- Big Ten All-Decade Team (1981-91)
- Named to Iowa Athletics Hall of Fame (2012)
- USAFH Youth Development Manager (2012-pres.)

"Ever since high school I wanted to play on the U.S. National Team, and I didn't care how long it was going to take. When I got to Iowa, we all had the same aspirations and always talked about teamwork, chemistry and working to get to that level. We went through and learned so much at Iowa that it carried us through in helping us make it to the next level."

KRIS FILLAT (1988-92)

- 2000 U.S. Olympic Qualifying Team
- 1996 U.S. Olympic Team
- 1990-93, 95-96, 98-00 U.S. National Team

- Three-time All-Regional
- Two-time All-Big Ten
- 1992 NCAA All-Tournament Team
- 1990 U.S. Olympic Festival

"Being from California, I was hesitant about spending four years of my life in Iowa. As soon as I saw the campus and athletic facilities, there was no longer a doubt in my mind. Iowa was the perfect balance of community, academics and athletics. I was able to achieve my academic goals as well as my athletic ones."

- 2002 U.S. Under-23 Team (alt.)
- 2002 U.S. Under-23 Team South Africa Tour

"I chose Iowa because I knew it was the total package for me. I knew that by attending Iowa, I would reach my athletic and academic goals without question. The coaches truly care about each athlete, not only on the field, but in the classroom and socially as well. Iowa City felt like home the minute I stepped on campus. It has that comforting "college-town" feel. I can honestly say that I would not be where I am today without the support of my teammates, coaches, and administration at the University of Iowa."

Whether playing on the new Grant Field, or on the original facility that was introduced in 1989, opponents have usually left Iowa City unhappy. The Hawkeyes own an overall home record of 139-46, a conference record of 60-25 at home and an 11-2 record in NCAA Tournament games played in Iowa City. Originally named the Hawkeye Field Hockey Field, the facility was renamed in honor of former University of Iowa Women's Athletics Director and founder of Iowa Field Hockey Dr. Christine Grant on Sept. 22, 1991. The new field was re-dedicated on Oct. 8, 2006. The Hawkeyes set a home attendance record Oct. 24, 1993 with 1,339 fans watching Iowa defeat No. 4 Penn State, 4-0. Iowa has gone undefeated on its home field in six separate seasons, including a 40-game home winning streak.

“It is the best facility in the Big Ten.”

KARA LENTZ (BIG TEN NETWORK)

“If I were a high school player looking to go to Iowa, I would take one step into that facility (Grant Field), and say ‘Where do I sign?’. What a great facility. This place is start-of-the-art for college field hockey.”

LISA CELLUCCI
HEAD COACH
15TH YEAR AT IOWA

Lisa Cellucci enters her 15th season as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff in 2014, and her first as head coach. Cellucci, the all-time saves leader at Iowa, was a three-time All-American and a member of the U.S. National Team. In her 14 years at Iowa, the Hawkeyes have compiled a 169-107 record and have been consistently ranked in the NFHCA top 20.

Cellucci has previously worked as the recruiting coordinator, director of the Iowa Field Hockey Camp, and has primarily worked with the goalkeepers and the defense.

Hawkeye goalkeepers have enjoyed tremendous success during Cellucci's time with Iowa. In 2012, Cellucci was a crucial part of the Black and Gold's success as Iowa reached its 22nd NCAA Tournament in program history. Senior Kathleen McGraw earned first team All-Big Ten and second team All-America recognition under Cellucci's guidance. McGraw, who was selected as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week three times during the season, played every minute in goal and posted five shutouts in leading Iowa to a 14-7 record and its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Her 1.58 goals against average ranked second in the Big Ten and 17th nationally. McGraw closed out her career with 336 saves, the fourth-most in school history.

In 2008, Cellucci was again a vital part of the Hawkeyes' success. She coached senior goalkeeper Lissa Munley to eight shutouts, including matches against three nationally ranked opponents. Cellucci helped Munley rank first in Big Ten shutouts, second in goals against average and third in save percentage. In addition, Iowa's goals against average ranked ninth-best in the country and helped lead Iowa to its third-straight Big Ten Tournament Championship, 20th NCAA Tournament appearance and 11th NCAA Final Four appearance.

