2002. Banks finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting and was named Associated Press College Football Player of the Year. Banks was also named winner of the Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year Award and won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, emblematic of the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. Banks led the nation in passing efficiency (157.1) and is now playing in the Canadian Football League.

Seven Iowa players were named to the all-Big Ten first offensive unit in 2002. That included players' named Offensive Player of the Year (Brad Banks) and Offensive Lineman of the Year (Eric Steinbach). Four offensive players, Banks, Steinbach, TE Dallas Clark and center Bruce Nelson, earned first team all-America recognition.

Several Iowa quarterbacks coached by O'Keefe have had the opportunity to play in the NFL and, over the past seven years, 11 offensive players coached by O'Keefe have been selected in the NFL draft.

In 2001, QB Kyle McCann led the Hawkeyes to seven wins, including a victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. McCann ranked second in the Big Ten in pass efficiency while completing 66.3% of his passes and throwing for 2,028 yards. McCann competed for Barcelona in the NFL Europe professional league following his career at Iowa.

Under O'Keefe's direction, Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring at 28.7 points per game in 2003 after leading the league in scoring offense in both 2001 (32.6 ppg) and 2002 (37.2 ppg). Iowa finished third in the league in total offense in 2002 at 424.5 yards a game, a figure which ranked 13th nationally. The Hawkeyes finished first in the Big Ten and second nationally in passing efficiency (156.3) in 2002. Iowa also led the league in third-down conversions during the 2002 season and QB sacks allowed (12), while ranking second in rushing offense (214.2) and third in total offense (424.5).

O'Keefe was the head coach at Fordham University in 1998 and was the head coach at Allegheny College for eight seasons (1990-97). His career record of 83-17-1 includes a 79-10-1 mark at Allegheny, where his team won five North Coast Athletic Conference titles and the 1990 NCAA Division III national title. O'Keefe led Allegheny to four undefeated regular seasons (1990, 1991, 1994 and 1996) and six NCAA playoffs.

For his outstanding first year at Allegheny, O'Keefe was named NCAA Division III Coach of the Year in 1990. He was also named conference Coach of the Year four times (1990, 1991, 1993 and 1996) while at Allegheny. All eight of his teams ranked among the nation's top 12 at the end of the season and he coached 38 All-Americans.

Prior to becoming head coach at Allegheny, O'Keefe served as offensive line coach (1986-87) and offensive coordinator (1988-89) there. Ken was an assistant coach at the University of New Haven in 1976 and 1977.

In 1985, he coached Fort Worth (TX) Country Day School, and from 1978-84 he led Worcester (MA) Academy to a 37-11 record and three New England Class A prep championships.

In 1992 O'Keefe led a North Coast Athletic Conference all-star team to Moscow, Russia for a game with the semi-pro Moscow Bears. That experience led to a partnership called Friendship Through Football that resulted in the first youth football games ever between the United States and Russia.

O'Keefe earned his B.A. degree in history from John Carroll University in 1975, where he played football and baseball. He was a three-year starter at wide receiver while at John Carroll.

O'Keefe was born Aug. 18, 1953 in Milford, Conn. He and his wife, Joanne, have two children, Brendan and Meghan.

Norm Parker Defensive Coordinator and Inside Linebackers Seventh Year at Iowa Recruits Michigan

Norm Parker is in his seventh year as defensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. He also coaches the Hawkeye linebackers. In his first three years on the Iowa staff he coached the outside linebackers.

Parker directs an Iowa defense that has earned a reputation as one of the most physical, hard-hitting units in the Big Ten and the nation. Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four seasons, earning a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games in the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa's current streak of bowl games began with a 19-16 win over Texas Tech in the 2001 Alamo Bowl.

The Hawkeye defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including the win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, for the season, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 16th in scoring defense (17.6) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (106.7).

The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in redzone defense for the second straight year. Iowa finished second in the Big Ten in total defense (325 yards) in 2001, third in 2004 (293.8), fourth in 2003 (314.5) and fifth (355.3) in 2002. Iowa led the league in scoring defense (16.2) in 2003.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Iowa has ranked among the top 10 in the nation in rushing defense in each of the past three seasons. Despite the loss of four defensive linemen, the Hawkeyes return five starters from a year ago. Included among the returning starters are senior linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway. Hodge led the Big Ten in tackles as a sophomore and was fourth last season. Greenway ranked third as a sophomore and seventh a year ago.

Four Iowa defensive players were named first team all-Big Ten a year ago, with DE Matt Roth being the only unanimous selection by league coaches. Three Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two others earned second team honors. Hodge and Greenway are first team selections who return in 2005. Roth, DT Jonathan Babineaux and safety Sean Considine were all selected in the first four rounds of the 2005 NFL Draft.

In his first two years at Iowa Norm coached LeVar Woods, who has played with the NFL's Arizona Cardinals the past four seasons. Parker, in his coaching career, has coached 23 players who have gone on to play in the NFL. LB Fred Barr led Iowa in tackles in 2002 and signed an NFL contract with the Tennessee Titans. Kevin Worthy, a 2003 Hawkeye senior linebacker, who also handled deep snaps, signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Rams.

The 1997 Southeastern Conference Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Parker served in that capacity at Vanderbilt University for two seasons and as linebackers coach there for four seasons. In 1997, Vanderbilt's defense led the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation as all six seniors on that defensive unit went on to sign NFL contracts.

The Vanderbilt defense was one of the SEC's best each year under Parker. As linebacker coach in his first two seasons in Nashville, Parker was instrumental in the development of first team All-American Jamie Duncan.

Parker is familiar with Big Ten style football, having coached 12 seasons (1983-94) at Michigan State, five seasons at Minnesota (1972-76) and three seasons at Illinois (1977-79).

At Michigan State, Parker served as defensive coordinator for five years and also coached the outside linebackers. During his tenure at Michigan State, the Spartans won the 1987 Big Ten title and shared the 1990 championship with the Hawkeyes. Parker helped Michigan State to seven bowl games, including the 1988 Rose Bowl, where the Spartans defeated USC, 20-17.

From 1980-82 Parker served as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at East Carolina, and he coached outside linebackers and was director of recruiting at Illinois from 1977-79. At Minnesota from 1972-76 Parker helped the Gophers compile winning records in three of five seasons. Parker also coached receivers at Wake Forest from 1969-71.

Parker earned his B.S. degree in special education in 1965 and his M.A. in physical education in 1967 from Eastern Michigan, where he lettered four times in football and was a member of the wrestling squad for two seasons. Parker was the head coach at St. John's High School in Ypsilanti, MI (1965-67) before joining the staff at Eastern Michigan as offensive line coach (1968).

Parker was born Oct. 9 and he is a native of Hazel Park, MI. He and his wife, Linda, have five grown children, Chelly, Joyce, Jim, and Suzy, along with a special Hawk, Jeff, who is deceased. They also have four grandchildren, Tyler, Alyssa, Colton and Roxanne.

Ron Bernard Aiken

Defensive Line

Seventh year at Iowa

Recruits Texas

Ron Bernard Aiken is in his seventh season as defensive line coach at the University of Iowa. He was named 2002 American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

Iowa's defense has ranked as one of the best in the nation over the last few seasons, and the play of the defensive front has been a key ingredient in the Hawkeye success. Iowa's front line consisted of four seniors a year ago, and each played a key role as Iowa won its final eight games of the year. DE Matt Roth and DT Jonathan Babineaux each earned first team all-Big Ten honors, and each was selected in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Both earned second team all-America recognition.

In addition, DT Tyler Luebke and DE Derrick Robinson both enjoyed the best season of their career as all four stayed healthy while starting all 12 games. Iowa led the Big Ten in rushing defense. The Hawkeyes were fifth nationally in rushing defense, sixth in turnover margin and 11th in total defense. Both Luebke and Robinson signed free agent contracts the Monday following the NFL Draft.

Due in large part to the play of the defensive line, Iowa's rushing defense ranked second in the Big Ten for three straight years before leading the league in 2004. The Hawkeyes were fifth in the nation against the run (81.9) in 2002, seventh in 2003 (92.7) and fifth again in 2004 (92.5). Iowa in the past three seasons has also ranked among Big Ten leaders in scoring defense, turnover margin, QB sacks and pass efficiency defense.

Aiken coached Hawkeye tackle Colin Cole to all-American honors in 2002. Both Cole and end Howard Hodges were named to the first all-Big Ten team in 2002 and tackle Jared Clauss earned honorable mention recognition.

In 2001, DE Aaron Kampman was first team all-Big Ten and earned academic all-America honors. Cole and DT Derrick Pickens earned honorable mention all-Big Ten honors and Pickens was the Defensive Player of the Game in the Sylvania Alamo Bowl. Iowa's three defensive linemen who were seniors in 2001 all signed NFL contracts. Cole signed an NFL contract with the Minnesota Vikings following his senior season in 2002. Jared Clauss was drafted by the Tennessee Titans in the 2004 NFL Draft and Howard Hodges signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers.

Ron currently serves as the Big Ten Conference representative for the Assistant Coaches Committee of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). He also served as Committee Chair for the AFCA awards banquet in 2003.

Aiken joined the Iowa staff in 1999 after serving as linebackers coach at San Diego State during the 1998 season. Aiken coached defensive tackles at the University of Texas in 1997 and coached the defensive line at Vanderbilt University from 1995-96. Aiken coached linebackers and defensive ends at New Mexico from 1990-94.

In 1998 all three of Aiken's linebackers at San Diego State earned all-conference honors in the Western Athletic Conference. San Diego State finished 35th nationally in total defense in 1998 and the Aztecs earned an invitation to the Las Vegas Bowl after winning a share of the WAC title.

During his two years at Vanderbilt Ron worked with Norm Parker, Iowa's current defensive coordinator, helping the Commodores rank as one of the top 30 defensive units in the nation.

While on the staff at New Mexico Aiken coached five players who earned all-WAC honors and at Vanderbilt Ron coached two players who earned all-conference recognition in the Southeastern Conference.

Aiken was the head coach at Langston (OK) from 1986-89, where his teams led the nation (NAIA Div. I) in defense in two of four seasons. The Lions finished 5-5 and 5-4-1 in Aiken's last two seasons there.

Ron was special teams coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1985, he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Tarkio College from 1982-84 and he coached the offensive line and special teams at Bethany College from 1979-81. Aiken began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Boiling Springs HS in South Carolina and in 1979 became head coach at Greensville County (VA) High School.

Aiken earned all-conference honors while playing guard and center at North Carolina A&T. He was a team captain in 1976.

Ron earned his B.A. degree in history from North Carolina A&T in 1977 and an M.A. in secondary education from The Citadel in 1982.

Aiken was born August 18, 1955 in Moncks Corner, SC. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three sons: Matthew, Stephen and Joshua.

Lester Erb
Receivers and Special Teams
Sixth year at Iowa
Recruits Illinois and Wisconsin

Lester Erb is in his sixth season as wide receivers and special teams coach at the University of Iowa. He became a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff in 2000 after spending one year on the Army staff as tight ends coach.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

Over the past four years, the play of Iowa's special teams has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. The Hawkeyes ranked second in the Big Ten in punt returns (13.7) last season and 15th in the nation. Iowa also recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals in 2004. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU, while the two blocked field goals took place in the 23-21 home win over Purdue.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495) while ranking among Big Ten leader in both punt and kickoff returns.

Erb coached PK Nate Kaeding to first team all-America honors in both 2002 and 2003. Kaeding was also named winner of the 2002 Lou Groza Placekicker of the Year award and he was one of three finalists for the award in 2003. Kaeding is Iowa's career scoring leader and holds 14 school records. He was drafted in the third round of the NFL draft by the San Diego Chargers, the first kicker since 2000 to be selected on the first day of the draft.

Under Erb's direction, Iowa's 2002 kickoff return team led the nation with a 25.1 yard average. Iowa, in the past three seasons, has ranked third, first and third, respectively, in the Big Ten in kickoff coverage, while also ranking among league leaders in net punting. Iowa's opponents averaged just 7.9 yards on punt returns a year ago.

While Iowa's receiving corp was a question mark heading into the 2004 season, the group came together to form one of Iowa's strongest areas. Ed Hinkel (63-744-7 TDs) and Clinton Solomon (58-905-6 TDs) were the team receiving leaders, and both return as seniors in 2005. Solomon was second team all-Big Ten last season, while Hinkel received honorable mention honors.

Wide receivers C.J. Jones and Maurice Brown were both named to the honorable mention all-Big Ten team in 2002. Jones plays in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns. Brown, as a senior in 2003, had 33 receptions for 507 yards, despite missing all of five games due to injury. Brown signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints following his senior year.

In 2001, Iowa led the Big Ten Conference in punt returns (14.6 yards per return) and ranked fifth in kickoff returns (20.1 yards per return). WR Kahlil Hill was named as the national Special Teams Player of the Year after ranking nationally in both punt and KO returns. Defensively, Iowa's opponents averaged just 7.5 yards on punt returns and 19 yards on kickoff returns.

Iowa's wide receivers also had an excellent season in 2000, with Kevin Kasper setting a single-season record with 82 catches (for 1,010 yards) and Hill catching 58 passes for 619 yards. Hill also ranked among national leaders in both kickoff and punt returns as a junior. Five Iowa receivers, coached by Erb over the last three seasons, have signed NFL contracts.

Erb has two years experience (1997 & 1998) in the National Football League, having worked directly with Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz on the Baltimore Ravens staff. He was Baltimore's offensive quality control coach while working with the offensive line. He was largely responsible for scouting opponent defenses and assisted with special teams.

Erb has gained experience on the Syracuse and Hobart College football staffs. Erb served three years at Syracuse, where his primary responsibilities included helping with the offensive line and scout team preparation. Erb also coached receivers at Hobart College for three years.

Erb was a standout receiver at Bucknell University, where he set records for touchdown receptions in a season and career. He set a school record for average yards per catch in a single game when he averaged 33.7 yards on six catches vs. Fordham. His 902 receiving yards in 1989 ranks second best all-time at Bucknell. He ranks fifth in career all-purpose yards (3,286) and was Bucknell's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1990.

He earned his B.A. in business administration from Bucknell and his M.A. in high educational administration from Syracuse.

Erb was born April 22, 1969. He and his wife, Eileen, have a son, Jacob, and a daughter, Emily.

Carl Jackson

Running Backs
20th year at Iowa
Recruits Texas

Carl Jackson, a member of the University of Iowa coaching staff from 1979-91, is in his seventh year as running backs coach since re-joining the Iowa staff. Carl previously served in that same capacity for the Hawkeyes from 1979-88 and he was Iowa's offensive coordinator from 1989-91.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

The Hawkeyes won 10 games a year ago despite an amazing rash of injuries at the running back and fullback positions. In the first five games of the season, three running backs suffered season-ending injuries. A fourth running back was injured in the sixth game of the year and he did not return until the final game of the regular season and two fullbacks also missed games due to injury.

With walk-on Sam Brownlee and true freshman Damian Sims sharing the rushing game duties, the Hawkeyes still found a way to win, closing the season with an eight game winning streak and winning a share of the league title.

A key part of Iowa's offensive success in 2002 and 2003 was running back Fred Russell. Russell was first team all-Big Ten in 2002 and second team in 2003. He rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of his last two seasons and ended his career with 2,760 yards, fourth best in school history. The MVP of Iowa's 2004 Outback Bowl win over Florida, Russell averaged over 100 rushing yards per game in each of his final two seasons.

Russell signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins to become the fourth Hawkeye running back coached by Jackson in the past six years to move onto the NFL. In addition, fullback Edgar Cervantes, a 2003 senior, signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants.

In 2001 Jackson helped coach running back Ladell Betts to second team all-Big Ten honors and a spot in the Senior Bowl. Betts became the first Iowa player to lead the team in rushing four straight years and he has been a member of the NFL's Washington Redskins the past three seasons. Betts rushed for over 1,000 yards in both 2000 and 2001. Betts ranks second in career rushing and is one of three Iowa RBs (Russell and Sedrick Shaw are the others) to gain over 1,000 yards in more than one season.

Jackson has coached eight of the 10 Hawkeye running backs who have rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season and 12 running backs Jackson has coached in college have gone on to play in the NFL.

During his first 13-year stint with the Hawkeyes Jackson coached five running backs (Tony Stewart, Nick Bell, Dennis Mosley, Rick Bayless and Ronnie Harmon) to 1,000-yard seasons. Mosley in 1979 became the first Iowa player ever to rush for over 1,000 yards in a single season and Stewart ended his career as Iowa's career rushing leader (he currently ranks third).

With Jackson on the coaching staff, Iowa has won five Big Ten championships, earning Rose Bowl appearances in 1982, 1986 and 1991. Iowa earned a BCS Orange Bowl appearance in 2002 and the Hawkeyes won the 2004 Outback Bowl and the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The Hawkeyes have appeared in eight additional bowl games.

The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense in 1990. Iowa was ranked 11th in scoring offense, 14th in rushing offense and 15th in total offense, nationally. In 1991 the Hawkeyes tied the then-school record with 10 victories and were ranked 5th in the nation in the final CNN/USA Today coaches poll. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring in both 2001 (32.6) and 2002 (37.2).

Jackson also worked with the Hawkeye kicking game during his previous stint on the Iowa staff. Punter Reggie Roby in 1981 set an NCAA record by averaging 49.8 yards per punt and placekicker Rob Houghtlin was Iowa's career scoring leader before being passed by Nate Kaeding in 2003.

In 1992, Jackson joined the staff of the San Francisco 49'ers as offensive backfield coach. The 49'ers made the NFL playoffs all five of Jackson's seasons in San Francisco (1992-96), winning the Super Bowl in 1995. He also coached two NFL Pro Bowl games in 1993 and 1994.

In 1997 Jackson moved to the University of Texas, serving as offensive backfield coach under head Coach John Mackovic. At Texas, Carl coached NCAA rushing and scoring leader Ricky Williams. He coached Lincoln High School in Port Arthur, TX, in 1998.

Jackson served as running backs coach at North Texas State under Hayden Fry from 1976-78 before coming to Iowa. He coached 14 years (1963-76) in the Texas high school ranks prior to joining Fry at NTSU in 1976.

An outstanding athlete at Prairie View A&M, Jackson was a two-time all-conference quarterback and first team academic All-American. He was named the school's outstanding athlete in 1961. He placed third in the long jump at the NAIA national track meet in 1961 and second in 1962. His career best leap was 25-3 1/2.

Jackson earned his B.S. degree in 1963 and his M.S. in 1975, both from Prairie View A&M.

Jackson was born Aug. 16, 1940, in Bay City, TX. He and his wife, Doris, have two grown children, Carl, Jr. and Cheryl, and two grandchildren, Cara (13) and Aaron (11) Jackson.

Eric Johnson
Recruiting Coordinator and Tight Ends
Seventh year at Iowa
Recruits Minnesota, Missouri and Ohio

Eric Johnson is in his seventh year at the University of Iowa. Johnson is in his third year Iowa's recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach after serving as Iowa's quality control assistant for three years. He was a defensive graduate assistant during his first year (1999) at Iowa.

Johnson has been heavily involved in Iowa's recruiting efforts since joining the Hawkeye staff. Iowa's 2005 recruiting class is ranked among the top 10 in the nation by all of the top recruiting services, while Iowa's classes in 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2004 were all ranked in the nation's top 25.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

Last season Eric coached Tony Jackson, who was selected by Seattle in the 2005 NFL Draft. In 2003 Johnson coached Erik Jensen, who was taken in the NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams. All tight ends who have started for Iowa over the last six years have gone on to play for NFL teams.

Johnson joined the Iowa staff after serving as a graduate assistant coach at Vanderbilt University from 1996-98, working one season with the linebackers and two years with the defensive backs. At Vanderbilt Eric worked under Coach Woody Widenhofer for one season and under Norm Parker, Iowa's current defensive coordinator, for two years.

Johnson attended Vanderbilt after his prep career at Whitefish Bay HS in Milwaukee, WI, where he was defensive MVP as a senior linebacker. After a redshirt season Eric was a member of the Vanderbilt squad for one season before being injured.

Johnson was a student assistant coach at Vandy for two seasons, working with Coach Gerry DiNardo. After earning his bachelor's degree in history in 1995, Eric remained at Vanderbilt as Director of Football Operations for one year before serving as a graduate assistant coach. Johnson has completed course work towards his master's degree in health, promotion and education.

Eric was born May 24, 1972 in Milwaukee. Eric and his wife, Patsy, have twin one year old daughters, Jamieson and Sydney.

Reese Morgan

Offensive Line

Sixth Year at Iowa

Recruits Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota

Reese Morgan, one of the most successful high school coaches in Iowa prep history, is in his sixth year with the Hawkeyes. Morgan is in his third season as Iowa's offensive line coach after spending the first three years on the staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

Among the reasons for Iowa's recent success has been the play of Iowa's offensive line, working under the direction of Morgan. While the number of injuries sustained by running backs in 2004 hampered the consistency of Iowa's rushing attack, the Hawkeyes adjusted by developing one of the most dangerous passing attack in the nation.

With just one senior in the starting group, Iowa's offensive linemen adapted to the change and improved from week to week as the Hawkeyes scored 23 points or more in the final five games of the season, including 30 points in wins over Wisconsin and LSU. For the year, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, pass efficiency and redzone offense.

The lone senior in the group, right tackle Pete McMahon, led the way with a standout senior season. Facing two of the more-highly regarded defensive ends in the nation in Iowa's final two games, McMahon led by example by controlling his opponents, who were both first round selections in the NFL Draft. McMahon's talent was recognized, as he was taken in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Despite the loss of McMahon, the Hawkeyes return a number of veteran offensive linemen for the 2005 campaign.

Anchored by consensus all-American Robert Gallery, the Outland Trophy winner, at left tackle, Iowa's offensive line had four new starters at the beginning of the 2003 season. By the end of the year, in which the Hawkeyes won 10 games and featured RB Fred Russell with over 1,300 rushing yards, the offensive line had meshed together as one of Iowa's strong points. The Hawkeyes ended the season by scoring 27 points or more in three straight wins over ranked opponents, rushing for over 200 yards in a season-ending win at Wisconsin and in the Outback Bowl win over Florida.

