Tom Brands
Head Coach
University of Iowa, 1992

Three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year Tom Brands enters his 12th season as head wrestling coach at the University of Iowa. A 1996 Olympic gold medalist and member of wrestling's Hall of Fame, Brands is only the eighth wrestling coach at the University of Iowa. The former Hawkeye wrestler was a four-time All-American and three-time national champion (1989-92) at Iowa. He has a 192-19-1 (.908) overall and 84-7 (.923) Big Ten coaching record at Iowa, and a 209-39-1 (.841) career mark.

In 11 seasons as Iowa's head coach, Brands has led the Hawkeyes to three NCAA and four Big Ten team titles, crowning 10 NCAA champions, 15 Big Ten champions and 61 All-Americans. Iowa has had 89 Academic All-Big Ten recipients, including a school-record 12 in 2011-12. The Hawkeyes have qualified 100 wrestlers for the NCAA Championships in the last 11 years, sending the entire 10-man lineup in 2009, 2010, 2014, and 2015. Iowa has also won or shared eight of the last 10 Big Ten regular season titles.

Iowa also made another entry in the record books, setting the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 42,287 when Iowa defeated top-ranked Oklahoma State, 18-16, on Nov. 14, 2015 at the Grapple on the Gridiron at Kinnick Stadium. Iowa has led the nation in attendance in each of Brands' 11 seasons, setting an NCAA all-time attendance average of 12,166 in 2015-16.

Brands was named 2008 NWCA Coach of the Year after leading the Hawkeyes to their first NCAA team title since 2000 and their first Big Ten team title since 2004. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009 and 2010, becoming the first coach in conference history to earn the honor in three consecutive seasons.

Brands served as head coach at Virginia Tech University for two seasons (2005-06), recording a 17-20 dual mark. In his first season with the Hokies, Brands led the team to the 2005 regular season Atlantic Coast Conference title, set a school record for dual meet wins (16) and had a school-record five wrestlers qualify for the NCAA Championships. During his tenure, Virginia Tech crowned five ACC champions and had two All-Americans. Senior heavy-weight Mike Faust was named 2006 ACC Wrestler of the Year.

Prior to taking the helm at Virginia Tech, Brands was an assistant coach at Iowa for 12 seasons (1993-2004). He helped the Hawkeyes to a 177-27 dual record, seven NCAA and eight Big Ten team titles, while crowning 23 NCAA champions, 73 All-Americans and 36 Big Ten champions. He was named the National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

In 2004, he was one of three coaches for the U.S. Olympic freestyle wrestling team, participating in Athens, and in 2016 he was named a volunteer coach of the United States Olympic team in Rio. Brands also served as assistant coach for the U.S. Freestyle World Teams in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2013, 2014, and 2015. He was named Freestyle Coach of the Year by USA Wrestling in 2002 and 2003. He has coached a number of other U.S. teams in international competition.

As a competitor, Brands won the 1996 Olympic freestyle gold medal at 136.5 pounds in Atlanta, Georgia. He also won a gold medal at the 1993 World Freestyle Championships in Toronto, two World Cup gold medals (1994, 1995) and was the 1995 Pan American Games champion. He won four U.S. National titles (1993-96) and made four straight U.S. World or Olympic teams (1993-96). Along with his twin brother, Terry, Tom was named 1993 USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, the 1993 John Smith Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler, and 1993 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year. He was inducted into wrestling's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Brands was a four-time All-American at Iowa (1989-92). During his Hawkeye career, he won three NCAA titles and was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 1992 NCAA Championships. Also a three-time Big Ten champion, Brands won 95 percent of his matches at Iowa. His career mark of 158-7-2 includes an undefeated season in 1991 (45-0).

The Sheldon, Iowa, native was born April 9, 1968. He earned his B.S. degree in physical education from Iowa in 1992. He and his wife, Jeni, have three children, Madigan, Kinsee and Tommy.

Terry Brands
Associate Head Coach
University of Iowa, 1992

Two-time World Champion and 2000 Olympic bronze medalist Terry Brands is in his 20th season on the University of Iowa staff. Brands was promoted to associate head coach in 2011 after serving two stints (2008-10 and 1992-2000) as an assistant coach at Iowa.

During the last nine seasons, Brands has helped Iowa to two NCAA and three Big Ten team titles, crowning seven NCAA champions, 51 All-Americans, 13 Big Ten champions and 65 academic All-Big Ten honorees. Iowa owns a 147-13-1 dual record since Brands returned to the staff in 2008.

Since returning to campus, Iowa set school records for longest dual unbeaten (84) and winning streaks (69), longest dual road unbeaten (51) and winning streaks (44), most Carver-Hawkeye Arena victories (11) and most dual shutouts (8). Iowa also made another entry in the record books, setting the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 42,287 when it defeated top-ranked Oklahoma State on Nov. 14, 2015, at Kinnick Stadium in the Grapple on the Gridiron.

Brands rejoined the Hawkeye staff in 2008 after a three-year stint (2005-08) as USA Wrestling's National Freestyle Resident Coach in Colorado Springs, Colorado. During his tenure, Brands worked with 2008 U.S. Olympic freestyle gold medalist Henry Cejudo and 2006 World champion Bill Zadick.

He has coached the Hawkeye Wrestling Club since returning to campus, and in 2014 he was named USA Wrestling's Terry McCann Freestyle Coach of the Year.

His previous collegiate coaching experience includes three years as head coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga (2002-05), and as an assistant coach at Montana State-Northern (2001-02), the University of Nebraska (2000-01), and the University of Iowa (1992-2000). At Chattanooga, Brands led the Mocs to the 2005 Southern Conference title, crowning three conference champions and two All-Americans. At Iowa, he helped the Hawkeyes win seven NCAA and Big Ten titles, crowning 19 NCAA and 26 Big Ten champions. Iowa's dual record of 115-12-1 during his tenure included three undefeated seasons (14-0 in 1995, 17-0 in 1996 and 18-0 in 2000).

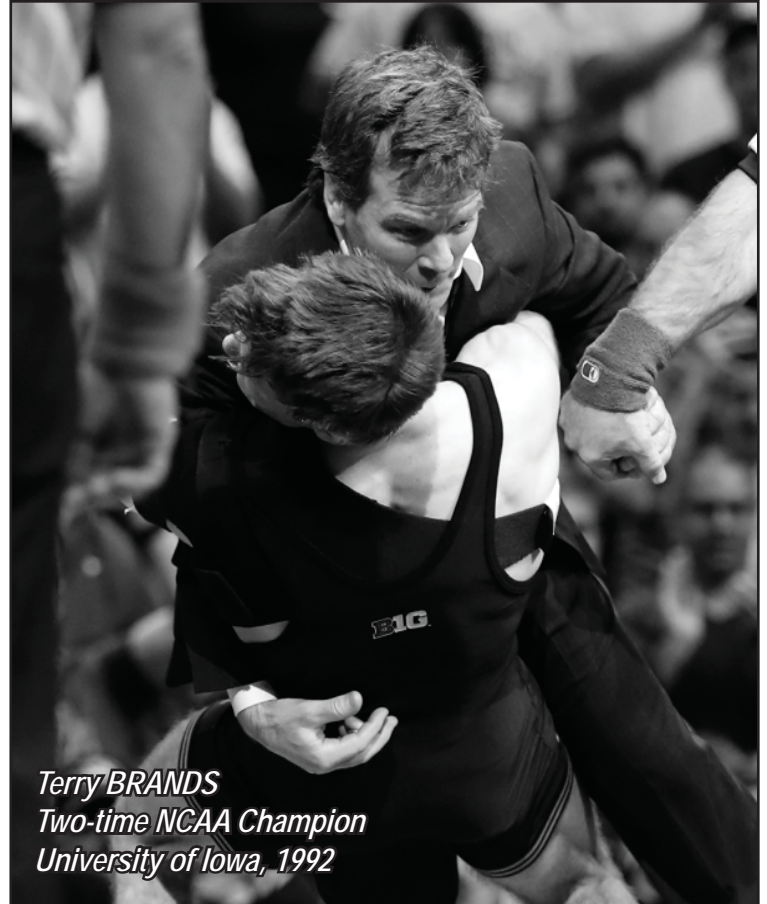

Brands was one of the nation's greatest freestyle wrestlers, winning World titles in 1993 in Toronto, Canada, and in 1995 in Atlanta, Georgia, at 125.5 pounds (57 kg). He won World Team titles as a member of the 1993 and 1995 U.S. World Teams. In 1993, he won a world title the same year his brother, Tom, was a World champion at 136.5 pounds (62 kg). They became the first U.S. brothers to win World Titles during the same year. Terry was named 1993 USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, 1993 John Smith Freestyle Wrestler of the Year and 1993 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year.

