Gary Barta UI Director of Athletics

Gary Barta is in his fourth year as the director of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Iowa and his 23rd year in athletics administration, eager to build on the achievements and progress made in a challenging but rewarding 2008-09.

The Hawkeyes enjoyed a successful 2008-09 year competitively. Iowa finished the 2009 sports season ranked 45th nationally in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup with a school-record 474.30 – an improvement fueled by Iowa's victory over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl, the Hawkeyes' second straight Big Ten Conference and NCAA titles in wrestling, a third straight Big Ten Tournament title and a berth in the national semi-finals by the field hockey team, and NCAA Tournament or national championship participation by Iowa's women's basketball, women's cross country and indoor track, men's golf, gymnastics and softball programs. Iowa's 45th place finish was a seven-position improvement from last year's placing of 50th (398 points) and the third consecutive year of improvement and the Hawkeyes placed 68th in 2006-07 with 284 points. The UI's previous best point total was 467.75 in 2004-05.

Under Barta's leadership, Iowa's long-standing commitment to the academic pursuits of the more than 700 student-athletes who annually represent the Hawkeye intercollegiate athletics competition continues. According to graduation statistics distributed each fall by the NCAA, the class of student-athletes who entered Iowa at the start of the 2001-02 academic year had a graduation rate of 68 percent, a mark that compared very favorably to the 66 percent rate compiled by the overall student population at the University.

The 2008 Iowa football team tied for first in NCAA Graduation Success Rate (75 percent) among the 10 programs that have played in five or more January bowl games since the 2002 season. Iowa's 75 percent graduation success rate ranked third among teams in the 2008 final top 25.

The Hawkeye men's cross country, women's golf, and softball teams were also singled out by the NCAA for ranking in the top 10 percent among their peers in the NCAA's 2008 Academic Progress Rate (APR), a real-time look at a team's academic success each semester or quarter, by tracking the academic progress of each student-athlete. All 24 of Iowa's teams exceed NCAA APR standards and compare favorably to their peers in the Big Ten Conference and nationally.

Construction of new and renovation of existing facilities also remain high priorities for Iowa. The UI is working hard to reach its goal of breaking ground on a $47 million revitalization of its 27-year-old Carver-Hawkeye Arena, a much-needed renovation that will greatly improve the practice, strength training and conditioning facilities for a myriad of Hawkeye sports programs, including, most notably, the men and women's basketball, volleyball and wrestling teams.

The project will also provide locker room updates, team meeting facilities, and much needed office and meeting room space for more than 200 full-time coaches and staff. The enhancement project will also expand and improve the experience for fans.

The University of Iowa will complete construction of the $7 million P. Sue Beckwith Boathouse in fall 2009. This addition to the physical plant will come fast on the heels of a $3 million renovation of the portion of the UI Recreation Building used by Iowa's baseball, track and field, and cross country squads; the replacement of the drainage system for the playing field inside Kinnick Stadium and the installation of FieldTurf; and the reconstruction of Bob Pearl Field, home of Iowa's nationally ranked softball team, and Francis X. Cretzmeyer Track, Iowa's track and field venue, two facilities severely damaged by the 2008 floods that ravaged the Midwest.

In fall 2010, Barta will join leaders across campus in celebrating the opening of the $69 million Campus Wellness and Recreation Center, the new home of Iowa's men's and women's swimming and diving program.

Last winter, the State of Iowa Board of Regents gave approval to hire architects to begin planning the renovation and expansion of administrative space and training facilities used by Iowa's nationally ranked football program. The project is to be funded entirely by private support. This important project is part of the next phase of the master plan for Hawkeye football facilities.

The construction of the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility – a facility envied by many collegiate programs and NFL franchises – and the renovation of Kinnick Stadium were phases 1 and 2 of the master plan, respectively.

Barta has hired four head coaches since becoming Iowa's 11th director of athletics on Aug. 2, 2006 and all four have quickly built solid foundations for their respective programs.

Todd Lickliter's 2008-09 UI men's basketball team battled through one of the nation's toughest schedules to claim 15 victories with a roster dominated by underclassmen. The 2009 season will be the second for volleyball coach Sharon Dingman, who guided the Hawkeyes to win totals of 14 overall and six against Big Ten opponents, marks that were the best for Iowa in eight seasons.

Kelly Crawford and Mark Hankins have raised the bar for both of Iowa's golf programs. Crawford's women's team finished fifth at the 2009 Big Ten Conference Championship – the program's best finish in 14 seasons. Hankins' men's squad finished sixth at the 2009 league championship – just five strokes out of third place. The finish was the Hawkeyes' best in eight years and earned Iowa a spot in NCAA regional competition. The Hawkeyes finished fifth at NCAA Regionals, which garnered the Black and Gold their first NCAA Championships appearance since 1994. At the championships, Iowa placed 17th in the country.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends well beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the cabinet comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provides counsel to President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental during the inspiring response to the record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville communities in June, 2008.

An ability to create and cultivate mutually beneficial relationships has been a consistent theme in Barta's 22 years in athletic administration. As director of athletics at the University of Iowa, he assisted staff of the Big Ten Conference and the Big Ten Network in their negotiations with Mediacom Communications, Inc., the state's largest cable television provider. It resulted in distribution of the BTN to more than one million households across the state. Barta continues to develop relationships with alumni and contributors to the program in an effort to remain competitive. In recent years, the Athletics Department has received several significant financial commitments to assist in capital projects and scholarship support, including gifts of $5 million each from Dale and Marilyn Howard, Bruce Rastetter and Richard O. Jacobson.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds. Among other things, these funds allowed for significant stadium renovations and construction of a new indoor practice facility.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several athletic facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. During his time in Seattle, the Husky Athletics program generated nearly $100 million in private support. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private contributions received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff and coordinating the schedule for the Huskies' men's basketball program.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the NCAA Division II national championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (11) and a daughter, Madison (9). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis, Minn.

Kirk Ferentz Head Football Coach 11th Year at Iowa

Kirk Ferentz is in his 11th year as head football coach at the University of Iowa. His tenure as Iowa's head football coach trails only Hayden Fry, who led the Hawkeyes for 20 seasons (1979-98). Ferentz ranks second in longevity among Big Ten Conference football coaches.

Under the direction of Ferentz and his staff, Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL, its third New Year's Day win under Ferentz. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004. Including a tie for fourth last season, Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons. The Hawkeyes appeared in six straight bowl games between 2001 and 2006, the second longest bowl streak in school history (Iowa appeared in eight straight bowl games from 1981-88).

Ferentz was named Iowa's 25th head football coach on December 2, 1998. He replaced Fry, who retired after 20 seasons with the Hawkeyes. At Iowa, Ferentz has an overall record of 70-53, including a 66-35 mark over the last eight seasons. He has posted a 43-37 record in Big Ten play. His career record is 82-74 in 13 years as a collegiate head coach. Ferentz is one of just seven Big Ten coaches ever to guide a team to 10 wins or more in three straight seasons.

The 2008 Hawkeyes caught fire in the second half of the season by winning six of their final seven games. Iowa finished the season with a 9-4 record (5-3 in the Big Ten), with the losses coming by a total of 12 points.

Iowa won its first three games a year ago before three close losses. A win over previously undefeated and third-ranked Penn State (24-23) was the biggest highlight of the successful stretch run. The Hawkeyes currently have possession of all three traveling trophies (Cy-Hawk, Heartland and Floyd of Rosedale) after closing the regular season with a 55-0 win at Minnesota. The convincing win over South Carolina in the Outback Bowl enabled the Hawkeyes to finish 20th in the final AP and USA Today Coaches polls.

Four Hawkeyes made the 2008 first all-Big Ten team, with two gaining considerable individual honors. Running back Shonn Greene was named winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, emblematic of the league's most valuable player. He was also named the league's offensive Player of the Year by both league coaches and media. Greene was also the MVP of the Outback Bowl and later earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation and was a consensus first team all-American.

Tackle Mitch King led the Iowa defense throughout the season and earned first team all-Big Ten honors for the second straight season. King was tabbed as Defensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten and was named to several all-America squads.

Iowa, last season, won six of seven games in Kinnick Stadium, improving the home record to 38-8 (.826) since the start of the 2002 campaign. That makes include a school-record 22-game winning streak (2002-05). Iowa sold out 36 straight home games over the last six seasons.

Under Ferentz, the Hawkeyes have put together the greatest run in school history. The Hawkeyes won 11 games in 2002 and 10 in both 2003 and 2004. Iowa posted a 38-12 mark from 2002-05, the best in school history. And, Iowa's 25 Big Ten wins were the most ever by a Hawkeye team in a four-year span. No other Big Ten team won more league games over that four-year period.

Iowa's 6-6 record in 2007 included a 4-4 mark in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes won their final three league games of the year and four of the last five overall. Eleven true freshmen saw action in 2007, the most for the Hawkeyes under Ferentz. Overall, Iowa used 31 first year players, a figure that ranked third nationally for playing young players.

Iowa climbed as high as 12th in the 2006 polls while winning five of its first six games. Injuries and inopportune mistakes played a role as the Hawkeyes struggled for consistency during the second half of the season. Still, a 24-21 loss to 15th-ranked Wisconsin and the two-point loss to 16th-ranked Texas in the Alamo Bowl showed Iowa's toughness.

Ferentz, a two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2002 & 2004), led the Hawkeyes to a third place Big Ten finish in 2005. An overtime loss to Michigan and a last-minute, one point loss at Northwestern is all that kept the Hawkeyes from sharing a third Big Ten title in four years. Following the 2005 season Iowa was one of four teams (Southern Cal, Georgia, Florida State) in the nation to play in four consecutive January bowl games. The overtime loss to Michigan ended Iowa's 22-game home winning streak, the fourth longest in the nation at the time.

Ferentz led the 2004 Hawkeyes to their second Big Ten title in three years and earned the league's Coach of the Year honors for the second time. Iowa's 10-2 (7-1 in the Big Ten) record was expected by very few. A victory in the 2005 Capital One Bowl (30-25 over defending national champion LSU) capped off a third straight appearance in a January bowl game.

Iowa put the topping on the 2003 and 2004 seasons by beating favored SEC teams in New Year's Day bowl games. The Hawkeyes ended the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons with an eighth place ranking in the final polls. On a national scale, Iowa's record over that three year span ranked eighth best in the nation.

The 2003 Hawkeyes were the only Big Ten team to beat league champion Michigan (30-27). Five Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two were named first team all-America. Hawkeye offensive lineman Robert Gallery was named winner of the 2003 Outland Trophy, which goes to the nation's top collegiate interior lineman. Iowa put the topping on the 2003 season by beating a favored Florida team (37-17) in the Outback Bowl, in Tampa, FL, on New Year's Day.

The 2002 team was probably the most decorated in Iowa football history.

Ferentz was named 2002 Associated Press and The Walter Camp Football Foundation's Coach of the Year in college football. He was also named Big Ten Coach of the Year in a season that saw his team climb as high as third in the national rankings.

Ferentz led the 2002 Hawkeyes to their first Big Ten title since 1990 and the most wins (11) in school history. Iowa posted impressive road wins at Penn State and Michigan on its way to the school's first undefeated Big Ten campaign since 1922. The win over Michigan was the most convincing by a Wolverine opponent, in Ann Arbor, since 1967. The Hawkeyes also played in the BCS's FedEx Orange Bowl for the first time, having their nine-game winning streak snapped by Southern California.

Winning three of its final four games in 2001, Ferentz led Iowa to the Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, TX, where the Hawkeyes defeated Texas Tech 19-16.

The foundation of Kirk's program at Iowa was established in his first two seasons and began to pay dividends late in the 2000 season when the Hawkeyes won in double overtime at Penn State. Iowa returned home the following week to post a 27-17 win over Big Ten co-champion Northwestern, ranked 12th in the nation at the time. That late-season success carried over into the winning campaign of 2001.

And while Ferentz has guided the Iowa program to great success on the field, the Hawkeyes have also made their mark in the classroom. Among the top 25 teams in the national polls at the conclusion of the 2008 season, Iowa's graduation success of 75% ranked third. Among the 10 college football programs that have played in five January bowl games in the past seven years, Iowa's graduation rate from a year ago ties as the highest percentage.

In 2005, Iowa tied Southern Cal and Virginia Tech with the best football student-athlete graduation rate (58%) among all Division I teams earning a bowl invitation. Among the teams which participated in bowl games following the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons, only Iowa and Southern Cal ranked in the top five in graduation rates in each of the three seasons. Among the 64 schools who participated in bowl games following the 2006 season, Iowa's graduation rate (72%) ranked ninth best.

Along with Ferentz earning conference and national Coach of the Year recognition, members of his staff have also been well recognized. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the 2004 and 2005 Frank Broyles Award, which recognizes the top Division I assistant coach in the nation. Lester Erb, who has coached running backs, wide receivers and special teams at Iowa, was named by Rivals.com as one of the top 25 recruiters in 2005. Ron Aiken, Iowa's defensive line coach through the 2006 season, was the American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002. Aiken is now on the coaching staff of the NFL's Arizona Cardinals, who participated in the most recent Super Bowl.

Under Ferentz and his staff, Hawkeye players have gathered all-Big Ten and national recognition at a record pace. Five Hawkeye players have earned national Player of the Year honors at their position. Those include offensive lineman Robert Gallery (Outland Trophy), place kicker Nate Kaeding (Lou Groza Award), quarterback Brad Banks (Davey O'Brien Award and AP Player of the Year), tight end Dallas Clark (John Mackey Award) and Shonn Greene (Doak Walker Award). Banks was also the runner-up in the 2002 Heisman Trophy voting.

Banks (2002) and Greene (2008) were both named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and conference MVP. Guard Eric Steinbach (2002), Gallery (2003) and King (2008) were all winners of the Big Ten Lineman of the Year award. Gallery, in 2003, became the ninth Hawkeye to earn the Lineman of the Year award.

Another part of Iowa's success under Ferentz is reflected in the annual NFL draft. RB Shonn Greene (New York Jets) and DB Bradley Fletcher (St. Louis Rams) were the first two players selected, respectively, in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft. OL Seth Olsen (Denver) was a fourth round selection and TE Brandon Myers (Oakland) was selected in the sixth round. Four additional Hawkeyes, DL Mitch King, DL Matt Kroul, WR Andy Brodell and OL Rob Bruggeman, signed free agent contracts less than 24 hours after the conclusion of the draft.

In the 2008 NFL Draft, DB Charles Godfrey was a third round selection of the Carolina Panthers, while DE Ken Iwebema was a fourth round selection (Arizona) and LB Mike Humpal was selected in the sixth round (Pittsburgh). Godfrey started all 16 games during his rookie season and Iwebema played in the Super Bowl to conclude his first professional season.

LB Chad Greenway was a first round pick in the 2006 draft, with fellow linebacker Abdul Hodge being selected in the third round. In the 2007 draft, OL Marshal Yanda (third round, Baltimore), TE Scott Chandler (fourth, San Diego) and OL Mike Elgin (seventh, New England) were selected.

Overall, 27 players have been drafted in the past seven years, with seven being selected among the top 50 picks. In addition, five Hawkeye players signed NFL free agent contracts the day after the 2003 and 2007 drafts, nine signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2004 draft, three in 2005 and 2008 and four following the 2006 and 2009 drafts.

Over the past nine seasons, 68 of 78 senior starters under Coach Ferentz have been selected in the NFL draft or signed to an NFL free agent contract.

Robert Gallery was the second selection in the 2004 NFL draft, while Bob Sanders was selected in the second round as the first pick of the Indianapolis Colts. Nate Kaeding, a third round selection of the San Diego Chargers, became the first kicker since 2000 (and just the sixth ever) to be selected on the first day of the draft.

Iowa ranks among Big Ten leaders in number of players (30) drafted over the past eight years. In the 2005 NFL Draft, DE Matt Roth and DT Jonathan Babineaux were second round selections and DB Sean Considine was picked in the fourth round.

Among the former Hawkeyes who have gone on to play in the NFL, Kaeding, Sanders and DL Aaron Kampman (Green Bay) have earned all-Pro recognition. Sanders was named by the Associated Press as the 2007 NFL defensive Player of the Year.

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been a part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) organization for six years.

Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986-87) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) and Freedom (1984) bowls, highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Offensive lines under the direction of Ferentz anchored four of Iowa's highest scoring offenses. Five of Iowa's top offensive teams, in terms of yards gained per game, were operating behind Ferentz coached offensive lines. And, seven of Iowa's top 10 passing teams of all time occurred during the Ferentz years of the 1980's.

Kirk's coaching career began as a student assistant (1977) at his alma mater, Connecticut. The next two years (1978-79) were spent at Worcester Academy, where Kirk also taught English literature. He served as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Pittsburgh during the 1980 season. That Pittsburgh team (coached by Jackie Sherrill) finished with an 11-1 record and a number two national ranking.

He joined Fry's staff in 1981 and the Hawkeyes won their first conference title and Rose Bowl berth in over 20 years. A string of 19 straight non-winning seasons came to an end in 1981. Ferentz continued as Iowa's line coach thru the 1989 season.

Eleven Hawkeyes, coached by Ferentz (the assistant), went on to play in the National Football League. They were John Alt, Rob Baxley, Dave Croston, Scott Davis, Mike Devlin, Chris Gambol, Mike Haight, Ron Hallstrom, Joel Hilgenberg, Bob Kratch and Brett Miller. Alt, Haight and Hallstrom were first round picks in the NFL draft and five of his players were first team all-Big Ten.

He was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years before being hired by Bill Belichick and the Cleveland Browns.

Kirk served as the honorary chair of the University of Iowa's 1999-00 United Way campaign and he serves on the National Advisory Board of the Bethesda Family Services Foundation. Kirk and his wife, Mary, have given two major financial gifts to the University of Iowa. The most recent was a $400,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts and University Children's Hospital. The Ferentz' also made a $100,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts in 2003.

Ferentz was born August 1, 1955, in Royal Oak, MI. He attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh. He graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in English Education. He was a football captain and an academic all-Yankee Conference linebacker at UConn.

Kirk received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Neag School of Education at the University of Connecticut in May, 2009. He was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002 and the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May, 2003.

Kirk and his wife, Mary, have five children. They are Brian (26), Kelly (24), Joanne (22), James (20) and Steven (16). Brian was a senior on the 2005 Iowa football team and James is in his second year with the program. Kelly is in graduate school at Iowa and Joanne is an undergrad student.

Ken O'Keefe

Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks
11th Year at Iowa
Recruits Connecticut, Pennsylvania and Ohio

Ken O'Keefe is in his 11th season as offensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. O'Keefe is in his ninth season as Iowa's quarterbacks coach after coaching Hawkeye wide receivers in 1999.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

Under the direction of O'Keefe, Iowa's offense a year ago featured the Doak Walker Award winner in running back Shonn Greene and sophomore quarterback Ricky Stanzi. Iowa ranked fourth in the Big Ten in both rushing offense and pass efficiency while averaging over 370 yards total offense per game. The Hawkeyes ranked second in scoring offense (30.3) and first downs and third in time of possession.

