The year 2006 brought a new coach with a new attitude to the Iowa Hawkeye soccer team. After a 2006 season that saw the Hawkeyes win more games than the previous two seasons combined, Head Coach Ron Rainey returns for his second season at the helm of the Hawkeyes. Experience will be a factor, as nine seniors and 20 letterwinners return for the 2007 campaign.

"Our seniors have played a lot of games," Rainey said. "We are figuring out how hard we have to work day in and day out to be successful and win matches."

New additions to the roster include nine freshmen, some of whom Rainey believes will contribute immediately.

"Some of the freshmen coming in will have important roles on this year's team," Rainey said. "There will be competition at some spots and we will see what they can do at the beginning of fall camp."

Rainey retains all of his assistant coaches from a year ago in Eric Golz, Eileen Narcotta and volunteer assistant Stacy Welp.

After spending his first season as an assistant last year with the Hawkeyes, Golz came from Bowling Green where he served as an assistant for two seasons. He helped guide the Falcons to their first MAC regular season and tournament titles along with two NCAA tournament berths in 2004 and 2005.

Narcotta was an assistant coach with Rainey for four seasons at Ball State. She helped the Cardinals to a 15-3-2 record in 2005 and has coached two goalkeepers to all-MAC honors.

Welp brings many years of experience to the team, including over 15 years of coaching at the collegiate level.

With the depth and experience on this Hawkeye roster, Rainey believes there is much more room for improvement.

"Our goal is to be more competitive," said Rainey, who holds a career 96-76-23 record. "I have a lot of confidence in this team. The newcomers we have coming in this fall combined with the players we already have on our roster have the potential to excel in the Big Ten."

Goalkeepers

In 2007, the Hawkeyes will carry five goalkeepers, three of which will be true freshmen. Returning is senior Lindsey Boldt, who started five games a year ago, as well as sophomore Erica Clausen.

Despite depth at the position, Rainey believes goalkeeper will be the biggest personnel question mark heading into fall camp.

"Lindsey certainly has the most experience of the group," Rainey said. "Incoming freshman Kali Feiereisel has a lot of club experience under her belt. There may be others who step up and surprise us but we want to find some stability at the position. The starter spot is really wide open."

Defenders

The defense got organized and took a big step last year for the Hawkeyes, as they gave up 28 less goals in 2006 than were scored on the Hawkeyes in 2005. For the second year in a row, the Hawkeyes return the entire back line, including seniors Sarah Stephenson, Claire Goldenberg, Abby Gierke and Megan Love.

"Our defense can get better," Rainey said. "We expect our seniors to lead the defense and consolidate the improvements we made last season".

A wildcard on defense is junior Katie Smeltzer, whose status for the 2007 season is in question after a knee surgery. More emphasis may be placed on newcomers to provide depth, including freshman Jenna Aleo, who could see a lot of the field in her first season.

Midfielders

Anchoring the midfield is 2006 team Most Valuable Player Kelsey Shaw, who finished the season with five points while starting all 19 games a year ago. The junior-to-be was also named the team's Offensive MVP and will be relied upon heavily in the middle of the field.

Junior Kelly Warner, who made the transition to midfield from defense in 2006, will likely be starting next to Shaw. Redshirt sophomore Jackie Kaeding, who missed last season due to injury, will provide more depth and athleticism at the position. Also competing for minutes will be sophomores Katie Smokowski and Alexandria Seydel, who started every game as a freshman last season.

"It definitely helps having players back who got a ton of playing time in the fall," Rainey said. "We're lucky to have Jackie back and Kelsey, Kelly, Katie and Alex give us players with some game experience."

Forwards

The Hawkeyes will return three starters from last year's team who will be depended on to create scoring opportunities. Junior Stephanie Hyink, who led the Hawkeyes in points last season (eight), will be joined by seniors Kelsie Full (seven points) and Melisa Kaeterhenry (four points) in leading the offensive attack. Freshman Keli McLaughlin will also challenge for playing time immediately.

"One of our main goals is to create more scoring opportunities," Rainey said. "Our forwards are very good at running at people and we look for them to have more composure when they are finishing in order to turn shots into goals."

Head Coach Ron Rainey

Ron Rainey

Head Coach
Second Season

Ron Rainey is in his second year as head coach of the Hawkeyes, as he earned a 6-11-2 record last year.