Brands placed second at the 1996 U.S. Nationals and the 1996 Olympic Team Trials, falling just short of making the U.S. Olympic Team. He qualified for the 1997 and 1999 U.S. World Teams, but did not compete. In 2000, he made a comeback and won the U.S. Olympic Team Trials at 127.75 pounds (58 kg). He earned a bronze medal at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

A two-time World Cup champion (1994, 1995), Brands won a gold medal at the 1995 Pan American Games. He was a two-time silver medalist at the respected Yarygin Tournament in Krasnoyarsk, Russia. Brands won three U.S. Nationals titles, and was runner-up three times. He was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2006.

Brands was a two-time NCAA champion, three-time All-American and three-time Big Ten champion for the Hawkeyes (1989-92) at 126 pounds. He ended his career at Iowa with a 137-7 record. He ranks fourth in single-season victories (43 - 1990-91), and fifth in career winning percentage (.951) and career wins (137). He ranks sixth in career pins (48) and 10th in single-season pins (18 - 1990-91). He is one of 19 Hawkeyes in program history to post an undefeated season record, going 35-0 in 1991-92.

The Sheldon, Iowa, native was born April 9, 1968. He earned a bachelor of science degree in Human Development from the University of Iowa in 1992. He and his wife, Michelle, have a son, Nelson, and a daughter, Sydney.

University of Iowa, 2009

Ryan Morningstar joined the Hawkeye staff in 2012 after serving as an assistant coach at Wisconsin in 2011-12.

Since joining the Hawkeye staff, Morningstar has helped lead Iowa to three Big Ten regular season dual titles and a conference tournament title. The Hawkeyes have earned 27 All-America honors over the past five seasons and crowned three NCAA champions.

Morningstar began his career in coaching following a collegiate career that included four NCAA appearances (2007-10) as a Hawkeye. He earned All-America honors in 2009 and 2010, and was a member of three NCAA championship teams (2008-10).

Morningstar placed third at the NCAA championships and was a Big Ten runner-up at 165 pounds in 2009. He suffered a knee injury during his senior season (2010) but still went on to place seventh at the NAAs and fourth at the Big Ten championships. That same year he was named Iowa's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner and won the Mike McGivern Award, which is given annually to the team's most courageous wrestler.

A four-year letterwinner from 2007-10, Morningstar owns a career record of 110-40. He was a member of the Hawkeye Wrestling Club in 2010-11 and qualified to compete in the 2012 U.S. Olympic Team Trials at 163 pounds (74 kg).

The Lisbon, Iowa, native graduated from Iowa in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in health and sports studies.

Ben Berhow
Volunteer Assistant Coach
University of Minnesota, 2011

Ben Berhow joined the Iowa coaching staff in 2013.

Berhow works primarily with the heavier weights, and in his first four seasons in the corner, the Hawkeyes crowned 23 All-Americans, including three-timers Nathan Burak and Bobby Telford.

The Hawkeyes won or shared the Big Ten dual meet championship three times since Berhow arrived on campus.

Prior to joining the Hawkeye staff, Berhow spent two years as an administrative assistant at the University of Minnesota.

As a member of the Gophers' staff from 2011-13, Minnesota crowned four Big Ten and two NCAA individual champions, including two-time NCAA heavyweight champion Tony Nelson.

Berhow joined Minnesota's staff following a four-year career with the Gophers that included 78 wins and three national tournament appearances from 2007-10. He received the Minnesota Integrity Award his senior season and was honored with the Verne Gagne Scholarship/Leadership Award as a junior. He earned the Chris Berglin Most Improved Wrestler award after posting an 8-0 Big Ten record as a sophomore.

A native of Hayward, Minnesota, Berhow won the 2006 Minnesota state championship while attending Albert Lea High School. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 2011. He and his wife, Marie, live in Iowa City.

Travis Rutt
Strength & Conditioning Coach
Oklahoma University, 2014

Travis Rutt joined the University of Iowa wrestling staff as strength and conditioning coach in 2015.

Rutt was an All-American at Wisconsin in 2011. He took an Olympic redshirt in 2012 and sat out the 2013 season after transferring to Oklahoma. In 2014, he was Big 12 runner-up at 197 pounds, qualified for the NCAA Championships for the third time in his career, and earned a master of science degree from OU.

Prior to joining the UI staff, Rutt served as the director of strength and fitness at Pinnacle Strong, a private business designed to improve sports performance through strength training for prep and college athletes.

He worked in the strength and conditioning office and served as assistant wrestling coach at Augsburg College during the 2014-15 season, and previously served as the Greco-Roman/strength and conditioning coach for the Minnesota Storm Wrestling Club.

As a college student-athlete, Rutt won the 184-pound title at the 2010 Midlands Championship. He was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Week as a member of the Badgers, and in November 2013 he earned Big 12 Wrestler of the Month honors competing for the Sooners. He was team captain his senior season at OU, and was named to the NWCA All-Academic Team.

Rutt and his wife, Michele, reside in Iowa City with their daughter, Amilia Jo.

Luke Eustice
Director of Operations
University of Iowa, 2004

Former Hawkeye All-American Luke Eustice is in his eighth season as Director of Wrestling Operations. He previously served as the team's administrative assistant for three seasons (2007-2010), and the strength and conditioning coach in 2005-06.

Eustice was a three-year starter at 125 pounds for Iowa from 2002-04. He posted an 86-26 career record, placing second at the 2002 NCAA Championships. He was also a two-time Big Ten runner-up. He competed for the Hawkeye Wrestling Club for three seasons after college.

A native of Blue Earth, Minn., Eustice was born August 26, 1980. He earned his bachelor's degree in history from the University of Iowa in 2004. He and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter, Peyton, and a son, Charlie.

Iowa's Midlands History

Iowa has won a record 26 team titles in the 54-year history of the Midlands Championships. The Hawkeyes won their first team title in 1974, and proceeded to win nine of the next 11. Iowa also won team titles in 1990, 1992, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016. In 2014, the Hawkeyes set a tournament record with 189 points, breaking their previous record of 187.5 set the year before.

Seven former Hawkeyes are enshrined in the Midlands Hall of Fame. They are Ed Banach, Chris Campbell, Steve Combs, Tim Cysewski, Barry Davis, Randy Lewis and Chuck Yagla. Former Hawkeye Head Coach Dan Gable is also a Midlands Hall of Fame member.

