I Am Most Thankful For...: My family!!! I couldn't have come to Iowa without the great support that they give me. It's nice to know that I can be away from home for six months and when I return I'm still loved just as much.

WHY IOWA?

I chose the University of Iowa for a variety of reasons. The first was when I came on my official visit, I got along with the team really well! And the second is because I wanted a college town with lots of school traditions and the University of Iowa filled that. Besides all of that, I felt like I was handed a great opportunity that most people don't get and I just couldn't pass it up.

WHY IOWA?

Growing up in Coralville, I was one of many adolescents who dreamed of being a Hawkeye. That kind of following says a lot about the quality of a university. Not only were both of my brothers graduates from the U of I, but as I became interested in a career in journalism – it was Iowa's school of Journalism and Mass Communication's stellar reputation that really sold me. Lastly, I really saw a lot of potential in the soccer program. I remember thinking how amazing it would be to be a part of a transformation into something really monumental.

A combination of factors brought me to Iowa. I loved the campus and the whole college atmosphere offered at Iowa. I was also impressed by the athletic environment with high-quality facilities and staff, and the appeals of the challenging competition of the Big Ten Conference. Additionally, the amount of support that the various teams and the athletic department receive from the community was evident and something that I wanted to be a part of. Finally, the prestigious medical and nursing programs, in addition to the soccer program, made Iowa a good fit for me. In the end, I think I made a great choice. I love my teammates, my coaches, and the challenging academic and athletic environment that pushes me to grow as a person and a player. Go Hawks!

Surprising Fact: I have moved 13 times.

I Am Most Thankful For...: The support of the people around me and the time and effort they put into me to ensure that I am the best I can be.

WHY IOWA?

I chose Iowa because of the people and the structure of the school. I have not encountered anyone that is not willing to help when there is a problem. The environment of the school allows me to know that I will grow immensely. Picking this school over any other was easy because of the homelike feeling given off by the coaches and teammates. I am positive that my game will be at its peak when I leave Iowa due to the dedication that the coaching staff has to the girls. That is probably my number one reason for becoming a Hawkeye.
