THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

The University of Iowa is a major public research university with a longstanding commitment to teaching, research, and service.

Founded in 1847 as Iowa's first public institution of higher learning, the University has long been a national leader in such areas as creative writing, space physics, and health sciences.

Today the University enrolls over 30,000 students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs.

The faculty of about 1,600 members is teachers and researchers in 11 colleges: Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Graduate, Law, Liberal Arts & Sciences, Medicine, Nursing, Public Health and Pharmacy.

KIRK FERENTZ

IOWA FOOTBALL COACH KIRK FERENTZ

Kirk Ferentz is beginning his 13th year as head football coach at the University of Iowa. His tenure as Iowa's head football coach trails only Hayden Fry, who led the Hawkeyes for 20 seasons (1979-98). Ferentz ranks second in longevity among Big Ten Conference football coaches (Joe Paterno).

He was one of seven coaches on the 2010 Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Watch List. Following the 2009 campaign he was named Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time in the last eight years. He joins the select company of Bo Schembechler, Hayden Fry and Joe Paterno in winning the prestigious award at least three times. He previously was named Coach of the Year in 2002 and 2004. He was also named national Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and Walter Camp Foundation in 2002. Ferentz was named a 2009 Regional Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association as well. The 2010 Insight Bowl was Ferentz' ninth bowl appearance at Iowa. His six bowl victories put him in a tie for third all-time among Big Ten coaches.

Ferentz and his staff have led the Hawkeyes to bowl eligible status in each of the last 10 seasons. The Hawkeyes appeared in six straight bowl games between 2001 and 2006, the second longest bowl streak in school history (Iowa appeared in eight straight bowl games from 1981-88). Iowa's streak under Ferentz included a string of four straight January games from 2002-05. Thru the 2009 season, Iowa was just one of eight schools in the nation to appear in six January bowl games since the 2002 season. The Hawkeyes are one of four programs to win a bowl game following each of the last three seasons.

The 2010 Hawkeyes were ranked for virtually the entire season. The Hawkeyes capped their up and down season on a high note with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl at Tempe, AZ. The win gave the Hawkeyes an 8-5 season record. Injuries took their toll as the Hawkeyes dropped their final three regular season games by a total of 10 points. Iowa finished 4-4 in league play and in a tie for fourth. It marked the ninth time in 10 years Iowa finished in the league's upper division. Ferentz also won his 100th career victory in Iowa's win at Indiana.

Four 2010 Hawkeyes were named to the first all-Big Ten team while seven others were named to a second all-Big Ten team. Defensive end Adrian Clayborn was a finalist for the Lombardi and Ted Hendricks awards, punter Ryan Donahue a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award and quarterback Ricky Stanzi was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Senior Quarterback of the Year Award. A number of other Hawkeyes were on watch lists during the season.

Iowa has won 17 of its last 21 games in Kinnick Stadium. The Hawkeyes are 49-11 (.817) at home since the start of the 2002 season. That mark includes a school-record 22-game winning streak (2002-05), which ended with an overtime loss. Iowa sold out 36 straight home games during that time and has sold out 49 of its last 51 home games.

The 2009 Hawkeyes (11-2) surprised a lot of football experts by winning their first nine games (a school record) and moving to fourth in the BCS rankings. The loss of starting quarterback Ricky Stanzi in the 10th game was a key factor in Iowa losing two straight games before winning its regular season finale and the FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa finished in a tie for second (6-2) in the Big Ten, falling to Ohio State on the road in overtime in the next to last regular season game. It marked Iowa's second straight runner-up finish in the league standings. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004.

Seven Hawkeyes earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2009, including OL Bryan Bulaga, who was named Offensive Lineman of the Year. DE Adrian Clayborn was named national Defensive Performer of the Year by College Football Performance Awards. Six were selected in the 2010 NFL draft.

The 2008 Hawkeyes caught fire in the second half of the season by winning six of their final seven games. Iowa finished the season with a 9-4 record (5-3 in the Big Ten), with the losses coming by a total of 12 points.

Iowa won its first three games in 2008 before three close losses. A win over previously undefeated and third-ranked Penn State (24-23) was the biggest highlight of the successful stretch run. The icing on the cake was a convincing 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl at Tampa, FL. The win enabled the Hawkeyes to finish 20th in the final AP and USA Today Coaches polls.

Four Hawkeyes made the 2008 first all-Big Ten team, with two gaining considerable individual honors. Running back Shonn Greene won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was also the winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, emblematic of the league's most valuable player. He was named the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year by both league coaches and media. Greene was also the MVP of the Outback Bowl. Defensive tackle Mitch King was named the league's defensive Lineman of the Year while earning all-league first team honors for the second straight year.

Under Ferentz, the Hawkeyes have put together the greatest run in school history. The Hawkeyes won 11 games in 2002 and 2009 and 10 games in 2003 and 2004. With a 7-5 record in 2005, Iowa posted a four-year mark (2002-05) of 38-12, the best in school history. And, Iowa's 25 Big Ten wins were the most ever by a Hawkeye team in a four-year span. No other Big Ten team won more league games over that four-year period.

Iowa's 6-6 record in 2007 included a 4-4 mark in Big Ten play. Iowa climbed as high as 12th in the 2006 polls while winning five of its first six games. Injuries and inopportune mistakes played a role as the Hawkeyes struggled for consistency during the second half of the season. Still, a 24-21 loss to 15th-ranked Wisconsin and the two-point loss to 16th-ranked Texas in the Alamo Bowl showed Iowa's toughness.

Ferentz led the Hawkeyes to a third place Big Ten finish in 2005. An overtime loss to Michigan and a last-minute, one point loss at Northwestern is all that kept the Hawkeyes out of contention for a third Big Ten title in four years.

Ferentz led the 2004 Hawkeyes to their second Big Ten title in three years and earned the league's Coach of the Year honors for the second time. Iowa's 10-2 (7-1 in the Big Ten) record was expected by very few. A victory in the 2005 Capital One Bowl (30-25 over defending national champion LSU) capped off a third straight appearance in a January bowl game.

Iowa put the topping on the 2003 and 2004 seasons by beating favored SEC teams in New Year's Day bowl games. The Hawkeyes ended the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons with an eighth place ranking in the final polls. On a national scale, Iowa's record over that three year span ranked eighth best in the nation.

The 2003 Hawkeyes were the only Big Ten team to beat league champion Michigan (30-27). Five Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two were named first team all-America. Hawkeye offensive lineman Robert Gallery was named winner of the 2003 Outland Trophy, which goes to the nation's top collegiate interior lineman. Iowa put the topping on the 2003 season by beating a favored Florida team (37-17) in the Outback Bowl, at Tampa, FL, on New Year's Day.

The 2002 team was probably the most decorated in Iowa football history.

Ferentz was named 2002 Associated Press and The Walter Camp Football Foundation's Coach of the Year in college football. He was also named Big Ten Coach of the Year in a season that saw his team climb as high as third in the national rankings.

Ferentz led the 2002 Hawkeyes to their first Big Ten title since 1990 and the most wins (11) in school history. Iowa posted impressive road wins at Penn State and Michigan on its way to the school's first undefeated Big Ten campaign since 1922. The win over Michigan was the most convincing by a Wolverine opponent, in Ann Arbor, since 1967. The Hawkeyes also played in the BCS's FedEx Orange Bowl for the first time, having their nine-game winning streak snapped by Southern California.

Winning three of its final four games in 2001, Ferentz led Iowa to the Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, TX, where the Hawkeyes defeated Texas Tech 19-16.

The foundation of Kirk's program at Iowa was established in his first two seasons and began to pay dividends late in the 2000 season when the Hawkeyes won in double overtime at Penn State. Iowa returned home the following week to post a 27-17 win over Big Ten co-champion Northwestern, ranked 12th in the nation at the time. That late-season success carried over into the winning campaign of 2001.

Ferentz was named Iowa's 25th head football coach on December 2, 1998. He replaced Fry, who retired after 20 seasons with the Hawkeyes. At Iowa, Ferentz has an overall record of 89-60, including an 85-41 mark over the last 10 seasons. He has posted a 53-43 record in Big Ten play. His career record is 101-81 in 15 years as a collegiate head coach. Ferentz is one of just seven Big Ten coaches ever to guide a team to 10 wins or more in three straight seasons.

And while Ferentz has guided the Iowa program to great success on the field, the Hawkeyes have also made their mark in the classroom. Iowa's most recent graduation success rate (GSR) of 79% ranked third among teams in the nation's top 25.

In 2005, Iowa tied Southern Cal and Virginia Tech with the best football student-athlete graduation rate (58%) among all Division I teams earning a bowl invitation. Among the teams which participated in bowl games following the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons, only Iowa and Southern Cal ranked in the top five in graduation rates in each of the three seasons. Among the 64 schools who participated in bowl games following the 2006 season, Iowa's graduation rate (72%) ranked ninth best.

Along with Ferentz earning conference and national Coach of the Year recognition, members of his staff have also been well recognized. Norm Parker, Iowa's defensive coordinator, was a finalist for the 2004 and 2005 Frank Broyles Award, which recognizes the top Division I assistant coach in the nation. Lester Erb, who has coached running backs, wide receivers and special teams at Iowa, was named by Rivals.com as one of the top 25 recruiters in 2005. Ron Aiken, Iowa's defensive line coach through the 2006 season, was the American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002. Aiken is now on the coaching staff of the NFL's Arizona Cardinals.

KIRK FERENTZ

Under Ferentz and his staff, Hawkeye players have gathered all-Big Ten and national recognition at a record pace. Five Hawkeye players have earned national Player of the Year honors at their position. Those include offensive lineman Robert Gallery (Outland Trophy), place kicker Nate Kaeding (Lou Groza Award), quarterback Brad Banks (Davey O'Brien Award and AP Player of the Year), tight end Dallas Clark (John Mackey Award) and running back Shonn Greene (Doak Walker Award). Banks was also the runner-up in the 2002 Heisman Trophy voting.

Banks (2002) and Greene (2008) were both named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and conference MVP. Guard Eric Steinbach (2002), Gallery (2003), King (2008) and Bulaga (2009) were all winners of the Big Ten Lineman of the Year award.

Another part of Iowa's success under Ferentz is reflected in the annual NFL draft. Six Hawkeyes were drafted in the 2010 NFL draft, including OL Bryan Bulaga (Green Bay) in the first round (23rd pick overall). LB Pat Angerer (Indianapolis) was taken in the second round, while DB Amari Spivey (Detroit) and TE Tony Moeaki (Kansas City) were third round selections. LB A.J. Edds (Miami) was taken in the fourth round and OL Kyle Calloway (Buffalo) was a sixth round selection. Bulaga was a starter for the Packers in the 2011 Super Bowl.

RB Shonn Greene (New York Jets) and DB Bradley Fletcher (St. Louis Rams) were the first two players selected, respectively, in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft. OL Seth Olsen (Denver) was a fourth round selection and TE Brandon Myers (Oakland) was selected in the sixth round.

In the 2008 NFL draft, DB Charles Godfrey was a third round selection of the Carolina Panthers, while DE Ken Iwebema was a fourth round selection (Arizona) and LB Mike Humpal was selected in the sixth round (Pittsburgh).

LB Chad Greenway was a first round pick in the 2006 draft, with fellow linebacker Abdul Hodge being selected in the third round. In the 2007 draft, OL Marshal Yanda (third round, Baltimore), TE Scott Chandler (fourth, San Diego) and OL Mike Elgin (seventh, New England) were selected.

In the 2005 NFL draft, DE Matt Roth and DT Jonathan Babineaux were second round selections and DB Sean Considine was taken in the fourth round.

Robert Gallery was the second selection in the 2004 NFL draft, while Bob Sanders was selected in the second round as the first pick of the Indianapolis Colts. Nate Kaeding, a third round selection of the San Diego Chargers, became the first kicker since 2000 (and just the sixth ever) to be selected on the first day of the draft.

Overall, 33 players have been drafted in the past eight years, with eight being selected among the top 50 picks. In addition, five Hawkeye players signed NFL free agent contracts the day after the 2003 and 2007 drafts, nine signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2004 draft, three in 2005 and 2008 and four following the 2006 and 2009 drafts.

Over the past eight seasons, 75 of 82 senior starters under Coach Ferentz have been selected in the NFL draft or signed to an NFL free agent contract. Iowa ranks among Big Ten leaders in number of players drafted (36) over the past nine years.

Among the former Hawkeyes who have gone on to play in the NFL, Kaeding, Sanders, TE Dallas Clark (Indianapolis) and DL Aaron Kampman (Green Bay) have earned all-Pro recognition. Sanders was named by the Associated Press as the 2007 NFL defensive Player of the Year.

Ferentz joined the Iowa staff after serving as assistant head coach and offensive line coach of the Baltimore Ravens of the National Football League. He had been a part of the Baltimore (Cleveland Browns prior to the move) organization for six years.

Ferentz was a member of Hayden Fry's Iowa staff for nine years as offensive line coach (1981-89). Iowa appeared in eight bowl games during the time Ferentz was an Iowa assistant. A pair of Rose Bowls (1982 & 1986), two Holiday Bowl appearances (1986-87) and a pair of Peach Bowl visits (1982 & 1988), along with appearances in the Gator (1983) and Freedom (1984) bowls, highlighted his previous Iowa stay. Iowa's record in those nine years was 73-33-4 and included two 10-win and two nine-win seasons.

Offensive lines under the direction of Ferentz anchored four of Iowa's highest scoring offenses. Five of Iowa's top offensive teams, in terms of yards gained per game, were operating behind Ferentz coached offensive lines. And, seven of Iowa's top 10 passing teams of all time occurred during the Ferentz years of the 1980's.

Kirk's coaching career began as a student assistant (1977) at his alma mater, Connecticut. The next two years (1978-79) were spent at Worcester Academy, where Kirk also taught English literature. He served as a graduate assistant offensive line coach at Pittsburgh during the 1980 season. That Pittsburgh team (coached by Jackie Sherrill) finished with an 11-1 record and a number two national ranking.

He joined Fry's staff in 1981 and the Hawkeyes won their first conference title and Rose Bowl berth in over 20 years. A string of 19 straight non-winning seasons came to an end in 1981. Ferentz continued as Iowa's line coach thru the 1989 season.

Eleven Hawkeyes, coached by Ferentz (the assistant), went on to play in the National Football League. They were John Alt, Rob Baxley, Dave Croston, Scott Davis, Mike Devlin, Chris Gambol, Mike Haight, Ron Hallstrom, Joel Hilgenberg, Bob Kratch and Brett Miller. Alt, Haight and Hallstrom were first round picks in the NFL draft and five of his players were first team all-Big Ten.

He was named head coach of the Maine Bears in 1990 and held that position for three years before being hired by Bill Belichick and the Cleveland Browns.

Kirk served as the honorary chair of the University of Iowa's 1999-00 United Way campaign and he serves on the National Advisory Board of the Bethesda Family Services Foundation. Kirk and his wife, Mary, have given two major financial gifts to the University of Iowa. The most recent was a $400,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts and University Children's Hospital. The Ferentz's also made a $100,000 gift to the University's College of Liberal Arts in 2003. Kirk and Mary are very enthusiastic supporters of the University of Iowa Children's Hospital. From serving as advocates for the hospital across the state; to hosting and speaking at events to raise support for UI Children's Hospital; to their personal generosity in establishing the "Ferentz Family Pediatric Research and Education Endowment Fund" in 2007.

Ferentz was born August 1, 1955, in Royal Oak, MI. He attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh. He graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in English Education. He was a football captain and an academic all-Yankee Conference linebacker at UConn.

Kirk received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Neag School of Education at the University of Connecticut in May, 2009. He was inducted into the Upper St. Clair High School Hall of Fame in September, 2002 and the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May, 2003.

Kirk and his wife, Mary, have five children. They are Brian (27), Kelly (25), Joanne (23), James (21) and Steven (17). Brian was a three-year letterman (2003-05) with the Hawkeye football team and James is beginning his fourth year in the program. Kelly is in graduate school at Iowa and Joanne earned her degree from Iowa in 2010.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ERIK CAMPBELL
Wide Receivers
Fourth year at Iowa

Erik Campbell has served as wide receiver coach at the University of Iowa for the past three seasons. Campbell also coached the tight ends in his first two years on the Iowa staff. He joined the Iowa staff after serving as an assistant coach at Michigan for 13 seasons. Campbell also served as assistant head coach at Michigan for five seasons.

Campbell has made an impact with Iowa's offense the past three seasons as the Hawkeyes have posted a 28-11 record. That includes a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl.

Campbell has participated in 21 bowl games throughout his career. After competing in bowl games four consecutive years as a player, Campbell has coached in 17 bowl games. He has coached in 13 January bowl games, the most recent being Iowa's victories in the 2009 Outback Bowl and 2010 Orange Bowl.

Iowa's offense averaged over 220 passing yards per game in each of the past two seasons. Iowa featured four players with at least 30 receptions in 2009 and three players with over 40 receptions in 2010. Junior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., led Iowa with 53 receptions for 861 yards and eight touchdowns in 2010, earning second team all-Big Ten honors.

Senior Tight End Tony Moeaki (30-387 yards) earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2009 after having the best season of his career. Moeaki was one of eight semi-finalists for the John Mackey Award. He was selected by Kansas City in the third round of the 2010 NFL draft and totaled 47 receptions for 556 yards and three scores in his rookie season.

Iowa's offense in 2008 ranked second in the Big Ten in scoring (30.3) and first downs, third in time of possession and fourth in passing efficiency. Senior tight end Brandon Myers was drafted by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL draft and has had two stellar seasons with the Raiders.

Campbell, at Michigan, was responsible for the wide receiving corps and worked with the team's punt returners for 13 seasons. Campbell added the title of assistant head coach prior to the start of the 2003 season. In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Campbell coordinated the successful Women's Football Academy, put on annually by the coaching staff, which helped raise over one million dollars for the University of Michigan Cancer Center.

Campbell coached a 1,000-yard receiver an NCAA record eight straight seasons (1998-2005), with Braylon Edwards becoming the ninth player in Division I-A history and the first player in Big Ten history to achieve three straight 1,000-yard seasons. His streak of 1,000-yard receivers came to an end in 2006, but a record three Wolverines receivers gained over 500 yards for the first time in school history.

Campbell was a key factor in the punt return success of Steve Breaston, the Big Ten's career punt return leader. Breaston returned 127 punts for a conference record 1,599 yards (12.6 avg.) and four scores during his career.

Campbell coached three All-Americans during his tenure -- David Terrell, Marquise Walker and Edwards -- and had four players receive the Bo Schembechler Most Valuable Player team award. Campbell's players have earned All-Big Ten honors 17 times, including nine first-team citations and eight second-team honors.

Campbell joined the Michigan staff in 1995 and coached some of Michigan's top wide receivers. His list of NFL products includes: Amani Toomer, a second-round draft pick of the New York Giants (1996); Mercury Hayes, a fifth-round pick of the New Orleans Saints (1996); 1997 Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson, a first-round pick of the Oakland Raiders (1998); Streets, a fifth-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers (1999); Marcus Knight, a free agent pickup of the Oakland Raiders (2000); Terrell, the eighth pick of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears; Walker, a third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002); free agent signee Ronald Bellamy by the Miami Dolphins (2003); Edwards, the third pick of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns; Jason Avant, a fourth-round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles (2006); Steve Breaston, a fifth-round selection of the Arizona Cardinals (2007); Mario Manningham, a third-round pick of the New York Giants (2008); Adrian Arrington, a seventh-round selection of the New Orleans Saints (2008); and Myers, taken in the sixth round by Oakland in 2009. Edwards capped a record-setting career by winning the 2004 Biletnikoff Award as the top wide receiver in college football.

