DH - doubleheader

All times Central and subject to change.

Pearl Field was dedicated on October 2, 1999, in honor of the late Robert L. Pearl, who was the first African-American baseball player at the University of Iowa and a longtime supporter of Hawkeye softball.

Pearl Field was completely renovated after the flood of 2008 destroyed nearly the entire complex. The stadium now includes a new, state-of-the-art locker room with spacious player lockers, a large, flat-screen plasma television with video equipment for film watching, a new team room, new concession and restroom areas and a new batting cage/bullpen area.

Iowa's locker room at Pearl Field was also renovated after the flood. The new game day locker room includes state-of-the-art lockers, audio and visual equipment along with shower spaces. The locker room is connected to the dugout, giving the Hawkeyes a great meeting space before games and between doubleheaders.

During the offseason and preseason workouts, the Hawkeyes make their home at the UI Recreation Building connected to the indoor practice facility known as "The Bubble". Iowa's locker room was completely renovated during the 2007-08 year, and now includes more spacious lockers and shower areas. It also features a team meeting area, complete with leather couches and flat screen televisions for film work.

"We're privileged to have a facility like Pearl Field with an infield surface that we can play when it is rain or shine. The facility is very intimate, as the fans are sitting right on top of the field, which makes it very loud. We're priveleged to have the name that we do on the field. It represents a lot at the University and within the country. We're proud to have this facility that we can call home."

Two seasons ago, the Iowa softball team moved into upgraded facilities at the University of Iowa Rec Building. The new facilities, include larger space, upgraded training and weight rooms, expanded equipment lockers, spacious locker room, student-athlete lounge with flat screen televisions and hot and cold tubs.

"We're fortunate to have two facilities that our team can call home. In the offseason, we use the locker room in the Rec Building, which allows us easy access to the weight room and indoor practice facility. In the spring and fall, we use the clubhouse at the field that becomes our home away from home. We are very fortunate to have quality facilities for our program."

WEIGHT ROOM

“One of the unsung heroes in softball in any program I have been a part of, and I want it to be here, is the strength and conditioning program. It is a multi-prong system in five areas, as it makes us stronger, quicker, faster, more powerful and mentally tough. By buying into the strength and conditioning program, it can make us into a championship program versus just an average program.”

MARLA LOOPER | HEAD COACH

The Iowa softball program continues working hard to improve our game on the field by getting stronger and more explosive off of it -- in the weight room and by improving fitness levels and techniques of speed, agility, and quickness. We give ourselves the best chance to put the best team on the field by analyzing weaknesses and movement patterns of current players and minimizing down time due to injury. Along the way, we will create championship level work habits and discipline. We truly believe that success is a culmination of the right daily habits on and off the field.

We have four Goals in our strength and conditioning program

1) INCREASE ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

- Improve your game with better speed and explosive power
- Throw and hit harder, run faster by developing a strong and explosive lower body and core.

2) DECREASE RATE OF INJURY

- Significantly reduce your risk of joint and tendon injuries.
- Build the right strength and flexibility in the upper body to create not only better arm strength but healthier arms and shoulders.

3) INCREASE SELF CONFIDENCE

- There is a certain confidence in knowing you have prepared yourself and given yourself a chance to be successful.

4) IMPROVE MENTAL TOUGHNESS

- We will not be distracted and will develop the ability to focus on the task at hand and not be deterred by every day highs and lows

“The strength and conditioning program has been amazing, as it has helped me to get stronger and faster both mentally and physically. Gabby is excellent at her job; she knows exactly what workouts we need to do in order to get to our physical peak. The program aids us in becoming an all-around stronger and faster team, which in the sport of softball is vital to competing and winning, especially at the Division I level, where everyone is the best.”

PITCHING

With pitching being the name of the game in collegiate softball, the Hawkeyes are in a good position in the circle heading into the 2012 season. Iowa returns two pitchers -- junior Chelsea Lyon and sophomore Kayla Massey -- that combined to throw all 338.2 innings in 2011. The Hawkeyes' pitching staff will also be deeper group with the addition of freshman Melanie Gladden and sophomore Brittane Grove.

Lyon returns as the eldest member of the pitching staff after leading the team with 15 victories and 120 strikeouts as a sophomore. The Broken Arrow, Okla., native had 16 complete games and two shutouts, and posted a 3.35 earned run average. Lyon earned Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honors on April 25, 2011, after tossing a complete game and striking out seven in Iowa's 4-2 victory at No. 1 Michigan.

"Chelsea has the ability to help put us in the driver's seat," said Looper. "Her biggest challenge is allowing herself to be consistent. Her change-up can dominate. When her mind catches up to her physical ability, the sky will be the limit for her."

Massey was solid in her first season of collegiate softball, posting a 12-12 record with a team-best 3.22 earned run average. The Trabuco Hills, Calif., native struck out 110 batters in 169.1 innings of work, while throwing 16 complete games with three shutouts. Massey was dominant in her first collegiate start, allowing four hits and striking out nine in a 1-0 victory over Maryland.

"Kayla is a confident pitcher, but she needs to be confident in every pitch she throws," said Looper. "She's been able to grow her repertoire and gain more confidence. She could be a dominant factor in our conference if she buckles down, has a lot of confidence and gets the attitude of saying no one is going to touch me."

Gladden will give Iowa a third pitcher in 2012, a luxury the team didn't have a season ago. The Asher, Okla., native comes to Iowa City after posting a 70-25 career record with 449 strikeouts at Konawa High School. As a senior, Gladden finished with a 28-8 record with nine shutouts and three no-hitters en route to earning all-state honors and being named the conference Most Valuable Player.

"Melanie gives us a completely different look than Chelsea or Kayla," said Looper. "She's longer, lankier, and it looks effortless to her. Melanie is going to give us that extra piece to be a stopper. I am eager to see how she fits in the puzzle because it adds a new dimension we were lacking a year ago."

Grove, a transfer from Creighton University, will give the Hawkeyes another arm out of the bullpen, a left-handed option.

"Brittane's role is more of a reliever," said Looper. "She gives us a left-handed look, and she spins the ball really well. She proved this fall that she can come in and close out an inning or give us an inning or two. She'll play a vital role in the relief position."

