Katie Dougherty

Head Coach
Second Season

Katie Dougherty enters her second season as head coach of the Iowa women's tennis program. Dougherty is a six-year coaching veteran in the Big Ten conference, having spent time at Penn State and Wisconsin prior to arriving in Iowa City. Dougherty, a native of Ellicott City, Md., was named the Iowa's seventh women's head coach

Dougherty served as an assistant coach at Penn State (2004-07) and American University (2003-04) before joining the Badgers. She helped guide American to the 2004 Patriot League title and an automatic berth in the NCAA tournament.

Dougherty has also gained experience beyond collegiate tennis, serving as a junior development coach at both the Four Star Tennis Academy in Merrifield, VA, and the Western Racquet Club in Elm Grove, WI. At the Four Star Academy, Dougherty instructed a number of nationally-ranked juniors.

Before beginning her coaching career at the Western Racquet Club in 2003, Dougherty competed collegiately at Wisconsin (1999-2002).

A four-year letterwinner for the Badgers, Dougherty finished her career with 45 singles victories. She was also a nationally-ranked doubles player, claiming 45 career doubles wins.

Since 2008, Dougherty has been a Professional Tennis Registry Certified Professional. She was a nationally-ranked junior player in singles and doubles and was the 1997 Baltimore Sun Athlete of the Year. She graduated from Wisconsin in 2002 with a degree in English.

November 19, 2009.

In 2010, her first season at Iowa, Dougherty led the Hawkeyes to new heights. Iowa reached No. 18 in the ITA national rankings, the highest ranking in program history, and earned the No. 4 seed in the Big Ten Championships. She guided Iowa to the NCAA Championships, ending a four-year postseason drought, and the team's 17-7 overall record made Dougherty the winningest first-year coach in program history. Under Dougherty's leadership, Iowa's No. 1 doubles team of Merel Beelen and Sonja Molnar earned the No. 14 seed in the doubles tournament at the NCAA Championships. The duo became Iowa's first doubles team to advance to the national championships since 2000.

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Dougherty served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Wisconsin, where she managed the day-to-day operations of the women's tennis program and served as a co-director of Badger summer tennis camps. Her 2008 and 2009 recruiting classes received national recognition from Tennisrecruiting.net.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Jesse Medvene-Collins

Assistant Coach
First Season

Jesse Medvene-Collins enters his first season as assistant coach at the University of Iowa.

Medvene-Collins, a native of Washington D.C., broke into collegiate coaching with stints at Dartmouth and Wake Forest. While serving as an assistant coach for the Demon Deacons, he helped guide Wake Forest to three straight NCAA appearances and top 25 national rankings from 2005-07.

Medvene-Collins helped lead Dartmouth into the top 100 while serving as an assistant coach from 2003-05. He later went on to become an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Redlands, where he helped lead the Bulldogs to conference championships in 2008 and 2009. Medvene-Collins earned his BA from Redlands in 2002 before returning to earn his MA in 2009. He was a four-year letterwinner and three-time all-conference honoree while competing for the Bulldogs from 1998-2002.

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Medvene-Collins served as head coach at Mills College from 2009-10.

Kelcie Klockenga

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season

Kelcie Klockenga enters her first season as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Iowa.

Klockenga, an Overland Park, Kan., native, competed for the Hawkeyes from 2006-10. She was a four-time letterwinner.

She was also a two-time recipient of the Big Ten's Sportsmanship Award and a two-time all-Academic Big Ten selection. Klockenga posted a 67-65 singles record over her four-year career.

Practice Attendance & Interviews

All practices are open to the media, and interviews may be conducted 15 minutes prior to or at the completion of practice. The women's tennis team practices Monday, Wednesday, Friday from 3-5:30 and Tuesday, Thursday from 12:30-3. Practices are held at the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex. All interviews should be coordinated by Kyle Soldwisch in the sports information office. Please contact him at (319) 335-9411 so an interview time which does not interfere with the student-athlete's academic or practice schedules can be coordinated.

Athletics Department Mission Statement

The mission of the Department of Athletics is to provide the administrative and coaching support, facilities, resources and equipment necessary for student-athletes to graduate from The University of Iowa while participating in broad-based championship-caliber athletic competition. The overall well-being of the participant and the integrity of the program will be paramount in all that we do.

Nondiscrimination Statement

The University of Iowa prohibits discrimination in employment, educational programs, and activities on the basis of race, national origin, color, creed, religion, sex, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or associational preference. IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Head Coach Katie Dougherty led the Black and Gold to new heights in her first season in charge of the Hawkeyes. Iowa reached as high as 18th in the International Tennis Association (ITA) National Rankings, the best in school history. The Hawkeyes finished fourth in the Big Ten after posting a 6-4 conference record and a 17-7 overall record. Iowa advanced to NCAA tournament play, ending the season ranked No. 2 in the Central Region by the ITA. Dougherty will look to build on that success and has five letterwinners returning from the 2009-10 team.