Along with being honored as the top running back in the nation, Greene was named the Big Ten Conference offensive Player of the Year. Greene, OL Seth Olsen and TE Brandon Myers all earned first team all-Big Ten recognition. Greene (third round), Olsen (fourth) and Myers (sixth) were all selected in the 2009 NFL draft.

From 2004-06, quarterback Drew Tate ranked as one of the nation's top signal callers. He ranks high in the Iowa record book for just about every passing stat. He is second in career passing (8,292), TD passes (61), completions (665), attempts (1,090) and total offense (8,427). Tate signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Rams following his Hawkeye career before playing the past two seasons in the Canadian Football League.

Tate, in 2004, quarterbacked Iowa to a share of the Big Ten title and a win over defending national champion LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Forced to the air due to multiple injuries to Iowa running backs, Tate earned first team all-Big Ten honors while passing for 2,786 yards and 20 touchdowns. His 56-yard scoring strike on the final play of the Capital One Bowl will go down as one of, if not the, top plays in Hawkeye history.

The 2006 Hawkeyes finished second in Big Ten pass offense and third in total offense. Under O'Keefe's direction, the 2005 Hawkeyes ranked first in the Big Ten in redzone offense and third in passing offense (257.8). In 2004, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, passing efficiency and redzone offense, posting a 10-2 record while winning a Big Ten title.

In his first year as a starter, Nathan Chandler in 2003 directed Iowa's balanced offense as the Hawkeyes posted a 10-3 overall record. Chandler passed for over 2,000 yards as Iowa averaged 161.2 passing yards and 172.4 rushing yards per game. Senior RB Fred Russell rushed for over 1,000 yards for the second straight season. Chandler signed a free agent contract with Buffalo.

Ken coached QB Brad Banks to all-America honors in 2002. Banks finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting and was named Associated Press College Football Player of the Year. Banks was also named winner of the Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year Award and won the Chicago Tribune's

Silver Football, emblematic of the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. Banks led the nation in passing efficiency (157.1) and is now playing in the Canadian Football League.

Seven Iowa players were named to the all-Big Ten first offensive unit in 2002. That included players named Offensive Player of the Year (Brad Banks) and Offensive Lineman of the Year (Eric Steinbach). Four offensive players, Banks, Steinbach, TE Dallas Clark and center Bruce Nelson, earned first team all-America recognition.

Several Iowa quarterbacks coached by O'Keefe have had the opportunity to play in the NFL and, over the past eight years, 17 offensive players coached by O'Keefe have been selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2001, QB Kyle McCann led the Hawkeyes to seven wins, including a victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. McCann ranked second in the Big Ten in pass efficiency while completing 66.3% of his passes and throwing for 2,028 yards. McCann competed for Barcelona in the NFL Europe professional league following his career at Iowa.

Under O'Keefe's direction, Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring at 28.7 points per game in 2003 after leading the league in scoring in both 2001 (32.6 ppg) and 2002 (37.2 ppg). Iowa finished third in the league in total offense in 2002 at 424.5 yards a game, a figure which ranked 13th nationally. The Hawkeyes finished first in the Big Ten and second nationally in passing efficiency (156.3) in 2002.

O'Keefe was the head coach at Fordham University in 1998 and was the head coach at Allegheny College for eight seasons (1990-97). His career record of 83-17-1 includes a 79-10-1 mark at Allegheny, where his team won five North Coast Athletic Conference titles and the 1990 NCAA Division III national title. O'Keefe led Allegheny to four undefeated regular seasons (1990, 1991, 1994 and 1996) and six NCAA playoffs.

For his outstanding first year at Allegheny, O'Keefe was named NCAA Division III Coach of the Year in 1990. He was also named conference Coach of the Year four times (1990, 1991, 1993 and 1996) while at Allegheny. All eight of his teams ranked among the nation's top 12 at the end of the season and he coached 38 All-Americans.

Prior to becoming head coach at Allegheny, O'Keefe served as offensive line coach (1986-87) and offensive coordinator (1988-89) there. Ken was an assistant coach at the University of New Haven in 1976 and 1977.

In 1985, he coached Fort Worth (TX) Country Day School, and from 1978-84 he led Worcester (MA) Academy to a 37-11 record and three New England Class A prep championships.

In 1992, O'Keefe led a North Coast Athletic Conference all-star team to Moscow, Russia for a game with the semi-pro Moscow Bears. That experience led to a partnership called Friendship Through Football that resulted in the first youth football games ever between the United States and Russia.

O'Keefe earned his B.A. degree in history from John Carroll University in 1975, where he played football and baseball. He was a three-year starter at wide receiver while at John Carroll.

O'Keefe was born Aug. 18, 1953 in Milford, CT. He and his wife, Joanne, have two children, Meghan and Brendan.

Norm Parker Defensive Coordinator 11th Year at Iowa

Norm Parker is in his 11th year as defensive coordinator at the University of Iowa. He previously coached the Hawkeye inside linebackers and he coached the outside linebackers during his first three years on the Iowa staff. Parker was named a finalist for the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

Parker directs an Iowa defense that has earned a reputation as one of the most physical, hard-hitting units in the Big Ten and the nation. Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

Under Parker's direction, Iowa has ranked among the top 10 in the nation in rushing defense four times.

Parker's defensive unit played a key role in Iowa's success last season as the Hawkeyes won six of their last seven games to post a 9-4 final record. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Iowa was second in the league in rushing defense and total defense, ranking ninth and 12th in the nation in those categories, respectively. DT Mitch King was named Defensive Lineman of the Year and LB Pat Angerer earned second team all-conference honors while ranking among league leaders in interceptions (second) and tackles (sixth).

Defensive back Bradley Fletcher was selected in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft, while King and DT Matt Kroul both signed NFL free agent contracts immediately following the draft.

Iowa closed the 2007 season with three wins in its last four games, posting a 6-6 overall record. Iowa led the Big Ten in turnover margin (+8) and redzone defense (68.4%) while ranking third in scoring defense (18.8) and rushing defense (122.0) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (115.7). Iowa was 12th-nationally in scoring defense.

In 2007, Iowa senior linebackers Mike Humpal (10.2) and Mike Klinkenborg (8.8) ranked fourth and seventh, respectively, in the league in tackles per game. Klinkenborg earned first team academic all-America honors and was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete. Humpal earned second team all-league honors and was the Bronko Nagurski and Master Coaches national Player of the Week following Iowa's 10-6 win over Illinois.

Humpal was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft. In addition, defensive back Charles Godfrey was selected in the third round by Carolina and defensive end Ken Iwebema was selected by Arizona in the fourth round. Godfrey started all 16 games for the Panthers and Iwebema played in the Super Bowl for the Cardinals.

The Hawkeye defenders did much to turn around Iowa's 2005 season. The defense was able to shut down a pair of nationally ranked teams (Wisconsin and Minnesota) in the final two games to clinch a fourth straight January bowl bid. Iowa led the Big Ten in redzone defense and ranked third in rushing defense and scoring defense.

The defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including the win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, in 2004, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 16th in scoring defense (17.6) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (106.7). The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in redzone defense for the second straight year. Iowa finished second in the Big Ten in total defense (325 yards) in 2001, third in 2004 (293.8), fourth in 2003 (314.5) and 2005 (382.7) and fifth (355.3) in 2002. Iowa led the league in scoring defense (16.2) in 2003.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Despite an entirely new defensive line that consisted of two freshman and two sophomores, Iowa's defense gained confidence and maturity as the 2005 season progressed. All-American linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway led the way, ranking first and second, respectively, in the Big Ten in tackles. Hodge (third) and Greenway (fifth) are both among Iowa's career tackle leaders. Greenway was a first round selection by Minnesota in the 2006 NFL Draft, while Hodge was selected in the third round by Green Bay.

Four Iowa defensive players were named first team all-Big Ten in 2004, with DE Matt Roth being the only unanimous selection by league coaches. Three Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two others earned second team honors. Roth, DT Jonathan Babineaux and safety Sean Considine were all selected in the first four rounds of the 2005 NFL Draft. All have seen significant playing time in each of the past four NFL seasons.

In his first two years at Iowa Norm coached LeVar Woods, who played in the NFL for seven seasons. Parker, in his coaching career, has coached 31 players who have gone on to play in the NFL. LB Fred Barr led Iowa in tackles in 2002 and signed an NFL contract with the Tennessee Titans. Kevin Worthy, a 2003 Hawkeye senior linebacker, who also handled deep snaps, signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Rams.

The 1997 Southeastern Conference Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Parker served in that capacity at Vanderbilt University for two seasons and as linebackers coach there for four seasons. In 1997, Vanderbilt's defense led the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation as all six seniors on that defensive unit went on to sign NFL contracts. As linebacker coach in his first two seasons in Nashville, Parker was instrumental in the development of first team All-American Jamie Duncan.

Prior to joining the Iowa staff, Parker coached 12 seasons (1983-94) at Michigan State, five at Minnesota (1972-76) and three at Illinois (1977-79).

At Michigan State, Parker served as defensive coordinator for five years and also coached the outside linebackers. During his tenure at Michigan State, the Spartans won the 1987 Big Ten title and shared the 1990 championship with the Hawkeyes. Parker helped Michigan State to seven bowl games, including the 1988 Rose Bowl, where the Spartans defeated USC, 20-17.

From 1980-82 Parker served as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at East Carolina. He coached outside linebackers and was director of recruiting at Illinois from 1977-79. At Minnesota from 1972-76, Parker helped the Gophers compile winning records in three of five seasons. Parker also coached receivers at Wake Forest from 1969-71.

Parker earned his B.S. degree in special education in 1965 and his M.A. in physical education in 1967 from Eastern Michigan, where he lettered four times in football and was a member of the wrestling squad for two seasons. Parker was the head coach at St. John's High School in Ypsilanti, MI (1965-67) before joining the staff at Eastern Michigan as offensive line coach (1968).

Parker was born Oct. 9 and he is a native of Hazel Park, MI. He and his wife, Linda, have five grown children, Chelly, Joyce, Jim, and Suzy, along with a special Hawk, Jeff, who is deceased. They also have six grandchildren, Tyler, Alyssa, Colton, Roxanne, Bridgette and Jasmine.

Erik Campbell*Wide Receivers & Tight Ends*Second year at Iowa*Recruits Dallas and Houston, Texas and Detroit, Michigan

Erik Campbell is in his second season as wide receiver and tight ends coach at the University of Iowa. He joined the Iowa staff after serving as an assistant coach at Michigan for 13 seasons. Campbell also served as assistant head coach at Michigan the last five seasons.

Campbell stepped in a year ago as the Hawkeyes posted a 9-4 overall record, including a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. That marked Iowa's fifth January bowl appearance, and seventh bowl game overall, since 2001.

Iowa's offense last season ranked second in the Big Ten in scoring offense (30.3) and first downs, third in time of possession and fourth in passing efficiency. Senior tight end Brandon Myers ranked third on the team in receptions and yards (34-441) and tied for the team lead with four scoring catches. Myers was drafted by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL draft.

Senior WR Andy Brodell led the team in receiving yards a year ago and ranked third in the Big Ten in punt returns. Brodell signed an NFL contract with Green Bay immediately following the 2009 NFL draft.

Campbell, at Michigan, was responsible for the wide receiving corps and worked with the team's punt returners for 13 seasons. Campbell added the title of assistant head coach prior to the start of the 2003 season. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Campbell coordinated the successful Women's Football Academy, put on annually by the coaching staff, which helped raise over one million dollars for the University of Michigan Cancer Center.

Campbell coached a 1,000-yard receiver an NCAA record eight straight seasons (1998-2005), with Braylon Edwards becoming the ninth player in Division I-A history and the first player in Big Ten history to achieve three straight 1,000-yard seasons. His streak of 1,000-yard receivers came to an end in 2006, but a record three Wolverines receivers gained over 500 yards for the first time in school history.

Campbell was a key factor in the punt return success of Steve Breaston, the Big Ten's career punt return leader. Breaston returned 127 punts for a conference record 1,599 yards (12.6 avg.) and four scores during his career.

Campbell coached three All-Americans during his tenure -- David Terrell, Marquise Walker and Edwards -- and had four players receive the Bo Schembechler Most Valuable Player team award. Campbell's players have earned All-Big Ten honors 15 times, including eight first-team citations and seven second-team honors.

Campbell joined the Michigan staff in 1995 and coached some of Michigan's top wide receivers. His list of NFL products includes: Amani Toomer, a second-round draft pick of the New York Giants (1996); Mercury Hayes, a fifth-round pick of the New Orleans Saints (1996); 1997 Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson, a first-round pick of the Oakland Raiders (1998); Streets, a fifth-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers (1999); Marcus Knight, a free agent pickup of the Oakland Raiders (2000); Terrell, the eighth pick of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears; Walker, a third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002); free agent signee Ronald Bellamy by the Miami Dolphins (2003); Edwards, the third pick of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns; Jason Avant, a fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles (2006); Steve Breaston, a fifth-round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (2007); Mario Manningham, a third-round pick of the New York Giants (2008); Adrian Arrington, a seventh-round selection of the New Orleans Saints (2008); and Myers, taken in the sixth round by Oakland in 2009. Edwards capped a record-setting career by winning the 2004 Biletnikoff Award as the top wide receiver in college football.

Campbell was a four-year letterman (1984-87) at Michigan and boasts starts on both sides of the ball. The Wolverines compiled a 35-13-1 record and won the 1986 Big Ten title while Campbell was a squad member. He is the only player in Michigan football history to start at all four secondary positions in one year.

Campbell saw the majority of his action at defensive back, starting 30 career games during his freshman, junior and senior seasons. He started the final 25 games of his career and added five starts as a true freshman. He completed his career with 113 tackles and five interceptions.

After collecting 29 tackles in five games as a freshman, Campbell switched to wide receiver for his sophomore campaign. He returned to the defensive secondary for the final two years of his career and saw plenty of action on special teams. He returned 13 punts for an average of 9.2 yards in 1985, and returned four kicks for an 18.5-yard average in 1986.

Campbell served as a student assistant coach at Michigan in 1988 before beginning his full-time coaching career as an assistant coach with the U.S. Naval Academy. Campbell spent two seasons coaching running backs for Navy (1989-90), before accepting a position at Ball State University as the running backs coach (1991-93). Campbell coached one season at Syracuse (1994) before returning to Ann Arbor as the Wolverines' wide receivers coach.

Campbell is a native of Gary, IN, where he was a prep star at Roosevelt High School. He was an all-state selection in football and gained all-American honors in track after leading his team to back-to-back state championships. Campbell is a member of both the Indiana High School Track and Field Hall of Fame and the Indiana High School Football Hall of Fame.

Campbell earned his bachelor of general studies degree from Michigan in 1988.

He was born January 21, 1966. He is single.

Lester Erb
Running Backs and Special Teams
10th year at Iowa
Recruits Illinois and Wisconsin

Lester Erb is in his 10th season at the University of Iowa. Erb is in his second season coaching the Iowa running backs after coaching wide receivers for eight years. He has worked with special teams throughout his career at Iowa. He became a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff in 2000 after spending one year on the Army staff as tight ends coach.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

In his first season working with the Iowa running backs, Erb had the opportunity to coach Shonn Greene, who earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation. Greene earned consensus all-American honors and was the offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He rushed for 1,850 yards to set an Iowa single-season rushing mark and was the only running back in the nation to surpass 100 yards in every game during the season. Greene was the first player selected in the third round (New York Jets) of the 2009 NFL draft.

Over the past seven years, the play of Iowa's special teams has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. The Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in net punting (39.8) a year ago after ranking second in 2007. Iowa allowed opponents just 5.0 yards on 12 total punt returns last season. Sophomore punter Ryan Donahue earned second team all-Big Ten recognition and was a semi-finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award.

Senior Andy Brodell ranked third in the Big Ten in punt returns (10.6) a year ago and signed an NFL free agent contract with Green Bay immediately following the 2009 NFL draft.

In 2004, Iowa ranked 15th in the nation in punt returns. The Hawkeyes recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495), while ranking among Big Ten leaders in both punt and kickoff returns.

Erb coached PK Nate Kaeding to first team all-America honors in both 2002 and 2003. Kaeding was named winner of the 2002 Lou Groza Placekicker of the Year award and was one of three finalists for the award in 2003. Kaeding is Iowa's career scoring leader and holds 14 school records. He was drafted in the third round of the NFL draft by the San Diego Chargers, the first kicker since 2000 to be selected on the first day of the draft. He earned all-Pro recognition in 2006.

Under Erb's direction, Iowa's 2002 kickoff return team led the nation with a 25.1 yard average. Iowa has also ranked third (2005), first (2004) and third (2003) in the Big Ten in kickoff coverage.

In 2007, Iowa's offense lost its top two receivers (WR Andy Brodell and TE Tony Moeaki) for the season in the fourth game of the year. From there, two freshmen ended the season as Iowa's top receivers, including Derrell Johnson-Koulianos, who led the squad with 38 receptions for 482 yards. Brodell, as a sophomore in 2006, led the squad in receiving yards (724) and yards per catch (18.6).

Erb was instrumental in the development of wide receivers Ed Hinkel and Clinton Solomon, two seniors on the 2005 squad. Both ended their careers with over 100 receptions and over 1,500 receiving yards. Solomon ranks seventh in career receiving yards and his average of 15.8 yards per catch ranks second. Hinkel ranks 14th in career yardage and served as a very dependable punt returner throughout his career. Both signed NFL free agent contracts immediately following the 2006 NFL draft.

Wide receivers C.J. Jones and Maurice Brown were both named honorable mention all-Big Ten in 2002. Jones played in the NFL following his Hawkeye career. Brown, as a senior in 2003, had 33 receptions for 507 yards, despite missing all of five games due to injury. Brown signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints following his senior year.

In 2001, Iowa led the Big Ten Conference in punt returns (14.6 yards per return) and ranked fifth in kickoff returns (20.1 yards per return). WR Kahlil Hill was named as the national Special Teams Player of the Year after ranking nationally in both punt and KO returns. Defensively, Iowa's opponents averaged just 7.5 yards on punt returns and 19 yards on kickoff returns.

Iowa's wide receivers also had an excellent season in 2000, with Kevin Kasper setting a single-season record with 82 catches (for 1,010 yards) and Hill catching 58 passes for 619 yards. Hill also ranked among national leaders in both kickoff and punt returns as a junior. Six Iowa receivers, coached by Erb, have signed NFL contracts in the last six years.

Erb has two years experience (1997 & 1998) in the National Football League, having worked directly with Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz on the Baltimore Ravens staff. He was Baltimore's offensive quality control coach while working with the offensive line. He was largely responsible for scouting opponent defenses and assisted with special teams.