Rainey joined the Hawkeyes from Ball State University, where he served as the school's head coach since the program's inaugural season in 1999. Under his tutelage, the Cardinals posted a 70-52-17 record in seven seasons.

Ball State showed swift improvement under Rainey's guidance, and amassed a 62-25-14 record in his last five years. In 2001, he coached the third-year program to a 12-6-2 mark and was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year. In 2005, Rainey guided Ball State to a 15-3-2 record and advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament for the fifth-consecutive year.

Before starting the program at Ball State, Rainey served as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa for the first two seasons of the Hawkeye program (1997-98). In Iowa's first year of varsity soccer, Rainey and the Hawkeyes were named the No. 1 first-year program by Soccer Buzz Magazine.

Prior to his stint with Iowa, Rainey was the head women's coach at Towson State University for one year, where his team was 10-7-2 and won the America East Tournament. He has also served as an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati (1995-96), and head coach and sports information director at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside (1994-1995), where his first year team finished with a 10-6-2 record. Rainey was also the graduate assistant coach at Trenton State College (1992-94).

Outside the collegiate ranks, Rainey has served as a regional staff coach for the Region II Girls Olympic Development Program every summer since 1994. He received his United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" License in 1996 and his "B" License in 1995. He has also written articles for leading soccer publications such as Soccer Coaching Magazine and presented at numerous coaching clinics around the Midwest.

Rainey graduated from Wilkes University in 1992 with degrees in Mathematics and English. He went on to get his Master of Education degree from Trenton State College in 1994.

As a player, Rainey was a two-time captain and team MVP for Wilkes University. In 1990, he was a second team National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) all-region pick.

Assistant Coaches

Eric Golz

Assistant Coach
Second Season

Eric Golz is in his second season as an assistant coach at Iowa.

Before joining the Hawkeyes, Golz served as an assistant coach at Bowling Green State for two seasons and was promoted to top assistant in 2005. In 2005, Golz helped the Falcons to a 14-7-2 record which included the first MAC regular-season title in school history. Bowling Green also won the MAC Tournament and earned a bid to the NCAA Championships.

Golz was a volunteer assistant during the 2004 season and helped the Falcons to their first Mid-American Conference Tournament title in school history and an NCAA Tournament berth. Golz coached both the 2005 MAC Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year while at Bowling Green, and served as academic and recruiting coordinator. Golz helped recruit the No. 1 ranked incoming class in the MAC for the 2006 season. The class was also ranked 10th in the Great Lakes Region and 70th nationally by Soccer Buzz magazine.

Golz, who will be working with field players with the Hawkeyes, also spent time with the Greater Toledo Futbol Club and Westminster College men's soccer team. He has also worked with the Ohio North Olympic Development Program and is also on the USYSA Region II Girls staff, which helps identify, train and evaluate girls from a 14-state region to participate in both national and international competitions.

Golz graduated from Grove City College, PA, in 2002 with a degree in finance and was an all-conference goalkeeper. He has earned his United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" License and owns a Level 1 goalkeeping License from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Eileen Narcotta

Assistant Coach
Second Season

Eileen Narcotta is in her second season as an assistant coach for the Hawkeyes.

Narcotta joined the Iowa program from Ball State, where she was an assistant coach with Ron Rainey for four seasons. While at Ball State, Narcotta was in charge of coaching goalkeepers and defenders, while assisting in practice planning and recruiting. In 2005, Narcotta helped the Cardinals to a 15-3-2 record and advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament for the fifth-consecutive year. She has coached two goalkeepers to all-MAC honors, including Ali Becker, who transferred to Iowa from Ball State and finished his playing career last season. Narcotta also coached Becker to NSCAA All-Great Lakes region honors.

Narcotta received her masters in sports administration from Ball State in 2006. She graduated from Vermont in 2000 with a degree in nutritional and food sciences and was a member of the Vermont soccer team for five seasons. She was an assistant at Vermont for one season before accepting an assistant coaching at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, ME, in August of 2000.

SOCCER

Iowa Soccer Complex

The playing surface at the Iowa Soccer Complex is arguably the best in the Big Ten.

The Hawkeyes won their first night game in school history with a 2-1 overtime triumph against Idaho on September 13, 2002.

The Iowa Soccer Complex allows fans to watch matches from either the grandstands or hillsides around the complex.