"The Hawkeyes are ready to go this spring," commented Dougherty. "The returners have had the experience of going to the NCAA tournament and the newcomers came into a program knowing the expectations are extremely high. We put in a lot of hard work this fall and know that to be successful this spring we need to do the little things well. Last year we were able to sneak up on people and we know now that everyone will be prepared for us."

Dougherty's top returnee will be junior Sonja Molnar. Molnar, hailing from Guelph, Ontario, played in the number one position for the Hawkeyes and was named an all-Big Ten selection in 2009-10 after compiling a 28-9 record (7-3 Big Ten). Molnar was a two-time Big Ten Player of the Week in 2009-10 and finished the season ranked 55th by the ITA.

Junior Sonja Molnar

Molnar had an impressive 2010 fall, recording a 10-4 singles record while competing in three tournaments. She claimed the Platinum Flight bracket title at the UNI Invite and advanced to the main draw at the ITA All-American Invitational. Molnar also teamed with senior Lynne Poggensee-Wei in doubles to win six of seven matches.

Dougherty raves about her top player, "I can't say enough about Sonja Molnar. She consistently gets the most out of herself and is an unbelievable competitor. She makes this team better everyday and constantly works to make herself and her teammates better."

Three student-athletes, Poggensee-Wei, Alexis Dorr and Jessica Young, return to Iowa City for their senior seasons. The trio arrived on campus in 2007 as the nation's seventh-best recruiting class. Poggensee-Wei played in the number two position much of last year and ended the year ranked 19th by the ITA in the Central Region. The three-time letterwinner has been a major asset to Hawkeyes doubles duos as she has been part of 63 doubles victories over her career.

"Our seniors are going to be instrumental in us putting together a successful season. We will need them all to step up as leaders on and off the court. Lynne has a number of weapons in her game that make her a very dangerous player. I believe in her and that she will make us a much better team," said Dougherty.

Dorr, also a three-time letterwinner, boasts a 57-52 (.523) career record in singles after posting an 18-12 overall record during her junior campaign. Her record includes a 2010 spring in which she recorded a 6-3 record.

"Alexis is ready to have a great senior year. She's put all the pieces together and will be a huge contributor to the team this spring," said Dougherty.

Iowa's third senior, Jessica Young, is a two-time letterwinner. The Seaholm High (Broomfield Hills, Mich.) alum was the champion of Gold Flight bracket at UNI Invite in the 2010 fall. She finished the fall with a 7-3 singles record, improving her career record to 41-36 (.532).

"Jessica had a great fall and is a leader on this team. She's proven that she can play at a high level and step up in pressure situations."

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Senior Jessica Young

The Hawkeyes may also see contributions from junior Ally Majercik. Majercik won her second letter at Iowa during her sophomore season, posting 2-1 record in singles and a 2-3 record in doubles. She also competed at multiple events for the Hawkeyes in exhibition matches.

"Ally is the heart and soul of this team. She sets the standard for the work ethic and with the changes made to her game this fall she will be competing for a spot in the line-up," said Dougherty.

Junior Cassandra Escobar joins the team from the University of New Orleans. Escobar competed in the first and second positions in singles and doubles throughout her two-year Privateer career, registering a 16-27 (.372) singles record and a 24-19 (.558) doubles mark. Escobar began her Hawkeye career on a high note when she placed second at the UNI Invite in the Bronze Flight singles bracket in her first action of the fall.

Dougherty expects Escobar to build off her early fall success, "Cassandra has made huge gains since the fall. She consistently brings a great attitude and work ethic to practice and competes incredibly hard."

Christina Harazin will be the lone freshman to join the Hawkeye program for 2010-11 season. The Indian Head Park, Ill., native was considered a five-star prospect by TennisRecruiting.net as a senior after being a four-time all-conference and all-state player at Lyons Township High School. In her first fall of college competition, Harazin went 5-5 and won the white consolation bracket at the KU Tournament.

"Christina has been an amazing addition to the team," Dougherty noted. "She has a great attitude and is committed to making her game better. She's proven herself this fall and she will contribute in both our singles and doubles line-ups."

The Black and Gold have also made an addition to the coaching staff. Jesse Medvene-Collins will join Dougherty as the assistant coach. Medvene-Collins has had prior coaching experience at Dartmouth, Wake Forest and the University of the Redlands, his alma mater. As a player at the University of Redlands, Medvene-Collins was a four-year letterwinner and three-time all-conference performer from 1998-2002. The Washington, D.C. native also has head coaching experience, as he served that role for Mills College from 2009-10.

"Jesse has been an outstanding addition to the coaching staff. He is a great recruiter and on-court coach," said Dougherty.

Iowa was pegged No. 30 in the ITA's first rankings of 2011 and will begin the spring season Jan. 15-17 at the FSU Seminole Invitational in Tallahassee, Fla. Iowa will then travel to Atlanta, Ga., to compete at the ITA Kick-off Weekend Jan. 29-30. Iowa will face non-conference opponents Northern Iowa (Jan. 22), Miami (Ohio) (Feb. 4), Kansas State (Feb. 6), Marquette (Feb. 19), DePaul (Feb. 20), Missouri (Feb. 27), Nebraska (March 13), LSU (March 16) and Tulane (March 18) before opening Big Ten play at Ohio State March 25.