Erb gained experience on the Syracuse and Hobart College football staffs. Erb served three years at Syracuse, where his primary responsibilities included helping with the offensive line and scout team preparation. Erb also coached receivers at Hobart College for three years.

Erb was a standout receiver at Bucknell University, where he set records for touchdown receptions in a season and career. He set a school record for average yards per catch in a single game when he averaged 33.7 yards on six catches vs. Fordham. His 902 receiving yards in 1989 ranks second best all-time at Bucknell. He ranks fifth in career all-purpose yards (3,286) and was Bucknell's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1990.

He earned his B.A. in business administration from Bucknell and his M.A. in high educational administration from Syracuse.

Erb was born April 22, 1969. He and his wife, Eileen, have a son, Jacob, and two daughters, Emily and Sarah.

Iowa's defensive line led a solid Iowa defense in 2008 as the Hawkeyes earned their fifth January bowl bid in the last eight seasons. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001. The Hawkeyes have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons. Both King (Tennessee) and Kroul (NY Jets) signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2009 NFL draft.

Iowa also led the league in turnover margin and redzone defense and ranked fourth in rushing defense. King was named first team all-Big Ten and senior DE Bryan Mattison earned second team recognition.

Reese Morgan Offensive Line 10th Year at Iowa Recruits Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota

Reese Morgan, one of the most successful high school coaches in Iowa prep history, is in his 10th year with the Hawkeyes. Morgan is in his seventh season as Iowa's offensive line coach after spending the first three years on the staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

Among the reasons for Iowa's recent success has been the play of Iowa's offensive line, working under the direction of Morgan. Iowa, last season, ranked third in the Big Ten and 26th nationally in rushing yards per game (188.7) as the offensive front stayed relatively healthy and molded into one of the best fronts in the nation. Iowa featured running back Shonn Greene, who earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation. Greene was the only running back in the nation to rush for over 100 yards in every game during the 2008 season.

Senior Seth Olsen led the way for the Hawkeyes last season, earning first team all-Big Ten honors, as well as first, second and third team all-American recognition. Center Rob Bruggeman and tackles Kyle Calloway and Brian Bulaga all earned second team all-conference recognition. TE Brandon Myers joined Olsen as a first team all-Big Ten honoree.

Olsen was selected in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL draft by Denver, while Myers was selected by Oakland in the sixth round. Bruggeman signed a free agent contract with Tampa Bay immediately following the draft.

The 2006 Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in total offense (just a yard behind second place Ohio State) and second in pass offense. In 2005, Iowa boasted the Big Ten's leading rusher and the league's best redzone offense.

In the 2007 NFL draft, Marshal Yanda (Baltimore) was selected in the third round and Mike Elgin (New England) was a seventh round selection. In addition, Mike Jones signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers. Jones was a first team all-Big Ten selection, while Yanda earned second team honors. Elgin was a first team academic all-American in each of his final two seasons. Yanda started 12 games for the Ravens in his rookie season before missing most of the 2008 season due to a knee injury.

In 2005, the Hawkeyes averaged 30 points a game behind quarterback Drew Tate and Big Ten rushing leader Albert Young. Senior center Brian Ferentz started the final 20 games of his career in 2004 and 2005 and signed a free agent contract with Atlanta immediately following the 2006 NFL draft.

Due to a number of injuries to Iowa running backs in 2004, Iowa developed one of the most dangerous passing attacks in the nation. The Hawkeyes scored 23 points or more in the final five games of the season, including 30 points in wins over Wisconsin and LSU. For the year, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, pass efficiency and red zone offense.

Right tackle Pete McMahon was the lone senior in 2004 in the offensive line. Facing two of the more-highly regarded defensive ends in the nation in Iowa's final two games, McMahon led by example by controlling his opponents, who were both first round selections in the NFL draft. McMahon's talent was recognized, as he was taken in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Anchored by consensus all-American and Outland Trophy winner Robert Gallery at left tackle, Iowa's offensive line had four new starters to start the 2003 season. By the end of the year, in which the Hawkeyes won 10 games and featured RB Fred Russell with over 1,300 rushing yards, the offensive line had meshed together as one of Iowa's strong points. The Hawkeyes ended the season by scoring 27 points or more in three straight wins over ranked opponents, rushing for over 200 yards in a season-ending win at Wisconsin and in the Outback Bowl win over Florida.

Gallery was a consensus first team all-American at the end of the year. He was the second player selected in the NFL Draft, being taken by the Oakland Raiders. In becoming Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner, he became the second Outland Trophy winner coached by Morgan. As the head coach at Benton Community HS, Morgan coached Chad Hennings, the 1987 winner, who was a defensive tackle at the Air Force Academy. Hennings is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

As tight ends coach in 2002, Morgan coached tight end Dallas Clark to consensus all-America honors. Clark was also named winner of the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to college football's top tight end. Clark was named to at least seven first team all-America teams and in the NFL has earned a Super Bowl championship with the Indianapolis Colts.

Morgan became part of the Iowa staff after eight years at West HS in Iowa City. West won state Class 4A (largest class in the state) titles in 1995, 1998 and 1999. Morgan left the program with a 26-game winning streak.

Between 1994 and 1999 his West High School teams were 62-7. His overall record at West was 67-20. He has totaled 146 career prep victories. Morgan is a member of the Iowa High School Coach's Hall of Fame. He also served as Assistant Principal and Dean of Students at Iowa City West High School.

Reese also served as a teacher (1973-92), assistant football coach (1973-77) and head football coach (1978-91) at Benton Community High School. He led Benton Community into the state playoffs on three occasions.

Morgan attended St. Mary's High School in Lorain, OH. He lettered three times in football and one year in track and field. Reese was a four-year letterman (linebacker) at Wartburg College and was team captain as a senior in 1971.

Morgan earned his BA degree in education from Wartburg and earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Northern Iowa.

Morgan was born June 22, 1950. Reese and his wife, Jo, have two daughters, Jessica and Caitlin, along with a granddaughter, Morgan, and a grandson, Cade.

He was voted second team all-Big Ten and was a sixth round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the NFL Draft. Bowen played several seasons in the NFL (Washington and Buffalo) following his college career.

Darrell Wilson

Linebackers and Special Teams

Eighth year at Iowa

Recruits New York City, New Jersey, Delaware, Eastern Pennsylvania (including the greater Philadelphia area) and Dallas/Fort Worth, Texas

Darrell Wilson is in his eighth year on the Iowa staff. He coaches all the linebacker positions and special teams after working with special teams and outside linebackers in his first six seasons.

Featuring a well-balanced offense, a solid, hard-hitting defense and special teams that rank among the best in the nation, Iowa has been bowl eligible in each of the last eight seasons. The Hawkeyes have played in seven bowl games since 2001, including five appearances in January bowl games. Iowa concluded the 2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

The play of Iowa's linebackers a year ago played a key role in Iowa's success. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Iowa was second in the league in rushing defense and total defense, ranking ninth and 12th in the nation in those categories, respectively.

Junior Pat Angerer led Iowa in tackles and earned second team all-Big Ten honors. Jeremiha Hunter was second on the team in tackles and outside linebacker A.J. Edds ranked sixth. Edds earned honorable mention all-conference recognition. Angerer tied for the team lead with five interceptions as Iowa ranked fourth in the nation while equaling a school record with 23 thefts.

The play of Iowa's special teams has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. The Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in net punting (39.8) a year ago after ranking second in 2007. Iowa allowed opponents just 5.0 yards on 12 total punt returns last season. Sophomore punter Ryan Donahue earned second team all-Big Ten recognition and was a semi-finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award. Senior WR Andy Brodell ranked third in the Big Ten in punt returns and signed a free agent contract with Green Bay following the 2009 NFL draft.

In 2004, Iowa ranked 15th in the nation in punt returns. The Hawkeyes recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495), while ranking among Big Ten leaders in both punt and kickoff returns.

The Hawkeye defense led the Big Ten in turnover margin and redzone defense in 2007, while ranking third in scoring defense and fourth in rushing defense.

The Hawkeye defenders did much to turn around Iowa's season in 2005. The defense was able to shut down a pair of nationally ranked teams (Wisconsin and Minnesota) in the final two games to clinch a fourth straight January bowl bid. Iowa led the Big Ten in redzone defense and ranked third in rushing defense and scoring defense.

The defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including a win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, that season, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 16th in scoring defense (17.6) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (106.7). The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in redzone defense for the second straight year.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Outside linebacker Ed Miles was a two-year starter in 2005 and 2006. Miles signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He played in all 16 games as a rookie with the Dolphins and led the team in special teams tackles.

Darrell coached Grant Steen at outside linebacker in 2002 and 2003 as Steen earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 and honorable mention recognition as a senior. Steen intercepted three passes in a win at Indiana in 2002, a feat that tied an NCAA record for interceptions in a game by a linebacker. The former walk-on signed a free agent contract with the Super Bowl champion New England Patriots following his senior season.

Wilson joined the Iowa staff after serving as outside linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at Wisconsin for two years (2000-01). One of his star players at Wisconsin was punter Kevin Stemke, winner of the 2000 Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award.

He also coached running backs at Rutgers (1999) and the defensive secondary and wide receivers at Rhode Island (1996-98).

Before his collegiate coaching career began, he compiled a 65-18 record as head coach at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, NJ (1988-95). His Wilson HS teams won five conference championships and four times advanced to the South Jersey Group III state finals. Along with the outstanding success of his teams on the football field, Wilson was named Camden's "Citizen of the Year" by the Rotary Club in 1992.

A former honorable mention Division I-AA all-America defensive back for Connecticut (1976-80), Wilson was named to the Huskies' 100th anniversary all-time team in 1998. He played one year with the New England Patriots (1981) and five seasons (1982-86) with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. He was a member of the 1983 squad that won the CFL's Grey Cup.

Wilson graduated from Connecticut (1981) with a B.A. in sociology.

Darrell was born July 28, 1958. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters, Brianna, Kayla, Kiana and Jehlani.

2008 season with a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl in Tampa, FL. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and have finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the past eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes have won 59 games over the past seven years, competing in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeating Florida 37-17 in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU 30-25 in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Iowa competed in the 2006 Outback Bowl and the 2006 Alamo Bowl prior to last season's Outback Bowl victory. Iowa has won 36 Big Ten games in the past seven seasons.

Doyle is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). That group named him the Big Ten Strength Coach of the Year in 1999. He was one of 20 nominees for the Professional of the Year Award, an award given annually and selected by the NSCA membership. The award recognizes college professionals who have shown excellence in strength training and conditioning programs.

Midway through the 2008 season, the Iowa football team was at a crossroads. With three losses by a combined total of eight points, the Hawkeyes were very close to a perfect record and the fast track to a successful season. But, those close losses also meant Iowa had to keep improving and be able to finish strong over the second half of the season to be bowl eligible for an eighth straight season.

The Hawkeyes chose the second option, winning five of their final six regular season games, including a last second 24-23 victory in Kinnick Stadium over third-ranked and previously undefeated Penn State. Iowa followed that victory with a home win over Purdue and a road win over Minnesota, claiming its eighth win in spectacular fashion with a 55-0 victory in Minneapolis. A bid to the 2009 Outback Bowl followed and the Hawkeyes added an exclamation point to the season with a 31-10 New Year's Day win over South Carolina to post a final 9-4 record.

With the bid to the Outback Bowl, Iowa became one of just 10 Division I programs to appear in five January bowl games since 2002. The Hawkeyes won three of those games. Led by a great group of 15 seniors, Iowa ended the campaign ranked 20th in both major polls; the four losses came by a total of 12 points. The Iowa trophy case is fully stocked again as the Cy-Hawk (Iowa State), Heartland (Wisconsin) and Floyd of Rosedale (Minnesota) trophies are all back in Iowa City. Add the 2009 Outback Bowl trophy and it's easy to see how Iowa's football hardware is piling up.

After earning their way into the top 20 to end the 2008 season, the Hawkeyes will be picked by most prognosticators to start the 2009 season in nearly that same position. The Iowa roster includes 49 lettermen, but just 15 seniors and five players who have earned three letters. While the Hawkeyes return eight starters on defense, six on offense and three kickers, just seven projected starters are seniors, including two on defense and five on offense, and none of the three kickers. In short, Iowa's veteran team in 2009 will still be a young team.

The Hawkeyes return eight defensive starters from one of the top defensive teams in the nation a year ago. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring defense (13.0) and finished second in total defense (291.3), rushing defense (94.0) and redzone defense. The Hawkeye were third in league turnover margin, which is normally a big stat in regards to team success. The three senior starters in 2008, tackles Mitch King and Matt Kroul and cornerback Bradley Fletcher, will be hard to replace.

"People didn't catch on to how young we were last year," says Ferentz. "We're still fairly young overall. Our defense wasn't flashy, but we gave up only about 13 points a game. You give yourself a chance to win a lot of games doing that. Our 2008 defense was a great story, as we didn't have much experience returning. The guys really fit together and played well together. We got a huge boost from Matt Kroul and Mitch King, being a pair of veterans up front. I think the potential for our defense this year is exciting; it will be interesting to see how it all fits together."

The Hawkeye offense is a little less experienced, but the Hawkeyes have a number of veterans in the offensive line and quarterback Ricky Stanzi, who started the final nine games last season and 11 of 13 overall. Tackles Bryan Bulaga and Kyle Calloway anchor a solid line, while a pair of seniors, TE Tony Moeaki and WR Trey Stross, could prove to be Stanzi's top receiving targets. Ferentz doesn't expect to replace consensus first team all-American Shonn Greene with one player, saying the Hawkeyes have several players who could share the load of the rushing attack. Wide receiver Andy Brodell and tight end Brandon Myers, who ranked second and third in receptions and yards, respectively, last season, also need to be replaced, along with top offensive linemen in center Rob Bruggeman and guard Seth Olsen.

"We were excited about the way Ricky came on last year and we feel very good about his future over the next two years," added Ferentz. "Ricky impressed me with the way he handled any miscues. He was able to shake off tough situations and come back and compete with the next opportunity. Playing experience isn't something you can just hand to a player. He's been behind center when we've won some big games. We've seen him emerge as a leader and he's more of a confident player in all regards."

Iowa's list of players expected to gain pre- or post-season honors include linebackers Pat Angerer and A.J. Edds, defensive ends Christian Ballard and Adrian Clayborn, defensive backs Amari Spivey and Brett Greenwood, tight end Tony Moeaki, quarterback Ricky Stanzi and offensive linemen Bryan Bulaga, Kyle Calloway and Julian Vandervelde. Junior punter Ryan Donahue is an all-America candidate as well, and others could certainly make the list as the season progresses. Angerer, Bulaga, Calloway, Donahue and Spivey earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2008. DB Brett Greenwood and LB A.J. Edds earned honorable mention recognition.

Iowa will likely be picked among the top teams in the Big Ten and the nation heading into the season after not being on the pre-season radar the past two seasons. Ferentz and his 11th Hawkeye team know pre-season rankings won't matter when the season starts on the first Saturday of September.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Basically, the predictions are a byproduct of two things. How did you finish, and what is the level of experience you have returning. It just so happens that we won nine games last year, we finished in pretty strong fashion, and we certainly have more experience returning than we have had in recent years. So it's natural to think we'll be mentioned in the pre-season. Last year we weren't mentioned by anybody and we went on and had a successful year. We've also had years where we have been mentioned and didn't do so well. We've seen it both ways. My feeling is that it has no bearing on how the season is going to go. It just gets down to what we choose to do with our opportunities."

"We had a number of players who could not participate in the spring due to out of season medical reasons, so it's really tough to gauge the entire team collectively. The attitude was good, the work ethic was good. We saw some players emerge on an individual basis. The most important thing is what we do over the summer heading into August camp. If you look at some of our successful teams, the play of the seniors has been a key component. The entire senior class did a great job of giving the team direction a year ago. We're going to need to see that again. That is something that is built over the course of an entire season."

QUARTERBACK

Junior signal caller and all-Big Ten candidate Ricky Stanzi (6-4, 218) started Iowa's final nine games (11-of-13 for the season) last year and has a hold on the starting position. The Hawkeyes were 8-3 in games Stanzi started, including the Outback Bowl win. Stanzi was fourth in the league's pass efficiency rating with a mark of 134.8. He passed for 1,956 yards and 14 touchdowns. He completed 150-of-254 passes and threw only nine interceptions. The yardage total ranks 19th best in Iowa history. He passed for a season-high 255 yards and three touchdowns in the regular season finale at Minnesota. He threw a pass for at least a 20-yard gain 27 times in 2008 and completed a personal-best 21 passes (30 attempts) against Northwestern.

Two talented redshirt freshmen are behind Stanzi as Iowa had just three quarterbacks in spring camp. Left-handed John Wienke (6-5, 220) and James Vandenberg (6-3, 205) were impressive during a season they primarily worked with the scout team. Both have good arms and the size to succeed in the Big Ten.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We're really excited about the way Ricky came on last year. He made some young player mistakes. But the important thing, that impressed me, was the way he handled any miscues. He showed resiliency. He was able to shake off the tough situations and come back and compete. That's a great starting point. He will be a more confident player this year. The significant playing time gave him a good base to build from and he continued that this spring."

Quality starting experience is one of the things you can't just hand to players and Ricky has both positive and negative experience under his belt. He has been behind center when we've won some big games. We've seen him emerge as a leader, not just in the spring, but the start of the winter program as well. He's a more confident player now, in all regards."

We probably had as few quarterbacks as anybody during the spring with just three. We feel good about Ricky and his future over the next two seasons. James Vandenberg and John Wienke have both done a good job, both last fall, and in the spring. It's a healthy competition; both players have a good attitude and a good up side. The first order of business is deciding who is No. 2 and No. 3. The month of August will be important to continue bringing those guys along."

RUNNING BACK

Iowa enters the 2009 spring campaign much like it did last year at this position. Shonn Greene returned to Iowa after sitting out a year because of eligibility problems. All he did was rewrite the Iowa records book for running backs and win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back.

Greene became Iowa's all-time rushing leader for a season with 1,850 yards. He set a season record for rushing touchdowns (20) and tied records for points in a season (120), points in a game (24) and touchdowns in a game (4). He was the only player in the country to rush for over 100 yards in 13 games. He became Iowa's first consensus all-America running back since Nile Kinnick (1939). But, he'll be doing his running on Sunday next year and the Hawkeyes need to find a replacement.

Sophomore Jewel Hampton (5-9, 210) played as a true freshman in 2008. He rushed for 463 yards and scored seven touchdowns. The seven TD's is the most ever by an Iowa true freshman. Three of his scores came in Iowa's win against his home state school, Indiana. He played in every game and averaged 5.1 yards per rush. He was also the Hawkeyes' leading kickoff returner with 23 returns for 537 yards (23.3 avg.).

