HAWKEYES TOP UL MONROE TUESDAY NIGHT

Iowa put together a balanced offensive attack and had a strong defensive effort in a 68-40 triumph over UL Monroe Tuesday night in Iowa City.

Seven Hawkeyes scored seven points or more in collecting Coach Fran McCaffery's first victory as Iowa's head coach. Freshman Zach McCabe netted double figures for the second straight game, scoring a team-high 12 points. Head Coach Fran McCaffery

Fran McCaffery is in his first season as the head basketball coach at the University of Iowa and his 15th year overall as a college head coach. McCaffery spent five seasons (2005-10) as the head coach at Siena, six years at UNC-Greensboro (1999-2005) and three seasons at Lehigh (1985-88) before joining the Hawkeyes.

McCaffery has nearly three decades of Division I coaching experience. He is in his 29th season as a collegiate coach, 15 years as a head coach and 14 as an assistant.

McCaffery, 50, holds a career mark of 252-178 (.586) and guided his teams to six postseason appearances (five NCAA, one NIT). He is 1-1 (.500) at Iowa.

McCaffery's five years at Siena were the best in its 70-year history. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title the last three years.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 (.687) record in his five years with the program. He guided the Saints to four consecutive 20-win seasons, something that has never been accomplished before at the Siena.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year and 2010 District I Coach of the Year is the third winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins. McCaffery led his 2008 and 2009 teams to first round NCAA Tournament victories over Vanderbilt and Ohio State, respectively.

In his final two seasons at Siena, he coached the Saints to back-to-back 27-win campaigns and boasted a combined 39-3 (.929) record against MAAC opponents, which included MAAC Tournament contests.

McCaffery began his coaching career as an assistant at Penn (1982-83) and Lehigh (1983-85). Then at age 26, he became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when hired by Lehigh in 1985. After three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he spent 11 seasons as an assistant at Notre Dame (1988-99).

McCaffery played basketball at Wake Forest his freshman year (1977-78) and then concluded his collegiate playing career at Penn his final three seasons (1979-82).

He earned his B.S. degree in Economics from The Wharton School (Penn) in 1982. McCaffery also earned a Master of Education from Lehigh in 1985.

McCaffery has never faced Xavier as a head coach.

The Hawkeyes will face either Alabama or Seton Hall in its second tournament contest. Iowa is 1-0 against the Pirates, while the Crimson Tide beat the Black and Gold 72-60 in the semifinals of the 2006 Paradise Jam. Alabama went on to win the tournament that year.

Iowa has never faced St. Peter's or Old Dominion. The Hawkeyes own a 2-1 series edge over Clemson and 1-0 advantage over Long Beach State.

SCOUTING XAVIER

Xavier opened its season with consecutive home victories over Western Michigan (68-65) and IPFW (76-66 - OT). Junior Tu Holloway was tabbed Atlantic 10 Player of the Week after leading Xavier to a come-from-behind win over the Broncos in its season opener. Holloway netted 20 of his game-high 25 points in the second half. Against IPFW, all five Xavier starters scored double figures, led by Holloway's 24. The Muskateers out-scored IPFW 13-3 in overtime to collect its second victory.

The Muskateers suffered two injury setbacks before the season started. Senior Jamel McLean and junior Brad Redford both sustained injuries, with Redford's being season-ending. McLean will not see action at the Paradise Jam after suffering a fracture to the bone that surrounds one of his eye socket's in the Muskateers exhibition.

Xavier won 25 games or more in each of the last four years. Furthermore, the Muskateers and Michigan State are the only two programs that have advanced to the Sweet 16 in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments.

Chris Mack is in his second season as head coach at Xavier. Mack is a 1992 alum of Xavier and was a two-time team captain while playing for the Muskateers. Mack was tabbed the 2010 Basketball Times Rookie Coach of the Year. He was the only first-year coach to guide his team to the NCAA Tournament.

Hawkeyes Pen Two Talented Recruits

Josh Oglesby and Aaron White have signed National Letters of Intent to attend the University of Iowa.