Barb Weinberg, a 2005 graduate, became one of nation's top goalkeepers and went on to become a member of the USA National Team from 2005-2010. Under Cellucci's guidance Weinberg became a two-time all-American, three-time All-Big Ten selection and three time all-region pick.

As a student-athlete, Cellucci was one of the greatest goalkeepers ever to don the Black and Gold. During her four years with Iowa, the Broomall, PA, native was a three-time All-American, four-time All-Big Ten selection and four-time regional All-American.

In her playing days, Cellucci made an immediate impact for the Hawkeyes. As a freshman, she earned first team All-Big Ten, first team regional All-American and third team NFHCA All-American honors as she helped Iowa to a 16-4 record. Her sophomore campaign was even more impressive, when she went 18-3 and was first team All-Big Ten and a regional All-American, along with being second team NFHCA All-American.

During her senior campaign, Cellucci became Iowa's all-time saves leader by stopping her 494th shot in a 5-3 win over Ball State. She ended her career with 592 saves.

A member of the U.S. National Team from 1999-2000, Cellucci has extensive experience with the U.S. program. She played on the 1998 U.S. Under-23 National Team and on the U.S. Under-18 National Team in 1994. Cellucci also participated in three U.S. Olympic Festivals (1993, 1994 and 1995) and won a gold medal at the 1993 Festival and a bronze medal at the 1995 Festival.

She also has extensive coaching experience with USA Field Hockey. Cellucci, who has a level 2 USA Field Hockey coaching accreditation, has been coaching in the USA High Performance program since 2003 and has served as a member of the Midwest High Performance Coaching Staff since 2005.

Before returning to Iowa as a coach, Cellucci was an assistant coach at James Madison, where she helped the Dukes to a 15-7 record and a spot in the NCAA Tournament in 1999.

Cellucci, who serves on the Board of Directors for the National Iowa Varsity Club, graduated from the University of Iowa in 1998 with a bachelor of arts degree in communication studies.

MICHAEL BOAL
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
FIRST YEAR AT IOWA

Michael Boal is in his first year as an assistant field hockey coach at the University of Iowa.

Boal most recently worked at James Madison, where he joined the staff as associate head coach in July of 2013. He was named interim head coach in October of 2013, and served in that role for the remainder of the 2013 season, leading the Dukes to a 4-2 finish and a tie for third in the Colonial Athletic Association. Boal also served as an assistant coach for the Dukes during the 2010 season, coaching goalkeepers and playing a key role in recruiting efforts.

In between his two stops at James Madison, Boal spent two seasons as the associate head coach at Virginia, helping lead the Cavaliers to the 2012 NCAA Tournament.

The Sunderland, England, native served as the assistant director of hockey at Durham University in the United Kingdom prior to coaching at the NCAA Division I level. He was responsible for the coaching and development of both men's and women's performance groups, recruiting across Europe, match preparation, video analysis, and conducting coaching and evaluation sessions for all 16 intramural college teams.

At Durham University Boal assisted Gavin Featherstone, a renowned double Olympic and World Cup head coach for the USA and South Africa field hockey teams. They led the men's and women's teams at Durham to top-10 rankings amongst United Kingdom universities, and won National North Conference Championships and Northern Division One Championships in 2010.

Before joining the staff at Durham, Boal coached at the Olton & West Warwick's Hockey Club for four years. He was involved in all aspects of the management of the women's first and second teams, including daily planning and conducting of practice, and physical training. He coached the women's first team in the prominent English National Premier League at the age of 20, making Boal the youngest ever to coach a women's team in the League.

While at Olton & West Warwick's, Boal also coached players with national and international representative honors, including two 2008 Olympians for Great Britain. He developed three representatives for the Junior World Cup and two under-18 Internationals.

Boal graduated with honors from the University of Birmingham in the United Kingdom in June of 2009. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and was an ambassador for the university. Boal made four British University Finals Appearances as a player and coach and was part of their 2006-07 National League winning side.

MEGHAN BEAMESDERFER

ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD YEAR AT IOWA

Meghan Beamesderfer is in her third year as an assistant coach at Iowa in 2014.