The Iowa Soccer Complex has been the home of Hawkeye Soccer for six years. The complex is equipped with lights, grandstands and an enclosed press box. The field is also fenced in and contains a professional irrigation and drainage system. The home of the Hawkeyes is truly one of the best collegiate soccer facilities in the nation.

Construction of the new soccer practice facility was completed in the spring of 2006 . The new practice facility includes a fenced enclosed, full field pitch with nets surrounding each end and an on-site equipment storage building. The practice field is also equipped with a professional irrigation and drainage system.

Locker Room

The Hawkeyes broke in a new locker room during the 2006 season. Iowa's locker room is a part of the Tennis-Recreation Center, located within walking distance to both the practice facility and the Iowa Soccer Complex. The Hawkeye locker room is equipped with spacious lockers and a lounge area complete with leather chairs and sofas.

Hawkeye Administration

Sally Mason University President

Sally Mason became the 20th President of The University of Iowa on August 1, 2007. She holds a full professorship with tenure in the Department of Biological Sciences of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

President Mason served as Provost of Purdue University from 2001-2007, where she was responsible for planning, managing, and reviewing all academic programs at Purdue's West Lafayette and four affiliated branch campuses throughout Indiana. Her accomplishments as Provost included increasing diversity, recruiting top faculty, doubling the research program, advancing public engagement, and improving the learning environment for students. During President Mason's tenure as Provost, Purdue hired over 800 new faculty, 300 of which were new positions; 56% of those hires were women and/or minorities. She also formed a diversity leadership group while at Purdue. President Mason was instrumental in the development of Purdue's Discovery Park, an interdisciplinary research incubator focused on such topics as nanotechnology, entrepreneurship, and biosciences.

The daughter of an immigrant family and the first child to attend college, President Mason received her B.S. in zoology from The University of Kentucky in 1972, her M.S. from Purdue University in 1974, and her Ph.D. in cellular, molecular, and developmental biology from The University of Arizona in 1978. She subsequently spent two years at Indiana University in Bloomington doing postdoctoral research before joining The University of Kansas in 1981. A strong advocate of undergraduate education, she received awards for outstanding undergraduate advising and teaching, and she was awarded a prestigious Kemper Teaching Fellowship. During her 21 years at Kansas, President Mason served as a full professor in the Department of Molecular Biosciences, Acting Chair of the Department of Physiology and Cell Biology, and Associate Dean in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. In 1995, she was appointed Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the largest academic unit on the University of Kansas campus.

President Mason is the author of many scientific papers and has obtained a number of research grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the Wesley Research Foundation, and the Lilly Endowment. Her research interests have focused on the developmental biology, genetics, and biochemistry of pigment cells and pigments in the skin of vertebrates. She has served as President of both the PanAmerican Society for Pigment Cell Research and the Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences, and has served as Chair of the Advisory Committee to the National Science Foundation Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR) and the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC) Chief Academic Officers Group. She also served on the Executive Committee of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) from 2003-2007 and was appointed to the National Medal of Science Selection Committee from 2006-2008.

President Mason is married to Ken Mason, an educator and textbook author who teaches biological sciences at The University of Iowa.

Gary Barta Director of Athletics

Gary Barta is beginning his second year as Athletic Director at The University of Iowa. He became the University's 11th Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on August 1, 2006. He succeeded Robert Bowsby, who left after 15 years at Iowa to take over the program at Stanford.

A native Midwesterner, Barta signed a five-year contract to lead one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation. His wife Connie is a native of Waterloo, Iowa. The two met while Barta was an Assistant Athletic Director at Northern Iowa.

Barta has already put his stamp on Hawkeye Athletics during his first year in Iowa City. He oversaw the final stages of the $86 million renovation at Kinnick Stadium and the new Paul W. Brechler Press Box. He officially opened Iowa's new Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center. In the spring of 2007 he hired new Head Men's Basketball Coach Todd Lickliter from Butler University. Lickliter's hiring came on the heels of his team's Sweet 16 appearance and his being named the NABC Division I Coach of the Year. Basketball experts from around the country are touting this as an outstanding hire.