Gallery was named first team on every all-America team at the end of the year. He was the second player selected in the NFL Draft, being taken by the Oakland Raiders. In becoming Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner, he became the second Outland Trophy winner coached by Morgan. As the head coach at Benton Community HS, Morgan coached Chad Hennings, the 1987 winner, who was a defensive tackle at the Air Force Academy.

In addition to Gallery being selected in the first round of the 2004 draft, center Eric Rothwell (Kansas City) and tackle Sam Aiello (Chicago) signed free agent contracts immediately following the draft.

As tight ends coach in 2002, Morgan coached tight end Dallas Clark to consensus all-America honors. Clark was also named winner of the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to college football's top tight end. Clark was named to at least seven first team all-America teams.

Morgan became part of the Iowa staff after eight years at West High School in Iowa City. He took a West program that had lost 35 straight games and resurrected the program to elite status in the state. West won state Class 4A (largest class in the state) titles in 1995, 1998 and 1999. Morgan left the program with a 26-game winning streak.

Between 1994 and 1999 his West High School teams were 62-7. His overall record at West was 67-20. He has totaled 146 career prep victories. Morgan is a member of the Iowa High School Coach's Hall of Fame.

He also served as Assistant Principal and Dean of Students at Iowa City West High School.

Reese also served as a teacher (1973-92), assistant football coach (1973-77) and head football coach (1978-91) at Benton Community High School. He led Benton Community to a winning football season in 1978 and guided his teams there into the state playoffs on three occasions.

Morgan attended St. Mary's High School in Lorain, OH. He lettered three times in football and one year in track and field. He was a linebacker on the Wartburg College football team. Reese was a four-year letterman for the Knights and was team captain as a senior in 1971.

Morgan earned his BA degree in education from Wartburg and earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Northern Iowa.

Morgan was born June 22, 1950. Reese and his wife, Jo, have two daughters, Jessica and Caitlin, and a granddaughter, Morgan.

Phil Parker
Defensive Backs
Seventh Year at Iowa
Recruits Florida

Phil Parker is in his seventh season as defensive backs coach at the University of Iowa.

Featuring a solid, hard-hitting defense, a well-balanced offense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

Under Parker's direction, Iowa's defensive secondary has earned a solid reputation as a solid unit, year in and year out. Last season the Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in turnover margin and redzone defense, ranked second in the Big Ten in pass defense and pass efficiency defense and the Hawkeyes were third in total defense. Iowa has ranked among the Big Ten leaders in these categories in each of the past three seasons. Iowa's secondary recorded 13 pass interceptions in 2004.

Despite the loss of strong safety Bob Sanders, a first team all-Big Ten selection for three straight seasons, Iowa's secondary was solid again in 2004. With senior Sean Considine and sophomore Marcus Paschal stepping into the starting safety positions, the Hawkeyes didn't miss a beat. Considine was drafted in the fourth round of the 2005 NFL Draft by Philadelphia, while Paschal ranked third on the team with 58 tackles.

Cornerbacks Jovon Johnson and Antwan Allen, both three-year starters, return for their final year this fall. They both recorded four interceptions last season to share the team lead. Johnson is tied for third in career interceptions with 14. Both Johnson and Allen earned all-Big Ten honorable mention recognition last season after earning freshman all-America honors in 2002.

Under Parker's direction, Sanders became the ninth Iowa player to earn first team all-Big Ten honors for three seasons. Sanders earned second team all-America honors in 2003 and was taken by Indianapolis in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft. He ranks seventh in career tackles (348).

In addition, free safety Derek Pagel, a former walk-on, earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 and was a fifth round selection of the New York Jets. D.J. Johnson, a senior in 2002, is playing for Montreal in the Canadian Football League.

In 1999, Iowa's secondary was led by the play of safety Matt Bowen. Bowen led the team in tackles (109) for the second straight season. He was voted second team all-Big Ten and was a sixth round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the NFL Draft. Bowen has played for the Washington Redskins for the past two years after signing a multi-year contract.

Parker was the defensive backfield coach at Toledo for 11 seasons prior to joining the Iowa staff. During his tenure at Toledo, Parker coached 10 all-conference selections and helped the Rockets win conference division championships in 1997 and 1998.

Toledo won Mid-American Conference championships in 1990 and 1995 and competed in the 1995 Las Vegas Bowl. In 1995 Toledo completed an undefeated season and was ranked 22nd in the final UPI poll and 24th in the CNN poll. Toledo that season led the nation in turnover margin. Two of his Toledo players, Darren Anderson and Clarence Love, were drafted and played in the NFL. In 1998, Toledo ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense.

In 1990 the Toledo defense ranked 12th in the nation in total defense. Toledo in 1992 ranked ninth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and 11th in rushing defense.

Parker served as a graduate assistant coach for one year at Michigan State. Parker was on the Spartan staff in 1987 when MSU won the Big Ten title and defeated Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Phil was a standout defensive back at Michigan State, earning first team all-Big Ten honors in 1983, 1984 and 1985. Parker was named defensive MVP at Michigan State in 1983 and 1985 and was invited to the Hula Bowl following his senior season.

While at Michigan State Parker helped the Spartans earn invitations to the 1984 Cherry Bowl, where he was named Most Valuable Player, and the 1985 All-American Bowl.

Parker earned his B.S. degree from Michigan State in 1986.

Parker was born March 13, 1963 in Lorain, OH. Phil and his wife, Sandy, have two children, Tyler and Paige.

Darrell Wilson

Outside Linebackers and Special Teams

Fourth year at Iowa

Recruits New Jersey, Delaware, Eastern Pennsylvania (including the greater Philadelphia area) and Florida (Broward County & Jacksonville area)

Darrell Wilson, a coach with collegiate and high school football coaching experience, is in his fourth year on the Iowa staff. He coaches the outside linebackers and special teams.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has appeared in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four years.

The Hawkeyes have won 31 games over the past three years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa has won 20 Big Ten games in the past three seasons, sharing the league title in both 2002 and 2004.

The Hawkeye defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including the win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, last season, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 16th in scoring defense (17.6) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (106.7). The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in redzone defense for the second straight year.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Under Wilson's direction, George Lewis started 10 games a year ago at outside linebacker. Lewis recorded 43 tackles and following the season signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins.

Darrell coached Grant Steen at outside linebacker in 2002 and 2003 as Steen earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 and honorable mention recognition as a senior. Steen intercepted three passes in a win at Indiana in 2002, a feat that tied an NCAA record for interceptions in a game by a linebacker. The former walk-on was one of Iowa's steadiest performers as a defensive starter for three seasons and he signed a free agent contract with the Super Bowl champion New England Patriots following his senior season.

Over the past four years, the play of Iowa's special teams has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. The Hawkeyes ranked second in the Big Ten in punt returns (13.7) last season and 15th in the nation. Iowa also recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals in 2004. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU, while the two blocked field goals took place in the 23-21 home win over Purdue.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. Three of the blocks were recovered for Iowa touchdowns and the other two lead to Hawkeye field goals. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495) while ranking among Big Ten leader in both punt and kickoff returns.

Wilson joined the Iowa staff after serving as outside linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Wisconsin for two years (2000-01). One of his star players at Wisconsin was punter Kevin Stemke, winner of the 2000 Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award.

He also coached running backs at Rutgers (1999) and the defensive secondary and wide receivers at Rhode Island (1996-98).

Before his collegiate coaching career began, he compiled a 65-18 record as head coach at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, NJ (1988-95). His Wilson HS teams won five conference championships and four times advanced to the South Jersey Group III state finals.

Along with the outstanding success of his teams on the football field, Wilson was named Camden's "Citizen of the Year" by the Rotary Club in 1992.

A former honorable mention Division I-AA all-America defensive back for Connecticut (1976-80), Wilson was named to the Huskies' 100th anniversary all-time team in 1998. He played one year with the New England Patriots (1981) and five seasons (1982-86) with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. He was a member of the 1983 squad that won the CFL's Grey Cup.

Wilson graduated with a B.A. in sociology from Connecticut in 1981.

Darrell was born July 28, 1958. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters, Brianna, Kayla, Kiana and Jehlani.

Chris Doyle

Strength and Conditioning
Seventh Year at Iowa

Chris Doyle is in his seventh year as strength and conditioning coach for the University of Iowa football program. He is credited with giving Iowa players the strength to "Break the Rock", winning the 2002 Big Ten title.

As the head of Iowa's strength and conditioning program, Doyle has seen the Hawkeyes appear in four straight bowl games while winning 38 games over the past four seasons. Iowa has won 31 games over the past three seasons, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and defeating LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa began its current streak of four straight bowl games with a 19-16 win over Texas Tech in the 2001 Alamo Bowl.

Doyle is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). That group named him the Big Ten Strength Coach of the Year in 1999. He was one of 20 nominees for the Professional of the Year Award, an award given annually and selected by the NSCA membership. The award recognizes college professionals who have shown excellence in strength training and conditioning programs.

He served as director of strength and conditioning for the University of Utah in 1998. Under Doyle's direction the Utah basketball team played in the national championship game. While in Utah, Doyle also served as state director for the NSCA.

Doyle was assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Wisconsin from 1996-98. He oversaw the training programs for football and hockey teams during this time. The Badger football team participated in two bowl games (Copper and Outback) and the hockey team won the WCHA championship during his tenure.

As a strength and conditioning professional, Doyle has tutored 130 student-athletes who have advanced to the professional ranks in the NFL, NHL and NBA. Iowa has had a total of 15 players selected in the past three NFL Drafts, while as many as 18 additional Hawkeye players have signed free agent contracts in the past three years.

Over the past six years, 40 of 46 Iowa senior starters have been selected in the NFL Draft or signed an NFL free agent contract. In addition, Iowa has seen five walk-ons drafted over the past three seasons.

Doyle served as offensive line coach at Holy Cross from 1992-95. He also worked as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 1991 and Syracuse in 1990. Notre Dame won the 1992 Sugar Bowl following the 1991 season and Syracuse won the 1990 Aloha Bowl.

Doyle was a three-year starter on the offensive line at Boston University from 1986-88. Doyle served as a student assistant for the football program there in 1989.

Chris earned his B.S. in human movement from Boston University in 1990 and his M.Ed. in education from Boston University in 1991.

Doyle was born June 30, 1968. Chris is from Quincy, Mass. and attended Boston College High School. He was inducted into the Boston College High School Hall of Fame in November, 2004. Chris and his wife, Tia, have three sons, Declan, Donovan and Dillon.

Jon McLaughlin

Quality Control Assistant
Sixth Year at Iowa

Jon McLaughlin is in his sixth year on the University of Iowa football staff. Jon is in his third year as Iowa's quality control assistant after working with the Iowa offensive line as a graduate assistant.

Assisting the Iowa program in many areas, McLaughlin has been heavily involved in Iowa's recruiting classes that were ranked among the top 25 in the nation in both 2003 and 2004. Iowa's 2005 recruiting class is ranked among the top 10 in the nation.

McLaughlin in 2002 assisted with the Iowa offense that ranked seventh in the nation in scoring (37.2), 13th in total offense (424.5) and 17th in rushing offense (214.2). The Hawkeye offense led the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight season, while also leading the league in pass efficiency (156.3), third down conversions (46.6%) and sacks allowed (12), while ranking second in rushing offense and third in total offense.

McLaughlin joined the Iowa staff after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA for three seasons. McLaughlin was on the staff at Muhlenberg for four years. His first season there he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He was also the Muhlenberg baseball coach in 1996-97.

In 1995 McLaughlin was on the staff at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, serving as assistant offensive line coach and head junior varsity coach.

McLaughlin served as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Hobart College in Geneva, NY in 1993-94, where he worked with current Iowa assistant Lester Erb.

Jon was the defensive line coach at Alfred University in Alfred, NY in 1992.

McLaughlin coached at the high school level in 1991, serving as offensive and defensive line coach at Watkins Glen High School in Watkins Glen, NY.

As a player McLaughlin was a four-year starter in the defensive line at Alfred University.

Jon earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Alfred University in 1991 and his master's degree in recreational sports management from Iowa in 2003.

McLaughlin was born June 11, 1968 in Bloomfield, CT.

2005 SEASON PREVIEW

Iowa football continues to improve and make strides. The 2004 season was no exception. Despite many and various challenges, the Hawkeyes had an excellent season that resulted in another Big Ten title and January bowl game. Head Coach Kirk Ferentz and his staff continue to guide the Hawkeyes up the ladder of collegiate football success, knowing, at the same time, that many more steps are waiting to be climbed. The staff and players look forward to the challenges that lie ahead.

The expectations for 2005 will be high, indeed. Many publications have the Hawkeyes listed among the top twenty in pre-season polls and a number of Hawkeye players have earned pre-season recognition. A strong blend of experience and underclassmen will again make Iowa a team to be reckoned with.

The beginning of the 2004 season gave no clues as to what lied ahead for Hawkeye fans. September road losses to very good Arizona State and Michigan teams left the Hawkeyes on the edge of a potentially mediocre season. But, seven straight league wins propelled Iowa to its second Big Ten title in three years and another January 1st bowl game. Of special note during the year was the Hawkeyes' fifth straight win over Penn State and third straight over Wisconsin and Minnesota. Iowa's mental toughness was instrumental with the fact that five wins were by seven points or less and three were by a mere two points.

The success of the 2004 Hawkeyes was achieved under adverse conditions. Ferentz has stated with pride that his squads usually are a 50-50 team on the run-pass ratio. Last year the Hawkeyes were forced into becoming primarily a one-dimensional passing team. Four of Iowa's top five rushers were hurt during the season with, three going down with season-ending injuries in Iowa's first three home games. What little rushing the Hawkeyes were able to muster came from a walk-on and a transfer, who, coming into the season, were listed 4-5 on the depth chart and both of them were hurt during the season.

As has been the case in the last few years, the Hawkeyes lost another great senior class. The 2004 seniors included four offensive starters (WR Warren Holloway, OL Pete McMahon, TE Tony Jackson and FB Aaron Mickens), six from defense (DL Jonathan Babineaux, DE Matt Roth, DE Derreck Robinson, DL Tyler Luebke, OLB George Lewis and DB Sean Considine) and punter David Bradley. The Hawkeyes lost 18 lettermen, six fewer than the previous year. Nevertheless, their loss in terms of talent and leadership will be immeasurable.

The good news is the return of 44 lettermen. That list includes five returning starters on defense (LB Chad Greenway, LB Abdul Hodge, DB Antwan Allen, DB Jovon Johnson and DB Marcus Paschal) and six on offense (OL Mike Jones, OL Brian Ferentz, OL Mike Elgin, QB Drew Tate, RB Sam Brownlee and WR Ed Hinkel). Placekicker Kyle Schlicher returns for his junior year, while tackle Lee Gray, who started all 12 games in 2004, will sit out this season due to injury and hopefully return in 2006.

Hodge, Greenway and Tate are returning first-team all-Big Ten players while WR Clinton Solomon was named to the second team.

The 2005 Hawkeyes could be very strong offensively with a group that includes all-Big Ten quarterback Drew Tate. The Hawkeyes were second in Big Ten passing offense (240.1 yards a game). An excellent group of receivers are back to take in Tate's aerials. The hope this year is to keep a stable of running backs healthy behind an experienced offensive line.

The Iowa defense starts with a pair of all-America candidates in linebackers Chad Greenway and Abdul Hodge. They could very well be the best linebacking duo in college football. The defensive front needs to be rebuilt, but three-fourths of a talented and experienced secondary return.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Like every year, we face the task of trying to replace some outstanding seniors. The most noticeable positions certainly would be the defensive line, and, the punting position. Not to minimize anyone else's position, but anytime you lose a punter or kicker, that certainly requires attention. And then, the defensive line, mainly because all four starters were seniors last year, is a very dramatic change.

With that being said, I think the great news is that right now we have a great supporting cast around our defensive line. This is the most experienced group of linebackers and secondary players that we've had coming back, so that will help defuse the inexperience factor up front a little bit. The second part is that the defensive made significant strides during the second half of spring practice, even with a couple of guys being out due to injuries. When we get everyone back on the field in August, if we can continue to make improvement, we'll have a chance to pull things together.

We should be more cohesive on the offensive line than we have been the last two years. We really graduated five seniors in 2002, with Robert Gallery being the only returning guy up front. So it took awhile for that to come together. Last year, we felt we had an opportunity to have a pretty solid line. Then we had the injuries, during the off-season, so it was a little bit of a scramble, at least until mid-season.

Right now, it looks like we have the most experience we've had in quite some time up front, and, it's the first time we've come back with a guy playing quarterback who played a full season and led us the year before. So, we're in maiden territory here, but its good territory to be in. We're excited about that. With those two factors involved, we have a chance to be more cohesive offensively. We have three senior receivers, so those things will give us an opportunity to be a little more productive than last year."

Here is a look at the Hawkeyes, position by position.

QUARTERBACK

Last season was the first time in five years Iowa didn't begin the season with a senior quarterback. Now the team will reap the rewards of something it's unfamiliar with, a returning starter at quarterback. Drew Tate returns as the league's all-Big Ten signal caller from 2004 and is a legitimate candidate for all-America honors. He was named Iowa's offensive MVP, the MVP of the Capital One Bowl and College Football News' Big Ten Player of the Year.

Tate (6-0, 185) threw for 2,786 yards and 20 touchdowns. He completed 233 of 375 passes while starting all 12 games. He was second in league pass efficiency (134.7), third in passing yards a game (232.2) and fourth in total offense (225.8). His accurate passing and ability to make things happen was an invaluable asset to an injury riddled Iowa running game. He was credited with 89 rushes last year.

And, if Tate never played another down at Iowa, he'd still be forever known as the quarterback who threw a 56-yard scoring strike to Warren Holloway on the final play of the game to win the 2005 Capital One Bowl.

Listed behind Tate on the depth charts are junior Jason Manson (6-1, 195) and senior Cy Phillips (6-6, 227). Both are talented athletes with strong arms but have little game experience.

Coordinator Ken O'Keefe has done a masterful job directing new Iowa quarterbacks. This year he won't have to begin as slowly with a new starter.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"The good news is that Drew has experience now. I think the big thing right now, we all remember the great plays Drew made, and he made a bunch of them for us, but there were a few plays in there that were ugly too. The challenge, and the way you get better as a player, is to focus on the things that you didn't do as well as you would have liked. The thing we were all most pleased about this spring was the attitude Drew took towards spring practice. He wasn't walking around here like a celebrity, he really focused on the things he knows he needs to improve upon and on things he needs to continue to learn. We've had some great players, but we haven't had anybody who has had the attitude that they had it all figured out. Whether it be a Nate Kaeding, Robert Gallery, Dallas Clark, Bob Sanders or Brad Banks. That's what we saw with Drew this spring. His attitude was great towards practice. As long as his attitude stays the way we expect it to, he's going to continue to get better and better.

Certainly Jason is a much better football player than he was a year ago and he is a strong leader. A lot of times, that gets overlooked, but he really has done a lot of great things for us. He's been very helpful to Drew, he's very knowledgeable with what we are doing, and, he's also competed well on the field, which forces Drew to be sharper. I think we are at the point with Jason that we feel very comfortable, that if he has to step in there and do the job, we're confident that he will do it. From that stand point, with one and two at that position we are far more experienced and advanced than we were a year ago, and that's a real good starting point."

RUNNING BACK

Last year was very challenging for Iowa's running backs. The Hawkeyes lost starters (Marcus Schnoor, Albert Young and Jermelle Lewis) to season ending injuries in Iowa's first three home games. Furthermore, the fourth and fifth backs on the depth chart were injured at other times during the season.

Walk-on junior Sam Brownlee (5-10, 200) and senior transfer Marques Simmons (5-8, 202) carried much of the load following the injuries to the top three. Simmons was injured in Iowa's game with Ohio State and missed four games before returning for the final two outings, while Brownlee was injured in the Minnesota game. Following the Simmons injury Ferentz was forced to pull the redshirt off freshman Damian Sims (5-9, 185). He played in seven games during a season he expected to redshirt. Brownlee led Iowa rushers with 227 net yards and Simmons totaled 194.

The good news is the Hawkeyes head into the fall with five players who gained some valuable game experience a year ago and the three injured players are all expected to be 100% in August. Schnoor (6-1, 198) was Iowa's third leading rusher in 2003 with 163 yards (5.6 average) and is considered a hard-nosed runner. Young (5-10, 207) was also injured (broken leg) just prior to the start of the 2003 season.

The running backs will have the benefit of working behind an experienced offensive line and against defenses that must respect the Iowa passing game. All five of the returning running backs were number one on the depth charts at one time last year. It's very possible the depth chart could look much different when Iowa opens the season against Ball State. All are talented and could handle the demands of being Iowa's top running back.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We are optimistic about our running back situation, but after last year we certainly aren't taking anything for granted. I think the good news, first of all, is that we expect all the guys who started the beginning of last year to be ready to go when we start out in August, so basically we have five guys there who have some experience.

Both Marcus and Albert should be fine and we have confidence in both guys. The real issue is getting them back and up to speed as far as game condition, those types of things. Obviously, they've missed some time and have some work to do, but we expect both of those guys to be ready to go. The positive that comes out of this, is that Marcus, Sam and Damian all got their feet wet last year and I think all three made strides in the spring. We have a chance now to have a group of guys that have significant experience and all have an opportunity to keep improving their game.

We recruited some good players at this position and we're anxious to see them in August, but the guys that we've had on campus this last year, give us reason to be optimistic. The key thing will be getting them caught up a little bit, but I really don't anticipate that being a problem as long as we can keep them healthy."

FULLBACK

Sophomore Tom Busch (5-11, 231) is listed No. 1 after a solid 2004 campaign. He takes over for the departed Aaron Mickens. He replaced an injured Mickens while starting three of Iowa's final four games, including the Capital One Bowl. In 2004 Busch rushed for 26 yards and a touchdown and caught six passes for 56 yards. He is considered an excellent blocker. Behind Busch this spring were Paul Wilson (5-11, 242) and Gavin McGrath (6-2, 221).