Beamesderfer has spent seven of the last eight seasons as a member of the Iowa program. After lettering from 2006-09, she spent the 2010 season as an undergraduate assistant coach before serving as an assistant coach in 2011 and 2012.

Beamesderfer was a member of the 2013-14 U.S. Women's National Squad.

Beamesderfer helped lead Iowa to its second-straight and 22nd NCAA Tournament appearance in 2012, guiding the team to a 14-7 overall record and a No. 14 NFHCA national ranking. Five Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten recognition under Beamesderfer's watch and four players garnered regional All-America recognition, including two players -- Jessica Barnett and Kathleen McGraw -- who earned second team All-America nods.

In 2011, she helped coach Iowa to its 21st NCAA Tournament appearance in program history. The Hawkeyes finished 15-5 overall and finished the season ranked 12th nationally. Beamesderfer coached three All-Big Ten honorees and four regional All-Americans, including Barnett, who earned the program's 81st national All-America honor.

Beamesderfer also has national coaching experience, as she coached in the U.S.A. Field Hockey Future's Program in the summer of 2011.

Beamesderfer resumed her playing career in the summer of 2011, competing in the U.S.A. Women's National Championships for the Midwest High Performance Team. She was selected to the U.S.A. National Developmental Squad at the conclusion of the tournament. In 2013, Beamesderfer played for the U.S. Women's National Team in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

A native of Lititz, Pa., Beamesderfer led Iowa to three-straight Big Ten Tournament titles (2006-08) and the 2008 NCAA Final Four. She finished her career as a two-time All-American, a four-time regional All-American and a three-time All-Big Ten honoree.

In 2006, she was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. As a senior in 2009, she led the team in goals (10) and defensive saves (four) and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. Beamesderfer, who started all 84 career games played, was also a team captain and MVP.

Beamesderfer received a bachelor's degree in speech and hearing sciences from Iowa in December 2010.

"I chose to attend the University of Iowa because I felt that the school fits everything that I am looking for in a University. I like the idea of a big school and I love the campus. There are great opportunities for me to have success on the field and in the classroom. I am very excited and honored to get the chance to play field hockey at the University of Iowa, and I cannot wait to be a part of the tradition."

ALEXANDRA PECORA - Sophomore - Marlton, N.J.

"I chose Iowa for one simple reason -- I fell in love with it when I was in fifth grade and as I got older it became my dream school. I first met the coaching staff when they came to my area to coach a clinic. They were the best coaches I had ever met and really impressed me. Then I went to Grant Field for the Junior Olympics the summer before my ninth grade year and was blown away by how beautiful the city and campus were. The campus buildings were gorgeous and Grant Field was breathtaking. I feel Iowa has so much to offer me academically and athletically. In my mind, Iowa is leaps and bounds ahead. As I looked at other colleges, nothing could compare to the way I felt when I was in Iowa City. There is a very special feeling I get when I'm there -- it's home! Now that I'm committed, I feel that my life at Iowa will be the best that it could possibly be. I am excited to finally be a Hawkeye!"

CHANDLER ACKERS - Sophomore - White Haven, Pa.

"Initially, Iowa was just the name of a university in the Midwest that had a strong field hockey tradition. Once I arrived on campus, I quickly realized that the name stood for much more. There is a standard. At Iowa, all athletes are expected to work hard, be strong, and successful -- which is important to me because I want to play with others who are determined to achieve their goals. The University also provides its athletes with the best facilities and coaches to ensure their success. The Iowa standard not only applies to athletics, but also to the classroom. Iowa is a highly-ranked public university. However, I love the atmosphere best of all. While visiting Iowa, I saw a basketball game and a wrestling match inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena. At both events, all of the fans were dressed in black and gold, and sang the Iowa Fight song with the pep band. The passion and pride toward the Hawkeyes made me realize that I would be part of a huge family including my teammates, coaches, friends, and fans. That's when I knew, I wanted to be a Hawkeye."

Jessy Silfer - Sophomore - Cazenovia, N.Y.