Eight former Hawkeyes earned the Art Kraft Champion of Champions Award, while 10 were named the Dan Gable Outstanding Wrestler. The Art Kraft Champion of Champions include Lenny Zalesky (1980), Jim Zalesky (1983), Jim Heffernan (1986), Jeff McGinness (1995), Joe Williams (1996), Eric Juergens (1999), Mark Perry (2007), and Thomas Gilman (2016).

The Dan Gable Outstanding Wrestlers were Randy Lewis (1979), Lenny Zalesky (1980), Ed Banach (1981), Royce Alger (1994), Jeff McGinness (1995), Lincoln McClravy (1997), Joe Williams (1999, 2000), Mark Perry (2007), Brent Metcalf (2009), and Thomas Gilman (2016). Gable was named the tournament's outstanding wrestler five times (1966-69, 1971).

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 65 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized university life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

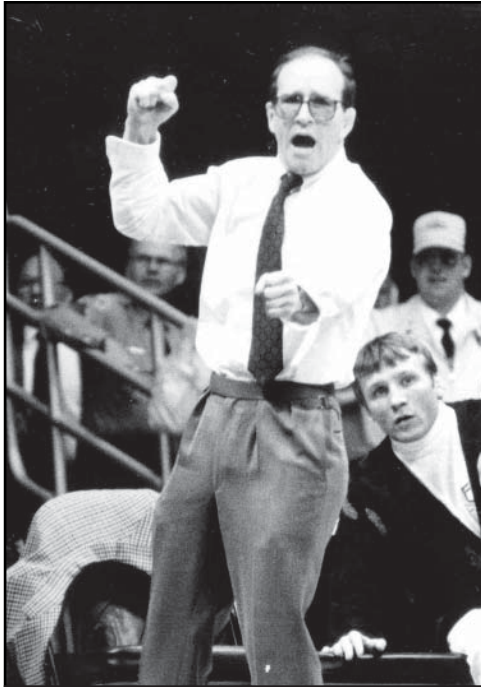

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring (Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.

No team has dominated collegiate wrestling like the University of Iowa Hawkeyes since the mid 1970s. Iowa captured nine straight NCAA titles from 1978-86 and has won 23 of the last 42. During that span Iowa boasts 268 All-Americans and 70 individual champions. Following are summaries of Iowa's 23 NCAA championship seasons.

1975

Iowa posted an undefeated dual season (17-0-1), set a school mark for wins and won its first NCAA title. The team had a school-record five All-Americans, national champs in Chuck Yagla and Dan Holm, and four dual shutouts.

1976

Iowa won its second straight NCAA title and captured 14 of 15 duals. A school-record three Hawkeyes (Brad Smith, Chuck Yagla and Chris Campbell) won NCAA titles. Yagla won his second straight title and was the meet's Outstanding Wrestler. Iowa won the title by almost 40 points and amassed a national record 123 1/4 points.

1978

The Hawkeyes started their nine-year string of national championships and were 15-1 in duals. Iowa's one-half point margin of victory at the NCAA meet gave the Hawkeyes their third title in four years. This team was the first in college history to win the national championship without an individual champion.

1979

Coach Dan Gable's first undefeated and untied (19-0-0) team included NCAA champs Bruce Kinseth and Randy Lewis. Kinseth, who had a school-record 23 pins, was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet. He pinned all four opponents at Big Tens and all five at nationals.

1980

Iowa won its third straight national title with a school-record eight all-Americans, including NCAA champions Randy Lewis (134) and Ed Banach (177). A 34-match dual winning streak was snapped by Cal-Poly, 27-12.

1981

The winningest team (21-1) in Iowa annals boasted nine All-Americans and seven Big Ten champs. Brothers Ed and Lou Banach won NCAA titles. The 10-man lineup had an overall record of 302-45-2. Iowa won the NCAA title by 29 1/2 points.

1982

Three NCAA champions – Barry Davis, Jim Zalesky and Pete Bush – paced the undefeated (16-0-1) national champions. Davis set the Iowa season mark for wins with 46. The Hawkeyes had eight All-Americans and piled up a record 131 3/4 points at the NCAAs.

1983

Iowa set a Big Ten record with nine league champs, compiled a 17-1 dual record and won a sixth consecutive NCAA crown. Iowa had nine All-Americans, a tournament record. Ed Banach won his third NCAA title in four years. Carver-Hawkeye Arena opened its doors with a 35-7 victory over Oklahoma.

1984

The Hawkeyes were 16-1 in duals and won both NCAA and Big Ten titles. Jim Zalesky, named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAAs, posted his second straight undefeated campaign and closed his career with 89 straight wins. Five Hawkeyes made the national championship match.

1985

Gable's second perfect season record (18-0-0) was accomplished with nine All-Americans and eight Big Ten champions. Davis, who won his third NCAA title, earned Outstanding Wrestler. For the second year in a row, five Hawkeyes wrestled in NCAA title matches.

1986

The Hawkeyes' record-tying ninth straight national team title was a record-shattering performance. Iowa set all-time NCAA records for points scored (158), margin of victory (73.25) and national champs (five)! Marty Kistler was the Hawkeyes' third straight NCAA Outstanding Wrestler award winner. Six wrestlers won at least 30 matches. The ninth straight NCAA championship tied the all-time record for consecutive titles.

1991

Iowa regained the national title that had eluded it since 1986, crowning nine All-Americans at the NCAA meet in Iowa City. Tom Brands (134) won his second straight title and was joined on the victory stand by Mark Reiland (167). Tom Brands ended the year with a perfect 45-0 record. Iowa's team total of 157 was just one shy of the NCAA record, set by Iowa in 1986. The Hawkeyes won their 18th straight Big Ten title.

1992

Gable's third perfect season (16-0-0) was accomplished by nine All-Americans, including NCAA champs Terry Brands, Tom Brands, and Troy Steiner. Tom Brands won his third consecutive NCAA title and was named Outstanding Wrestler. The Hawkeyes won their 19th straight Big Ten crown (6 champs) and second straight NCAA title. The Iowa-Iowa State dual meet (a 29-8 Iowa victory) drew an NCAA record 15,291 fans in Iowa City.

1993

Iowa rebounded from a midseason slump to win a third straight NCAA title and 20th consecutive Big Ten title. The Hawkeyes fell from the top of the Amateur Wrestling News poll with a 24-20 loss to Nebraska at the National Duals in Lincoln, NE, in late January, but regrouped to go 8-0 down the stretch. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-America honors, headlined by national champs Lincoln McClravy and Terry Steiner. Steiner was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet, and his brother Troy was selected Big Ten Athlete of the Year. Gable was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the first time.

1995

The Hawkeyes won their 15th NCAA title and 22nd consecutive Big Ten title while posting an undefeated dual meet record (14-0). Nine Hawkeyes were named to the All-America team for the sixth time in school history. The All-Americans were Ray Brinzer, Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness, Lincoln McClravy, Mike Mena, Matt Nerem, Joel Sharratt, Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick.

1996

Iowa finished its second consecutive dual meet season undefeated, posting a 17-0 record. The Hawkeyes won their 23rd consecutive Big Ten title and their 16th national title. Gable was named Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year and sophomore Mark Ironside was selected Big Ten Wrestler of the Year. Seniors Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick and sophomore Joe Williams all won their first NCAA titles. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-American honors, including Lee Fullhart, Ironside, Mike Mena, Mike Uker, Weber, Williams and Zadick.

1997

The Hawkeyes scored an NCAA record 170 team points en route to their 17th national title in Dan Gable's final season as head coach. Iowa crowned five national champions (Jessie Whitmer, Mark Ironside, Lincoln McClravy, Joe Williams and Lee Fullhart), and eight All-Americans. McClravy was named Outstanding Wrestler of the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes also won their 24th consecutive Big Ten title, and Ironside was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year for the second consecutive year.