While the Hawkeyes look to continue their success on the court in 2011, they will also look to continue to excel in the classroom. Iowa had six student-athletes named academic all-Big Ten for their efforts during the 2009-10 academic school year. Majercik, Molnar, Poggensee-Wei and Young are returning academic all-Big Ten honorees.

"We will need them all to step up as leaders on and off the court," concluded Dougherty. "We go into every week with the mentality that we will not be outworked and we will get better. I have an amazing group of young women that want to be successful and our goal is to return to the NCAA tournament."

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

As part of the West Campus Tennis Recreation Center and Sports Activity Fields project, construction of the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex was completed in the summer of 2006. The building officially opened July 31, 2006.

The complex is used by the Hawkeye men's and women's tennis, field hockey and soccer teams, as well as students and the public for general recreation. Along with eight indoor courts and 12 outdoor courts, the facility includes sports medicine facilities, team and public locker rooms, meeting rooms and video rooms. The building also houses Iowa tennis offices and a reception area.

For the general public, there is Fitness West - a 2,700 square foot fitness area, an indoor turf facility for intramural and club sports teams and a 3,500 square foot Touch The Earth Outdoor Rental & Resource Center.

The $43 million addition and revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena is to be completed in the fall of 2011. Additions include the construction of a basketball practice facility immediately north of the Arena, along with a brand new, state-of-the-art fitness and weight-training space.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Gary Barta Director of Athletics

"Hope is not a strategy," is a common refrain of the University of Iowa's Gary Barta. So, as Barta enters his fifth year as the UI's director of intercollegiate athletics – and his 24th year in athletics administration – he does so diligently working a plan that contributed to historic success for the Iowa Hawkeyes in 2009-10 and is setting the stage for more of the same in the years ahead.

Competitively, two events stand alone at the top of the list of achievements by UI teams in 2009-10: Iowa's dominating victory over Georgia Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and yet another national championship for the UI wrestling program.

The victory over the Yellow Jackets in Land Shark Stadium in Miami was Iowa's 11th of the college football season and its first in a Bowl Championship Series event since the Hawkeyes' victory over California in the 1959 Rose Bowl. It was the final chapter in a season that opened with a school-record nine straight victories by Kirk Ferentz's squad, a streak that electrified fans of the Hawkeyes and triggered another pilgrimage of fans of the team to their second BCS appearance under Ferentz.

Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad crowned three national champions and eight Hawkeyes earned all-America honors while leading the UI to its 23rd NCAA title in school history. The championship was the third straight under Brands and it came rather handily – Iowa finished 44.5 points ahead of its nearest competitor – and, as more often than not – after yet another Big Ten Conference championship.

As inspiring as the achievements of Iowa's football and wrestling teams were, they weren't the alone. Iowa's women's basketball team overcame a series of injuries to secure 20 victories, reach the championship game of the post-season Big Ten Tournament, and advance to NCAA Tournament play for the third straight year.

The Iowa men's golf team used a second place finish at the 2010 Big Ten Conference Championship to secure an at-large invitation to NCAA Regional play where it finished tied for sixth and just one stroke shy of its second straight appearance in the national championship.

First-year coach Katie Dougherty guided the UI's women's tennis team to its first NCAA post-season action since 2006. The squad was powered by the nationally-ranked doubles team of Merel Beelen and Sonja Molnar.

The Iowa baseball team won seven of its last eight regular season league games to advance to the Big Ten Tournament when the Hawkeyes marched to the championship game for the first time since the 1983 season.

The Iowa men's track and field team advanced 32 athletes to NCAA post-season competition after a fourth-place finish by the men's squad at the Big Ten Championships. That finish was the Hawkeyes' best since 2006 and was sparked by three individual champions.

Barta and the UI Athletics Department also enjoyed historic success out of competition including, most notably, significant improvements to the facilities used by the more than 700 student-athletes who represent the UI in intercollegiate athletics competition.

In September 2009, the University of Iowa and the UI Athletics Department dedicated the $7 million P. Sue Beckwith, M.D. Boathouse, a 20,000-square-foot facility built right on the bank of the Iowa River off of Dubuque Street in Terrill Mill Park.

In November 2009, the UI broke ground on a multi-million dollar addition and renovation of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, the 28-year-old competitive home of the Hawkeye men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs. The Carver-Hawkeye Arena Revitalization Project will greatly improve the practice, strength training, and conditioning facilities for a myriad of sports programs in addition to providing new office space for the vast majority of Iowa's administrative and coaching staffs in addition to new locker room and support facilities for Iowa's men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball teams.

