IOWA FIELD HOCKEY Why Iowa?

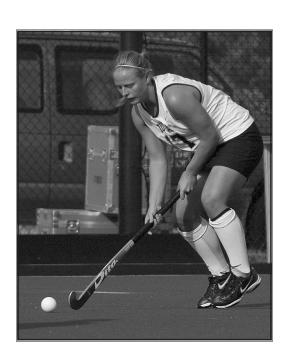

"When I was looking at colleges, I was looking for 'my dream school'. I was able to find mine - The University of lowa. Iowa is a place that just makes you feel at home. I knew Iowa was the right choice not only because of how wonderful the school and people were there, but the family I was about to join - The Field Hockey family. Iowa is not just a team of girls playing the sport of field hockey, they are team of girls who are amazing at what they do and enjoy the time they spend with each other. When I saw the bond of both the coaches and teammates - I knew this was something I needed to be a part of. Iowa is a school of winning tradition, hard work, dedication, team, education, friendships, and achieving that ONE DREAM! It's means so much to me to be able to step onto Grant Field, and say that I am apart of such an amazing place - The University of Iowa."

Lauren Whalen Freshman - Phoenixville, Pennsylvania

"Being a Hawkeye is one of the greatest achievements of my life. It has instantly become the greatest privilege that I could have received. I love the team relationship and their constant intensity. Their love for the game is completely contagious, and they are the type that will make any workout worthwhile. This is an awesome group of people and I am extremely honored to be on the same field as them."

Caroline Blaum Junior - Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania

"I wanted to find a field hockey program that had goals to achieve greatness and I wanted to join a team that had the most passion for the sport. On my visit to lowa City, I recognized that the lowa field hockey program offered this and more. The coaches and staff push each athlete to their highest potential on the field, in the classroom, and in life. The Hawkeyes are determined to do whatever it takes to be the best. Every athlete is unique but the team is one as a whole. Countless traditions are valued within the program and it is up to current Hawkeyes to carry them out. It has been an honor and a privilege to become a member of this respected program and to have this wonderful experience."

Lauren Pfeiffer Senior - Mt. Laurel, New Jersey "From the first day that I walked on the campus of the University of lowa, I knew I had found a home away from home. I am honored and proud to be given the opportunity to wear Black and Gold and be part of the great Hawkeye tradition. It is here that I have learned what being a Hawkeye means - strong values, goals and commitments to my teammates and coaches which has made a strong, successful family. I look forward to the upcoming seasons and growing as a person and player. I have been fortunate enough to have experienced lowa's athletics, academics and developed many close friendships which will influence who I am for the rest of my life."

Meghan Beamesderfer Junior - Lititz, Pennsylvania

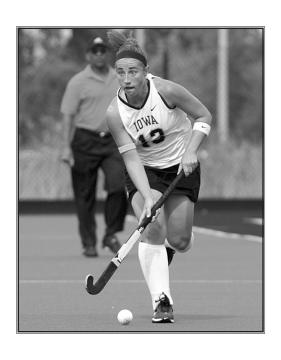

"When I decided to come to lowa, I became a Hawkeye forever. Players, coaches, and staff - past and present, have surrounded me with the tools that are necessary to strive for achieving tasks that some may see as impossible. At lowa, I see it as another daily task; where one step at a time is completing a goal within itself. I love the way that the team continues to grow with every opportunity it encounters and the way that our relationships are able to develop so quickly. It is simply difficult to explain lowa in words, but in my heart, it has been home."

Lissa Munley
Senior - Mountain Top, Pennsylvania

"Once I stepped foot on Hawkeye land, met the team, and saw the campus, I knew I had to become a Hawkeye. Not only is this team a family away from home, but with great coaches and academics as well, the Hawks strive for success each and every day. As a unit we are a very determined group that help each other achieve individual and team goals as well as compete for greatness. I am proud to be a part of a team that has so much heart and competitiveness, and I know every hawk that ever steps foot on Grant Field will bleed Black and Gold forever."

Jess Werley Junior - Allentown, Pennsylvania

The Hawkeyes began the 2007 season ranked 10th nationally by the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA). After the initial poll lowa was never lower than sixth and as high as third. The final NFHCA poll had the Hawkeyes fifth after lowa won its second straight Big Ten Tournament championship.

Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum's squad began the 2007 season with a bang at the Big Ten/ACC Challenge in Ann Arbor, MI, by shutting-out defending NCAA runner-up, Wake Forest 3-0. Junior Lauren Pfeiffer converted a stroke in addition to her game winner with another coming from junior Roz Ellis. Goalkeeper Lissa Munley kept the goal clean by slapping away five shots. The following day, lowa lost to eventual national champion North Carolina. The Hawkeyes allowed five first half goals but allowed none in the second period. Juniors Lindsey Duffy and Katie Naughton each recorded goals.

The next weekend, lowa traveled to Durham, NC, to face No. 4 Duke and William & Mary. The Hawkeyes shutout the Blue Devils 2-0, then shutout the Tribe 1-0, marking Munley's second and third shutouts of the season.