Several other initiatives were set in motion during Barta's first year. An Athletic Department Strategic Plan has been launched mapping out the vision and goals for the future. Plans are underway to build a new $6.1 million boathouse for the rowing program. Construction begins this fall on a new Campus Wellness and Recreation Center which includes a first-class aquatic center. It will serve as the new home to the Hawkeye men and women's swimming teams. Carver-Hawkeye Arena is in the early planning stage of a $30-$40 million renovation that will add a practice facility, improve the fan experience, and renovate and add office space. In addition to facilities, the Strategic Plan lays out goals for academic achievement, championship success, fiscal growth, and overall student-athlete, coach, and staff performance.

Barta has over 20 years of university and athletic administration experience. Before taking over at Iowa he had been the Wyoming Athletic Director since October of 2003. From November 1996 to October 2003, he was Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Relations and Sports Programs at the University of Washington in Seattle. From 1990 to 1996, he was associated with the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, where he was the Director of Athletic Development and External Relations. He also served as Associate Director of Development at North Dakota State University in Fargo, from 1988-90, where he was involved in fund-raising for athletics, the colleges of business and engineering, and the University's annual fund.

Wyoming received the NCAA Division IA Program of Excellence Award in 2006 during Barta's tenure there, which honors athletic programs that are superior athletically, academically, and in student-athlete life skills preparation.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (9) and a daughter, Madison (7). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis, MN.

The University of Iowa Athletic Department is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation.

The men's and women's departments, operating separately for over 25 years, merged in 2001. It combined nationally recognized programs for both genders into one successful and progressive unit.

Combining their successes on the playing fields with continued success and recognition in the classroom, UI student-athletes practice and perform in some of the best facilities in the nation. The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best in the country.

While the Hawkeyes continue to compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa continues to boast some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects are underway on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus are the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center and the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center. Construction on the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center will also begin in the fall of 2007.

Kinnick Stadium received a major up-grading and renovation that was completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and new restrooms were also part of the project.

Additional priorities for the Iowa program include the establishment and development of endowments for all sports programs, the continued enhancement of graduation rates, and the implementation of a long-range plan to ensure Iowa's financial, academic and competitive future. As an example, all of Iowa's 13 scholarships for men's basketball are fully endowed.

The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students. Hawkeye athletes have garnered more than 70 academic All-America honors since 1992. The 2006-07 school year saw the University of Iowa produce 125 academic all-Big Ten athletes.

Iowa athletes have been recognized as all-Americans in their sport on 223 occasions during the past 15 years.

Iowa's athletic teams, during the 2006-07 athletic year, continued its trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits.

The Hawkeye football team enjoyed a trip to the 2006 Alamo Bowl, where they faced the defending national champion Texas Longhorns. Iowa followed its 11-2 mark of 2002 with a 10-3 record in 2003 and a 10-2 mark in 2004, finishing each of those seasons ranked eighth nationally.

Iowa's men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to post-season play in six of the last seven seasons. The men's team is in its first season under new Head Coach Todd Lickliter, who was named the 2007 NABC Coach of the Year.

The Iowa wrestling squad crowned an NCAA Champion in Mark Perry last season and three Hawkeyes were named all-Americans. Former Hawkeye three-time NCAA Champion and Olympic Gold Medalist Tom Brands is in his second season as head coach. He is joined on the staff by the legendary Dan Gable, who led Iowa to 15 NCAA titles and 21 Big Ten Championships in his 21 seasons as head coach.

The Iowa field hockey team won three matches in three days to claim the 2006 Big Ten Tournament title and earned an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament. Iowa won a field hockey national title in 1986 and has produced six olympians, 17 national team players, 73 all-Americans and 140 all-Big Ten picks.

The Hawkeye men's cross country team advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third-consecutive year in the fall of 2006, while the men's track team crowned three Big Ten champions and one all-American. The women's cross country team also qualified for the NCAA Championships and had two all-Americans. Women's track and field had five athletes claim Big Ten titles and all-American honors.

Iowa's softball team has been selected to NCAA regional action 11 times in the past 14 seasons. Iowa has advanced to the softball World Series on four occasions over the past 12 seasons and Coach Gayle Blevins is one of three coaches to reach 1,000 career victories.

From the rankings on the court, playing fields, classroom, fan and community support, to the ranking as a program that boasts some of the best athletic facilities in the nation, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."

Iowa has hosted many postseason championships, including the 2005 Big Ten wrestling championships.

Since its inception in 1979, Athletics Student Services has evolved from a two-person, academic support service to a broad-based, nationally prominent student support services operation. Its purpose is to offer academic and personal support services that will assist student-athletes in making timely and satisfactory progress toward their degrees and becoming tomorrow's leaders.