In fall 2010, Barta will join the campus community in celebrating the opening of the $69 million Campus Wellness and Recreation Center. The facility will provide unparalleled recreational opportunity for UI students, faculty and staff, and the greater Iowa City community in addition to being the new full-time home of the UI's men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

The UI also expects to break ground on an addition to the facilities used by the Iowa football program during the 2010-11 year. Funded entirely through private support, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football. The project will include the construction of a new indoor practice facility, upgraded and improved locker rooms, team rooms, strength and conditioning facilities, and spaces used for the day-to-day operation of the UI's football program. The construction of the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility – a facility envied by many collegiate programs and NFL franchises – and the $89 million renovation of historic Kinnick Stadium were phases 1 and 2 of the master plan.

While Iowa continues to move the facilities it makes available to student-athletes forward, the UI's commitment to the academic piece of the student-athlete experience remains paramount – and successful.

According to information released annually by the NCAA, the graduation rate for student-athletes who enrolled at the University of Iowa in the fall of the 2002-03 academic year was 70 percent, six percentage points better than the national average and two points better than a year ago. The graduation rate for UI student-athletes was also four percentage points better than the rate for all UI students.

The football program at the UI – with a Graduation Success Rate of 74 – ranked second only to Cincinnati among the ten teams invited to participate in the five 2010 Bowl Championship Series events. Iowa also ranked third among the seven bowl-bound Big Ten Conference teams.

The UI's field hockey, softball and men's cross country teams were among the NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics programs singled out by the NCAA for Academic Progress Reports (APR) in the top 10 percent of all teams in their specific sport. In fact, for the second straight year all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the NCAA's APR benchmark and compared favorably to their peers in the Big Ten and nationally.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends well beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the cabinet comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provides counsel to UI President Sally Mason.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as well. During his first four years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's post-season bowl game agreements that go into effect this college football season.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external affairs division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA national championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (12) and a daughter, Madison (10). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis, MN.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2009-10.

Thirty-seven Hawkeyes earned all-conference accolades, while 15 were recognized as all-Americans. Hawkeye student-athletes excelled in the classroom, as well with 178 earning academic all-Big Ten laurels. The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students.

Paced by its men's cross country and field hockey teams -- each with perfect APR scores of 1,000 for the second straight year -- all 24 of Iowa's intercollegiate athletics programs achieved at a rate that surpasses the national benchmark established by the NCAA. Iowa's men's tennis, women's golf, women's tennis and volleyball all ranked in the upper 90 percent of its peers.

The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best across the country.

While the Hawkeyes compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa boasts some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects are underway on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus include the completion of the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, which houses the swimming and diving teams, and the state-of-the-art $7 rowing boathouse. In addition to the brand new swimming and rowing facilities, the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center completed construction in recent years. Furthermore, the UI is in the middle of a $43 million Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovation project that is expected to be completed the summer of 2011.

completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and new rest rooms were also part of the project.

Iowa athletes have been recognized as all-Americans in their sport on 268 occasions during the past 18 years, including 15 this past season.

During the 2009-10 athletic year, the Hawkeyes continued their trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits. Below are some examples of recent Hawkeye success.

dominance on the mat claiming its 23rd and third-straight NCAA national championship and its 34th and third-straight Big Ten title. Ten Hawkeyes earned all-American laurels en route to the team championship. Tom Brands was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Matt McDonough was honored as the league's top freshman.

Iowa football continued its stellar play, winning 11 of its 13 games in 2009, and earned a national ranking as high as fourth. The year culminated with a dominating 24-14 performance over Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl. The return trip to Miami marked Iowa's sixth January bowl game in eight years. Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Bryan Bulaga was honored as the conference's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

Iowa's field hockey team has won the Big Ten Tournament championship three of the last four years and finished third nationally, advancing all the way to the Final Four in 2008. A total of 39 Hawkeyes have garnered all-Big Ten accolades under Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum.

The Hawkeye baseball team surged last season, winning 11 of its last 14 games to finish third in the Big Ten and earn runner-up honors in the conference tournament. Three Hawkeyes and two incoming recruits were drafted in the Major League Draft following the season.

The women's basketball team had another outstanding season, finishing third in the league, earning runner-up honors at the Big Ten Tournament and advancing to the NCAA Second Round. Lisa Bluder, who was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time, coached Kachine Alexander to honorable mention all-America status and Jamie Printy to Big Ten Freshman of the Year laurels.

Under first-year Head Coach Katie Dougherty, the women's tennis team ascended in the national rankings to 18th and earned a NCAA Tournament berth. Also, Iowa's doubles team of Sonja Molnar and Merel Beelen ranked 14th nationally competed in the national tournament at the end of the year. Molnar is a two-time all-Big Ten performer and was tabbed the league's Freshman of the Year in 2009.

Head Coach Mark Hankins continued to have his men's golfers play at a high level. The Hawkeyes finished second, only three strokes from first, at the Big Ten Championships and was only one stroke from advancing to its second-straight NCAA Championships when it placed sixth at Regionals this past spring.

The aforementioned list of team and individual accomplishments are just a sampling of the recent excellence achieved in Iowa City.