1998

Led by head coach Jim Zalesky, the Hawkeyes won their 25th consecutive Big Ten title and their 18th national title. Seniors Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness and Joe Williams all won Big Ten and NCAA individual titles. Ironside was named Big Ten wrestler of the Year, McGinness was selected Outstanding Wrestler of the Big Ten meet and Williams garnered Outstanding Wrestler honors at the NCAA meet. Junior Lee Fullhart, freshman Eric Juergens and sophomore Wes Hand earned All-America honors.

1999

Iowa won their eighth NCAA title in the 1990's and their 19th overall at an exciting national meet in University Park, PA. The Hawkeyes' two-point victory margin was the closest in 20 years. Sophomores Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams each won their first national titles, while sophomore Eric Juergens and seniors Lee Fullhart and Jamie Heidt earned All-America honors. Heidt, Schwab and Williams all won Big Ten titles.

2000

The Hawkeyes won seven consecutive matches, scoring 23 1/2 points, in the consolation round to come from behind and win their sixth consecutive NCAA Championship in St. Louis, MO. Iowa crowned one individual national champion in junior 133-pounder Eric Juergens, while juniors Jody Strittmatter, Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams, sophomore Mike Zadick and senior Wes Hand earned All-America honors. The Hawkeyes went 18-0 in duals, and recaptured the conference team title. Big Ten individual champs were Strittmatter, Juergens, Schwab and Williams.

After an eight-year absence, the Hawkeyes regained the top spot on the NCAA Championship podium by winning the school's 21st national title. The team crowned two individual champions - senior Mark Perry (165) and sophomore Brent Metcalf (149) - and had seven All-Americans. Iowa won its 32nd Big Ten title and went 21-1 in dual competition and 8-0 in Big Ten duals. Head Coach Tom Brands was named Coach of the Year by the NWCA, W.I.N. Magazine and the Big Ten. Metcalf was named the Dan Hodge Trophy winner, the Jesse Owens Big Ten Male Athlete of the Year, Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA and Big Ten Championships and Big Ten Wrestler of the Year.

Despite crowning no individual champions, the Hawkeyes collected their second straight team title at the 2009 NCAA Championships in St. Louis, MO. Iowa scored 96.5 points, edging runner-up Ohio State by 4.5 points, to record its 22nd NCAA team title. It's the closest margin of victory since Iowa won the 1999 team title by two points. It also marks only the second time in school history the Hawkeyes have won the NCAA title without an individual champion. Iowa also accomplished that feat in 1978. The Hawkeyes had a total of five All-Americans in juniors Brent Metcalf (149-2nd), Daniel Dennis (133-7th), Ryan Morningstar (165-3rd), Phillip Keddy (184-4th) and Dan Erekson (Hwt.-4th). The Hawkeyes posted a perfect 24-0 dual meet record, going 8-0 in Big Ten duals, and won their 33rd Big Ten team title. Iowa also set the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 15,955 when it hosted Iowa State at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Iowa closed out the 2009-10 season on the winner's stand, bringing the Big Ten and NCAA team trophies back to Iowa City. Iowa won its 23rd NCAA and 34th Big Ten titles while crowning three NCAA champions, eight All-Americans and two Big Ten champions. The team was undefeated at 23-0 in dual competition, marking the 13th perfect season in school history. Iowa was also 11-0 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena and 8-0 in Big Ten duals, winning its third straight conference regular season title. Iowa won the 2009 Midlands and 2010 NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Division I team titles, ending the season on a 61 dual-match winning streak and shutting out eight opponents - both of which are school records. Seniors Brent Metcalf and Jay Borschel, and redshirt freshman Matt McDonough won individual NCAA titles, while seniors Daniel Dennis, Dan Erekson, Phillip Keddy and Ryan Morningstar, and sophomore Montell Marion each earned All-America honors. Borschel and Erekson were Iowa's two Big Ten champions. McDonough was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and Head Coach Tom Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

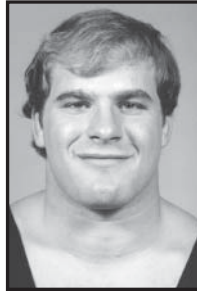

The Hawkeyes won their 23rd national team title at the 2010 NCAA Championships in Omaha. Iowa scored 134.5 points while crowning three individual champions -- seniors Brent Metcalf (149) and Jay Borschel (174), and redshirt freshman Matt McDonough (125).

Dan Hodge Trophy

The WIN Magazine/Culture House Dan Hodge Trophy, presented by ASICS, is awarded annually to the nation's most dominant college wrestler. It is named for the undefeated, three-time NCAA champion from Oklahoma University. Hodge has the highest pinning percentage in collegiate history, and was known for his dominating style of wrestling. The award was first presented in 1995. Former Hawkeyes Mark Ironside (1998) and Brent Metcalf (2008) each won the award.

Mark Ironside was a four-time All-American, four-time Big Ten Champion and two-time NCAA Champion from 1995-98. A three-time Big Ten Wrestler of the Year, he was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 1997 Big Ten Championships. Ironside ended his collegiate career on a 67-match winning streak that spanned three seasons.

Brent Metcalf was a three-time All-American, two-time NCAA Champion and two-time Big Ten Champion from 2008-10. The 2008 Jesse Owens Big Ten Athlete of the Year, Metcalf was Iowa's Big Ten Medal of Honor winner in 2009. He was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 2008 NCAA Championships, and the 2008 and 2009 Big Ten Championships. Metcalf earned spots on the NWCA All-Academic Team and Academic All-Big Ten team three times, and on the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American team in 2010.

Head Coach Gary Kurdelmeier and Assistant Coach Dan Gable, both in their third years at Iowa, were optimistic at the beginning of the 1974-75 season, hoping to defend their Big Ten team title and post a winning dual season. The duo not only accomplished those goals, but added the first NCAA team title in school history and the school's ninth undefeated season (17-0-1) to their list of accomplishments. The Hawkeyes also set then-school records for most all-Americans (5) and most dual wins (17) in a season. Dan Holm and Chuck Yagla each won their first NCAA individual title.

The 1982-83 Hawkeyes set records for most Big Ten champions (9), largest victory margin at the Big Ten Championships (118.5), all-Americans (9), and largest point total (155) and victory margin (53) at the NCAA meet. Senior twin brothers Ed (190) and Lou Banach (Hwt.) won their second NCAA individual titles, making them only the second set of twins in NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships history to win individual titles in the same season two straight years.

Iowa celebrated Dan Gable's 10th season as head coach by winning its ninth consecutive national team title at the 1986 NCAA Championships held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. It equaled the longest streak of national titles won by any school, in any sport, also held by the Yale golf team (1905-13) and the Southern Cal track team (1935-43). The Hawkeyes also set NCAA records for total points (158), victory margin (73.25) and number of national champions (5), and tied the record for most finalists (6).

The 1996-97 wrestling team broke the NCAA record for total points (158), which it set in 1986, with its winning total of 170, and recorded the second-largest victory margin (56.50 points) in NCAA tournament history. The Hawkeyes also crowned five NCAA Champions out of six finalists, both tying NCAA records.

ALWAYS ON THE BIG STAGE

Iowa led the nation in attendance for the 11th consecutive season in 2016-17, averaging 10,591 fans in five home duals. The 2016-17 season marked the ninth straight that Iowa averaged more than 8,000 fans, and the second year in a row the Hawkeyes averaged more than 10,000 fans.