Campbell was a four-year letterman (1984-87) at Michigan and boasts starts on both sides of the ball. The Wolverines compiled a 35-13-1 record and won the 1986 Big Ten title while Campbell was a squad member. He is the only player in Michigan football history to start at all four secondary positions in one year.

Campbell saw the majority of his action at defensive back, starting 30 career games during his freshman, junior and senior seasons. He started the final 25 games of his career and added five starts as a true freshman. He completed his career with 113 tackles and five interceptions.

After collecting 29 tackles in five games as a freshman, Campbell switched to wide receiver for his sophomore campaign. He returned to the defensive secondary for the final two years of his career and saw plenty of action on special teams. He returned 13 punts for an average of 9.2 yards in 1985, and returned four kicks for an 18.5-yard average in 1986.

Campbell served as a student assistant coach at Michigan in 1988 before beginning his full-time coaching career as an assistant coach with the U.S. Naval Academy. Campbell spent two seasons coaching running backs for Navy (1989-90), before accepting a position at Ball State University as the running backs coach (1991-93). Campbell coached one season at Syracuse (1994) before returning to Ann Arbor as the Wolverines' wide receivers coach.

Campbell is a native of Gary, IN, where he was a prep star at Roosevelt High School. He was an all-state selection in football and gained all-American honors in track after leading his team to back-to-back state championships. Campbell is a member of both the Indiana High School Track and Field Hall of Fame and the Indiana High School Football Hall of Fame.

He was recognized in his hometown of Gary, IN with the Benjamin Hooks Award, presented by the Gary chapter of the NAACP, during the spring of 2010.

Campbell earned his bachelor of general studies degree from Michigan in 1988.

He was born January 21, 1966. He is single.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LESTER ERB
Running Backs and Special Teams
12th year at Iowa

Lester Erb has been a member of the University of Iowa football staff for the past 11 seasons. Erb has coached the Iowa running backs the last three seasons after coaching Iowa's wide receivers for eight years. He has worked with special teams throughout his career at Iowa. He became a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff in 2000 after spending one year on the Army staff as tight ends coach.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

The Hawkeyes have relied on young players at the running back position the last two seasons. Under Erb's direction, those young players have performed well. As a freshman last season, Marcus Coker set Iowa bowl records for attempts and yards (33-219), scoring two touchdowns while earning offensive Player of the Game honors in the Insight Bowl win over Missouri.

In his first season working with the Iowa running backs in 2008, Erb had the opportunity to coach Shonn Greene, who earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation. Greene earned consensus all-American honors and was the offensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten Conference. He rushed for 1,850 yards to set an Iowa single-season rushing mark and was the only running back in the nation to surpass 100 yards in every game during the season. Greene was the first player selected in the third round (New York Jets) of the 2009 NFL draft. Greene led the Jet rushing attack at the end of his rookie season. The Jets have advanced to the AFC championship game in each of the past two seasons.

In 2009, Iowa's two freshmen running backs combined to rush for 1,475 yards and 13 touchdowns as Iowa posted an 11-2 overall record, placing second in the Big Ten and winning the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl.

Over the past nine years, the play of Iowa's special teams has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. The Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in net punting a year ago after ranking fourth in 2009, third in 2008 and second in 2007. In 2010, Iowa ranked sixth in the nation in punt coverage (3.9) and 12th in kickoff returns (25.3). Senior punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award last season.

In 2004, Iowa ranked 15th in the nation in punt returns. The Hawkeyes recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495).

Erb coached PK Nate Kaeding to first team all-America honors in both 2002 and 2003. Kaeding was named winner of the 2002 Lou Groza Placekicker of the Year award and was one of three finalists for the award in 2003. Kaeding is Iowa's career scoring leader and holds 14 school records. He was drafted in the third round of the NFL draft by the San Diego Chargers, the first kicker since 2000 to be selected on the first day of the draft. He earned all-Pro recognition in both 2006 and 2009.

Under Erb's direction, Iowa's 2002 kickoff return team led the nation with a 25.1 yard average. Iowa has also ranked first (2004), second (2009) and third (2003 & 2005) in the Big Ten in kickoff coverage.

In 2007, Iowa's offense lost its top two receivers (WR Andy Brodell and TE Tony Moeaki) for the season in the fourth game of the year. From there, two freshmen ended the season as Iowa's top receivers.

Erb was instrumental in the development of wide receivers Ed Hinkel and Clinton Solomon, two seniors in 2005. Both ended their careers with over 100 receptions and over 1,500 receiving yards. Solomon ranks eighth in career receiving yards and his average of 15.8 yards per catch ranks second. Hinkel ranks 15th in career yardage and served as a very dependable punt returner throughout his career. Both signed NFL free agent contracts immediately following the 2006 NFL draft.

Wide receivers C.J. Jones and Maurice Brown were both named honorable mention all-Big Ten in 2002. Jones played in the NFL following his Hawkeye career. Brown, as a senior in 2003, had 33 receptions for 507 yards, despite missing all of five games due to injury. Brown signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints following his senior year.

In 2001, Iowa led the Big Ten Conference in punt returns (14.6 yards per return) and ranked fifth in kickoff returns (20.1 yards per return). WR Kahlil Hill was named as the national Special Teams Player of the Year after ranking nationally in both punt and KO returns. Defensively, Iowa's opponents averaged just 7.5 yards on punt returns and 19 yards on kickoff returns.

Iowa's wide receivers also had an excellent season in 2000, with Kevin Kasper setting a single-season record with 82 catches (for 1,010 yards) and Hill catching 58 passes for 619 yards. Hill also ranked among national leaders in both kickoff and punt returns as a junior. Six Iowa receivers, coached by Erb, signed NFL contracts in the last six years.

Erb has two years experience (1997 & 1998) in the National Football League, having worked directly with Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz on the Baltimore Ravens staff. He was Baltimore's offensive quality control coach while working with the offensive line. He was largely responsible for scouting opponent defenses and assisted with special teams.

Erb gained experience on the Syracuse and Hobart College football staffs. Erb served three years at Syracuse, where his primary responsibilities included helping with the offensive line and scout team preparation. Erb also coached receivers at Hobart College for three years.

Erb was a standout receiver at Bucknell University, where he set records for touchdown receptions in a season and career. He set a school record for average yards per catch in a single game when he averaged 33.7 yards on six catches vs. Fordham. His 902 receiving yards in 1989 ranks second best all-time at Bucknell. He ranks fifth in career all-purpose yards (3,286) and was Bucknell's Most Valuable Player as a senior in 1990.

He earned his B.A. in business administration from Bucknell and his M.A. in high educational administration from Syracuse.

Erb was born April 22, 1969. He and his wife, Eileen, have a son, Jacob, and two daughters, Emily and Sarah.

ERIC JOHNSON
Recruiting Coordinator and Tight Ends
13th year at Iowa

Eric Johnson has been a member of the University of Iowa football staff for the past 12 seasons. He has served as Iowa's recruiting coordinator for the past eight seasons. Johnson has also returned to coaching Hawkeye tight ends after assisting with Hawkeye linebackers for two seasons (2008 & 2009). Johnson coached Iowa's tight ends for five seasons (2003-07) and previously served as Iowa's quality control assistant for three years. He was a defensive graduate assistant during his first year (1999) at Iowa.

Johnson has been heavily involved in Iowa's recruiting efforts since joining the Hawkeye staff. The 2006 recruiting class was ranked extremely high by all the recruiting experts. Iowa's 2005 recruiting class was ranked among the top 10 in the nation by all of the top recruiting services, while Iowa's classes in 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004 and 2009 were all ranked in the nation's top 25. Sporting News ranked Iowa's most recent recruiting class second best among Big Ten programs.

Johnson ranked as one of the top ten recruiting coordinators in the country by Tom Lemming in 2001 and was named one of the Top Ten Recruiters in the Big Ten Conference by Rivals.com in 2007.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Continuing in the Iowa tradition of outstanding tight ends, senior Allen Reisner had the best season of his career in 2010. Reisner ranked third on the team with 42 receptions for 460 yards, while scoring two touchdowns.

The play of Iowa's linebackers played a key role in Iowa's success in 2008 and 2009. Iowa ranked eighth in the nation in scoring defense and total defense in 2009. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2008. LB Pat Angerer earned All-America recognition following the 2009 season. Angerer was first team all-Big Ten and OLB A.J. Edds was named second team. Angerer led Iowa in tackles in both 2008 and 2009 and was a second round selection (Indianapolis) in the 2010 NFL draft. Edds was selected in the fourth round (Miami).

Tight end Scott Chandler earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2006 and was selected in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL draft by the San Diego Chargers. As a senior Chandler led the team in touchdown receptions (six), ranked second in receptions (46) and third in receiving yards (591). He ranks 19th in career receiving yards (1,467) and is second among all Iowa tight ends in both yards and receptions (117).

In 2004, Eric coached Tony Jackson, who was selected by Seattle in the 2005 NFL Draft. In 2003 Johnson coached Erik Jensen, who was taken in the NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams. Jensen joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2005 and earned a Super Bowl championship. All tight ends that started for Iowa under Johnson have been drafted into the NFL. Brandon Myers, a senior in 2008, was selected by Oakland in the sixth round of the 2009 NFL draft and has been a key contributor during his two seasons in the NFL.

Johnson joined the Iowa staff after serving as a graduate assistant coach at Vanderbilt University from 1996-98, working one season with the linebackers and two years with the defensive backs. At Vanderbilt Eric worked under Coach Woody Widenhofer for one season and under Norm Parker, Iowa's current defensive coordinator, for two years.

Johnson attended Vanderbilt after his prep career at Whitefish Bay HS in Milwaukee, WI, where he was defensive MVP as a senior linebacker. After a redshirt season Eric was a member of the Vanderbilt squad for one season before being injured.

Johnson was a student assistant coach at Vandy for two seasons, working with Coach Gerry DiNardo. After earning his bachelor's degree in history in 1995, Eric remained at Vanderbilt as Director of Football Operations for one year before serving as a graduate assistant coach. Johnson has completed course work towards his master's degree in health, promotion and education.

Eric was born May 24, 1972 in Milwaukee. Eric and his wife, Patsy, have twin daughters, Jamieson and Sydney.

RICK KACZENSKI
Defensive Line Coach
Seventh Year at Iowa

Rick Kaczenski has been a fulltime member of the Hawkeye coaching staff for the past four seasons. Kaczenski is in his fourth year as Iowa's defensive line coach after serving as a graduate assistant coach and working with the offensive line for two years.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

The play of the defensive line has played a key role in Iowa's most recent success. In 2010, Iowa ranked fifth nationally in total defense (332.1), sixth in rushing defense (101.5) and seventh in scoring defense (17.0). In 2009, the Hawkeyes ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense (15.4), and first downs allowed (15.0) and 10th in total defense (276.5). The Iowa defense was third in the nation in pass efficiency (89.9) and fourth in pass defense (152.9).

The front line led the defensive performance in the 2011 Orange Bowl win over Georgia Tech, allowing just 143 net rushing yards after Tech had ended the regular season ranked second in the nation in rushing yards per game (307.2).

End Adrian Clayborn became the 21st player at Iowa to earn consensus All-America honors in 2010. He was named as the national Defensive Performer of the Year by College Football Performance Awards in 2009. Clayborn was named first team all-Big Ten in both 2009 and 2010. Tackle Karl Klug earned second team all-Big Ten honors.

Iowa, in 2008, led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (13.0) and pass efficiency defense (98.3). Iowa was ninth nationally in rushing defense (94.0) and 12th in total defense (291.3).

Tackles Mitch King and Matt Kroul led Iowa's defense in 2008. King was named Defensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten while earning first, second and third team All-America honors. Kroul earned second team all-Big Ten honors after setting an Iowa record with 50 consecutive starts. Both King (Tennessee) and Kroul (NY Jets) signed free agent contracts immediately following the 2009 NFL draft and have remained in the NFL the last two seasons.

In his first season with Iowa's defensive front in 2007, Kaczenski worked with a group that led the way for Iowa to rank third in the Big Ten and 13th in the nation in scoring defense. Iowa also led the league in turnover margin and redzone defense and ranked fourth in rushing defense. King was named first team all-Big Ten and senior DE Bryan Mattison earned second team recognition.

Defensive end Ken Iwebema was selected by Arizona in the fourth round of the 2008 NFL draft, while Mattison signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets immediately following the draft. Iwebema, as an NFL rookie in 2008, was a member of Arizona's Super Bowl squad.

Offensively, Iowa boasted the Big Ten's leading rusher in 2005 (league games only), along with leading the league in redzone offense and ranked third in passing offense and fourth in total offense. In 2006, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense and third in total offense. Two Hawkeye senior linemen, Marshal Yanda and Mike Elgin, were selected in the 2007 NFL draft, while Mike Jones signed a free agent contract.

Kaczenski joined the Iowa staff after serving as the offensive line and tight ends coach at Elon University in 2004. He held the same position at East Tennessee State during the 2003 season and served as the offensive line coach at South Carolina State in 2002.

Rick was on the staff at South Carolina from 1999-2001. As a graduate assistant he worked in recruiting and also coached with the offensive line and wide receivers. The Gamecocks appeared in the Outback Bowl following the 2000 and 2001 seasons. He also was the offensive line coach at Erie Cathedral Prep HS in Erie, PA in 1998, his high school alma mater.

Kaczenski played college football at Notre Dame, where he was a three-year starter on the offensive line (1993-96) under offensive line Coach Joe Moore. He helped the Fighting Irish to four bowl game appearances, including the Cotton Bowl in 1993, the Fiesta Bowl in 1994, the Orange Bowl in 1995 and the Independence Bowl in 1997.

He was part of offensive lines that were awarded Chevrolet Player of the Game honors in 1995 vs. Vanderbilt (293 rushing yards and 493 yards total offense) and in 1996 vs. Washington (397 rushing yards and 650 yards total offense).

Rick played 40 games for Notre Dame, including a string of 35 straight contests at the center position. During his career, Notre Dame finished among the top rushing teams in the nation in three different seasons, including 20th in 1994, sixth in 1995 and eighth in 1996.

His older brother, Bob, was a member of Penn State's 1986 national championship team.

Kaczenski earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sociology from Notre Dame in 1997 and he is a graduate of Cathedral Prep HS in Erie, PA. He was elected to the Erie Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2007.

Kaczenski was born Feb. 15, 1975 in Erie, PA. His wife's name is Jessica. Their first child, Victor James, was born June 20, 2010.

REESE MORGAN
Offensive Line

Reese Morgan, one of the most successful high school coaches in Iowa prep history, has been a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff for the past 11 seasons. Morgan has served as Iowa's offensive line coach the last eight seasons after spending the first three years on the staff as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Among the reasons for Iowa's recent success has been the play of Iowa's offensive line, working under the direction of Morgan. Iowa's offensive line featured three first-year starters in 2010. Still, the Hawkeyes ranked among the national leaders in fewest penalties, fewest penalty yards, QB sacks allowed and fewest turnovers. Senior guard Julian Vandervelde and sophomore tackle Riley Reiff earned second team all-Big Ten honors.

In 2009, tackle Bryan Bulaga was named Offensive Lineman of the Year in the Big Ten, earning first team all-conference honors. Dace Richardson returned to earn first team honors after missing over a year and a half due to injury.

Bulaga declared for the NFL draft following his junior season in 2009 and was the 23rd player selected in the 2010 NFL draft when he was taken by the Green Bay Packers. Tackle Kyle Calloway was selected in the sixth round by the Buffalo Bills. Bulaga earned a starting spot at right tackle for the Super Bowl champion Packers and is now the youngest player ever to start in the Super Bowl.

Iowa, in 2008, ranked third in the Big Ten and 26th nationally in rushing yards per game (188.7) as the offensive front stayed relatively healthy and molded into one of the best fronts in the nation. Iowa featured running back Shonn Greene, who earned the Doak Walker Award as the top running back in the nation. Greene was the only running back in the nation to rush for over 100 yards in every game during the 2008 season.

Senior Seth Olsen led the way for the Hawkeyes in 2008, earning first team all-Big Ten honors, as well as first, second and third team all-American recognition. Center Rob Bruggeman and tackles Kyle Calloway and Bryan Bulaga all earned second team all-conference recognition.

Olsen was selected in the fourth round of the 2009 NFL draft by Denver, while TE Brandon Myers was selected by Oakland in the sixth round. Bruggeman signed a free agent contract with Tampa Bay immediately following the draft.

The 2006 Hawkeyes ranked third in the Big Ten in total offense (just a yard behind second place Ohio State) and second in pass offense. In 2005, Iowa boasted the Big Ten's leading rusher and the league's best red zone offense.

In the 2007 NFL draft, Marshal Yanda (Baltimore) was selected in the third round and Mike Elgin (New England) was a seventh round selection. In addition, Mike Jones signed a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers. Jones was a first team all-Big Ten selection, while Yanda earned second team honors. Elgin was a first team academic all-American in each of his final two seasons. Yanda has started at both guard and tackle for the Ravens over the past four seasons.

In 2005 the Hawkeyes averaged 30 points a game behind quarterback Drew Tate and Big Ten rushing leader Albert Young. Senior center Brian Ferentz started the final 20 games of his career in 2004 and 2005 and signed a free agent contract with Atlanta immediately following the 2006 NFL draft.

Due to a number of injuries to Iowa running backs in 2004, Iowa developed one of the most dangerous passing attacks in the nation. The Hawkeyes scored 23 points or more in the final five games of the season, including 30 points in wins over Wisconsin and LSU. For the year, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, pass efficiency and red zone offense.

Right tackle Pete McMahon was the lone senior in 2004 in the offensive line. Facing two of the more highly regarded defensive ends in the nation in Iowa's final two games, McMahon led by example by controlling his opponents, who were both first round selections in the NFL draft. McMahon was taken in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

Anchored by consensus all-American and Outland Trophy winner Robert Gallery at left tackle, Iowa's offensive line had four new starters to start the 2003 season. By the end of the year, in which the Hawkeyes won 10 games and featured RB Fred Russell with over 1,300 rushing yards, the offensive line had meshed together as one of Iowa's strong points. The Hawkeyes ended the season by rushing for over 200 yards in a win at Wisconsin and in the Outback Bowl win over Florida.

Gallery was a consensus first team all-American at the end of the year. He was the second player selected in the NFL Draft, being taken by the Oakland Raiders. In becoming Iowa's third Outland Trophy winner, he became the second Outland Trophy winner coached by Morgan. As the head coach at Benton Community HS, Morgan coached Chad Hennings, the 1987 winner, who was a defensive tackle at the Air Force Academy. Hennings is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

As tight ends coach in 2002, Morgan coached tight end Dallas Clark to consensus All-America honors. Clark was also named winner of the John Mackey Award, which goes annually to college football's top tight end. Clark was named to at least seven first team all-America teams. Clark has earned a Super Bowl championship with the Indianapolis Colts and earned all-Pro honors in 2009.

Morgan became part of the Iowa staff after eight years as head coach at West HS in Iowa City. West won state Class 4A (largest class in the state) titles in 1995, 1998 and 1999. Morgan left the program with a 26-game winning streak.

