

IOWA SOFTBALL

2008 NCAA Regionals

The Hawkeyes were selected to host an NCAA Regional last season. Nearly 2,000 people packed Pearl Field for Iowa's opening round game.

IOWA SOFTBALL

Why Iowa?

"I am thankful for the opportunity Coach Blevins and the University of Iowa have given to me to be part of Hawkeye Softball. The rich tradition Coach Blevins has established here is truly special. Being a part of the Big Ten Conference, alongside the unique atmosphere created by the University of Iowa, provides a great place to compete for championships. It's an exciting time to be a part of Hawkeye Softball."

-Pitching Coach Shane Bouman

"Why Iowa? Easy. I was able to have the chance to work with one of the top master minds in the game. Coach Blevins is an icon in the sport of softball. To have the opportunity to work with Coach Blevins and the University of Iowa Athletic Department is one I couldn't pass up. The daily ins and outs of Iowa softball are so important for my professional growth. In the coaching profession, you must have a passion for the staff, the administration, the student-athlete and the university. I am so proud to be a part of the Hawkeye family! It is truly a family."

-Assistant Coach Diane Stephenson

"The University of Iowa offers young women a wonderful environment to achieve excellence, both academically and athletically. Being a student-athlete within the Iowa softball program only enhances that opportunity. Coach Gayle Blevins has inspired and supported literally hundreds of young women to dream, and to become their own visions of success. At Iowa, parents can be assured that their daughters will receive outstanding coaching on the field, and outstanding leadership for life. My belief in this institution, in this program, and in Coach Blevins' ideals continues to inspire me as a long-time staff member who is closely involved."

-23-Year Athletic Trainer Faye Thompson

IOWA SOFTBALL

Why Iowa?

"Playing collegiate softball has always been my dream and the University Iowa offers me a great education and an opportunity to play for a renowned softball program. The coaching staff and players are like family. With this combination, it was an easy decision. Iowa is the place for me."

-Liz Watkins
Freshman
Taylor Ridge, IL

"Iowa provided a good experience for me being away from my family. On my recruiting trip, I fell in love with the campus and all the people surrounding the softball program. It was a good fit for me, and being able to play softball with the fans and the support that we all give each other on and off the field is an amazing feeling."

-Brittany Weil
Senior
Garden Grove, CA

"I was drawn to the University of Iowa because I had an opportunity to receive a high quality education and also compete in the Big Ten and for a national championship. Being from Iowa, I always dreamed of being a Hawkeye and to wear the Black and Gold. Representing this state is a dream come true."

-Katie Brown

IOWA SOFTBALL

Success After Softball

Hawkeyes Continue to Make Their Mark

"The University of Iowa is truly a unique place in that no matter how far you travel to come to school, it quickly becomes the place you call home. The support that comes from the community and the athletic department is something to be admired and commended. They embrace you like family and you instantly feel as though you belong to something great. I didn't want to lose that feeling, so after college, I took a job working for the University of Iowa Athletic Department as a graphic designer. I still get to be a part of the Hawkeye Family everyday!"

-Mindy Heidgerken

B.A. - Journalism and Mass Communications

B.F.A - Graphic Design, 2007

"It's hard to believe, but I still get emotional thinking about my years at Iowa. The decision to go to Iowa was an easy one. There was a commitment to excellence on the field and in the classroom. The success our teams enjoyed in those years was just the beginning. Everything I learned while playing at Iowa... teamwork, dedication and time management... I use in my professional and personal life today. I am so proud to see each Iowa team bring their own unique talent to the field while possessing the same character that defines Iowa: hardworking, committed and enthusiastic. Many programs claim to be a family, but Iowa softball is. Once a Hawkeye, always a Hawkeye."

IOWA SOFTBALL

Pearl Field

The Home of the Hawkeyes:

Pearl Field was dedicated on October 2, 1999 in honor of the late Robert L. Pearl, who was the first African-American baseball player at the University of Iowa and a longtime supporter of Hawkeye softball.

Pearl Field was completely renovated after the flood of 2008 destroyed nearly the entire complex. The stadium now includes a new, state-of-the-art locker room with spacious player lockers, a large, flat-screen plasma television with video equipment for film watching, new team room, new concession and restroom areas and a new batting cage/bullpen area.

Also new to Pearl Field in 2009 is the state-of-the-art Hilltopper infield surface. It is made from a standard infield mix, but coated with polymer to add cohesion and waterproof each particle creating a non-permeable surface. Hilltopper controls wind and water erosion and remains stable in rainy conditions. The infield surface is essentially waterproof.

What Others Say About Pearl Field:

"I have always thought Pearl Field is one of the best softball facilities in the Midwest. It has many wonderful assets that make it one of the best in the Midwest, but there are two that really set it apart from others: the visiting team warm up and practice facilities are spacious and the people that maintain and run the facility! They are knowledgeable and courteous. The facilities staff truly make the biggest difference!"

- Donna Martin, Former Northern Illinois Head Softball Coach
2008 NCAA Softball Regional Representative

"From a broadcast perspective, it has everything you could ask for: good sight lines, a new spacious press box, and helpful people to make it a pleasurable experience."

- Justin Kutcher, Big Ten Network Announcer

"I love playing at Pearl field. Playing on that field is an amazing feeling. There is nothing better than standing on our field and seeing our fans cheering us on. There is no other facility that can compare with the atmosphere that our field has. This is going to be a special year at Pearl Field. With all the re-modeling we will be starting new traditions and bringing back old ones."

- Brittany Weil, University of Iowa Pitcher

"I've been around the game of softball nearly my entire life, and I have always enjoyed Pearl Field. The Hawkeye faithful pack the stands game after game and make it a big stage for softball. The atmosphere inside Pearl Field makes it special to be a part of Iowa softball. What a great experience for everyone who attended the NCAA Regionals in 2008. Anytime you have nearly 2,000 fans at a softball game is great."

- Shane Bouman, University of Iowa Pitching Coach