CATCHERS

The Hawkeyes have both experience and depth at the catcher position in 2012. Three-year starter Liz Watkins returns to anchor the position, while juniors Katie Holmes and Sam Valentine, sophomore Steviee Grove and freshman Holly Hoffman will give the team options behind the plate.

Watkins returns for her senior campaign after earning her third All-Big Ten nod as a junior. The Taylor Ridge, Ill., native started every game and caught every pitch for the Hawkeyes during the 2011 season, finishing with a .294 batting average with team highs in RBI (36), home runs (nine), slugging percentage (.556) and on-base percentage (.486). Watkins also shut down opposing running games, throwing out 21 base runners.

“Being a senior, Liz has a lot of experience,” said Loooper. “She has a cannon for an arm and people don’t like to run against her, but we have to get her to help our pitchers too. She’s definitely a force to be reckoned with because the opponents know about her and have known about her.

“At the plate we need her to make consistent contact to elevate her and our team. I want opponents to be afraid to throw to her, and when she’s consistent, that will happen.”

Holmes joins the program by the way of Nichols State University, where she played in 64 games during her freshman and sophomore seasons. The Omaha, Neb., native was a solid defensive catcher for the Colonels, posting a .983 fielding percentage.

“The added dimension of having a second catcher has been helpful in a lot of ways,” said Loooper. “Katie is a really good receiver, and she has been getting some calls for our pitchers behind the plate that we haven’t gotten. Knowing that we have another option is helpful because it forces both players to be better.”

Valentine returns for her third season with the program and her second as a catcher, having made the move behind the plate in 2011.

“Sam is really phenomenal with our pitchers,” said Loooper. “She has been using this fall to recover from surgery. Once she gets healthy, she’ll be someone to give us depth at the position.”

Grove and Hoffman both joined the program as mid-year additions in January. Grove, the third of the Grove triplets on the UI roster, transferred to Iowa from Indiana State, while Hoffman joined the team after graduating a semester early from Penn High School in Osceola, Ind.

“Steviee will give us additional depth and experience behind the plate,” said Loooper. “Holly is graduating early and joining us this spring to develop her game to the speed of Division I softball. She does a nice job behind the plate and receives the ball well. It will be good to get her into our system early, because she is a player that has the ability to be a very good catcher at this level.”

INFIELD

Iowa will be a youthful group in the infield in 2012, but for what the Hawkeyes lack in experience, they make up for in ability and potential.

Senior Katie Keim returns to anchor the UI infielders after earning third team All-Big Ten honors as a junior. The Chesterfield, Mo., native started all 51 games, where she finished with a .270 batting average with seven doubles, four home runs and 15 RBI. Keim is expected to transition to first base for the team defensively after playing at second base much of the 2011 season.

"Katie grew phenomenally last year, and her numbers went up in a lot of areas, especially her power," said Loooper. "I see her being a middle of the order type hitter this season. She's not your typical power kid, but she's going to hit balls into the gap for extra base hits and drive in and score runs."

Sophomore Michelle Zoeller came out of nowhere to anchor the third base position for Iowa in 2011. She made 43 starts after joining the team as a walk-on, finishing with a .256 batting average with 15 RBI and 14 runs.

"She gets the job done," said Loooper. "She's continued to grow and is more field savvy at third base and is a veteran in a sense. It's nice to have someone with experience at third base to start the season. She's continuing to develop at the plate, and I expect her to be just as good if not better as she was last year."

Sophomore Nikki Gentile saw a lot of playing time during her true freshman season, playing in 43 games with 34 starts. She finished with 16 hits, 12 runs scored and nine RBI to go along with 16 walks, the third most on the team.

"Nikki has gained some strength, and has power offensively," said Loooper. "Her challenge is to become consistent with that power and hit the ball to the opposite field. When she can drive a pitch the opposite way and hit all fields on cue, then her game will elevate."

Blank was a second team NFCA all-region selection as a shortstop out of Marymount High School in Calif. She batted above .500 in each of her four prep seasons, finishing with a .545 mark as a senior.

"Megan has really good hands and a good presence at shortstop," said Loooper. "She's going to make some tough plays look easy, but we have to get her to elevate her game even more. At the plate, she can do anything at any time. She can do it all, and does it real smoothly."

Wall comes to Iowa City by way of Iowa Western Community College, where she was an NFCA All-America first team and NJCAA All-America second team honoree as a sophomore. She batted .458 with 10 home runs, 32 doubles, 72 RBI and 69 runs scored. Wall also was a member of the Canadian Women's National Baseball Team in 2009 and 2011.

"Bradi really thinks through the game," said Loooper. "She's worked hard at learning a new position at second base, and has taken it on well. She gives us a left-handed stick and is a hitter. When she consistently can drive the ball to the opposite field she will not only help herself, but the team as a whole."

Freshmen Melanie Gladden and Tor Hawley will give the team two more options in the infield. Gladden hit over .350 in each of her final three prep seasons, which included a .442 average with 32 RBI as a senior. Hawley was a second team all-state honor as a senior after batting .400 with two home runs, 24 RBI and nine doubles.

"Melanie is one of our most athletic and agile players," said Loooper. "She has a sandlot attitude and will compete with Michelle for time at third base. She's extremely versatile, and gives us depth throughout the infield."

"Tor is a gamer. Just when you think you have her beat, she'll step up and prove you wrong. She gives us some depth in the infield and some options. Offensively, she's got a little more power than one might expect. If she's not an everyday player, then I think she plays the designated player or pinch hitter role."

"Brittane has a nice fluid swing," said Loooper. "She can hit the ball in the gap and score some runs for us. She'll definitely be a role player for our team."

OUTFIELD

With juniors Johnnie Dowling and Ashley Akers returning to the fold, the Hawkeyes have two every day players returning to anchor the outfield position. The third outfield spot is up for grabs between sophomores Mallore Groves and Brianna Luna and freshman Sydney Reynolds.