Between 1994 and 1999 his West High School teams were 62-7. His overall record at West was 67-20. He has totaled 146 career prep victories. Morgan is a member of the Iowa High School Coach's Hall of Fame. He also served as Assistant Principal and Dean of Students at West.

Reese also served as a teacher (1973-92), assistant football coach (1973-77) and head football coach (1978-91) at Benton Community High School. He led Benton Community into the state playoffs on three occasions.

Morgan attended St. Mary's High School in Lorain, OH. He lettered three times in football and one year in track and field. Reese was a four-year letterman (linebacker) at Wartburg College and was team captain as a senior in 1971.

Morgan earned his B.A. degree in education from Wartburg and earned a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Northern Iowa.

Morgan was born June 22, 1950. Reese and his wife, Jo, have two daughters, Jessica and Caitlin, along with granddaughters Morgan and Hayden, and grandsons Cade and Jace.

ASSISTANT COACHES

KEN O'KEEFE
Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks
13th Year at Iowa

Ken O'Keefe has served as offensive coordinator at the University of Iowa for the past 12 seasons. O'Keefe has been Iowa's quarterbacks coach for 11 seasons after coaching Hawkeye wide receivers in 1999.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Under O'Keefe direction, QB Ricky Stanzi dramatically improved his performance from year to year while directing Iowa's offense the last three seasons. As a senior in 2010 Stanzi set a school record for passing efficiency (157.6), ranking 12th in the nation while passing for over 3,000 yards and 25 touchdowns, with just six interceptions. As a team, Iowa was second in the nation in fewest turnovers (11) and 10th in pass efficiency (155.7).

In 2009 Stanzi directed an Iowa offense that depended upon two freshmen running backs. Iowa averaged over 222 passing yards per game and the rookie running backs combined to rush for 1,475 yards. Stanzi ranks among Iowa's career leaders in pass completions (fourth, 542), attempts (third, 907), passing yards (third, 7,377), touchdown passes (third, 56) and total offense (third (7,373).

Offensive linemen Bryan Bulaga and Dace Richardson, along with tight end Tony Moeaki, earned first team all-Big Ten honors in 2009. Bulaga was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year. Bulaga was a first round selection in the 2010 NFL draft, while Moeaki was a third round selection.

Iowa's offense in 2008 featured the Doak Walker Award winner in running back Shonn Greene. Iowa ranked fourth in the Big Ten in both rushing offense and pass efficiency while averaging over 370 yards total offense per game. The Hawkeyes ranked second in scoring offense (30.3) and first downs and third in time of possession.

Along with being honored as the top running back in the nation, Greene was named the Big Ten Conference offensive Player of the Year. Greene, (third round), OL Seth Olsen (fourth) and TE Brandon Myers (sixth) were all selected in the 2009 NFL draft.

From 2004-06, quarterback Drew Tate ranked as one of the nation's top signal callers. He ranks high in the Iowa record book for just about every passing stat. He is second in career passing (8,292), TD passes (61), completions (665), attempts (1,090) and total offense (8,427). Tate signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Rams following his Hawkeye career before playing in the Canadian Football League.

Tate, in 2004, quarterbacked Iowa to a share of the Big Ten title and a win over defending national champion LSU in the 2005 Capital One Bowl. Forced to the air due to multiple injuries to Iowa running backs, Tate earned first team all-Big Ten honors while passing for 2,786 yards and 20 touchdowns. His 56-yard scoring strike on the final play of the Capital One Bowl will go down as one of, if not the, top plays in Hawkeye history.

The 2006 Hawkeyes finished second in Big Ten pass offense and third in total offense. Under O'Keefe's direction, the 2005 Hawkeyes ranked first in the Big Ten in red zone offense and third in passing offense (257.8). In 2004, Iowa ranked second in the Big Ten in passing offense, passing efficiency and red zone offense, posting a 10-2 record while winning a Big Ten title.

In his first year as a starter, Nathan Chandler in 2003 directed Iowa's balanced offense as the Hawkeyes posted a 10-3 overall record. Chandler passed for over 2,000 yards as Iowa averaged 161.2 passing yards and 172.4 rushing yards per game. Senior RB Fred Russell rushed for over 1,000 yards for the second straight season. Chandler signed a free agent contract with Buffalo.

Ken coached QB Brad Banks to all-America honors in 2002. Banks finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting and was named Associated Press College Football Player of the Year. Banks was also named winner of the Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year Award and won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, emblematic of the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. Banks led the nation in passing efficiency (157.1) and is now playing in the Canadian Football League.

Seven Iowa players were named to the all-Big Ten first offensive unit in 2002. That included players named Offensive Player of the Year (Brad Banks) and Offensive Lineman of the Year (Eric Steinbach). Four offensive players, Banks, Steinbach, TE Dallas Clark and center Bruce Nelson, earned first team All-America recognition.

Several Iowa quarterbacks coached by O'Keefe have had the opportunity to play in the NFL and, over the past eight years, 17 offensive players coached by O'Keefe have been selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2001, QB Kyle McCann led the Hawkeyes to seven wins, including a victory over Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. McCann ranked second in the Big Ten in pass efficiency while completing 66.3% of his passes and throwing for 2,028 yards. McCann competed for Barcelona in the NFL Europe professional league following his career at Iowa.

Under O'Keefe's direction, Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten in scoring in 2003 after leading the league in scoring in both 2001 (32.6 ppg) and 2002 (37.2 ppg). Iowa finished third in the league in total offense in 2002 at 424.5 yards a game, a figure which ranked 13th nationally. The Hawkeyes finished first in the Big Ten and second nationally in passing efficiency (156.3) in 2002.

O'Keefe was the head coach at Fordham University in 1998 and was the head coach at Allegheny College for eight seasons (1990-97). His career record of 83-17-1 includes a 79-10-1 mark at Allegheny, where his team won five North Coast Athletic Conference titles and the 1990 NCAA Division III national title. O'Keefe led Allegheny to four undefeated regular seasons (1990, 1991, 1994 and 1996) and six NCAA playoffs.

For his outstanding first year at Allegheny, O'Keefe was named NCAA Division III Coach of the Year in 1990. He was also named conference Coach of the Year four times (1990, 1991, 1993 and 1996) while at Allegheny. All eight of his teams ranked among the nation's top 12 at the end of the season and he coached 38 All-Americans.

Prior to becoming head coach at Allegheny, O'Keefe served as offensive line coach (1986-87) and offensive coordinator (1988-89) there. Ken was an assistant coach at the University of New Haven in 1976 and 1977.

In 1985, he coached Fort Worth (TX) Country Day School, and from 1978-84 he led Worcester (MA) Academy to a 37-11 record and three New England Class A prep championships.

In 1992, O'Keefe led a North Coast Athletic Conference all-star team to Moscow, Russia for a game with the semi-pro Moscow Bears. That experience led to a partnership called Friendship Through Football that resulted in the first youth football games ever between the United States and Russia.

O'Keefe earned his B.A. degree in history from John Carroll University in 1975, where he played football and baseball. He was a three-year starter at wide receiver while at John Carroll.

O'Keefe was born Aug. 18, 1953 in Milford, CT. He and his wife, Joanne, have two children, Meghan and Brendan.

ASSISTANT COACHES

NORM PARKER
Defensive Coordinator
13th Year at Iowa

Norm Parker has served as defensive coordinator at the University of Iowa for 12 seasons. He previously coached the Hawkeye inside linebackers and he coached the outside linebackers during his first three years on the Iowa staff. Parker was named a finalist for the Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year in both 2004 and 2005.

Under Parker's direction, the Iowa defense is regarded as one of the most physical, hard-hitting units in the Big Ten and the nation. Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Under Parker's direction, Iowa has ranked among the top 10 in the nation in rushing defense five times. Iowa has been in the top 10 in scoring defense in each of the past three seasons after ranking 12th in 2007. Last season, Iowa was fifth nationally in total defense (332.1), sixth in rushing defense (101.5) and seventh in scoring defense (17.0).

DE Adrian Clayborn earned consensus All-America honors, while earning first team all-Big Ten honors for the second straight season. He was joined on the all-Big Ten first unit last season by defensive backs Tyler Sash and Shaun Prater.

In 2009, four Hawkeye defensive players were named first team all-Big Ten by league coaches as the Hawkeyes posted an 11-2 record. Three players from that unit were selected in the 2010 NFL draft, including LB Pat Angerer (second round, Indianapolis), DB Amari Spivey (third round, Detroit) and OLB A.J. Edds (fourth round, Miami).

Parker's defensive unit played a key role in Iowa's success in 2008 as the Hawkeyes won six of their last seven games to post a 9-4 final record. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Iowa was second in the league in rushing defense and total defense, ranking ninth and 12th in the nation in those categories, respectively. DT Mitch King was named Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Defensive back Bradley Fletcher was selected in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft, while King and DT Matt Kroul both signed NFL free agent contracts immediately following the draft.

Iowa closed the 2007 season with three wins in its last four games. Iowa led the Big Ten in turnover margin (+8) and red zone defense (68.4%) while ranking third in scoring defense (18.8) and rushing defense (122.0) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (115.7).

LB Mike Klinkenborg earned first team academic All-America honors and was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 2007. LB Mike Humpal earned second team all-league honors and was the Bronko Nagurski and Master Coaches national Player of the Week following Iowa's 10-6 win over nationally-ranked Illinois.

Humpal was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft. In addition, defensive back Charles Godfrey was selected in the third round by Carolina and defensive end Ken Iwebema was selected by Arizona in the fourth round.

The Hawkeye defenders did much to turn around Iowa's 2005 season. The defense was able to shut down a pair of nationally ranked teams (Wisconsin and Minnesota) in the final two games to clinch a fourth straight January bowl bid. Iowa led the Big Ten in red zone defense and ranked third in rushing defense and scoring defense.

The defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including the win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, in 2004, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 11th in total defense (293.8) and 16th in scoring defense (17.6). The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in red zone defense for the second straight year. Iowa finished second in the Big Ten in total defense in 2001, third in 2004, fourth in 2003 and 2005 and fifth in 2002. Iowa led the league in scoring defense (16.2) in 2003.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Despite an entirely new defensive line that consisted of two freshman and two sophomores, Iowa's defense gained confidence and maturity as the 2005 season progressed. All-American linebackers Abdul Hodge and Chad Greenway led the way, ranking first and second, respectively, in the Big Ten in tackles. Hodge (third) and Greenway (fifth) are both among Iowa's career tackle leaders. Greenway was a first round selection by Minnesota in the 2006 NFL Draft, while Hodge was selected in the third round by Green Bay.

Four Iowa defensive players were named first team all-Big Ten in 2004, with DE Matt Roth being the only unanimous selection by league coaches. Three Iowa players were named to the 2003 first all-Big Ten team and two others earned second team honors. Roth, DT Jonathan Babineaux and safety Sean Considine were all selected in the first four rounds of the 2005 NFL Draft and all three have played in the NFL the last six seasons.

In his first two years at Iowa Norm coached LeVar Woods, who played in the NFL for seven seasons. Parker, in his coaching career, has coached 34 players who have gone on to play in the NFL.

The 1997 Southeastern Conference Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Parker served in that capacity at Vanderbilt University for two seasons and as linebackers coach there for four seasons. In 1997, Vanderbilt's defense led the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation as all six seniors on that defensive unit went on to sign NFL contracts. As linebacker coach in his first two seasons in Nashville, Parker was instrumental in the development of first team All-American Jamie Duncan.

Prior to joining the Iowa staff, Parker coached 12 seasons (1983-94) at Michigan State, five at Minnesota (1972-76) and three at Illinois (1977-79).

At Michigan State, Parker served as defensive coordinator for five years and also coached the outside linebackers. During his tenure at Michigan State, the Spartans won the 1987 Big Ten title and shared the 1990 championship with the Hawkeyes. Parker helped Michigan State to seven bowl games, including the 1988 Rose Bowl, where the Spartans defeated USC, 20-17.

From 1980-82 Parker served as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at East Carolina. He coached outside linebackers and was director of recruiting at Illinois from 1977-79. At Minnesota from 1972-76, Parker helped the Gophers compile winning records in three of five seasons. Parker also coached receivers at Wake Forest from 1969-71.

Parker earned his B.S. degree in special education in 1965 and his M.A. in physical education in 1967 from Eastern Michigan, where he lettered four times in football and was a member of the wrestling squad for two seasons. Parker was the head coach at St. John's High School in Ypsilanti, MI (1965-67) before joining the staff at Eastern Michigan as offensive line coach (1968).

Parker was born Oct. 9 and he is a native of Hazel Park, MI. He and his wife, Linda, have five grown children, Chelly, Joyce, Jim, and Suzy, along with a special Hawk, Jeff, who is deceased. They also have six grandchildren, Tyler, Alyssa, Colton, Roxanne, Bridgette and Jasmine.

PHIL PARKER
Defensive Backs
13th Year at Iowa

Phil Parker has served as defensive backs coach at the University of Iowa for the past 12 seasons.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

The defensive secondary played a key role in Iowa's success in 2010. Iowa was second in the Big Ten in pass efficiency defense (115.1) and interceptions (19). Iowa tied for 11th in the nation in interceptions, returning four thefts for touchdowns. Defensive backs Tyler Sash and Shaun Prater were both named first team all-Big Ten, while Brett Greenwood earned second team honors and Micah Hyde was honorable mention.

The defensive secondary played a key role in Iowa's success in 2009. Iowa ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense and fourth in pass defense while leading the Big Ten in both categories. The Hawkeyes tied for fifth nationally with 21 interceptions while ranking eighth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Safety Tyler Sash and cornerback Amari Spivey both earned first team all-Big Ten recognition, while safety Brett Greenwood was a second team selection. Spivey declared for the NFL draft following his junior season in 2009 and was selected in the third round by the Detroit Lions.

In 2008, Iowa ranked fourth in the nation while tying a school record with 23 interceptions. The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense (98.3) and scoring defense (13.0). Spivey earned second team all-conference honors, while Bradley Fletcher and Greenwood claimed honorable mention recognition.

Fletcher enjoyed an outstanding senior season in 2008, starting all 13 games. He was selected by St. Louis in the third round of the 2009 NFL draft.

Under Parker's direction, safety Bob Sanders became the ninth Iowa player to earn first team all-Big Ten honors for three seasons (2001, 2002, and 2003). Sanders earned second team All-America honors in 2003 and was taken by Indianapolis in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft. He ranks seventh in career tackles (348). Sanders earned all-Pro recognition with the Colts in 2005 and was selected to the Pro Bowl. He was a key contributor again in 2006 as the Colts won the Super Bowl. He was named the NFL's defensive Player of the Year in 2007 and was again an all-Pro selection.

Senior cornerback Charles Godfrey led the Iowa secondary in 2007, recording five interceptions and 65 tackles. He earned second team all-Big Ten honors. Godfrey was selected in the third round of the 2008 NFL draft, being selected by the Carolina Panthers as the 67th pick in the draft. He has been a starter in all three seasons with Carolina.

In 2006, senior safeties Marcus Paschal and Miguel Merrick combined for 149 tackles to lead the Hawkeye secondary. Paschal was a second team all-Big Ten selection and signed a free agent contract with Philadelphia. Merrick signed a free agent contract with San Diego.

In 2005 senior cornerback Antwan Allen was the only player in the nation to start in four straight January bowl games. He ended his career with 235 tackles and eight interceptions. Jovon Johnson, at the opposite corner, also started throughout his career. He ranks third in career interceptions (17) and had 181 career tackles. Johnson continued his career in the NFL, playing with the Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Jets.

Safeties Derek Pagel and Sean Considine joined the Iowa program as walk-ons and earned their way into the starting line-up. Each helped the Hawkeyes win a Big Ten title as seniors and both were NFL draft selections. Pagel earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 and was selected in the fifth round of the 2003 draft. Considine was a fourth round selection in 2005 after earning honorable mention all-Big Ten recognition.

In 1999, Iowa's secondary was led by the play of safety Matt Bowen. Bowen led the team in tackles as both a junior and senior. He was voted second team all-Big Ten and was a sixth round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the NFL Draft. Bowen played several seasons in the NFL (Washington and Buffalo) following his college career.

Parker was the defensive backfield coach at Toledo for 11 seasons prior to joining the Iowa staff. During his tenure at Toledo, Parker coached 10 all-conference selections and helped the Rockets win conference division championships in 1997 and 1998. Three of his Toledo players, Darren Anderson, Clarence Love and Kelly Herndon, went on to play in the NFL. Anderson and Love were NFL draft selections, while Herndon signed as a free agent and played in the 2006 Super Bowl with Seattle. In 1998, Toledo ranked 19th in the nation in scoring defense.

Toledo won Mid-American Conference championships in 1990 and 1995 and competed in the 1995 Las Vegas Bowl. Toledo ranked 12th in the nation in total defense in 1990 and ninth in pass efficiency defense and 11th in rushing defense in 1992. In 1995 Toledo completed an undefeated season and was ranked 22nd in the final UPI poll and 24th in the CNN poll after leading the nation in turnover margin. Toledo also finished second to perennial power Marshall twice when Parker was a member of the Rocket staff.

Parker served as a graduate assistant coach for one year at Michigan State. He was on the Spartan staff in 1987 when MSU won the Big Ten title and defeated Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Phil was a standout defensive back at Michigan State, earning first team all-Big Ten honors in 1983, 1984 and 1985. Parker was named defensive MVP at Michigan State in 1983 and 1985 and was invited to the Hula Bowl following his senior season. During his MSU career the Spartans competed in the 1984 Cherry Bowl and the 1985 All-American Bowl. Parker was named Most Valuable Player in the Cherry Bowl.

Parker earned his B.S. degree from Michigan State in 1986.

Parker was born March 13, 1963 in Lorain, OH. Phil and his wife, Sandy, have two children, Tyler and Paige.

DARRELL WILSON
Linebackers and Special Teams
10th year at Iowa

Darrell Wilson has been a member of the Iowa coaching staff for nine seasons. He coaches all the linebacker positions and special teams after working with special teams and outside linebackers in his first six seasons.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have been bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons and have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Iowa, in 2010, ranked fifth in the nation in total defense (332.1), sixth in rushing defense (101.5) and seven in scoring defense (17.0). Iowa also tied for seventh in turnover margin (+13) and 11th in interceptions (19). Iowa's special teams ranked sixth nationally in punt coverage (3.9) and 12th in kickoff returns (25.3).

Iowa's defense was led by middle linebacker Pat Angerer in 2008 and 2009. Angerer earned All-America honors in 2009 while ranking fourth in the nation in tackles per game (11.2). Angerer led Iowa in tackles for two seasons and ranks 26th on Iowa's career tackle chart (258). He was selected in the second round of the 2010 NFL draft by the Indianapolis Colts. He started 10 games and recorded 72 tackles in his rookie season in Indianapolis.

In addition, outside linebacker A.J. Edds concluded his career in 2009 with 226 tackles to rank 44th on Iowa's career list. Edds was second on the team with five interceptions a year ago and earned second team all-Big Ten recognition. Miami selected Edds in the fourth round of the NFL draft but missed the 2010 season due a pre-season knee injury.

Angerer and Edds led an Iowa defense that ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency, fourth in pass defense, tied for fifth in interceptions, ranked eighth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense.

Iowa, in 2008, led the Big Ten and ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Iowa was second in the league in rushing defense and total defense, ranking ninth and 12th in the nation in those categories, respectively. Iowa ranked fourth in the nation while equaling a school record with 23 interceptions.