"I chose Iowa because from the very first day I visited the campus, I knew it was a place I could fit in. I felt relaxed, and I knew it was somewhere I could grow as a student and as an athlete. The team made me feel welcome, and I had a lot of fun with them. I can't wait to play in the Big Ten Conference and even more importantly, to play as a Hawkeye!"

STEPHANIE NORLANDER - Sophomore - North Vancouver, Canada

"I chose the University of Iowa because when I first stepped onto the campus in 2009, I knew I wanted to go there. Participating in the Junior Olympics that year was my first look at Iowa. Playing a week-long tournament on the beautiful new turf certainly helped my decision, and having Lisa (Cellucci) as my coach was fate. After my week in Iowa during that summer, I was able to get a feel for the entire University. Iowa offers the complete package. Being from California, I am a huge San Francisco Giants fan. I didn't know what it would be like to live in a place where there were no professional sports. Then, I realized, in Iowa, Hawkeye sports are professional. The University of Iowa will also allow me to pursue my academic goals. All my life I have wanted to work in the medical field. Recently, I have decided that I want to become a physical therapist with special focus on rehabilitation of injured athletes. At Iowa, I am given the opportunity to pursue that goal. And, at Iowa, I know my dream to play field hockey as long as I can, will become a reality. The coaching staff will provide me with the knowledge and the encouragement I need to pursue field hockey at the national level. I'm so excited!"

DANI HEMEON - Senior - Gilroy, Calif.

"I chose Iowa because when I visited I felt it was exactly the type of school I wanted to go to. Iowa has both strong academics and athletics. I am really excited to be a part of the Big Ten Conference and the Iowa field hockey program."

NATALIE CAFONE - JUNIOR - FAIRFIELD, N.J.

Each summer, field hockey players from around the nation come to Iowa City for the Iowa Field Hockey Camp. Grant Field is considered one of the top complexes in the country and participants have the advantage of state-of-the-art facilities. Campers also play alongside accomplished college players. Campers ages 13-18 participate in the camp led by the Hawkeye coaching staff as well as current and former Iowa players.

Iowa City is a media saturated environment. And with no professional teams in the area, the Hawkeyes garner extensive coverage from newspapers, television and websites.

TELEVISION

With the launch of the Big Ten Network, the Big Ten was the first conference in the country that had its own national network devoted to athletics programming. Hawkeye field hockey fans can expect to see numerous games each year on the network in stunning hi-definition. Fans can also watch additional games online at BTN.com.

HAWKEYESPORTS.COM

Media and fans can also obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa -- hawkeyesports.com. Live stats (gametracker), box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, video, podcasts and more, can be found on the web site. Additional information, video, photos and more can be found on the team's Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Furthermore, hawkeyesports.com has a fresh look after the site was re-designed and re-launched in October 2010. The new and improved site has enhanced graphics, is easier to navigate, and has more content and video/audio for the diehard Hawkeye fan.

NEWSPAPER COVERAGE

Fans can also read about Hawkeye action in several newspapers/websites throughout the state of Iowa. A few of the papers that cover the Hawkeyes on a regular basis include: The Des Moines Register, the Iowa City Press-Citizen, the Cedar Rapids Gazette, the Quad City Times, The Daily Iowan, the Voice of The Hawkeyes, the Burlington Hawkeye, and the Waterloo Courier.

BIG

When people think of collegiate field hockey, their thoughts primarily go out east, where Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East schools are often seen as national powerhouses. The Big Ten though has quickly become one of the premier field hockey conferences in the nation.

In the 31 years the conference has sponsored field hockey, Big Ten schools have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 83 times. The Iowa Hawkeyes lead the conference with 22 appearances as a member of the Big Ten.

Last season, Penn State and Michigan State represented the league in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State fell to Princeton in the first round. Michigan State triumphed over Miami and Syracuse, but came up short against Connecticut.

In 2012 Iowa, Michigan and Penn State represented the league in the dance. It marked the 14th time in the last 15 years that the conference has had at least three or more representatives.

In 2011, four of the national tournament's 16 teams hailed from the Big Ten. Iowa was joined by Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State. The Hawkeyes lost at eventual national champion Maryland in the first round.