Whether it's the top-notch athletic or academic performances, the outstanding community and fan support or the impressive facilities, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Since its inception in 1979, Athletics Student Services has evolved from a two-person, academic support service to a broad-based, nationally prominent student support services operation. Its purpose is to offer academic and personal support services that will assist student-athletes in making timely progress toward their degrees while preparing to become tomorrow's leaders. Athletics Student Services focuses on four important areas - academic counseling and monitoring, educational and support programs, retention programs and compliance education and services - when working with student-athletes. Following are descriptions of some of the programs, services and opportunities available in those areas.

Gerdin Athletics Learning Center

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to support their educational goals. The Athletics Learning Center is a 20,000 square foot facility which provides a computer lab, study lounges, seminar and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes. The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes with 28 study carrels, a computer lab, tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, offices for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic and athletic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

Academic Counseling & Monitoring

Athletics coordinators work closely with student-athletes and their university-assigned advisors from the time they arrive on campus until the time they leave the University. Along with focusing on academic planning matters such as goal-setting, plans of study, choosing majors and degree requirements, athletics coordinators also help student-athletes understand NCAA, Big Ten and University academic policies. They also solicit feedback from instructors on academic progress made by student-athletes.

Career Guidance & Development

Planning a meaningful career and a fulfilling life is an ongoing process of expanding and narrowing choices, beginning when student-athletes arrive on campus and continuing throughout their college career and lifetime. The professional staff works with other career development professionals on campus to offer individual consultation, career development seminars, workshops, referrals to other campus offices and special events like the Senior Recognition Banquet for graduating student-athletes.

Educational Programs

A full menu of educational programs are offered to student-athletes to ensure their academic success and personal development as they grow from Today's Hawkeyes to Tomorrow's Leaders. Through collaboration with other University of Iowa student services offices, and in partnership with the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, programs address such quality of life issues as alcohol safety, healthy lifestyles, tolerance and respect, career development, professional conduct and leadership development.

Retention

Through the retention program student-athletes, who may need tailored academic assistance and structure, are identified and receive individualized learning plans to help them succeed. Such plans may include daily and weekly planning sessions with athletics coordinators and retention staff, tutoring, study groups, mainstreaming into on-campus services like the writing center, math labs and services for students with learning disabilities.

Transition Seminar

All new student-athletes attend an eight-week transition seminar during the fall semester that is geared toward helping them make the transition from high school to college successfully. Seminar topics include time management skills, learning and study strategies, the culture and rules of the university and Division I Big Ten intercollegiate athletics, and personal leadership and life skills concerning alcohol safety, healthy relationships and intimacy, diversity and inclusion, tolerance, values and character.

Minority Enrichment Program

This program offers a culturally supportive environment in which minority student-athletes develop friendships and a support network in the university. A core focus group of students and staff coordinate programs such as guest speakers, holiday celebrations, community service activities with the local neighborhood centers, events with Cultural Centers and networking with minority faculty, staff, professional and business leaders.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Located near the Hillcrest, Slater, Quadrangle and Reinow residence halls, the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center is easily accessible to Hawkeye student-athletes. Some of the facility's features include a large computer lab, areas for group and independent study, and meeting rooms.

Leadership Development through Iowa SAAC

Through the Iowa SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee), student-athlete representatives selected by their coaches and teammates represent the interests and concerns of their teams to Athletics Administrators. They meet regularly to plan community service, personal development, career education and social programs advised and supported by Athletics Student Services staff. They are consulted about emerging department policies and NCAA proposed legislation. SAAC representatives learn about and participate in the athletics governance structure by serving on department advisory committees.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available free of charge to all student-athletes. Tutors, who are graduate and professional students, current and former teachers, help with course content as well as study strategies and are available in virtually all general education program subjects.

Compliance Education and Services

Athletics Student Services administers a comprehensive compliance program to ensure that all staff and student-athletes act in accordance with NCAA, Big Ten Conference and University of Iowa regulations. Staff members oversee and assist with the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. They monitor the continuing eligibility of student-athletes. They oversee and administer student-athlete financial aid. They conduct rules education programs for coaches, staff, student-athletes and boosters. They monitor staff and student-athlete behavior to ensure conformity with the NCAA, Big Ten Conference, University of Iowa and Athletic Department policies and rules.

Compare the Numbers
Iowa's student-athletes have outperformed the University's entire student population each year since the NCAA started requiring a report of student-athlete graduation rates.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

When student-athletes consider their future, they should consider prospects beyond athletics. A list of all University of Iowa alumni who have distinguished themselves professionally would be difficult to assemble and could never be complete. However, some are truly outstanding in their area of expertise.