Dowling started 39 games as a sophomore, tallying starts in each of the three outfield positions. The Des Moines, Iowa, native finished with a .216 batting average with 21 runs scored, but those came from the right handed batter's box. Dowling will transition to the left side of the plate in 2012.

"Her game has changed with the switch to the left side, and it will allow her to be a threat on the bases," said Looper. "She has good speed, so we look for her to steal some bases and take extra bases. She's really taken on a leadership role on this team, and leads by example."

Akers was a mainstay in the Iowa lineup as a sophomore, appearing in 50 games with 48 starts. She batted .250 with 16 runs scored on the year, and went 8-for-8 on the base paths.

"It was fun watching Akers grow into the anchor spot in the outfield last year," said Looper. "She's been able to build off of what she has done, and her growth in confidence has allowed her game to improve all the way around. She's not a given soft slapper anymore. She can poke the ball through the gap and give us a hard slap if she wants to."

Luna has made the full-time transition to the outfield position after coming to Iowa as a third baseman. Last season she made 11 starts in right field, and she finished with 13 hits on the year.

"Brianna has grown into the outfield position, and she's developed into a good outfielder," said Looper. "This fall at the plate, she was one of our most consistent players. If she can stay consistent, we have to find a spot for her defensively."

Grove, a transfer from Creighton University, is too transitioning to the outfield after appearing in 43 games as an infielder in 2011. She finished with a .275 average with 12 runs scored.

"Mallore came to us as an infielder, but with her speed and arm strength, we figured she would transition well to the outfield," said Looper. "Based on the fall, you would never know she wasn't an outfielder. She really understands the game."

Reynolds is accustomed to playing in the outfield, having been recruited to the position out of Platte City, Mo. Reynolds was a three-time first team all-conference selection at Platte County High School, leading her team to two conference and three district titles.

"Sydney is one of our true outfielders," said Looper. "She runs well and has a good arm. She adds some speed to our team, and will be a factor on the base paths for us."

MARLA LOOPER
HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON

Marla Looper is entering her second season as the head coach for the University of Iowa softball program.

Looper guided the Hawkeyes to a 27-24 overall and a 9-11 Big Ten record in her first season in Iowa City. The first year head coach led the UI to a pair of six game winning streaks in her opening campaign and a tournament title at the Stetson Classic.

Iowa opened Big Ten Conference play strong, jumping out to an 8-3 record. Among the victories was a 4-2 triumph at No. 1 Michigan. The win, which pushed the overall mark to 26-16, was Iowa's first over a No. 1 ranked opponent since the 2005 season and the first over a ranked foe since 2008.

Looper's Hawkeyes were on the verge of completing a series sweep in Ann Arbor before the Wolverines rallied from a 2-0 deficit in the bottom of the seventh inning to claim the victory and halt Iowa's momentum.

A pair of Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten recognition at the conclusion of the season. Liz Watkins was tabbed as a second team selection, while Katie Keim earned third team accolades.

Looper took over the reigns of the Iowa program after serving as an assistant coach at the University of Texas for 11 seasons (1999-2010). Looper helped lead the Longhorns to three College World Series appearances (2003, 2005 and 2006) and nine NCAA Tournament berths. She also helped guide Texas to back-to-back Big 12 regular season and tournament championships in 2002 and 2003 along with regular season championships in 2006 and 2010.

Looper served as Texas' pitching coach from 1999-2005 and mentored softball great Cat Osterman to the USA National Player of the Year Award in 2003, 2005 and 2006. Texas' pitching staff led the nation in earned run average in three of Looper's final four years as pitching coach, while Osterman led the country in 2003 and 2006 in both earned run average and strikeouts per seven innings. In 2006, Osterman set an NCAA record with a 15.4 strikeouts per seven innings mark and also led the nation as a freshman in 2002 with 12.7 strikeouts per seven innings. Osterman won a gold medal in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

As an assistant at Texas, Looper was a part of a staff that was named the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Coaching Staff of the Year in 2002-03 and the Speedline/NFCA Midwest Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2005-06.

Looper held numerous responsibilities in her 11 years in Austin. In addition to her pitching coach duties from 1999-2005, Looper was also in charge of daily workouts and game decisions, and assisted with both the offense and defense. From 2006-10, she took over Texas' defense and was the offensive first base coach.

Looper was an assistant coach at the University of Kansas from 1996-99, where she served as recruiting coordinator and pitcher/catcher coach. She helped the Jayhawks to the NCAA Tournament in 1997 and 1999.

Prior to her stint in Lawrence, Looper was a pitcher/catcher coach at Iowa State from 1995-96.

Looper graduated from Florida State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in nutrition and fitness. She was a pitching standout for the Seminoles, earning All-American honors as a junior in 1993. She led Florida State to the 1993 Women's College World Series and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1994. Looper earned NCAA Regional All-Tournament honors and All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in each of her two seasons at Florida State.

Looper's career earned run average of 0.78 at Florida State still stands as fifth best in Seminole history. Additionally, she led the 1993 and 1994 FSU squads in appearances, innings pitched, wins, strikeouts and ERA. In 2003, she was named one of the ACC's Top 50 softball players in conference history.

Prior to her two years in Tallahassee, Looper played at Crowder College in Neosho, MO, where she was selected as a National Junior College All-American as a freshman and sophomore and the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Tournament's most valuable player during her sophomore season. Looper helped Crowder to a runner-up finish in the NJCAA Tournament in both 1991 and 1992. Looper was inducted into the NJCAA Hall of Fame in 2006.

ADRIANNA BAGGETTA
ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

Adrianna Baggetta is in her second season as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa. Baggetta is responsible for the Hawkeye defense.

Iowa posted a 27-24 overall and a 9-11 Big Ten record in Baggetta's first season in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes opened Big Ten Conference play strong, jumping out to an 8-3 record. Among the victories was a 4-2 triumph at No. 1 Michigan. The win, which pushed the overall mark to 26-16, was Iowa's first over a No. 1 ranked opponent since the 2005 season and the first over a ranked foe since 2008.

A pair of Hawkeyes earned all-Big Ten recognition at the conclusion of the season. Liz Watkins was tabbed as a second team selection, while Katie Keim earned third team accolades.