Behind Hampton is another player with considerable experience in junior Paki O'Meara (5-11, 211). O'Meara played in 10 games and rushed for 62 yards and two touchdowns. He also caught three passes out of the backfield. Joining O'Meara in the fight for playing time will be redshirt freshman Jeff Brinson (5-11, 215). Brinson has good running back skills and coaches are anxious to see what he'll do. Junior Jayme Murphy (5-11, 210) has lettered twice and played in 10 games last year.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Shonn had a tremendously productive year; he just did a great job. To think any one player is going to pick up where Shonn left off isn't realistic. That being said, we feel good about our group of backs. Jewel got his feet wet last year. That worked out perfectly, he didn't have to play with pressure early in the season. As the season went on he was able to get comfortable. We feel confident he can play good, winning football. Paki O'Meara has done a good job and continues to improve. We feel good about him. We think Jeff Brinson has the potential to be a good player too. I anticipate all three will be involved in the equation, we feel confident with all three guys."

FULLBACK

Veterans Brett Morse (6-3, 238) and Wade Leppert (6-0, 245) return after both played well a year ago. Morse, a junior, and Leppert, a sophomore, combined to start every game last year. Morse started Iowa's final six regular season games before sustaining an ankle injury. Leppert was the starter in Iowa's Outback Bowl win over South Carolina. Both players caught five passes and did a good job running after the catch. Added depth at this position could come from the 2009 recruiting class.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Brett Morse returns and has played a lot of good football for us. Wade Leppert did a nice job as a first year player a year ago. As a group, I think overall we are in pretty good shape at running back and fullback. A big thing will be to determine how much of the load any given back can carry."

Brandon Wegher is a running back with good receiving skills; he has some flexibility in what he can do. We're excited about Brandon and Brad Rogers too. He is a big back. We haven't had that big running back until Shonn last year. He was the first truly big back we've had."

TIGHT END

Gone is Brandon Myers, a first team all-Big Ten selection who was picked in the NFL draft. But this could still be one of the strongest and most talented positions for Iowa. Senior Tony Moeaki (6-4, 250) is an all-Big Ten candidate and is listed as the starter. He's had trouble staying on the field the last two years because of injury problems. He was off to his best season in 2007, with 14 receptions for 170 yards and three scores before a season-ending injury in the fourth game of the year. Moeaki caught 13 passes for 144 yards and a touchdown last year, while also missing time due to injuries. His career totals include 46 receptions for 566 yards and seven touchdowns.

Junior Allen Reisner (6-3, 235) is another tight end candidate with considerable experience. He played in all 13 games last year and had 11 receptions for 200 yards and a touchdown. He has 13 career catches for 231 yards. Sophomore Brad Herman (6-5, 242) played as a true freshman a year ago.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We feel Tony Moeaki, like Andy Brodell a year ago, can come back and play at a high level in his final year. I'm hoping that is what happens for Tony. He had some real challenges the last couple of years with the injuries. If anybody deserves a year to stay healthy and enjoy the season, that would be Tony. We have no reason to believe that won't happen."

Allen Reisner was called into duty as a true freshman in 2007, which was tough, but he did a good job. He certainly played with more confidence last year. We think he has a chance to have a nice couple of years. Brad Herman played sparingly as a true freshman. He had a good spring. We're hoping last year will be a good investment for him too, as far as confidence and really having a sense of what he is doing out there."

WIDE RECEIVER

The dependable services of Andy Brodell will be hard to replace. Brodell caught 36 passes for 533 yards and four touchdowns a year ago. He also returned 36 punts for 383 yards and a score. He had career numbers of 94 catches for 1,369 yards and nine touchdowns. The career receptions and yardage rank 19th and 21st, respectively, in school history. His speed and experience will be missed.

Veteran senior Trey Stross (6-4, 200) enters spring drills a starter at wide receiver. He caught 13 passes for 109 yards and a touchdown in 2008. He has 42 career receptions for 570 yards and five scores.

Junior Derrell Johnson-Koulianos (6-1, 200) returns as well. He was the team's leading receiver last season when he hauled in 44 passes for 639 yards and three touchdowns while starting 10 games. Johnson-Koulianos has caught 82 passes for 940 yards during his career. Junior Colin Sandeman (6-1, 200) had six receptions for 76 yards and two scores last year. He also served as Iowa's No. 2 punt returner. Sandeman's career numbers show 10 catches for 131 yards and 17 punt returns for 122 yards.

Also in the mix are junior Paul Chaney, Jr. (5-9, 167) and former quarterback Marvin McNutt (6-4, 215). McNutt, a sophomore and good all-around athlete, started the transition from quarterback to receiver last fall and made big strides during spring practice. He saw action in three games last year, catching one pass. Chaney caught two passes in five games last season before having a solid spring in both football and track. Junior Don Nordmann (6-6, 211) also played well during the spring and is on the radar screen heading into August.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"This position is somewhat similar to the offensive line right now. We're not sure how it will shake out, but we feel good about the guys we have out there. I do think we have good competition, we're excited about that. Trey Stross really had a good spring, which is critical. We feel good about what he can accomplish, if he can stay healthy."

Paul Chaney, Jr. had a real good year in track, both indoor and outdoor. We were excited to see that, for him, and he had a good spring with football as well. Hopefully this is the year he can contribute, and help us out.

Marvin McNutt really did a good job in the spring. He made the transition from quarterback in the fall, but that is tough to do during the season. There isn't a lot of time to work individually. He displayed a lot more comfort at wide receiver in the spring and is certainly on the rise right now. Derrell Johnson-Koulianos has played a lot and done a lot of good things. He certainly has the potential to be a good player; we're hopeful that will materialize.

Colin Sandeman can play both receiver positions and is another guy with two years of experience. We're hoping all those guys can step up and play with confidence and consistency.

Don Nordmann also did some good things in the spring, he's a guy we've been watching. He may be ready to turn the corner a little bit; he really took advantage of his size and did some good things in the spring. He's certainly among our top six. I'm not sure the order of these guys; that will be determined in camp.

I do think the wide receiver and running back positions are first-year player friendly; newcomers have an opportunity to come in and get their feet wet and have some success. We'll keep an open mind at both the receiver and running back positions, in terms of seeing if any of the newcomers can make a contribution."

OFFENSIVE LINE

Iowa's offensive line made solid strides during the 2008 season. It provided protection for a new and inexperienced Iowa quarterback and it provided enough running room for Iowa runners to gain 2,453 yards: a significant improvement from 2007. The improvement was good enough to help running back Shonn Greene become a consensus all-American and win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. The Hawkeyes rushed for 30 touchdowns in 2008 after just 11 rushing scores in 2007.

Four members of the 2008 offensive line played well enough to land a spot on one of the first two all-Big Ten teams. Departed guard Seth Olsen was a first team selection. Center Rob Bruggeman and tackles Bryan Bulaga and Kyle Calloway were named to the second all-league teams. Bruggeman is gone, but Bulaga and Calloway return as on-the-field leaders of an offensive line that could become very good in 2009.

Bulaga (6-6, 312), a junior, and senior Kyle Calloway (6-7, 315) are solid all-Big Ten candidates at tackle and will lead a group of tested veterans. Calloway has started 25 consecutive games and Bulaga has a streak of 18 straight. They'll form the hub of Iowa's line. Both have played guard and tackle, but seem firmly entrenched at tackle for this year. Redshirt freshman Riley Reiff (6-6, 280) and sophomore Markus Zusevics (6-5, 278) hope to learn and gain experience behind the veteran tackles.

There's also a lot of experience at guard. Junior Julian Vandervelde (6-3, 300) is listed number one at right guard, ahead of senior Dan Doering (6-6, 300). Senior Dace Richardson (6-6, 305) is listed on the top line at left guard. He returns after missing most of the last two seasons due to knee problems. Senior Andy Kuempel (6-7, 300) and junior Kyle Haganman (6-5, 285) are listed behind Richardson. Vandervelde started the final nine games of 2008. Kuempel started two games last season before being injured and a healthy Richardson was a key contributor in his first two seasons. Sophomore Adam Gettis (6-4, 280) played well in the spring to jump into the mix.

Senior Rafael Eubanks (6-3, 280) is likely to return to the center spot he occupied as a sophomore before moving to guard last season. A three-year letterman, Eubanks has considerable starting experience at center and guard. He has started 25 games and was honorable mention all-Big Ten at the center spot in 2007. Junior Josh Koeppel (6-2, 267) saw action at center during the spring as well as the Hawkeyes try to fill the hole created by the loss of all-Big Ten center Rob Bruggeman.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We lose Seth Olsen, who was nearly a four year starter, and Rob Bruggeman, who started just one year but played like a three year starter. Those two guys were really playing at a high level, so that's a major loss. And, we got great leadership from those two as well."

We have three guys returning, which is a positive. Julian, Kyle and Bryan were all playing well at the end of last year, so that gives us a good nucleus. We have a lot of guys who have played and are in contention. Andy Kuempel, Rafael Eubanks and Dan Doering have all played a lot of football. Among the newcomers, Riley Reiff had a good December and good spring. I would say the same about Josh Koeppel. Adam Gettis had as good a spring as anyone and Markus Zusevics made progress.

The best story of the spring might have been Dace Richardson coming back off injury. He appears to be on the road to recovery. I'm not sure how it will shake out, but I feel pretty good about it overall. We have good healthy competition going on; we'll see what happens in August. We may be as deep as we have been in some time, which we need to be, with five seniors in the group. We need the younger guys to keep coming along."

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Hawkeyes have the unenviable task of replacing what most consider the best tackle tandem to ever play for the Hawkeyes at one time. Gone are dependable standouts Mitch King and Matt Kroul. King, an all-American, was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and made both first all-Big Ten teams. Kroul, a second team all-Big Ten choice, set an Iowa record by starting a school record 50 consecutive games. King started 45 games, including 30 straight to end his Hawkeye career.

The career numbers for King and Kroul are staggering. King had 228 career tackles and 55 tackles for loss (second most among active FBS players last year). Kroul had 238 career stops with 20 tackles for loss. The loss of their talent and, more importantly, leadership will be very, very hard to replace.

Iowa coaches feel they have solid candidates waiting for the chance to be the next King or Kroul. Junior Karl Klug (6-4, 258) and sophomore Mike Daniels (6-1, 267) are listed as the top two tackles on the depth chart. Klug played in 12 games and had 17 tackles last year after missing most of the 2007 season due to injury. He was also credited with five tackles for loss and two quarterback sacks. He was named Big Ten Player of the Week following his nine tackle performance against Florida International. Daniels played in eight games last season and registered six tackles, one for a loss.

Also competing for jobs are junior Cody Hundertmark (6-4, 280), redshirt freshman Steve Bigach (6-3, 270) and senior Travis Meade (6-0, 285). Hundertmark played as a true freshman in 2007, but sat out last season with a shoulder injury. He's expected back 100% this season. Meade moved from offense to defense during the spring and made an impression. He originally joined the program as a defender.

A couple of junior all-Big Ten candidates are listed number one at defensive end. Adrian Clayborn (6-3, 282) and Christian Ballard (6-5, 285) were fulltime starters a year ago. Ballard started all 13 games last year while Clayborn was the starter in 11. Clayborn had 50 tackles, including eight for loss (-47 yards). He also had two sacks and forced one fumble. Ballard had 40 tackles that included 3.5 tackles for loss, a forced fumble and five quarterback hurries.

Sophomore Broderick Binns (6-2, 265) came on strong during the second half of last season and played in every game. He continued to improve, and impress, during the spring. Binns had 22 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and a pair of quarterback sacks. Sophomore Lebron Daniel (6-2, 250) also made strides towards a contributing role during spring practice.

Senior Chad Geary (6-3, 262) experienced an injury in the spring and is working hard to return this fall. Geary is a three-year letterman that started two games last year and one in 2007.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We were encouraged with the way all the guys on the field competed. Cody Hundertmark was held out of spring practice, but he has played and we think he has a good future. Karl Klug and Mike Daniels did a good job. We expected that from Karl, and Mike has made strides. He really did a good job during the spring. Steve Bigach had a good spring; he's a young player with a good future. Travis Meade is a good story. He volunteered to move over from offense and we really think he has a chance to contribute this year. With Cody back out there we have five guys competing and we think all five will be able to carve out a role and be productive."

Adrian Clayborn and Christian Ballard returning at the end positions provide good experience. We have seen both of these guys play very well in the Big Ten. They are good players and good leaders and we're glad to have them back and expect them to lead the group.

Broderick Binns has improved as much as any player on our football team since last Nov. 1. We're really excited about where he is. Lebron Daniel really surfaced in the spring and did some good things. We have four guys there who are all capable of playing good football. We will fool around there in August to see different combinations. We didn't do it intentionally, but Adrian and Christian both jumped in at tackle a little during the spring. That was good to see. We'll definitely give some consideration to using different combinations for better match ups in certain situations.

We hope Chad Geary can return from knee surgery. He had worked hard to return and has played well in the past."

LINEBACKERS (Includes outside linebackers)

Last year, the Hawkeyes had the challenge of trying to fill the shoes of veteran linebackers Mike Humpal and Mike Klinkenborg. The answer came neatly wrapped in the form of Pat Angerer and Jeremiha Hunter. Both had stellar seasons and helped put Iowa's defense near the top (second) in Big Ten total defense.

Angerer (6-1, 235), a senior all-Big Ten candidate, started 11 of 13 games and was Iowa's leading tackler with 107. He also had 6.5 tackles for loss, five interceptions and a quarterback sack. Those are pretty good numbers for a player who thought about giving up the game two years ago because of injury problems. He was a second team all-Big Ten choice and was named Big Ten Player of the Week following Iowa's win over Wisconsin. His tackle totals ranked sixth amongst all-league defenders. Hunter (6-2, 235) is a junior who started every game last season. He was the Hawkeyes' second leading tackler with 80 stops. He had five tackles for loss and one interception.

Backup linebackers include Troy Johnson (6-2, 235) and Jeff Tarpinian (6-3, 233), both juniors. Tarpinian had 17 tackles after being slowed with injuries during the first half of the season. Johnson had nine tackles, two for losses, last year. He has seen considerable action and has played well on special teams.

Senior all-star candidate A.J. Edds (6-4, 244) leads the list of players at outside linebacker. He could become one of the best in the Big Ten. Edds has started 25 straight games and is very dependable at his position. Last year he had 59 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss, two quarterback sacks and an interception. He forced two fumbles and recovered one. Edds has 148 career tackles.

Looking for playing time behind Edds is sophomore Tyler Nielsen (6-4, 232). Tyler has seen considerable action, but not in a starting role and has also played significantly on Iowa's special teams. Nielsen had 12 tackles, while playing in all 13 games. Edds did not participate in spring practice due to injury, allowing Nielsen the opportunity to gain further experience.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"Pat Angerer was one of the great stories on our team last year. He was second team going into camp. He emerged and played as well as anybody on defense. It's good to have him back. Like Ricky Stanzi, we've seen him emerge as a leader. He expanded his realm of responsibility in January, we're really excited about the year ahead for him.

Jeremiha Hunter started at weak side linebacker last year and we have Jeff Tarpinian right behind him. Jeff had some injuries last year, we feel like that's a good situation there.

A.J. Edds is a two year starter at the outside spot. He does a great job and is a strong leader as well. A.J. really played well last year. That's a position, statistically, where you don't get the tackles like an inside guy, the stats don't reflect the value of the position. In our defense it's critical that we have a guy doing a good job out there. We've had good play there - - Mike Humpal, Grant Steen, and LeVar Woods - - it's a real important position in our scheme. A.J. has played at a real high level the last two years. He is a guy who is very mature; he sees the big picture and is a good team leader.

We think the linebacker core is pretty solid. Tyler Nielsen and Troy Johnson both had a good spring, they both got a lot of work and we feel confident with them. Troy can play a couple of spots for us.

We're curious to see how the competition unfolds in August; we have good competition at all positions right now. Linebacker is one of our deeper positions, but we had some injuries in the spring and a number of guys were out. Troy Johnson should be OK in August, but his injury will impede him during the summer."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Iowa secondary will again feature a number of young players in 2009, but several of those players return with an added year of experience under their belts. The only departure from last year is cornerback Bradley Fletcher along with his 60 tackles and three interceptions. The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in pass efficiency defense last year while collecting 23 interceptions.

Three players who started virtually every game last season return to the backfield. All-Big Ten candidate Amari Spivey (6-0, 190), a junior, returns at cornerback after starting all 13 contests. He had 68 tackles, third best on the team, and four interceptions that were returned for 127 yards and one touchdown.

Competing for the top spot at the other corner are junior Jordan Bernstine (5-11, 205) and sophomore Shaun Prater (5-11, 175). Bernstine has logged considerable playing time in two seasons. He had 12 tackles and one interception while playing in 12 games last season. Prater collected 11 tackles and two pass break-ups while playing in all 13 games as a true freshman.

Sophomore William Lowe (5-10, 170) and redshirt freshman Greg Castillo (5-11, 180) will also be in the mix at the corner spots and both will be counted on to contribute on special teams as well.

The Hawkeyes should be strong at both safety positions. Junior Brett Greenwood (6-0, 200) has started 20 straight games and is a strong candidate for all-Big Ten honors in 2009. Greenwood had 68 tackles and two interceptions in 2008. He now has 113 career stops and four interceptions.

Sophomore Tyler Sash (6-1, 210) is the number one strong safety after earning the starting position in 11 of 13 games last season. Sash led the Big Ten with five interceptions for 147 yards and recorded 53 tackles. The return yardage is the second-most ever for a Hawkeye in one season. He earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors following an important late game interception in Iowa's upset win over third-ranked Penn State.

Backing up Sash will be sophomore David Cato (5-11, 205), who played last year as a true freshman. He registered 13 tackles and a forced fumble while playing in all 13 games. Behind Greenwood is redshirt freshman Jack Swanson (5-11, 195), a back with promise but no game experience.

Both Greenwood and Sash sat out spring practice, giving Cato and Swanson the opportunity to gain a lot of on the field experience.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"At cornerback, Amari Spivey really came on and did a great job as a first year starter. Amari was another great story last year. He was basically lost in every way his first year here; getting used to the campus, he was a long way from home. There was nothing natural about the way he played. But that year at Iowa Central probably helped him as much as any player I've seen. He came back much more comfortable, with a lot more maturity on and off the field. He really played at a high level last year; we're very excited about his future. He still has a lot of room for improvement. But he played pretty well and I'm excited to think where he might end up in the next two years, if he keeps improving.

Jordan Bernstine is the most experienced of the other guys. We have some younger players, Shaun Prater, Greg Castillo, and William Lowe, all three competing with Jordan. We're not sure how it will all play out, but like the offensive line, we have good competition. We've seen all the guys improve, I'm curious to see how it will materialize in August.