Oglesby is a 6-5, 187-pound shooting guard from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He will be a three-year starter and a senior captain for Washington High School this winter. As a junior, he averaged 16.3 points, five rebounds and two assists, and was tabbed second team all-state, all sub-state, and first team all-conference and all-metro. Oglesby, who was named his team's Offensive Player of the Year, ranked sixth in conference scoring, and first in 3-point percentage (third in the state). He averaged 12 points, three rebounds and two assists his sophomore campaign. He was an honorable mention all-conference honoree and was named the team's Clutch Performer of the Year and Co-Offensive Player of the Year in 2009. He ranked seventh in the state in free throw percentage and 15th in 3-point percentage. Oglesby was also a member of the Iowa Barnstormers, where he was recognized on five all-tournament teams. He helped the Barnstormers to five tournament titles.

Oglesby enters his senior season with a rivals.com rating of 118 in the country and is considered the 36th-best shooting guard in the nation.

"We are ecstatic to have Josh Oglesby become part of the Hawkeye family," said Iowa Head Coach Fran McCaffery. "I had an opportunity to watch him over the summer and the fall, and he consistently showed an incredible amount of versatility. He's an outstanding shooter, but more importantly he's a really good basketball player. Josh wanted to be a Hawkeye and there's no question in my mind that he's going to have a tremendous career. He's going to be somebody people remember around here for a long time."

White is a 6-8, 215-pound forward from Strongsville High School in Strongsville, Ohio. White is a four-year letterman and honor roll student. He enters his senior season as a preseason second team all-Ohio selection by Rise Magazine. He helped his high school to back-to-back runner-up finishes and reach the district levels his sophomore and junior seasons. White averaged 16 points, 11 rebounds, five assists and three blocks as a sophomore while being recognized on the second team all-conference and all-district squads. He improved his numbers his junior campaign, averaging 19.9 points, 15 rebounds, seven assists and five blocks while earning first team all-league and all-district accolades, and being named team MVP. Additionally, White was tabbed MVP of a national holiday tournament in Orlando last December. White also played AAU basketball the last two years with the Ohio Basketball Club.

"Aaron White is a versatile front court player who's tremendously skilled," said McCaffery. "He can really shoot and pass the ball, and put it on the floor. He's long and also very athletic. Aaron can finish in traffic, has tremendous court demeanor, doesn't rattle, he's very concentrated and really thinks the game. He's a guy who is really fun to play with because he understands how to win. Aaron is a tremendous team player who can lead his team in scoring or assists."

GATENS SIDELINED AFTER SUFFERING HAND INJURY

Junior Matt Gatens tore a tendon in his left, non-shooting hand, Oct. 26 during practice. The shooting guard had surgery Oct. 28. Gatens had a hard cast removed on Nov. 10. He did not play in Iowa's first two games (South Dakota State and UL Monroe). His playing status for the Paradise Jam is undetermined at this point.

Gatens, who has started every game in his Hawkeye career, was Iowa's leading scorer a year ago, averaging 12.3 points. The Iowa City native was also Iowa's top scoring threat from the free throw line (84-101, .832) and beyond the arc (58-177, .328) last season. Gatens earned all-Big Ten recognition as a freshman and sophomore. He was a member of the all-Big Ten Freshman team in 2009 and an honorable mention all-conference selection a year ago.

THE RETURNING CAST

Iowa returns four starters and six lettermen from a year ago. The returning starters include senior center Jarryd Cole (6-7, 250), junior guard Matt Gatens (6-5, 215), sophomore guard Cully Payne (6-1, 190) and sophomore forward Eric May (6-5, 220). Gatens was Iowa's leading scorer, averaging 12.3 points, while also pulling down 4.3 rebounds starting all 32 games. Cole also started every game and averaged 8.1 points ranked second in rebounding (5.2). Payne, who was the only starting freshman point guard in the Big Ten last season, dished out a team-best 122 assists to go along with an 8.7 scoring average. May started the last 23 contests last year, and averaged nine points, 4.6 rebounds and collected team bests in blocks (26) and steals (34).

The other returning lettermen are junior forward Andrew Brommer (6-9, 235) and redshirt junior Devon Archie (6-9, 225). Archie received a medical redshirt last season due to injury.

Iowa's returning players, last season, played 65.6% of all minutes, accounting for 64.6% of Iowa's points and grabbing 40% of Iowa's rebounds. The group also had 75.3% of the steals and 75.1% of the assists last season. They combined to shoot 41.1% from the field, 30.8% from 3-point range and 70.9% from the free-throw line.