Baggetta came to Iowa after serving on staff at the University of South Carolina for eight seasons (2002-2010). She began her time at South Carolina as a volunteer assistant from 2002-03 before assuming full assistant coach responsibilities in July of 2003. Baggetta was promoted to associate head coach at South Carolina in 2009 and held that position through 2010.

While at South Carolina, Baggetta helped lead the Gamecocks to five NCAA Regional appearances, including a Super Regional berth in 2007. She also coached two academic All-Americans and 42 SEC all-Academic team members.

In her eight years at South Carolina, Baggetta oversaw day-to-day operations of the softball program, including coordinating practice and competition schedules, workouts for the outfielders, catchers and hitters, strength and conditioning and film breakdown.

She was also the recruiting coordinator and the camps/clinics coordinator. Baggetta developed South Carolina's Strike Out Cancer weekend in 2009, which raised over a total of $12,000 for the Susan G. Komen organization during the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Baggetta was a member of the South Carolina softball team from 1998-02 and helped lead the Gamecocks to an SEC conference tournament championship in 2000, four-straight NCAA Regional appearances and three SEC Eastern Division titles. The Gamecocks averaged 44 wins per year and were ranked in the Top 25 in each of her four seasons. She was named all-SEC in 2002 and was also chosen for the 2002 all-SEC tournament team. In 2002, she led South Carolina in batting average (.353), home runs (6), slugging percentage (.573) and on-base percentage (.446). She ranks in the career top 10 at South Carolina in home runs, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, walks per game and hit by pitch.

Baggetta graduated from South Carolina in 2002 with a degree in sport and entertainment with a minor in business administration.

STACY MAY-JOHNSON
ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

Stacy May-Johnson is in her second season as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa. May-Johnson is responsible for the Hawkeye offense.

Iowa posted a 27-24 overall and a 9-11 Big Ten record in May-Johnson's first season in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes opened Big Ten Conference play strong, jumping out to an 8-3 record. Among the victories was a 4-2 triumph at No. 1 Michigan. The win, which pushed the overall mark to 26-16, was Iowa's first over a No. 1 ranked opponent since the 2005 season and the first over a ranked foe since 2008.

A pair of Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten recognition at the conclusion of the season. Liz Watkins was tabbed as a second team selection, while Katie Keim earned third team accolades.

May-Johnson (formerly Stacy May), was a four-year letterwinner at Iowa from 2003-06 and enjoyed a successful professional career as a member of the Chicago Bandits in the National Professional Fastpitch (NPF) league from 2006-10.

May-Johnson was a three-time NFCA all-Mideast Region selection as a Hawkeye. She was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2003 while leading Iowa to a regular season and conference tournament championship. She was also a three-time all-Big Ten pick. May-Johnson's name still appears in 11 different offensive school records lists at Iowa. She finished her career with a .338 batting average, 23 home runs and 109 RBI. May-Johnson started every game in her four years, collecting 247-straight starts. In 780 career at-bats, May-Johnson tallied 264 hits and 60 walks to just 38 strikeouts.

May-Johnson excelled off the field as well, earning ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America District 7 honors as a junior and senior. She was also a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

May-Johnson was Chicago's first overall pick (fourth pick, second round) in the 2006 NPF Draft. She retired after a five-year career as one of the most decorated players in NPF history. She was named NPF Rookie of the Year in 2006 and NPF League MVP in 2008 and 2010. She was a three-time NPF All-Star (2006, 2008 and 2010) and helped lead the Bandits to the 2008 NPF team championship. The Bandits retired May-Johnson's number in 2010 after she announced her retirement from professional softball. She returned for the playoff run in 2011, helping Chicago to a second NPF crown.

Following the 2011 season, May-Johnson was chosen to compete for the 2011 USA Softball Women's National Team. She was selected as the 2011 USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year after leading the Red, White and Blue to gold medals at the World Cup of Softball VII and the 2011 Pan American Games.

She started 27-of-28 games, finishing with a .418 batting average, ranking first on the team in his and third in batting average. She also had team-highs in runs (26) and RBI (30) -- nine more than her nearest teammate.

May-Johnson will make her second USA National Team appearance in 2012.

May-Johnson earned both her bachelor of arts degree in accounting and bachelor of science degree in physics from Iowa in 2007. She went on the University of Louisville where she earned her masters of science in physics in 2009.

GARY BARTA
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Gary Barta enters his sixth year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa - and his 25th year in athletics administration - riding a wave of momentum. Cause for that energy is the fact the Hawkeyes enjoyed record-setting performances in the classroom and on the playing field, the completion of the second-largest construction project in the history of the intercollegiate athletics at the UI, and the breaking of ground on a new indoor practice facility for the Hawkeye football program.

With respect to the UI academic momentum, Barta expects the graduation rates for student-athletes made public this fall to be among the highest ever achieved at the UI. Those numbers are also expected to compare favorably with the UI's Big Ten Conference and national peers in the high profile sports of football, and men's and women's basketball.

In May, the NCAA confirmed that all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark for the third straight year and honored a school-record four UI teams - men's cross country, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis - that ranked in the top 10 percent of their sport, based on their most-recent multi-year APR.

Competitively, the UI set a school record with 510 points scored in the 2011 Learfield Directors' Cup. This success was driven in great measure by another successful season for the UI football team - which won a record third straight bowl game, 27-24, over Missouri in the Insight Bowl; a third-place finish at the national championship by Iowa's wrestling program; a fourth straight appearance in the NCAA postseason by the women's basketball; strong performances by the UI's men's and women's gymnastics, and men's and women's track and field teams; and a school-record 10th place finish at the national championship by the UI men's golf team.

The highlight of the UI's year in Big Ten Conference competition was the first league title in men's track and field in 44 years. Larry Wiczorek's squad climbed to the top of the podium by dominating the final day of competition on the UI's Cretzmeyer Track. An All-American distance runner as a student-athlete at the UI, Wiczorek was named the Big Ten Track and Field Coach of the Year in recognition of his team's performance at the Big Ten meet and for qualifying no fewer than 33 male and female student-athletes for postseason competition.