Spring practice was interesting at the safety positions, due to injuries. With both Brett and Tyler missing spring workouts, it opened the door for the young guys. David Cato and Jack Swanson got a lot of valuable work, hopefully that will prove to be invaluable for them. Taylor Herbst, Joe Conklin, Nick Nielsen, all were able to get on the field. It gave us a chance to work with younger players and get them some experience. We hope that will help our depth.

Norm Parker made reference to Brett's improvement last season. That first year, you are trying to play your position and don't always see the big picture quite as well. Certainly he was playing at a much higher level last year, due to his play in 2007 and taking advantage of his experience. Hopefully Tyler will be in that mode this year, seeing things in a broader scope, playing a little faster and being a little more efficient. That is one of the byproducts of gaining experience."

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Hawkeyes were much improved in their special teams play last year and virtually all contributors return.

Junior punter Ryan Donahue (6-3, 180) is an all-America candidate. He was a semi-finalist for the 2008 Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award and was named to the second all-Big Ten team. He was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week following Iowa's win over Minnesota. Donahue averaged 41.6 yards per punt last year and had a punt of at least 50 yards in nine of the last 11 games. In addition, 19 of his 50 punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and opponents had just 12 returns for 60 total yards. Sophomore Eric Guthrie (6-6, 240) is the backup punter, but hasn't seen game action.

Junior Daniel Murray (5-10, 185) and sophomore Trent Mossbrucker (6-0, 200) handled all the place-kicking chores last year. Murray's 31-yard field goal with a second left on the clock was the winner in Iowa's upset of third-ranked Penn State. Mossbrucker's 70 points are the most ever by an Iowa freshman.

Murray handled kickoffs and was 14-14 on PATs and 6-9 on field goals. Mossbrucker was 31-33 on PATs and made 13-15 field goal attempts. Mossbrucker made seven straight field goals during a portion of the 2008 season and led the Big Ten in field goal percentage (86.7%).

The Hawkeyes ranked third in Big Ten punt returns last year. Finding a replacement for Andy Brodell will be a priority. Brodell returned a punt 81 yards for a touchdown against Iowa State last year. Junior Colin Sandeman returned five last year and may have a step up on the competition after backing up Brodell for two seasons.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"We've been pretty good in not giving up big returns, and a big part of that is Ryan giving us a chance by getting the ball up in the air. Two things contribute to a good punting game; getting the ball up in the air, where your coverage can be effective, and the plus 50 punting. To really appreciate a good punter, you have to study those things, the return yards and field position. The value of that position and what it means to our defense never shows up in the stats. I can't imagine there are many punters in the country better than Ryan; we're thrilled that he has a couple more years, his future is really bright. I'm sure punting average affects the voting for recognition. But, the idea is to help your team win, and he does a great job. He really helps us out in that regard."

We're hoping the young guys on defense will be bolstered by their experience in the spring. Certainly an important part of our success will be getting contributions on special teams from those guys.

Place kicker is a competitive situation. Dan finished on top last year, but Trent's competing hard. We're not displeased with him by any stretch of the imagination. We have two guys we feel very confident in, yet they both can improve. Like punting, the name of the game is consistency. We feel good about both of those guys going into the season.

Colin Sandeman has some experience returning punts, but we will have open competition during camp. The same can be said for kick returns. Jewel has done a good job, but we will take a look and let it be a competitive situation. Current players on the roster and newcomers, we'll give them all an opportunity to see if they can make a contribution. We certainly have room for improvement in the kick return area; we haven't had the production we'd like to get in that regard. We've been very fortunate with Ed Hinkel and Andy Brodell over the years. We have big shoes to fill.

You like to have the threat of the big return, but first and foremost is fielding the ball whenever possible, and doing it in a secure fashion. I'd start with that, but it's also nice to get something in return. Ed and Andy gave us good judgment and good production. That's what we are looking for, I'm just not certain who that person is right now."

THE SCHEDULE

Iowa's 12-game regular season schedule includes seven home and five road games. The Hawkeyes do not have a bye week. Iowa has traditionally played one of the nation's top schedules and this year is no different. Eight of the 2009 opponents appeared in bowl games (or playoffs) last year. Three new non-conference foes are on the schedule; Northern Iowa, Arizona and Arkansas State. Iowa's other non-conference game is at intra-state rival Iowa State.

The Hawkeyes open with four of their first six games at home, including the Sept. 5 opener vs. Northern Iowa. Iowa travels to face Iowa State the next week before returning home to face former Hawkeye Mike Stoops and his Arizona Wildcats. Back on the schedule are Ohio State and Michigan following a two-year hiatus. Missing from Iowa's league schedule for the next two years are Illinois and Purdue.

The Hawkeyes open the Big Ten season at Penn State on Sept. 26th in prime time before returning home for non-conference foe Arkansas State on Oct. 3rd. The remainder of the schedule includes home games against Michigan, Indiana, Northwestern and Minnesota. League road games, in addition to Penn State, include Wisconsin, Michigan State and Ohio State. Along with the night game at Penn State, Iowa also has evening games against Michigan (home) and at Michigan State.

KIRK COMMENTS:

"All 12 games will be tough. If you focus on the road segment of our schedule, it's easy to see we have some real challenges. Playing in Ames has never been easy for an Iowa team, and it won't be this year. That will be a big challenge. If you look at the four Big Ten road games, three of those teams were playing in January last year. Wisconsin has had a ton of success the last five to six years, and we're going up there. That in itself is tough.

Then you add two night games and that adds to the degree of difficulty on the road. With everything that is involved, sitting around all day is not easy; it helps to be at home. The atmosphere is a little more festive, you can usually count on that. When you get home in the middle of the night, or early the next morning, it can creep in and affect the next week too, if you aren't careful."

COACH KIRK FERENTZ

The 2002 Associated Press, Walter Camp National Coach of the Year and AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year, Kirk Ferentz (pronounced FAIR-rintz, rhymes with parents), is in his 11th season as Iowa's head football coach. Ferentz guided Iowa to Big Ten titles twice in the last seven years and four straight January bowl games, including three New Year's Day bowl victories (2004 Outback Bowl, 2005 Capital One Bowl and 2009 Outback Bowl). Iowa has posted a 59-29 (.670) overall mark and a 36-20 (.643) Big Ten record the last seven seasons. Ferentz, at Iowa, holds an overall record of 70-53 (.569) and a 43-37 (.538) mark in Big Ten games. In 13 seasons as a college head coach his career mark is 82-74 (.526). Ferentz, who boasts the second-most victories by a Hawkeye head coach, coached his 150th game as Iowa's head coach at Indiana (Oct. 11, 2008).

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,116 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 568-509-39 (.526). That includes a 359-198-16 (.640) record in home games, a 209-311-23 (.406) record in games away from Iowa City, a 281-343-25 (.452) mark in Big Ten games and a 242-162-15 (.595) record in Kinnick Stadium.

GLANCE AT 2009 SCHEDULE

Iowa will play four of its first six games in Kinnick Stadium. The Hawkeyes open at home against Northern Iowa (Sept. 5). The following week, the Black and Gold play at intra-state rival Iowa State (Sept. 12). Iowa then returns home to host Arizona (Sept. 19) before opening the Big Ten schedule at Penn State (Sept. 26). This season marks the ninth time in Ferentz' 11 years at Iowa that the Hawkeyes will play their conference opener on the road. After playing the league road opener, Iowa returns to Iowa City to host Arkansas State (Oct. 3) and Michigan (Oct. 10). The Hawkeyes conclude the season with road contests at Wisconsin (Oct. 17), Michigan State (Oct. 24) and Ohio State (Nov. 14), and home dates with Indiana (Oct. 31), Northwestern (Nov. 7) and Minnesota (Nov. 21). Seven of Iowa's 2009 opponents played in bowl games last season, plus UNI competing in the FCS Playoffs.

IOWA LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Iowa's Leadership Council for the 2009 season includes three seniors, four juniors, four sophomores, two redshirt freshmen and one true freshman. A member of the incoming freshman class will be named in late August. Permanent team captains are named at the conclusion of each season. The Leadership Council for this season includes seniors Pat Angerer, A.J. Edds and Tony Moeaki; juniors Bryan Bulaga, Adrian Clayborn, Brett Greenwood and Ricky Stanzi, sophomores Broderick Binns, Marvin McNutt, Tyler Nielsen and Tyler Sash, and redshirt freshmen Greg Castillo and James Vandenberg.

HAWKEYES ON THE TUBE

All Iowa football games this season will be televised on either ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, Big Ten Network or Fox Sports Net. The last Iowa contest not televised was vs. Minnesota on Nov. 17, 2001. Iowa has appeared on television in its last 90 games.

HAWKEYES BY THE NUMBERS

Iowa returns 48 lettermen from 2008, including 22 on offense, 22 on defense and four specialists. The 48 lettermen are four less than the 52 that returned a year ago. The Hawkeyes return six starters on offense, seven on defense and their place kicker and punter. The lettermen breakdown includes five three-year lettermen, 22 two-year lettermen and 21 one-year lettermen. The total roster has 114 players, and includes 15 seniors, 30 juniors, 25 sophomores, 23 redshirt freshmen and 21 true freshmen. The pre-season depth chart includes 10 seniors, 22 juniors, 16 sophomores and six redshirt freshmen.

STARTERS RETURNING

Iowa returns six starters on offense, eight on defense and three specialists. The returning starters on offense include: tackles Bryan Bulaga and Kyle Calloway, guard Julian Vandervelde, receiver Derrell Johnson-Koulianos, quarterback Ricky Stanzi and fullback Brett Morse (plus part-time starters, guards Rafael Eubanks and Andy Kuempel, fullback Wade Leppart and receiver Trey Stross). The defensive starters returning include: ends Adrian Clayborn and Christian Ballard, linebackers Pat Angerer, A.J. Edds and Jeremiha Hunter and backs Brett Greenwood, Tyler Sash and Amari Spivey (plus part-time starter end Chad Geary). Punter Ryan Donahue and place kicker Daniel Murray also return (plus part-time starting place kicker Trent Mossbrucker).

RETURNING WITH HONORS

Iowa returns seven players who earned all-Big Ten honors a year ago. That list includes LB Pat Angerer, OL Bryan Bulaga, OL Kyle Calloway, P Ryan Donahue and CB Amari Spivey, who were second team honorees by either the coaches or media. LB A.J. Edds and FS Brett Greenwood earned honorable mention accolades.

IOWA VS. RANKED TEAMS

These are Iowa's most recent wins vs. nationally ranked opponents:

Home:	24-23 over 3rd-ranked Penn State, 11/8/08 10-6 over eighth-ranked Illinois, 11/20/04
Road:	20-10 over 19th-ranked Wisconsin, 11/12/05 34-9 over eighth-ranked Michigan, 10/26/02
Neutral:	30-25 over 11th-ranked LSU, Capital One Bowl, 1/1/05 37-17 over 17th-ranked Florida, Outback Bowl, 1/1/04

STATION SELECTED TO HALL OF FAME

Larry Station, the former University of Iowa linebacker who compiled nearly 500 career tackles and twice was named consensus All-American, has been elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. Station is the 14th former Hawkeye player or coach to earn the honor and the first since Hayden Fry in 2003. Fry was Station's coach at Iowa from 1982-85. The Hall of Fame class will be inducted at the National Football Foundation's Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 8, 2009, in New York City. The recipients will be officially enshrined at the Hall of Fame in South Bend, IN, in the summer of 2010.

DOWN TO THE WIRE

Five of Iowa's eight 2008 Big Ten games were decided in the final minutes of play, including wins over Penn State and Purdue and losses to Northwestern, Michigan State and Illinois.

- In the 22-17 loss to Northwestern, Iowa had a first and goal at the Wildcat eight-yard line but failed to convert and Northwestern took over with 1:08 remaining.
- In the 16-13 loss at Michigan State, Iowa failed to convert a fourth and one at the MSU 21-yard line and the Spartans took over with 2:10 remaining.
- In the 27-24 loss at Illinois, Iowa tied the game at 24 with 2:46 to play before Illinois kicked the winning field goal with 24 seconds left in the game.
- In the 24-23 win over No. 3 Penn State, Iowa scored the game winning 31-yard field goal with one second remaining.
- In the 22-17 win over Purdue, the Boilermakers reached the Iowa 27-yard line in the final seconds before a pass into the end zone was incomplete as time expired.
- In non-conference play, Iowa lost by a single point (21-20) at Pittsburgh when the Panthers took the lead early in the fourth quarter.

STANZI LEADS IOWA OFFENSE

Sophomore Ricky Stanzi emerged as Iowa's starting quarterback after four games in 2008. Stanzi completed 150-254 (.591) passes for 1,956 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2008. He ranked fourth in Big Ten passing efficiency and 40th in the country (134.8). The 1,956 yards passing ranks 19th-best in Iowa's single-season record chart. The 14 scores ties three others for the 13th-most in a single-season at Iowa. Stanzi threw at least one touchdown pass in eight of the last nine contests.

The native of Mentor, OH, completed 15-25 passes for 171 yards and a touchdown, including engineering Iowa's 15-play, 57-yard game-winning drive in the final minutes, vs. then-No. 3 Penn State. He completed 8-15 passes for 72 yards vs. Purdue. The sophomore completed 15-28 passes for a career-high 255 yards and three touchdowns in the regular season finale at Minnesota. He completed 13-19 passes for 147 yards and a touchdown in his first bowl game vs. South Carolina in the Outback Bowl.

EXPERIENCED RECEIVERS RETURN

Five of Iowa's top eight receivers return for 2009, including its top receiver from a year ago, Derrell Johnson-Koulianos (DJK). Other wide outs returning include Trey Stross and Colin Sandeman, plus tight ends Tony Moeaki and Allen Reisner. Johnson-Koulianos led the Black and Gold in receptions (44), receiving yards (639) and was second in kickoff returns (9-178-19.8). The native of Campbell, OH, averaged 14.5 yards per reception and had three touchdowns. DJK caught seven passes for a game and career-high 181 yards and a score at Minnesota. The 181 receiving yards are the eighth-most by an Iowa receiver in a single-game and the most since Tim Dwight had 187 yards on eight receptions vs. Iowa State on Nov. 20, 1997. He caught a game-high seven passes for 89 yards and a touchdown vs. Penn State. He also led the Hawkeyes in 2007, catching 38 passes for 482 yards and two scores.

Moeaki battled through injuries, again, in 2008, finishing with 13 catches for 144 yards and a score, in nine contests. The native of Wheaton, IL, has accumulated 46 receptions for 566 yards and seven touchdowns during his injury-plagued collegiate career.

Stross ranked fifth in team receiving a year ago, collecting 13 receptions for 109 yards and a touchdown, in 11 games. The native of Avon Lake, OH, enters his senior season with 42 career receptions for 570 yards and six scores. Juniors Reisner and Sandeman posted 11 catches for 200 yards and a score and six receptions for 76 yards and two touchdowns, respectively, in 2008.

SPECIALISTS RETURN

The Hawkeyes return all their kicking specialists, punter Ryan Donahue and place kickers Daniel Murray and Trent Mossbrucker.

Murray and Mossbrucker shared kicking duties in 2008. Murray, a junior, handled all kickoffs and was 14-14 on PATs and 6-9 on field goal attempts. After not attempting a field goal since the Pittsburgh game (Sept. 20), he converted a 31-yard game-winning field goal with one second left to knock off then-No. 3 Penn State (Nov. 8) in a windy Kinnick Stadium.

Mossbrucker, a sophomore, was 31-33 on PATs and 13-15 on field goals. His 70 points are a single-season Iowa freshman record and rank 20th overall in Iowa scoring annals. He averaged 1.08 field goals per game, which tied for 51st-best in the nation. Mossbrucker made seven-straight field goals before missing a 30-yarder, on an angle, at Illinois.

Punter Ryan Donahue, a finalist for the Ray Guy Award and a second team all-Big Ten performer, punted 50 times in 2008. He averaged 41.56 yards per punt, which ranked sixth in the Big Ten and 35th nationally. He averaged 42.4 yards per kick in eight conference games, which ranked fourth. Donahue, a junior, recorded at least one punt over 50 yards in nine of the last 11 contests (64 yards vs. Iowa State, 59 yards at Pittsburgh, 55 yards vs. Northwestern, 56 yards at Michigan State, 56 yards at Indiana, 51 yards at Illinois, 55 yards vs. Penn State, 57 yards at Minnesota and 51 yards vs. South Carolina). Additionally, 19 of his punts were downed inside the 20. Donahue broke two school punting records in 2007. The native of Evergreen Park, IL, established school records for punts in a single-season (86) and punt yardage (3,533). Furthermore, the 86 punts is a Big Ten single-season record. Donahue also earned freshman honorable mention all-American accolades by The Sporting News.

TALENTED DEFENSIVE NUCLEUS RETURN

Iowa returns eight talented defensive starters from a year ago. The list includes ends Adrian Clayborn and Christian Ballard, linebackers Pat Angerer, A.J. Edds and Jeremiha Hunter and backs Brett Greenwood, Tyler Sash and Amari Spivey (plus part-time starters end Chad Geary and linebacker Jacody Coleman, although Geary is injured).

Eight of Iowa's top 11 tacklers from last season return in 2009. Angerer ranked first in team tackles (107) and tied with Sash for the team-lead in thefts (5). Hunter amassed 80 tackles to rank second. Spivey was Iowa's leading tackler in the secondary, collecting 68, 43 of which were solo. He also collected four interceptions. Greenwood also was credited with 68 tackles. Edds totaled 59 stops. Clayborn and Ballard registered 50 and 40 tackles, respectively. Sash accounted for 53 tackles and five interceptions, returning the thefts a team-best 147 yards. The 147 yards rank as the second-most interception return yards in a single-season. Mike Stoops returned six thefts for a school-record 154 yards in 1983.

DEFENSE MAKES A STAND

Iowa's defense did not yield a touchdown the first three contests for the second straight year. The first touchdown scored against Iowa's defense was at the 6:06 mark of the first quarter in game four at Pittsburgh on Sept. 20. Iowa was the last FBS school to allow a touchdown in 2008. The Hawkeye defense did not allow a touchdown until the fourth game in 2007 (at Wisconsin). It is believed to be the first time since the 1923 and 1924 seasons that the Hawkeyes started consecutive seasons not allowing a touchdown in their first three contests. In 1923, Iowa topped Oklahoma A&M 20-0, Knox 44-3 and Purdue 7-0, all at home. In 1924, Iowa beat SE Oklahoma 43-0, Ohio State 0-0 and Lawrence 13-5, all at home.

Iowa's defense allowed only seven rushing TDs, which ties for the fewest in a single-season (1981 and 1984).

The Hawkeyes' 23 interceptions tie a school single-season record (23 in 1986). Nine different Hawkeyes intercepted at least one pass in 2008.