Special teams play has been a key ingredient in Iowa's success. Iowa was third in the Big Ten in net punting (37.8) in 2010 and fourth in 2009, third in 2008 and second in 2007. Punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year award in 2010. WR Colin Sandeman ranked second in the Big Ten in punt returns in 2009 and fourth in 2010.

In 2004, Iowa ranked 15th in the nation in punt returns. The Hawkeyes recorded four blocked punts and two blocked field goals. Two of the blocked punts came in the Capital One Bowl win over LSU.

Iowa in 2003 ranked second in the Big Ten in KO returns (22.2) and third in punt returns (13.1), while setting a school record with five blocked punts. In addition, Ramon Ochoa set Iowa single-season marks for punt returns (40) and return yards (495), while ranking among Big Ten leaders in both punt and kickoff returns.

The Hawkeye defense led the Big Ten in turnover margin and red zone defense in 2007, while ranking third in scoring defense and fourth in rushing defense.

The Hawkeye defenders did much to turn around Iowa's season in 2005. The defense was able to shut down a pair of nationally ranked teams (Wisconsin and Minnesota) in the final two games to clinch a fourth straight January bowl bid. Iowa led the Big Ten in red zone defense and ranked third in rushing defense and scoring defense.

The defense set the tone for Iowa's championship run in 2004, as Iowa won its final eight games of the season, including a win over LSU, the defending national champion, in the Capital One Bowl. Five of eight league foes scored two touchdowns or less and three were held to seven points or less.

Iowa, that season, ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense (92.5), 11th in total defense (293.8), sixth in turnover margin (+1.08), 16th in scoring defense (17.6) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (106.7). The Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in rushing defense and turnover margin, while leading the league in red zone defense for the second straight year.

Iowa, in 2003, ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2), eighth in rushing defense (92.7), 16th in total defense (314.5) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (110.3). The Hawkeye defense held eight of 13 opponents to less than 75 rushing yards.

Outside linebacker Ed Miles was a two-year starter in 2005 and 2006. Miles signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He played in all 16 games as a rookie with the Dolphins and led the team in special teams tackles.

Darrell coached Grant Steen at outside linebacker in 2002 and 2003 as Steen earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2002 and honorable mention recognition as a senior. Steen intercepted three passes in a win at Indiana in 2002, a feat that tied the NCAA record for interceptions in a game by a linebacker.

Wilson joined the Iowa staff after serving as outside linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at Wisconsin for two years (2000-01). One of his star players at Wisconsin was punter Kevin Stemke, winner of the 2000 Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award.

He also coached running backs at Rutgers (1999) and the defensive secondary and wide receivers at Rhode Island (1996-98).

Before his collegiate coaching career began, he compiled a 65-18 record as head coach at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, NJ (1988-95). His Wilson HS teams won five conference championships and four times advanced to the South Jersey Group III state finals. Along with the outstanding success of his teams on the football field, Wilson was named Camden's "Citizen of the Year" by the Rotary Club in 1992.

A former honorable mention Division I-AA all-America defensive back for Connecticut (1976-80), Wilson was named to the Huskies' 100th anniversary all-time team in 1998. He played one year with the New England Patriots (1981) and five seasons (1982-86) with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. He was a member of the 1983 squad that won the CFL's Grey Cup.

Wilson graduated from Connecticut (1981) with a B.A. in sociology.

Darrell was born July 28, 1958. He and his wife, Monica, have four daughters, Brianna, Kayla, Kiana and Jehlani.

CHRIS DOYLE
Strength and Conditioning
13th Year at Iowa

Chris Doyle is completing his 12th year as strength and conditioning coach for the University of Iowa football program.

As the head of Iowa's strength and conditioning program, Doyle has helped the Hawkeye program become bowl eligible in each of the last 10 seasons.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

Doyle is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). That group named him the Big Ten Strength Coach of the Year in 1999. He was one of 20 nominees for the Professional of the Year Award, an award given annually and selected by the NSCA membership. The award recognizes college professionals who have shown excellence in strength training and conditioning programs.

He served as director of strength and conditioning for the University of Utah in 1998. Under Doyle's direction the Utah basketball team played in the national championship game. While in Utah, Doyle also served as state director for the NSCA.

Doyle was assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Wisconsin from 1996-98. He oversaw the training programs for football and hockey teams during this time. The Badger football team participated in two bowl games (Copper and Outback) and the hockey team won the WCHA championship during his tenure.

As a strength and conditioning professional, Doyle has tutored 149 student-athletes who have advanced to the professional ranks in the NFL, NHL and NBA. Iowa has had a total of 24 players selected in the past six NFL drafts, while as many as 31 additional Hawkeye players have signed free agent contracts in the past six years.

Over the past nine years, 68 of 78 Iowa senior starters have been selected in the NFL Draft or signed an NFL free agent contract. In addition, Iowa has seen five former walk-ons drafted in the past six years.

Doyle served as offensive line coach at Holy Cross from 1992-95. He also worked as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 1991 and Syracuse in 1990. Notre Dame won the 1992 Sugar Bowl following the 1991 season and Syracuse won the 1990 Aloha Bowl.

Doyle was a three-year starter on the offensive line at Boston University from 1986-88. He served as a student assistant for the football program there in 1989.

Chris earned his B.S. in human movement from Boston University in 1990 and his M.Ed. in education from Boston University in 1991.

Doyle was born June 30, 1968. Chris is from Quincy, Mass., and attended Boston College High School. He was inducted into the Boston College High School Hall of Fame in November, 2004. Chris and his wife, Tia, have three sons, Declan, Donovan and Dillon.

Strength and Conditioning Mission Statement

The University of Iowa Football Program is committed to providing the ultimate training experience for each student-athlete. Our focus is to build the total athlete while reducing the risk of injury through individual evaluation and program design. Developing strong relationships with each athlete is a fundamental building block essential to the success of Iowa Football.

PAUL FEDERICI
Director of Football Operations
Eighth Year at Iowa

Paul Federici is completing his seventh year working with Iowa's football program. Federici is completing his second year as director of football operations after serving as director of athletic training services for five years.

Federici coordinates all the off the field logistics, as well as practice schedules and other football related items, for Head Coach Kirk Ferentz and the Hawkeye football program.

Iowa has concluded the last three seasons with a bowl victory and a 28-11 overall record. Iowa recorded a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl, a 24-14 win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes have ranked in the final top 10 of both major polls four times in the past nine seasons.

The Hawkeyes have played in nine bowl games since 2001, including six appearances in January bowl games. Iowa has won five bowl games since 2001, including four January bowl victories. The January Bowl wins have come over Florida (2004 Outback), LSU (2005 Capital One), South Carolina (2009 Outback) and Georgia Tech (2010 Orange). Iowa is one of four programs in the nation to record a bowl victory in each of the past three seasons.

Iowa has won 78 games over the past nine seasons, including 46 Big Ten games. The Hawkeyes earned a share of the Big Ten title in both 2002 and 2004 and tied for second in 2009. Iowa has finished in the Big Ten's first division in nine of the past 10 years.

In his first season as director of football operations, Federici assisted with the planning, coordination and implementation of Iowa's daily operation and travel plans as the Hawkeyes concluded the 2009 season with a 24-14 win in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and a national ranking of seventh in the nation.

Federici has assisted in seven bowl games during his career, including the 2001 Senior Bowl, 2005 Capital One Bowl, 2006 Outback Bowl, 2006 Alamo Bowl, 2009 Outback Bowl, 2010 Orange Bowl and 2010 Insight Bowl.

Federici joined the Iowa Athletic Department staff in 2004 after serving as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Seattle Seahawks for five seasons. Prior to joining the Seahawks in January, 1999, Federici was the Head Athletic Trainer at Vanderbilt University from 1994-99.

As an Assistant Athletic Trainer at Vanderbilt from 1987-1993, Federici worked with football, baseball, men's basketball and men's and women's golf teams. He was named Head Athletic Trainer for the Commodores in 1994, and was recognized as the College Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Tennessee Athletic Trainers Society that year.

Certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association in 1985, Federici served as a test site administrator and host athletic trainer for the N.A.T.A. Board of Certification examinations from 1991-95. He has volunteered for the Tennessee State Amateur Games, the L.P.G.A. Sara Lee Tournament at Hermitage Golf Club, and the Senior P.G.A. Bell South Tournament at Springhouse Golf Club. Federici was a case study presenter at the 2001 A.O.S.S.M. meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., as well as the 2002 N.A.T.A. June Symposium in Dallas, Tex.

While at Vanderbilt, Federici served on several athletic department committees, including the Mission/Vision planning team, the External Communications Committee, the Management Team of Department Heads and the Sports Nutrition Planning Team.

Federici earned his B.S. degree in Health Education from Penn State University in 1985 and his M.Ed. in Health Promotion/Education from Vanderbilt in 1991.

Federici was born in Findlay, Ohio and grew up in Oakmont, Penn. He and his wife, Teddie, have one child, Noah.

2011 IOWA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Following a third straight bowl victory to close out the 2010 season, the Iowa Hawkeyes in 2011 will rely on a veteran offensive line to lead the way while Coach Kirk Ferentz and his staff work to replace a number of key seniors at the majority of other positions.

The Hawkeyes finished 2010 with an 8-5 record and in a tie for fourth in the Big Ten with a 4-4 mark. The Hawkeyes played one of the nation's toughest schedules. Iowa played seven ranked opponents and won four of the matchups. The seven ranked foes are the most ever for a Kirk Ferentz coached Iowa team.

Iowa closed last season with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl, making the Hawkeyes one of four teams in the nation to win a bowl game following each of the last three seasons. Iowa has posted 28 wins over the last three seasons, including January bowl wins following the 2008 and 2009 campaigns.

Ferentz is beginning his 13th season as head coach of the Hawkeyes. He is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year honoree. The Hawkeyes were 80-45 (.640) in the first 10 years of this century (2000-09). That's the most Iowa wins, ever, in a decade. Since a 2-18 start to the Ferentz era, the Hawkeyes have gone 87-42 (.674). Iowa has competed in nine bowl games over the last 10 years (6-3 record) and six of those contests were January bowl games, with two being BCS contests. Iowa is now 14-10, all-time, in bowl games. Ferentz' six bowl victories tie for third most ever among Big Ten Conference coaches.

The 2010 season can best be described by misfortune at inopportune times. Iowa won five of its first six games including impressive wins over Iowa State, Penn State and Michigan. Following a last-minute one-point loss to Wisconsin, Iowa responded with consecutive wins over Michigan State and Indiana to improve to 4-1 in league play. Three losses, by a total of seven points, followed against Northwestern, Ohio State and Minnesota. The three-game losing streak in league play was something to which Iowa fans were not accustomed. The win over the 12-ranked (BCS rankings) Missouri team restored faith in how good the Hawkeye program really is.

The Hawkeyes finished the season ranked fifth nationally in total defense (332.1 yds.) and rushing defense (101.5). Iowa committed only 11 turnovers all year to rank second nationally.

Individual honors once again followed Iowa's success on the field. Senior defensive end Adrian Clayborn was a consensus All-American. He was also a finalist for the Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's best defensive lineman or linebacker, and for the Ted Hendricks Award, which goes to the best defensive end. Punter Ryan Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter and quarterback Ricky Stanzi was a finalist for the Uvas Quarterback of the Year Award.

Hawkeyes earning first team all-Big Ten honors in 2010 included Clayborn (DE), Shaun Prater (DB) and Tyler Sash (DB). Clayborn was a senior while Prater and Sash (who declared himself eligible for the NFL draft) were juniors. Second team all-Big Ten performers included Julian Vandervelde (OL), Riley Reiff (OL), Karl Klug (DT), Marvin McNutt, Jr., (WR), Allen Reisner (TE), Jeremiha Hunter (LB) and Brett Greenwood (DB).

The Hawkeyes had another outstanding year in the classroom, as 16 were named to the 2010 academic all-Big Ten team. The total is 45 over the last three years. Brett Morse, Daniel Murray, Jeff Tarpinian and Julian Vandervelde made the elite team for the fourth straight year. Three Hawkeyes (Vandervelde, Tarpinian and Tyler Nielsen) also made the ESPN/CoSIDA District Seven Academic All-America team. That matched the feat of three Hawkeyes making the elite unit in 2008. Under Kirk Ferentz, 17 Iowa players have been named academic all-American 31 times over the last 12 years.

Seniors Shaun Prater (DB) and Marvin McNutt, Jr., (WR) and junior Riley Reiff (OL) are 2011 All-America candidates. Other Hawkeyes expected to gain pre- or post-season honors include Marcus Coker (RB), James Vandenberg (QB), Adam Gettis (OL), James Ferentz (OL), Nolan MacMillan (OL), Tyler Nielsen (OLB), Mike Daniels (DT), James Morris (LB) and Micah Hyde (DB).

Stability is a key ingredient in Iowa's success. Over the past 32 years, Iowa has had only two head football coaches. The only team in the Big Ten that can exceed that figure is Penn State. Eight league schools have had at least five head coaching changes in the last three decades (Iowa, Ohio State and Penn State haven't). Only six assistant coaches have left the Ferentz staff in the last 10 years. Of those six, one retired, three went to the NFL and two left to become coordinators. Iowa has had no coaching changes in the past three years. Iowa and Penn State are the only teams in the Big Ten with the same staff over the last two years.

The stability has helped give Iowa a great run over the past last 10 years. An appearance in the 2006 Outback Bowl put the Hawkeyes alongside Southern Cal, Georgia and Florida State as the only teams with four straight January bowl appearances. A total of 78 wins over the last nine years (8.7 avg.) ranks with the nation's best.

The last nine years have been unprecedented in Iowa football history. This period has resulted in two Big Ten championships (2002 & 2004), four wins in six January bowl games and four finishes in the nation's top ten. A 22-game home winning streak (broken in 2005) and 36 straight home sellouts are additional indicators of a program rich in tradition and consistency. Four January bowl wins over highly regarded teams from the Southeastern and Atlantic Coast Conferences (Florida, LSU, South Carolina and Georgia Tech) are all notches on the Hawkeye victory belt. The 27-24 win over Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl was Iowa's third straight bowl victory, something previously never achieved.

Ferentz has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times. He joins the select company of Hayden Fry, Joe Paterno and Bo Schembechler as the only three-time winners of the award. Ferentz was also named the 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year. Ferentz, entering his 13th year with the Hawkeyes, ranks second in longevity among league football coaches. He is tied for third, all-time, in bowl victories among league coaches.

Another residual effect of Iowa's successful program is the fact that Hawkeye players have won the Outland, Mackey, O'Brien, Groza and Doak Walker Awards (and a runner-up to the Heisman) during the Ferentz era. Iowa had numerous semi-finalists and finalists for many individual awards given out following the 2010 season.

The Hawkeyes have sold out Kinnick Stadium in 49 of the last 51 games. The 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2010 home attendance average of 70,585 is an Iowa record. The Hawkeyes' 36 straight home sellouts (2003-08) are a school record. Since 2002, the Hawkeyes have a 49-11 (.817) home record, a mark that ranks with the nation's best.

Iowa fans have an unmatched reputation for following their team. More than 40,000 fans followed Iowa to Soldier Field in order to witness a 2007 season-opening win against Northern Illinois. Hawkeye fans traveling to bowl games have earned a legendary reputation, second to none. Almost 200,000 Hawkeye fans traveled to Iowa's last eight bowl games (2003 Orange, 50,000; 2004 Outback, 20,000; 2005 Capital One, 30,000; 2006 Outback, 20,000; 2006 Alamo, 15,000; 2009 Outback, 21,000; 2010 Orange, 25,000; 2010 Insight, 15,000). It is no coincidence that Iowa ranks high on the wish list of, virtually, every bowl game in America.

All Iowa games were televised in 2010. In fact, 116 straight Hawkeye football games have been televised. The Hawkeyes appear weekly on national TV networks (ABC, ESPN, Big Ten Network).

The Hawkeyes had an unusually large and outstanding senior class of 25 student-athletes last year. Among the graduates were offensive standouts Ricky Stanzi (QB), Julian Vandervelde (OL), Josh Koeppel (OL), Allen Reisner (TE), Brett Morse (FB) and Colin Sandeman (WR). Defensively, Iowa will be without Adrian Clayborn (DE), Christian Ballard (DE), Karl Klug (DT), Jeremiha Hunter (LB), Brett Greenwood (DB) and Ryan Donahue (P). Another loss was defensive back Tyler Sash, who decided to enter the NFL draft following his junior campaign. The Hawkeyes lost a total of 28 lettermen (14 offense, 11 defense and 2 special teams).

(RB) MARCUS COKER

The 2011 Hawkeyes play a 12-game regular season schedule, which includes an attractive seven game home slate. There will be a bye week (Oct. 1st). The home opener is Sept. 3rd, against Tennessee Tech. A highlight on the schedule will be the Nov. 25th contest at Nebraska as the Cornhuskers officially join the Big Ten conference this year. That game, against Nebraska, will be on the Friday following Thanksgiving.

QUARTERBACK

Gone is reliable signal caller Ricky Stanzi. He posted a 26-9 record as Iowa's starter the past three years. He's only the third quarterback in Big Ten history to start and win three straight bowl games. All he did was complete 221 of 345 passes (.641) for 3,004 yards and 25 touchdowns last year. His career totals were 542-907 passing for 7,377 yards and 56 touchdowns. That ranks third on Iowa's all-time passing charts.

Pretty big shoes to fill, but the Hawkeyes feel they have the quarterback who can do it. Junior James Vandenberg (6-3, 212) has all the tools to make the transition of quarterbacks minimal. He only played in three games last year, completing five of eight passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. But, that doesn't begin to tell the entire story. He started Iowa's final two regular season games in 2009, after Stanzi sustained an ankle injury. He led Iowa to a near upset of Ohio State on the road as the Hawkeyes lost in overtime (27-24) and then led the team to a win over Minnesota. He completed 42 of 87 passes for 470 yards and two touchdowns that freshman season. Vandenberg is also a two-time Academic all-Big Ten honoree. Quarterback Coach Ken O'Keefe is excited about Vandenberg's potential.

Junior lefty John Wienke (6-5, 220) will enter spring drills as the backup. Iowa coaches feel his quarterback skills are excellent. He has continued to impress the staff with his work ethic and leadership ability. The only thing he lacks at this time is actual game experience. Redshirt freshman A.J. Derby (6-4, 232) is a highly touted home grown talent from Iowa City.

Vandenberg is the clear number one entering spring drills, but Wienke and Derby should be able to make the quarterback race an interesting one. All three are highly capable of leading the Hawkeye offense.

RUNNING BACK

Last year this section stated, "Just about every football coach will say, you can never have too much depth at running back". Never were words more prophetic than those words, for Iowa last season. The Hawkeyes entered the 2010 season with a problem of what to do with so many talented running backs. Injuries, a player quitting school and other off the field problems forced Iowa to end the season with a true freshman running back for the second straight year. It proved to be the third time in the last seven years (2004, 2009, and 2010) that Ferentz had to dig deep in the running back depth chart by the time the season ended. Fortunately, the talent and depth has always been there.

The Hawkeyes began 2010 fall practice with Jewel Hampton, Brandon Wegher and Adam Robinson leading the charge. All three were off the roster by the time Iowa headed for the Insight Bowl. Robinson led the team in rushing the last two years.

