2008 SEASON

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum's squad began the 2008 season with a bang at the seventh annual Big Ten/ACC Challenge in Winston-Salem, NC. After a narrow loss to open the season against No. 3 Wake Forest, the fifth-ranked Hawkeyes defeated top-ranked North Carolina. The victory over the defending national champion Tar Heels ended their 25-match winning streak.

In the home opener at Grant Field, Griesbaum led her team to a 4-1 victory over 15th-ranked American University. The win over the Eagles marked the 500th victory in the history of the storied Hawkeye program.

After a tough loss to No. 12 Duke, Iowa began an eight-game winning streak with a win at Stanford. The 3-2 victory marked the 100th for Griesbaum at the helm of the Hawkeye program.

During the streak, Iowa dominated its opponents. The Hawkeyes outscored the opposing teams during the stretch 42-4 (Stanford 3-2, Pacific 8-0, Central Michigan 9-0, Boston University 5-1, Indiana 6-1, Louisville 1-0, Northwestern 2-0 and Missouri State 8-0).

The streak ended with a tough loss at 13th-ranked Penn State. The Nittany Lions and Hawkeyes battled but Iowa found itself on the wrong end of a 2-1 score. Iowa rebounded the following day, topping 10th-ranked Virginia, 3-2.

After a loss to Ohio State at home, the Hawkeyes regrouped and began one of the greatest runs in the history of Iowa field hockey.

A week after the loss to the Buckeyes, Iowa won at No. 8 Michigan State, 4-3 in overtime. The hard-fought victory over the Spartans would spark a seven-game win streak that would propel the Hawkeyes to their third-straight Big Ten Tournament title and the NCAA Final Four.

The win was also significant for Lauren Pfeiffer. The senior recorded two goals in the overtime victory against the Spartans and moved into tenth place on Iowa's career goals list passing Kris Fillat. The all-American would end her career in ninth place on the storied list.

Iowa's next match was against Big Ten rival Michigan at Grant Field. The Hawkeyes closed out the regular season with a 3-0 victory over the Wolverines. The Black and Gold finished the regular season ranked eighth nationally with a record of 13-4 overall and 4-2 in Big Ten play. In addition, the squad finished 6-2 at Grant Field.

Entering the Big Ten Tournament, the two-time defending champion Hawkeyes were paired with host-school Indiana in the first round and came away with a 5-2 victory.

Iowa took down Michigan State for a second time on the season in round two of the tournament. It took overtime again but the Hawkeyes came away with another hard-fought victory, 3-2. With the victory, the Black and Gold advanced to their third-straight title game.

The Hawkeyes found themselves with not only a chance to win a third-straight Big Ten Tournament title, but also with a chance to avenge a regular season loss at the hands of Ohio State. With the score tied at one in overtime, senior Caroline Blaum found Pfeiffer who slammed home the game-winner for Iowa.

The Black and Gold had won its third-straight Big Ten Tournament title, its ninth-straight Big Ten Tournament game and had captured an automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. Pfeiffer was named tournament MVP and junior Tricia Dean was named to the all-tournament team.

The Hawkeyes earned the fourth overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and headed to familiar East Lansing, MI, to face Louisville in the first round. Iowa took down the Cardinals like they did earlier in the year, 1-0, to advance to the second round.

Iowa faced Michigan State for the third time on the 2008 campaign in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Playing on the Spartans' home turf, the two teams battled in the first half. As the second half started, blizzard-like conditions met the teams. Officials were forced to switch to an orange ball, opposed to the standard white. In the 47th minute of regulation, the game was delayed in attempt to clear the snow off the playing surface. Officials then decided the game would be delayed.

Play resumed the next day with 27:45 left in regulation. The stingy Hawkeye defense stopped an early Spartan scoring threat. Iowa then broke through in the 50th minute of play. Blaum found an open Sarah Pergine, who scored to give the Hawkeyes a 1-0 advantage. The Spartans were awarded a penalty corner in the final seconds. On the last play of the game, with no time remaining, senior goalkeeper Lissa Munley made a beautiful save to preserve the victory for Iowa.