Another candidate could be Champ Davis, who missed the second half of last year with an injury. Davis (6-2, 227) started the 2003 season opener as a true freshman. He caught four passes for 14 yards and rushed four times for eight yards last year, splitting time between tight end and fullback. He is an excellent all-around athlete with good running and receiving skills. Senior Kevin Sherlock (5-11, 231) missed spring practice following off-season surgery and should also be available.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Tom really played well for us last year as a young guy. He was a first year player at fullback after spending his first season at linebacker. He did a commendable job, had a great attitude and improved this spring. He's on target to have a nice year and a nice career here. Paul Wilson is back with us and Gavin McGrath moved from linebacker to fullback. We also anticipate getting Kevin Sherlock back from injury. Champ Davis is still up in the air, so we'll play that as it comes. Champ's injury was a little later in the year. The good news is that he's upgraded his status and it's realistic to think he'll be ready to go, if not to start the season, by the start of the Big Ten season. When it's all said and done, I think we'll be real solid at this position."

TIGHT END

This is a position the Hawkeyes hope to utilize more in the coming season. Honorable mention all-Big Ten pick Tony Jackson is gone. He caught only seven passes for 82 yards and a touchdown last year before being drafted by Seattle. The 2004 season will find the Hawkeyes with even less experience than the previous season.

Junior Ryan Majerus (6-3, 245) will begin fall drills in the starting spot. He caught only two passes for 15 yards last season, but played in all 12 games and had an impressive spring. Majerus also played an important role on Iowa's special teams, blocking a punt against LSU. Converted junior wide receiver Scott Chandler (6-7, 242) is listed second on the depth chart after a solid season in 2004. Chandler was Iowa's fourth leading receiver last year with 24 catches for 324 yards and two touchdowns. He played wide receiver in 2003 as a true freshman.

Senior C.J. Barkema (6-8, 280) returns to tight end after playing offensive line last year. Redshirt freshman Brandon Myers (6-4, 242) is considered a talented newcomer who could push the upper classmen for playing time. Overall, the staff expects good production from this group.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"This spot is a little bit like the offensive line. We have the guys listed as one and two, but Ryan had a real good spring and really made some major strides. Things started to click for him a little more, and that's because he works so hard. Scott did some good things as well. They both seem to complement each other, we really look at both of them as starters. Brandon is a guy we are high on, he has good potential, and C.J. certainly is a guy we can find a spot for. In all likelihood all four of those guys will see playing time. Like a year ago, we will play multiple guys."

WIDE RECEIVER

This position is well stocked with talent and experience. Seniors Ed Hinkel (6-1, 190) and Clinton Solomon (6-3, 196) are both playmakers capable of post-season honors. The only notable absence in the wide receiving corps is Warren Holloway, who had 29 catches for 283 yards and one really big touchdown (vs. LSU on final play of Capital One Bowl).

Hinkel and Solomon were Iowa's top two receivers in 2004. Hinkel caught 63 passes for 744 yards and seven touchdowns, while Solomon had 58 receptions for 905 yards and six touchdowns. Solomon was a second-team all-Big Ten selection while Hinkel was honorable mention.

Hinkel has 95 career catches for 1,070 yards and eight TD's. Many of his catches are highlight reel material. His 10 catches in the Capital One Bowl were a career high. His 63 receptions and seven touchdowns led the team last season. The 63 catches ties for the third best in Iowa history. He ranked third in the Big Ten with an average of 5.25 catches per game and is also a solid return man on special teams.

Solomon had four 100-yard receiving games last season. His 905 yards rank seventh best in Iowa history. He has caught 72 career passes for 1,064 yards and seven touchdowns.

Behind the two veterans are some very good receivers. Listed second on the charts are junior Calvin Davis (6-1, 197) and senior Matt Melloy (6-3, 208). Both suffered injuries during 2004 that kept them on the sidelines for a number of games. Davis caught five passes for 69 yards and Melloy three for 24 yards and two touchdowns. Davis started four games in 2003 and caught 23 passes for 330 yards and a score, while Melloy caught 10 for 155 yards and two scores as a sophomore.

Sophomores Eric McCollom (6-0, 190) and Herb Grigsby (6-0, 170) are a pair of younger receivers who played well in the spring. Neither has a career reception, as McCollom moved to the wide receiver spot after playing quarterback a year ago. The experience and depth at this position makes it one of the strongest areas on the team.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"The receivers stepped up more than any other group on the team last year. It's great to have a player like Ed Hinkel, who has so much good experience and has been involved in so many key plays for us, and Clinton, who rebounded and came back last year and really played like we hoped he would. I think Ed and Clinton complement each other well, they play together well. They give us a little versatility, especially with Ed, he's a guy that's been around. The thing I'm most pleased about is their attitude. They really want to continue to mature and grow.

To have those two guys as proven players gives us great leadership in that group, and Matt Melloy is another senior who has really made big plays on offense and special teams. Matt missed some time in the spring, but we know what we have with him, on offense and special teams.

I really thought Calvin Davis was coming on strong, hitting his stride, prior to his injury last year. Herb Grigsby's not the biggest guy in the world, but he really showed some signs this spring. Eric McCollom moved from the quarterback position in the spring and also did some really good things. I can see him having a role on our football team this year. I thought they both showed real growth in the spring, not only as players, but really started to mature overall, so I think we are on the right track there."

OFFENSIVE LINE

There was a lot of inexperience and unfamiliarity between members of the Iowa offensive line early last year. About four games into the season the line began to perform as a unit and the starters remained pretty much intact for the remainder of the season.

The two losses come at the tackle positions. Pete McMahon started every game last season as a senior and was selected by Oakland in the NFL Draft. Lee Gray, who started 11 of 12 games at left tackle as a junior in 2004, will miss this season due to injury and should return for the 2006 campaign.

Junior Mike Jones (6-5, 299) returns to right tackle after starting the final 10 games at left guard last year. He is also a strong all-Big Ten candidate. Jones started all 12 games and made the switch from tackle to guard after two games last year. He's back at the tackle spot where the coaches feel he'll be the most comfortable.

Behind Jones will be junior college transfer Marshal Yanda (6-4, 305), a junior. He enrolled for the 2005 spring semester and gained valuable experience during spring practice.

2005 SEASON PREVIEW

Senior Ben Gates (6-6, 286) started two games a year ago and is listed as the top candidate to fill in at left tackle in place of Gray. Redshirt freshman Nyere Aumaitre (6-5, 290) is listed behind Gates.

All-Big Ten candidate Mike Elgin (6-4, 277), a junior, started 11 of 12 games at center last season, missing one game due to injury. He'll move to right guard for the upcoming season. Senior Brian Ferentz (6-3, 282) made a quick recovery from off-season surgeries a year ago and is credited with pumping life into Iowa's line. He started Iowa's final eight games (all victories) at right guard before moving back to center in the spring. Ferentz started at center in the first six games in 2003 before being injured and is considered a candidate for all-Big Ten honors.

Senior Ben Cronin (6-5, 285) started one game at center a year ago and is listed as the starter at left guard following spring practice. Senior David Walker (6-2, 295) is a veteran guard who started three games in 2003 before missing all but one game last season due to injuries. Walker was one of Iowa's hard-luck players a year ago. He was injured coming into the 2004 season and did not see action until the third game. He played less than a half of that contest before sustaining a season-ending elbow injury.

Sophomore Todd Plagman (6-3, 295) and redshirt freshman Seth Olsen (6-5, 297) are both talented offensive linemen listed behind Ferentz and Elgin. Plagman started two games last year and Olsen was almost used as a true freshman, but was kept on the redshirt list.

With the number of experienced players returning, the offensive line is expected to be stronger this year. The experience factor alone will make the Hawkeye line much better and a number of healthy running backs should help Iowa balance the attack.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"It's still up in the air as to how things will play out. We spent half the spring without Lee Gray out there, and Ben Gates did a nice job at left tackle. I think right now the three strongest tackle candidates are Ben, Mike and Marshal. Nyere played with the second group in the spring, but he's still a little younger. Those guys will keep working, and obviously Ben and Mike can play inside, and Marshal did that as well earlier. We have flip flopped the center and guard spots. I think right now we will probably go with Brian at center and Mike at right guard. That seemed to work out pretty well."

Right now the fifth spot is pretty much wide open. At left guard we have Ben Cronin, who also can play center, Todd Plagman, David Walker and Seth Olsen. I think the competition will continue going into practice. We're just not real sure who our top five guys are at this point. The good news is that we have a lot of guys that have experience, I think we have a little more depth than we have had. The big thing is trying to figure out who is going to play where, and we can get that answered in the pre-season. We definitely have more experience and flexibility than we have had in the past.

We'll let the new guys compete and let that process take care of itself. Basically, we have a little bit of a luxury because of the experienced guys we have, so we may have a chance to protect the young guys for a year. But, that being said, if anyone is doing that well, showing they can help us in September, we can go that route."

DEFENSIVE LINE (Includes ends)

The Hawkeyes have had an abundance of returning starters and experience across the defensive line the last two years. After reaping the benefits of one of the best defensive fronts in college football, the Hawkeyes must now start anew. Gone are all-Americans and first team all-Big Ten performers Matt Roth at end and tackle Jonathan Babineaux. Also graduated are defensive end Derreck Robinson and tackle Tyler Luebke. All four signed NFL contracts in the spring.

That foursome started every game and was responsible for 208 tackles last year. The quartet was also responsible for 51 tackles for loss in 2004. Their presence will be sorely missed, but Hawkeye fans have confidence in what defensive coordinator Norm Parker and line coach Ron Aiken will do with the new talent up front.

One senior, two sophomores and a redshirt freshman are listed number one at their defensive line positions following spring practice, but changes could take place due to the number of players who were withheld from spring drills. The Hawkeye front will be young, but they are talented and lack only game experience.

Sophomores Kenny Iwebema (6-4, 255) and Bryan Mattison (6-3, 262) are listed as the starting ends. The pair saw action in all 12 games last season, but accounted for only eight tackles between them. Both are considered hard hitters with very athletic skills. Sophomore Jacob Spratt (6-2, 245) is listed behind Iwebema, while senior Mike Follett (6-5, 255) and redshirt freshman Ted Bentler (6-4, 276) are behind Mattison. Follett, a linebacker earlier in his career, made the move to defensive line from tight end.

At tackle, redshirt freshman Matt Kroul (6-3, 267) and senior Nate Roos (6-0, 280) are listed ahead of sophomore Alex Willcox (6-2, 280), redshirt freshmen Ettore Ewen (6-0, 280) and Mitch King (6-3, 250). Roos saw very limited action a year ago after joining the squad from junior college. Kroul had a solid spring and Ewen earned his spot after missing most of last fall due to injury.

Willcox and fellow sophomore George Eshareturi (6-3, 284) both saw action a year ago, but both missed spring practice with injuries.

As noted, there is very little experience in the line, but the coaching staff likes the players they have to work with. This area needs to mature in order to catch up with the rest of an experienced defense.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Matt and Kenny are the two guys who are most solidified in their roles at this point. Then the three guys who missed significant time in the spring, Alex, Brian and Ettore, would be the first category of guys. Matt was able to practice with the second group last year, even though he redshirted. He knows how to play football, he's a tough young guy with a good work ethic. In time, he's going to be a good player for us."

Then you have two guys who moved positions in Mike and Mitch. It looks like Mike is going to make a successful transition to that position, he'll help us. He's played tight end, he's played linebacker and he's a senior. Mitch really showed some good signs in the spring, I think he'll be able to help us. Nate is a guy who had a real steady spring after playing just a little last year. Ted is a redshirt freshman, so there are a lot of variables right now.

It's going to be really important to see how things go the first couple of weeks in August. We'll know a lot more the week before the first game, than we do right now. The good news is that the second half of spring practice, it seemed like we were making some progress. As opposed to the four seniors we had last year, I would think six to eight guys will likely see action from week to week."

LINEBACKERS (includes outside linebackers)

Last year, it was said that Iowa's returning inside linebackers may have been the best tandem in college football. Nothing has changed as Abdul Hodge (6-2, 234) and Chad Greenway (6-4, 244) return as seniors. Both are legitimate all-America candidates after great sophomore and junior campaigns. Both were first team all-Big Ten last year. Greenway was named to a number of all-America teams and was named Iowa's Special Teams Player of the Year. Hodge also made one all-America team.

The two were 1-2 on Iowa's tackle charts with Hodge making 116 and Greenway 113 last year. Hodge has 295 career tackles to rank 14th on the Iowa charts. He ranked ninth nationally last year in solo tackles with 6.58 per game. Greenway was named national Defensive Player of the Week following a 10 tackle, two interception game against Kent State. He ranked 18th nationally in solo tackles at 5.92 per game. His 260 career tackles rank 23rd at Iowa, giving the duo 555 career tackles.

A number of relatively inexperienced candidates back up the two all-America candidates. The list behind Greenway and Hodge included sophomores Mike Humpal (6-2, 225) and Mike Klinkenborg (6-2, 230) and junior Zach Gabelmann (6-1, 227). Humpal was slowed in the spring due to injury but is hopeful of being ready to go in August. All have the benefit of learning from two of the best.

George Lewis, who started 10 of 12 games at outside linebacker last year is gone. Junior Edmond Miles (6-1, 228) will step in after an impressive spring. Miles started two games and was credited with 24 tackles last year. He also had three tackles for loss and two quarterback sacks. He is considered an excellent hitter and has been a solid contributor on special teams. Sophomore Chris Kuehl (6-2, 230) played well in the spring to earn the spot behind Miles.

This area is very talented. However, until depth is developed, the Hawkeyes need to stay healthy.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Ed was another of the guys who really came on in the spring. He showed the kind of consistency we were looking for last spring. He gives us a chance to have three pretty good guys with Abdul and Chad. Chris did a nice job in the spring, he's a transfer student who has a promising future."

There's not much I can say about Abdul and Chad that hasn't been said. Those guys have been extremely productive, but more importantly, they are just great team leaders playing a leadership position. Chad and Abdul are different kind of players. Abdul does a great job with communication and plays his position well. He's just a very strong team leader.

Chad plays a little different role, which fits his attributes and personality. He's an energizing type of player. Like Dallas Clark, Bob Sanders, Matt Roth, he energizes our team and our fans with his style of play. Like Abdul, he's a great team guy and a great leader who sets a great example for our younger players.

Like Ed Miles, Mike Klinkenborg really grew up a lot in the spring. We had him playing both positions. We might have to wait and see if Mike Humpal will be physically ready, but we're hopeful he can be. Zach has done a lot of good things on special teams and he had a good spring as well."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three-fourths of an improved secondary return for the 2005 season. The only missing starter is free safety Sean Considine who started all but two games over the last two years. He had 46 tackles, three interceptions and a blocked kick in 2004.

But everyone else is back in an area of the team which should be even stronger than last year. The Hawkeyes have improved in the secondary every year since Ferentz took over. Last year Iowa finished third in Big Ten pass defense giving up 201 yards a game. That's even more impressive when you take into account that teams averaged only 92 yards a game rushing against Iowa.

The three returning starters in the secondary have a lot of career starts to their credit. CB Antwan Allen (5-10, 180) has started every game (38) during his Iowa career. CB Jovon Johnson (5-9, 177) has started every game the last two years (25) and has 27 career starts. They had 95 tackles between them last year. Each had four interceptions in 2004 to lead the team in that category. The pair have 289 career tackles between them.

Sophomore Adam Shada (6-1, 180), junior Ma'Quan Dawkins (5-9, 166) and redshirt freshman Bradley Fletcher are corners hoping to get playing time. Shada played in 11 games as a true freshman last year and had 13 tackles. Dawkins played in 10 games and had three tackles and also earned playing time on special teams.

Juniors Marcus Paschal (6-0, 199) and Miguel Merrick (6-0, 201) return after seeing plenty of action a year ago. Paschal started all 12 games and can play either of the safety positions. Merrick filled in well when Considine was injured and made some big plays on special teams, including two blocked punts.

Sophomore Charles Godfrey (6-1, 202) saw action with the first group during the spring due to Paschal's injury in the Capital One Bowl. Godfrey played in 11 games and had 10 tackles. Paschal is hoping to be full speed in the fall, but if not, Godfrey can step right in.

It'll be hard to push the starters off the field. Hoping to gain experience are juniors Andrew Becker (6-1, 201) and Devan Moylan (5-10, 201). Much like the linebacking corps, the defensive backfield appears to solid and strong. Developing depth and providing experience for the newcomers will be a key.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"If we get everyone healthy and keep them healthy, we have a chance to be as experienced as we've ever been. Jovon and Antwan have played a lot at the corner positions. Adam Shada had a good spring and has a chance to be a good player for us. Bradley Fletcher had a good spring as well after redshirting a year ago. Ma'Quan would be another experienced guy in the picture. He has performed well in his role on special teams.

If Marcus Paschal is healthy, which I don't think he will be until the end of September, he and Miguel give us two safeties with playing experience, and Charles Godfrey had a good spring at free safety. We feel like we have three safeties who have some experience and we have three corners with experience, two who are three-year starters.

A lot of little things take place during the course of a season, and one of the big things that took place last year was Marcus making the move from strong to free safety when Sean Considine was hurt. Miguel came in and did a good job, but the subtle thing that may have been overlooked, was Marcus, who hadn't played a lot at that point, sliding over to free safety, which is easier said than done, and he made the adjustment on the fly. When you see a guy do something like that it's very encouraging. Marcus is a guy who gives us some flexibility in his position."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Junior Kyle Schlicher (5-9, 179) was the correct answer to the question of who was going to replace Iowa's all-time leading scorer, Nate Kaeding. Schlicher was an honorable mention all-Big Ten pick. He put his name in the Iowa records book last season when he kicked five field goals and had 17 kicking points against Minnesota. Not even Kaeding ever did that during his brilliant Iowa career. It tied for the second most field goals ever kicked in a Big Ten game. Schlicher made 21 of 26 field goals and 29 of 32 PAT's. The 21 field goals in a season ties the Iowa record. He led the Hawkeyes in scoring with 92 points. He was third in the Big Ten and seventh nationally in field goals made per game (1.75). His kickoffs got stronger as the 2004 season progressed and became a real weapon.

The Hawkeyes will have to find a new punter as four-year starter David Bradley has departed. Bradley averaged 40.5 on his punts and was a consistent force the last few years. Senior John Gallery (6-2, 240) and junior Andy Fenstermaker (6-3, 221) are the candidates to replace Bradley. Gallery punted twice as a sophomore, averaging 46 yards. Fenstermaker has not seen game action. Both have strong legs and are capable of handling the punting chores. Consistency will likely be the deciding factor.

Iowa was second in the Big Ten and 15th nationally in punt returns (13.7) last year. Receiver Ed Hinkel has been one of Iowa's top punt returners for three years and 2005 should not be an exception. A number of other players, some veterans, some not, will have a chance to earn return jobs. It is no secret that in the Iowa system, a good way to earn more playing time is through special teams. Any number of the running back candidates could also be used on both punt and kickoff returns.

Coaches Lester Erb and Darrell Wilson continue to do an excellent job with Iowa's special teams. The Hawkeyes have blocked 11 kicks over the last two years, including two in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Special teams are critical for us to have team success. A year ago we were changing the guard with the kicker. This year it's the punter. Kyle Schlicher really grew during the season, really performed and delivered in a great way for us. We were trying to set it up for him to win the bowl game for us. It never got to him, but we were envisioning that and we all had the confidence that he would get the job done.

David Bradley had a great bowl game and great senior year. We basically made the decision during the course of last year that we had two guys on campus who could be our punter. Right now it's very close. With Andy and John, it's a toss up at this point. We'll take that one through August, and maybe into the season. The big thing will be consistency. It's conceivable that both guys could have a role.

Our return game depends on how the running backs turn out and our health. We have a fairly healthy pool of guys who have that ability, it's just a matter of what our depth will allow us to do.

We also lose our long snapper, Cody Asmus, who did a good job as a fifth year senior. Now we have Danny Olysta who has done a good job, worked hard, and is ready to step in there and play."

THE SCHEDULE

Iowa plays an 11-game regular season schedule. The Hawkeyes have traditionally played one of the nation's top schedules and this year is no different. Seven of Iowa's 2004 opponents were ranked in the nation's top twenty at some point during the season. Eight of last year's opponents also appeared in bowl games. Six of this year's opponents appeared in post-season action a year ago. New to Iowa's non-conference schedule are season-opening foe Ball State and Northern Iowa. Both games will be in Iowa City.

In addition to Ball State and Northern Iowa, the Hawkeyes have Kinnick Stadium encounters with Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Minnesota. Road contests are at Iowa State, Ohio State, Purdue, Northwestern and Wisconsin. Michigan State and Penn State are Big Ten teams leaving the Iowa schedule, while Northwestern and Indiana are back on after a two-year hiatus. The Hawkeyes have an open week on October 29th.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"The Big Ten Conference, in 2002, had four teams end up in the top 13 in the rankings. People were concerned about the strength of the league going into that year, and we had four very good, very strong teams. This year it's a little different in that the expectations for the conference are a little stronger, but those are legitimate expectations, at least on paper, at this given point. It looks like there could be a real strong, very balanced conference. Five or six teams could legitimately end up being the champions, without a lot of luck or good fortune. Each week is going to be an adventure from that standpoint. There are more quarterbacks returning this year than in recent years, more experienced players.

If you look at our schedule, I think the thing that really jumps out at you is the away portion of our schedule. A little like 2002, in that there are a lot of challenges on the road, not only in our conference, but also the trip to Iowa State. We've done a good job playing at home, and it's imperative that we don't lose that edge. The schedule has its challenges, but that's part of playing in the Big Ten."

2005 PRESEASON NOTES

COACH KIRK FERENTZ

The 2004 Big Ten Coach of the Year and 2002 Associated Press Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year, AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year, Kirk Ferentz (pronounced FAIR-rintz, rhymes with parents), is in his seventh season as Iowa's head football coach. He has guided Iowa to Big Ten titles twice in the last three years and back-to-back New Year's Day bowl victories (2004 Outback Bowl and 2005 Capital One Bowl). Iowa posted a 31-7 (.816) overall mark and a 20-4 (.833) Big Ten record the last three seasons. Ferentz, at Iowa, holds an overall record of 42-31 (.575) and a 27-21 (.563) mark in Big Ten games. In nine seasons as a college head coach his career mark is 54-52 (.509).