Sophomore Marcus Coker (6-0, 230) started four of Iowa's final five games and goes into spring drills as the top running back. He's a strong straight-ahead runner with a style similar to former Hawkeye Shonn Greene. Coker rushed 33 times for 219 yards at the Insight Bowl. Both figures are Iowa bowl records. He was named Offensive MVP of the 2010 Insight Bowl. The 219 yards is the sixth best rushing game in Hawkeye history. His 2010 totals show 114 carries for 622 yards (5.5 avg.) and three touchdowns. He averaged 89 yards per game. Pretty heady stuff for a true freshman.

There's plenty of talent, but not much collegiate experience behind Coker. Junior Jason White (5-10, 205), moved from defensive back to running back last season and is listed second on the depth chart. He played in 11 games, but rushed only once for 14 yards.

Two redshirt freshmen fill out the depth chart. Both are talented and expect to get a good look this spring from running backs coach Lester Erb. They are De'Andre Johnson (5-8, 200) and Marcus Binns (5-11, 190).

FULLBACK

Gone is three-year starter Brett Morse. He started 12 games last year and had 34 career starts to his credit. He was a strong dependable runner-blocker for the Hawkeyes. He rushed nine times for 45 yards and caught 21 passes for 128 yards and two touchdowns during his career. The stability he provided to the Iowa backfield will be missed.

Sophomore Brad Rogers (5-10, 225) came to Iowa as a running back, but his size made the move to fullback quite natural. He'll enter spring drills atop the fullback depth chart. He played in 11 games, starting one, last season. He had 11 rushes for 75 yards and caught two passes for 15 yards. He's the only returning player, with experience, at fullback.

Backing up Rogers will be a quartet of student-athletes. Junior Jonathan Gimm (6-3, 240) moves from tight end and is the only other letterman at this position. Behind Gimm will be sophomore Jacob Reisen (6-2, 231), redshirt freshman Matt Meyers (6-2, 215) and junior Cameron Olson (6-1, 232).

Rogers appears to be a strong number one, but this is a position for young talent to show what they have during spring practice.

2011 IOWA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

TIGHT END

Iowa is quickly becoming known for the quality tight ends it produces and sends to the NFL. The latest is veteran Allen Reisner who is expected to be taken in the middle rounds of this year's draft. He started all 13 games a year ago and was an invaluable member of the Hawkeye offense. Reisner caught 42 passes for 460 yards and scored two touchdowns. He'll be missed, just as other former Hawkeye tight ends that made it to the NFL. That list includes Dallas Clark, Tony Moeaki, Scott Chandler, Erik Jensen and Brandon Myers.

Senior three-year letterman Brad Herman (6-5, 255) will begin spring drills in the number one slot. Herman caught nine passes for 154 yards last year. He played in all 13 games and has a start under his belt. He saw little action his freshman and sophomore campaigns. He'll be pushed in the spring by a couple of letterwinners. Sophomore C.J. Fiedorowicz (6-7, 265) and junior Zach Derby (6-3, 240) are talented tight ends expected to see considerable action this season. Both played a limited amount of time last year.

Redshirt freshman Austin Vier (6-7, 240) may have something to say about who gets playing time this season. He's considered very talented and just needs experience.

Tight ends Coach Eric Johnson will have some strong candidates to pick from this season. To be an effective tight end in the Iowa offense, you must be able to block and catch. This spring will be a great opportunity for these players to show they can do both.

WIDE RECEIVER

With the loss of so many talented seniors from a year ago, the wide receiver position is like many other areas on the team. It's strong at the starting positions, but, with a total lack of experience and the need for depth beyond the starters.

Back are veterans Marvin McNutt, Jr., (6-4, 215) and Keenan Davis (6-3, 215). McNutt, Jr., a senior All-America candidate, led the team in receiving a year ago with 53 catches for 861 yards and eight touchdowns. He averaged 16.2 yards per reception while starting all 13 games. He is now tied for fourth on Iowa's career touchdown reception list with 16. He's caught 88 passes for 1,546 yards. That's not bad for a player that spent most of his first two years on the Iowa roster as a quarterback. He was named to the Coaches second all-Big Ten unit in 2010.

Davis, a junior with considerable experience, hauled in 11 receptions for 131 yards and a touchdown while playing in 13 games. His career numbers are 15 catches for 186 yards and two touchdowns. Receiving Coach Erik Campbell is excited about the potential one-two punch of McNutt, Jr., and Davis.

At least eight other receivers will be vying for playing time behind the two veteran starters. The only one to have lettered is sophomore Don Shumpert (6-3, 185). Most of his experience has been on special teams. Other receiver candidates hoping to impress the coaching staff are senior Joe Audlehelm (5-8, 182), juniors James Hurt (6-1, 200) and Steven Staggs (6-3, 195), sophomore Jordan Cotton (6-1, 185), and redshirt freshmen Kevonte Martin-Manley (6-0, 200), Blake Haluska (6-4, 208) and John Chelf (5-11, 175).

There's a lot of playing time to be had, behind the starters, in the Iowa offense. It'll be interesting to see how many of the candidates behind McNutt, Jr., and Davis earn some of that time on the field.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Iowa's offensive line could be considered one of the more veteran units on the team. Two starters have graduated, but players with starting experience fill all five slots on the line. Gone are veteran guards Julian Vandervelde and Josh Koeppel. Vandervelde was a second team all-Big Ten selection and will be missed. Something that outlines the predicament of the offensive line (and maybe the entire team) is the fact that all five starters have lettered, but only one of the players behind them has also lettered. In the past three years Iowa has landed 10 offensive linemen on either the first or second all-Big Ten teams. This year's group has a chance to add to that outstanding number.

Leading the veterans are experienced tackles Riley Reiff (6-6, 300), an All-America candidate, and Marcus Zusevics (6-5, 300). Both started every game last year. Reiff, a junior, was a second team all-Big Ten selection and has 24 starts in just two years as a Hawkeye. He's been consistently one of Iowa's best up-front blockers. Zusevics is a senior who could gain post-season notoriety. The duo could be the best tackle tandem in the Big Ten.

Junior Matt Tobin (6-6, 285) and redshirt freshman Andrew Donnal (6-7, 295) are listed behind Reiff. Starting spring ball behind Zusevics are sophomores Brett Van Sloten (6-7, 290) and junior college transfer Dan Heiar (6-5, 285) and redshirt freshman Cole Heissel (6-6, 270). Van Sloten has lettered and is the only player in the group with significant playing time as a Hawkeye.

It's pretty much the same story with the guards. Listed on top of the depth chart are senior Adam Gettis (6-4, 280) and sophomore Nolan MacMillan (6-6, 288). Both have starting experience and are potentially very good, when healthy. Both suffered injuries that kept them out of the lineup for a number of games last season.

2011 IOWA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Hoping to get playing time behind the starting guards are senior Woody Orne (6-5, 295), sophomore Drew Clark (6-4, 288) and redshirt freshmen Brandon Scherff (6-5, 310) and Tommy Gaul (6-3, 255).

Junior all-Big Ten candidate James Ferentz (6-2, 280) will enter spring ball in the same place he finished the 2010 season. Iowa's top center started every game and was a stabilizing force in the Hawkeye line. Looking for game action behind Ferentz will be sophomore Conor Boffeli (6-5, 290) and junior Casey McMillan (6-4, 305).

Developing depth during spring ball will be a priority for offensive line Coach Reese Morgan. If Morgan is able to keep his front liners healthy, the offensive line could be outstanding. That's good news for a young quarterback and young running backs.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Iowa fans will need to keep their roster handy to recognize some of the new names in Iowa's defensive line. The Hawkeyes had one of the most experienced and talented lines in the country last year. Gone are consensus All-American end Adrian Clayborn, all-Big Ten tackle Karl Klug and end/tackle Christian Ballard. All three appear headed for the NFL. The three-some accounted for 102 starts in their careers. The trio was responsible for 152 tackles last year and 332 career stops.

Defensive Line Coach Rick Kaczinski will have his work cut out for him. But, he's got some talented linemen whose intent is to pick up where the departed Hawkeyes left off. Once again, behind the starters, no other defensive lineman has lettered.

Senior tackle Mike Daniels (6-1, 280) and senior end Broderick Binns (6-2, 261) lead the way. Both have extensive starting experience and both could be all-Big Ten candidates. The only other real experience on the line is end LeBron Daniel (6-2, 250), who, like Binns is a three-time letterman.

Daniels started eight games last year at tackle and registered 40 tackles. He was also credited with four quarterback sacks. Senior Thomas Nardo (6-3, 277) enters spring practice as the other starting tackle. He totaled only three tackles in 2010. Behind the starters are junior Steve Bigach (6-3, 280), redshirt freshmen Carl Davis (6-5, 310), Louis Trinca-Pasat (6-3, 262) and Donovan Johnson (6-3, 270).

Binns started 13 games as a sophomore and five last season. He had 36 tackles last year and has 119 career stops. He intercepted a pass and returned it for a touchdown in last year's Arizona game. He was honorable mention all-Big Ten as a sophomore. Daniel has only eight career tackles, but has played in every game the last two years. Behind them, it'll be inexperienced players clawing for playing time.

Senior Joe Forgy (6-4, 260) and junior Joe Gaglione (6-4, 250) are behind Daniel. Behind Binns are sophomore Dominic Alvis (6-4, 250), redshirt freshman Mike Hardy (6-5, 270) and sophomore Scott Covert (6-2, 240).

The defensive line could be the most inexperienced unit on the team. Spring practice will be a good time to evaluate the talent on hand and develop some depth for the coming season.

LINEBACKERS (Includes outside linebackers)

There is some starting experience returning for Iowa's linebacking unit. But, linebacking can still be best described as very young entering spring drills and the upcoming season. Gone are second team all-Big Ten selection Jeremiha Hunter, along with Troy Johnson and Jeff Tarpinian. Hunter started 36 games in his career, while the dependable Johnson and Tarpinian had seven and five career starts, respectively. Hunter led the Hawkeyes in tackles last season with 90. He had 269 career stops to rank 20th on Iowa's all-time tackle charts. Johnson had 57 tackles in 2010 and Tarpinian had 47. Their experience and leadership will leave a void on the roster.

(LB) JAMES MORRIS

Linebacker Coach Darrell Wilson feels good about the returning linebackers. Sophomore James Morris (6-2, 225) stepped onto the field, as a true freshman starter, when Johnson and Tarpinian were forced to the sideline with injuries. Morris, a middle linebacker, started Iowa's final six games and garnered 70 tackles. He was named to the first Freshman All-America team by CollegeFootballNews.com. Pushing Morris for playing time will be senior two-year letterman Bruce Davis (6-0, 232), who started one game last year before sustaining a season-ending injury. He's expected to be close to 100% in spring practice. Behind Davis will be redshirt freshman Jim Poggi (6-2, 216) and sophomore Marcus Kloos (6-0, 225).

Three lettermen will fight it out for the starting job at the weakside linebacking position. Coach Wilson will start spring practice with sophomore lettermen Christian Kirksey (6-2, 215) and Anthony Hitchens (6-1, 215), a converted defensive back, fighting for the top spot. Both saw considerable action without a start last year. Iowa coaches are anxious to get a better look at the sophomores. Listed right behind the pair is sophomore Shane DiBona (6-2, 230), who started two games last year. He played in all 13 contests and had 13 tackles in 2010. Junior Terrance Pryor (6-1, 220) will add depth to this position.

Senior Tyler Nielsen (6-4, 235), a three-year letterman, will start at the outside linebacker spot. He started the first eight games in 2010 before being injured in the Michigan State win. He has 61 career tackles, including 42 last year. He's a three-time member of the Big Ten's all-academic unit. Kirksey could see joint duty at this spot. Coaches feel Kirksey is versatile enough to play either position. Sophomore Dakota Getz (6-4, 235) is also listed at the outside linebacker spot and will be looking to give Iowa coaches something to think about.

With the returning talent and the potential of the younger players, this could become one of the stronger units on the team. The linebacker positions were hit hard by injuries last year. The good news was the experience gained by the younger players. They'll be expected to be present on the front lines, again this year, with more experience.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

There's good news and bad news for Iowa's defensive backfield as spring and fall practice get underway in Iowa City. Iowa will have two of the best cornerbacks in the Big Ten returning, and that's great news. The bad news is the fact the Hawkeyes lost two of the league's top safeties.

Tyler Sash, a first-team all-Big Ten selection, gave up his final year of eligibility to enter the NFL draft. And, second team all-Big Ten choice Brett Greenwood is also gone. Both are expected to be on NFL rosters next fall. Greenwood had 229 career tackles and 12 interceptions while Sash had 192 stops and 13 interceptions. Sash had 37 career starts (34 straight) and Greenwood had 45 career starts. Sash, who was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, is Iowa's all-time leader in interception return yardage with 392. That figure ranks fourth in Big Ten history. There's no question they've been a stabilizing force in Iowa's defensive backfield for a long time and their absence will be felt in a big way.

The good news is the return of starting cornerbacks Shaun Prater (5-11, 180), a senior all-America candidate, and junior Micah Hyde (6-1, 185). Both are considered vital in the rebuilding of Iowa's defensive backfield. Both are strong candidates for post-season honors.

Prater, a three-year letterman, was a 2010 first team all-Big Ten selection. His four interceptions tied for fourth best in the Big Ten and he ranked fifth on the Hawkeyes with 68 tackles. He has 120 career tackles and six interceptions. Hyde was second on the team in tackles with 82 and had four interceptions. Two of his interceptions were highlight reel material. Those interceptions came against Michigan State and the game-winner against Missouri at the Insight Bowl. Both cornerbacks are exciting, athletic players who do an outstanding job on pass coverage.

Both cornerback positions appear to be stocked with veteran talent. Behind Prater are junior Greg Castillo (5-11, 182) and senior Jordan Bernstine (5-11, 205). Castillo has lettered twice and Bernstine three times. Both have starting experience. Castillo played in all 13 games last year and had 11 tackles. Bernstine played in eight games with four tackles in 2010. He has 25 career stops. Adding depth at that spot will be redshirt freshman Jordan Price (5-9, 165).

On the other side, sophomore B.J. Lowery (5-11, 185) will back up Hyde. Lowery played as a true freshman and had five tackles in seven games. He'll be pushed by two-year letterman and senior William Lowe (5-10, 175), who has 23 career tackles and a pair of career starts.

Sophomore free safety Tanner Miller (6-2, 200) will miss spring drills as he recovers from post-season surgery. He played in eight games and had seven stops last year. Junior Jack Swanson (5-11, 200), a two-year letterman, will be the backup. He played in every game last year and five tackles. Senior Kyle Steinbrecher (6-2, 201) will also fight for playing time at this spot.

The strong safety spot will be manned by junior Collin Sleeper (6-2, 200). No player is the clear cut favorite to start at this spot. It's a good position for a student-athlete to play well during the spring and move to the front of the pack. Behind Sleeper, on the depth chart, is senior Tom Donatell (6-2, 205), junior Nick Nielsen (6-3, 210) and redshirt freshman Brian Kroll (5-11, 196). Nielsen and Donatell both lettered while seeing action in a reserve roll last season. They're hoping for more playing time this fall.

Backfield Coach Phil Parker will be working with a blend of youth and experience in his backfield. Spring ball will be a good time for the two groups to learn working together.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Hawkeyes have a little retooling to accomplish on their special teams. Gone is four-year starting punter Ryan Donahue, one of the nation's best. He was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award. Donahue started 51 straight games for the Hawkeyes and claims five of the 14 longest punts in Iowa history. He averaged over 40 yards per punt all four years as a starter, including a 44.6-yard average last year. Donahue's ability to influence the opponent's starting field position was exceptional.

Also gone is placekicker Daniel Murray, who scored 158 career points to rank 13th on Iowa's all-time scoring list. He will forever be known as the person who kicked the winning field goal (31 yards) against third-ranked Penn State in 2008. The kick, in front of a home crowd, came with one second remaining and gave Iowa a 24-23 win.

The good news for special team coaches Lester Erb and Darrell Wilson is the return of sophomore placekicker Mike Meyer (6-2, 180). Meyer scored 73 of 86 kicking points as a true freshman walk-on last season. He'll start spring practice as the kicker to beat on the depth chart. Backing him up is veteran Trent Mossbrucker (6-0, 204), who'll fight Meyer for playing time. Mossbrucker, a junior, made 13 of 14 PATs last year. He established a Hawkeye freshman scoring record with 70 points in 2008.

2011 IOWA FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Senior Eric Guthrie (6-6, 245) begins spring drills as the top punter. He could be the biggest punter in college football. Guthrie is considered a very good kicker, but has only one punt to his credit in a Hawkeye uniform. Redshirt freshman Jonathan Mullings (6-3, 210) is behind Guthrie. He's been a rugby player most of his athletic career, but switched to football a few years ago. The battle between Guthrie and Mullings could be interesting.

The Hawkeyes hope to improve defensively on kickoff returns. Iowa allowed opponents an average of 21.1 yards per return. That's up from the 18.6 yards in 2009. The Hawkeyes did do very well in punt return defense and net punting. The punt return defense (3.9) was second in the Big Ten and sixth nationally. Net punting (37.8) was third in the league and 31st nationally. And, Iowa was second in the Big Ten and 12th nationally in kickoff returns, averaging 25.3 per return.

Junior Keenan Davis has kickoff return experience and is a good bet to be back there again. Gone are punt return specialists Colin Sandeman and Paul Chaney, Jr. They accounted for 100% of Iowa's punt returns last season.

A number of candidates will audition for kickoff and punt return duties this spring.

The Hawkeyes are a team that has always valued the play of special teams. It's no coincidence that good special teams play and good Iowa seasons have gone hand-in-hand.

THE SCHEDULE

Iowa has another attractive home schedule in 2011. The Hawkeyes will play a 12-game regular season schedule that includes seven home and five road games. The Hawkeyes have a bye week October 1st. Iowa has traditionally played a difficult schedule and this year is no different.

The Hawkeyes open with three of their first four games at home. Six of the 2011 opponents appeared in bowl games last year. Three of the four non-conference games will be played in Iowa City. Non-league home games include the Sept. 3rd season opener against Tennessee Tech and games against Pittsburgh and Louisiana-Monroe. Iowa's lone non-league road game is at Iowa State on Sept. 10th.

The Big Ten opener is at Penn State on Oct. 8th. It marks the 10th time in 13 years Ferentz' Hawkeyes will have opened Big Ten play on the road. League games in Kinnick Stadium include Northwestern, Indiana, Michigan and Michigan State. In addition to the league opener at State College, PA, Iowa has Big Ten road contests at Minnesota, Purdue and Nebraska. The Minnesota game on Oct. 29th marks the first time, since 1982, that Iowa has played the Gophers in a month other than November.

The Hawkeyes will travel to Lincoln to face new Big Ten member Nebraska in a post-Thanksgiving Day affair on a Friday. The Hawkeyes, under the league's new alignment, will now be part of the Legends Division that includes Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska and Northwestern. The Leaders Division includes Ohio State, Illinois, Indiana, Purdue, Penn State and Wisconsin. The inaugural Big Ten Championship game will be played Dec. 3rd, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

Iowa will always play all five other members of the Legends Division, plus three in the Leaders Division. Next year those three are Purdue, Indiana and Penn State. Iowa does not play Ohio State, Wisconsin and Illinois the next two years.

Tennessee Tech (Sept. 3rd) is Varsity Club Day while Indiana (Oct. 22nd) is homecoming. Family Weekend will be the Michigan State weekend (Nov. 12th).

2010 SEASON REVIEW

(Editor's Note – Class rankings in this section are based on last season. All other references in this publication are for the upcoming season.)