Athletics Student Services focuses on four important areas — academic counseling and monitoring, educational and support programs, retention programs and compliance services — when working with student-athletes. Following are descriptions of some of the programs, services and opportunities available in those areas.

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003.

Athletics Learning Center

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to help them with their educations.

The Athletics Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000 square foot facility which provides a computer center, study areas, classes and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes.

The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes with 28 study carrels, a computer lab, five tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, office space for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

Academic Counseling & Monitoring

Athletics coordinators work closely with student-athletes and their university-assigned advisors from the time they arrive on campus until the time they leave the University. Along with focusing on academic planning matters such as goal-setting, plans of study, choosing majors and degree requirements, athletics coordinators also help student-athletes understand NCAA, Big Ten and University academic policies. They also solicit feedback from instructors on academic progress made by student-athletes.

Transition Seminar

All new student-athletes attend an eight-week transition seminar during the fall semester that is geared toward helping them make the transition from high school to college successfully. Seminar topics include time management skills, learning and study strategies, the culture and rules of the university, and life skills concerning alcohol and other substances, relationships and intimacy, diversity, tolerance, values and character.

Retention

A full-time staff member directs the retention program, which identifies student-athletes who may need tailored academic assistance and structure, and implements individualized learning plans to help them succeed. Such plans may include daily and weekly planning sessions with athletics coordinators and retention staff, tutoring, study groups, mainstreaming into on-campus services like the writing center, math labs and services for students with learning disabilities.

Minority Enrichment Program

This program offers a culturally supportive environment in which minority student-athletes have the opportunity to develop friendships and a support network in the university. A core focus group of students and staff coordinate programs such as guest speakers, holiday celebrations, community service activities with the local neighborhood centers, events with Cultural Centers and networking with minority faculty, staff, professional and business leaders.

CHAMPS/Life Skills

Life skills programs are conducted throughout the year with and for student athletes on quality of life issues critical to personal growth, such as personal accountability, responsible use and nonuse of alcohol, diversity and gambling.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available free of charge to all student-athletes. Tutors, who are post-graduates and teachers, help with course content as well as study strategies and are available in virtually all general education program subjects.

Career Guidance & Development

Planning a meaningful career and a fulfilling life is an ongoing process of expanding and narrowing choices, beginning when student-athletes arrive on campus and continuing throughout their college career and lifetime. The professional staff works with other career development professionals on campus to offer individual consultation, career development seminars, workshops, referrals to other campus offices and special events like the Senior Recognition Banquet for graduating student-athletes.

Compare the Numbers

Iowa's student-athletes have outperformed the University's entire student population each year since the NCAA started requiring a report of student-athlete graduation rates.

Distinguished Alumni

When student-athletes consider their future, they should consider prospects beyond athletics. A list of all University of Iowa alumni who have distinguished themselves professionally would be difficult to assemble and could never be complete. However, some are truly outstanding in their area of expertise.

Athletic Training & Sports Medicine

Continuing to set the standard in athletic training and Sports Medicine Service, The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with exemplary medical care. Athletic Training Services connect student-athletes to University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics (UIHC) resources and specialty areas. Iowa's staff of 10 full-time licensed athletic trainers and 7 graduate assistant licensed athletic trainers provide health care services in five athletic training rooms. These services include evaluation, treatment, injury rehabilitation programs, and prevention programs. With physical conditioning as a major component of a prevention program, the athletic trainers combine with strength and conditioning coaches to pave the way for safe, effective, and enhanced participation in intercollegiate athletics.

Services from the UIHC, one of the world's largest university-owned teaching hospitals, support the efforts of the athletic trainers and other specialty sports medicine staff. Located next to Kinnick Stadium, the hospital offers a cutting-edge environment where staff physicians, sports medicine fellows, sports physical therapists, and athletic trainers care for student-athletes and produce successful outcomes. Dedicated research and education result in outstanding care.

Athletic trainers form a team with orthopaedic and primary care physicians for every Hawkeye sport. Many of the physicians are fellowship trained in their specialty area and lecture locally, nationally, and around the world. In addition each athlete has access to orthotists, nutritionists, psychologists, and specialty physicians at the UIHC. Immediate accessibility to see physicians and other health care professionals provides comprehensive health care that returns the student-athlete to practice and competition.