Athletic Training & Sports Medicine

Continuing to set the standard in athletic training and Sports Medicine Service, The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with exemplary medical care. Athletic Training Services is the largest component of the University of Iowa Sports Medicine program. UI Sports Medicine is a multidisciplinary healthcare team housed within the UI Sports Medicine Center, as part of University Hospitals & Clinics (UIHC), striving to provide exemplary everyday care for all student-athletes. The team consists of Athletic Training, Orthopaedics, Primary Care, Physician Assistants, Radiology, Physical Therapy, and Nursing. In addition, Athletic Training Services connect student-athletes to UIHC resources and specialty areas. Iowa's staff of 12 full-time licensed athletic trainers and six graduate assistant licensed athletic trainers provide health care services within four athletic training rooms and other ancillary facilities, involving injury rehabilitation and prevention programs among other health care services. When injuries and illness occur Iowa's athletic trainers provide treatment and rehabilitation programs to facilitate appropriate return to participation.

Services from the UIHC, among the world's largest university-owned teaching hospitals, support the efforts of the athletic trainers and other specialty sports medicine staff. Located next to Kinnick Stadium, the hospital offers a cutting-edge environment where staff physicians, sports medicine fellows, sports physical therapists, and athletic trainers care for student-athletes and produce successful outcomes. Dedicated research and education result in outstanding care. In October 2009, the Institute for Orthopaedics, Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation (IOSMR) opened to further enhance the care for student athletes. This new facility houses the UI Sports Medicine Center.

Athletic trainers form a team with orthopaedic and primary care physicians for every Hawkeye sport. Many of the physicians are fellowship trained in their specialty area and lecture locally, nationally, and around the world. In addition, each athlete has access to orthodontists, nutritionists, psychologists, and specialty physicians at the UIHC. Priority access to see physicians and other health care professionals provides expertise for comprehensive health care that returns the student-athlete to practice and competition promptly and safely.

The Hawkeye Strength Training Program

The University of Iowa Strength and Conditioning Department is committed to providing the ultimate training experience for each Hawkeye student-athlete. Our focus is the development of the complete student-athlete through the use of proven scientific methods for reducing the risk of injury, as well as maximizing each student-athletes' athletic potential. Equally as important, our staff will foster a culture of relationship building in which we will seek to enhance the intangible character traits required for each Hawkeye to reach his or her championship potential on and off the playing stage.

Strength & Conditioning Philosophy

The philosophy of this program consists of two components. The first is to continually develop a scientifically sound program that will maximize strength, power and explosiveness in order to allow the athlete to get the utmost out of their genetic potential, and to reduce the chance of injury. This will primarily be accomplished through the use of ground based free weight exercises and the progressive incorporation of functional movements and plyometrics. The second is to establish a culture which will develop the discipline, character and mental toughness within each student-athlete and team as a whole so that they are able to make sacrifices in their training, leave their comfort zone and develop a Championship ATTITUDE. This will encourage them to make the most out of every situation and opportunity given to them in athletics and academics, so that they might know what it is to be fully committed to something. When these two converge, they are not only able to reach their full potential; they become champions on and off the playing field.

An Exceptional Choice

Since 1847, The University of Iowa has distinguished itself as a leader among public universities. Today its programs in health, business, engineering, education, law, the arts, communications, and the sciences are known worldwide for their excellence and innovation.

Outstanding Academic Opportunities

Iowa offers degrees in 11 colleges: Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Liberal Arts and Sciences, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health, and the Graduate College. Undergraduates can choose from more than 100 areas of study.

A Fun Place to Call Home

Iowa City is a classic university town where learning and creating truly matter. The city blends the vibrant University campus and the natural beauty of the Iowa River with nearby shopping, entertainment, and residential areas.

Commanding Resources

The University operates one of the largest research library systems in the country. Iowa equips its classrooms and laboratories with the latest in computer technology. Students benefit from this technology-rich environment coupled with the high personal attention of University faculty and staff. Visit the University's web site at www.uiowa.edu to about its multifaceted education, research and service programs.

More Than a Taste of the Arts

Although temporarily displaced from their buildings by a summer 2008 flood, Hancher Auditorium and the UI Museum of Art continue to offer performances, exhibits and special events in alternate venues. Premier works of art are displayed in most University buildings and plazas throughout campus. Students may participate in theater, music, and dance groups.

Time and Space to Play

Every year about 90 percent of Iowa's students make use of the University's recreational facilities. Each season offers a full schedule of intramural and club sports, ranging from rugby, tennis, and golf to volleyball, soccer, and swimming. Individual workouts are a part of many students' daily routines. Students also make use of campus walking and running trails, bikeways, ski trails, golf courses, and canoe and sailboat rentals to relax and enjoy leisure time.

What Distinguishes an Iowa Education?

Success. Iowa's philosophy is that if students meet the entrance requirements, the University is going to do everything it can to help students to graduate. An Iowa degree spells success in the job market, giving students the skills to continue learning and growing throughout their careers.

Excellence. The faculty is stellar. Students are amazed not only at how much they know but at how enthused they are about sharing that knowledge and getting students excited about their subject.