In 2008, Iowa, Michigan State and Penn State all made the tournament. The Nittany Lions fell to Princeton in the first round. Michigan State defeated defending national champion North Carolina in the first round before falling to Iowa in the second. The Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Semifinals before falling to eventual champion Maryland.

In 2004, Michigan State reached the Final Four, making it the fourth consecutive year the Big Ten has sent a team to the Final Four. The league record for consecutive years in the National Semifinals is eight, when either Iowa or Northwestern reached the Final Four every year from 1983-1990.

In 2001, the Big Ten ended the year with five of its seven teams ranked in the top 20 by the NFCA. Both Michigan and Michigan State represented the conference in the Final Four. The Wolverines went on to become the second Big Ten School to win the National Championship. Iowa was the first in 1986.

The Big Ten has been represented in the NCAA Final Four 23 times. The Hawkeyes lead the league with 11 Final Four appearances as a member of the Big Ten.

The Big Ten Conference began sponsoring field hockey in 1981 with a conference tournament, then began full league play in 1982.

From 1989-91, five conference teams competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference along with the Northern Illinois Huskies. But when Penn State joined up with the Big Ten in 1991, the league resumed sponsoring a conference season.

In conference play, each team plays each other once, with the season ending with the Big Ten Tournament. The site of the Big Ten Tournament is determined on a rotating basis. The 2014 championship will be hosted by the University of Michigan.

In 2014, Maryland and Rutgers join the league, giving the Big Ten nine teams. Maryland has won eight national championships in school history.

The Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences. Considered to be one of the most successful launches in cable television history, the Big Ten Network became the first network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million subscribers within its first 30 days on the air. With more than 350 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country.

The network is available up to an estimated 75 million households, and in all 50 states and Canada through agreements with more than 300 cable, satellite and telco affiliates. Customers of DIRECTV and DISH Network, have access to the network regardless of where they live, while Verizon and AT&T continue to roll out their FiOS and U-Verse services across the country. On cable, the network is available in 19 of the nation's 20 largest media markets. To get the channel number specific to your area and provider, visit btn.com.

The network operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, showcasing a wide array of classic-to-current sports and televising more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network.

The Hawkeyes have been televised 28 times over the last six seasons. Iowa appeared on BTN four times in 2013, eight times in 2012, four in 2011, three times by the network in 2009 and 2010 and six times in 2008. The Big Ten Tournament semifinals and finals are televised each year.

GARY BARTA
ATHLETICS
DIRECTOR

Gary Barta is entering his ninth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa and his 27th year as a university leader.

The 2014-15 athletics season at the UI will build on significant momentum gained a year ago as a result of multiple successes competitively, academically, and in positive community impact displayed by Iowa coaches, student-athletes, and administrators. Last year also included record-setting fundraising support and corporate participation, as well as the completion of facility construction projects critical to the long-term success of the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Progress and success on the fields, courts, tracks, and mats was significant in 2013-14. A return to participation in a postseason bowl game by the Iowa football team, a return to the NCAA Tournament by the UI's men's basketball team, a 4th place national finish in wrestling, the seventh straight NCAA Tournament appearance by Iowa women's basketball, an invitation to the postseason Big Ten Tournament by the Hawkeye baseball team, postseason NCAA competition for Iowa's men's golf, and the UI's track and field men's and women's track and field teams, and a historic first time invitation to the NCAA Tournament for women's soccer highlighted the 2013-14 year competitively for the UI.

In fact, only six other programs in the country in addition to the UI had its football team appear in a New Year's Day bowl, and both its men's and women's basketball teams compete in the NCAA Tournament.

Academic success by the more than 600 student-athletes who participate in 24 sport programs has always been one of the very highest priorities at the University of Iowa and remains so today under Barta's direction. That commitment to the "student" in "student-athlete" resulted in a record-setting

NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 88, a mark that was a full seven percentage points better than the national average. The GSR's for Iowa's football (81), men's basketball (88), and women's basketball (91) all bested the national averages for their sport: 70, 68, and 86, respectively.

In addition, the NCAA's 2013 graduation report also revealed that Iowa's federal graduation rate of 72 was seven points better than its peers nationally and two points better than its peers on the UI campus. Paced by all-time high Academic Progress Report (APR) scores in nine sports programs, all of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs were determined by the NCAA in spring 2014 to be achieving at a rate academically that surpassed the national benchmark.