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,064 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 540-485-39 (.526). That includes a 340-191-16 (.636) record in home games, a 200-294-23 (.409) record in games away from Iowa City, a 265-327-25 (.450) mark in Big Ten games and a 223-156-15 (.585) record in Kinnick Stadium.

HAWKEYES TO PLAY 11

The Hawkeyes will play six home games in Kinnick Stadium this year, where they have posted a 19-1 record the last three seasons, including a perfect 13-0 mark the last two years. Seven of Iowa's 2005 opponents posted seven wins or more a year ago, with six of the seven competing in bowl games. Iowa adds four new opponents to its slate this season: Ball State from the Mid-American Conference, Northern Iowa from the Gateway Conference (Division I-AA) and Indiana and Northwestern from the Big Ten Conference. Iowa opens its season against Ball State, marking the fifth consecutive year the Hawkeyes open their season at home against a school from the MAC. Other home games include Northern Iowa and Big Ten foes Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Minnesota. Four of Iowa's five road opponents earned bowl bids last season. The Hawkeyes' only non-conference road contest is at intrastate rival Iowa State, while they travel to play intra-conference foes Ohio State, Purdue, Northwestern and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes will not face Michigan State or Penn State the next two years.

IOWA EXTENDS HOME WINNING STREAK

Iowa's 30-7 win over Wisconsin on Nov. 20, 2004, extended its current home winning streak to 18. Entering the 2005 season, the Hawkeyes have an 18-game home winning streak, dating back to 2002, which is a Kinnick Stadium record. Overall, Iowa's longest home winning streak is 20 games, dating from Nov. 19, 1918 to Oct. 20, 1923. Iowa's 18-game streak ranks fourth nationally among Division I-A schools. Boise State (25) ranks first, followed by USC (21) and Oklahoma (19). In Big Ten games only, Iowa enters this season with a current streak of 13 straight home victories, which is a school record. The 13-game conference win streak began with a 42-24 win over Minnesota in 2001.

EIGHT STRAIGHT OVERALL

Along with the current winning streak in Kinnick Stadium, Iowa begins the 2005 season with an eight-game overall win streak. After posting a 2-2 record in the first four games last season, Iowa won seven straight Big Ten games to earn a share of the Big Ten title before defeated LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl.

Iowa's current win streak ranks fourth best in the nation heading into the season, trailing Southern Cal (22), Utah (16) and Auburn (15).

IOWA LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Iowa's Leadership Council for the 2005 season includes 13 players, including five seniors, three juniors, two sophomores and two redshirt freshmen. A member of the incoming freshman class will be added this fall. Permanent team captains are named at the conclusion of each season. The Leadership Council for this season includes seniors Brian Ferentz, Chad Greenway, Ed Hinkel, Abdul Hodge and Jovon Johnson; juniors Mike Elgin, Jason Manson and Drew Tate; sophomores Bryan Mattison and Mike Klinkenborg; and redshirt freshmen Matt Kroul and Seth Olsen.

TELEVISION SCHEDULE

A majority, if not all, of Iowa's games this season will be selected for television. The Big Ten Conference announces game times and television stations that will carry the games no later than 13 days prior to game days. Iowa road games at Purdue and Iowa State and home contests against Ball State and Northern Iowa have already been selected for television. The contest at Iowa State will be televised regionally on ABC at 2:30 p.m., while the Purdue game will be televised to a national cable audience on ESPN at 3:35 p.m. Iowa's non-conference games vs. Ball State and Northern Iowa will be televised regionally on ESPN Plus. The Ball State game is slated for an 11 a.m. start, while the Northern Iowa contest will kickoff at 2:30 p.m. All times listed are central daylight time.

Iowa's bowl game vs. LSU on Jan. 1, 2005, marked the 40th consecutive game the Hawkeyes have appeared on television. The last Iowa contest that was not televised was vs. Minnesota on Nov. 17, 2001.

HAWKEYES BY THE NUMBERS

Iowa returns 44 lettermen from 2004, including 23 on offense, 20 on defense and one specialist. The Hawkeyes return six starters on offense and five on defense, plus placekicker Kyle Schlicher. The lettermen breakdown includes six three-year lettermen, 17 two-year lettermen and 21 one-year lettermen.

The total roster has 123 players, and includes 25 seniors, 22 juniors, 25 sophomores, 29 redshirt freshmen and 22 true freshmen. The pre-season depth chart includes 17 seniors, 17 juniors, 15 sophomores and seven redshirt freshmen.

STARTERS RETURNING

Iowa returns six starters on offense and five on defense, in addition to PK Kyle Schlicher. The returning starters on offense include guards Mike Jones and Mike Elgin, center Brian Ferentz, receivers Ed Hinkel and Clinton Solomon, running back Sam Brownlee and quarterback Drew Tate. The defensive starters returning include linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway, backs Jovon Johnson and Antwan Allen and safety Marcus Paschal.

PRE-SEASON PUBLICATIONS RANK IOWA

Pre-season publications like the Hawkeyes' outlook in 2005. CBSsportsline.com has Iowa rated No. 2, Athlon ranks the Hawkeyes No. 3, The Sporting News ranks the Hawkeyes 10th and NationalChamps.net ranks Iowa 11th.

RECRUITING CLASS RANKED HIGH

Iowa's 23-player recruiting class received high praise from the top recruiting services. The Hawkeyes collected their first consensus top 10 finish in recruiting with Tom Lemming ranking the class fourth, followed by Scout.com (fifth) and Rivals.com (seventh).

HAWKEYE LINEBACKERS RANKED HIGH

Nationalchamps.net ranked the Iowa linebacking unit best in the nation. The publication named senior linebackers Chad Greenway and Abdul Hodge to its pre-season all-American team. Athlon honored Iowa's linebackers, naming them the best in the Big Ten. Greenway was listed on Athlon's pre-season all-America team and named him the second best outside linebacker in college football. Hodge was named the fourth-best inside linebacker by the publication.

ATHLON LIKES HAWKEYES

Athlon ranked the Hawkeyes No. 3 in its pre-season top 25 and predicted Iowa to capture the Big Ten crown. Linebackers Chad Greenway and Abdul Hodge are second team all-America honorees and first team all-Big Ten selections. QB Drew Tate, WR Clinton Solomon, DB Antwan Allen and PK Kyle Schlicher were also named first team all-league. DB Jovon Johnson was a second team choice, while OL Mike Jones, DE Bryan Mattison and SS Marcus Paschal were third team honorees.

RETURNING WITH HONORS

Iowa returns nine players who earned all-Big Ten and/or national honors a year ago. That list includes linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway, who were named first team all-Big Ten. Quarterback Drew Tate was also a first team selection, while wide receiver Clinton Solomon was named to the second team. DB Antwan Allen, DB Jovon Johnson, WR Ed Hinkel, PK Kyle Schlicher and OL Mike Jones were honorable mention all-Big Ten selections. In addition, Tate, Greenway and Schlicher each received Big Ten Player of the Week recognition at least once last season. Tate was also named Big Ten Player of the Year by www.collegefootballnews.com and was the Capital One Bowl Most Valuable Player.

IOWA RETURNS STARTING QUARTERBACK

For the first time in six years, Iowa returns its starting quarterback from the previous year. The Hawkeyes had a different starting quarterback the last five years (Drew Tate - 2004; Nathan Chandler - 2003; Brad Banks - 2002; Kyle McCann - 2001; Scott Mullen - 2000).

Tate garnered first team all-Big Ten laurels from the coaches and second team recognition by the media in 2004. He became the first Iowa sophomore quarterback to make first team all-Big Ten since Chuck Long was honored in 1983. Tate was also recognized as the Big Ten Player of the Year by www.collegefootballnews.com. Tate ranked first in Big Ten passing yards (262.4) and pass efficiency (137.1) and second in total offense (225.8). He ranked 23rd nationally in passing average (232.2) and 38th in overall pass efficiency (134.7).

IOWA VS. RANKED TEAMS

These are Iowa's most recent wins vs. nationally ranked opponents:

At Home:	30-7 over ninth-ranked Wisconsin, 11/20/04 33-7 over 23rd-ranked Ohio State, 10/6/04
On the Road:	27-21 over 21st-ranked Wisconsin, 11/22/03
Neutral:	30-25 over 11th-ranked LSU, Capital One Bowl, 1/1/05

2005 PRESEASON NOTES

IOWA WINS 31 GAMES IN THREE YEARS

The Hawkeyes (31-7) are one of only nine Division I-A schools to have won 30 games the last three years. The other schools include: Boise State, 36-3; USC, 36-3; Oklahoma, 36-5; Georgia, 34-6; Ohio State, 33-6; Miami, 32-6; Texas, 32-6; Iowa, 31-7; LSU, 30-9. Moreover, Iowa is one of only seven teams to play in three straight January Bowl games (Iowa, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma and USC). Iowa has finished the season ranked eighth in the major polls the last three years. Additionally, Iowa's Big Ten mark the last three years (20-4) ties Michigan for the best record. The Hawkeyes' 20 Big Ten wins is a school record for victories over a three-year span.

Iowa has won at least 10 games three straight seasons, a feat accomplished by only six other Big Ten mentors. Kirk Ferentz joins Michigan's Lloyd Carr (1997-99), Bo Schembechler (1971-74, 1976-78) and Fielding Yost (1901-05), Minnesota's Henry Williams (1903-05), Ohio State's John Cooper (1995-98) and Woody Hayes (1973-75). Iowa's 31 victories set a school record for wins over a three-year span.

EXPERIENCED WIDE RECEIVERS RETURN

Iowa returns four veteran receivers in seniors Ed Hinkel, Clinton Solomon and Matt Melloy and junior Calvin Davis. Solomon posted four 100-yard receiving games in 2004. He ranked second on the team in touchdowns (6) and receptions (58) and first in yards (905). His 905 receiving yards ranks seventh-best in a single season at Iowa. Solomon boasted the best average yards per catch in the league at 15.6. Hinkel ranked first on the Hawkeyes in receptions (63) and touchdowns (7) and second in yards (744). His 63 receptions ties for the third highest single season total in Iowa history. He had a career and game-high 10 catches for 93 yards vs. LSU in the Capital One Bowl.

Melloy played in nine games last year; missing three games due to injury. Two of his three 2004 catches were for touchdowns. The senior has caught 13 passes for 179 yards and four touchdowns in his career. Davis saw action in the first five contests before suffering a season-ending injury in 2004. The junior has 28 career receptions for 399 yards and one touchdown.

IOWA NOTES

- The Hawkeyes won all three trophy games against rivals Iowa State (Cy-Hawk), Minnesota (Floyd of Rosedale) and Wisconsin (The Heartland Trophy).
- Iowa has won 27 of its last 32 regular season contests.
- Iowa has won its last six games by four points or less dating back to the 2001 season.
- Iowa posted the fourth-best graduation rate among teams ranked in the top 25 in 2004.
- Iowa joined Michigan, Ohio State, Penn State and Wisconsin as the only Big Ten schools to go to three straight January bowl games.
- In the last three years, Iowa is 27-1 when leading at the half and 30-0 when leading after three quarters.
- Iowa ranked in the top three in the Big Ten in 14 statistical categories (in 2004), including first in turnover margin, rushing defense and red zone defense.
- The Hawkeyes have won 25 of their last 27 games in Kinnick Stadium, dating back to the end of the 2000 season. Iowa's two losses came against Iowa State (36-31 in 2002) and Michigan (32-26 in 2001).
- All six of Iowa's home games in 2004 were sellouts (Kent State, Iowa State, Michigan State, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin). Iowa's 2004 home attendance average of 70,397 is a school record.
- Iowa finished first in the Big Ten in 2004 and now has 46 first-division finishes in the conference, including 11 championships and seven additional finishes among the top three in the league.

IOWA LIKES STARTING ON OFFENSE

Iowa has started on offense in 63 of its last 67 games. Iowa's games at Minnesota (11/13/04), vs. Purdue (11/6/04), at Miami, OH (9/7/02) and at Michigan State (9/27/03) are the only contests the Hawkeyes didn't start on offense. Iowa has started the game on offense in 65-of-73 games under Kirk Ferentz.

HOME GROWN HAWKEYES

Iowa's roster of 123 players includes 55 players from Iowa. The roster includes 11 players from Texas and Florida, nine from Illinois, eight from New Jersey, five from Ohio, four from Pennsylvania, three from Minnesota, two from Arkansas, California, Nebraska, South Carolina, South Dakota and Wisconsin and one from Connecticut, Indiana, Georgia, Kansas and New York.

THE NAME GAME

Iowa has two players named Davis (Calvin and Champ, no relation) and Williams (Paul and Marcus, no relation).

Mike is the most popular first name. There are five Mike's (Elgin, Follett, Humpal, Jones, Klinkenborg). There are four Chris' (Aldrich, Brevi, Kuehl, Rowell). There are three players named Andy (Brodell, Fenstermaker, Kuempel), Tyler (Bergan, Blum, Fanucchi), Kyle (Kesselring, Riffel, Schlicher) and Ryan (Bain, Majerus, Van Engel). There are two players named Andrew (Becker, Payton), Ben (Cronin, Gates), Bryan (Mattison, Ryther), Matt (Kroul, Melloy), Alex (Kanellis, Willcox), Justin (Collins, Edwards) and Marcus (Paschal, Wilson). Two Hawkeye players go by initials, C.J. Barkema and B.J. Travers.

MORE THAN ONE

Fifteen high schools have contributed more than one player to the current Iowa football roster. The leaders are City High of Iowa City and Ankeny, with four. Armwood (Tampa, FL) has three, while 12 schools have two players on the roster.

THE HAWKEYES, SIZE WISE

Sophomore DB Ma'Quan Dawkins is the lightest Hawkeye player at 166 pounds, while the shortest player, at 5-8, is RB Marques Simmons. OL Lee Gray is the heaviest Hawkeye at 310 pounds. Four Hawkeye players are listed over 300 pounds. Gray will miss the 2005 season due to off-season surgery.

The tallest players are 6-8 junior tight end C.J. Barkema, sophomore offensive lineman Greg Dollmeyer and redshirt freshman offensive lineman Wesley Aeschliman.

The average Hawkeye player is 6-2 and weighs 233 pounds. That is the exact height and two pounds heavier than the average Iowa player in 2004.

IOWA STATS ON THE INTERNET

Statistics and play-by-play accounts of Iowa football games are available live on the Internet. The statistical program allows viewers to read the play-by-play action just moments after it takes place, and to view all individual and team statistics while the game is in progress.

The program can be accessed through www.hawkeyesports.com and then clicking on the Gametracker link. This feature is available for all games during the 2005 season.

IOWA TV SATELLITE SERVICE

Each Tuesday Iowa offers video highlights of Coach Kirk Ferentz' weekly news conference, plus player clips & highlights, via satellite. The time is normally 2 to 2:15 p.m. CT. Contact the Iowa sports information office for weekly coordinates.

2004 FINAL NOTES

HAWKEYES FIND A WAY!!!

Just when you think Iowa football has reached the top step, it surprises just about everyone and takes another couple steps up the ladder. To say Iowa is not among the elite of college football would be naïve now. And, it would be fair to say that Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz is among the best, if not the best, college football coach in America.

So, exactly what's been happening in the world of Iowa football the last three years. Two Big Ten championships in the last three years. Appearances in three straight New Year's Day (or later) bowl games. Three straight finishes among the nation's top ten. Three straight seasons of 10 or more wins. Eighteen straight home wins. Two straight bowl wins over highly regarded foes from the Southeastern Conference (Florida & LSU). A 31-7 record the last three seasons. And, Iowa will carry a streak of eight straight wins into the 2005 season, the fourth longest active streak in the nation.

Moreover, Ferentz has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year two of the last three years and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year in 2002 and 2004. Defensive Coordinator Norm Parker was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award as Assistant Coach of the Year.

Individually, defensive end Matt Roth was a second team all-American. Joining Roth as first team all-Big Ten performers were linebackers Chad Greenway and Abdul Hodge, defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux and quarterback Drew Tate.

In the face of much adversity and virtually no running attack, 2004 will be a year that will be talked about and remembered for a very long time.

IOWA WINS SHARE OF BIG TEN TITLE

Iowa has won a share of the Big Ten title two of the last three years. Overall, the Hawkeyes have won out-right or shared 11 conference titles. The 11 league titles ties Wisconsin for the fifth-most in Big Ten history.

Seven of Iowa's titles have been shared. The Hawkeyes shared conference titles in 1900 (Minnesota), 1922 (Michigan), 1960 (Minnesota), 1981 (Ohio State), 1990 (Illinois, Michigan State and Michigan), 2002 (Ohio State) and 2004 (Michigan). Outright titles have been won in 1921, 1956, 1958 and 1985.

HAWKEYES THE LAST THREE YEARS

Iowa's Big Ten record the last three years (20-4) ties Michigan for the best record. Seven Big Ten teams had four losses or more in conference play in 2004 alone.

Iowa's 20 conference wins is a new school record for victories over a three-year span. The previous mark was 19, set twice (1981-83 and 1983-85). Additionally, Iowa's 31 overall victories established a new school record for wins over a three-year span. The previous record was 29 set by Iowa's 1985-87 teams.

IOWA RANKS HIGH IN WINNING PERCENTAGE

Iowa is tied for 10th in the nation (Miami) in winning percentage (.800, 20-5) over the last two years. Over the last three years, Iowa ranks eighth (.816, 31-7) and over the last four years, the Hawkeyes rank ninth (.760, 38-12). Iowa's 10-2 record, in 2004, marked the first time since 1991 the Hawkeyes boasted the best record in the Big Ten after the bowl season.

DID YOU KNOW...

Iowa's 30-25 victory over LSU marked the second time in history the Hawkeyes knocked off a defending national champion. Iowa also defeated defending national champion Penn State (42-34) at State College in 1983. Additionally, Iowa tied defending national champion Notre Dame (14-14) at Iowa City in 1950.

HAWKEYES PLAY TOUGH SCHEDULE

Seven of Iowa's 12 opponents were ranked in the top 20 at one time during the season (Arizona State, LSU, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio State, Purdue and Wisconsin).

FERENTZ NAMED BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

For the second time in three years, Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year. Ferentz was also recognized as the conference Coach of the Year following the 2002 season when the Hawkeyes finished with an 11-2 overall record and an 8-0 mark in the Big Ten. Ferentz was also one of six finalists for the 2004 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

The six-year head coach of the Hawkeyes was also named the 2002 Associated Press Coach of the Year, Walter Camp Coach of the Year and AFCA Regional Coach of the Year.

NORM PARKER FINALIST FOR BROYLES AWARD

Iowa Defensive Coordinator Norm Parker was one of six finalists for the Broyles Award, which recognizes the nation's top Division I assistant coach.

Parker's defensive unit ranked fifth in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8) and 39th in passing defense (201.3). Iowa's defensive rushing average of 92.5 ranks third in Iowa's record books for a single season.

FERENTZ JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Kirk Ferentz has guided Iowa to 10 or more wins three straight seasons, a feat accomplished by only six other Big Ten mentors. Ferentz joins Michigan's Lloyd Carr (1997-99), Bo Schembechler (1971-74, 1976-78) and Fielding Yost (1901-05), Minnesota's Henry Williams (1903-05), Ohio State's John Cooper (1995-98) and Woody Hayes (1973-75).

HAWKEYES EARN BIG TEN ACCOLADES

Iowa landed six players on the coaches and media first and second all-Big Ten teams. Earning first team accolades by both the coaches and media were DE Matt Roth and LB Chad Greenway. Roth was the only defensive unanimous selection by the coaches. QB Drew Tate and LB Abdul Hodge were first team honorees by the coaches and second team picks by the media. DL Jonathan Babineaux earned first team laurels from the media and was recognized on the second team by the coaches. WR Clinton Solomon was a second team honoree by the media.

HAWKEYES EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

Seniors LS Kody Asmus and DB Sean Considine, juniors OL C.J. Barkema, WR Matt Melloy and sophomores OL Mike Elgin and TE Ryan Majerus and redshirt freshmen LB Mike Humpal and DL Alex Willcox were named academic all-Big Ten. The academic honor is the third for Considine and the second for Majerus and Melloy.

IN THE RANKINGS

Iowa finished the season ranked eighth in both major polls and the FWAA/Grantland Rice Super 16 poll for the third consecutive season. The Hawkeyes' final ranking was the highest of the year. The string of eights equals the most consecutive appearances in the top 10 ever by Iowa. The Hawkeyes finished third in 1956, sixth in 1957 and second in 1958. It is also the 11th top 10 finish in school history.

Iowa is the highest ranked Big Ten team in the final rankings for the first time since 1958. The Hawkeyes join national champion Southern Cal, Oklahoma and Georgia as the only schools in the nation to have finished in the top 10 in each of the last three seasons.

HAWKEYE STREAKS

The 2004 Hawkeyes became just the fifth Iowa team to go undefeated during the month of October (1984, 1985, 1990 and 2002). The 1985, 1990, 2002 and 2004 teams won Big Ten titles. The 2003 team (10-3) never won more than two consecutive league games. The Hawkeyes won consecutive league games twice during the 2003 season.

Iowa's eight-game winning streak is the fourth longest active streak in Division I-A (USC - 22; Utah - 16; Auburn - 15). The 2004 Iowa Hawkeyes are only the third Iowa team to win seven straight league games in the same year. Below is a list of those teams with the number of consecutive wins in parentheses:

1991 (7):	10-1-1
2002 (8):	11-2, Big Ten title
2004 (7):	10-2, Big Ten title

CLOSE CALLS

Iowa won three games by two points (Minnesota 29-27, Purdue 23-21 and Penn State 6-4). The last time an Iowa team won three games by two points or less was 1987 (Arizona 15-14, Ohio State 29-27 and Wyoming 20-19).

SPECIAL TEAMS SUCCESS

Iowa's special teams blocked four punts and two field goals, including two punts in the Capital One Bowl vs. LSU. The four blocked punts are one shy of the Iowa single season record set in 2003.