HAWKEYES POST 8-5 MARK AFTER INSIGHT BOWL WIN

Iowa concluded the 2010 season with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl. The Hawkeyes earned their second straight bowl victory over a top-15 opponent and have won three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history. Iowa improved its bowl record to 14-10-1.

The Insight Bowl win over the Tigers marked Iowa's fourth 2010 victory over a ranked opponent, the most by an Iowa team since 2003. Iowa played seven ranked opponents in 2010, the most for the Hawkeyes under Kirk Ferentz. Eight of Iowa's 2010 opponents competed in bowl games, with Iowa compiling a 4-4 record against those teams.

The bowl victory was the sixth for Ferentz in his 12 seasons at Iowa and improved his overall record with the Hawkeyes to 89-60. Ferentz is tied for third all-time among Big Ten Conference coaches in bowl victories. Iowa was bowl eligible for the 10th straight season.

Iowa posted a 7-5 regular season record, including a 4-4 mark in Big Ten Conference play. The Hawkeyes tied for fourth in the Big Ten race. The Hawkeyes placed in the first division of the Big Ten for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

Iowa's record came against one of the toughest schedules in the nation. In each of Iowa's five losses, the Hawkeyes were either tied or leading in the fourth quarter. Iowa was tied at Arizona, and held a lead in the fourth quarter against Wisconsin, Northwestern, Ohio State and Minnesota. Iowa's five losses came by a total of 18 points and the four league losses were by a collective 11 points. Iowa's most impressive wins were a 37-6 win over Michigan State, which shared the Big Ten title while posting an 11-2 overall record, and the Insight Bowl win over Missouri (10-3), which tied for the North Division title in the Big 12 Conference.

In non-conference play, Iowa posted impressive wins over Eastern Illinois (37-7), Iowa State (35-7) and Ball State (45-0), all in Kinnick Stadium, while dropping a 34-27 contest at 18th-ranked Arizona.

The Hawkeyes opened conference play with a 24-3 home win over Penn State and a 38-28 win at Michigan. A 31-30 loss to 10th-ranked Wisconsin followed, before the win over previously unbeaten and fifth-ranked Michigan State.

Iowa earned its seventh win with a hard fought decision at Indiana, before narrow losses at Northwestern (21-17), at home to seventh-ranked Ohio State (20-17) and at Minnesota (27-24).

The Hawkeyes continue to have great fan support. Iowa matched its season home attendance record by averaging 70,585 fans. All seven home games were sold out and the Insight Bowl set an attendance record (53,453) for the event. Iowa posted a 5-2 record in Kinnick Stadium, with the two losses by a combined four points to top 10 opponents.

HAWKEYE HISTORY

Iowa has played 1,142 games since beginning football in 1889. Iowa's overall record is 587-516-39 (.531). That includes a 370-201-16 (.644) record in home games, a 217-315-23 (.412) record in games away from Iowa City, a 289-348-25 (.455) mark in Big Ten games and a 253-165-15 (.602) record in Kinnick Stadium.

IOWA IN THE BCS RANKINGS

Iowa appeared in the BCS rankings throughout the season, ranking as high as No. 13 on Nov. 8. Iowa was ranked in each of the weekly BCS rankings in 2009, including an all-time high of fourth on Oct. 26 and Nov. 2. Iowa ended the 2009 season ranked 10th in the final poll.

Iowa was also ranked in the BCS top 25 seven weeks in 2004 and eight weeks in both 2002 and 2003. Iowa was ranked once during the 2006 season. Overall, Iowa has appeared in the BCS top 25 on 37 occasions.

IOWA'S BOWL HISTORY

Iowa has been bowl eligible for 10 consecutive seasons. The Hawkeyes have posted a 6-3 record in bowl games under Kirk Ferentz, including three straight bowl wins (2008-10) for the first time in school history. The six wins tie for the third-most by a Big Ten coach. Iowa holds a 14-10-1 (.580) record in 25 bowl appearances. Iowa has competed in six January bowl games since the 2002 season.

Iowa defeated Texas Tech (19-16) in the 2001 Alamo Bowl. The Hawkeyes used the 2001 Alamo Bowl win as a springboard to four consecutive January bowl games; Iowa lost to USC (38-17) in the 2003 Orange Bowl, defeated Florida (37-17) in the 2004 Outback Bowl and LSU (30-25) in the 2005 Capital One Bowl, and lost to Florida (31-24) in the 2006 Outback Bowl. Iowa returned to the Alamo Bowl in 2006, falling (26-24) to Texas. Iowa appeared in its fifth January bowl game under Ferentz at the conclusion of the 2008 season, defeating South Carolina (31-10) in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The Hawkeyes defeated Atlantic Coast Conference champion Georgia Tech (24-14) in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl. Iowa concluded the 2010 season with a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the Insight Bowl.

The Hawkeyes have competed in the Rose (five times), Alamo (four), Holiday (three), Outback (three), Orange (two), Peach (two), Sun (two), and the Capital One, Freedom, Gator and Insight bowls once.

IOWA FEATURED LARGE SENIOR CLASS

Twenty-five Iowa seniors played their final game in a Hawkeye uniform in the Insight Bowl. That list of players includes DL Christian Ballard, WR Paul Chaney, Jr., DL Adrian Clayborn, P Ryan Donahue, WR Ben Evans, DB Brett Greenwood, DB Justin Greiner, OL Kyle Haganman, LB Jeremiha Hunter, LB Troy Johnson, DL Karl Klug, OL Josh Koeppel, WR Nick Kuchel, FB Brett Morse, PK Daniel Murray, WR Don Nordmann, RB Paki O'Meara, LB Ross Petersen, TE Allen Reisner, WR Colin Sandeman, LS Andrew Schulze, QB Ricky Stanzi, LB Jeff Tarpinian, LB Lance Tillison and OL Julian Vandervelde.

The 2010 seniors led Iowa to three straight bowl wins (2008, 2009, 2010) for the first time in school history and earned 28 victories over the last three seasons. Only the 2004 senior class (31 wins) and the 1987 seniors (29 wins) posted more victories over a three-year period.

HAWKEYES THIRD IN BOWL APPEARANCES

Iowa ranks third in Big Ten bowl appearances. Ohio State has received a conference-best 42 bowl bids, followed by Michigan (40) and the Hawkeyes (25). Wisconsin ranks fourth with 22.

Iowa (14-10-1, .580), Penn State (27-14-2, .651) and Purdue (8-7, .533) are the only Big Ten teams with a winning percentage in bowl games.

Iowa was one of eight Big Ten Conference teams to participate in a bowl game following the 2010 season. The Big Ten had two teams compete in BCS games for the 10th time in 13 seasons. Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the Big Ten has qualified 23 teams for BCS bowls, more than any other conference. Seven different Big Ten programs have played in BCS bowl games. The Big Ten sent eight teams to bowl games for the third time (2003 & 2007). Big Ten Conference teams posted a 4-3 record in bowl games following the 2009 season and a 3-5 mark in 2010.

IOWA WINS INSIGHT BOWL

Iowa used record setting performances on both offense and defense to earn a 27-24 win over 12th-ranked Missouri in the 2010 Insight Bowl in Tempe, Ariz. The win was the third straight bowl victory for the Hawkeyes and the fourth of the season (in eight games) against a nationally-ranked opponent. Iowa is now 14-10-1 in 25 bowl appearances.

Freshman RB Marcus Coker was the key player for the Hawkeye offense, rushing 33 times for 219 yards and two touchdowns. Both the number of attempts and rushing yards established Iowa bowl records.

Sophomore DB Micah Hyde scored the winning points with 5:32 remaining in the final quarter on a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown. That set an Iowa bowl record for interception return yards and ranks as the eighth longest in school history.

Following Hyde's touchdown, Missouri drove to the Iowa 46 on its next possession, but a pass attempt on fourth-and-six was incomplete and Iowa's offense maintained possession for the final 2:15. The Hawkeyes converted a key third and three, as QB Ricky Stanzi connected with TE Allen Reisner for a 39-yard completion to the one-yard line in the final minute of play.

Iowa won the toss and elected to start the game on offense. Coker gave the Hawkeyes an early 7-0 advantage with a one-yard scoring run to complete the opening drive. Missouri responded with a field goal on its first drive, but Coker added a 62-yard scoring run early in the second period to give Iowa a 14-3 advantage. The Hawkeyes added a 34-yard Mike Meyer field goal later in the period before Missouri scored on a 10-yard run to cut Iowa's halftime advantage to 17-10. The Tigers were poised to add to their scoring in the final minute of the second quarter before Brett Greenwood's interception in the end zone ended the threat.

Iowa's only offensive points of the second half came midway through the third period when Meyer added a 21-yard field goal for a 20-10 advantage, capping a 93-yard scoring drive. The Tigers cut the lead to 20-17 later in the third quarter and took their first advantage at 24-20 with under a minute left in the period.

Hyde's interception return, the fourth for the Hawkeyes in 13 games, was the only scoring in the final quarter.

Stanzi complemented Coker's rushing effort by completing 11-21 passes for 200 yards. Colin Sandeman (4-44) and Reisner (3-50) led Iowa's receivers.

The Hawkeye defense was led by Greenwood, who collected 11 tackles to go with his second quarter interception. DB Shaun Prater added nine tackles and LB James Morris had seven. DL Karl Klug and DL Christian Ballard each collected a QB sack.

HAWKEYES EARN BOWL HONORS

Freshman RB Marcus Coker was named Offensive Player of the Game and sophomore DB Micah Hyde was named Defensive Player of the Game as Iowa defeated 12th-ranked Missouri 27-24 in the Insight Bowl.

Coker set Iowa bowl records for rushing attempts (33) and yards (219). He scored on runs of one and 62 yards. His 219 yards rank as the eighth-best single game total in school history and the 33 attempts tie as the eighth-best total for attempts. His season total of 622 rushing yards ranks third best for an Iowa freshman.

Hyde provided Iowa's winning margin with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown with 5:32 remaining, scoring the only points of the fourth period. The return is the longest for Iowa in 25 bowl games, surpassing the previous best of 48 yards by Tyler Sash in the 2009 Outback Bowl vs. South Carolina. The 72-yard return also ranks as the eighth longest interception return in school history. Hyde also recorded four solo tackles and two assists. The score was his second touchdown of the season. He had a 66-yard touchdown off an interception in Iowa's win over Michigan State.

FINAL BOWL NOTES

- Iowa defeated No. 12 Missouri 27-24 to win the 2010 Insight Bowl. Iowa played seven games against ranked opponents in 2010, winning four (#20 Penn State, #24 Michigan, #5 Michigan State and #12 Missouri).
- Iowa competed in its 25th bowl game, improving its bowl record to 14-10-1. Iowa improves to 4-1 vs. Big 12 Conference teams in bowl games. Iowa holds an all-time record of 70-65-3 vs. current Big 12 members. The Hawkeyes have won three consecutive bowl contests (2009 Outback, 2010 Orange and 2010 Insight) for the first time in school history, a streak that is currently the longest among Big Ten teams.
- The attendance of 53,453 established an Insight Bowl record. The previous mark of 49,385 was set in Tucson (Dec. 26, 1987) when the event was the Copper Bowl.
- Iowa became just the second unranked team in the past eight seasons to win a bowl game over a team ranked in the top 12 in the BCS. Since the BCS was formed in 1998, just eight unranked teams have recorded a bowl win over a team ranked among in the top 12 in the BCS rankings.
- Iowa was one of three unranked teams to record a bowl win over a ranked opponent. Missouri, 12th in the BCS rankings, was the highest ranked team to lose in a bowl game to an unranked opponent. Freshman RB Marcus Coker, who was named the 2010 Insight Bowl Offensive Player of the Game, started for the fourth time. He rushed 33 times for 219 yards, surpassing 100 yards for the second time (22-129 at Indiana), while establishing career-bests in both categories. Coker set an Iowa bowl record with his rushing attempts and yardage. Bob Jeter's total of 194 yards (nine attempts) vs. California in the 1959 Rose Bowl was the previous rushing record. The previous record of 29 rushing attempts was set by Shonn Greene vs. South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl.

- Coker is the first Hawkeye to rush for over 200 yards in game since Shonn Greene rushed 30 times for 211 yards vs. Purdue (11/15/08). Coker's rushing total of 219 yards ranks sixth-best in a single-game in Hawkeye history. The 33 carries ties for the eighth most in a game. Coker's rushing total is the second highest for a Big Ten freshman in a bowl game (Ron Dayne, Wisconsin, 246 yards, 1996 Copper Bowl).
- Coker had a 62-yard touchdown run in the second period. That run is the longest of Coker's career and is Iowa's longest touchdown run of the season. Iowa's previous long touchdown run was 39 yards (Adam Robinson vs. Iowa State). The 62-yard run is the second longest for Iowa of the season, as Robinson had a 75-yard run vs. Iowa State.
- Sophomore Micah Hyde, who was named the 2010 Insight Bowl Defensive Player of the Game, had a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown in the fourth period. The return is an Iowa bowl record and the eighth longest in school history. The return ranks as the second longest in Insight Bowl history. The theft is the fourth of the season for Hyde and his second score (he had a 66-yard touchdown vs. Michigan State).
- The touchdown return by Hyde marked Iowa's sixth non-offensive touchdown of the season. Iowa had four interception returns for touchdowns, a blocked punt return for a score and a KO return for a touchdown.
- Senior QB Ricky Stanzi completed 11-21 passes for 200 yards. Stanzi completed passes to five different receivers. Stanzi improved his career totals to 542-907 for 7,377 yards and 56 touchdowns. Iowa improves to 26-9 with Stanzi as its starting quarterback. He had at least one touchdown pass in the previous 21 games he played, a school record, before the bowl game. He had at least three scoring passes in five of 13 games in 2010. His 25 TD passes in 2010 rank third best for a single season. He is third in attempts, passing yards and touchdowns and fourth in completions. Stanzi is just the third Big Ten quarterback to start and win three bowl games (Mark Herrmann, Purdue and Brooks Bollinger, Wisconsin).
- Senior punter Ryan Donahue punted for the 51st game in a row, which consists of every game in his career, and is an Iowa record. The Iowa record for consecutive starts by a defensive player is 50 games, held by DL Matt Kroul, who ended his career in Iowa's win over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The record for an offensive player is 48 games, held by OL Bruce Nelson (1999-02). Against Missouri, Donahue averaged 44.7 yards on three punts. Donahue was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter.
- Freshman PK Mike Meyer made a 34-yard field goal in the first half and added 21-yard kick in the third quarter. He made 14-17 field goals this season and scored 73 points. That total ranks 19th best for a single season at Iowa.
- Senior DB Brett Greenwood had his team-leading fifth interception of the season near the end of the second quarter. Greenwood has 12 career interceptions to rank tied for sixth in career thefts with Steve Wilson. Iowa entered the Insight Bowl tied for second in the nation with 17 thefts during the regular season.
- Junior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., had a 49-yard reception on Iowa's first drive that led to a touchdown. McNutt, Jr., is tied for fourth in career TD receptions. He ended the game with two catches for 63 yards and led Iowa in receiving for the season with 53 receptions for 861 yards and eight touchdowns. Iowa's defense was credited with two sacks, six tackles for loss and one pass break-up. DB Brett Greenwood was credited with a game-high 11 tackles, including a career-best nine solo stops. DB Shaun Prater collected nine stops, one shy of a personal best. DL Karl Klug had five tackles, including equaling a career-high with two TFLs.

IOWA LEADERSHIP GROUP

Iowa's Leadership Group for the 2010 season included seniors Adrian Clayborn, Brett Greenwood, Karl Klug, Brett Morse, Ricky Stanzi, Jeff Tarpinian and Julian Vandervelde; juniors Broderick Binns, Marvin McNutt, Jr., Tyler Nielsen and Tyler Sash; sophomores Greg Castillo and James Vandenberg; redshirt freshmen Shane DiBona and Brett Van Sloten; and first-year freshman James Morris.

Iowa's permanent team captains for 2010 are QB Ricky Stanzi, FB Brett Morse, DE Adrian Clayborn, DB Brett Greenwood and DT Karl Klug.

KLUG AND STANZI SHARE MVP HONORS

Senior defensive tackle Karl Klug and senior quarterback Ricky Stanzi shared the honor as the Roy J. Carver Most Valuable Player for 2010. Klug started every game, recording 57 tackles. He led the Hawkeyes with 5.5 QB sacks for minus 47 yards and with 13 tackles for loss (-67 yards). He also had five QB pressures, three pass break-ups and a forced fumble. Klug, who started every game over the last two seasons, was named second team all-Big Ten by league coaches and media.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

Stanzi started all 13 games at quarterback, completing 221-345 pass attempts for 3,004 yards and 25 touchdowns, with just six interceptions. He ranked second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation in pass efficiency (157.63), establishing an Iowa single-season record. He established a school record with at least one touchdown pass in 21 consecutive games. His career totals include 542-907 for 7,377 yards and 56 touchdowns.

HAWKEYE TEAM AWARDS

Along with the permanent team captains and team MVPs, several other Hawkeye players earned recognition at the annual awards banquet.

QB Ricky Stanzi and DT Karl Klug were named co-winners of the Hayden Fry "Extra Heartbeat" Award. They shared the award with senior DE Adrian Clayborn. Clayborn, a consensus All-American and first-team all-American by the American Football Coaches Association and the Walter Camp Foundation, was first team all-Big Ten by both the coaches and the media. Clayborn started the final 30 games of his career and had 37 career starts. The Hayden Fry Award is given in honor of Iowa's Hall of Fame coach who retired after the 1998 season. The award goes to a player who gives that little bit extra at all times.

Klug was also given the Iron Hawk Award. It is presented to a Hawkeye who has given his all every play, for the entire season, and has represented his team and school in an exemplary fashion.

Four players shared the Next Man In Award. On offense, senior OL Josh Koeppel was the recipient. Defensively, the award went to true freshman LB James Morris. The special teams' award was shared by true freshman PK Mike Meyer and senior LB Ross Petersen.

Three student-athletes share the Forest Evashevski Scholastic Achievement Award. The award goes annually to a player(s) who displays a high degree of proficiency in both the classroom and on the playing field. This year's winners are seniors Jeff Tarpinian, Julian Vandervelde and Josh Koeppel.

The 2010 "Coaches Appreciation" awards went to five Hawkeyes. Offensively, the award went to sophomore OL James Ferentz and senior TE Allen Reisner. Defensively, the honor went to a pair of seniors, LB Jeff Tarpinian and DL Christian Ballard. Senior RB Paki O'Meara won the special teams' portion of the award.

Senior snapper Andrew Schulze was named winner of the Reggie Roby Special Teams Specialist of the Year. Senior punter Ryan Donahue was named winner of the overall Reggie Roby Special Teams Player of the Year award. Donahue was a finalist for the Ray Guy Punter of the Year Award. The awards are named after the late Iowa punter who was first-team All-American in 1981 and 1982. Roby died in 2005. He punted in the NFL for 16 years. It's the second straight year that both players have taken this honor.

The "Hawkeye Hustle" awards went to five players. On offense the winner was sophomore OL Riley Reiff. Three juniors, DT Mike Daniels and DB's Shaun Prater and Tyler Sash, were honored on defense. Prater also earned the award for his play on special teams.

Team Leader Awards were given offensively to sophomore lineman Casey McMillan and senior WR Nick Kuchel. Defensive winners were linemen junior Joe Forgy and freshman Casey Kreiter. Both Kuchel and Forgy won the same award in 2009. Special Teams Leader Awards went to junior WR Joe Audlehelm and freshman LB Matt Meyers.