Iowa ranked fourth in the country in interceptions (23), fifth in scoring defense (13.0) and pass efficiency defense (98.32), ninth in rushing defense (94.0), 12th in total defense (291.3) and 19th in red zone defense (76%). Iowa's defense forced 67 punts, 42 three-and-outs (31.4%), blocked a field goal (Northwestern) and a punt (Wisconsin) and collected a safety (Maine).

IOWA NOTES

- Iowa tied Northwestern for fourth in the Big Ten (5-3) in 2008. It marked Iowa's 49th first-division finish in the conference and seventh in the last eight years.
- Iowa is one of 10 college football programs in the nation to compete in at least five January bowl games over the last seven seasons.

HAWKEYES FINISH STRONG

The success of Iowa's 2008 football team came as a surprise to most except those inside the Hawkeye football family. The Kirk Ferentz led Hawkeyes ended the first week of October with a 3-3 record and little chance of a significant bowl invitation. Led by a great group of 15 seniors, Iowa went on to win five of its next six games and a spot in the prestigious January 1st Outback Bowl against South Carolina, winning 31-10.

The 2008 Hawkeyes finished the season with a 9-4 record and were ranked 20th in both final major polls. The Outback Bowl champions became the fourth Iowa team in the last seven years to win at least nine games in a season. The Hawkeyes also played in a January bowl game for the fifth time in seven years.

Along the way, running back Shonn Greene became a consensus all-American and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Greene also was named the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. On the defensive side, Mitch King also earned all-America honors and was named Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year. That's pretty heady stuff for a team most picked to finish in the league's second division. Instead, the Hawkeyes tied for fourth (5-3 league record) and wound up as the league's only winner in the bowl season. Iowa's four losses in 2008 came by a only a combined 12 points.

And, Iowa fans are licking their chops looking ahead to the 2009 season. The Hawkeyes lose only three starters on defense and five on offense. Both kicking specialists return. Gone are King, Matt Kroul and Bradley Fletcher on the defensive side of the ball. Missing from offense will be wide receiver Andy Brodell, linemen Rob Bruggeman and Seth Olsen and tight end Brandon Myers. And, Greene announced, following Iowa's 31-10 bowl victory, he'll take his talents to the NFL for the 2009 season.

Replacing what many call the top defensive tackle tandem and maybe the best running back in Hawkeye history will be hard. But, young talent is anxiously waiting to become the next Mitch King and Shonn Greene. After what happened in 2008, few will question the Hawkeye coaching staff and players they have under their direction.

IN THE RANKINGS

After not being ranked during the regular season, Iowa finished the 2008 campaign ranked 20th in both major polls. It marked the first time the Hawkeyes finished the season ranked since the 2004 season (eighth in both polls). It also marked the first time Iowa was ranked in the top 20 since the first week of October in 2006.

SEVERAL HAWKEYES EARN ALL-BIG TEN HONORS

RB Shonn Greene was tabbed the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year and named the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football award winner, while DT Mitch King was named the league's Defensive Lineman of the Year. Greene was also a first team selection by both the coaches and media voting panel, including being the only offensive player unanimously chosen by the media. King was also named to both first team groups, including being unanimously picked by the coaches. Greene is Iowa's first Offensive Player of the Year since QB Brad Banks in 2002. King is Iowa's first Defensive Lineman of the Year since Jared DeVries in 1997.

OL Seth Olsen was a first team honoree by both groups. TE Brandon Myers was a first team selection by the coaches and honorable mention by the media. OL Rob Bruggeman and LB Pat Angerer were second team honorees by both groups. The media named OL Kyle Calloway and DT Matt Kroul second team all-Big Ten, while the coaches honored OL Bryan Bulaga to the second team. The coaches also recognized P Ryan Donahue and CB Amari Spivey on the second team.

Other Hawkeyes earning honorable mention accolades include: LB A.J. Edds, CB Bradley Fletcher and FS Brett Greenwood. Additionally, Kroul was named the Iowa football Big Ten Sportsmanship Award honoree.

GREENE MAKES HISTORY

RB Shonn Greene received numerous post-season awards his junior campaign. He received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award, emblematic of the Big Ten Conference's Most Valuable Player. It marked the 10th time an Iowa football player garnered the Silver Football and the first time since QB Brad Banks achieved the honor in 2002.

Additionally, he is Iowa's first consensus all-America running back since Nile Kinnick in 1939. Hawkeye running backs Ronnie Harmon (1985), Dennis Mosley (1979) and Larry Ferguson (1960) were named to at least one first all-America squad, but were not consensus picks. Greene was recognized as a first team all-American by the American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, espn.com, Walter Camp Foundation, Associated Press and The Sporting News.

TWO-MINUTE DRILL

- Iowa won six of its last seven games. The Hawkeyes were the only Big Ten team to win a bowl game.
- Iowa's 30 rushing touchdowns are a new school record, besting the 29 scores in 2001.
- Shonn Greene broke Iowa's single season rushing record with 1,850 net yards. The record was previously held by Tavian Banks (1,691 yards, 1997).
- Iowa won all three traveling trophy games in 2008. The Hawkeyes defeated Iowa State 17-5 (Sept. 13) to gain possession of the Cy-Hawk Trophy, Wisconsin 38-16 (Oct. 18) to claim the Heartland Trophy and Minnesota 55-0 (Nov. 22) to keep Floyd of Rosedale.
- Iowa's upset win over Penn State made it bowl eligible for the eighth-straight year, participating in bowl games seven of the eight seasons. Iowa posted nine wins for the first time since 2004, when that team won 10 times.
- DT Mitch King's 55 tackles for loss were the second-most among active FBS players. South Florida's George Selvie ranked first with 61.
- Iowa's four first team all-Big Ten honorees are the most since five made the first team in 2004.
- DT Matt Kroul surpassed OL Bruce Nelson's school record for consecutive starts with 50. Nelson held the previous record of 48-straight, starting every game during the 1999-02 seasons. Kroul's streak was the longest active streak in the Big Ten and third-longest by an FBS player.
- RB Jewel Hampton scored seven rushing touchdowns. The seven rushing scores are believed to be an Iowa freshman record in a single-season.
- Iowa's +73 fourth-quarter point differential was the best in the conference. The Hawkeyes' +116 second-half point differential was second-best in the league behind Penn State (+160).
- As a team, Iowa ranked fourth in the country in interceptions (23); Florida and Boston College ranked first with 26, followed by California (24). The 23 thefts equal a school single-season record (1986). Nine different Hawkeyes intercepted at least one pass in 2008. LB Pat Angerer and SS Tyler Sash led the team with five thefts, while DB Amari Spivey had four, CB Bradley Fletcher had three and FS Brett Greenwood had two.
- SS Tyler Sash's 147 return yards on his five interceptions this season rank as the second-most interception return yards in a single-season. Mike Stoops returned six thefts for a school-record 154 yards in 1983.
- Iowa ranked ninth for the most touchdown drives of five plays or less (23).
- Iowa's four losses came by a combined 12 points (21-20 at Pittsburgh, 22-17 vs. Northwestern, 16-13 at Michigan State and 27-24 at Illinois). Three of the four losses were on the road.

- RB Shonn Greene, a consensus all-American, is the only FBS running back in the country to rush for over 100 yards or more in every game (13) in 2008. The last Big Ten player to rush for over 100 yards in all eight Big Ten games was Penn State's Curtis Enis in 1997.

- RB Shonn Greene rushed for multiple touchdowns in five of the last six games (Wisconsin, Penn State, Purdue, Minnesota and South Carolina), with a best of four vs. Wisconsin.

- Greene posted 20 rushing touchdowns, which breaks Tavian Banks' (1997) record for the most by an Iowa player in a single-season. As a team, Iowa had 11 rushing scores a year ago.

- LB Pat Angerer ranked third in Big Ten tackles (10.2) during conference play. His 16 tackles vs. Wisconsin ties Illinois LB Brit Miller for the most in a Big Ten game this season.

- Iowa ranked fourth in the nation in interceptions (23), fifth in scoring defense (13.0), fewest yards penalized (34.3) and pass efficiency defense (98.32), ninth in rushing defense (94.0), 12th in total defense (291.3), 19th in red zone defense (76%) and 26th in net punting (37.02). Individually, RB Shonn Greene ranked second nationally in rushing (142.3), tied for ninth in scoring (9.23), tied for 19th in red zone defense (75.9%), 21st in time of possession (31:30) and 22nd in all-purpose yards (146.1), DT Mitch King tied for 38th in tackles for loss (1.19), while SS Tyler Sash tied for 19th in interceptions per game (0.42).

- Iowa has recorded at least one takeaway in 33 of its last 35 games, dating back to the 2006 season.

- Iowa kept three of the nation's top rushers under 100 yards (Pittsburgh's LeSean McCoy was held to 78 yards on 18 carries, Michigan State's Javon Ringer was limited to 91 yards on 25 attempts, while Penn State's Evan Royster gained 90 yards on 26 attempts). The Hawkeyes allowed only one 100-yard rusher in 2008 - Maine's Jhamal Fluellen (104 yards on 21 attempts) in the season-opener.

- Andy Brodell ranked third in the Big Ten and 31st nationally in punt return average (10.64). He returned 36 punts in 2008, third-most in the country. He is one of only four Big Ten punt returners who returned a punt for a score (Ohio State's Ray Small, Penn State's Derrick Williams and Michigan's Martavius Odums) in 2008.

- Iowa punter Ryan Donahue, who was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award, recorded at least one punt over 50 yards in nine of the last 11 contests (64 yards vs. Iowa State, 59 yards at Pittsburgh, 55 yards vs. Northwestern, 56 yards at Michigan State, 56 yards at Indiana, 51 yards at Illinois, 55 yards vs. Penn State, 57 yards at Minnesota and 51 yards vs. South Carolina). Iowa opponents returned only 12 punts for 60 yards in 2008.

Iowa	0	3	3	7	13
Michigan State	7	6	3	0	16

GAME RECAP

Iowa mounted a second-half comeback but came up short in a 16-13 loss to Michigan State in Spartan Stadium. With Iowa trailing by three with just over two minutes remaining, Michigan State's defense stopped the Hawkeyes on a fourth-and-one in Spartan territory to secure the victory.

Michigan State scored the game's first 13 points. TE Charlie Gantt caught a four-yard touchdown pass from QB Brian Hoyer in the first period for a 7-0 advantage. The Spartans increased their lead to 13-0 on a pair of PK Brett Swenson field goals (29 and 32 yards) in the second quarter. With three seconds remaining in the half, Iowa PK Trent Mossbrucker converted a 25-yard field goal to cut Iowa's deficit to 13-3.

Swenson, who was named Big Ten co-Special Teams Player of the Week, made his third field goal (25 yards) to regain a 13-point cushion. However, the visitors continued to fight back, scoring a Mossbrucker 33-yard field goal and converting a Michigan State fourth-quarter interception into a touchdown to make the score 16-13. Iowa QB Ricky Stanzi connected with WR Andy Brodell for a 31-yard score in the back of the end zone with 8:47 left in the fourth period.

Iowa's Shonn Greene finished the contest with a game-high 157 yards on a season-high 30 carries, while Iowa's defense held Michigan State's Javon Ringer to only 91 yards on 25 attempts, with 29 of the 91 yards coming on one play. Greene is one of only two running backs in the country to rush for 100 yards in all six games to start the season (Connecticut's Donald Brown).

Stanzi completed 15-22 passes for 158 yards and a TD in his second start. Hoyer completed 13-24 passes for 184 yards and a score for the Spartans.

Brodell paced the Hawkeye receivers for the second-consecutive week, catching five passes for a game-high 79 yards.

Iowa's Jewel Hampton returned four kickoffs for 116 yards, which is the most kickoff return yardage in a single-game by a Hawkeye since C.J. Jones had 169 yards on four returns vs. USC in the 2003 Orange Bowl.

Defensively, LB Pat Angerer collected a career-high 11 tackles for the second straight game. DT Matt Kroul had eight stops and LB Jeremiha Hunter and DT Mitch King each had seven tackles.

GAME RECAP

Iowa RB Shonn Greene rushed for 217 yards and tied three single-game records with his four rushing touchdowns as Iowa posted a 38-16 triumph over Wisconsin in Kinnick Stadium. With the victory, Iowa reclaimed possession of the Heartland Trophy.

His four scores also matched the Kinnick Stadium record, by an Iowa player, and his 24 points tied the school record held by eight others. His 217 rushing yards tie Nick Bell for the sixth-most in a single-game in Iowa history. Greene's performance garnered him Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week laurels.

Greene gave Iowa an early 14-0 advantage on scoring runs of 12 and 34 yards in the first and second period, respectively. Wisconsin closed within 14-9 with 6:15 remaining in the third quarter after Badger PK Philip Welch converted three-consecutive field goals (42, 40 and 35 yards).

The Hawkeyes responded by scoring on four of their next five possessions. Greene scampered 52 yards for his third score of the game to increase Iowa's lead to 21-9. Iowa's defense collected three interceptions and two sacks and forced seven punts, blocking one. LB Pat Angerer posted career bests in tackles (16) and interceptions (2). His efforts earned him Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week laurels. DT Matt Kroul was credited with seven tackles and a QB-Hurry.

GAME RECAP

Iowa running back Shonn Greene rushed for 211 yards and two touchdowns to propel the Hawkeyes to a 22-17 victory over Purdue at Kinnick Stadium on "Senior Day".

Greene, who was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week and The Sporting News' Player of the Day, became only the third Iowa tailback to eclipse 200 yards rushing in a game twice in one year. The 211 yards is the ninth-most by an Iowa player in a single-game. Furthermore, the junior tallied scoring runs of 14 and 75 yards, with the 75-yarder being a career long and the 19th-longest rush in school annals.

The Hawkeyes scored first on a RB Jewel Hampton 22-yard scoring run. The rush equaled Hampton's career long. PK Trent Mossbrucker missed the first of two PAT attempts after the scoring run.

Purdue PK Carson Wiggs capped a 17-play, 45-yard drive that consumed 8:46 with a 27-yard field goal. Greene then scampered 75 yards to give Iowa a 12-3 cushion in the second period. The Boilermakers cut the deficit to 12-10 with 34 seconds left in the half on a WR Desmond Tardy 12-yard TD reception.

Iowa led 15-10 after a PK Daniel Murray season-long 45-yard field goal, which was the only third-period scoring. Greene posted his second scoring run of the game from 14 yards out to give the Hawkeyes a 22-10 advantage with 12:48 left in the game. Painter connected with WR Greg Orton for an eight-yard touchdown completion to close within five points (22-17). Painter later drove the Boilermakers into Iowa territory, but his final pass attempt fell incomplete, out of the end zone, on the last play of the game.

Iowa QB Ricky Stanzi completed 8-15 passes for 72 yards. Painter completed 24-30 passes for 190 yards and two touchdowns, while Tardy had a game-high 13 receptions for 131 yards and a score.

Defensively, Hawkeye FS Brett Greenwood collected a game and career-high 14 tackles. DT Mitch King had five tackles, including three for loss and a sack, and also forced a fumble. LB Pat Angerer accumulated nine tackles and intercepted his team-leading fifth pass of the year on Iowa's five-yard line to silence a Purdue scoring threat. DT Matt Kroul, who tied a school record with his 48th-consecutive start, had two tackles.

GAME RECAP

Iowa kept Floyd of Rosedale with a convincing 55-0 win at Minnesota. The win was Iowa's largest margin of victory ever over the Gophers. Iowa finished Big Ten play in a tie for fourth place with a 5-3 record.

Iowa, who maintained possession for 37:37, totaled 483 yards of offense, compared to 134 for Minnesota. The Gophers rushed for only seven yards on 21 attempts. Iowa's defense forced three turnovers, while its offense turned those miscues into 21 points.

Sparking the Hawkeyes, offensively, were RB Shonn Greene, QB Ricky Stanzi and WR Derrell Johnson-Koulianos. Greene amassed a game-high 144 yards and two TDs on 22 carries. His rushing totals against the Gophers pushed him past Tavian Banks to become Iowa's single-season rushing leader (1,729 yards). Additionally, he topped 100 rushing yards for the 12th-straight contest, the only FBS tailback to accomplish the feat this season.

Johnson-Koulianos caught seven passes for a career-high 181 yards and a score. The sophomore recorded long catches of 29, 30, 48 and 50 yards at Minnesota. The 181 receiving yards are the eighth-most by an Iowa receiver in a single-game and the most since Tim Dwight had 187 yards on eight receptions vs. Iowa State on Nov. 20, 1997.

Stanzi completed 15-28 passes for a career-high 255 yards and three scores and rushed six times for 17 yards.

Six different Hawkeyes scored touchdowns: Greene (2), Johnson-Koulianos, RB Jewel Hampton, TE Brandon Myers, TE Tony Moeaki and DB Amari Spivey. Spivey returned an interception 57 yards for a score in the final minute of the second quarter. The 57-yard interception return ties as the 12th-longest in school history.

SS Tyler Sash returned a theft 58 yards in the fourth quarter. The 58-yard return is the 11th-longest in school history. LB Pat Angerer had a team-best nine tackles, including 1.5 for loss, to lead the Hawkeye tacklers. DT Matt Kroul, who had two tackles, started for the 49th-straight game to establish a new school record.

Iowa punter Ryan Donahue punted four times, averaging 48.5 yards, including booming one 57 yards. He was rewarded for his efforts, earning Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

1999

A late season 27-17 win over Northwestern forced the Wildcats to share the Big Ten title. Iowa finished strong, winning two of final three games to set the table for the success of 2001 and 2002.

2001

Iowa opened the season with three straight wins and ended the season winning three of its final four games, including a 19-16 victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes posted an overall 7-5 record and tied for fourth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. All five of Iowa's setbacks came by less than 10 points. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring (32.6) as Coach Kirk Ferentz led Iowa to a bowl win in just his third season.

2002

Iowa posted a perfect 8-0 record in Big Ten play to earn a share of the conference title with Ohio State. After a 3-1 start in non-conference play, the Hawkeyes began league play with a 42-35 overtime win at Penn State and went on to earn the league title in Coach Kirk Ferentz' fourth year. Iowa posted a final mark of 11-2 after a loss to Southern California in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami, FL. Iowa earned its first-ever Bowl Championship Series invitation.

Ferentz earned Big Ten and national Coach of the Year honors, while 11 Hawkeyes were named first team all-Big Ten. QB Brad Banks placed second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy and was the Big Ten Conference MVP. Banks was also the Associated Press Player of the Year and earned the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in the nation. OL Eric Steinbach was the Big Ten Lineman of the year, while TE Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award and PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza award.

Iowa averaged over 37 points a game in leading the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight season, while the Hawkeye defense ranked fifth in the nation against the run.

For the first time in school history, Iowa won 10 or more games in consecutive seasons after posting a 10-3 mark, putting an exclamation mark on the season with a 37-17 win over Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl.

Iowa's 21 wins over the past two seasons are the most ever for Iowa football in a two-year period. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked eighth in the final polls, the first back-to-back top 10 finishes for Iowa football since the 1950's. Coupled with the 2003 Orange Bowl, Iowa also has played in January bowl games in consecutive seasons for the first time in the history of the program.