Miguel Merrick and Ryan Majerus blocked punts vs. the Tigers in the bowl game. Sean Considine returned Merrick's block seven yards for a touchdown to give the Hawkeyes a 14-6 advantage late in the first half. Merrick also blocked a punt at Illinois, while Chad Greenway blocked a punt vs. Kent State in the season opener.

The Hawkeyes blocked two field goals and recovered a muffed punt vs. Purdue. Marcus Paschal blocked a 32-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter. Considine blocked a 27-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter. He blocked five kicks in his career (4 punts, 1 field goal) and finished two blocks from tying Merton Hanks' school record (7).

RECORDS SET

QB Drew Tate helped the Hawkeyes set a school record in Iowa's win over Purdue. For the season, Iowa had 19 different players catch at least one pass. RB Damian Sims completed an eight-yard swing pass to Tate. Tate became Iowa's 19th player to post a reception. The previous record for the most receivers with at least one catch was 18 in 1988.

DL Jonathan Babineaux's 25 tackles for loss in 2004 established a new school record. The previous record was 22 set by Jared DeVries (1996) and Leroy Smith (1991).

Iowa also set a school record for the fewest number of fumbles lost in 2004. The Hawkeyes fumbled 17 times, but only lost five. The previous record was six fumbles lost in 1963.

INJURED BACKS

Iowa lost running backs Marcus Schnoor (Kent State) and Albert Young (Iowa State) to season-ending knee injuries in its first two games. Three games later, the Hawkeyes lost Jermelle Lewis (Michigan State) to a season-ending ACL injury. Sam Brownlee was carted off the field after suffering an ankle injury against Minnesota. Brownlee did play against Wisconsin. Marques Simmons sprained an ankle vs. Ohio State. He missed four games before returning vs. Wisconsin. Simmons saw limited action, collecting 41 yards on 13 attempts. Iowa also lost FB Champ Davis to a season-ending ACL and MCL injury at Illinois.

OTHER INJURIES

Iowa lost 11 players to season-ending injuries: TE Mike Follett (back), WR Calvin Davis (knee), DB Jonathan Zanders (collar bone), RB Champ Davis (knee), RB Jermelle Lewis (knee), RB Marcus Schnoor (knee), LB Mike Humpal (knee), OL David Walker (triceps), RB Albert Young (knee), DL Ettore Ewen (knee) and DB Marcus Paschal (knee).

ALL HOME GAMES SOLD OUT

All six Iowa home games in 2004 were sellouts, marking the first time in history at this capacity. Iowa finished the season with a record home attendance average of 70,397. The Hawkeyes' previous home average attendance record was 70,071 set in 1991.

Iowa has sold out 11 consecutive games, dating back to 2003, which is a school record.

IOWA NOTES

- The Hawkeyes have won 25 of their last 27 games in Kinnick Stadium, dating back to the end of the 2000 season. The two losses came against Iowa State (36-31 in 2002) and Michigan (32-26 in 2001).
- The Hawkeyes won all three trophy games against rivals Iowa State (Cy-Hawk), Minnesota (Floyd of Rosedale) and Wisconsin (The Heartland Trophy).
- Iowa ranked sixth nationally in turnover margin (1.08).
- RB Sam Brownlee was Iowa's leading rusher in 2004, carrying the ball 94 times for 227 yards. Iowa has not had its rushing leader finish with that few yards since Jerry Niles led the Hawkeyes with 176 yards on 51 attempts in 1938.
- Iowa rushed for only 871 yards, which is an average of 72.6 per game – the lowest in school history. Individually, 62 Division I rushers rushed for more yardage the Iowa's team total. Iowa ranked second to last nationally (116th). The second lowest rushing average by an Iowa team was the 1998 team. That team rushed for 890 yards, an average of 80.9.
- Iowa collected 26 takeaways during conference play, the most of any school. Penn State ranked second with 18.
- Iowa joins Michigan, Ohio State, Penn State and Wisconsin as the only Big Ten schools to go to three straight January bowl games.
- Iowa did not lose a fumble in 10 games, including the last five contests.
- 2004 marked the 11th time an Iowa team posted at least nine wins in a season. Only six Iowa teams collected 10 wins or more in a season (1985 – 10; 1987 – 10; 1991 – 10; 2002 – 11; 2003 – 10; 2004 – 10).
- Iowa is 38-4 when leading at the half and 41-2 when leading after three quarters under Coach Ferentz. In the last three years, Iowa is 27-1 when leading at the half and 30-0 when leading after three quarters.

IOWA'S RUSHING DEFENSE

Iowa limited its opponents to 1,110 yards rushing. The 92.5 yards per game average ranks third-best in a single season at Iowa. The record is 956 yards (79.7) set during the 1981 season. For the season, Iowa held six opponents (Kent State, Ohio State, Penn State, Illinois, Purdue and Wisconsin) under 60 yards rushing.

Iowa Defensive Coordinator Norm Parker's rushing defense has ranked in the top five in Iowa's history books the last three years. Iowa's 2002 team ranks second (81.9 in 13 games) and the 2003 team ranks fourth (92.7 in 13 games).

DEFENSE MAKES A STAND

- Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten and 11th nationally in total defense (293.8).
- Iowa ranked first in the Big Ten and fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5). Michigan State (204), Minnesota (337) and LSU (118) were the only opponents to rush for over 100 yards against Iowa's defense.
- Iowa had five players recover two fumbles or more (Abdul Hodge, Charles Godfrey, Derreck Robinson, Tyler Luebke and Jonathan Babineaux). Luebke and Babineaux each recovered a team-leading three.
- Iowa's defense forced 20 turnovers the last five regular season games (4.0 avg.).
- Kent State and Penn State did not score any offensive points. The Golden Flashes' offense advanced past midfield only once, while Iowa's defense collected a season-high five turnovers against the Nittany Lions, including one in the red zone.
- Iowa collected turnovers on three consecutive defensive plays in the fourth quarter at Penn State (interception by Jovon Johnson, interception by Antwan Allen and a fumble recovery by Chad Greenway).

THEY STARTED THEM ALL

Iowa had 15 players (6 offense, 9 defense) start all 12 games this year. That list includes WR Warren Holloway, WR Ed Hinkel, TE Tony Jackson, OL Mike Jones, OL Pete McMahon, QB Drew Tate, DE Derreck Robinson, DT Tyler Luebke, DT Jonathan Babineaux, DE Matt Roth, LB Abdul Hodge, LB Chad Greenway, DB Jovon Johnson, DB Antwan Allen and SS Marcus Paschal. Eight of the 15 players return in 2005.

Allen has started all 38 games in his career.

IOWA BY QUARTERS

Iowa outscored its opponents 89-25 in the first quarter, 69-41 in the third and 71-66 in the fourth. Hawkeye opponents owned a 79-63 advantage in the second quarter.

ON THE AVERAGE

Iowa averaged 4.3 yards on 342 first down plays, 4.4 yards on 267 second down plays, 6.1 yards on 189 third down plays and 0.0 yards on 10 fourth down plays.

AVERAGE SCORING DRIVES

Iowa's 51 scoring drives averaged 7.3 plays, 47.7 yards and 2:59 elapsed time. Twenty-nine of Iowa's 51 scoring drives covered 45 yards or more. In addition, Iowa had 24 drives amass eight plays or more.

Hawkeye opponents recorded 39 scoring drives, averaging 7.7 plays, 55.5 yards and 2:54 elapsed time. Kent State and Penn State were two opponents that the Hawkeye defense did not allow any offensive points.

BIG PLAY HAWKEYES

Iowa's offense produced 41 plays of 20 yards or more, with 35 of the 41 coming on pass plays.

Iowa Earns Big Ten Title and Capital One Victory

Just when fans of the Iowa football program might have thought it couldn't get any better, it did!

After a Big Ten title in 2002 and an Outback Bowl victory to end the 2003 season, Coach Kirk Ferentz and the Hawkeyes made an even bigger impression in 2004, first by winning the Big Ten title for the second time in three seasons, and, by scoring on a 56-yard pass on the final play of the game to earn a 30-25 win over LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl.

The Hawkeyes won as many as 10 games for the third straight season, improving their three-year mark to 31-7, giving Iowa the eighth best winning percentage (.816) in the nation.

As the start of the 2004 season approached, most fans figured the Hawkeyes could ride the play of a veteran defense to a solid season, allowing a young offensive unit being directed by a sophomore quarterback some time to settle into the season.

That seemed to be a reasonable assumption as Iowa opened the year with an impressive win over Kent State and a 17-14 victory over in-state rival Iowa State in a game in which the Hawkeye defense controlled the action and made big stops late in the contest to preserve the win.

But, even as the Hawkeyes stood at 2-0, a scary trend had developed as running backs Marcus Schnoor and Albert Young were lost for the season. The Hawkeyes struggled in road losses at Arizona State and Michigan and Iowa approached a crossroads in returning home for games against Michigan State and Ohio State.

The Hawkeyes started fast in a 38-16 win over the Spartans, as RB Jermelle Lewis, returning from knee surgery, dashed for a 47-yard touchdown in Iowa's first drive. The Hawkeye defense was dominate in the game, but Lewis would become the third Iowa running back in five games to be lost for the season due to injury.

The defense was its usual self in a 33-7 win over Ohio State, not allowing the Buckeyes to get anything going on offense until a drive in the fourth quarter resulted in OSU's only points of the game. While the defense was impressive in the consecutive home wins, people were beginning to take notice of Tate, the sophomore quarterback who was gaining confidence with every outing.

The 33-point outburst against Ohio State came with a price, as Marques Simmons became the fourth running back to suffer a major injury. His ankle injury would keep him out of action until the final regular season game against Wisconsin.

With walk-on Sam Brownlee now the starter at running back and true freshman Damian Sims the back-up, a major test awaited at Penn State. Once again the defense was up to the task, collecting four interceptions and holding Penn State without an offensive point as the Hawkeyes prevailed 6-4 on two Kyle Schlicher field goals.

A 23-13 win at Illinois followed, setting up a stretch run to close the season against three first division teams. Iowa's special teams got into the act in a home win over Purdue, blocking two field goals in a 23-21 win.

At Minnesota, the offense carried the load in a 29-27 victory, as Iowa retained Floyd of Rosedale and set up a showdown with Wisconsin in the season finale. When the Badgers suffered their first loss of the season at MSU while Iowa won at Minnesota, it set up an interesting battle as the Hawkeyes and Badgers each trailed Michigan by just one game.

With Michigan losing to Ohio State earlier in the day, both teams knew what was at stake in Kinnick Stadium on the final Saturday. Iowa survived two early turnovers and seized the momentum late in the first half. With the score tied at 7-7, Tate found WR Clinton Solomon for a 51-yard scoring pass just before halftime, giving Iowa the halftime advantage.

The Hawkeyes dominated the second half in the 30-7 win, claiming their seventh straight win on the season and 18th straight victory in Kinnick Stadium. Just days later, the Hawkeyes accepted the invitation to meet LSU, the defending national champion, in the 2005 Capital One Bowl in Orlando, FL.

Playing in its third straight January bowl game, Iowa scored on its first possession against the Tigers. A blocked punt return for a touchdown resulted in Iowa's second score and the Hawkeyes held a 14-12 halftime advantage after LSU scored on a long run just before the half.

Iowa continued to dominate play in the third quarter, increasing the advantage to 24-12 on a Schlicher field goal and a short scoring run by Simmons. Following its pattern for the season, LSU rallied in the final 10 minutes, finally taking the lead (25-24) with 46 seconds to play.

The final 46 seconds will go down in Iowa history. After a couple of short completions, and as time was running out, Tate found senior Warren Holloway for a 56-yard touchdown pass as the game ended, giving the Hawkeyes the 30-25 win and an eight-game winning streak to carry into the 2005 season.

For the third straight season, Iowa was ranked eighth in the nation in both major polls at the conclusion of the season. Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons as Iowa became one of just eight teams to end the season with a January bowl game in each of the last three seasons.

GAME RECAP

Iowa won its fourth consecutive season opener with a 39-7 victory over Kent State in "The Throwback Game" celebrating 75 years in Kinnick Stadium.

The Hawkeyes scored on four of their first five possessions. PK Kyle Schlicher converted his first collegiate field goal attempt (20 yards) to give Iowa an early 3-0 advantage at the conclusion of its first offensive possession. Two possessions later, WR Matt Melloy caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate to give the Hawkeyes a 10-0 lead. Iowa scored two touchdowns in 1:14 in the second quarter to stretch its lead to 23-0.

Kent State scored its only points of the game on a Jake Williams 99-yard interception return, cutting the Iowa margin to 23-7 just before halftime.

QB Drew Tate played the first half and completed 13-22 passes for 136 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Tate did not play in the second half due to dehydration. QB Eric McCollom directed the Hawkeye offense in the second half and completed 5-8 passes for 87 yards.

RB Albert Young carried the ball 23 times for 87 yards and one score to lead the Hawkeye running game after junior Marcus Schnoor left the game in the first quarter with a knee injury.

Iowa quarterbacks did a good job distributing the ball as 10 Hawkeyes caught at least one pass. WR Ed Hinkel tied a career high with four receptions and set a career high with 65 yards to lead the Hawkeye receiving corps.

Iowa's defense was led by LB Chad Greenway. The junior intercepted two passes, recorded a team-high 10 tackles, including two for loss, and blocked one punt. Greenway returned his first career interception to the seven-yardline to set up an Iowa touchdown and he returned his second theft 30 yards for the final touchdown of the game. As a unit, the Hawkeye defense allowed -13 yards rushing and 123 yards passing. Iowa forced four turnovers (2 fumbles, 2 interceptions) and blocked one punt.

GAME RECAP

Iowa won its second-consecutive game over Iowa State with a 17-10 victory in Kinnick Stadium. The victory snapped a three-game home losing streak to the Cyclones and the Hawkeyes retained the Cy-Hawk Trophy.

The Hawkeyes marched down the field on their opening possession, scoring a touchdown on a six-play, 49-yard drive. RB Albert Young scored his second touchdown in as many weeks on a one-yard plunge. RB Jermelle Lewis accounted for the first 48 yards of the drive, including 23 rushing yards and 25 receiving yards.

Iowa's solid defense helped set up Iowa's other score of the first half. After Iowa State was forced to punt from its own seven, QB Drew Tate hooked up with WR Ed Hinkel for a 29-yard scoring strike on third down with just 2:49 left in the half.

The Hawkeyes opened the third quarter with a 39-yard field goal from PK Kyle Schlicher. That score was set up by a 23-yard connection from Tate to Warren Holloway.

Iowa maintained a 17-3 advantage for most of the third quarter until a 40-yard touchdown pass trimmed the Hawkeye lead to seven (17-10) with 36 seconds left in the period. The Hawkeye defense was able to protect the seven-point advantage as neither team scored again.

Tate completed 16-22 passes for 220 yards, tossing one touchdown and one interception in his first complete game as Iowa's starting quarterback. Hinkel caught a team-high four passes for 61 yards to lead the team in receiving for the second straight week.

RB Jermelle Lewis eclipsed the century mark for the fifth time in his career. Lewis rushed 30 times for 102 yards, including a team-season long 34-yard scamper late in the fourth quarter to move the chains and help run time off the clock.

For the second-straight week, Iowa's defense was solid. The Hawkeyes held the Cyclones to 236 total yards, including 66 yards on the ground. LB Abdul Hodge posted a game-high 12 tackles (8 solo), while LB Chad Greenway collected 10 tackles (6 solo), including one for loss and one pass break-up. DL Jonathan Babineaux tied a career-high with six tackles (five solo), including two sacks.

GAME RECAP

Arizona State avenged its 2003 loss to Iowa with a 44-7 win in Sun Devil Stadium. The Sun Devils scored points on six of their first seven possessions, while the Hawkeye offense sputtered, going three-and-out on seven of its first 10 possessions.

Arizona State got on the board first with a 14-yard TD pass from QB Andrew Walter to WR Moey Mutz. On their next possession, the Sun Devils capped a 12-play, 58-yard drive with a field goal to stretch their lead to 10-0. Walter threw two of his career-high five touchdown passes in the second quarter.

Iowa did not score an offensive touchdown for the first time in nine games. The last time the Hawkeye offense failed to reach the end zone was in a 19-10 defeat at Ohio State (10/18/03). The Hawkeyes' only score came on a Walner Belleus 83-yard punt return late in the fourth quarter. The touchdown return ties the sixth longest punt return in school history.

Arizona State racked up 511 yards total offense and 23 first downs. Iowa was limited to only 100 yards total offense and six first downs. The Sun Devils converted 13-19 on third down, while the Hawkeyes were only 2-12 on third-down conversions and 0-2 on fourth down.

QB Drew Tate completed 9-19 passes for 44 yards and one interception. RB Marques Simmons rushed seven times for 51 yards, while RB Aaron Mickens was Iowa's leading receiver with two receptions for 11 yards.

Defensively, LB Chad Greenway collected double figure tackles for the third-straight game. The junior posted a game-high 12 tackles (9 solo). LB Abdul Hodge registered seven solo tackles, giving him 200 career stops. DB Antwan Allen recorded four tackles and returned an interception five yards. David Bradley averaged 45.6 yards on eight punts, including a season-best 56-yarder and three punts of 50 yards or more.

GAME RECAP

Michigan scored 27 points following five Iowa turnovers en route to a 30-17 victory over the Hawkeyes in front of 111,428 fans in Michigan Stadium. The loss snapped a two-game Iowa win streak over the Wolverines.

Iowa scored first on a seven-play, 75-yard drive that culminated with a two-yard diving catch by WR Ed Hinkel from QB Drew Tate. On the drive, Tate was a perfect 4-4 for 55 yards. In fact, Tate completed his first 11 passes and finished the contest completing a career-high 24-32 for 270 yards and two touchdowns.

Michigan scored the next 16 points to take a 16-7 halftime advantage, scoring its two touchdowns following Iowa turnovers.

The Hawkeyes held Michigan's offense on its first possession of the third quarter. Iowa then marched down the field and PK Kyle Schlicher converted a 25-yard field goal to trim Michigan's lead to 16-10. However, Iowa was unable to hold onto the ball as Michigan scored after an Iowa fumble and returned an interception for a touchdown to stretch its lead to 30-10. Iowa scored its final touchdown midway through the fourth quarter on a 10-yard pass from Tate to Hinkel, capping an 80-yard scoring drive.

Hinkel posted career highs in receptions (seven), yards (89) and touchdowns (two). TE Tony Jackson also posted career highs in receptions (four) and yards (61). RB Jermelle Lewis led Iowa's ground attack, rushing 14 times for 35 yards. LB Chad Greenway posted double digit tackles for the fourth-straight game, collecting a game-high 10 tackles (eight solo) and a career-high two sacks. LB Abdul Hodge registered 10 tackles (seven solo) and recovered one fumble. DE Matt Roth had his best game of the season, collecting seven tackles (all solo). Roth had two tackles for loss, a QB sack and a forced fumble, the sixth of his career.

GAME RECAP

Iowa collected a season-high 464 yards total offense en route to 38-16 victory over Michigan State on Homecoming. The victory was Iowa's fifth consecutive Homecoming win, but more importantly, it snapped a two-game losing streak.

Iowa jumped on the Spartans early, posting two first quarter 80-yard touchdown drives. RB Jermelle Lewis scored the first touchdown on a season-long 47-yard run on Iowa's opening drive of the game. WR Ed Hinkel caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate to boost the margin to 14-0 later in the first period.

Following two MSU field goals, the Hawkeyes added a 23-yard field goal by Kyle Schlicher in the final minute of the second period to take a 17-6 halftime advantage. Iowa stretched its lead to 24-6 following a three-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Busch. RB Marques Simmons added a pair of short scoring runs from one and two yards to close Iowa's scoring in the fourth quarter. Iowa was a perfect 5-5 in the red zone, scoring four touchdowns (three rushing and one passing) and a field goal.

Tate posted career highs in pass completions (25), attempts (36) and yardage (340). The sophomore became the first Iowa quarterback to throw for over 300 yards since Jon Beutjer threw for 380 yards at Indiana (9/30/00). Also, Tate completed 10-straight passes in the third quarter, marking the third time this season he has completed 10 or more consecutive passes in a game (10 vs. Kent State and 11 at Michigan).

Lewis came out of the game in the second quarter due to injury, but finished the game as Iowa's leading rusher with three carries for 49 yards and one touchdown. Hinkel tied a career high with seven receptions and posted a career high with 98 receiving yards. WR Clinton Solomon collected career highs in receptions (four) and receiving yards (105).

Defensively, Iowa had three players collect double figure tackles. DB Miguel Merrick had the first start of his career, replacing the injured Sean Considine, and responded with a career-high 14 tackles (10 solo), including one for loss. LB Abdul Hodge tallied 12 tackles (seven solo), while DB Marcus Paschal registered a career-high 10 tackles (seven solo).

GAME RECAP

Iowa snapped an eight-game losing streak to Ohio State with a 33-7 triumph in Kinnick Stadium. The 26-point victory is Iowa's largest margin over Ohio State.

QB Drew Tate put up big numbers to help lead the Hawkeyes to victory. The sophomore completed 26-39 passes for 331 yards and three touchdowns. Tate also rushed nine times for 24 yards and scored on a one-yard plunge. The native of Baytown, TX, became only the third Iowa quarterback to post consecutive 300-yard passing games (Matt Sherman and Chuck Hartlieb). Tate's efforts earned him a share of Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors.

Iowa tallied its first points on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tate to WR Clinton Solomon in the first quarter. PK Kyle Schlicher booted a career-long 45-yard field goal in the second quarter to give Iowa a 10-0 halftime advantage.

Ohio State fumbled on its second play from scrimmage in the third quarter. Five plays later, Tate connected with TE Scott Chandler for an eight-yard touchdown. The Hawkeyes added their second third quarter touchdown on a Solomon 36-yard touchdown reception – his second of the game. Solomon posted career highs in receptions (seven) and receiving yards (131).

Tate scored on a one-yard rush on the first play of the fourth quarter and Iowa scored its final points on a 41-yard field goal by Schlicher. Schlicher finished with nine points and was named Big Ten co-Special Teams Player of the Week.