In the home opener at Grant Field, Griesbaum led her team to a 4-3 victory over 16th-ranked Louisville. Senior Adrienne Dybus scored her first two career goals, including the game winner with under 10 minutes to play. Junior Caroline Blaum netted her first goal after coming back from knee surgery and sophomore Tricia Dean slapped in her first of the season. Two days later, the Hawkeyes' offense exploded with a 6-1 victory over Missouri State. Five different Hawkeyes recorded goals with Naughton scoring twice. Iowa attempted 28 shots and 13 penalty corners to Missouri State's three shots and two penalty corners.

The following weekend, the Hawkeyes traveled to Fairfield, CT, to take on Sacred Heart and Fairfield. Munley and fellow goalkeeper Melissa Helsel turned in the fourth shutout of the season (6-0), over Sacred Heart. Naughton, for the second consecutive game, scored two goals. Iowa then went on to defeat Fairfield 3-1. The Hawkeyes out-cornered the Stags 16-1. Sophomore Jess Werley scored her first two goals of the season and Ellis added another.

The third-ranked Hawkeyes traveled to No. 12 Michigan with a six-game winning streak, but, lowa was beaten by the Wolverines (3-2) in double overtime. Pfeiffer helped the Hawkeyes jump out to a 2-0 lead after converting on a pair. Then Michigan tied the game with 1:30 remaining. After a scoreless first overtime, Michigan scored the game winner in the 90th minute.

After a tough loss to Michigan, Iowa went on a seven-game winning streak, notching victories over Central Michigan, Indiana, Providence, Ohio State, No. 9 Penn State and two against Northwestern. During that stretch, Pfeiffer scored seven goals and added three assists, including a game winning penalty stroke in overtime against eventual national runner-up Penn State.

On Senior Day, No. 7 Michigan State visited Grant Field. A low scoring game was something nobody expected, but, the two high powered teams combined to score only once. It was a Michigan State penalty stroke during the first period that put the Spartans atop the Hawkeyes.

Entering the Big Ten Tournament, the defending champion Hawkeyes were paired with Indiana in the first round and exploded with a 8-2 victory. The eight goals tied the record for the most in a single tournament game. Naughton and McCurdy each tallied two goals. In the second round, lowa was able to avenge one of its three regular season losses by defeating Michigan State 3-2 in overtime. Blaum registered two goals while Dybus added another.

As the Hawkeyes advanced to the championship game, it presented another chance to avenge a regular season loss. Goals from Naughton, Pfeiffer and two from Werley helped the Hawkeyes to a 4-1 triumph over Michigan and their second Big Ten Tournament championship in as many years.

Blaum was named tournament MVP for notching two goals and two assists during the tournament while Sickel was also an all-tournament selection for her outstanding defensive play along with a goal.

As lowa entered the NCAA Tournament it was paired with Boston University in Storrs, CT. After two overtimes, the Hawkeyes found themselves on the wrong end of a 1-0 score.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

At the end of the season, many Hawkeyes were recognized with honors and awards.

Lauren Pfeiffer was named first team all-American by WomensField-Hockey.com, second team all-American by NFHCA, first team region all-American, first team all-Big Ten honoree and an academic all-Big Ten selection. Pfeiffer was also selected as the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, Oct. 8, after she scored three goals and an assist against Providence and Northwestern. Pfeiffer was also named lowa's Most Valuable Player by her teammates.

Meghan Beamesderfer was a third team NFHCA all-American, second team WomensFieldHockey.com all-American, first team regional all-American and a first team all-Big Ten honoree. She was selected as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week, Sept. 17, after her outstanding play against Sacred Heart and Fairfield.

Caroline Blaum was a first team regional all-American and a first team all-Big Ten selection. She was also named Most Valuable Player of the Big Ten Tournament as well as National Player of the Week after scoring two goals and two assists during the tournament. She was also the recipient of the Dr. Christine Grant Leadership Award for the second consecutive year. The award is presented to the Hawkeye who demonstrates leadership on a daily basis.

Roz Ellis was a third team all-American honoree by WomensFieldHockey.com, second team regional all-American and first team all-Big Ten. She was selected as the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week Oct. 22, after her play against no. 5 Penn State. Ellis' teammates also named her and Tricia Dean Practice Players of the Year.

Kadi Sickel was a second team regional all-American and all-Big Ten selection. Lissa Munley was named as lowa's Sportsmanship nominee.

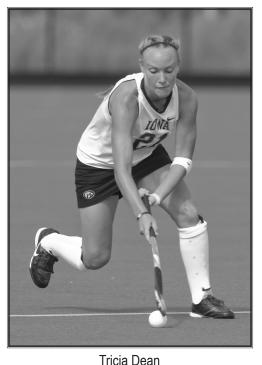

Adrienne Dybus was presented with the Nancy McLinden Carr Award by her teammates for the enthusiasm, energy, and a positive attitude she shares within the lowa field hockey program.

2006 Big Ten Tournament

Ann Arbor, MI

First Round: Iowa 2, Michigan 1

Semifinals: Iowa 2, Ohio State 0

Finals: Iowa 2, Penn State 1

To add to their already storied tradition, the Hawkeyes were crowned Big Ten Tournament champions in back-to-back seasons in 2006 and 2007. Iowa has won nine regular season Big Ten championships and three tournament championships, with the other coming in 1994. In addition to its success within the Big Ten Conference, the Iowa field hockey program has enjoyed great success in the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have appeared 19 times, reaching 10 Final Fours (the most of any Big Ten program) and winning the 1986 National Championship.