Comfortable class sizes

Attending a large university does not necessarily mean having large class sizes. More than 30,000 students are enrolled at Iowa, but the UI has a student-to-faculty ratio of 15:1. Large lecture halls host a few of the most popular undergraduate courses, with several hundred students in attendance. However, most lectures are complemented by classroom discussions among smaller groups. Altogether, 92 percent of undergraduate classes have fewer than 50 students in them; 80 percent have fewer than 30 students. Less than 4 percent of undergraduate classes have more than 100 students in them.

U.S. News & World Report ranked The University of Iowa as the 26th best public university in the nation in 2009.

Consider Iowa's Advantages

- According to the Fiske Guide to Colleges, the University of Iowa is a "Best Buy" for an outstanding, affordable education.
- Iowa celebrates diversity—the University attracts students from 100 countries and all 50 U.S. states.
- Iowa's students and faculty have an enthusiasm for learning and for having fun.
- Iowa is part of the Big Ten Conference, sharing academic and athletic traditions among a group of America's leading universities.
- Iowa's faculty members not only offer a full range of academic offerings for students, they actively engage in innovative research projects within their specialty areas.
- Students can easily travel a half day by car to a number of large American cities, including Chicago, Minneapolis/St. Paul, Kansas City, St. Louis, and Omaha.
- Iowa City holds a cosmopolitan charm all its own as a gathering place for the world's writers, for world-renowned artists, and for noted visiting lecturers.
- The University's 400+ student organizations include fraternities, sororities, and many professional and cultural societies.
- The University's career and placement services match students with companies for internships and other professional experiences throughout their education.
- The University's graduates excel in their careers, often holding leadership positions within their professions and communities.

The Colleges

Most freshmen who enroll at The University of Iowa are admitted to either the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences or the College of Engineering. The General Education Program allows students to sample courses in more than 100 areas of study. At Iowa, students are required to take electives, major courses, and general education course work.

Liberal Arts & Sciences

Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Science (BS) in 58 major fields; Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) in Music (BM) and of Liberal Studies (BLS)

Admission: Freshmen and transfer students are to meet the college's admissions requirements.

Engineering

Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Science in Engineering (BSE) in six majors- biomedical, chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, and mechanical engineering

Admission: Students must meet the college's high admissions requirements.

Business

Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in six majors: accounting, economics, finance, management, management information systems, and marketing

Admission: Usually requires two years of pre-business study in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Details at www.biz.uiowa.edu/upo/admissions/.

Education

Teacher Education Programs: Elementary Education, Art Education, English Education, Foreign Language Education, Mathematics Education, Music Education, Science Education, and Social Studies Education. Additional teaching minors in Coaching, ESL (English as a Second Language), Hearing Impaired, Journalism, and Talented and Gifted

Admission: Review all admission requirements and program guides at www.education.uiowa.edu/tess/

Nursing

Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

Admission: Students typically complete one year of pre-requisite courses in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and apply for admission during the second semester of the first year. The College of Nursing has competitive admission. The BSN requires three years of study once the student earns admission.

Pharmacy

Professional Degree Offered: Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD)

Admission: Students must successfully complete required pre-pharmacy course work in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. These requirements may be met in two years but do not guarantee admission. Students must also complete the Pharmacy College Admission Test (PCAT).

Graduate and Professional Degrees

Many student-athletes who have attended The University of Iowa and completed their undergraduate degrees continue their education at the University. Student-athletes who attend graduate or professional school must first complete course work toward a bachelor's degree in their field of study. The University also offers undergraduates the opportunity to participate in research and overseas study programs, as well as internships that will help prepare them for graduate school.

The Tippie School of Management's MBA program was recently ranked 20th best in the country by Forbes magazine.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Housing

Each athletics team has its own rules regarding residence of incoming freshmen. Across the University, about 90 percent of freshmen choose to live on campus in one of the 10 residence halls. Most student-athletes live at least two years on campus.

The residence halls have full-service dining rooms, study lounges, laundry facilities, recreational facilities, vending, and bank machines. Each room has high-speed computer connections for e-mail and Internet access, plus there are wireless networking hot spots in a variety of locations across campus. Iowa also offers wireless networking in 110 buildings and several outdoor areas, providing more than 2,000 access points across campus.

Cambus

There are six primary bus routes throughout the Iowa campus. The University Cambus provides over three million free rides to class and to the dorms for students each year. Some routes run seven days a week, and some run until 2:30 a.m. Cambus also operates a specialized transportation service for persons with disabilities.

Safety

- 11:55 p.m. - 2:10 a.m.: Free SafeRide buses take students home Fridays and Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters.
- Public Safety offers Nite Ride, a safe means of late night transportation for women only. Nite Ride operates 10 p.m.-3 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
- Special telephones with blue lights are stationed across campus with a direct link to the UI Department of Public Safety.
- University of Iowa Police personnel educate students on safety during summer orientation.
- The Rape Victim Advocacy Program cooperates with the UI Department of Public Safety and participates in Sexual Crime Awareness Week.

Health Services

The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with the most up-to-date and highest-quality medical care available. Students at Iowa can go to Student Health Service, which is open Monday through Friday. The service is supported by a fee paid by all full-time students. It offers students unlimited free office visits (there is a charge for other procedures done in the office, such as blood tests).