In addition to the competitive success the Hawkeyes recorded in 2010-11, the UI also experienced tremendous success at the turnstiles. Iowa entered the 2010 home football season with all seven home games sold out. The UI will do the same in 2011 and boasts waiting lists for not only season tickets to the home games of Kirk Ferentz's squad, but also the premium seating options available inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick Stadium.

Attendance at home games of first-year men's basketball coach Fran McCaffery soared 23 percent - the fifth-highest increase by percentage in the country and the largest by a team that did not advance to postseason play. Attendance at women's basketball games increased by almost 60 percent. Iowa ended the year ranked 13th - the program's highest finish in more than a decade.

As always, success at the gate provides Barta the financial resources to meet the mandate of Iowa's institutional leadership: Operate the intercollegiate athletics program with integrity, with a commitment to academic excellence, and without any support from tax dollars, e.g. be "self-sustaining."

Inherent in Barta's charge is to provide the more than 650 student-athletes who compete in the 24 intercollegiate athletics programs at the UI the best opportunity for success, including training and competition facilities that compare favorably or exceed those offered by peer institutions. The 2010-11 season marked the first for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams in the UI's $69 million Campus Wellness and Recreation Center.

In late summer 2011, the UI will complete a $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. That project includes the construction of a practice facility for men's and women's basketball and volleyball, a 10,000-square-foot strength training and cardiovascular center, and an expansion to the Dan Gable Wrestling Complex, in addition to new locker room and support facilities for men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs, and office space for the majority of Iowa administrative and coaching staffs.

The Carver project includes the installation of a statue of Gable at the facility's main entrance. That project will be completed in time for thousands of fans of the sport of wrestling to enjoy when the UI stages the 2012 United States Wrestling Olympic Trials in April 2012 - an event that represents not only the UI's commitment to its nationally respected wrestling program, but Barta's desire to strike partnerships when success would be mutually beneficial.

The UI Athletics Department will break ground on Phase I of a two-phase project for the UI football program in the fall of 2011. Phase I includes the construction of a new indoor practice facility; Phase II includes construction of all football operations areas including locker rooms, team meeting rooms, athletic medical training space, video operations, and coaches offices and meeting rooms. Funded entirely through private support, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football. It will be constructed adjacent to the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility and immediately west of Kinnick Stadium.

Barta has also received permission from the State of Iowa Board of Regents to construct a new practice facility for the men's and women's golf programs. The facility will be located on the southern edge of the UI's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course and will begin construction as soon as the funding required is secured from friends and fans of the Iowa Hawkeyes and the UI's golf programs.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the President's Cabinet comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his first four years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why he is currently overseeing a comprehensive review of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and has worked with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan.

Another favorite saying of his is, "Vision without resources is irrelevant." Over the course of his career he has been directly involved in raising hundreds of millions of dollars in support of intercollegiate athletics. This has remained a primary focus during his tenure at Iowa, where private support for the Hawkeyes continues to flourish despite a challenging economy.

In recent years, the department has received a long list of commitments to assist in capital projects and scholarship support, including gifts of $5 million each from long-time friends of the UI, Dale and Marilyn Howard, Bruce Rastetter and Richard O. Jacobson.

Under Barta's leadership -- and thanks to a talented athletics development staff -- the UI has seen year-over-year improvement in annual giving in spite of the difficult economic environment and has generated more than $20 million of philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support for the Carver-Hawkeye Arena project.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff and coordinating the schedule for the Huskies men's basketball program.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA national championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (13) and a daughter, Madison (11). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

When their collegiate careers come to an end, University of Iowa softball student-athletes have the tools necessary to continue competing at the highest levels. Former Hawkeye and current assistant coach Stacy May-Johnson became the first UI player to compete for the USA Softball Women's National Team in 2011.

May-Johnson, who was selected as the 2011 USA Softball Female Athlete of the Year, helped Team USA win gold medals at the 2011 Pan American Games in Guadalajara, Mexico, and the World Cup of Softball VII in Oklahoma City. She also guided the Red, White and Blue to a runner-up finish in the Canadian Open Fastpitch International Championship in July, 2011, where she earned Defensive Most Valuable Player honors.

May-Johnson posted a .418 batting average (33-of-79) during her stint with Team USA, ranking first on the team in hits and at-bats and third among National Team members in batting average. She had four doubles, a triple and a team-high six home runs for a .722 slugging percentage. May-Johnson had team-highs in runs scored (26) and RBI (30), nine more than her nearest teammate.

May-Johnson is set for her second stint with the USA Softball Women's National Team in 2012.

May-Johnson also helped lead the Chicago Bandits to the National Professional Fastpitch title in August, 2011. It was her second NPF title with the Bandits, as she also guided the squad to the 2008 championship.

Below is a list of former Hawkeyes that played professionally in the National Professional Fastpitch or the Women's Pro Softball League.

- Kristin Johnson - Akron Racers (NPF)
- Stacy May - Chicago Bandits (NPF) - 2nd Round, 4th pick
- Emily Nichols - Chicago Bandits (NPF) - 2nd Round, 3rd pick
- Brittany Weil - Akron Racers (NPF) - 2nd Round, 2nd pick
- Lisa Birocci - Series A, DES Caserta (Italy)

- Jessica Bashor - Arizona Heat
- Christy Hebert - Carolina Diamonds
- Kari Knopf - Virginia Roadsters
- Karen Jackson - Carolina Diamonds
- Karin Wick - Carolina Diamonds

"Coming out of high school, I didn't know what type of school I wanted to attend whether it be big or small, but then I came to the University of Iowa. Iowa City is like a small community. You're going to go to a big college, but it's intertwined within an amazing community. There is a different type of atmosphere here with there being no professional team, as it is all about Iowa sports. People throughout the community know who you are. Fans know who you are, they talk to your family, and I feel like if I had a problem, they would be there to help out."

Katie Keim - Senior - Chesterfield, Mo.

"Playing collegiate softball was always my dream and the University of Iowa offers me a great education and an opportunity to play for a renowned softball program. The coaching staff and players are like family. With this combination, it was an easy decision. Iowa is the place for me."