The Hawkeyes opened the season with four straight wins in non-conference play. After a loss at Michigan State, Iowa returned home for a 30-27 win over Michigan, handing the Wolverines their only loss in Big Ten play. After a loss at Purdue in early November, Iowa closed the regular season with wins over Minnesota and Wisconsin. The bowl win over Florida gave the Hawkeyes three straight wins over ranked opponents.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery was named a consensus all-American and became Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. PK Nate Kaeding was also a first team all-American for the second straight season, becoming Iowa's all-time scoring leader while setting 14 school records during his career.

2004

Winning its last eight games of the season, Iowa posted a 10-2 record, sharing the Big Ten Conference title for the second time in three seasons. The Hawkeyes defeated Wisconsin in Kinnick Stadium on the final day of the regular season to earn the title share with Michigan.

Playing in its third straight January bowl game, Iowa scored a thrilling 30-25 win over defending national champion LSU in the Capital One Bowl. The Hawkeyes scored the winning touchdown on a 56-yard pass from QB Drew Tate to senior WR Warren Holloway. After leading throughout the contest, Iowa fell behind with 46 seconds left in the game before winning on the final play.

Iowa started the season with a 2-2 mark before making its championship run. The win over Wisconsin increased Iowa's winning streak to 18 straight home games and 13 straight conference games, both school records.

Due to a number of injuries at the running back position, Iowa used a rock solid defense and the arm of Tate, a sophomore in his first season as a starter, to produce a third straight season of at least 10 wins.

Tate, DE Matt Roth, LB Chad Greenway and LB Abdul Hodge were named first team all-Big Ten, while Coach Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

2005

Iowa finished the season with a 7-5 record and in a third place tie in the Big Ten standings. A pair of heartbreaking, last minute losses to Michigan and Northwestern is all that separated Iowa from at least a piece of its third league title in four years. The Hawkeyes' success earned them their second Outback Bowl appearance in three years.

Despite a year of triumphs and disappointments, Iowa finished the year as one of only four teams in the nation to have played in January bowl games the last four years.

LB Chad Greenway, DB Jovon Johnson and DE Kenny Iwebema were named all-Big Ten first team, while LB Abdul Hodge, RB Albert Young and PK Kyle Schlicher earned second team honors.

2006

Iowa started the season winning five of its first six games and becoming a fixture in the nation's top 20. The second half of the season was just the opposite as injuries took their toll and the Hawkeyes dropped five of their final six regular season contests.

But, Iowa did well enough to get invited to its sixth straight bowl game and came excruciatingly close to an upset of the defending national champion Texas Longhorns in the Alamo Bowl, before succumbing (26-24). The game was played before the biggest sports crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the Alamodome. The game was also the most watched ESPN bowl game in the network's history.

OL Mike Jones was named to the coaches first all-Big Ten team. OL Marshal Yanda, LB Mike Klinkenborg, TE Scott Chandler and DB Marcus Paschal were second team choices.

Iowa was the only team in the country to have three players (OL Mike Elgin, DB Adam Shada and LB Mike Klinkenborg) represented on the first academic all-America team.

2007

Iowa finished the season with a 6-6 overall record. Iowa finished tied for fifth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. After starting the season with a 2-4 record, Iowa won four of its last six and just missed being selected for a bowl game. The Hawkeyes were bowl eligible for the seventh straight season and finished in the Big Ten's upper division for the sixth time in seven years. Iowa broke the school record for fewest turnovers in a season (13). The previous school record was 15 (nine interceptions and six fumbles), established in 1963 (eight games).

DT Mitch King earned first team all-Big Ten accolades by the coaches and second team honors by the media. CB Charles Godfrey was recognized on the second team by the coaches and was an honorable mention honoree by the media. DE Bryan Mattison and LB Mike Humpal were second team selections by the media and honorable mention honorees by the coaches.

Iowa's offense isn't making any excuses, but... at least 11 players who appeared on the spring, or early fall, two-deep are either off the roster or were injured for a significant amount of time. The Iowa offense could have looked much different with some of the following names on the two-deep: WR Andy Brodell, OL Dace Richardson, OL Rob Bruggeman, OL Bryan Bulaga, OL Alex Kanellis, TE Tony Moeaki, WR Colin Sandeman, WR Dominique Douglas, WR Anthony Bowman, WR Trey Stross and RB Shonn Greene.

Led by a great group of 15 seniors, Iowa won five of its last six games and earned a spot in the prestigious January 1st Outback Bowl against South Carolina, winning 31-10.

The 2008 Hawkeyes finished the season with a 9-4 record and were ranked 20th in both final major polls. The Outback Bowl champions became the fourth Iowa team in the last seven years to win at least nine games. The Hawkeyes also played in a January bowl game for the fifth time in seven years.

Along the way, running back Shonn Greene broke seven school records and three school individual bowl records en route to becoming a consensus all-American and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Greene also was named the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. On the defensive side, Mitch King also earned all-America honors and was named Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

That's pretty heady stuff for a team most picked to finish in the league's second division. Instead, the Hawkeyes tied for fourth (5-3 league record) and wound up as the league's only winner in the bowl season. Iowa's four losses in 2008 came by a combined 12 points.

A total of six Iowa players collected a total of seven Big Ten weekly accolades throughout the regular season.

Iowa ranked in the top 20, nationally, in six statistical categories (5th - Pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and fewest penalty yards; 9th - rushing defense; 12th - total defense; 19th - red zone defense).

Switching from the mighty defensive role they played all season (which included four shutouts), Iowa put on a great offensive show to defeat Oregon State 35-19 in the 43rd Rose Bowl. It was the school's first bowl appearance. Iowa assumed an early lead on game MVP Kenny Ploen's 49-yard run. Ploen also completed 9-of-10 passes. Collins Hagler scored two TDs and totaled a game-best 85 rushing yards. Iowa played Oregon State during the regular season and had also won that encounter, 14-13. The Rose Bowl win was the Big Ten's 10th win in 11 games against its west coast opponents. Over 15,000 Hawkeye fans attended the game.

GAME RECAP

Iowa's attempt to become the winningest team in Hawkeye history came up just short at the hands of Ty Detmer and Brigham Young. The 1990 Heisman Trophy winner passed for 350 yards in rallying the Cougars back from a 13-0 halftime deficit. Iowa built its lead on two touchdown runs by Mike Saunders. Saunders joined Iowa's exclusive 1,000-yard in a season club. He had 103 yards on 19 carries in the Holiday Bowl to give him 1,022 for the season and 1,476 career rushing yards. Iowa QB Matt Rodgers completed 19 of 28 passes for 221 yards. Jon Filloon caught a career-high seven passes for 107 yards in his final game as a Hawkeye. All-American defensive end Leroy Smith was injured in the first half and never returned to the Iowa lineup. BYU had a chance to win the game with under 30 seconds to play. The Cougars had a first down on the Iowa 18-yard line with the score tied. However, Detmer's final pass was intercepted by Carlos James at the goal line. Teddy Jo Faley led Iowa's defenders with 14 tackles, including 13 solo stops. The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked 10th in both the AP and CNN/USA Today polls with a 10-1-1 record.

GAME RECAP

Iowa jumped out to the early lead and didn't look back, defeating Pac-10 co-champion Washington, 38-18, in the 62nd annual Sun Bowl at El Paso, TX. Sedrick Shaw started the Iowa scoring by taking a handoff and running 58 yards for a touchdown only 1:52 into the game. Kickers Brion Hurley and Zach Bromert each added a pair of field goals. A snap over the punter's head led to a safety and a 21-0 halftime lead for the Hawkeyes. Hurley kicked his third field goal of the day from 50 yards out as Iowa's lead climbed to 24 in the third quarter. Washington got on the board for the first time at the 8:37 mark of the third quarter when Shane Fortney hit Jerome Pathon on a 30-yard touchdown pass. Iowa fullback Michael Burger scored on runs of eight- and one-yard to increase the score to 38-6 before Washington added two late scores. The Iowa defense recorded four sacks while forcing three fumbles. Hawkeye running backs Shaw (135) and Tavian Banks (122) each rushed for over 100 yards. The win moved Iowa's final record to 8-4.

Dec. 29, 1996, Alamodome, San Antonio, Texas

Iowa	6	11	0	10	27

GAME RECAP

In its first trip back to San Antonio since losing to California 37-3 in the inaugural 1993 Alamo Bowl, Iowa's defense put on a clinic in stopping the run - one runner in particular. Iowa's group of run-stoppers, headed by sophomore linebackers Matt Hughes and Vernon Rollins, held Doak Walker Award winner and 2,000-yard rusher Byron Hanspard to 64 yards rushing on 18 attempts. In the process the Hawkeyes shut down Texas Tech for a dominating 27-0 win. Hanspard's longest run of the evening was 17 yards, as Iowa controlled the line of scrimmage and limited the Red Raiders to 60 yards total rushing. The victory was Iowa's second shutout of the season (the Hawkeyes also blanked Wisconsin 31-0). And while Hanspard was held in check throughout, Iowa senior Sedrick Shaw was unstoppable as he rushed for 113 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown. Shaw's second touchdown run was impressive, as he broke three tackles enroute to the end zone. Matt Sherman led a consistent Iowa offense with 126 yards passing - 105 to wide receiver Tim Dwight. The Hawkeye ground attack churned for 217 yards. Hughes finished with eight tackles, while Rollins added five. Sophomore Jared DeVries finished with two sacks and five tackles, three for a loss. Shaw and DeVries were named offensive and defensive MVP's, respectively.

The Sun Devil offense overshadowed Iowa, as ASU rushed for 268 yards and compiled 377 yards total offense. RB Tavian Banks sparked the offense unit on Iowa's second possession, breaking loose for a 26-yard run to the ASU 30. Unfortunately, for Iowa, ASU held the nation's fourth-best rusher to only 52 yards in the game. In the second quarter ASU set a seven-play, 55-yard scoring drive into motion, and never looked back. The Sun Devils recovered an Iowa fumble late in the first half and added a field goal for a 10-0 halftime advantage. Iowa was able to score on a six-play, 87-yard scoring drive, under the direction of quarterback Randy Reiners, late in the fourth quarter. LBs Raj Clark and Matt Hughes led the Iowa defense, each recording 12 tackles, while CB Ed Gibson added 11. Jared DeVries contributed nine tackles, two tackles for loss and one sack. Iowa punter Jason Baker was named Sun Bowl Special Teams MVP after averaging 48.9 yards per punt, including a Sun Bowl-record 76-yarder.

Texas Tech -- 16

December 29, 2001, Alamodome, San Antonio, TX

Texas Tech	0	3	7	6	16
Iowa	3	7	3	6	19

GAME RECAP

Iowa's Nate Kaeding kicked a 47-yard field goal with 44 seconds to play in the game and defensive back Bob Sanders intercepted a Texas Tech pass in the endzone on the final play as Iowa defeated the Red Raiders 19-16 in the 2001 Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes ended the season with a 7-5 overall record with the bowl victory. The crowd of 65,232 marked the second largest crowd in Alamo Bowl history.

The Hawkeye drove 53 yards in eight plays for the final score of the game, which was the fourth field goal of the day for Kaeding. Texas Tech had tied the score at 16-16 with 2:05 remaining before Iowa's game winning drive.

Iowa QB Kyle McCann accounted for most of the yardage in the final scoring drive. He completed three straight passes for 41 totals yards and then scrambled for 16 yards to the Tech 26-yardline to set up Kaeding's game winning kick.

Kaeding tied an Iowa record with the four field goals, which came from 36, 31, 46 and 47 yards. Iowa took an early 10-0 lead in the first half, using a ball control offense to keep the Red Raider passing attack on the sidelines. Tech got on the scoreboard on the final play of the half on a 50-yard field goal and tied the score at 10-10 on its first possession of the third quarter.

An interception by Iowa's Derrick Pickens led to an Iowa field goal for a 13-10 advantage and good field position led to Kaeding's 46-yard effort that put Iowa in front 16-10.

Pickens was named the Outstanding Defensive Player of the Game, while RB Aaron Greiving earned that award for offense. Filling in for the injured Ladell Betts, Greiving rushed 25 times for 115 yards, including a one-yard scoring run for Iowa's only touchdown. McCann completed 19-26 passes for 161 yards, with no interceptions.

Along with the interception on the final play of the game, Sanders led the Iowa defense with 11 tackles. Grant Steen added eight stops and Benny Sapp had seven tackles and an interception. Iowa's defense held Texas Tech to just 80 net rushing yards.

2003 Orange Bowl

Southern California -- 38
Iowa -- 17

January 2, 2003, Orange Bowl, Pro Player Stadium, Miami, FL

Iowa	10	0	0	7	17
Southern Cal	7	3	14	14	38

GAME RECAP

Southern Cal's big second half lifted the Trojans past Iowa, 38-17 in the 2003 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa, which saw its nine-game winning streak come to an end, completed the season with an 11-2 overall record and an eighth place ranking in the final polls.

Hawkeye C.J. Jones opened the game by returning the kickoff an Orange Bowl record 100 yards, giving Iowa an early 7-0 lead. The Trojans quickly answered with a four-play, 79-yard drive that ended with a Justin Fargas four-yard run.

Iowa and USC each added 35-yard field goals before the half. Iowa had an opportunity to take the lead, but a seven-play, 41-yard drive stalled on the USC one-yard line as the half ended and USC blocked an Iowa field goal attempt on the final play.

USC controlled the second half by scoring touchdowns on its first three possessions. USC's defense stifled the Hawkeyes.

Heisman Trophy winning QB Carson Palmer led USC by completing 21 of 31 passes for 303 yards and one touchdown. He was named the Orange Bowl MVP. Fargas became only the second Hawkeye opponent to eclipse 100 rushing yards as he gained 122 in 20 attempts. His rushing numbers included a 50-yard scoring scamper that marked the longest run against the Iowa defense all season.

QB Brad Banks completed 15-36 passes for 204 yards and one touchdown. Banks threw 103 consecutive passes without an interception before USC's Jason Leach picked one off in the fourth quarter. Banks also rushed eight times for 36 yards. His 423 rushing yards is an Iowa record for quarterbacks in a season.

WR Maurice Brown and TE Dallas Clark led the Iowa receivers. Brown had six receptions for 63 yards and a touchdown, while Clark tallied four receptions for 97 yards. Brown's 18-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter broke the school record for TD receptions in a season.

Jones ran back four kickoffs for 169 yards, which is an Orange Bowl record and an Iowa bowl game record for return yards.

Defensive backs Bob Sanders and Derek Pagel led Iowa's defensive unit recording 13 and 10 tackles, respectively. The Iowa defense sacked Palmer four times, which included DE Matt Roth's team-leading 11th sack in the second quarter.

2004 Outback Bowl

Iowa -- 37
Florida -- 17

January 1, 2004, Raymond James Stadium, Tampa, FL

Iowa	7	13	14	3	37
Florida	7	0	3	7	17

GAME RECAP

After falling behind 7-0 in the first quarter, Iowa scored 27 unanswered points en route to a 37-17 triumph over No. 17 Florida in the 2004 Outback Bowl. The victory was Iowa's first over the Gators and its first January bowl win since the 1959 Rose Bowl. After allowing an early Florida touchdown, Iowa scored on three of its next four possessions to end the half.

WR Maurice Brown caught a three-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Chandler to even the game at 7-7 late in the first quarter. PK Nate Kaeding converted a 47-yard field goal to give Iowa the lead, and the Hawkeyes followed with a Chandler five-yard scoring run. A 32-yard Kaeding field goal gave Iowa a 20-7 halftime lead.

Iowa maintained momentum in the second half after holding Florida to a three-and-out on its first possession. Matt Melloy blocked the Florida punt and also recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. It marked the first time in Iowa bowl history that a Hawkeye player both blocked and recovered a punt for a touchdown.

The Gators added a field goal on their next possession, but two possessions later Iowa RB Fred Russell, who was named Outback Bowl MVP, scampered 34 yards for a touchdown to give Iowa a commanding 34-10 advantage. Kaeding added a 38-yard field goal to end Iowa's scoring.

Russell finished with 204 all-purpose yards. He carried the ball 21 times for 150 yards and one touchdown and returned three kickoffs for 54 yards. Chandler completed 13-25 passes for 170 yards, one passing touchdown, one rushing score and no interceptions. Brown caught six passes for 96 yards and one score.

Defensively, Iowa held the Gators to an Outback Bowl record-low 57 rushing yards, marking the eighth time in 2003 that the Hawkeyes held their opponents to 75 yards or less on the ground. DB Sean Considine collected a game-high nine tackles (three solo, six assists). LB Abdul Hodge registered eight stops (three solo, five assists). DT Tyler Luebke, DE Matt Roth and DE Howard Hodges each recorded one sack.

2005 Capital One Bowl

Iowa -- 30
Louisiana State -- 25

January 1, 2005, Florida Citrus Bowl, Orlando, FL

LSU	0	12	0	13	25
Iowa	7	7	3	13	30

GAME RECAP

Fifth-year senior Warren Holloway caught an improbable 56-yard game-winning touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate as time expired to lift Iowa to a thrilling 30-25 triumph over 11th-ranked LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. The 56-yard bomb on the final play was arguably the best finish in bowl history. The reception was Holloway's first career touchdown.

Iowa grabbed an early 7-0 lead when Tate connected with WR Clinton Solomon on a 57-yard score on its first possession. The 57-yarder tied Iowa's longest touchdown reception in a bowl game (Dave Moritz from Chuck Long in the 1982 Peach Bowl). LSU cut the Hawkeye lead to 7-6 on a pair of field goals midway through the second quarter. Iowa extended its lead to 14-6 when Miguel Merrick blocked a punt and Sean Considine returned the ball seven yards for a touchdown. The Tigers answered on their next possession with a 74-yard touchdown run, but failed to convert the extra point.

PK Kyle Schlicher scored the only points of the third quarter on a 19-yard field goal to stretch Iowa's lead to 17-12. RB Marques Simmons scored on a four-yard run with 12:48 remaining to give the Hawkeyes a 24-12 advantage. LSU rallied with a pair of touchdown passes to WR Skyler Green (22 and three yards) as the Tigers took their first lead of the game, 25-24, with 46 seconds left.

Tate drove Iowa to the 44-yard line before throwing the pass to Holloway as the final seconds clicked off the clock. The victory gave Iowa its 10th win of the year, marking the third straight season the Hawkeyes have collected 10 wins or more.

Tate was named the Capital One Bowl MVP, while DL Jonathan Babineaux was recognized as Iowa's Defensive MVP. Tate completed 20-32 passes for 287 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes of 56 and 57 yards marked the first time an Iowa quarterback has tossed two touchdowns over 50 yards in a bowl game.