Libraries

The University of Iowa Libraries supports the academic achievement of all student-athletes with specialized courses, one-on-one consultations with librarians, 24/7 access to electronic resources through the web site (www.lib.uiowa.edu), and extended hours, which can accommodate complicated practice and travel schedules. UI Librarians help students find answers, whether they're on a web site, in a book, journal, government document, or database. Librarians also plan and teach students how to find, evaluate, and use information from a variety of sources--skills they will use throughout their lives.

Career Planning

Finding and pursuing a career takes careful planning. The Pomerantz Career Center is extremely valuable for student-athletes and can help identify skills that transfer from athletics to the workplace. The program suggests a timeline each student-athlete may follow throughout his or her stay at Iowa. The components of the program include individualized career advising, career education programs, summer job/internship opportunities, resume and cover letter development and preparing for life after college athletics.

Computers

There are 26 Instructional Technology Centers all over the campus which are filled over 1,000 computers. These facilities are open at least 50 hours a week. Some are open 24 hours. Also, the Information Arcade in the Main Library provides a variety of specialized computing tools. The Computer Demo Center provides information for students who want to purchase computers and software.

Skills Labs & Support

Many academic departments offer skills labs to help students improve skills necessary to succeed at Iowa, such as writing, speaking, math, science, and foreign language. Assistance with skills such as note-taking, time-management, and test-taking are available through resources such as the College Transition Seminar (a credit-bearing course offered through University College), University Counseling Services, and Athletic Student Services staff.

Cultural Centers

Four cultural centers on campus provide a welcoming setting where students from various cultures can find cultural, academic, and personal support services: the Latino and Native American Cultural Center, the Afro American Cultural Center, the Asian Pacific American Cultural Center, and the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Resource and Education Center.

IOWA WOMEN'S TENNIS

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

As a place to live, Iowa City keeps winning awards and accolades - Named one of the 10 most enlightened towns in the country by Utne Reader, listed in the book The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America and selected the number-one place to live in the nation by Editor & Publisher magazine.

Economically, businesses such as Rockwell Collins, American College Testing and Procter & Gamble help keep the city booming. In Coralville, a branch office of Geico Auto Insurance has provided many residents with employment opportunities.

Culturally, Iowa City is alive with concerts, art exhibits, readings, plays and art events of all kinds. Located on the University of Iowa campus, Hancher Auditorium is a nationally-known performance center that brings in the best of Broadway, classical and jazz music, dance and other performances. The University of Iowa Theatre Arts department also produces a full schedule of plays each year, featuring the work of student performers and directors. So whether you enjoy the arts as a spectator or as an outlet for your own creativity, Iowa City has the opportunities.

Residents of Iowa City are not only economically and culturally enriched, they also take advantage of the numerous recreational facilities offered around town. The area's more than 30 parks provide opportunities for year-round activities including boating, hiking, swimming, fishing and skiing.

The city's greatest charm, however, remains the sincere friendliness of its citizens, the cosmopolitan atmosphere and the successful partnership built between the community and the University.

Old Capitol

One of the most recognizable sites in Iowa City is the gold dome of the Old Capitol which is situated in the heart of downtown. Built in 1840, it is Iowa City's most historic building. The Old Capitol was the site of the first governor inauguration as well as the first six Iowa General Assemblies. It is also where the state's Constitution was drafted. When the capital was moved to Des Moines in 1857, the Old Capitol was dedicated to The University of Iowa, becoming the first building owned by the University.

Coralville Lake

Just north of Iowa City is Coralville Lake, an outdoor recreational area that offers a variety of opportunities for the public. Coralville Lake offers picnic shelters, biking, hiking, fishing, boating, swimming, hunting, camping, snowmobiling, cross country skiing, golf and disc golf.

City Plaza

Located downtown and in walking distance of many of the University's dormitories is the City Plaza. It is a perfect place to sit outside and study or hang out with friends. During the fall, spring and summer months there are concerts and art festivals in the "Ped" Mall.

Coral Ridge Mall

The Coral Ridge Mall is a 1.2-million-square-foot shopping center located just minutes from campus. The center combines a mix of over 120 specialty shops and strong department stores including Dillard's, JC Penney, Sears, Target and Younkers. Coral Ridge also offers entertainment features such as an NHL-regulation-sized indoor ice arena, state-of-the-art 10-screen movie theatre and a large carousel along with a 1,000-seat food court with sit-down restaurants. Specialty stores include Abercrombie & Fitch, Barnes & Noble, Gap, Old Navy, Scheels All Sports and Pier 1 Imports.

Iowa City is located in eastern Iowa and is an easy trip to such cities as Des Moines (the capital of Iowa), Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Minneapolis. Also, Cedar Rapids, a city of more than 150,000, is just a short drive north of Iowa City. The Eastern Iowa Airport, which links residents to every major airport in the Mid-

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose Old Gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and Black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

*The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring (Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.*