The Hawkeyes, winners of seven-straight and 16-of-18, had advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the 11th time in program history. Iowa had endured a tough stretch, winning its last four contests by one goal, including two in overtime. The Hawkeyes finished the season 9-4 in one goal games and 3-1 in overtime contests.

Top-ranked Maryland awaited the Hawkeyes in the National Semifinals. Iowa and the top-seeded Terrapins faced off in Louisville, KY. The fourth-seeded Hawkeyes controlled much of the first half. Both teams enjoyed scoring opportunities in the opening minutes, but each defense held strong. Maryland would then notch a goal at the end of the first period to take a 1-0 lead into halftime. In the 55th minute, Iowa was awarded a penalty corner. Blaum found Pfeiffer, who scored to tie the semifinal matchup at one. The Hawkeyes controlled the tempo for the remainder of the second half.

Both teams traded possessions in the opening minutes of overtime in the seven-on-seven format. Munley made a great save in the eighth minute of overtime to keep the game tied. The teams would keep the pressure on in the final minutes and the game was headed to double overtime. The Terrapins were awarded a penalty corner in the 89th minute of play. Susie Rowe found Katie O'Donnell, who scored to send eventual national champion Maryland to the title game. Pfeiffer and Roz Ellis were named to the NCAA all-Tournament team for their efforts.

Iowa finished the season at 18-5 overall and defeated nine nationally ranked teams along the way.

"I never would've made the Olympic team had I gone somewhere else. I learned how to compete, and I developed the total package of skills (mental, physical, emotional, nutritional) needed to compete at the highest level. I often find myself relying on the attitudes, teamwork and leadership skills I developed as a player at Iowa. I had the greatest coaches and teammates in the country looking out for my best interest personally, socially and athletically."

"Being from California, I was hesitant about spending four years of my life in Iowa. As soon as I saw the campus and athletic facilities, there was no longer a doubt in my mind. Iowa was the perfect balance of community, academics and athletics. I was able to achieve my academic goals as well as my athletic ones."

"I chose Iowa because I knew it was the total package for me. I knew that by attending Iowa, I would reach my athletic and academic goals without question. The coaches truly care about each athlete, not only on the field, but in the classroom and socially as well. Iowa City felt like home the minute I stepped on campus. It has that comforting "college-town" feel. I can honestly say that I would not be where I am today without the support of my teammates, coaches, and administration at the University of Iowa."

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Tracey Griesbaum

Head Coach

West Chester Univ., 1989

Tracey Griesbaum is in her 11th season as head coach at the University of Iowa. She enters this season 124-73 at Iowa and 137-94 overall. Griesbaum recorded her 100th career victory with a win at Fairfield in 2007. In addition, she recorded her 100th career victory as the head coach of the Hawkeyes with a win at Stanford in 2008.

Two years ago, Iowa enjoyed its best season under Griesbaum. She led the Black and Gold to their third-straight Big Ten Tournament championship. Griesbaum also led the Hawkeyes to their 20th NCAA Tournament appearance. Iowa defeated Louisville and Michigan State to advance to the NCAA Final Four. The Hawkeyes fell to eventual national champion Maryland 2-1 in double overtime and finished the season with an 18-5 record. She was later named the 2008 NFHA West Region Coach of the Year. Additionally, Griesbaum was inducted into the West Chester University Athletics Hall of Fame in February.

In the first year of the Griesbaum era, the Hawkeyes fielded an extremely young team that finished with a respectable 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

Year two, was better for the Hawkeyes. They finished with a record of 13-5, an appearance in the Big Ten Tournament Championship game and ended the season ranked No. 12 by the NFHA. On their way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship game, Griesbaum led the Hawkeyes past the co-Big Ten regular season champions, Michigan State 3-2 in overtime.

Tracey Griesbaum
2008 West Region
Coach of the Year

In the third year under Griesbaum, the Hawkeyes finished with a 9-8 record and ranked No. 20 by the NFCHA. The Hawkeyes opened the season with a great shutout victory over eventual National Champion Wake Forest, 1-0. They closed the season with a 2-1, double overtime loss to the eventual national runner-up Penn State. Six of the Iowa losses came by only one goal.