After Iowa scored 33 unanswered points, Ohio State scored its only touchdown with 2:19 left in the game.

Iowa's defense recorded eight tackles for loss, collected three turnovers (one interception, two fumbles) and allowed Ohio State's offense to cross midfield only twice. LB Abdul Hodge collected a team-high 12 tackles (nine solo), including one for loss. DE Derreck Robinson registered a career-high nine tackles (six solo), including one for loss. He also forced and recovered a fumble. DE Matt Roth recorded five tackles (three solo) and two sacks while also causing the seventh fumble of his career.

2004 GAME SUMMARIES

Iowa 6, Penn State 4 Oct. 23, 2004, Beaver Stadium, State College, PA

Iowa	3	3	0	0	6
Penn State	2	0	0	2	4

GAME RECAP

Iowa won a 6-4 defensive battle in Beaver Stadium, marking Iowa's fifth straight win over Penn State and its fourth consecutive in State College. The victory marked the first time the Hawkeyes won a football game without scoring a touchdown since a 12-10 victory over Michigan on 10/19/85 in Kinnick Stadium.

Penn State scored its only points on two Iowa safeties. Iowa's opening possession ended with a bad snap, which sailed over punter David Bradley and through the end zone. The Hawkeyes added a pair of 27-yard field goals by PK Kyle Schlicher in the first half, which was all the Hawkeyes needed. Iowa's first points came on a 15-play, 58-yard drive that took over seven minutes, while the second and final field goal was set up by a 51-yard interception return by Sean Considine. The Nittany Lions' second safety came in the fourth quarter when Iowa was pinned on its own goal line. Iowa opted to take a safety and a free kick from the 20 with just over eight minutes to play, and the Iowa defense did the rest.

Iowa's defense was the story as the unit collected five turnovers, four of which were interceptions, one by each starting member of the secondary. The Hawkeyes held Penn State to only six first downs and 51 yards rushing.

QB Drew Tate completed 14-31 passes for 126 yards. WR Clinton Solomon led the Iowa receivers for the third consecutive game, collecting five receptions for 46 yards. Sam Brownlee started his first collegiate game at running back and had 16 carries for 30 yards.

Linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway each registered 11 tackles. DE Matt Roth tallied four solo tackles, two sacks and forced his third fumble of the season. The senior has recorded two sacks in consecutive games. Considine returned to action after missing two games due to injury. He had a game-high three pass break-ups to go with his interception return.

GAME RECAP

Iowa won its fourth consecutive game and became bowl eligible for the fourth consecutive season with a 23-13 win over Illinois in Memorial Stadium. The victory was also Coach Ferentz's 50th career win as college head coach.

It was a windy day with gusts up to 40 mph. All 36 points were scored with the wind.

The first half was a defensive struggle with both team's offense only able to score one touchdown. Illinois scored first on an eight-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter. Iowa scored on a 19-yard pass from QB Drew Tate to WR Ed Hinkel in the second quarter.

With the score 7-7 at the half, Iowa broke the game open in the third quarter, scoring 16 unanswered points. DT Jonathan Babineaux caused and recovered an Illinois fumble on the first possession of the second half and Iowa took advantage, scoring a touchdown on another 19-yard pass completion to Hinkel.

Iowa's special teams came up big on Illinois' next possession. Sophomore Miguel Merrick blocked his first career punt, with the result being a safety after the ball rolled out of the end zone. The Hawkeyes received the free kick and scored their second touchdown of the quarter on Tate's five-yard run. Iowa dominated the time of possession in the third quarter (10:23-4:37). Iowa led 23-7 until the Illini scored in the final minute of the game.

Tate completed 24-34 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed nine times for six yards and one touchdown. Hinkel caught five passes for a career-best 108 yards and two scores. RB Sam Brownlee started his second career game and carried the ball 19 times for 50 yards, both career-highs.

Defensively, LB Chad Greenway collected a game-high 10 tackles (6 solo). LB Abdul Hodge posted nine tackles (3 solo) and Babineaux registered six tackles (3 solo), including 1.5 for loss, along with the forced and recovered fumble.

GAME RECAP

Iowa forced five turnovers, sacked Purdue's quarterback six times and blocked two field goals in a 23-21 victory in Kinnick Stadium. The Hawkeyes jumped out to a 17-0 advantage in the first quarter and held on to capture their fifth straight win. Iowa scored the 17 points on three of its first four possessions.

WR Ed Hinkel and TE Tony Jackson caught touchdown passes from QB Drew Tate. PK Kyle Schlicher converted three field goals in a game for the first time in his career. The sophomore connected from 22, 26 and 34 yards.

Purdue trimmed Iowa's lead to 17-14 by the end of the third quarter. Back-to-back field goals by Schlicher increased Iowa's lead to 23-14. A touchdown by the Boilermakers in the final minute made the score 23-21. Purdue attempted an onside kick with 25 seconds left, but Hinkel recovered the kick to preserve the Hawkeye victory.

Tate completed 24-45 passes for 270 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. RB Sam Brownlee rushed 25 times for 52 yards. WR Clinton Solomon caught eight passes for 76 yards, while TE Scott Chandler caught a career-high four passes for 122 yards.

DL Tyler Luebke, DB Sean Considine and LB Chad Greenway all posted a team-high eight tackles. In addition to collecting eight tackles, Considine blocked a field goal, his fifth career block (4 punts, 1 field goal). Luebke also posted a sack, forced and recovered a fumble. DL Jonathan Babineaux registered five solo tackles, three sacks, and forced and recovered a fumble. His efforts earned him Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week laurels. DB Antwan Allen had five tackles and intercepted his third pass in as many weeks and his fourth of the season.

GAME RECAP

Iowa scored on its first five possessions and did not record a turnover for the first time this season en route to a 29-27 triumph at Minnesota. The victory keeps Floyd of Rosedale in Iowa City a fourth consecutive year.

PK Kyle Schlicher had a career-day to help the Hawkeyes upend the Gophers. Schlicher posted school records in field goals made in a game (5) and kicking points in a game (17). The sophomore connected on field goals of 36, 22, 20, 38 and a career-long 49 yards. Schlicher was recognized as co-Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts.

WR Clinton Solomon posted career highs in receptions (9) and receiving yards (157). The 157 receiving yards ties (Dave Triplett) for the 13th-best day in Iowa history. QB Drew Tate completed 24-39 passes for 333 yards and two touchdowns.

Iowa jumped out to a 16-3 advantage in the first half on the leg of three Schlicher field goals and a 41-yard touchdown pass completion from Tate to Solomon. Minnesota RB Laurence Maroney scampered 79 yards for a score to trim the Hawkeyes' lead to 16-10 before Iowa WR James Townsend caught a 60-yard touchdown pass to give Iowa a 23-10 halftime advantage. The touchdown passes of 41 and 60 yards are Iowa's longest touchdown passing plays of the season.

Minnesota out-scored Iowa 10-3 in the third quarter to shave the Hawkeyes' lead to 26-20. Schlicher converted his record-breaking fifth field goal with 9:11 remaining in the game to stretch the lead to 29-20. Maroney scored his second touchdown of the game with 4:40 left to cut the lead to 29-27. Following an Iowa punt, Minnesota drove 20 yards to the Iowa 34 before a potential game-winning 51-yard field goal sailed wide left with 28 seconds remaining.

Defensively, Iowa forced four turnovers (3 interceptions, 1 fumble), including three in the first half. Minnesota entered the game with just six turnovers in its first 10 games. DB Marcus Paschal had a career-high 12 tackles (7 solo) and a forced fumble. Three Hawkeyes (DB Sean Considine, LB Chad Greenway, LB Abdul Hodge) each collected eight tackles.

GAME RECAP

Iowa's 30-7 victory over Wisconsin was its seventh consecutive Big Ten win. As a result the Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title with Michigan. The Big Ten title is Iowa's second in three years and 11th overall. In addition, the victory keeps the newly introduced Heartland Trophy in Iowa City.

With the score tied 7-7 late in the second quarter, QB Drew Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon for a 51-yard touchdown pass with a minute remaining to give Iowa a 14-7 advantage heading into halftime.

The second half was all Iowa, as the Hawkeyes out-scored the Badgers 16-0 and forced four turnovers (two fumbles, two interceptions). The Hawkeyes converted Wisconsin miscues into 13 points.

TE Scott Chandler caught a 12-yard touchdown pass to extend Iowa's lead (21-7) with 3:54 remaining in the third quarter. PK Kyle Schlicher added three field goals (31, 21 and 34 yards) to give Iowa a 30-7 victory.

Tate completed 14-24 passes for 186 yards and three touchdowns, with three interceptions. The three touchdown passes tied a career high. The sophomore threw two touchdowns or more in five of the last six games.

Solomon posted game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (100). The junior has led Iowa receivers in six of the last seven games.

Defensively, Iowa collected four turnovers, sacked Wisconsin QB John Stocco four times and recorded seven tackles for loss. Anchoring the Iowa defensive unit was DT Jonathan Babineaux. The senior was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts. Babineaux collected a career-high seven tackles, including three for loss and two sacks. He also returned a fumble 39 yards. Linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway tallied 11 and 10 tackles, respectively. DB Antwan Allen picked off his team-leading fourth interception of the season. Here is the yardstick:

GAME RECAP

Fifth-year senior Warren Holloway caught an improbable 56-yard game-winning touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate as time expired to lift Iowa to a thrilling 30-25 triumph over 11th-ranked LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The 56-yard bomb on the final play was arguably the best finish in bowl history. The reception was Holloway's first career touchdown.

Iowa grabbed an early 7-0 lead when Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon on a 57-yard score on its first possession. The 57-yarder tied Iowa's longest touchdown reception in a bowl game (Dave Moritz from Chuck Long in the 1982 Peach Bowl). LSU cut the Hawkeye lead to 7-6 on a pair of field goals midway through the second quarter. Iowa extended its lead to 14-6 when Miguel Merrick blocked a punt and Sean Considine returned the ball seven yards for a touchdown. The Tigers answered on their next possession with a 74-yard touchdown run, but failed to convert the extra point.

PK Kyle Schlicher scored the only points of the third quarter on a 19-yard field goal to stretch Iowa's lead to 17-12. RB Marques Simmons scored on a four-yard run with 12:48 remaining to give the Hawkeyes a 24-12 advantage. LSU rallied with a pair of touchdown passes to WR Skyler Green (22 and 3 yards) as the Tigers took their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 46 seconds left.

Tate drove Iowa to the 44-yard line before throwing the pass to Holloway as the final seconds clicked off the clock. The victory gave Iowa its 10th win of the year, marking the third straight season the Hawkeyes have collected 10 wins or more.

Tate was named the Capital One Bowl MVP, while DL Jonathan Babineaux was recognized as Iowa's Defensive MVP. Tate completed 20-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes of 56 and 57 yards marked the first time an Iowa quarterback has tossed two touchdowns over 50 yards in a bowl game. WR Ed Hinkel caught a career and game-high 10 passes for 93 yards.

Defensively, Iowa recorded 10 tackles for loss, including five sacks. LB Abdul Hodge racked up a game-high 15 tackles (10 solo), including 2.5 sacks. LB Chad Greenway tallied nine tackles (seven solo), including one for loss. Additionally, the Hawkeyes' special teams blocked two punts, including returning one for a touchdown.

* - Bowl Championship Series. The BCS guarantees one game to determine the national champion. The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Orange Bowl and Fiesta Bowl. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac 10 and Southeastern conferences. ABC will televise all four BCS games.

At the end of the season, the teams that are ranked first and second in the final BCS Standings will play for the national championship in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 4 in Pasadena, CA.

All times listed are Central Standard time.

1994

Iowa again closed the season fast, earning three wins and a tie in the last four games to post a 5-5-1 mark. The Hawkeyes fought back from injuries at the quarterback position to score 98 points in the final two games, wins over Northwestern and Minnesota. Five Iowa quarterbacks were injured during the year.

1995

Following the trend of the past few seasons, Iowa closed fast, winning its final two games of the regular season to earn an invitation to the Sun Bowl. Iowa ended the year in fine fashion, racing past Pac-10 co-champion Washington 38-18 in the Sun Bowl and ending the year with an 8-4 record, including a 4-4 Big Ten mark. Iowa was ranked in the top 25 in the final polls by the Associated Press, UPI and CNN/USA Today.

1996

Iowa posted a 9-3 record, including a 27-0 win over Texas Tech in the Builder's Square Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted a 6-2 Big Ten record, earning a tie for third place with Penn State. Iowa ended the season ranked 18th in the nation in both the AP poll and the CNN/USA Today coaches poll. PR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-American honors and RB Sedrick Shaw rushed for over 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season.

1997

If ever the Hawkeyes had a season that could have been, 1997 would be the year. Iowa posted a 7-5 overall record (4-4 in the Big Ten) and participated in the Norwest Sun Bowl, earning its third straight bowl invitation. But narrow road losses at national champion Michigan (28-24), Wisconsin (13-10) and Northwestern (15-14) put a damper on what could have been a great season. RB Tavian Banks, WR Tim Dwight and DT Jared DeVries earned All-American honors and Dwight led the nation in punt returns.

1998

On November 25, 1998, Hayden Fry announced his retirement as head coach after a successful 20-year career with the Hawkeyes. Fry had a record of 143-89-6 at Iowa and a 232-178-10 mark over his 37 seasons as a college head football coach.

Iowa struggled to a 3-8 record on the field, with five of the eight losses coming to teams ranked in the final top 25. Three Hawkeye losses came at the hands of teams ranked in the top six in the country.

Iowa was led on offense by three freshmen, as QB Kyle McCann led the team in passing, RB Ladell Betts led the team in rushing and WR Kahlil Hill led the team in receiving. Senior DT Jared DeVries earned consensus all-America honors.

1999

Kirk Ferentz began a new coaching era as Iowa finished the season with a 1-10 record while facing what was regarded as the fourth strongest schedule in the nation. Three of Iowa's losses went down to the final play of the game, with the Hawkeyes allowing a score at Northwestern and failing to score from inside the 10-yardline in home losses to Indiana and Minnesota.

2000

Iowa opened the season in the Eddie Robinson Classic against Kansas State on August 26, marking the earliest date ever for an Iowa football game. The Hawkeyes, facing the sixth-strongest schedule in the nation, posted a 3-9 overall record. The Hawkeyes won their first overtime game ever, 26-23 at Penn State, in double overtime. A late season 27-17 win over Northwestern forced the Wildcats to share the Big Ten title. Iowa finished strong, winning two of final three games to set the table for the success of 2001 and 2002.

2001

Iowa opened the season with three straight wins and ended the season winning three of its final four games, including a 19-16 victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted an overall 7-5 record and tied for fourth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. All five of Iowa's setbacks came by less than 10 points. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring (32.6) as Coach Kirk Ferentz led Iowa to a bowl win in just his third season.

2002

Iowa posted a perfect 8-0 record in Big Ten play to earn a share of the conference title with Ohio State. After a 3-1 start in non-conference play, the Hawkeyes began league play with a 42-35 overtime win at Penn State and went on to earn the league title in Coach Kirk Ferentz' fourth year. Iowa posted a final mark of 11-2 after a loss to Southern California in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami, FL. Iowa earned its first-ever Bowl Championship Series invitation.

Ferentz earned Big Ten and national Coach of the Year honors, while 11 Hawkeyes were named first team all-Big Ten. QB Brad Banks placed second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Big Ten Conference MVP. Banks was also the Associated Press Player of the Year and earned the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in the nation. OL Eric Steinbach was the Big Ten Line-man of the year, while TE Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award and PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza award.

Iowa averaged over 37 points a game in leading the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight season, while the Hawkeye defense ranked fifth in the nation against the run.

For the first time in school history, Iowa won 10 or more games in consecutive seasons after posting a 10-3 mark, putting an exclamation mark on the season with a 37-17 win over Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl.

Iowa's 21 wins over the past two seasons are the most ever for Iowa football in a two-year period. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked eighth in the final polls, the first back-to-back top 10 finishes for Iowa football since the 1950's. Coupled with the 2003 Orange Bowl, Iowa also has played in January bowl games in consecutive seasons for the first time in the history of the program.

The Hawkeyes opened the season with four straight wins in non-conference play. After a loss at Michigan State, Iowa returned home for a 30-27 win over Michigan, handing the Wolverines their only loss in Big Ten play. After a loss at Purdue in early November, Iowa closed the regular season with wins over Minnesota and Wisconsin. The bowl win over Florida gave the Hawkeyes three straight wins over ranked opponents.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery was named a consensus all-American and became Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. PK Nate Kaeding was also a first team all-American for the second straight season, becoming Iowa's all-time scoring leader while setting 14 school records during his career.

2004

Winning its last eight games of the season, Iowa posted a 10-2 record, sharing the Big Ten Conference title for the second time in three seasons. The Hawkeyes defeated Wisconsin in Kinnick Stadium on the final day of the regular season to earn the title share with Michigan.

Playing in its third straight January bowl game, Iowa scored a thrilling 30-25 win over defending national champion LSU in the Capital One Bowl. The Hawkeyes scored the winning touchdown on a 56-yard pass from QB Drew Tate to senior WR Warren Holloway. After leading throughout the contest, Iowa fell behind with 46 seconds left in the game before winning on the final play.

Iowa started the season with a 2-2 mark before making its championship run. The win over Wisconsin increased Iowa's winning streak to 18 straight home games and 13 straight conference games, both school records.

Due to a number of injuries at the running back position, Iowa used a rock solid defense and the arm of Tate, a sophomore in his first season as a starter, to produce a third straight season of at least 10 wins. The Hawkeye defense led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense, while ranking third in the conference and 11th in the nation in total defense.

Tate, DE Matt Roth, LB Chad Greenway and LB Abdul Hodge were named first team all-Big Ten, while Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

GAME RECAP

Switching from the mighty defensive role they played all season (which included four shutouts), Iowa put on a great offensive show to defeat Oregon State 35-19 in the 43rd Rose Bowl. It was the school's first bowl appearance. Iowa assumed an early lead on game MVP Kenny Ploen's 49-yard run. Ploen also completed 9-of-10 passes. Collins Hagler scored two TDs and totaled a game-best 85 rushing yards. Iowa played Oregon State during the regular season and had also won that encounter, 14-13. The Rose Bowl win was the Big Ten's 10th win in 11 games against its west coast opponents. Over 15,000 Hawkeye fans attended the game.

Bob Jeter ran for 194 yards on nine carries, earned Player-of-the-Game honors and led Iowa to a 38-12 win over California in the 45th Rose Bowl. Over 18,000 Iowa fans made the trip to Pasadena. Head Coach Forest Evashevski had to get out of his sickbed to lead Iowa to its second Rose Bowl win in three years. Willie Fleming tallied twice for the winners. Fleming had 85 yards (nine attempts) on the ground. The Hawkeyes set Rose Bowl records for total offense (516) and rushing offense (429). Jeter's 21.6 yards per carry average and his 81-yard TD run were Rose Bowl records.

GAME RECAP

Washington's Jacque Robinson rushed for 142 yards and two touchdowns as the Huskies blanked Iowa 28-0 in the 68th Rose Bowl game. One of the key plays was late in the first half when Iowa tried to convert a fourth-and-seven situation at Washington's 40-yard line. Pete Gales' pass was incomplete, and the Huskies moved the ball downfield and scored with 0:19 left for a 13-0 halftime lead. Iowa's offense turned the ball over five times while Washington had just one turnover. The game marked the third bowl game in school history and the first in 23 years.

Iowa -- 6

Dec. 30, 1983, Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Florida

Iowa	0	3	3	0	6
Florida	7	7	0	0	14

GAME RECAP

Cold weather stalled a couple of high-powered offenses in the 39th annual Gator Bowl as Florida defeated Iowa 14-6. The wind chill at game time was 13 degrees below zero. The Hawkeyes and Gators combined for six interceptions, 19 penalties and only seven of 31 third down conversions in the ragged contest. The play of the game took place with 1:08 left in the first half. Tom Nichol, attempting to punt out of his own end zone, misplayed a high snap and Florida's Doug Drew covered it for a touchdown. Nichol scored the Hawkeyes' only points on a pair of short field goals. Owen Gill led the Hawkeye offense with 83 yards rushing.

GAME RECAP

Rob Houghtlin's 41-yard field goal as time expired culminated an 18-point blitz in the final 8:39 and helped Iowa down San Diego State 39-38 in the ninth annual Holiday Bowl. The Hawkeyes stormed back on a pair of Mark Vlasic TD throws in the final period to take a 36-35 lead. SDSU's Kevin Rahill booted a 21-yard FG with 0:47 left to give the Aztecs a 38-36 advantage. Kevin Harmon returned the ensuing kickoff to the SDSU 37-yard line, and Houghtlin kicked the game winner four plays later. Iowa was able to win only after converting two-point conversions following two of their final three touchdowns.

GAME RECAP

Iowa's defense and special teams scored two touchdowns and FB David Hudson tallied on a short run in the fourth period to rally the Hawkeyes to a 20-19 triumph over Wyoming in the 10th Holiday Bowl. Merton Hanks deflected a second-period punt, the first of his two blocked kicks, and Jay Hess covered it in the end zone for a score. Anthony Wright cut the lead to 19-13 with a 33-yard interception return. Greg Worker's 52-yard FG attempt was blocked by Hanks with 46 seconds left to preserve the victory. Wright, who added six tackles, was Iowa's game MVP. Wyoming had a 12-0 lead before Hess got the Hawkeyes on the scoreboard, but Iowa still trailed 19-7 at halftime before pitching a shutout in the second half.

GAME RECAP

Iowa couldn't overcome seven turnovers, including three interceptions by North Carolina State's Michael Brooks, in a 28-23 loss in the Peach Bowl. NCSU jumped out to a 28-3 lead before the Hawkeyes staged a furious comeback with 20 unanswered points. Chuck Hartlieb passed for 428 yards -- 122 to Marv Cook and 101 and two TDs to Deven Harberts -- in the catch-up effort. The Hawkeyes trailed 28-3 just 15 minutes into the game before Hartlieb worked his magic. The Wolfpack also committed seven turnovers, losing five fumbles. Freshman Tyrell Jackson scored two TDs for North Carolina State.