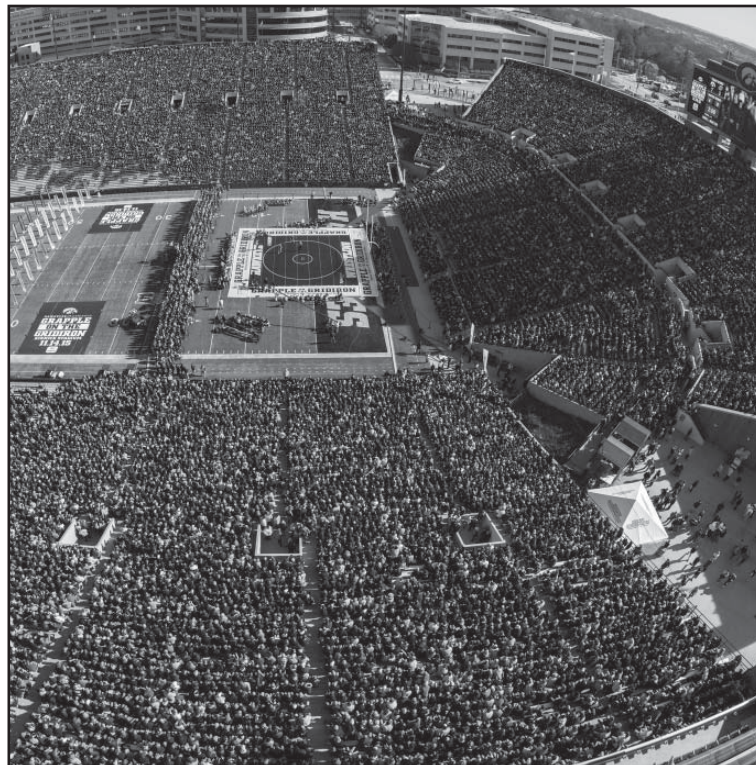

In 2015-16, the University of Iowa wrestling program set a national dual attendance record when 42,287 people watched fourth-ranked Iowa defeat top-ranked Oklahoma State, 18-16, on Nov. 14, 2015 at Kinnick Stadium.

The event was the first on a home schedule that saw 97,325 fans pass through the gates of Kinnick and Carver-Hawkeye Arena, setting a dual attendance average of 12,166.

Iowa has been involved in 45 of the top 50 recorded dual meet crowds, helping set the national attendance record 11 times. Thirty of the top 50 attended duals in NCAA history were Iowa vs. Iowa State.

The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex was a part of the $47 million revitalization and expansion of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The complex features an extended training space, a new locker room, new coaches locker room, student-athlete video center, and a new office suite.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena has been the home of Iowa wrestling since 1983. The facility is one of the finest of its kind in the world, and it seats 15,077 fans for a dual wrestling meet. The arena is named after the late Roy J. Carver, a long-time friend and contributor to the University. Carver had a love for Iowa athletics and a lifelong affection for wrestling. Carver died in 1981 at the age of 71.

Iowa's basketball and volleyball squads also compete in the bowl-shaped arena. The multi-purpose building has also been the site of banquets, concerts, exhibition shows, and graduation ceremonies. Besides the main floor, where dual meets are staged, the arena boasts one of the best wrestling training rooms in the nation. The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex features three mats, a locker room, sauna, weight-lifting facilities, and retractable bleachers.

The Board of Regents, State of Iowa approved the schematic design, project description, budget, and financing plan for a $47 million addition and revitalization of the arena that was completed in 2011. The Carver-Hawkeye Arena – Addition and Renovation Project added a practice facility immediately north of the arena for use by the Hawkeye men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs; renovation of the practice, fitness and weight-training facilities utilized by the wrestling program; renovation and expansion of other fitness and weight-training space in the arena utilized by the majority of Iowa's 24 sports; the renovation and expansion of locker rooms in the facility; and the renovation of existing and the creation of new office, meeting, and storage space for use by administrative and coaching staff of the Athletics Department. The project began in the fall of 2009 and the UI Department of Athletics moved back into the facility in July, 2011.

The revitalization of the arena also extends into spaces used by the general public on game days and nights. This includes renovation of select concessions and rest-room facilities, and the creation of hospitality and meeting spaces. There are also club facilities for fans of the Hawkeyes who choose to participate in a variety of premium seating options similar to those available in the Paul W. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick Stadium.

In 2016, a new four-sided centerhung video system was installed in the main arena. The video screen can display any combination of live video, instant replays, statistics, game information, animations and sponsorship messages.

The Hawkeyes have a .909 winning percentage at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa's 239-24 all-time mark in the building includes a record 11 home wins during the 2010 and 2015 seasons. The Hawkeyes have recorded 20 undefeated seasons in Carver-Hawkeye, with the most recent (9-0) occurring in 2012-13. The first event held in the arena was a wrestling meet on January 3, 1983. Iowa beat Oklahoma 35-7. Iowa all-American Tim Riley won the first match contested in the arena.

On Dec. 6, 2008, Iowa set the then-NCAA wrestling dual meet attendance record when 15,955 fans saw the Hawkeyes defeat Iowa State, 20-15, in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

In all, the Hawkeyes have hosted several conference and national tournaments. Four Big Ten (1983, 1994, 2005, and 2016) and four NCAA Championships (1986, 1991, 1995 and 2001) were held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, with Iowa winning the team title five of the eight times. Carver-Hawkeye Arena also hosted the 2012 and 2016 U.S. Olympic trials, the annual N.W.C.A. All-Star Wrestling Classic in 1993 and 1996, and the Cliff Keen/N.W.C.A. National Duals in 1998 and 1999.

In April 2018, Carver-Hawkeye Arena hosts the UWW World Cup, an international dual tournament featuring the top eight wrestling teams in the world.

Hawkeye Visions is on an on-going campaign, which seeks to build an endowment capable of covering the cost, via earnings, of UI student-athlete scholarships. The program currently includes almost 200 scholarships ranging from fully endowed scholarships, partially endowed, in development or scholarships pledged via an estate gift. The following scholarships were given for the specific benefit of Hawkeye Wrestling.

John and Ruth Beckman Wrestling Scholarship

The Beckman Wrestling Scholarship, along with similar scholarships for football and the Hawkeye Marching Band, was established in 1985 by the Beckmans. John worked for Hawkeye Castings, Inc. in Manchester, IA. He passed away in 1991. Ruth passed away in 2006.

John and Mary Ann Colloton Wrestling Scholarship

The Colloton Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1998 with a generous gift from longtime Hawkeye fans John and Mary Ann Colloton of Iowa City. John, who earned degrees from Loras College and the UI, was director of UI Hospitals and Clinics from 1971-93. He is the UI's Vice President Emeritus for Statewide Health Services and received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the UI in 1999. Mary Ann, a 1957 UI graduate, served as a staff nurse at the UIHC from 1957-63 and passed away in 2014. The Collotons also generously established scholarships benefitting football, men's basketball and women's basketball.

Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Wrestling Scholarship

In 2008, Russ and Ann Gerdin extended their Hawkeye legacy with the largest athletic scholarship gift in University history: a $5 million commitment to establish the Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Athletic Scholarship Fund. As part of that gift, the Gerdin Wrestling Scholarship was established. Russ Gerdin was the founder, and former president and chief executive officer of Coralville-based trucking company Heartland Express, Inc. Russ passed away in 2011. The Gerdins have supported the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center, the UI Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the J. Hayden Fry Center for Prostate Cancer Research, the aforementioned athletic scholarships, and the renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

Donald W. and Marilyn Heineking Wrestling Scholarship

The Heineking Wrestling Scholarship was established in 2003. Since that time, additional Heineking scholarships have been established in women's basketball, volleyball, softball, baseball, football and men's track/cross country, along with a men's basketball manager's scholarship. Don is a 1958 UI business graduate and former president of Security State Bank in Hubbard, IA. He is a member of the UI Foundation Board of Directors, the Johnson County I-Club Board of Directors and the National I-Club Board of Directors (honorary) and a member of the Iowa Scholarship Fund Board of Directors. Don lives in Iowa City and is a member of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation. Marilyn Heineking passed away in February of 2004.