In 2003, the Hawkeyes finished 11-8 with a final ranking of 16th by STX/NFCHA. During the season, Iowa reached as high as No. 6 in the poll. Six of Iowa's eight losses came from teams ranked in the top ten.

During Griesbaum's fifth year, she directed the Hawkeyes to a 13-8 record and their 12th regular season Big Ten Championship with a 5-1 conference record. The Hawkeyes' exceptional play earned them a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in school history. Griesbaum was named Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Division I Coach of the Year by WomensFieldHockey.com for her efforts.

In 2005, Iowa fielded a young team that resembled Griesbaum's first Hawkeye squad in 2000. As in 2000, the '05 team finished the year with a 12-8 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten.

In 2006, Griesbaum guided the Hawkeyes to a 12-9 record, Big Ten Tournament Championship, an appearance in the NCAA Tournament and a final ranking of 14th in the STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association Poll. Iowa had a preseason rank of 12, but a tough schedule with many close losses dropped the Hawkeyes' rank. Six of Iowa's nine losses came against teams ranked in the top five and only two of their losses were by more than one point.

In 2007, Iowa finished 17-4, and ranked fifth nationally. The Hawkeyes also captured their second consecutive Big Ten Tournament championship. Additionally, the Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 19th time in the program's history. The Hawkeyes began the season ranked 10th, and at one point, were ranked as high as third.

Griesbaum has a long history with the United States Field Hockey program. She has served in many capacities within the USFHA, including a full-time assistant and head coach for the U.S. Under-21 Team. She led the Under-21 team to a second-place finish at the Pan American Junior Championships and a spot in the 2001 Junior World Cup, where she served as an assistant coach. Her work was good enough to earn her the 2000 United States Field Hockey Coach of the Year award.

Before leaving to accept her post with U.S.A. Field Hockey, Griesbaum was an assistant coach with the Hawkeyes for eight seasons. She helped Iowa win four Big Ten Championships, advancing to the NCAA Tournament six times and the Final Four four times.

While Griesbaum worked for the United States Team in a full-time capacity for only one year, she has served the organization for 20 years as a coach.

In 2006, Griesbaum was the head coach of the Midwest Region's EPTC Program team, which placed second at the national tournament.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

She also coached the Midwest in 2004 and attended the FIH Coaching Course held in conjunction with the Champions Challenge and coached at the Elite Team Trials.

Griesbaum was head coach of the 2000 Super Camp and B Camp, and an assistant coach for the 1999 Under-20 Junior National Team which toured Canada and Argentina.

During the summer of 1998, she worked with the USA Field Hockey program. She was the head coach for the USA Under-23 team that competed in the USFHA National Indoor Tournament, toured Holland playing various club teams and competed in Canada against the Canadian National and Under-23 squads.

Griesbaum has also coached at the USFHA A-camp since 1995. In 1998, she was one of 38 international coaches selected to attend the International Field Hockey coaching course, held in conjunction with the 1998 World Cup in Holland.

In the spring and summer of 1997, Griesbaum worked camps and coached the national teams throughout the country. She coached at the United States Field Hockey Association A-Camp and served as assistant coach for the United States Under-21 National Team that played in the Junior National World Cup Qualifying Tournament in January of 1997 (Santiago, Chile). Griesbaum participated in that same tournament as an assistant coach in Venezuela in the fall of 1992.

In 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2001-04 she was a selector at the National Futures Tournament in Maryland. Those same summers Griesbaum was a coach at the USFHA B-Camp. Following B-Camp she coached the Under-18 team in a mini-tournament held in Boston (1996).

During the summer of 1996, Griesbaum was the co-head coach of the U.S. Under-18 National Team which traveled to Montreal, Quebec to compete in the Montreal Cup.

As the head coach at LaSalle University in Philadelphia, PA, during the 1990 and 1991 seasons, Griesbaum led her team to a 13-21-3 overall record.