The "Win During The Week Award" went to seniors Brett Morse and Julian Vandervelde on offense. The defensive award went to Greenwood for the second straight year.

TWO EARN FRESHMAN HONORS

Linebacker James Morris and offensive lineman Nolan MacMillan earned Freshman All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele's College Football. Morris was named a first team selection by CollegeFootballNews.com and a third team selection by Phil Steele's College Football. MacMillan earned fourth team honors from Phil Steele's College Football and honorable mention recognition by CollegeFootballNews.com.

Morris, a true freshman from Solon, started Iowa's final six games at middle linebacker. He recorded 70 tackles to rank fourth on the team. Morris collected 23 solo stops and 47 assists, along with four pass break-ups, 2.5 tackles for loss and a QB sack. He had a season-best 13 tackles at Northwestern.

MacMillan is a redshirt freshman from Toronto, Ontario. He started the first six games of the season at right guard, helping the Hawkeyes win five of their first six outings. MacMillan missed six of the final seven games of the year due to injury. He also earned academic all-Big Ten honors.

IOWA VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

Iowa posted a 4-3 record while facing seven ranked opponents in 2010, the most for a Kirk Ferentz coached Hawkeye team. Iowa played six ranked teams in 1999 and 2003. The four wins over ranked teams are the most for Iowa since posting a 4-2 record vs. six ranked opponents in 2003.

Three of Iowa's seven opponents were ranked in the top 10, while Missouri was 12th. Iowa lost to No. 10 Wisconsin (31-30), defeated No. 5 Michigan State (37-6) and lost to No. 7 Ohio State (20-17), all in Kinnick Stadium. Last season, Iowa defeated No. 4 Penn State and No. 9 Georgia Tech, while losing at No. 8 Ohio State in overtime.

With the 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State (10/30/10), Iowa has recorded a victory over a top-five ranked team in each of the last three seasons. Iowa defeated fourth-ranked Penn State (21-10) on the road in 2009 and defeated the third-ranked Nittany Lions (24-23) in Kinnick Stadium in 2008.

Along with defeating Michigan State, Iowa defeated Missouri (#12), Penn State (#20) and Michigan (#24). Along with losses to Wisconsin and Ohio State, Iowa lost at No. 18 Arizona.

In Big Ten play, Iowa's eight opponents posted an overall record of 62-34 during the regular season. Iowa did not play Illinois and Purdue. Among the top five teams in the final Big Ten standings, Ohio State's league opponents were 51-43, Penn State's 52-43, Wisconsin's 54-42 and Northwestern's 52-42.

IOWA VS. BOWL TEAMS

Eight of Iowa's 13 opponents earned bowl invitations. Iowa's 13 opponents posted a 92-71 (.564) overall record. Wisconsin (Rose) and Ohio State (Sugar) earned BCS bowl bids, while Arizona, Michigan State, Penn State, Michigan, Northwestern and Missouri played in the post-season.

AGAINST THE CHAMPS

Iowa posted a 1-2 record against the three teams that shared the Big Ten title. Wisconsin, Ohio State and Michigan State were all 7-1 in Big Ten play and 11-1 overall during the regular season. In the three games, Iowa outscored the three teams by a combined 84-57. Iowa lost by one point to Wisconsin (31-30) and three to Ohio State (20-17), while defeating Michigan State (37-6).

IOWA VS. RANKED TEAMS

These are Iowa's most recent wins vs. nationally-ranked opponents:

Home:	37-6 over fifth-ranked Michigan State, 10/30/10 24-3 over 20th-ranked Penn State, 10/02/10 24-23 over third-ranked Penn State, 11/8/08
Road:	38-28 over 24th-ranked Michigan, 10/16/10 21-10 over fourth-ranked Penn State, 9/26/09
Neutral:	27-24 over 12th-ranked Missouri, Insight Bowl, 12/28/10 24-14 over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech, Orange Bowl, 1/5/10 30-25 over 11th-ranked LSU, Capital One Bowl, 1/1/05

HAWKEYES EARN ALL-BIG TEN HONORS

Eleven Iowa players were named to either the first or second all-Big Ten teams selected by the league's coaches and media.

Four Hawkeyes earned first team all-league recognition, while seven were honored as second team selections.

Senior defensive end Adrian Clayborn, junior defensive backs Tyler Sash and Shaun Prater and senior wide receiver Derrell Johnson-Koulianos were named on the first unit by the coaches. Clayborn, Sash and Prater also made the media's first team. Clayborn and Sash are first team selections for the second straight year.

Making the second all-league team, as named by the coaches, were senior offensive lineman Julian Vandervelde, sophomore offensive lineman Riley Reiff, junior receiver Marvin McNutt, Jr., senior tight end Allen Reisner, senior defensive tackle Karl Klug, senior linebacker Jeremiha Hunter and senior defensive back Brett Greenwood. Reiff, Klug and Vandervelde were named to the media's second all-Big Ten team.

Ten Hawkeyes made the media's honorable mention list. That list includes Johnson-Koulianos, McNutt, Jr., Reisner, Greenwood, Hunter, senior DL Christian Ballard, junior DL Mike Daniels, sophomore DB Micah Hyde, sophomore RB Adam Robinson and senior punter Ryan Donahue.

SIXTEEN HAWKEYES NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN

Sixteen members of the Iowa football program have earned academic all-Big Ten honors for the 2010 fall semester. To be eligible for academic all-Big Ten, student-athletes must be letterwinners and be in at least their second academic year at the institution. They must also carry a career grade point average of 3.0 or above.

Iowa players earning the recognition include sophomore Steve Bigach (Integrative Physiology & Mathematics); senior Justin Greiner (Integrative Physiology); senior Josh Koeppel (Sociology); senior Nick Kuchel (Health & Human Physiology); redshirt freshman Nolan MacMillan (Mathematics); senior Brett Morse (Management); senior Daniel Murray (Master of Business Administration); junior Tyler Nielsen (Management & Finance); senior Ross Petersen (Psychology); senior Colin Sandeman (Art); sophomore Jack Swanson (Computer Science); senior Jeff Tarpinian (Accounting); redshirt freshman Brett Van Sloten (Pre-Business); sophomore James Vandenberg (Health & Human Physiology); senior Julian Vandervelde (Religious Studies & English); and sophomore Jason White (Interdepartmental Studies & Theatre Arts).

2010 SEASON REVIEW

The academic honor is the fourth for Morse, Murray, Tarpinian and Vandervelde. Kuchel and Nielsen earned the honor for the third time, while Koeppel, Swanson, Vandenberg and White earned the recognition for the second year.

FERENTZ ON BOBBY DODD WATCH LIST

Iowa Coach Kirk Ferentz was one of seven coaches on the Watch List for the 2010 Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award. The Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award was first given in 1976.

Ferentz is in his 12th year with the Hawkeyes and guided the 2010 squad to an 8-5 record, with four wins over ranked opponents. He has a career record of 101-81.

Ferentz has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times (2002, 04, 09) and was National Coach of the Year in 2002.

CLAYBORN NAMED CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN

Senior defensive end Adrian Clayborn earned consensus All-American honors, becoming the 21st Hawkeye player to earn that honor. Clayborn was named a first team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the Walter Camp Foundation. Both the AFCA and Walter Camp recognize only one All-American team.

Clayborn, a 6-4, 285-pounder from St. Louis, is the eighth Hawkeye player to ever make the elite AFCA All-America team. He is the fifth Kirk Ferentz coached Hawkeye to make the AFCA team. The others were PK Nate Kaeding and OL Robert Gallery (2003) and OL Eric Steinbach and TE Dallas Clark (2002).

Clayborn is the 12th Iowa player named to the Walter Camp team (P Reggie Roby was honored twice). He is the sixth Hawkeye under Ferentz to be recognized on the team, the first since RB Shonn Greene (2008).

Clayborn was on numerous 2010 watch lists and was a finalist for the Lombardi and Ted Hendricks awards.

Clayborn totaled 52 tackles his senior campaign, including seven for a loss of 42 yards. He had 3.5 sacks and forced a fumble. He started 30 consecutive games and a total of 37 during his Hawkeye career.

The AFCA has selected an All-America team since 1945. It is the only All-America team chosen exclusively by college football's head coaches.

THREE HAWKEYES EARN ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT HONORS

Three members of the Iowa football program were named to the ESPN Academic all-District Seven first team. Those players are senior OL Julian Vandervelde, senior LB Jeff Tarpinian and junior LB Tyler Nielsen.

Vandervelde is a native of Davenport who has earned all-District recognition for the third straight season. He was a first team selection in 2008 and earned second team honors last season. He carries a 3.46 GPA and is majoring in English and religious studies.

Vandervelde started all 13 games in 2010 and has started 37 games throughout his career, including 18 straight. He earned second team all-Big Ten honors in 2010 and has earned academic all-Big Ten recognition in each of the past four seasons.

Tarpinian is a native of Omaha, Neb. He is majoring in accounting and has a 3.58 GPA. He has also earned academic all-Big Ten honors in each of the past four seasons.

Tarpinian has been hampered by injuries in 2010, but started five games, including the Insight Bowl win over Missouri. He returned to limited action in Iowa's 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State after missing two games, and started at outside linebacker at Northwestern. He did not play against Ohio State and Minnesota. He recorded 47 tackles, including 2.5 QB sacks. His forced fumble led to a touchdown against Arizona.

Nielsen, a native of Humboldt, holds a 3.56 GPA and is a management major. He has earned academic all-Big Ten recognition in each of the past two seasons.

Nielsen started eight games at outside linebacker. He totaled 42 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss, and has four pass break-ups. He had an interception in Iowa's 35-7 win over Iowa State. He was injured in Iowa's win over Michigan State and missed the final five games of the season.

Under Kirk Ferentz the last 12 seasons, 17 Iowa football student-athletes have combined to earn academic all-District and All-America recognition on 31 occasions.

STANZI FINALIST FOR TWO AWARDS

Senior quarterback Ricky Stanzi was one of five finalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, which goes to the top senior quarterback in the nation. Others finalists included recipient Scott Tolzien (Wisconsin), Andy Dalton (TCU), Colin Kaepernick (Nevada) and Christian Ponder (Florida State).

Stanzi was also one of five finalists for the Premier Player of College Football Award. That award is based on fan voting. Other finalists included QB Denard Robinson (Michigan), QB Jake Locker (Washington), RB LaMichael James (Oregon) and QB Ryan Mallett (Arkansas).

Stanzi ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 12th in the nation in pass efficiency (157.63). He completed 221-345 attempts for 3,004 yards and 25 touchdowns, with just six interceptions. The 25 touchdowns are third best for a single season at Iowa and the completions and yards ranks fourth best.

In career statistics, Stanzi is fourth in completions (542) and third in attempts (907), yards (7,377), touchdowns (56) and total offense (7,373).

Stanzi was also one of 16 semifinalists for the 2010 Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and one of 16 semifinal candidates for the Maxwell Award. He was a semifinal candidate for the O'Brien Award in 2009 as well.

CLAYBORN FINALIST FOR TWO AWARDS

Senior DE Adrian Clayborn was one of four finalists for the Rotary Lombardi Award and one of six finalists for the Ted Hendricks Award. He was also a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award.

Clayborn started 37 games in his Hawkeye career, including the last 30 straight. In 13 games in 2010 he collected 52 tackles, including seven tackles for loss and 3.5 quarterback sacks. He also had six QB pressures and blocked a field goal attempt in Iowa's 38-28 win at Michigan. He had seven tackles and a pass break-up in Iowa's loss to seventh-ranked Ohio State.

Clayborn collected 10 tackles in Iowa's win over Penn State, earning recognition as the Big Ten Conference Defensive Player of the Week. He also had a quarterback sack for minus 15 yards and three tackles for loss against the Nittany Lions. He added five tackles and the seventh forced fumble of his career against Wisconsin.

Clayborn was named to preseason Watch Lists for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, the Ted Hendricks Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award and the Bronko Nagurski Award. He is the 21st consensus All-American in school history.

DONAHUE A RAY GUY FINALIST

Senior punter Ryan Donahue was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award. He joined winner Chas Henry of Florida and Georgia's Drew Butler on the elite list. Donahue was a semifinalist in 2009. Donahue averaged 44.6 yards on 54 punts in 2010, while opponents averaged just 3.9 yards on 21 returns. He has booted five of the 14 longest punts in school history, while averaging over 40 yards per punt in each of his four seasons. He had a 73-yard punt at Northwestern, which ties as the 10th longest in school history.

HAWKEYES ON SEMIFINAL LISTS

Senior TE Allen Reisner and junior DB Tyler Sash were also on reduced lists for national honors at their respective positions.

Reisner was one of eight semifinal candidates for the 2010 John Mackey Award. The award goes annually to the nation's best collegiate tight end. Reisner started all 13 games this year. He had 42 receptions for 460 yards (11.0 average) and two touchdowns, including six receptions for 66 yards at Northwestern. Former Iowa tight end Dallas Clark won the Mackey Award in 2002.

Sash was one of 10 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award, which goes annually to the top collegiate defensive back. He ranks fifth in career interceptions (13). Sash is the Iowa record holder and ranks fourth all-time in Big Ten history with 392 interception return yards. He ranked third in tackles this season with 79 stops and he has 217 career tackles.

FIVE SELECTED TO POST-SEASON GAMES

Five Hawkeye players were selected to participate in post-season all-star games. Punter Ryan Donahue and DL Karl Klug were selected to participate in the East-West Shrine Game. DL Adrian Clayborn, DL Christian Ballard and QB Ricky Stanzi were selected to participate in the Senior Bowl.

HAWKEYES AMONG SINGLE SEASON LEADERS

Several Hawkeyes rank among Iowa's single season leaders. Freshman RB Marcus Coker's 622 rushing yards ranks third best among Iowa freshmen. Sophomore RB Adam Robinson's rushing total of 941 yards ranks 18th best for a single season.

QB Ricky Stanzi completed 221-345 passes for 3,004 yards and 25 touchdowns. His totals rank third in touchdown passes, fourth in yardage and completions and sixth in attempts. His pass efficiency rating of 157.63 ranks best in school history and his total offense (2,998) is third best for a season.

WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., ranks 10th in receiving yards (861 yards and eight touchdowns on 53 receptions) and Derrell Johnson-Koulianos ranks 19th (46-745-10 TD). Johnson-Koulianos tied for second in scoring receptions (10) and McNutt, Jr., tied for seventh (eight).

Freshman PK Mike Meyer ranks 19th in scoring with 73 points, while Robinson and Johnson-Koulianos tied for 25th with 66 points.

In team statistics, Iowa's defensive average of allowing just 101.5 rushing yards per game ranks seventh best for a single season.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

IOWA CAREER LEADERS

Senior QB Ricky Stanzi ranks among Iowa's career leaders in several categories. He is third in passing touchdowns (56), passing yards (7,377), pass attempts (907) and total offense (7,373) and fourth in completions (542).

Senior WR Derrell Johnson-Koulianos became Iowa's career leader in receptions (173) and yards (2,616). He is third in scoring receptions (17), fifth in all-purpose yards (4,256) and 11th in scoring (180). Junior WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., is tied for fourth in career touchdown receptions (16) and is 16th in receiving yards (88-1,546).

RB Adam Robinson has led Iowa's rushing attack in both 2009 and 2010. His total of 1,775 yards ranks 13th on Iowa's career chart.

In career interceptions, junior Tyler Sash ranks fifth with 13 and senior Brett Greenwood is tied for sixth with 12. Sash holds the Iowa record for interception return yards (392). Sophomore DB Micah Hyde has 142 interception return yards, which ranks 10th among Iowa's career interception leaders. Hyde also has two touchdown returns. Among Iowa's career leaders, only Tom Knight (three) and Plez Atkins (two) have more than one touchdown return.

Among Iowa's career tackle leaders, senior LB Jeremiha Hunter ranks 20th with 269 tackles. Greenwood is tied for 42nd (229) and Sash is 51st (217).

Senior PK Daniel Murray ranks 14th in career scoring with 152 points (31 FG, 59 PATs).

IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Senior QB Ricky Stanzi established a school record with a touchdown pass in 21 consecutive games. Stanzi's pass efficiency rating of 157.63 for the season is also a school record.

WR Derrell Johnson-Koulianos is Iowa's record holder for pass receptions (173) and receiving yards (2,616).

IOWA IN CONFERENCE ONLY STATS

As a team, Iowa ranked second in conference games only in scoring defense (18.6), KO returns (25.1), rushing defense (122.5), net punting (39.7), turnover margin (+1.12) and third in pass efficiency (150.2), pass efficiency defense (116.0), fewest penalty yards (36.4), red zone offense (92.6%) and red zone defense (82.8%).

Individually, Hawkeyes among the top five in the league included PK Mike Meyer, second in field goals per game (1.43); DB Shaun Prater, tied for first in interceptions (.38) and tied for fourth in pass break-ups (.88); QB Ricky Stanzi, fourth in passing yards per game (225.6) and fifth in total offense (226.1); DB Brett Greenwood, tied for first in interceptions (.38), and LB Jeremiha Hunter, fourth in tackles per game (9.1).