Barta also believes strongly that his staff and student-athletes contribute to the community. That commitment manifests itself in literally thousands of hours of community service annually. The Hawkeyes' efforts in 2013-14 include a leadership role in "Herky on Parade," the largest public art program staged in the state of Iowa which the UI Athletics Department executes in cooperation with the Iowa City Coralville Convention and Visitors Bureau. It is anticipated that the Parade will bring tens of thousands of visitors to the greater UI, Iowa City, Coralville, and North Liberty community this spring, summer, and fall, and a six-figure contribution to the United Way of Johnson County and the United Way of Washington County when the project is completed.

The UI Athletics Department also stages an annual "Day of Caring" each April where student-athletes of all 24 of the UI's sports teams provide assistance to a wide variety of not-for-profit organizations. The UI football program also stages annually the Iowa Ladies Football Academy. That effort has generated more than $1 million of support for the new University of Iowa Children's Hospital.

These are two of the most public annual activities of community support by the Hawkeyes, who also make regular visits to the UI Hospitals and Clinics, and local elementary schools.

A closer look at the 2013-14 athletics year reveals the following successes:

- Ron Rainey's Iowa women's soccer team opened its season with eight straight victories, advanced to the championship game of the 2013 Big Ten Soccer Tournament, and received the first invitation to the postseason national championship in school history. The Hawkeyes also established a school record for attendance when more than 1,500 were on hand for Iowa's 3-0 victory over Iowa State in the annual Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series match.

- Kirk Ferentz's Iowa football team doubled its win total from the previous season, won three "Trophy Games" – the Iowa Corn Cy-Hawk Series, Floyd of Rosedale, and the Hy-Vee Heroes Game – all on the road, and ended the regular season with victories over Michigan and at Nebraska en route to an invitation to the 2014 Outback Bowl. It marked the 12th bowl game and seventh January bowl game under Ferentz and signaled a return to the national stage for the Hawkeyes. It also came with an extra bonus: The Hawkeyes travelled to Tampa as one of just 17 bowl-bound college football teams with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) greater than 80 (Iowa's was 81) and as the highest ranked Big Ten team participating in a bowl game, according to GSR.

- Lisa Bluder's Iowa women's basketball team won a school-record-tying 27 games – including 14 on Mediacom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena en route to its seventh straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a number that only 13 other programs across the country can match. Postseason play was particularly fun for the Hawkeyes: Iowa won three games to advance to the championship game of the 2014 Big Ten Tournament and won its first round game in NCAA Tournament play for the second straight season.

- Fran McCaffery continued his revitalization of the UI's men's basketball program by guiding the Hawkeyes to their first NCAA Tournament in seven years. The Hawkeyes won 20 or more games for the second straight season and climbed as high as 10th in the national rankings. The Hawkeyes' 2013-14 season came to an official close in June when Devyn Marble was selected in the second round of the NBA Draft. Marble became the first Hawkeye to be selected in the draft since Adam Haluska's selection in 2007.

- Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling team crowned one national champion and had six Hawkeyes earn All-American status en route to a fourth place finish at the 2014 national championship.

- Rick Heller surprised the country by guiding the Hawkeye baseball team to 30 victories and participation in the 2014 Big Ten Baseball Tournament – in his first season as the UI's head coach. It was Iowa's first appearance in the league's postseason tournament in four years. Five Hawkeyes were named All-Big Ten and three were selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft.

- Mark Hankins' men's golf squad made it six straight postseason invitations when the Hawkeyes were sent to participate in the 2014 NCAA Regional in Columbia, Mo. The Hawkeyes advanced on the strength of a regular season that included three first-place finishes and a third-place finish at the 2014 Big Ten Conference Championship, a performance that included the low team score for the event's final round.

- Long-time director of track Larry Wieczorek announced his retirement the week before Iowa sent 11 student-athletes to compete in eight different events at the 2014 NCAA Division I Track and Field Championships. The Hawkeyes responded with all earning All-America status including senior Zinnia Miller, who was honored for her efforts in the long jump and triple jump, and freshman Brittany Brown, who was honored for her success in the 200-meters and as a member of Iowa's 400-meter relay team.