Liz Watkins - Senior - Taylor Ridge, Ill.

"Growing up, I was surrounded by Hawkeye fans, and one day hoped to become one myself. I knew the University of Iowa possessed a high academic standard, a sense of comfort through friends and coaches, and also had an energetic atmosphere, which I wanted to be a part of. My vision of becoming a collegiate softball player only seemed right when I pictured myself wearing Black and Gold and had IOWA across my shirt. That's how I knew Iowa was perfect for me."

Johnnie Dowling - Junior - Des Moines, Iowa

"I chose Iowa because the atmosphere was something I had never seen before. It was amazing to come to a school with a sold-out football game and have thousands of fans tailgating all hours of the day. I loved how there was such commitment from the fans and community, and I wanted to be a part of it. Another reason I chose Iowa was because it had a great softball program with a great staff and amazing girls. The university is one of the best in the country, and after my first visit, I knew immediately that this was the program and school I wanted to be a part of. I love it here. It is one of the best choices I have ever made."

Kayla Massey - Sophomore - Foothill Ranch, Calif.

"I started thinking about coming to Iowa when my older brother went on a campus tour one summer while we were visiting family. Both of my parents have family in Iowa, and my dad grew up in Iowa City. With a majority of my family being in Iowa, I've visited a ton, and always loved it here. The college town vibe was exactly what I wanted in a school, and I knew I would find that here at Iowa. Aside from the town, school, and family draw, I also found that I really liked the camaraderie that the team had when I went on both my official and unofficial visits. The team is like its own family. I can't imagine a better place or group of girls to spend my next four years with!"

Megan Blank - Freshman - Culver City, Calif.

"I decided to attend the University of Iowa because of the atmosphere on campus and the feel of the Iowa City community. There are a lot of people and resources to help you be successful both on the field and in the classroom. The campus is great and extremely beautiful."

Melanie Gladden - Freshman - Asher, Okla.

The University of Iowa softball team holds annual clinics every January. These clinics are a great opportunity for young players to enhance their skills under the personal attention of the Hawkeye softball staff. The camps are held at the UI Bubble, and will continue next year at the new football practice facility.

The Little Hawks clinic is geared at kids ranging from kindergarten to third grade and is aimed at basic softball fundamentals. There are also advanced and intermediate pitcher/catcher and all-skills clinics. The advanced clinics are aimed for grades 8-12, while the intermediate is grades 4-7.

For more information on the clinics, visit www.hawkeyesports.com.

RADIO - INTERNET BROADCASTS

Nearly all of Iowa's games can be heard live and archived over the Internet via "Hawkeye All-Access" subscription service. Rob Brooks, the voice of Iowa softball, is entering his sixth year as the play-by-play commentator. Brooks also serves as the sideline reporter for Hawkeye football games.

Select Iowa softball games can be heard on local radio stations like AM-800 KXIC and AM-1630-KCJJ, both located in Iowa City.

TELEVISION

With the launch of the Big Ten Network, the Big Ten is the only conference in the country that has its own national network devoted to Big Ten athletic programming. NCAA softball fans can follow the Hawkeyes and their Big Ten cohorts on the network in stunning hi-definition. Fans can also watch a number of games on Hawkeye All-Access and at BTN.com.

HAWKEYESPORTS.COM

Media and fans can obtain a wealth of up-to-date information about the Hawkeyes on the official web site of the University of Iowa -- hawkeyesports.com. Live stats (gametracker), box scores, play-by-play, photo galleries, coach and bio information, video, podcasts and more can be found on the web site. Fans can also follow the Hawkeyes via Twitter (@iowasoftball) and on Facebook (facebook.com/iowahawkeyessoftball).

The Big Ten Network is devoted to covering a wide array of programming to one of the premier collegiate conferences in the country. The network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country. The network provides unmatched access to an extensive schedule of league competitions, events and shows; classic games; nightly studio shows; original programs in academics, arts and sciences and campus activities. Sports programming includes live coverage in stunning high-definition of more events than ever before, along with news, highlights and detailed analysis, all complemented by hours of university-produced campus programming. The Big Ten Network reaches 75 million homes nationwide through distribution arrangements with more than 300 cable and satellite providers.

In 2011, the BTN debuted the "Big Ten Diamond Report" -- a weekly show previewing the upcoming matchups and looking at the national storylines affecting the Big Ten Conference. Mike Hall and Rick Pizzo hosted the show along with former Iowa pitcher Cal Eldred and Tammy Williams, Northwestern's former two-time Big Ten Softball Player of the Year.

The BTN offered its most extensive baseball and softball coverage in 2011 with 140 events on television or online, including an additional 30 live streamed events at www.BTN.com.

"The BTN is huge when it comes to exposure for our program and every program at Iowa and across the Big Ten. That exposure in general gives us a leg up on the competition because people like to watch fastpitch softball on television and the Big Ten has done a good job of being the pioneers in getting a conference television network and getting more exposure for Olympic sports. We definitely benefit from that, are fortunate and very glad we have that opportunity."

IOWA RANKS AMONG BIG TEN LEADERS

Some universities have successful teams. At the University of Iowa, you'll be a member of one of the most successful, most progressive athletic departments in America today. Iowa's athletic facilities are constantly being improved and upgraded, including a $47 million renovation project in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, the home of Iowa basketball. The project is expected to be completed in August 2011.

The men's basketball team has had seven winning seasons in the past 10 years, making six postseason appearances in that time. Iowa's women's basketball team shared the Big Ten Conference regular season title in 2008, finished runner-up at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament and has advanced to postseason play in nine of the last 10 seasons, including advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament a year ago.

The Hawkeye football team has won 70 games over the past eight seasons, competing in seven bowl games during that span, six of which were premiere January bowl games in the state of Florida. Last year, the football team enjoyed one of its most exciting seasons ever, finishing second in the Big Ten and winning the prestigious FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami.

The Hawkeye wrestling squad dominated its sport the past three years, winning back-to-back-to-back Big Ten Conference regular season dual and the postseason tournament titles. The Hawkeyes, under fourth-year Coach Tom Brands, marched through the national tournament, claiming their 21st, 22nd and 23rd national team crowns the past 37 seasons.