DIFFICULT SCHEDULE

The Hawkeyes will potentially play 20 games against teams that competed in the postseason a year ago, including 14 possible contests vs. teams that played in the NCAA Tournament.

In the ACC/Big Ten Challenge, Iowa will travel to Wake Forest. Both teams will have a new head coach on the sidelines. New Hawkeye Head Coach Fran McCaffery played for Wake Forest one season (1977-78), helping the Demon Deacons post a 19-10 record while starting 11 games.

Iowa will play two of its three in-state games at home. The Hawkeyes will host Northern Iowa (Dec. 7) and Iowa State (Dec. 10), while visiting Drake (Dec. 18).

SUPER SOPHS RETURN

Two of the Big Ten's most exciting and talented freshmen from a year ago return to the Hawkeyes. Eric May and Cully Payne were named to the Big Ten all-Freshman team by Sporting News. May was also recognized on the conference's all-freshman squad.

Last year, May became Iowa's first freshman to lead the team in blocks since Ryan Bowen in 1995. Furthermore, standing 6-foot-5, May became the shortest player to lead the team in rejections since 6-foot-5 James Winters did it in 1994. The native of Dubuque, Iowa, also averaged nine points and 4.6 rebounds.

Payne was the only Big Ten freshman starter at point guard last season. Payne became only the fourth Hawkeye freshman to lead the team in assists since 1974-75. His 122 assists rank third-best for an Iowa rookie in a single-season. The Schaumburg, Ill., native also averaged 8.7 points and three rebounds.

THREE STATE CHAMPS

Iowa's roster of 15 players includes three who won four state titles. Matt Gatens won a state title for Iowa City HS in 2008. Eric May won a state title for Dubuque Wahlert in 2008, while Zach McCabe's Bishop Heelan captured the state title in 2009 and 2010.

NO 3-POINTERS

Since the 3-point shot became part of the college game, Iowa has played 14 games in which it has failed to make a 3-point attempt. Iowa had made at least one 3-point basket in 53-straight games before missing all five attempts in a 71-61 home win over Purdue in 2004. Iowa's current streak includes at least one 3-point basket in 214 straight games.

IOWA IN CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA

Iowa has compiled a 341-104 (.766) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena since the facility opened in January, 1983. Iowa is 159-83 (.657) in Big Ten games and 182-21 (.897) in non-Big Ten contests.

HAWKEYES ARE TOUGH AT HOME

Iowa has won 65 of its 88 games (.739) in Carver-Hawkeye Arena (15,500) over the last five seasons, including win streaks of 21 straight overall and 12 straight Big Ten Conference wins. Iowa has won 10 of its last 19 home games against ranked opponents. Iowa was a perfect 17-0 at home in 2006, 14-2 in 2007, 10-8 in 2008, 13-4 in 2009 and 9-9 a year ago.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena Renovation & Practice Facility Project - Completion Expected August 2011

A $47 million addition and renovation project, which is expected to be completed by August 2011, will enhance what is arguably one of the top college basketball facilities in the nation. The entire funding is self-generated with no state tax dollars.

The Carver-Hawkeye Arena - Addition and Renovation Project will include the construction of a practice facility immediately north of the Arena for use by the UI's men and women's basketball and volleyball programs; renovation of the practice, fitness and weight-training facilities utilized by the UI's wrestling program; state-of-the-art, 12,000-square foot fitness and weight-training space in the Arena utilized by the majority of Iowa's 24 sports teams; the renovation and expansion of locker rooms in the facility; and the renovation of existing and the creation of new office, meeting, and storage space for use by administrative and coaching staff of the UI Athletics Department.

The men's and women's basketball teams will see the most obvious benefit from the renovation, although there will also be a new, expanded wrestling space and locker room.

The revitalization of the Arena will also extend into spaces used by the general public on game days and nights including renovation of select concessions and restroom facilities. There will also be a creation of hospitality and meeting spaces combined with club facilities for fans of the Hawkeyes who choose to participate in a variety of premium seating options similar to those which are available in the Paul W. Brechler Press Box at historic Kinnick Stadium.

Finally, the project will also upgrade the fire alarm, elevator and mechanical systems of the 25-year-old facility.

Knutson Construction Services, which has completed several other projects at the UI, received the Carver-Hawkeye Arena bid.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena was built in 1983 at a price tag of $18.4 million.