The year was also busy administratively for Barta with the hiring of a new deputy director of athletics – Gene Taylor, the long-time director of athletics at North Dakota State University who began his career at the United States Naval Academy – the hiring of Iowa City native Bond Shymansky to lead the UI volleyball program, another Iowa City native, Joey Woody, to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Wieczorek, and Dave Dilanni, the long-time coach of NCAA Division II women's soccer powerhouse Grand Valley State to lead the Hawkeyes.

Shymansky has had tremendous success since beginning his coaching career at City High School in Iowa City, most recently as the head coach at Marquette. Woody, a four-time All-American and world champion, has played an instrumental role in Iowa's recent successes on the track as an associated head coach for track and field for the Hawkeyes. Dilanni compiled a 221-18-18 record at GVS, guiding the Lakers to three NCAA Division II national championships and seven Final Four appearances in the last eight seasons.

The Hawkeyes' success academically and in competition also fueled interest in the Hawkeyes to levels matched by less than a handful of Iowa's peers: The UI is one of only four programs in the country to have its football, men's basketball, and women's basketball programs all rank among the nation's Top 25 in attendance.

Iowa also once again led the nation in attendance for wrestling and continues to rank among the leaders in Facebook and Twitter measures, and also traffic to its official world wide web site, hawkeyesports.com. In fact, 2013-14 was the busiest athletics year in the history of hawkeyesports.com in terms of unique visitors (4.3 million) and the second busiest in terms of total pages downloaded (22.8 million).

Barta and his staff have successfully leveraged the burgeoning interest in the Hawkeyes to drive fundraising and corporate support of the UI Athletics Department to record levels. Private gifts to the National I-Club for annual giving and support of capital projects exceeded $28 million in 2013-14. Participation in the offerings of Hawkeye Sports Properties, the exclusive multi-media partner of the UI Athletics Department, resulted in a record $6.1 million of revenue in 2013-14.

These sources of income help Barta to fund an $85 million annual operations budget, a budget that is 100 percent self-generated – the UI receives no state tax dollars to operate its intercollegiate athletics program – and balanced in spite of scholarship costs that will easily exceed $10 million in 2014-15. The UI Athletics Department also is responsible for such things as medical expenses for its student-athletes ($800,000 in 2013-14), the cost of utilities to operate its facilities ($400,000 last year), and, of course, salaries and benefits for the more 200 full-time employees.

Barta has also used private and corporate support to enhance the infrastructure used by Iowa's sports programs. For example, the Hawkeye football program will move into the $55 million state-of-the-art Richard O. Jacobson Football Operations Building that includes the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center in late summer. To date, more than $35 million of private support has been generated for this important project.

Completion of the home of the nationally ranked Iowa football program will mean the UI Athletics Department will have invested more than $220 million in construction and renovation under Barta's leadership. The list of projects completed under Barta's direction includes an investment in technology at historic Kinnick Stadium that includes a new sound system to be installed prior to the 2014 season, construction of the Hoak Family Golf Complex, the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, construction of the P. Sue Beckwith, M.D., Boathouse, the UI Athletics Department's contribution to the construction of the Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, replacement of the turf at Grant Field, installation of artificial turf at Duane Banks Field, and resurfacing of the outdoor courts at the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex.

The work is not complete, however. The UI Athletics Department this fall will begin installation of a new videowall, outfield fence, and artificial turf in the outfield of Duane Banks Field. Barta and his team are busy investigating the finalization of a master facilities plan that includes the expansion of "Hawkeye Campus," the current home of the Iowa field hockey and soccer programs, UI Sports Medicine, the UI Athletics Hall of Fame and Museum, a new indoor turf facility that also includes an outdoor surface to be used as the practice field for the Hawkeye Marching Band, and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex located on the far western edge of the UI's campus adjacent to the UI's Finkbine Golf Course and near the UI's Ashton Cross Country Course.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends far beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008 and will be directly involved in positioning the UI for growth in the immediate and long-term future as the institution adjusts to a shift in the funding model used by the State of Iowa's Board of Regents.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his tenure at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Barta remains active on the Conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson County and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the Department has just completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (16) and a daughter, Madison (14). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