Robert G. and Annalee Jacoby Hockridge Wrestling Scholarship

The Hockridge Scholarship was established by Bettendorf natives, Robert (Bob) and Annalee Jacoby (Jake) Hockridge in 2004. Both Bob and Jake are members of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation and have been loyal ticketholders and contributors since the early 1970s. Robert is a graduate of the UI with a degree in accounting. He was an executive vice president of finance at Brammer Manufacturing Company prior to his retirement in 1995. Jake received her degree in elementary education from UNI. The Hockridges both passed away in 2015.

Johnson County I-Club Wrestling Scholarship

The National I-Club has dozens of local I-Club chapters that form a strong presence within communities to gather Hawks together, carry the message of the National I-Club, and serve as a united voice of support for Iowa athletics across the state and beyond. The Johnson County is one of those local chapters. The club raises funds by organizing events, game watches, golf tournaments, I-Club breakfasts, and more throughout the year. The Johnson County I-Club first established a football scholarship in 2001 and then endowed a wrestling scholarship in 2009. Both scholarships are awarded annually to athletes from the Johnson County area.

Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship

The Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship was established by Gary's family and friends as a tribute to the highly successful UI wrestler, coach and administrator following his death in 1998. Kurdelmeier graduated from the UI in 1959 where he was a Big Ten Champion, NCAA Champion and team captain for the Hawkeyes. He served as UI assistant wrestling coach from 1967-72 and then head coach from 1973-76. During his tenure, the Hawkeyes won three Big Ten Championships, two NCAA team titles and Kurdelmeier was named national coach of the year in 1975. He also secured the future of Iowa wrestling when he and former UI Athletic Director, Bump Elliott, hired Dan Gable as an assistant coach.

William and Kay Pitlik Wrestling Scholarship

Bill and Kay Pitlik of Cedar Rapids, IA, first created an endowed scholarship in 1998 to show their love for the Hawkeyes. Both graduated from the University of Iowa, Kay in 1952 and Bill in 1953. The Pitliks owned and operated Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company for many years in Cedar Rapids. Kay is an avid Hawkeye fan, and prior to Bill's death in 2008, they also endowed scholarships to benefit women's basketball, field hockey and football (2). Kay continues to support UI athletics very generously, in Bill's honor, including a naming gift to the wrestling area in the newly renovated Carver Hawkeye Arena.

John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship

The John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1999 through a generous estate gift by the Sill family. John and Dorothy were both born and raised in small town Iowa. They were married in 1941 and managed a family farm until 1959. They later moved to Manchester, IA, where he was the manager of the Delaware County Mutual Insurance Association and opened his own insurance agency. They were very active in the community and proud supporters of the West Delaware and University of Iowa athletic teams. John passed away in 1989. Dorothy followed in 1999.

Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship

Gary and Camille Seamans established the Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship in 2001. It is a tribute to the aggressive, determined and dominating style that Hawkeye wrestlers have exhibited under head coaches Gary Kurdelmeier, Dan Gable, Jim Zalesky and Tom Brands. An Iowa City native, Gary received his B.S. in electrical engineering from the UI and enjoyed a successful career in the telecommunications industry, retiring as chairman and CEO of Westell Technologies in 1998. Camille is a native of Dekalb, IL, and is now retired from her role as director of human resources for the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation of Chicago. Gary is a past recipient of the UI Alumni Association's Distinguished Young Alumnus Award.

To make a gift or for more information about the Hawkeye Visions Endowment Program, please contact Sloane R. Tyler, Director of Development, (319) 467-3736 or (800) 648-6973.

The University of Iowa Center for Advancement is the preferred channel of support for private contributions to all areas of The University of Iowa. For a complete list of all named, endowed scholarships please visit www.jointheclub.com.

Bruce Harreld
President, The University of Iowa

Bruce Harreld became the 21st president of the University of Iowa on November 2, 2015. He received a Bachelor of Engineering degree from Purdue University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Harvard University.

President Harreld served on the faculty of Harvard Business School from 2008–2014, with dual appointments to the entrepreneurial and strategy units. He was faculty chair of the Building New Businesses in Established Organizations program. As a faculty member, he taught in numerous executive programs in Cambridge, Qatar, Mumbai, and Shanghai. He also has been an adjunct professor at Northwestern University in the Kellogg School of Management, developing the first-ever MBA course on Strategic Use of Information Technology.

President Harreld has served in several corporate leadership positions. As senior vice president and division president of Kraft General Foods, he led the strategic unit that formulated strategy and executed acquisitions for this multibillion-dollar company. As president and board member of Boston Market Company, he, along with five other partners, led the organization from 20 stores in the Boston area to over 1,100 stores nationally. As senior vice president of IBM, President Harreld worked with the CEO and senior management team to chart the organization's transformation from near bankruptcy, led the business transformation team that streamlined operations and reintegrated the global organization, and led the strategy unit that was responsible for the formulation and execution of the company's overall strategy. President Harreld has also served as a consultant, advising public, private, and military organizations on leadership, organic growth, and strategic renewal, including serving as manager, vice president, and member of the board of the Boston Consulting Group.

President Harreld is the author or coauthor of numerous articles and book chapters in such journals and magazines as the Harvard Business Review, California Management Review, and Financial Executive, and books and monographs such as Leading Sustainable Change: An Organizational Perspective (Oxford University Press, 2015) and Core Curriculum Strategy Reading: Executive Strategy (Harvard Business Publishing, 2014). He has also authored or coauthored several case studies for Harvard Business Publishing.

President Harreld has received several awards, including the Accenture Award for best business article of the year and the Distinguished Industrial Engineer and Distinguished Engineering Awards from Purdue University.

President Harreld is married to Mary Gillilan Harreld, an attorney. They have four children and six grandchildren.

Gary A. Barta
Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie
Athletics Director Chair

Gary Barta is in his 12th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa, where he occupies the Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Athletics Director Chair. The position was recently endowed by the Tippies, longtime supporters of the University of Iowa and Hawkeye Athletics. Henry B. Tippie earned his UI degree in 1952 and was presented an honorary degree in 2011.

Barta was recognized by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) as a 2015-16 Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year. In 2016, Barta received a contract extension keeping him in Iowa City through 2021.

In the past year, Iowa Athletics staff, coaches, and Hawkeye student-athletes have continued to raise the bar in their daily approach to: "Win. Graduate. Do It Right." There is tremendous momentum surrounding the entire Athletics program in all three areas.

Barta has engineered a significant Senior Staff reorganization the past few years. The recent changes have allowed the ability to fill a number of key positions with new faces, while realigning staff assignments to fit the needs of Hawkeye coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

In 2016-17, the UI's annual operating budget exceeded $100 million for the first time, with 100 percent of the revenue generated by the UI Athletics Department through external funding. The majority of revenue is derived from traditional revenue sources that include: Big Ten Conference revenue share (including media rights), sales of tickets to athletic events on the UI campus, and contributions from loyal Hawkeye fans throughout Iowa and across the country.

Support for Hawkeye Athletics has grown significantly under Barta's leadership. An all-time record $42 million in fundraising activity was achieved in 2016-17. This philanthropic support has been critical to the long list of Athletics facilities either built or renovated during Barta's 11 years at Iowa.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City community extends beyond his position as director of the UI's Intercollegiate Athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president.