In addition to women's basketball and wrestling, Iowa's national-recognized field hockey program won its third-straight Big Ten Tournament title two years ago and advanced to the NCAA Final Four. Iowa's baseball team surged last season, winning 11 of its last 14 games and finished runner-up at the Big Ten Baseball Tournament, its best finish in 20 years. Furthermore, the Iowa men's golf team finished second at the Big Ten Championships and was only one stroke from advancing to its second-straight NCAA Championships, placing sixth at Regionals, in 2010.

Along with the success on the playing fields, Iowa's student-athletes also excel in areas of academics and community service. In 2006, Iowa was the only Division I football program in the nation to have three players named to the academic all-America first team. In men's basketball, 2007 senior Adam Haluska, a second round selection in the NBA Draft, was named the Division I Academic all-American of the Year.

Kinnick Stadium, the home of Iowa football, is one of the toughest stadiums to play in the country for visitors. Iowa boasts the 11th-best home winning percentage (.830) in the country over the past eight seasons.

IOWA BASKETBALL

Iowa basketball has posted seven winning seasons in the last 10 years, capped by NCAA Tournament appearances in 2005 and 2006. The Hawkeyes have posted a 63-23 home record over the last five seasons.

IOWA WRESTLING

Led by 10 all-Americans, the Hawkeye wrestling squad repeated its accomplishments of 2008 and 2009, winning Big Ten Conference and NCAA team titles. Iowa has won 12 NCAA titles in the past 20 years and has claimed 30 Big Ten titles over the past 36 seasons. Head Coach Tom Brands was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second-straight year, while Matt McDonough was honored as the league's top freshman.

IOWA FOOTBALL

The Hawkeye football team enjoyed another successful season under Coach Kirk Ferentz, who was recognized as Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time in the last eight seasons in 2009. Ferentz and the Iowa Hawkeyes are one of only eight college football programs in the nation to compete in six January bowl games over the last eight seasons, winning four of those contests in exciting fashion. Iowa's 70 victories over the last eight seasons are second most in the Big Ten and 16th best in the country.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena has served as the home of Iowa basketball since 1983. The Hawkeyes are 63-23 in home games over the past five seasons.

UI offers the lowest undergraduate resident tuition in the Big Ten Conference

38 percent of UI students are from out of state

Five Iowa graduate programs rank number one in the nation, according to America's Best Graduate Schools, produced by U.S. News & World Report. In addition, the Iowa Writer's Workshop is ranked number one in the nation by U.S. News & World Report, Writer's Digest and Poets & Writers.

With over 30,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus.

The University of Iowa is listed among "America's Best Value Colleges" in the 2008 guidebook published by The Princeton Review. Iowa is cited for its "excellent academics, generous financial aid packages and low costs".

"The University of Iowa not only boasts a beautiful campus, it offers its students a broad range of academic programs, an abundance of social activities and a sense of belonging. With its combination of quality academics, mammoth resources, renowned specialty programs, and extensive research opportunities, this Midwest school is anything but featureless."

The Fiske Guide to Colleges

U.S. News & World Report, in its yearly rankings, has ranked the University of Iowa 26th among American public national universities for undergraduate education. Iowa ranks in the top 15% of some 161 public universities across the country.

In its 2009 rankings of America's Best Graduate Schools, U.S. News & World Report ranks five Iowa programs as best in the nation among public universities. Overall, UI has 23 graduate programs ranked in the top 10 nationally. DID YOU KNOW...

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

Iowa City ranks as the top town in the Midwest in Midwest magazine's annual list of the "30 Best Towns in America."

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

CHRISTOPHER KEYES

EDITOR | MIDWEST MAGAZINE | AUGUST, 2007

“Iowa City is one of the 10 most literate and enlightened towns in the nation. This city, set on the winding Iowa River, is a pocket of sophistication with the feel of small-town America. Locally run bookstores, ethnic restaurants, cafe`s with gallery space, and organic grocers line the brick streets, and summers are a whirl of jazz musicians, artists and food vendors.

IOWA CITY: THE BEST PLACE TO LIVE

Each year, The University of Iowa boasts a student population that includes young men and women from all 50 states and more than 100 foreign countries among its 30,000 students.

Diversity is also true among the student-athletes who come to Iowa City to play basketball. At Iowa, high school all-Americans from some of the nation’s biggest metropolitan areas work side-by-side with all-state picks from states in “America’s Heartland” and elsewhere to help keep the Hawkeyes among the nation’s best.

The record shows that Hawkeyes don’t just grow up in Iowa -- they come from virtually all parts of the country.

The State of Iowa ranks as the fifth best state to raise a family, according to a recent study released by the Children’s Rights Council, a Washington, D.C. based organization.

According to a recent study by Forbes Magazine, Iowa City ranks third among small cities on a national list of best places to do business and advance careers.

SPORTING NEWS RANKS IOWA AMONG TOP DIVISION I PROGRAMS

The University of Iowa annually earns high ratings in a major survey by The Sporting News, in which all U.S. colleges who participate in NCAA Division I sports in both football and men’s basketball are graded according to various standards, ranging from on-field to academic performance.

The magazine ranks over 100 universities, based on number of sports each school sponsors, their success rates, graduation rates for students in all sports and Title IX compliance. The ratings cover the last four years of graduating classes, and include GPAs and SAT scores for incoming freshmen.

The Sporting News recently ranked Iowa City as the best college football city in America. Iowa City is ranked among the top 50 cities overall among “Best Sport Cities” and ranked as the top sports community in the state.

Schools are also rated on such factors as fan support, attendance, merchandise sold and size of athletic budget. Graduation rates are used and points awarded for winning regular season and post-season championships.

“ESPN GameDay” the popular pre-game show which airs each Saturday during the college football season, made a recent stop in Iowa City, airing from the Iowa campus prior to a prime time football game in Iowa’s Kinnick Stadium.