IOWA CONTINUES TO BUILD FOR SUCCESS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2013-14

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 72 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in the fall of 2006), meaning UI student-athletes have graduated at a rate of 70 percent or better in four of the last five years. That mark was two points better than the UI student body and seven points better than achieved by student-athletes nationally. For the fifth consecutive year, all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark and the program posted a record 88 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate." It is the eighth time in nine years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2013-14, as a significant number of Iowa's 24 programs reached postseason play. The Iowa football team played in the 2014 Outback Bowl, the UI men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006, the women's basketball team competed in the NCAA Tournament for the seventh straight season and the wrestling team finished fourth at the NCAA Championships.

In March 2014, the UI rolled out the new AstroTurf infield playing surface, marking the beginning of the stadium transformation at Duane Banks Field. The project will continue this fall with the installation of turf in the outfield, a video board and new scoreboard at the facility. Iowa dedicated the 4,200-square foot James M. Hoak Family Golf Complex, a state-of-the-art golf facility in 2013, a project that came on the heels of the completion of a $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena in the summer of 2011.

After completing phase I of the project for the UI football program in August, 2012 -- a new indoor practice facility -- the second phase will be finished this fall. Phase II includes construction of the new Iowa Football Operations Center, which will include new team locker rooms, team meeting rooms, athletic medical training space, video operations, and coaches offices and meeting rooms. Funded entirely through private support and revenue generated by the UI Athletics Department, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football.

IOWA FOOTBALL

The Iowa football team posted an 8-5 record in 2013, which included a berth in the 2014 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes placed second in the Big Ten's Legends Division and they were one of six BCS conference teams to improve by four victories or more from the 2012 season.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

UI head coach Lisa Bluder guided the Hawkeye women's basketball team to its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament in 2013-14. The Hawkeyes advanced to the Round of 32 following an opening-round victory over Marist and finished 27-9 overall. The 27 victories were tied for the second-most in program history and were the most since 1996. Iowa is the only Big Ten team to appear in seven consecutive NCAA tournaments and one of 14 schools nationally.

Iowa was one of seven schools nationally to have its football team play in a Jan. 1 bowl game and have both its men's and women's basketball teams reach the NCAA Tournament during the 2013-14 school year.

IOWA WRESTLING

The UI wrestling team -- the national attendance leader in each of the last eight seasons -- finished fourth at the NCAA Championships. Five Hawkeyes earned All-America accolades in 2014, including 133-pound national champion Tony Ramos and Derek St. John, who became the 18th Iowa wrestler to be a four-time All-American. Iowa has claimed 23 national championships since 1975 and 34 Big Ten titles in its history.

IOWA WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Iowa soccer team won a school-record 15 contests in 2013, won its first two postseason games in program history en route to the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament and made the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Fourth-year head coach Fran McCaffery led Iowa to its second-straight 20-win season and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament -- its first berth since 2006. Guard Roy Devyn Marble earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition and became the first Hawkeye since 2007 to have his name called in the NBA Draft.

IOWA MEN'S GOLF

Head coach Mark Hankins led the Hawkeyes to their sixth-straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2014 and four student-athletes garnered all-region honors. After rounding out his eligibility, Steven Ihm made his professional debut at the John Deere Classic, made the cut and tied for 27th in his first event as a professional.

IOWA BASEBALL

The Iowa baseball team won 30 games -- the most victories since 2010 -- in Rick Heller's first season as head coach. The Hawkeyes advanced to and won a game in the Big Ten Tournament and had five All-Big Ten and two NABC All-Region selections. Three players were selected in the 2014 MLB Draft.

DID YOU KNOW...

45 percent of UI students are from out of state

Ten University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the 10 best in the nation.

-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2013

With over 30,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (4%) ranks among the nation's lowest. (May, 2012).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

When a student-athlete considers her future, she should consider prospects beyond field hockey. She should consider where she wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, she should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes go after a loose ball or rebound.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.
Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