Barta remains active at the conference and national level. He serves on the Rose Bowl Management Committee and is currently involved in the NCAA Transfer Working Group. He is also regularly involved in NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) and LEAD1 (formerly known as the Division IA Athletic Directors Association).

From a community standpoint, Barta is currently serving as the Chair of the United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties Board of Directors. He is a long-standing member of the Partnership for Alcohol Safety Committee, and has been a regular participant in numerous Chamber and Convention and Visitor Bureau initiatives during his tenure.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the Department is undergoing a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

• Win •

- Rick Heller and the Iowa baseball program won the 2017 Big Ten Conference tournament championship for the first time in program history and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons. The Hawkeyes posted 39 victories—the fifth most in school history—and reached the Big Ten title game for a second consecutive season. Iowa's line-up included national home run leader Jake Adams, who set Iowa and Big Ten records with 29 home runs.
- Four players were selected in the 2017 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, moving the four-year total to 15 under Heller—the most in school history. Jake Adams and Mason McCoy were selected within seven picks of each other in the sixth round. They were the highest Iowa draft picks since 1999 and the highest by a position player since 1992.
- Joey Woody's track and field team matched a school record by sending 15 individuals to the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The men's squad scored 15 points to finish 17th in the nation, Iowa's best finish in 50 years. Aaron Mallett (110-meter hurdles, 4th), Reno Tuufuli (discus, 5th) and the 1,600-meter relay team (3rd), earned first-team All-America honors. Junior Brittany Brown (200 meters, 7th) and Lauauga Tausaga (discus, 7th) paced the women's team as first-team All-Americans.
- The Iowa men's track team earned the Hy-Vee Cup at the Drake Relays, recording the highest point total of all university men's teams competing in one of the premier track and field meets in the nation.
- Under fifth-year head coach Andrew Carter, the Iowa rowing program was selected to the NCAA Championships for the second time in program history, ending a 16-year drought. The Hawkeyes finished fourth in the Big Ten and were ranked as high as 11th in the nation during the season. Carter was named NCAA Regional Coach of the Year.
- Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad finished third in the Big Ten and fourth at the NCAA Championships. Senior Cory Clark won an NCAA title at 133 pounds and the Hawkeyes crowned five All-Americans. Thomas Gilman and Sammy Brooks won Big Ten individual championships; Michael Kemerer and Cash Wilcke were named to Amateur Wrestling News All-Rookie Team.
- Iowa football appeared in its fourth straight January bowl game following the 2016 season, as the Hawkeyes have won 20 games over the past two seasons.
- Iowa football participated in the Big Ten Conference football championship game in 2015 and appeared in the 2016 Rose Bowl Game.
- Iowa football has appeared in 14 bowl games under head coach Kirk Ferentz, including 10 January bowl games.
- Under Fran McCaffery, the Iowa men's basketball team advanced to the postseason for a sixth consecutive season (three NCAA, three NIT), reaching the second round of the NIT before falling to the eventual tournament champion in overtime. Two Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team selection Peter Jok. The Hawkeyes have had a first-team All-Big selection for four consecutive seasons.

Barta's Administrative Career

Position	Years
Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Athletics Director Chair, Iowa	Aug. 1, 2006-Present
Athletic Director, Wyoming	2003-2006
Senior Associate A.D., Washington	1996-2003
Director of Athletics Development/External Relations, Northern Iowa	1990-1996
Associate Director of Development, North Dakota State	1988-1990

- Lisa Bluder's Hawkeye women's basketball team advanced to postseason play for the 10th straight season while fielding a very young team comprised of nine underclassmen and five upperclassmen. Iowa advanced to the fourth round of the WNIT, collecting postseason wins over Missouri State, South Dakota, and Colorado. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors and five earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition.
- The UI men's golf team, under the direction of third-year head coach Tyler Stith, competed in its ninth straight NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes placed fourth in the Big Ten Championships.
- Larissa Libby's GymHawks advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the ninth time in the last 10 seasons, where they finished third (195.050). Senior Angel Metcalf and freshman Clair Kaji advanced as individual competitors at the NCAA Championships. The GymHawks were third at the Big Ten Championships, with five gymnasts earning All-Big Ten honors.
- JD Reive's UI men's gymnastics squad placed fifth at the Big Ten Championships and saw Matt Loochtan garner first-team All-Big Ten recognition. Five student-athletes advanced to NCAA individual event finals.
- First-year head coach Sasha Schmid led the women's tennis team to a plus-five improvement in conference wins from the previous season and guided Iowa back to the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2014. Elise van Heuvelen was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten.
- The Iowa women's swimming and diving team placed 26th as a team at the 2017 NCAA Championships under Marc Long – the program's highest finish since 2005. The Hawkeyes had two first-team All-Americans in Emma Sougstad and Calli Head.
- The Iowa men's and women's swimming and diving teams both tallied Top-40 finishes at the NCAA Championships under head coach Marc Long. The program had two student-athletes—junior Emma Sougstad (100 breast) and senior Roman Trussov (100 breast, 200 breast)—garner three All-America distinctions.
- In his third year as head coach, Bond Shymansky guided the volleyball team to one of the best volleyball seasons in program history. Iowa finished the regular season with a 19-13 overall record and a 9-11 mark in Big Ten play, recording the program's first winning season since 2000. Loxley Keala became the eighth player in program history to garner 2,000 assists, a feat she accomplished in just two years with the program. As a senior, Keala amassed 1,212 assists and became the first Hawkeye to earn All-Big Ten honors since 2001.

• Graduate •

- In October 2016, the NCAA reported Iowa's student-athletes set a Hawkeye record by posting a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) score of 90 percent. Iowa student-athletes also earned a 76 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR). The FGR is also a record, and tops among the three Board of Regents State of Iowa institutions.
- Sixteen teams improved their GSR over 2015-16 while 16 teams also improved their Academic Progress Rate (APR) over the previous year.
- The grade point average for all UI student-athletes has reached 3.0 or above for the past two years, which exceeds the GPA average for all students attending the University of Iowa.
- Last May, the NCAA reported all 24 of Iowa's sports programs were comfortably above the APR threshold for the seventh straight year. The NCAA also singled out the men's golf, women's swimming and diving, and men's gymnastics teams for APR scores that ranked in the top 10 percent of their peer groups.
- Women's basketball senior Ally Disterhoft was named College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-American of the Year for the second straight year. Disterhoft is just the fifth scholar-athlete to win the prestigious award in back-to-back years since its inception in 1987-

- 88 and the second Big Ten athlete to accomplish the feat.
- One-hundred-eighty-three UI student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition throughout the year.
- Forty-five UI student-athletes earned the Big Ten Conference Distinguished Scholar Award.
- The women's rowing program featured 15 Academic All-Big Ten selections and four Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association National Scholar-Athletes.
- Men's gymnastics tied a school record with nine Academic All-Big Ten selections. Senior Jack Boyle was named a finalist for the Nissen-Emery Award, given to the country's most outstanding senior gymnast in the gym and in the classroom.
- Seven men's and women's swimming student-athletes were named College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) Scholar All-Americans and 21 earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition.
- Wrestlers Michael Kemerer, Alex Meyer, and Brandon Sorensen were named to the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) All-Academic Team.