STANZI IS MOST EFFICIENT

Senior QB Ricky Stanzi ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 12th in the nation in pass efficiency. His rating of 157.63 is the best single-season pass efficiency rating for an Iowa quarterback since the statistic was first used in 1979. Following are the top five Iowa quarterback efficiency ratings:

Year	Player	G	Eff.	Att-Com-Int	Pct	Yards	TD	Yards

HAWKEYES EARN WEEKLY HONORS

Several Iowa players earned weekly honors in 2010:

- Freshman Mike Meyer was named Big Ten Conference Special Teams Player of the Week after connecting on 4-5 field goal attempts in Iowa's 18-13 win at Indiana. He connected from 23, 27, 27 and 42 yards in the win. The 42-yard kick is the longest of his career. He shared the national honor of Kickoff Performer of the Week when all four of his kicks were touchbacks at Northwestern. He earned honorable mention recognition for his play in Iowa's 35-7 win over Iowa State, averaging 68.3 yards on six kicks, with three touchbacks.
- Senior punter Ryan Donahue was named national Punter of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards after averaging 60.5 yards on two punts vs. Wisconsin. He earned honorable mention recognition after averaging 42.9 yards on seven punts at Northwestern. He was recognized following Iowa's contest at Minnesota, in which he averaged 47.5 yards on four punts, including a best of 61 yards.
- Junior DB Shaun Prater was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week following Iowa's 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State. Prater collected a career-high 10 tackles and had an interception and 42 yard return vs. the Spartans. Iowa held MSU to 31 net rushing yards and one touchdown. The Big Ten honor is the first for Prater.
- Senior QB Ricky Stanzi was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week following Iowa's 38-28 win at Michigan. Stanzi completed 17-24 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions.
- Senior DE Adrian Clayborn was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week following Iowa's 24-3 win over Penn State Oct. 2. Clayborn collected 10 tackles in the win, including a quarterback sack for minus 15 yards and three tackles for loss. Iowa held Penn State to 54 net rushing yards and just three points. The Big Ten honor is the third for Clayborn. He earned the recognition for special teams in Iowa's 2009 win at Penn State and he was defensive Player of the Week in Iowa's 2009 win at Michigan State. Clayborn earned honorable mention recognition for his position from the College Football Performance Awards for his play against Penn State as well.
- Junior DL Mike Daniels was named Big Ten Conference co-Defensive Player of the Week for his play in Iowa's 45-0 win over Ball State. Daniels recorded career bests in tackles and tackles for loss in Iowa's shutout victory over Ball State. Daniels had four solo tackles and two assists, including four tackles for loss (-20) and one QB sack (-7). The Hawkeye defense held Ball State to just 112 yards total offense (56 rushing, 56 passing). The Big Ten Player of the Week honor is the first for Daniels, who was also named national defensive Performer of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards.
- Senior RB Paki O'Meara was named Big Ten Conference Special Teams Player of the Week for his play in Iowa's 37-7 win over Eastern Illinois. O'Meara blocked an Eastern Illinois punt in the first period and returned the block for a 42-yard touchdown. His score gave Iowa a 21-0 advantage. He also had four rushing attempts for 34 yards in the second half in earning his first Big Ten Player of the Week honor.
- Senior QB Ricky Stanzi earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his play against Ball State, Michigan, Wisconsin and Michigan State. He had three touchdown passes and no interceptions in each of the four games.
- Junior DB Shaun Prater earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his defensive backfield play in Iowa's 24-3 win over Penn State. Prater collected Iowa's only turnover vs. Penn State, returning his interception in the closing minutes 33 yards for his first career touchdown. He also collected four tackles. He also earned honorable mention recognition for his efforts in Iowa's 37-6 win over Michigan State (10 tackles, one interception).
- Sophomore RB Adam Robinson earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Award for his play in Iowa's 35-7 win over Iowa State. Robinson rushed for a career-best 156 yards on 14 carries and scored on a 39-yard run. Robinson also had a 75-yard run to set up another Hawkeye touchdown and surpassed 1,000 career rushing yards.
- Senior TE Allen Reisner earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Award for his play in Iowa's 35-7 win over Iowa State and the 21-17 loss at Northwestern. Reisner had three receptions for 66 yards and a touchdown vs. Iowa State. His two-yard scoring reception gave Iowa a 21-0 advantage in the second period and his 55-yard catch, the longest of his career, led to Iowa's final score. He added 66 receiving yards on six receptions at Northwestern.
- Sophomore DB Micah Hyde earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Awards for his defensive backfield play in Iowa's 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State. Hyde had five tackles and a 66-yard return for a touchdown.
- Junior TE Brad Herman earned honorable mention recognition from the College Football Performance Award for his play in Iowa's 37-6 win over fifth-ranked Michigan State. Herman had three receptions for 80 yards, matching his career-high in catches and reaching a career-best in receiving yards.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

IOWA TOUGH ON DEFENSE

Iowa ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (17.0), sixth in rushing defense (101.5), 25th in total defense (332.1) and 24th in pass efficiency defense (115.1). The Iowa defense was the last unit in the nation to allow a rushing touchdown this season, that coming in Iowa's sixth game.

The Hawkeyes ranked seventh in the nation in turnover margin (+1.0) and tied for 11th with 19 pass interceptions. Iowa had four interception returns for touchdowns in 2010.

Six Iowa opponents scored one touchdown or less, including two who scored no touchdowns. For the second straight season, eight of Iowa's 12 regular season opponents scored 17 points or less.

For the third straight season, Iowa allowed only one opponent to rush for over 100-yards.

IOWA EFFICIENT ON OFFENSE

Iowa ranked 11th in the nation in pass efficiency (155.72) and the Hawkeyes were 50th in scoring offense (28.9). The Hawkeyes were 49th in passing offense (234.5), 57th in total offense (382.9) and 70th in rushing offense (148.4). Iowa scored 30 or more points in three consecutive Big Ten Conference games (Michigan, Wisconsin, Michigan State) for the first time since 2005. Iowa scored 30 or more points in six games overall, matching the second highest number of games under Kirk Ferentz. Iowa scored 30 or more points in nine games in 2002.

Iowa has just 11 turnovers (five lost fumbles, six interceptions), which ranked second in the nation. Iowa lost just two fumbles in eight Big Ten games, both in the regular season finale at Minnesota.

Iowa also ranked sixth in fewest penalty yards per game (37.4) and tied for 19th in fewest penalties per game (4.9).

On special teams, Iowa ranked sixth in the nation in punt return defense (3.9 average on 21 returns) and 12th in KO returns (25.3).

POSITIVE TURNOVER RATIO

Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten and tied for seventh nationally with a plus 1.0 turnover ratio. Iowa was guilty of just 11 turnovers in 13 games, including just five turnovers in eight Big Ten games. The 11 turnovers ranked second in the nation.

Iowa's opponents had 142 possessions, and just seven started in Iowa territory. Arizona and Minnesota had two possessions start in Iowa territory and Iowa State, Northwestern and Ohio State started one possession on Iowa's end of the field.

INJURY SETBACKS

Iowa junior linebacker Bruce Davis and RB Jewel Hampton suffered season-ending knee injuries during Iowa's 34-27 loss at Arizona in week three. Both had surgery to repair the damage.

LB Jeff Tarpinian missed Iowa's opening game and contests vs. Michigan and Wisconsin before returning to limited action vs. Michigan State and Indiana. He did not start vs. Penn State and was limited to just a few plays on defense. Tarpinian led Iowa in tackles through five games and returned to the starting line-up at Northwestern before missing Iowa's final two regular season games. Tarpinian returned to action in the Insight Bowl. Senior FB Brett Morse did not play at Michigan, ending his starting streak at 18 consecutive starts, but returned vs. Wisconsin.

OL Adam Gettis did not play at Indiana and also missed games vs. Northwestern, Ohio State and Minnesota.

Redshirt freshman OL Nolan MacMillan missed three games before returning to action at Northwestern, but he did not play against Ohio State, Minnesota and Missouri. He started the first six games. Senior LB Jeremiha Hunter started the first seven games before missing the Michigan State contest. Hunter returned to start the last four regular season contests, but saw limited action in the bowl win. He totaled 36 career starts.

OLB Tyler Nielsen, who started the first eight games and ranked third in tackles, was injured vs. Michigan State and missed the remainder the final five games of the season.

Iowa defensive coordinator Norm Parker underwent a medical procedure in late September and missed seven games.

STANZI IN A CLUB OF HIS OWN

In leading Iowa to a 24-3 win over Penn State, Iowa senior QB Ricky Stanzi improved to 3-0 as a starting quarterback against the Nittany Lions. Stanzi is the only opposing quarterback to ever start three games against Penn State and lead his team to wins in all three games. Iowa won 24-23 in 2008 on a last second field and won 21-10 a year ago at Penn State. Stanzi played every offensive down in all three wins. He is also the third quarterback in the Big Ten to start and win three bowl games.

Stanzi has led Iowa to a 26-9 record as the starting quarterback, which ranks second all-time among Iowa signal callers in career victories. Iowa's win at Indiana garnered Stanzi his 14th conference victory to tie Matt Sherman, Matt Rodgers and Drew Tate for second in school history behind Chuck Long's 24. Following are the records of Iowa's top quarterbacks:

Iowa Quarterback Victories

Quarterback	Overall	Big Ten
1. Chuck Long (1981-85)	33-13-1 (.713)	24-7-1 (.766)
2. Ricky Stanzi (2007-10)	26-9-0 (.743)	14-8 (.636)
3. Matt Sherman (1994-97)	24-10-0 (.706)	14-8-0 (.636)
4. Matt Rodgers (1988-91)	21-10-1 (.672)	14-8-0 (.636)
5. Drew Tate (2003-p)	21-13-0 (.618)	14-10-0 (.583)

IOWA GETS DEFENSIVE POINTS

Iowa's defense recorded four interception returns for touchdowns. Those were by DE Broderick Binns vs. Arizona (20 yards), DB Shaun Prater vs. Penn State (33) and DB Micah Hyde vs. Michigan State and Missouri. Hyde had a 66-yard return after DB Tyler Sash made the interception vs. the Spartans. Hyde's return ranks as the ninth longest in school history. He added a 72-yard return for the final points in Iowa's 27-24 Insight Bowl win. That return is the longest for Iowa in a bowl game and ranks eighth longest in school history.

Iowa has had at least one pass interception return for a touchdown in each of the last three seasons and in six of the last seven years.

In 2009, safety Tyler Sash had an 86-yard return for a touchdown in a home win over Indiana. In 2008, DB Amari Spivey returned an interception 57 yards for a touchdown in a win at Minnesota.

IOWA MATCHES ATTENDANCE RECORD

Iowa sold all tickets for its seven home games, matching the school record by averaging 70,585 fans per contest. Iowa issued over 59,000 season tickets, which included more than 10,000 student tickets. Iowa also averaged 70,585 for all home games in 2005, 2006 and 2007. Iowa has sold out Kinnick Stadium 49 of the last 51 games.

STARTERS RETURNING

Iowa is expected to return five starters on defense and five on offense, along with PK Mike Meyer. The returning starters on offense include: tackle Riley Reiff, center James Ferentz, guard Nolan MacMillan, tackle Markus Zusevics and wide receiver Marvin McNutt, Jr.

The defensive starters returning include: linebackers Tyler Nielsen and James Morris, tackle Mike Daniels, and defensive backs Micah Hyde and Shaun Prater.

HAWKEYES EARN FIRST CAREER START

Thirteen Iowa players started for the first time in 2010, including OL James Ferentz, OL Nolan MacMillan, OL Markus Zusevics, DL Mike Daniels, DB Micah Hyde, LB Bruce Davis, LB Tyler Nielsen, LB Jeff Tarpinian, FB Brad Rogers, LB James Morris, LB Shane DiBona, OL Josh Koepfel and RB Marcus Coker.

Iowa had 13 players (six defense, seven offense) start all 13 games in 2010. Those defensive players included DE Adrian Clayborn, DT Karl Klug, DE/DT Christian Ballard, DB Micah Hyde, DB Brett Greenwood and DB Tyler Sash. On offense the list included OT Riley Reiff, OG Julian Vandervelde, C James Ferentz, OT Markus Zusevics, QB Ricky Stanzi, WR Marvin McNutt, Jr., and TE Allen Reisner.

NEW FACES ON THE FIELD

Iowa played nine true freshmen in 2010, including TE C.J. Fiedorowicz, LB James Morris, LB Christian Kirksey, DB B.J. Lowery, DB Tanner Miller, PK Mike Meyer, RB Marcus Coker, DB Anthony Hitchens and WR Don Shumpert. Iowa played just three true freshmen in 2009. The Hawkeyes played seven true freshmen in 2000, 2003 and 2008.

HAWKEYE NOTES

- Iowa, in 2009, won four games by three points or less for the first time ever in a single season. Iowa was 4-1 in 2009 when trailing after three periods and 1-1 when tied after three quarters. Iowa blocked two field goal attempts in the final seconds of a win over Northern Iowa and scored on the final play in a win at Michigan State. The Hawkeyes lost at Ohio State in overtime.
- Iowa, in 2010, suffered five losses by a combined total of 18 points, including four losses in Big Ten play by a combined 11 points. Iowa was tied in the fourth quarter at Arizona before a 34-27 loss. Iowa led in the fourth quarter of losses to Wisconsin (31-30), Northwestern (21-17), Ohio State (20-17) and Minnesota (27-24). Wisconsin scored its winning points with 1:06 to play, Northwestern scored with 1:22 remaining, Ohio State scored with 1:47 to play and Minnesota scored with 4:31 remaining.

2010 SEASON REVIEW

- Since the Big Ten began playing an eight-game conference schedule in 1973, Iowa had never suffered four league losses by a margin less than 24 points, that occurring in 1997 and 2001.
- Dating back to 2008, Iowa has won 10 of its last 14 games away from Iowa City, with two of the four losses to ranked teams. A six-game win streak was snapped in the overtime loss at eighth-ranked Ohio State in November, 2009. Iowa lost at 18th-ranked Arizona, at Northwestern and at Minnesota, in 2010. The streak included wins at Minnesota, Iowa State, Penn State, Wisconsin and Michigan State, along with a victory over South Carolina in the 2009 Outback Bowl. The road winning streak was the longest for Iowa since the Hawkeyes won all five of their road games during the 2002 regular season.
- Iowa had won 10 straight games over the last four seasons with a trophy on the line before the 31-30 loss to Wisconsin. That streak began with a win over Minnesota in 2007 for possession of Floyd of Rosedale. Iowa also won the battle for Floyd in both 2008 and 2009 and the Cy-Hawk (Iowa State) the last three years. Iowa won the Heartland Trophy (Wisconsin) in 2008 and 2009. The streak included wins in the 2009 Outback and 2010 FedEx Orange bowls. Iowa also lost the Floyd of Rosedale battle this season at Minnesota before earning the 2010 Insight Bowl trophy.
- Iowa's 2010 roster included 21 players who played quarterback in high school. That list included seven members of the normal starting line-up.
- Iowa's 2009 win at No. 4/5 ranked Penn State marked Iowa's first road win over a team ranked in the top five since 1990. That season the Hawkeyes scored a 54-28 win at fifth-ranked Illinois. Iowa concluded the 2009 season with a neutral site win over ninth-ranked Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl. Iowa has defeated a team ranked in the top five in each of the last three seasons.
- Iowa was 2-1 in night games in 2010, losing at Arizona (27-34) before defeating Penn State (24-3) in Kinnick Stadium and Missouri (27-24) in the Insight Bowl. Iowa played four games under the lights in 2009 and won all four. Iowa is 8-1 in night games over the last four seasons.

PROGRAM NOTES

- Iowa was bowl eligible in 2010 for the 10th straight season. The Hawkeyes played in their ninth bowl game since 2001. Iowa played in the 2001 Alamo Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Outback Bowl, 2005 Capital One Bowl, 2006 Outback Bowl, 2006 Alamo Bowl, 2009 Outback Bowl, 2010 Orange Bowl and 2010 Insight Bowl.
- Iowa has posted a 6-3 bowl record under Kirk Ferentz. Ferentz is tied for third on the all-time list of Big Ten coaches with six bowl victories.
- Four of Iowa's six bowl wins under Kirk Ferentz have been in January. Under Ferentz, the Hawkeyes have bowl wins over teams from the Southeastern (three), Big 12 (two) and Atlantic Coast conferences.
- Iowa earned Big Ten Conference championships in 2002 and 2004 and placed second in 2009.
- Iowa has ranked in the top 10 in the final Associated Press and CNN/USA Today coaches polls in four of the past nine seasons, including a ranking of seventh in both polls at the conclusion of the 2009 season. Iowa ranked eighth in 2002, 2003 and 2004 and the Hawkeyes were also 20th in 2008.
- Iowa established a school record with 11 wins in 2002 (11-2) and matched that record in 2009. In 2009, Iowa won 10 regular season games for just the fourth time in school history.
- Iowa won 10 or more games in three consecutive years (2002-04) for first time in school history.
- Iowa compiled an eight-year record of 78-36 (.684), 2002-10, third best in the Big Ten. The 78 victories rank as the 18th best total in the nation.
- Iowa posted a 46-26 Big Ten record from 2002-10, which ranks second among league teams over that span.
- Kirk Ferentz has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times (2002, 2004 & 2009) and he was named National Coach of the Year in 2002. Ferentz joins Michigan's Bo Schembechler (four) and Iowa's Hayden Fry (three) and Penn State's Joe Paterno (three) as the only coaches to be honored in more than two seasons.
- Iowa is one of 11 Division I programs to have the same full-time coaching staff for a third straight year or more in 2010. The others include Baylor, Indiana, Navy, Nebraska, North Carolina State, Penn State, Alabama-Birmingham, Vanderbilt, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

IOWA JOINS ANOTHER TOP 20

Iowa has 78 wins since the start of the 2002 season, which ranks as the 18th highest total in Division I football. The list includes the following: Boise State (106); USC (100); Ohio State (99); Oklahoma (98); Texas (95); LSU (92); TCU (92); Virginia Tech (91); Georgia (88); Florida (88); Auburn (86); West Virginia (85); Utah (84); Wisconsin (81); Boston College (80); Alabama (79); Texas Tech (79); IOWA (78); Miami, FL (76); and Penn State (74).

BEST DECADE FOR IOWA FOOTBALL

Iowa's football record in the 2000 decade was 80-45 (.640), a record that ranks as the best decade in Iowa football history, based on total wins. Iowa posted a record of 77-40-4 (.652) during the 1980's and the Hawkeyes were 62-53-2 (.538) in the 1990's.

Part of the Hawkeye success is due to the stability in the program, as Iowa has had just two head coaches since 1979. Hayden Fry took over prior to the 1979 season and coached through the 1998 season, posting a record of 143-89-6. Current Coach Kirk Ferentz replaced Fry, leading the program for the last 12 seasons. Ferentz also served as Iowa's offensive line coach from 1981-89 under Fry.

In a January, 2010 release, ESPN.com ranked Big Ten programs over the last decade in the following order: Ohio State, Iowa, Michigan, Penn State, Wisconsin, Purdue, Northwestern, Minnesota, Michigan State, Illinois and Indiana. Factors such as Big Ten titles, BCS bowl appearances, bowl record and number of losing seasons played a role in the rankings.

BIG PLAY HAWKEYES

Iowa had 37 pass plays, 12 rushing plays, 21 KO returns, one punt return, a blocked punt return, a blocked field goal return, six interception returns and 14 field goals of at least 20 yards.

Iowa's opponents had 30 passing plays, only five rushing plays and 24 KO returns of 20 yards or more.

IOWA BY QUARTERS

Iowa held a scoring advantage in the first (92-47), second (123-53), third (74-42) and fourth (87-79) quarters. Iowa posted one shutout (Ball State), allowed Penn State just three points, Michigan State six points and Eastern Illinois and Iowa State seven points.

ON THE AVERAGE

In 13 games, Iowa averaged 6.5 yards on 376 first down plays, 5.5 yards on 262 second down plays, 6.5 yards on 159 third down plays and six yards on 10 fourth down plays, converting 5-10 fourth down attempts.

AVERAGE SCORING DRIVES

Iowa's 56 scoring drives averaged 7.5 plays, 63.7 yards and 3:43 in elapsed time.

Iowa's opponents had 36 scoring drives, averaging 9.6 plays, 66 yards and 3:55 in elapsed time.

IOWA IN THE RED ZONE

For the season, Iowa was 43-49 in the red zone, scoring 15 rushing touchdowns, 17 passing touchdowns and 11 field goals.

Iowa lost a fumble in the red zone and ended the game in the red zone against Eastern Illinois, had a missed field goal vs. Ball State and Indiana and a fumbled snap on a potential field goal attempt vs. Wisconsin. Iowa ended the game in the red zone in the win over Missouri.

Iowa has scored on 106 of the last 118 red zone possessions (71 TDs and 35 FGs), dating back to the Michigan State game in 2008. Iowa is 87-98 (.888) combined inside the red zone its last 29 games.

Iowa opponents were 33-43 in the red zone, with 11 passing touchdowns, 13 rushing touchdowns and nine field goals.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Iowa scored 109 points following 26 opponent turnovers, which includes 14 points following two blocked kicks.

Iowa had 11 turnovers (five fumbles, six interceptions) in 13 games, allowing 28 points following those turnovers.

Iowa has recorded at least one takeaway in 56 of its last 61 games, dating back to the 2006 campaign. That includes at least one turnover in 12 of 13 games in 2010 and 11 of 13 games in 2009.

HAWKEYES ON THE TUBE

All 2010 Iowa football games were televised on either ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or the Big Ten Network. The last Iowa contest not televised was vs. Minnesota on Nov. 17, 2001. Iowa has appeared on television in its last 116 games.