Brigham Young -- 13

Dec. 30, 1991, Jack Murphy Stadium, San Diego, California

Iowa	6	7	0	0	13
BYU	0	6	0	7	13

GAME RECAP

Iowa's attempt to become the winningest team in Hawkeye history came up just short at the hands of Ty Detmer and Brigham Young. The 1990 Heisman Trophy winner passed for 350 yards in rallying the Cougars back from a 13-0 halftime deficit. Iowa built its lead on two touchdown runs by Mike Saunders. Saunders joined Iowa's exclusive 1,000-yard in a season club. He had 103 yards on 19 carries in the Holiday Bowl to give him 1,022 for the season and 1,476 career rushing yards. Iowa QB Matt Rodgers completed 19 of 28 passes for 221 yards. Jon Filloon caught a career-high seven passes for 107 yards in his final game as a Hawkeye. All-American defensive end Leroy Smith was injured in the first half and never returned to the Iowa lineup. BYU had a chance to win the game with under 30 seconds to play. The Cougars had a first down on the Iowa 18-yard line with the score tied. However, Detmer's final pass was intercepted by Carlos James at the goal line. Teddy Jo Faley led Iowa's defenders with 14 tackles, including 13 solo stops. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked 10th in both the AP and CNN/USA Today polls with a 10-1-1 record.

GAME RECAP

California exploded for 17 points in the second quarter and defeated Iowa 37-3 in the inaugural Alamo Bowl. The Golden Bears built a 9-0 lead on three field goals by Doug Brien, then expanded their advantage to 16-0 on a six-yard touchdown pass from Dave Barr to Mike Caldwell. Iowa's deficit grew when Jerrott Willard picked off a Paul Burmeister pass and ran it 61 yards for a score just before halftime. Iowa's only points in the second half came on a 42-yard field goal by Brion Hurley in the third quarter. Iowa finished the season 6-6. A bright spot was punter Nick Gallery, who averaged 43 yards on eight punts. Harold Jasper had four pass receptions for 55 yards to lead Iowa's receivers. Larry Blue received the Alamo Bowl Sportsmanship Award. The game marked Coach Hayden Fry's first return to his home state for a game since he took the Iowa job 15 years earlier.

Washington -- 18

Dec. 29, 1995, Sun Bowl Stadium, El Paso, Texas

Iowa	10	11	10	7	38
Washington	0	0	6	12	18

GAME RECAP

Iowa jumped out to the early lead and didn't look back, defeating Pac-10 co-champion Washington, 38-18, in the 62nd annual Sun Bowl at El Paso, TX. Sedrick Shaw started the Iowa scoring by taking a handoff and running 58 yards for a touchdown only 1:52 into the game. Kickers Brion Hurley and Zach Bromert each added a pair of field goals. A snap over the punter's head led to a safety and a 21-0 halftime lead for the Hawkeyes. Hurley kicked his third field goal of the day from 50 yards out as Iowa's lead climbed to 24 in the third quarter. Washington got on the board for the first time at the 8:37 mark of the third quarter when Shane Fortney hit Jerome Pathon on a 30-yard touchdown pass. Iowa fullback Michael Burger scored on runs of eight- and one-yard to increase the score to 38-6 before Washington added two late scores. The Iowa defense recorded four sacks while forcing three fumbles. Hawkeye running backs Shaw (135) and Tavian Banks (122) each rushed for over 100 yards. The win moved Iowa's final record to 8-4.

Texas Tech -- 0

Dec. 29, 1996, Alamodome, San Antonio, Texas

Iowa	6	11	0	10	27

GAME RECAP

In its first trip back to San Antonio since losing to California 37-3 in the inaugural 1993 Alamo Bowl, Iowa's defense put on a clinic in stopping the run - one runner in particular. Iowa's group of run-stoppers, headed by sophomore linebackers Matt Hughes and Vernon Rollins, held Doak Walker Award winner and 2,000-yard rusher Byron Hanspard to 64 yards rushing on 18 attempts. In the process the Hawkeyes shut down Texas Tech for a dominating 27-0 win. Hanspard's longest run of the evening was 17 yards, as Iowa controlled the line of scrimmage and limited the Red Raiders to 60 yards total rushing. The victory was Iowa's second shutout of the season (the Hawkeyes also blanked Wisconsin 31-0). And while Hanspard was held in check throughout, Iowa senior Sedrick Shaw was unstoppable as he rushed for 113 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown. Shaw's second touchdown run was impressive, as he broke three tackles enroute to the end zone. Matt Sherman led a consistent Iowa offense with 126 yards passing - 105 to wide receiver Tim Dwight. The Hawkeye ground attack churned for 217 yards. Hughes finished with eight tackles, while Rollins added five. Sophomore Jared DeVries finished with two sacks and five tackles, three for a loss. Shaw and DeVries were named offensive and defensive MVP's, respectively.

Iowa -- 7

Dec. 31, 1997, Sun Bowl Stadium, El Paso, Texas

Arizona State	0	10	7	0	17
Iowa	0	0	0	7	7

GAME RECAP

An incredible defensive effort by Arizona State picked apart Iowa's ninth-ranked offense and earned the Sun Devils a 17-7 win in the Norwest Sun Bowl. The Sun Devil offense overshadowed Iowa, as ASU rushed for 268 yards and compiled 377 yards total offense. RB Tavian Banks sparked the offense unit on Iowa's second possession, breaking loose for a 26-yard run to the ASU 30. Unfortunately, for Iowa, ASU held the nation's fourth-best rusher to only 52 yards in the game. In the second quarter ASU set a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive into motion, and never looked back. The Sun Devils recovered an Iowa fumble late in the first half and added a field goal for a 10-0 halftime advantage.

Iowa was able to score on a six-play, 87-yard scoring drive, under the direction of quarterback Randy Reiners, late in the fourth quarter. LBs Raj Clark and Matt Hughes led the Iowa defense, each recording 12 tackles, while CB Ed Gibson added 11. Jared DeVries contributed nine tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. Iowa punter Jason Baker was named Sun Bowl Special Teams MVP after averaging 48.9 yards per punt, including a Sun Bowl-record 76-yarder.

2001 Alamo Bowl

Iowa -- 19
Texas Tech -- 16

December 29, 2001, Alamodome, San Antonio, TX

Texas Tech	0	3	7	6	16
Iowa	3	7	3	6	19

GAME RECAP

Iowa's Nate Kaeding kicked a 47-yard field goal with 44 seconds to play in the game and defensive back Bob Sanders intercepted a Texas Tech pass in the endzone on the final play as Iowa defeated the Red Raiders 19-16 in the 2001 Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes ended the season with a 7-5 overall record with the bowl victory. The crowd of 65,232 marked the second largest crowd in Alamo Bowl history.

The Hawkeye drove 53 yards in eight plays for the final score of the game, which was the fourth field goal of the day for Kaeding. Texas Tech had tied the score at 16-16 with 2:05 remaining before Iowa's game winning drive.

Iowa QB Kyle McCann accounted for most of the yardage in the final scoring drive. He completed three straight passes for 41 totals yards and then scrambled for 16 yards to the Tech 26-yardline to set up Kaeding's game winning kick.

Kaeding tied an Iowa record with the four field goals, which came from 36, 31, 46 and 47 yards. Iowa took an early 10-0 lead in the first half, using a ball control offense to keep the Red Raider passing attack on the sidelines. Tech got on the scoreboard on the final play of the half on a 50-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 on its first possession of the third quarter.

An interception by Iowa's Derrick Pickens led to an Iowa field goal for a 13-10 advantage and good field position led to Kaeding's 46-yard effort that put Iowa in front 16-10.

Pickens was named the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, while RB Aaron Greiving earned that award for offense. Filling in for the injured Ladell Betts, Greiving rushed 25 times for 115 yards, including a one-yard scoring run for Iowa's only touchdown. McCann completed 19-26 passes for 161 yards, with no interceptions. Along with the interception on the final play of the game, Sanders led the Iowa defense with 11 tackles. Grant Steen added eight stops and Benny Sapp had seven tackles and an interception. Iowa's defense held Texas Tech to just 80 net rushing yards.

2003 Orange Bowl

Southern California -- 38
Iowa -- 17

January 2, 2003, Orange Bowl, Pro Player Stadium, Miami, FL

Iowa	10	0	0	7	17
Southern Cal	7	3	14	14	38

GAME RECAP

Southern Cal's big second half lifted the Trojans past Iowa, 38-17 in the 2003 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa, which saw its nine-game winning streak come to an end, completed the season with an 11-2 overall record and an eighth place ranking in the final polls.

Hawkeye C.J. Jones opened the game by returning the kickoff an Orange Bowl record 100 yards, giving Iowa an early 7-0 lead. The Trojans quickly answered with a four-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a Justin Fargas four-yard run.

Iowa and USC each added 35-yard field goals before the half. Iowa had an opportunity to take the lead, but a seven-play, 41-yard drive stalled on the USC one-yard line as the half ended and USC blocked an Iowa field goal attempt on the final play.

USC controlled the second half by scoring touchdowns on its first three possessions. USC's defense stifled the Hawkeyes.

Heisman Trophy winning QB Carson Palmer led USC by completing 21 of 31 passes for 303 yards and one touchdown. He was named the Orange Bowl MVP. Fargas became only the second Hawkeye opponent to eclipse 100 rushing yards as he gained 122 in 20 attempts. His rushing numbers included a 50-yard scoring scamper that marked the longest run against the Iowa defense all season.

QB Brad Banks completed 15-36 passes for 204 yards and one touchdown. Banks threw 103 consecutive passes without an interception before USC's Jason Leach picked one off in the fourth quarter. Banks also rushed eight times for 36 yards. His 423 rushing yards is an Iowa record for quarterbacks in a season.

WR Maurice Brown and TE Dallas Clark led the Iowa receivers. Brown had six receptions for 63 yards and a touchdown, while Clark tallied four receptions for 97 yards. Brown's 18-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter broke the school record for TD receptions in a season.

Jones ran back four kickoffs for 169 yards, which is an Orange Bowl record and an Iowa bowl game record for return yards.

Defensive backs Bob Sanders and Derek Pagel led Iowa's defensive unit recording 13 and 10 tackles, respectively. The Iowa defense sacked Palmer four times, which included DE Matt Roth's team-leading 11th sack in the second quarter.

IOWA BOWL HISTORY

2004 Outback Bowl

Iowa -- 37
Florida -- 17

January 1, 2004, Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, FL

Iowa	7	13	14	3	37
Florida	7	0	3	7	17

GAME RECAP

After falling behind 7-0 in the first quarter, Iowa scored 27 unanswered points en route to a 37-17 triumph over No. 17 Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl. The victory was Iowa's first over the Gators and its first January bowl win since the 1959 Rose Bowl. After allowing an early Florida touchdown, Iowa scored on three of its next four possessions to end the half.

WR Maurice Brown caught a three-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Chandler to even the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter. PK Nate Kaeding converted a 47-yard field goal to give Iowa the lead, and the Hawkeyes followed with a Chandler five-yard scoring run. A 32-yard Kaeding field goal gave Iowa a 20-7 halftime lead.

Iowa maintained momentum in the second half after holding Florida to a three-and-out on its first possession. Matt Melloy blocked the Florida punt and also recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. It marked the first time in Iowa bowl history that a Hawkeye player both blocked and recovered a punt for a touchdown.

The Gators added a field goal on their next possession, but two possessions later Iowa RB Fred Russell, who was named Outback Bowl MVP, scampered 34 yards for a touchdown to give Iowa a commanding 34-10 advantage. Kaeding added a 38-yard field goal to end Iowa's scoring.

Russell finished with 204 all-purpose yards. He carried the ball 21 times for 150 yards and one touchdown and returned three kickoffs for 54 yards. Chandler completed 13-25 passes for 170 yards, one passing touchdown, one rushing score and no interceptions. Brown caught six passes for 96 yards and one score.

Defensively, Iowa held the Gators to an Outback Bowl record-low 57 rushing yards, marking the eighth time in 2003 that the Hawkeyes held their opponents to 75 yards or less on the ground. DB Sean Considine collected a game-high nine tackles (three solo, six assists). LB Abdul Hodge registered eight stops (three solo, five assists). DT Tyler Luebke, DE Matt Roth and DE Howard Hodges each recorded one sack.

2005 Capital One Bowl

Iowa -- 30
Louisiana State -- 25

January 1, 2005, Florida Citrus Bowl, Orlando, FL

LSU	0	12	0	13	25
Iowa	7	7	3	13	30

GAME RECAP

Fifth-year senior Warren Holloway caught an improbable 56-yard game-winning touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate as time expired to lift Iowa to a thrilling 30-25 triumph over 11th-ranked LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The 56-yard bomb on the final play was arguably the best finish in bowl history. The reception was Holloway's first career touchdown.

Iowa grabbed an early 7-0 lead when Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon on a 57-yard score on its first possession. The 57-yarder tied Iowa's longest touchdown reception in a bowl game (Dave Moritz from Chuck Long in the 1982 Peach Bowl). LSU cut the Hawkeye lead to 7-6 on a pair of field goals midway through the second quarter. Iowa extended its lead to 14-6 when Miguel Merrick blocked a punt and Sean Considine returned the ball seven yards for a touchdown. The Tigers answered on their next possession with a 74-yard touchdown run, but failed to convert the extra point.

PK Kyle Schlicher scored the only points of the third quarter on a 19-yard field goal to stretch Iowa's lead to 17-12. RB Marques Simmons scored on a four-yard run with 12:48 remaining to give the Hawkeyes a 24-12 advantage. LSU rallied with a pair of touchdown passes to WR Skyler Green (22 and three yards) as the Tigers took their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 46 seconds left.

Tate drove Iowa to the 44-yard line before throwing the pass to Holloway as the final seconds clicked off the clock. The victory gave Iowa its 10th win of the year, marking the third straight season the Hawkeyes have collected 10 wins or more.

Tate was named the Capital One Bowl MVP, while DL Jonathan Babineaux was recognized as Iowa's Defensive MVP. Tate completed 20-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes of 56 and 57 yards marked the first time an Iowa quarterback has tossed two touchdowns over 50 yards in a bowl game.

WR Ed Hinkel caught a career and game-high 10 passes for 93 yards, one reception shy of an Iowa bowl record. Solomon caught four passes for 81 yards and one score, while Holloway caught four passes for 72 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Iowa recorded 10 tackles for loss, including five sacks. LB Abdul Hodge racked up a game-high 15 tackles (10 solo), including 2.5 sacks. LB Chad Greenway tallied nine tackles (seven solo), including one for loss. Babineaux registered seven tackles (five solo), including 4.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. Additionally, the Hawkeyes' special teams blocked two punts, including returning one for a touchdown.

Iowa finished the season ranked eighth for the third consecutive year. The Hawkeyes finished in the top 10 three straight seasons for only the second time ever (1956-58).

Hawkeyes Hold Records In Bowl Games

Iowa kickoff returner C.J. Jones (2003) set an Orange Bowl record when he returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against Southern California. Iowa punters Nick Gallery (1996) and Jason Baker (1997) have established bowl records for longest punt in two of Iowa's recent bowl games. Gallery had a 59-yard punt in the 1996 Alamo Bowl and Baker had a 76-yard punt in the 1997 Sun Bowl.

NATIONAL AWARDS

Throughout the years, a number of Iowa football players have been honored by winning national awards for their outstanding play on the football field. The individual awards earned by the 2002 and 2003 Hawkeye football program are unprecedented in the history of Iowa football as four individual earned national awards.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery in 2003 was the recipient of the Outland Trophy, which goes to the best interior lineman in college football. Gallery was named the Big Ten Lineman of the Year and he was a consensus all-American. He is the third Hawkeye player to earn the Outland Trophy.

PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza Award as the top kicker in the nation in 2002 as a junior. He also earned consensus all-America honors in 2003 and was one of three finalists for the Groza Award as a senior.

Also in 2002, Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award as the top tight end in the nation and QB Brad Banks was recognized with the Davey O'Brien Award as the top signal caller in the nation.

Along with having three players earn Player of the Year awards for their positions (QB Brad Banks, TE Dallas Clark and PK Nate Kaeding) in 2002, Iowa had a total of 11 players earn first team all-Big Ten honors. In addition to earning the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback, Banks was named Associated Press National Player of the Year, placed second in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. Banks was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year.

Center Bruce Nelson in 2002 was a finalist for the Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the nation, while Clark and OL Eric Steinbach earned consensus all-America honors. The 2002 and 2003 seasons marked just the third and fourth seasons in which Iowa has had more than one consensus selection. Steinbach, in 2002, preceded Gallery as the Big Ten Lineman of the Year.

In addition to the player honors, Coach Kirk Ferentz in 2002 was named national Coach of The Year by the Walter Camp Foundation and the Associated Press. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected Ron Aiken as the 2002 national Assistant Coach of the Year.

Ferentz repeated as the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2004 as Iowa earned its second title in three seasons. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the Broyles Award, which recognizes the nation's top Division I assistant coach and five Hawkeye players earned first team all-Big Ten recognition.

HEISMAN TROPHY

The Heisman Trophy, honoring the outstanding college football player in the United States, is presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York each year. Iowa's Nile Kinnick earned the Heisman Trophy in 1939.

Along with Kinnick earning the award in 1939, Iowa has had a player finish in the Top 10 in the voting on eight other occasions, including the 2002 season when QB Brad Banks placed second in the balloting. Banks became the third Iowa player to place second in the voting, joining Alex Karras in 1957 and Chuck Long in 1985.

Nile Kinnick Heisman Award Acceptance Speech

"Thank you very, very, kindly, Mr. Holcombe. It seems to me that everyone is letting their superlatives run away with them this evening, but none the less, I want you to know that I'm mighty, mighty, happy to accept this trophy this evening.

Every football player in these United States dreams about winning that trophy, and of this fine trip to New York. Every player considers that trophy the acme in recognition of this kind. And the fact that I am actually receiving this trophy tonight almost overwhelms me, and I know that all of those boys who have gone before me must have felt somewhat the same way.

From my own personal viewpoint, I consider my winning this award as indirectly, a great tribute to the coaching staff at the University of Iowa, headed by Dr. Eddie Anderson, and to my teammates sitting back in Iowa City. A finer man and a better coach never hit these United States, and a finer bunch of boys, never graced the gridirons of the Midwest, than that Iowa team in 1939. I wish that they might all be with me tonight to receive this trophy. They certainly deserve it.

I want to take this grand opportunity to thank collectively, all the sportswriters and all the sportscasters, and all those who have seen fit, have seen their way clear to cast a ballot in my favor for this trophy. And I also want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Prince and his committee, the Heisman award committee, and all those connected with the Downtown Athletic Club for this trophy, and for the fine time that they're showing me. And not only for that, but for making this fine and worthy trophy available to the football players of this country.

Finally, if you will permit me, I'd like to make a comment which in my mind, is indicative, perhaps, of the greater significance of football, and sports emphasis in general in this country, and that is, I thank God I was warring on the gridirons of the Midwest, and not on the battlefields of Europe. I can speak confidently and positively that the players of this country, would much more, much rather struggle and fight to win the Heisman award, than the Croix de Guerre.

Thank you."

No single player or team captured the imagination of Hawkeye fans more than Nile Kinnick and his legendary Ironmen team of 1939. Kinnick, a stalwart on the playing field and in the classroom was THE model Iowa football player.

As a student, Kinnick was senior class president. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the national scholastic honor society.

Maintaining a 3.4 GPA while participating in two sports, Kinnick earned a degree from the College of Commerce in 1940. He enrolled in the Iowa Law College.

As a player, his achievements are unmatched in Hawkeye history. He culminated a brilliant career in 1939 by winning the Heisman, Walter Camp and Maxwell Trophies as the nation's top player.

He made virtually every all-America team and was the Big Ten MVP. Nile is a member of Iowa's all-time football team and was named its outstanding player.

Kinnick was the spirit of Coach Eddie Anderson's Ironmen unit of '39. The Hawkeyes' 6-1-1 mark included a 7-6 upset of Notre Dame when Kinnick scored every point. He also punted 16 times for 731 yards, both Iowa records, versus the Fighting Irish.

Kinnick died in the Caribbean sea in a crash of his fighter plane while on a training flight June 2, 1943 as an ensign in the United States Navy.

Cal Jones
Lineman
Steubenville, Ohio

62

Jersey No. 62 was never worn more proudly than the three seasons Cal Jones donned it at Iowa.

One of the most intimidating linemen to wear the old gold and black, Jones was a three-time first team all-Big Ten guard. He made 22 all-American teams during his career, including a record 15 in 1954.

As team captain in 1955, Jones earned the prestigious Outland Trophy, given to the nation's top interior lineman. He was a consensus all-American twice, one of only two at Iowa. Cal is an elected member of the National Football Foundation and Helms Athletic Foundation Halls of Fame.

Jones most recently was inducted into the inaugural class of Iowa Lettermen's Club Hall of Fame. He was also chosen to the Iowa all-time football team in 1989.

A physical education major at Iowa, Jones earned a 3.0 grade-point average. He earned praise from Coach Forest Evashevski, who called him "the greatest lineman I ever coached."

The two-way guard was part of the "Steubenville Trio" (along with Frank Gilliam and Eddie Vincent) to come to Iowa from Steubenville, Ohio in the mid-1950s.

Jones died as a result of a plane crash in Canada on Dec. 9, 1956.

HALL OF FAME

Nineteen men who have been associated with Iowa football are members of Halls of Fame, named by the National Football Foundation, the Helms Athletic Foundation or the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven men have been named to the Halls of both foundations: Howard Jones, coach; Nile Kinnick, player; Gordon Locke, player; Fred (Duke) Slater, player; Dr. Edward Anderson, coach; Edward (Slip) Madigan, coach; Calvin Jones, player.

Five men have been named to the Hall of the Helms Foundation: Calvin Jones, player; Ossie Solem, coach; Emlen Tunnell, professional player; Eric Wilson, publicist.