• Do It Right •

- The UI provides a superior experience for the more than 650 talented student-athletes who participate in the program annually and the more than one million friends and fans of the UI who attend Hawkeye events on the UI campus while being responsible and productive citizens of the greater Iowa City and University of Iowa community.
- Iowa remains among the handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully maintains its status as 100 percent self-supporting.
- UI student-athletes, coaches, and staff are also active local leaders, logging 15,000 hours of community service and spearheading efforts to support a wide variety of causes ranging from construction of the UI's new Stead Family Children's Hospital, to the UI's extremely successful Dance Marathon, to involvement with Coaches vs. Cancer.
- Iowa football has been involved with the Stead Family Children's Hospital "Kid Captain" program for 11 years. UI Athletics teamed with the UI Alumni Association on the "Black and Gold Fridays" outreach program and partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation on "Extra Yard for (K-12) Teachers" program.
- Iowa's annual "Day of Caring" serves as the foundation upon which all these outreach activities rest. Now in its 22nd year of existence, the Day of Caring happens each April and typically involves representatives of most, if not all, of Iowa's sports programs who provide a wide variety of assistance to myriad not-for-profit organizations that serve the greater Iowa City community.
- "Doing It Right" also encompasses efforts aimed at improving the student-athlete experience. The UI Athletics Department invested more than $1.7 million directly into food cost for its student-athletes in 2014-15 in response to NCAA legislation aimed at providing a higher quality student-athlete experience, with that figure exceeding $1.9 in 2016-17. That commitment will continue annually and is complemented by increases to the value of the scholarships awarded the UI's student-athletes as part of the NCAA's effort to fully address cost of attendance.
- The Ladies Football Academy, spearheaded by Mary and Kirk Ferentz, has donated more than $1.8 million to the University of Iowa's Stead Family Children's Hospital, which opened recently across the street from Kinnick Stadium.
- Margaret and Fran McCaffery have been champions for Coaches vs. Cancer and the American Cancer Society (ACS). The McCafferys have been actively involved with the Coaches vs. Cancer program and have raised more than $2 million to support ACS efforts.

• Facilities •

Providing the resources for UI student-athletes and coaches to be successful is a priority for Barta and his senior management team. That process includes providing state-of-the-art facilities, which is why Barta continues to work closely with institutional leadership on the finalization of a comprehensive master plan for the facilities available to the Hawkeyes. Recently completed and additional facility projects on the horizon include:

- Initial phases of the Kinnick Edge, an $89 million project over the next two years that includes complete replacement of the north end zone in Kinnick Stadium that will provide new and improved indoor and outdoor seating and amenities, additional video wall, and a new playing surface in Iowa's historic football stadium.
- Construction of the $55 million Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center, completed in 2015.
- Center-hung videoboards in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, along with new sound and lighting systems.
- Forty-seven million dollar revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena.
- Installation of a new video wall and video ribbon board at Kinnick Stadium.
- Partnered in construction of a new indoor turf facility that accommodates Olympic sports such as baseball, softball, golf, and soccer.
- Renovation of the practice space inside the UI Fieldhouse for the men's and women's gymnastics teams.
- Construction of the James M. Hoak Family Golf Complex for the men's and women's golf programs.
- Installation of FieldTurf on the outdoor football practice fields, matching the playing surface of Kinnick Stadium.
- Design and construction of a new clubhouse and pro shop at Finkbine Golf Course scheduled for completion in 2019.
- Renovation and upgrades for the Gerdin Athletic Learning Center, home to the UI's Student-Athlete Academic Services staff, scheduled for completion spring 2018.
- Installation of a banked track in the UI Recreation Building, home of UI indoor track programs.

- Stadium upgrades to the baseball (Duane Banks Field) and softball (Bob Pearl Field) facilities.
- Olympic sport improvements for soccer, gymnastics, volleyball, field hockey, and several other teams.

• Fan Support •

- In 2016-17, Iowa ranked in the Top 25 in home attendance for football, women's basketball, and men's basketball, while once again leading the nation in wrestling home attendance.
- Iowa ranked 20th in the nation in football home attendance in 2016 (69,656)
- Iowa ranked in the Top 25 in the nation in men's basketball home attendance in 2016-17 (12,548).
- Iowa ranked 19th in the nation in women's basketball home attendance in 2016-17 (4,395).
- Iowa led the nation in wrestling home attendance in 2016-17 (10,591). The Hawkeyes have led the nation in attendance for the 11 straight seasons.

• Personal •

- As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different Wyoming coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. Barta spearheaded a fundraising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds.
- As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several Washington athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included managing corporate sponsorship and radio contracts. His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

- The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.
- Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.
- Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (19), and a daughter, Madison (17). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

The Athletic Communications Office is located in Suite S300 in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The office phone number is 319/335-9411 and the FAX number is 319/335-9417.

Roe was named director of athletic communications in July, 2011, after serving as interim director for one year. He was named assistant athletics director in 2016. He joined the Hawkeye staff in 1990 and was named associate director in 1997. The Iowa City native earned his bachelor's degree from Buena Vista University and his master's degree from Northeast Louisiana University. He is the author of "HAWKEYES FOR LIFE", published in 2007. Steve and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Nike, and a son, James, two granddaughters, Teagan (12) and Lydia (4), and a grandson, Jack (7). Both Nike (law degree) and James (bachelor's degree) earned degrees from the University of Iowa.

Wagner is in her 19th year as an assistant after previously serving as a student assistant for four years and as an intern for two years. A native of Iowa Falls, Wagner earned her bachelor's degree in 1997 with a double major in journalism and communication studies. Traci and her husband, Jason, have a son, Nick, and a daughter, Sydney.

Weitzel was named associate director in July, 2012, after serving as assistant director since 1998. Weitzel graduated from the University of Iowa in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communication, with an emphasis in business. The native of Mundelein, Illinois, was a student in the sports information office for three years.

Brewer was named associate director in 2016 after serving as an assistant director since 2009. He was named Division I Wrestling Sports Information Director of the Year by the National Wrestling Media Association (NWMA) in 2016. In 2004, the Iowa City native earned his English degree from the University of Iowa and served as a graduate assistant with the Detroit Lions media relations department. He and his wife, Brooke, have a daughter, Elyse, and a son, Del.

Miller was named director of athletic content in 2016 after serving as director of new media in the University of Iowa athletics department for 10 years. Prior to that, Miller spent nearly 20 years working in the newspaper and sports information professions. He is a 1984 graduate of Tipton (Iowa) High School and a 1988 graduate of Wartburg College, majoring in communication arts (journalism/public relations). Miller and his wife, Ann, have four children: Ashley, Melissa, Brittney and Kyle, and one grandson, Ryker.

Allan was named associate director of content in 2016 following seven years as a full-time assistant. It is Allan's second stint in the office, as he served as a student assistant from 2000-04. Allan returned to Iowa City after serving as the sports information director at the University of Missouri-Kansas City from 2005-10, and as the athletics media relations intern at Texas Christian University in 2004-05. The Hampton, Iowa, native earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Iowa in May, 2004. He and his wife, Mary Ann, have four children, Jonathan, Will, Eleanor, and Olivia.

Britt became a fulltime member of the Iowa staff in July, 2015. She served as a student assistant in the Athletic Communications office during her four years as an undergraduate. Britt, a native of Plano, Illinois, earned her bachelor's degree from Iowa in journalism and sports studies in 2015.

Gold is in her second year as assistant director, joining the Iowa program after serving as assistant director of media relations at New Mexico State University. She also served as a media relations assistant at the University of Louisiana Monroe (2014-15) and as a student worker at LSU (2013-14). Gold earned her master's degree from LSU in 2014 and her bachelor's degree from Christian Brothers University in 2012.

Ray joined the UI athletics department in December, 2013, as the athletics department photographer. Ray previously was the Iowa City chief photographer and senior visual journalist for the Cedar Rapids Gazette and is a Davenport, Iowa native. Ray earned a bachelor's degree from Iowa in journalism and psychology in 2002. Brian and his wife, Joanna, have a son, Boston, and a daughter, Joslynn.