OUTSIDE MAGAZINE RANKS UNIVERSITY OF IOWA AND IOWA CITY AMONG THE BEST IN THE NATION

Outside Magazine ranks the top 40 “Best College Towns” in the nation. Among those rankings, the University of Iowa and the Iowa City area earned a No. 10 ranking.

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge.

Iowa City has more bookstores, coffee shops, restaurants, record shops, and movie theaters in its downtown area -- right next to campus -- than you'll find in cities many times its size.

Hancher Auditorium brings the world's finest musicians, dancers, actors, and entertainers to the University. It is part of the Iowa Center for the Arts, which includes the Museum of Art and cultural/educational programs in music, theatre, art and art history, dance, and literary arts.

The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

The University's MacBride Nature Recreation Area, located 15 miles from campus, offers hiking, cross-country skiing, sailing, and canoeing.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

In a recent release by a New York-based Internet company, Iowa City ranked ninth among college towns its size, based on cultural and economic vitality. The survey compared communities with four-year colleges that have a ratio of students to the general public that was 3-to-4 or lower.

"If Iowa City were a student, it would be class valedictorian. This heartland university town consistently scores top scores on countless lists: Forbes `Best Small Places for Business and Careers`; Men's Journal's list of sexy, healthy and safe places to live; USA Today's `Best Educated Cities`; Utne Reader's `Most Enlightened Towns`; AARP's best college towns in which to retire; and the Milken Institute's best small metro economy. And the town's pride, the University of Iowa, scored tops on Kaplan's best value for your tuition dollar, noting its outstanding medical programs."

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where basketball coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center, opened in the fall of 2003, is the latest project to be added to Iowa's facilities. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

"It is very beneficial for our student-athletes to have a facility like the Gerdin Learning Center that is strictly for student-athletes, giving them a space to meet with tutors, advisors and a sound study environment. It is a modern, state-of-the-art facility located in the heart of campus. It is a nice respite for our student-athletes to know they don't have to go find a library cubicle or a coffee shop. The space is always available to them."

"The Gerdin Learning Center is an outstanding resource for Iowa student-athletes. It is nice to always have a place available to go and study and to be around fellow student-athletes that understand the schedule, practice and time you spend as an athlete at the University of Iowa. Whenever I need assistance, I know I can count on the tutors to help me out with any class."

KAYLA MASSEY | SOPHOMORE

When a student-athlete considers their future, they should consider prospects beyond softball. They should consider where they wants to be five, 10, 15 years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, they should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.
Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

The University of Iowa's Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and The University of Iowa Foundation are grateful for the support of alumni and friends who have demonstrated their pride in the athletic and academic success of all Hawkeye student-athletes by establishing named, endowed scholarships, forever linking their name with the proud Iowa Hawkeye tradition.

Endowed scholarships are recognized at three levels of support. Visionary support allows the donor to designate a specific sport position with their gift. An endowed scholarship established at the Leadership level allows a specific sport to be named. Sustaining level scholarships are named in honor of the donor, as general athletics scholarship support.

Endowed athletic scholarship donors are honored on a recognition plaque located on the concourse level of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Many contributors have shared intentions to endow a scholarship via their estate plans. These donors are recognized in special printed recognition materials, and are honored alongside current scholarship contributors at our annual Named Athletic Scholarship Celebration.

For more information about the Hawkeye Visions Endowed Scholarship program, please contact Sloane R. Tyler at the Athletic Development Office at The University of Iowa Foundation (319-335-3305 or sloane-tyler@uiowa.edu) or visit jointheclub.com.

We gratefully recognize and thank our endowed scholarship donors for their extraordinary support of UI student-athletes.

JOHN AND PEG SLUSER SOFTBALL CATCHER'S SCHOLARSHIP

In 1999, John and Peg Sluser funded the first fully-endowed position scholarship in women's athletics at Iowa. The Slusers are regular fixtures in the stands at Pearl Field, among other Hawkeye Athletics venues., as they also have season tickets for football, men's and women's basketball, and wrestling. Both John and Peg are former employees of Rockwell Collins in Cedar Rapids. The 2011-12 recipient is senior Liz Watkins.

DONALD W. AND MARILYN HEINEKING SOFTBALL SCHOLARSHIP

The Heineking Softball Scholarship was established in 2004, joining a long list of other Heineking athletic scholarships. The couple (Marilyn passed away in 2004) also established scholarships for baseball, women's basketball, football, volleyball, men's track and wrestling -- and have endowed a men's basketball manager's scholarship. Don is a 1958 UI business graduate and retired president of Security State Bank in Hubbard, Iowa. This year's recipient is senior Katie Keim.

WILLIAM AND KAY PITLIK SOFTBALL SCHOLARSHIP

Bill and Kay Pitlik of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, established their endowed softball scholarship in 1996. Both are University of Iowa graduates, Kay in 1952 and Bill in 1953. The Pitliks are the former owners of the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company in Cedar Rapids. The couple (Bill passed away in December of 2008) also endowed scholarships for the football, women's basketball and wrestling programs. This year's recipient is sophomore Nikki Gentile.

POLK COUNTY I-CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

The Polk County I-Club established their first athletic scholarship in 1998 to benefit the football program. In 2003, the Club added a second endowed scholarship, this one designated for the UI softball program. Selection preference is given to current Hawkeye softball players from Polk County high schools. The 2011-12 recipient is junior Johnnie Dowling, a native of Des Moines, Iowa.

KRIS ROGERS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Named in honor of former softball and women's basketball standout Kris Rogers, who passed away in 1994, this scholarship was established in honor of Kris by her parents, Dorothy and Jerrie Rogers and built by friends, family and fundraising efforts. Given alternately each year to a softball or women's basketball player, this year, the award has been awarded to softball junior Chelsea Lyon.

GAYLE BLEVINS ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIP

Gayle Blevins served as Iowa's head softball coach for 23 years, retiring in 2010 as the second winningest softball coach in Division I softball history. Blevins never had a losing season as a head coach. When she retired, Iowa softball fans, along with coach Blevins' former student athletes and their parents joined together to establish the Gayle Blevins Athletic Scholarship in her honor. This year's recipient is sophomore Kayla Massey.