Aubrey Devine, Randy Duncan, Alex Karras and Chuck Long have been named to the National Football Foundation Hall as players, while Earl Banks was inducted on the merits of his long-time coaching tenure at Morgan State. Former Iowa Coach Forest Evashevski was honored into the Hall of Fame in December of 2000 in New York City and Hayden Fry is the latest Iowa coach to be inducted.

Evashevski coached Iowa from 1952-60, compiling a 42-27-4 record. The Hawkeyes finished in the top five nationally in 1956, 1957, 1958 and 1960 under Evashevski, who later served as Iowa's Athletic Director.

Fry was inducted as a member of the 2003 Hall of Fame class at the 46th annual awards dinner on Dec. 9, 2003 at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. The newest class was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, IN, in August, 2004. Fry is Iowa's winningest head coach with 143 wins. He led the Hawkeyes to three Big Ten titles and Rose Bowl appearances and coached the Hawkeyes in 14 bowl games.

NATIONAL IOWA VARSITY CLUB HALL OF FAME

Inductees are selected by a vote of all dues-paying members of the National Iowa Varsity Club. All former Hawkeye athletes who have won at least one major letter and completed their eligibility at least 10 years prior to selection are eligible for the Hall of Fame.

A coach or administrator must have retired or left the university at least five years prior to selection. A maximum of seven inductees may be selected to the Hall of Fame each year.

IOWA TV APPEARANCES

Iowa football has been a popular choice for football fans, as Iowa's attendance figures would indicate. But the Hawkeyes have also been a favorite for television viewers as well, as nearly all of Iowa's football games in recent seasons have been selected for television.

All Iowa games during the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons were televised, with 18 games being carried to a national audience. All 11 of Iowa's regular games during the 2005 season are expected to once again be televised. The Hawkeyes have a 124-85-5 overall television record, and during one stretch (1955 to 1959) went 10 games without a defeat.

Floyd of Rosedale

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tensions between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation.

After Iowa lost the 1935 game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of BlueBoy from Will Rogers’ movie State Fair. Olson gave the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd’s image.

The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high. Floyd currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa’s 29-27 victory last season in the Metrodome. Minnesota holds a 38-30-2 advantage in the series with Floyd of Rosedale on the line.

The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Winner of In State Battle Earns Cy-Hawk Trophy

When The University of Iowa resumed its football series with Iowa State in 1977, the Des Moines Athletic Club donated a trophy to be awarded to the winner of the annual in-state battle.

The Cy-Hawk Trophy features a football player in the classic running back pose, and also includes a likeness of both Herky the Hawkeye and Cy the Cardinal on the front of the trophy.

The Hawkeyes hold a 35-18 advantage in the series that began in 1894, including a 19-9 margin since 1977 when the Cy-Hawk Trophy was first awarded. The Cy-Hawk Trophy currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa’s 17-10 win in Kinnick Stadium last season.

Iowa and Wisconsin Battle for Heartland Trophy

The Heartland Trophy was inaugurated in 2004 and goes each year to the winner of the football battle between Iowa and Wisconsin.

The trophy was designed and crafted by artist and former Iowa football player Frank Strub. The trophy, which is a bull mounted on a walnut base (native to both Wisconsin and Iowa), has been inscribed with the scores of all games in the long-time series. The teams have met 80 times, with the series standing even at 39-39-2.

Iowa claimed possession of the Heartland Trophy with a 30-7 win in Iowa City in 2004, earning the Big Ten title with its third straight win in the series.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago.

The name Hawkeye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism.

The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth over 50 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since then Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletic events.

Kinnick Stadium, home for the Iowa football team, is in its 76th season of hosting Hawkeye football games. One of the 25 largest college-owned stadiums in the nation and one of college football's finest facilities, Kinnick Stadium is routinely filled on Saturdays each fall.

Iowa draws sellout crowds of 70,397 fans at a majority of all home games, including all six home games in 2004 and 11 straight games over the past two seasons. The Hawkeyes recently held a streak of 63 straight sellouts over a period of 12 seasons. Iowa begins the 2005 season with a school-record 18-game winning streak in Kinnick Stadium and the Hawkeyes have won 13 straight Big Ten Conference home games. Iowa's current home winning streak ranks fourth longest in the nation heading into the 2005 season, trailing Boise State (25), Southern Cal (21) and Oklahoma (19).

Kinnick Stadium has undergone several renovations and improvements since its opening. The current renovation, at a cost of $90 million, will be completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. The south endzone was completely redone within the past year. Along with the exterior changes, all new lockerroom facilities for both Iowa and the visitors are located beneath the south stands, along with all new facilities for athletic training, equipment and post-game media interviews.

Following the 2005 season, the current press box will be replaced with a four level facility that will extend from goal line to goal line. The new facility will feature indoor and outdoor club seating and over 40 viewing suites. The entire project also includes additional restroom and concession facilities and a complete upgrade of existing facilities.

The Hawkeyes annually rank among the top 25 schools in the nation in home attendance. Iowa ranked 21st in home attendance in 2004 with its average of 70,397. Big Ten Conference football games in 2004 drew more than 4.5 million fans as the conference annually ranks first or second nationally in home attendance. Conference games a year ago averaged over 69,000 fans per contest.

The original capacity of Kinnick Stadium was 53,000. Seats were added to the south end zone in 1956, raising the capacity to 60,000. The north end zone was enclosed and capacity increased to 66,000 prior to the 1983 season.

With two more expansion projects completed since, the Stadium now seats 70,397 fans, although that figure may change slightly before the start of the 2006 season. Kinnick Stadium has 20 miles of bleacher seats and is 79 rows high on each side.

Construction on the stadium was completed Oct. 5, 1929 at a cost of $497,151.42. Original construction took six months, but it has undergone several facelifts since.

Beside the expansions, an artificial surface was installed in 1972. That carpet was replaced in 1981. Prior to the 1989 season a natural grass playing field, Prescription Athletic Turf, was installed. The playing surface was replaced with new sod prior to the 1997 season.

The five-floor press box was constructed in 1958 at a cost of $490,628.62. It is located between the 25-yard lines on the west side of the stadium.

Between 1995 and 1999, the Kinnick Stadium press box underwent a $3 million improvement and renovation project, which included the addition of 18 private viewing suites and the remodeling of all five levels.

Spectators attending home games of the Iowa Hawkeyes enjoy all the benefits of watching a game on television, thanks to the installation of all new video boards and scoreboards this past summer, as both the north and south endzone boards have been replaced. The large scale video display units offer spectators live game action, instant replays and other features, such as highlights from other college football games being played across the nation. A complete new sound system was also installed this past summer.

Kinnick Stadium has a rich history, beginning with a 46-0 Hawkeye win over Monmouth in the facility's first game. The Hawkeyes tied Illinois 7-7 in the dedication game Oct. 19, 1929.

In 1972, the name was changed from Iowa Stadium to Kinnick Stadium in honor of Iowa's 1939 Heisman Trophy winner, Nile Kinnick. His No. 24 jersey was retired by the school because of his success as a scholar-athlete at the University.

Iowa's all-time record in Kinnick Stadium is 223-158-15. Iowa's current home winning streak, 18 games, is the longest in Kinnick Stadium history. Iowa has had 11 undefeated home seasons, including both 2003 and 2004. Iowa posted a 6-1 home record in 2002.

The school's all-time home attendance record was set in 1986 (472,041 fans). The 2004 average of 70,397 established a school record.

Iowa's season attendance mark for all games is 905,840 set in 1990, a 75,487 per game average.

BIG TEN IN YEAR TWO OF INSTANT REPLAY

The Big Ten Conference will begin year two of its college football instant replay program in 2005. In addition, other leagues will also implement their own instant replay system after the NCAA approved the Big Ten's proposal to allow all NCAA conferences and independent institutions to experiment with the use of video replay for the 2005 season.

The road to a collegiate version of football instant replay was paved in 2003. At that time, the Big Ten began discussions with head coaches, directors of athletics, conference office staff and Coordinator of Football Officiating David Parry to create a system to allow for specific types of officiating mistakes to be immediately reviewed and corrected during all Conference games. The Big Ten conducted a pilot program during the 2003 season, and based on the data collected, was given approval by the NCAA to institute the instant replay system at all games played at League stadiums in 2004. As instant replay enters its second year on the college football landscape, the origin and details of the Big Ten's system appear below:

THE BEGINNING OF INSTANT REPLAY

Ever since the NFL adopted instant replay in 1986 the college football community, including administrators and coaches in the Big Ten, had asked the question: Could an NFL-style replay system help the college game? And each time the question was asked, the answer generally has been: "Yes, but...."

Costs and fairness were two important factors that limited serious discussion about implementation of college football replay. The NFL had spent millions of dollars in hardware, software and labor to institute replay at the professional level, revenue that is simply not available to all institutions playing college football. Outcomes aside, there were many purists who believed that technology should not interfere within the human element of competition: mistakes will continue to be made by coaches, players and officials, and are simply an intrinsic part of the game, they would say.

But in an era with so many games televised - the Big Ten Conference has had 88 percent or more of its intraconference games televised each of the last five seasons - and with mistakes and missed calls put under the microscope and scrutinized and replayed multiple times, there is now more incentive than ever to get the call right. If a television replay shows indisputable evidence that an official's call (or non-call) was in error, then there should be a mechanism in place to immediately correct the error.

THE GOAL OF INSTANT REPLAY

See-----Review-----Change (if warranted).

Only specific plays are reviewable, and only those plays where the absolute standard of indisputable video evidence is met can a play be overturned.

The Big Ten Conference replay system allows for specific types of officiating mistakes to be immediately reviewed and corrected once the standard of indisputable video evidence is met.

The replay system will not guarantee that all officiating mistakes are identified and corrected.

PERSPECTIVE ON INSTANT REPLAY

Following a pilot program study conducted during the 2003 season, the NCAA Football Rules Committee granted the Big Ten permission to experiment with instant replay on a one-year basis for all televised games at Conference stadiums in 2004. During the 2004 campaign, play was stopped in only 28 of 57 contests (49 percent) for a total of 43 stoppages and 21 overturned calls (49 percent of stoppages). These numbers compared favorably to the Big Ten's instant replay pilot program, as the data collected in 2003 showed that play would have been stopped in 31 of 68 games (46 percent) for a total of 45 stoppages and 23 overturned calls (51 percent of stoppages). In addition, the use of instant replay did not significantly affect game times. The length of the 57 games utilizing instant replay in 2004 was only three hours and 16 minutes, compared to three hours and 13 minutes in all 2003 contests. Less than one stoppage occurred per game in 2004, as the Big Ten's average length of review was only two minutes and 39 seconds, compared to the National Football League average of three minutes and 20 seconds for its instant replay system.

REPLAY IS NO PANACEA

Instant replay is not intended to be an instant, infallible answer to correcting officiating mistakes. It is, however, an example of how technology can help officials make sure that mistakes made on the field are corrected in a timely manner.

BIG TEN FOOTBALL INSTANT REPLAY MODEL - THE "ABC's"

THE OBJECTIVE

To allow for specific types of officiating mistakes to be immediately reviewed and corrected during all Conference games. Replay may be available during home non-conference match-ups with prior approval by the visiting team.

THE STANDARD

There must be indisputable video evidence for an officiating call to be changed by a Technical Advisor working from the press box. The replay system will not guarantee that all officiating mistakes are corrected.

THE SOURCE

All reviewable video will come direct from the television network broadcasting the game (ABC Sports, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Plus Television) and no other source. The review process will be limited to what is shown on television.

THE PLAYS

Reviewable

1. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:

- Scoring Plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line
- Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line, end zone, and end line
- Runner/receiver in or out of bounds
- Recovery of loose ball in or out of bounds

2. Passing Plays:

- Pass ruled complete/incomplete/intercepted in the field of play
- Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver
- Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player
- Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble
- Illegal forward pass beyond the line of scrimmage
- Illegal forward pass after change of possession
- Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage

3. Other Detectable Infractions:

- Runner ruled not down by defensive contact
- Forward progress with respect to first down
- Touching of a kick
- Number of players on field

Not Reviewable

Examples:

- Holding
- Off-sides
- Pass interference
- Personal fouls (late hits)
- Illegal blocks
- Illegal formations
- Face mask
- Taunting / excessive celebration
- False starts
- Roughing passer / kicker
- Fighting participants

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Entering its eighth season, the Bowl Championship series was established to determine a champion for college football while maintaining and enhancing the bowl system which has provided significant support to college football for nearly a century. The BCS is a showcase for the sport, matching the premier teams in top bowl games. The Big Ten Conference is a key component in the championship agreement.

The Bowls and the Teams

The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Nokia Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In addition to the Big Ten, the Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big East, Pacific-10 and Southeastern Conferences also have automatic berths for their champions into one of the four contests. Beginning next season, each bowl will host two games once every four years - its traditional game plus a National Championship contest approximately one week after the New Year.

This season the national championship game will be played in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California on January 4, marking the second time the Rose Bowl has hosted the title game.

Eligibility

Any Division I-A independent team, or champion of the Western Athletic Conference, Conference USA, Mountain West Conference or any other Division I-A Conference, which is ranked No. 6 or higher in the BCS standings, also will be eligible for the Bowl Championship Series.

Otherwise, any Division I-A team can qualify for selection in the BCS if it has won at least nine football games during the most recently completed regular season (not to include wins in exempted games) and is ranked in the top 12 of the final Bowl Championship Series standings.

Team Selection

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac 10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac 10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Hardware

The Waterford Crystal football that sits atop the Sears Trophy takes an artisan three months to create. The Sears Trophy is part of the Sears Collegiate Champion Program - a comprehensive trophy and academic scholarship program which recognizes both men's and women's sports equally.

Sears, Roebuck and Co. and the AFCA also present a $20,000 academic scholarship to the school that wins the Sears Trophy. The scholarship is earmarked for an outstanding freshman who does not participate in intercollegiate athletics. In total, more than 2,200 trophies and more than a quarter of a million dollars in academic scholarships are awarded to NCAA Division I, II and III and NAIA institutions annually.

The Iowa Hawkeyes play their home football games in Kinnick Stadium (capacity 70,397), located on the west campus in the heart of the University's athletic complex. It is a few minutes drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and is less than 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The pressbox at the stadium is on the west side and accessible by elevator or stairs. It was completed in 1958 at a cost of $490,000 (the cost to build Kinnick Stadium was $500,000 in 1929). The pressbox is 100 feet high and extends between the 20-yard lines. All five levels of the press facility have been refurbished in the last few years. A new pressbox facility will replace the current structure following the 2005 season.

The first deck accommodates the working press. The second deck contains booths for radio and television. The stadium, third and fourth levels are VIP areas. A pre-game lunch is served on all levels. Refreshments and snacks are available throughout the game.

Ferentz Conferences/Interview Requests

Coach Kirk Ferentz holds a media conference each Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. during the football season. Players are also available, upon request, at 1 p.m. following the media conference.

Player requests must be made on Saturdays, following each game, for the following week. Out of town media should contact the sports information office on Mondays to arrange telephone interviews.

Coach Ferentz is also available each Tuesday during the Big Ten Conference coaches tele-conference, and, he is also available via tele-conference for media outlets covering weekly opponents. Those tele-conferences are held each Tuesday at noon. Contact Iowa Sports Information for the tele-conference phone number and details.

Credentials

Credential requests should be directed in writing or e-mail to Phil Haddy, Sports Information Director, University of Iowa, 157 Carver-Hawkeye Arena, Iowa City, Iowa 52242. Requests should be filed early enough to allow time for processing. The FAX number is 319-335-9417 and Phil's e-mail address is phillip-haddy@uiowa.edu.

Credentials will be mailed when time allows. Credentials are non-transferable.

Parking

Requests for parking should be made when requesting credentials. Media parking is located in the parking ramp at the northeast corner of Kinnick Stadium, at the corner of Hawkins Drive and Stadium Drive.

Media Entrance

Members of the media are encouraged to enter Kinnick Stadium at the northeast corner of the stadium (near the old Iowa lockerroom entrance) and proceed through the north and west concourses to the elevator, located at the midway point of the west stands.

Photo credentials must be requested following the same guidelines as mentioned above. A photographer's room is located at the northwest corner of Kinnick Stadium. Photo credentials must be presented in order to receive an armband for sideline photography.

Television stations are not allowed to video tape from the press box. A video splitter board is available in the photo room for all TV stations to receive the overhead video provided by Iowa's football video department (or the network midfield camera). TV camera personnel on the sidelines must adhere to all sideline policies.

Services

Complete play-by-play, halftime statistics, final team and individual stats, complete defensive stats, drive charts, participation charts and quotes from both head coaches are available following each home game. The Kinnick Stadium press facility closes four hours following each home game.

Telephones

Iowa provides a limited number of telephones in the main press box area for use on a first-come, first-serve basis. Media requiring their own phone lines should call 319-335-2945 and ask for a work order clerk.

High Speed Internet Access

High speed internet access is available in the Kinnick Stadium press box. The cost is $25 for a single game or $150 for the entire 2005 season. The number to call for installation is 319-335-2945.

FAX Machine

A FAX machine is available in the Kinnick Stadium press box, and information will be faxed upon request.

Post-Game Information Via E-Mail

All game statistics, notes and quotes will be e-mailed from Kinnick Stadium following Iowa home games when requested. This information is filed in pdf format and is sent within 30-45 minutes following home games. To receive this information, contact a member of the Iowa sports information staff. This information is also posted on the Iowa website, www.hawkeyesports.com, following each Iowa game throughout the season.

Accommodations

A directory of hotels, motels, restaurants and available air transportation can be found on page 15. The Iowa sports information office does reserve a block of rooms at the Quality Inn & Suites in Iowa City, and those are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Contact Theresa Walenta in the Iowa Sports Information office (319-335-9411) for reservations.

Post-Game Interviews

The Iowa Hawkeyes and their opponents will be moving into new lockerrooms this season. The new facilities are located under the south end zone. All player and coaches interviews will take place in media rooms in the new facility. You may follow a member of the Iowa Sports Information staff from the press box or ask for written directions on getting to the post-game media rooms.

Both head coaches are available (in different areas) following the cooling off period, with player interviews to follow. Coach Ferentz' post game comments are televised on the monitors throughout the Kinnick Stadium press box and quotes from both head coaches are distributed with the final statistical packets.

Members of the media should contact Iowa SID Phil Haddy with player requests prior to leaving the press box. Iowa Sports Information staff will be departing the press box with approximately three minutes remaining in the game.

The Hawkeye Radio Network

Fans of the University of Iowa following the Hawkeyes on radio can tune in on their favorite station throughout the state of Iowa and the Midwest.

The radio voice of the Hawkeyes is Gary Dolphin, a Cascade, IA native who handles all play-by-play action of both Iowa football and men's basketball throughout the season. In addition, Dolphin also serves as the host of the weekly coaches shows during the season with football Coach Kirk Ferentz and men's basketball Coach Steve Alford. Dolphin, in 2001, was named the Iowa Sportscaster of the Year. He is in his 10th year of broadcasting Iowa football and basketball on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Dolphin, overall, is in his 33rd year of play-by-play broadcasting. That includes six years of broadcasting basketball games for Northwestern University.

Dolphin is joined on all University of Iowa football broadcasts by former Hawkeye and NFL great Ed Podolak. A native of Atlantic, IA, Podolak was a three-year letterman for the Hawkeyes (1966-68) as a quarterback and running back before his lengthy professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs.

The Hawkeye Radio Network, a production of Learfield Communications, Inc. of Jefferson City, MO, blankets the state of Iowa and bordering states with more than 50 stations providing live coverage. The Hawkeyes can also be heard on the world wide web (hawkeyesports.com), on XM Satellite radio and over the telephone on "TEAMLINER."

Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series

The University of Iowa claimed the first annual Hy-Vee Cy-Hawk Series 13-8 last season. The Hawkeyes won five of the nine events that pit intercollegiate athletics teams representing the two institutions in head-to-head competition during the 2004-05 academic year. Iowa also earned two points for having earned a graduation rate for its student-athletes (69 percent) higher than the national average (62 percent), according to the graduation rates data compiled and disseminated annually by the NCAA.

The Iowa at Iowa State football game on September 10 in Ames will be the first event of the series for the 2005-06 season.

Your hosts in the Kinnick Stadium pressbox include Sports Information Director Phil Haddy, associate Steve Roe and assistants Traci Wagner, Matthew Weitzel and Tony Wirt. Theresa Walenta is the office secretary. The sports information staff also includes student staff members Jennifer Bissell, Aaron Blau, Andrea Breen, Marcus Dittmer, Matt Jansen, Janey Kiryluik, Tara Meekma, Alison Moeller and Brett Roberts.

Haddy became part of the Hawkeye staff in 1971 and was named director of sports information in July, 1993. A native of Cedar Rapids, he holds two degrees from Iowa and has worked for two radio stations. Phil and his wife, Elaine, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Jamie, two grandsons, Nick (5) and William (2) Haddy and an infant granddaughter, Evelyn Powers.

Weitzel has served as an assistant sports information director since 1998. Matthew graduated from the University of Iowa in 1997 with a Bachelor's of Arts degree in Journalism and Mass Communication, with an emphasis in Business. The native of Mundelein, IL was a student in the sports information office for three years.

Roe joined the Hawkeye staff in 1990 and was named associate director in 1997. The Iowa City native earned his bachelor's degree from Buena Vista College and his master's degree from Northeast Louisiana University. Steve and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Nike, and a son, James, and a granddaughter, Teagan (1).

Wirt is in his seventh year with the Iowa sports information department. After graduating from the University of Iowa in 1999 with degrees in Journalism and Communications Studies, Wirt joined the then-women's staff as an intern. The native of Lake Mills, IA joined the staff in a full-time capacity in the summer of 2000. His wife's name is Erin.

Wagner is in her seventh year as a fulltime assistant after previously serving as a student assistant for four years and as an intern for two years. A native of Iowa Falls, Wagner earned her degree in 1997 with a double major in journalism and communication studies. Traci and her husband, Jason, have one son, Nicholas and are expecting their second child.

A member of the Iowa athletic department staff since 1988, Theresa Walenta has been a member of the sports information staff for 10 years. She is a lifelong resident of Iowa City.

The Sports Information Office is located in Suite 157, Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The office phone number is 319/335-9411 and the sports information FAX number is 335-9417.