Recreation Building Athletic Training Room

The Recreation Building Athletic Training Room is used by the Hawkeye baseball, cross country, track and field, tennis and soccer teams. The athletic training staff consists of associate director Doug West, PhD, LAT,

The Recreation Building Athletic Training Room has excellent facilities to conduct evaluations, treatments, and rehabilitation for the student-athlete.

CSCS and three graduate assistant licensed athletic trainers. The training room has excellent facilities to conduct evaluations, treatments, and rehabilitation for the student-athlete. The facility is a spacious room with equipment to enhance cardiopulmonary and strength performance, including ellipticals by Precor, the LeMond independent pedal bike with PowerCranks, and the Keiser Functional Trainer. There are also traditional electrical stimulation, ultrasound, TENS, hydrocollator, and hydrotherapy treatment options. These treatment, rehabilitative and preventive options along with newer technology, like the Hivamat, prepare the Hawkeyes for action and return injured Hawkeyes to competition.

The Hawkeye Strength Training Program

The program is designed to develop strength, explosiveness, speed, coordination, balance and flexibility. All qualities are developed through progression of exercises in four phases of training:

1. work capacity - ability to perform work for a prolonged time and recover quickly
2. strength - ability to exert force
3. power - ability to exert strength quickly
4. speed - ability to move the body in shortest time possible

The highest level of performance is achieved by training under close supervision, in a year-round program. Improvement is monitored closely through the newest and best technology. Electronic timing devices are used to measure sprints, while a microcomputer device is used to monitor peak velocity and power outputs in weight training movements. With this technological support, the athletes are constantly receiving immediate feedback on their development.

Strength & Conditioning Mission

"The mission of our strength and conditioning program is performance enhancement, while reducing the risk of injury through a detailed progression of exercises."

The 1,800-square foot Recreation Building strength training facility is equipped with eight Olympic platforms, squat racks, medicine balls, physio balls and over 10,000 pounds of free weights.

The Iowa City Community

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

As a place to live, Iowa City keeps winning awards and accolades - Named one of the ten most enlightened towns in the country by Utne Reader, listed in the book The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America and selected the number-one place to live in the nation by Editor & Publisher magazine.

Economically, businesses such as Rockwell Collins, American College Testing and Procter & Gamble help keep the city booming. In Coralville, a branch office of Geico Auto Insurance has provided many residents with employment opportunities.

Culturally, Iowa City is alive with concerts, art exhibits, readings, plays and art events of all kinds. Located on the University of Iowa campus, Hancher Auditorium is a nationally-known performance center that brings in the best of Broadway, classical and jazz music, dance and other performances. Residents of Iowa City are not only economically and culturally enriched, they also take advantage of the numerous recreational facilities offered around town. The area's more than 30 parks provide opportunities for year-round activities including boating, hiking, swimming, fishing and skiing.

The city's greatest charm, however, remains the sincere friendliness of its citizens, the cosmopolitan atmosphere and the successful partnership built between the community and the University.

Iowa City is located in eastern Iowa and is an easy trip to such cities as Des Moines (the capital of Iowa), Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Minneapolis. Also, Cedar Rapids, a city of more than 150,000, is just a short drive north of Iowa City. The Eastern Iowa Airport, which links residents to every major airport in the Midwest, nation and world, is only 20 minutes away.

The Coral Ridge Mall is the largest shopping mall in Eastern Iowa.

Old Capitol

One of the most recognizable sites in Iowa City is the gold dome of the Old Capitol which is situated in the heart of downtown. Built in 1840, it is Iowa City's most historic building. The Old Capitol was the site of the first governor inauguration as well as the first six Iowa General Assemblies. It is also where the state's Constitution was drafted. When the capital was moved to Des Moines in 1857, the Old Capitol was dedicated to The University of Iowa, becoming the first building owned by the University.

Coralville Lake

Just north of Iowa City is Coralville Lake, an outdoor recreational area that offers a variety of opportunities for the public. Coralville Lake offers picnic shelters, biking, hiking, fishing, boating, swimming, hunting, camping, snowmobiling, cross country skiing, golf and disc golf.

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them. In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison. Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa. The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky. Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron. During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose Old Gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and Black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

*The word is Fight, Fight,
Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is Fight, Fight
Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring
(Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer
for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.*