WR Ed Hinkel caught a career and game-high 10 passes for 93 yards, one reception shy of an Iowa bowl record. Solomon caught four passes for 81 yards and one score, while Holloway caught four passes for 72 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Iowa recorded 10 tackles for loss, including five sacks. LB Abdul Hodge racked up a game-high 15 tackles (10 solo), including 2.5 sacks. LB Chad Greenway tallied nine tackles (seven solo), including one for loss. Babineaux registered seven tackles (five solo), including 4.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. Additionally, the Hawkeyes' special teams blocked two punts, including returning one for a touchdown.

Iowa finished the season ranked eighth for the third consecutive year. The Hawkeyes finished in the top 10 three straight seasons for only the second time ever (1956-58).

GAME RECAP

Florida scored the game's first 17 points and held off a late Iowa surge to defeat the Hawkeyes 31-24 in the 2006 Outback Bowl at Tampa, FL.

The Gators blocked and returned an Iowa punt for a score on Iowa's first possession to take a 7-0 advantage. Florida then added a 21-yard field goal and returned an interception 60 yards to take a 17-0 lead with 1:57 left in the first half.

Florida added a 38-yard touchdown pass for the only score of the third quarter, but Iowa rallied to score 17 fourth-quarter points to make for an exciting finish. WR Ed Hinkel caught touchdown passes of four and 14 yards from Tate, while PK Kyle Schlicher converted a 45-yard field goal to cut the Florida lead to 34-21 with 1:24 left.

Texas outscored Iowa 23-10 in the final three periods en route to a 26-24 Alamo Bowl victory over the Hawkeyes in front of a bowl-record 65,875 fans in the Alamodome.

Iowa sprinted out of the gates, scoring touchdowns on its first two possessions. RB Albert Young scored on a one-yard run and WR Andy Brodell caught a 63-yard touchdown pass from QB Drew Tate. The 63-yard pass is the longest TD pass in Iowa bowl history. After a Texas field goal, Iowa looked to stretch its lead to 21-3 on a nine-yard touchdown reception by TE Scott Chandler, but a flag negated the score. Texas intercepted a Tate pass in the end zone on the very next play. The Longhorns took advantage of Iowa's misfortune and turned the turnover in seven points. Iowa took a 14-10 lead into the half.

The Longhorns scored the next 10 points on a 43-yard field goal and a 72-yard touchdown pass to grab a 20-14 advantage midway through the third period. Iowa quickly answered with a four-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 23-yard touchdown reception by Brodell.

Texas responded with a touchdown on the following possession to go up 26-21. Iowa added a PK Kyle Schlicher 38-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 26-24. The Longhorns became the first team to win the Alamo Bowl when trailing at the half.

Tate completed 15-25 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Brodell tied an Iowa bowl record with two touchdown receptions and matched a career high with 159 receiving yards on six receptions. Furthermore, the 159 yards is an Alamo Bowl receiving record, besting Michigan's Amani Toomer's 135 yards set in 1995.

Texas QB Colt McCoy was named the Most Outstanding Offensive Player. McCoy completed 26-40 passes for 308 yards and two scores.

Four Hawkeyes recorded seven tackles or more. DB Miguel Merrick had a team-high eight tackles. DB Charles Godfrey and LB Ed Miles each were credited with seven stops.

NATIONAL AWARDS

Throughout the years, a number of Iowa football players have been honored by winning national awards for their outstanding play on the football field. The individual awards earned by the 2002 and 2003 Hawkeye football program are unprecedented in the history of Iowa football as four individual earned national awards.

In 2008, Running back Shonn Greene won the Doak Walker Award, which is given annually to the nation's top collegiate running back. Greene was also tabbed the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year and he became Iowa's second consensus all-American running back.

Offensive tackle Robert Gallery, in 2003, was the recipient of the Outland Trophy, which goes to the best interior lineman in college football. Gallery was named the Big Ten Lineman of the Year and he was a consensus all-American. He is the third Hawkeye player to earn the Outland Trophy.

PK Nate Kaeding earned the Lou Groza Award as the top kicker in the nation in 2002 as a junior. He also earned consensus all-America honors in 2003 and was one of three finalists for the Groza Award as a senior.

Also in 2002, Dallas Clark earned the John Mackey Award as the top tight end in the nation and QB Brad Banks was recognized with the Davey O'Brien Award as the top signal caller in the nation.

Along with having three players earn Player of the Year awards for their positions (QB Brad Banks, TE Dallas Clark and PK Nate Kaeding) in 2002, Iowa had a total of 11 players earn first team all-Big Ten honors. In addition to earning the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback, Banks was named Associated Press National Player of the Year, placed second in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. Banks was also a finalist for the Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year.

Center Bruce Nelson in 2002 was a finalist for the Rimington Award, which goes to the top center in the nation, while Clark and OL Eric Steinbach earned consensus all-America honors. The 2002 and 2003 seasons marked just the third and fourth seasons in which Iowa has had more than one consensus selection. Steinbach, in 2002, preceded Gallery as the Big Ten Lineman of the Year.

In addition to the player honors, Coach Kirk Ferentz in 2002 was named national Coach of The Year by the Walter Camp Foundation and the Associated Press. The American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected Ron Aiken as the 2002 national Assistant Coach of the Year.

Ferentz repeated as the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2004 as Iowa earned its second title in three seasons. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the Broyles Award, which recognizes the nation's top Division I assistant coach and five Hawkeye players earned first team all-Big Ten recognition.

Nile Kinnick Heisman Award Acceptance Speech

"Thank you very, very, kindly, Mr. Holcombe. It seems to me that everyone is letting their superlatives run away with them this evening, but none the less, I want you to know that I'm mighty, mighty, happy to accept this trophy this evening.

Every football player in these United States dreams about winning that trophy, and of this fine trip to New York. Every player considers that trophy the acme in recognition of this kind. And the fact that I am actually receiving this trophy tonight almost overwhelms me, and I know that all of those boys who have gone before me must have felt somewhat the same way.

From my own personal viewpoint, I consider my winning this award as indirectly, a great tribute to the coaching staff at the University of Iowa, headed by Dr. Eddie Anderson, and to my teammates sitting back in Iowa City. A finer man and a better coach never hit these United States, and a finer bunch of boys, never graced the gridirons of the Midwest, than that Iowa team in 1939. I wish that they might all be with me tonight to receive this trophy. They certainly deserve it.

I want to take this grand opportunity to thank collectively, all the sportswriters and all the sportscasters, and all those who have seen fit, have seen their way clear to cast a ballot in my favor for this trophy. And I also want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Prince and his committee, the Heisman award committee, and all those connected with the Downtown Athletic Club for this trophy, and for the fine time that they're showing me. And not only for that, but for making this fine and worthy trophy available to the football players of this country.

Finally, if you will permit me, I'd like to make a comment which in my mind, is indicative, perhaps, of the greater significance of football, and sports emphasis in general in this country, and that is, I thank God I was warring on the gridirons of the Midwest, and not on the battlefields of Europe. I can speak confidently and positively that the players of this country, would much more, much rather struggle and fight to win the Heisman award, than the Croix de Guerre.

Thank you."

IOWA TV APPEARANCES

Iowa football has been a popular choice for football fans, as Iowa's attendance figures would indicate. But the Hawkeyes have also been a favorite for television viewers as well, as nearly all of Iowa's football games in recent seasons have been selected for television. Iowa was televised on five different networks in 2008.

All Iowa games during the 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 seasons were televised, with 53 games being carried to a national audience. All 12 of Iowa's regular season games during the 2009 season will again be televised. The Hawkeyes have a 153-113-7 overall television record.

Floyd of Rosedale

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tensions between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation.

After Iowa lost the 1935 game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of BlueBoy from Will Rogers’ movie State Fair. Olson gave the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd’s image.

The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high. Floyd currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa’s 55-0 victory last season in Minneapolis, MN. Minnesota holds a 39-33-2 advantage in the series with Floyd of Rosedale on the line.

The winning university is entitled to keep the trophy until it loses the annual battle.

Cy-Hawk Trophy

When The University of Iowa resumed its football series with Iowa State in 1977, the Des Moines Athletic Club donated a trophy to be awarded to the winner of the annual in-state battle.

The Cy-Hawk Trophy features a football player in the classic running back pose, and also includes a likeness of both Herky the Hawkeye and Cy the Cardinal on the front of the trophy.

The Hawkeyes hold a 37-20 advantage in the series that began in 1894, including a 21-10 margin since 1977 when the Cy-Hawk Trophy was first awarded. The Cy-Hawk Trophy currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa’s 17-5 triumph in Kinnick Stadium last season.

---

Heartland Trophy

The Heartland Trophy was inaugurated in 2004 and goes each year to the winner of the football battle between Iowa and Wisconsin.

The trophy was designed and crafted by artist and former Iowa football player Frank Strub. The trophy, which is a bull mounted on a walnut base (native to both Wisconsin and Iowa), has been inscribed with the scores of all games in the long-time series. The teams have met 84 times, with the series tied, 41-41-2.

Iowa owns a 3-2 advantage over Wisconsin, since the introduction of the Heartland Trophy in 2004. The trophy currently resides in Iowa City as a result of Iowa’s 38-16 victory in Kinnick Stadium a year ago.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago.

The name Hawkeye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism.

The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth over 50 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since then Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletic events.

Kinnick Stadium, home for the Iowa football team, is in its 80th season of hosting Hawkeye football games. One of the 25 largest college-owned stadiums in the nation and one of college football's finest facilities, Kinnick Stadium is routinely filled on Saturdays each fall.

A two-year, $89 million restoration and renovation project for the stadium was completed prior to the start of the 2006 season. The project, which was the largest such undertaking ever for Iowa athletics, includes an entirely new south end zone and a new press and hospitality facility. The end zone project, which included new lockerrooms, training room and media facilities for the Hawkeye football team on game days, was completed prior to the 2005 season. The new four-level press and hospitality facility opened for the 2006 season. The facility extends the full length of the west side of the stadium. It includes 47 private viewing suites and over 1,000 club seats.

The renovation also provides a new entry plaza to the south entrance, wider seats throughout most of the stadium, new and upgraded restroom facilities and concession areas, new scoreboards and a modernized sound system. It also raised the official capacity of Kinnick Stadium to 70,585.

Iowa draws sellout crowds for a majority of all home games, including 36 of its last 37 games in the last six seasons. Iowa had a sellout streak of 36 snapped in its 2008 home finale vs. Purdue (Nov. 15, 2008).

The Hawkeyes annually rank among the top 25 schools in the nation in home attendance. Iowa ranked 22nd in home attendance in 2008 with its average of 70,169. Big Ten Conference football games in 2008 drew 5.4 million fans as the conference annually ranks first or second nationally in home attendance. Conference games a year ago averaged over 70,000 fans per contest.

Construction on the original 53,000-seat stadium was completed Oct. 5, 1929 at a cost of $497,151.42. Original construction took six months, but it has undergone several facelifts since. Seats were added to the south end zone in 1956, raising the capacity to 60,000. The north end zone was enclosed and capacity increased to 66,000 prior to the 1983 season. With three more expansion projects completed since, Kinnick now seats 70,585. Kinnick Stadium has 20 miles of bleacher seats and is 79 rows high on each side.

Beside the expansions, an artificial surface was installed in 1972. That carpet was replaced in 1981. Prior to the 1989 season a natural grass playing field, Prescription Athletic Turf, was installed. The playing surface was replaced with new sod prior to the 1997 season and during the 2005 season.

This past spring and summer the playing surface was replaced, again, this time with state-of-the-art Field Turf.

The original five-floor press box was constructed in 1958 at a cost of $490,628.62, and was located between the 25-yard lines on the west side of the stadium. Between 1995 and 1999, the Kinnick Stadium press box underwent a $3 million improvement and renovation project, which included the addition of 18 private viewing suites and the remodeling of all five levels. The original press box was demolished in December 2005.

Spectators attending home games of the Iowa Hawkeyes enjoy all the benefits of watching a game on television, thanks to the installation of all new video boards and scoreboards in 2005. The large scale video display units offer spectators live game action, instant replays and other features, such as highlights from other college football games being played across the nation. A complete new sound system was also installed.

Kinnick Stadium has a rich history, beginning with a 46-0 Hawkeye win over Monmouth in the facility's first game. The Hawkeyes tied Illinois 7-7 in the dedication game Oct. 19, 1929.

In 1972, the name was changed from Iowa Stadium to Kinnick Stadium in honor of Iowa's 1939 Heisman Trophy winner, Nile Kinnick. His No. 24 jersey was retired by the school because of his success as a scholar-athlete at the University.

Iowa's all-time record in Kinnick Stadium is 242-162-15. Iowa's longest home winning streak of 22 games spanned the 2002 to 2005 seasons. The Hawkeyes have had 11 undefeated home seasons, including both 2003 and 2004. Iowa posted a 4-2 home record in 2007, 4-3 mark in 2006, 5-1 mark in 2005 and 6-1 records in 2002 and 2008.

The school's all-time home attendance record was set in 2006 (494,095 fans). The 2005, 2006 and 2007 average of 70,585 are a school record. Iowa's record season attendance mark for all games is 905,840 set in 1990, a 75,487 per game average.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Now in its 12th season, the Bowl Championship series was established to determine a champion for college football while maintaining and enhancing the bowl system which has provided significant support to college football for nearly a century. The BCS is a showcase for the sport, matching the premier teams in top bowl games. The Big Ten Conference is a key component in the championship agreement.

The Bowls and the Teams

The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In addition to the Big Ten, the Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big East, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences also have automatic berths for their champions into one of the four contests.

Each bowl will host two games once every four years -- its traditional game plus a national championship contest approximately one week after the New Year.

This season the national championship game will be played Jan. 7 in Pasadena, CA. FOX-TV will televise three of the Bowl Championship Series games (Fiesta, Orange, Sugar) and the national title game, while ABC-TV continues to televise the Rose Bowl.

Eligibility

Any Bowl Subdivision independent team, or champion of the Western Athletic Conference, Conference USA, Mountain West Conference or any other Bowl Subdivision Conference, which ranks No. 6 or higher in the BCS standings, also will be eligible for the Bowl Championship Series.

Otherwise, any Bowl Subdivision team can qualify for selection in the BCS if it has won at least nine football games during the most recently completed regular season (not to include wins in exempted games) and is ranked in the top 12 of the final BCS standings.

Team Selection

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Hardware

The Waterford Crystal football that sits atop the Sears Trophy takes an artisan three months to create. The Sears Trophy is part of the Sears Collegiate Champion Program – a comprehensive trophy and academic scholarship program which recognizes both men's and women's sports equally.

Sears, Roebuck and Co. and the AFCA also present a $20,000 academic scholarship to the school that wins the Sears Trophy. The scholarship is earmarked for an outstanding freshman who does not participate in intercollegiate athletics. In total, more than 2,200 trophies and more than a quarter of a million dollars in academic scholarships are awarded to NCAA Division I, II and III and NAIA institutions annually.

The Iowa Hawkeyes play their home football games in Kinnick Stadium (capacity 70,585), located on the west campus in the heart of the University's athletic complex. It is a few minutes drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and is less than 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The Paul J. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick is on the west side and accessible by elevator or stairs. The completely new facility is named in honor of the former UI athletic director (1947-60). It was recently completed as part of the two-year, $89 million renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

The four-level facility extends from goal line to goal line. The media section, including the press section and radio and television booths, and game management operations, are located on the fourth level. Level one includes private suites and indoor club seating, level two includes outdoor club seating and level three is private suites.

Refreshments and snacks are available throughout each game and a pre-game meal is served for the media.

Season and single-game credential requests for Iowa football must now be requested online. Please contact Theresa Walenta (theresa-walenta@uiowa.edu) for instructions. Season requests must be received by August 15 to assure a season seat in the press box.

Once a credential request is submitted, you will receive an automatic reply stating that your request has been received. You will receive another notification when your request has been approved or denied. Credentials will be mailed if the request is received 10 days prior to a game. Credentials may also be picked up in the Sports Information Office on the Friday prior to game day or left at the media will call gate (Gate I) at Kinnick Stadium on game day.

Reporters may not use a credential to cover the game for another newspaper, TV station, radio or internet site. Failure to comply will result in both agencies credentials being revoked for the entire season.

Parking

Requests for parking should be made when requesting credentials. Media parking is located in the parking ramp at the northeast corner of Kinnick Stadium, at the corner of Hawkins Drive and Stadium Drive.

Media Entrance

Members of the media are encouraged to enter Kinnick Stadium at the northeast corner of the stadium (near the old Iowa lockerroom entrance) and proceed through the north and west concourses to elevator F, located at the midway point of the west stands. The media may also enter through Gate I on the west side of Kinnick and proceed to elevator F.

Photo credentials must be requested following the same guidelines as mentioned above. A photographer's room is located at the northwest corner of Kinnick Stadium. Photo credentials must be presented in order to receive an armband for sideline photography. Entrance to the photo room is through the tunnel in the middle of the west concourse. From the playing field, the photo room may be accessed through the tunnel at the Northwest corner of the field.

Television stations are not allowed to video tape from the press box. A video splitter board is available in the photo room for all TV stations to receive the overhead video provided by Iowa's football video department (or the network midfield camera). TV camera personnel on the sidelines must adhere to all sideline policies.

Services

Both head coaches are available (in different areas) following the cooling off period, with player interviews to follow. Coach Ferentz's post game comments are televised on the monitors throughout the Kinnick Stadium press box and quotes from both head coaches are distributed with the final statistical packets.

The Hawkeye Radio Network

Fans of the University of Iowa following the Hawkeyes on radio can tune in on their favorite station throughout the state of Iowa and the Midwest.

The radio voice of the Hawkeyes is Gary Dolphin, a Cascade, IA native who handles all play-by-play action of both Iowa football and men's basketball throughout the season. In addition, Dolphin also serves as the host of the weekly coaches shows during the season with football Coach Kirk Ferentz and men's basketball Coach Todd Lickliter. Dolphin, in 2001, was named the Iowa Sportscaster of the Year. He is in his 14th year of broadcasting Iowa football and basketball on the Hawkeye Radio Network. Dolphin, overall, is in his 37th year of play-by-play broadcasting. That includes seven years of broadcasting basketball games for Northwestern University.

Dolphin is joined on all University of Iowa football broadcasts by former Hawkeye and NFL great Ed Podolak. A native of Atlantic, IA, Podolak was a three-year letterman for the Hawkeyes (1966-68) as a quarterback and running back before his lengthy professional career with the Kansas City Chiefs. Iowa's sideline reporter is Rob Brooks, son of Hall of Fame broadcaster, Bob Brooks.

The Hawkeye Radio Network, a production of Learfield Communications, Inc. of Jefferson City, MO, blankets the state of Iowa and bordering states with more than 50 stations providing live coverage. The Hawkeyes can also be heard on the world wide web (hawkeyesports.com) and Sirius XM Satellite radio.