A 1989 graduate of West Chester University, Griesbaum earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts with a minor in health sciences and coaching. She was former Hawkeye coach Beth Beglin's first recruit at West Chester University in 1984 and was a three-time regional All-American and a two-time national All-American. In 1987 she was named the Pennsylvania Association Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (PAIAW) Field Hockey Player of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year.

Griesbaum, a 1987 Honda Broderick Award Nominee, also has extensive international playing experience. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1989-91, 1993 and the U.S. National Reserve Team in 1988. Griesbaum played on the U.S. National team that competed in the 1993 Intercontinental Cup. She played in the 1991 Pan American Games, World University Games and Olympic Qualifying Tournament. In addition, she was a two-time U.S. Olympic Festival participant, winning the Gold Medal in 1989. In 2003, she played in the North American Premiere Indoor League for Philadelphia, and played three years in the USFHA Summer League.

Lisa Cellucci

Associate Head Coach

11th Year

University of Iowa, 1998

Lisa Cellucci is in her 11th season as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff. She is the recruiting coordinator, director of the Iowa Field Hockey Camp and primarily works with the goalkeepers and the defense. In her 10 years at Iowa, the Hawkeyes have compiled a 124-73 record and have been consistently ranked in the NFHCA top 20.

Hawkeye goalkeepers have enjoyed tremendous success during Cellucci's time with Iowa. Barb Weinberg, a 2005 graduate, has become one of nation's top goalkeepers and is currently part of the USA National Team. Under Cellucci's guidance Weinberg became a two-time all-American, three-time all-Big Ten selection and three time all-region pick.

In 2008, Cellucci was a crucial part of the Hawkeyes' success. She coached senior goalkeeper Lissa Munley to eight shutouts, including matches against three nationally ranked opponents. Cellucci helped Munley rank first in Big Ten shutouts, second in goals against average and third in save percentage. In addition, Iowa's goals against average ranked ninth-best in the country and helped lead Iowa to its third-straight Big Ten Tournament Championship, 20th NCAA Tournament appearance and 11th NCAA Final Four appearance.

As a player, Cellucci was one of the greatest goalkeepers ever to don the Black and Gold. During her four years with Iowa, the Broomall, PA, native was a three-time all-American, four-time all-Big Ten selection and four-time regional all-American.

In her playing days, Cellucci made an immediate impact for the Hawkeyes. As a freshman, she earned first team all-Big Ten, first team regional all-American and third team NFHCA all-American honors as she helped Iowa to a 16-4 record. Her sophomore campaign was even more impressive, when she went 18-3 and was first team all-Big Ten and a regional all-American, along with being second team NFHCA All-American.

During her senior campaign, Cellucci became Iowa's all-time saves leader by stopping her 494th shot in a 5-3 win over Ball State. She ended her career with 592 saves.

A member of the U.S. National Team from 1999-2000, Cellucci has extensive experience with the U.S. program. She played on the 1998 U.S. Under-23 National Team and on the U.S. Under-18 National Team in 1994. Cellucci also participated in three U.S. Olympic Festivals (1993, 1994 and 1995) and won a gold medal at the 1993 Festival and a bronze medal at the 1995 Festival.

She also has coaching experience at the national level, coaching at the 2003-2006 A-Camps and the 2000-2004 B-Camps and the USFHA Super Camp. During the summer of 2005, Cellucci coached in the U.S. EPTC program that finished second at the National Tournament and was a goalkeeping coach at the U.S. Elite Team Trials. In 2006, she joined Griesbaum on the staff of the EPTC Midwest team that placed third in the USA Field Hockey Championships in Virginia Beach, VA. Last summer, Cellucci was, once again, part of the High Performance Training Center (formerly known as EPTC) coaching staff. She was joined by six current and two former Hawkeye student-athletes at the National Tournament. There, the Midwest team finished second. Additionally, Cellucci coached the Junior National Team Camp in 2008.

Before returning to Iowa as a coach, Cellucci was an assistant coach at James Madison, where she helped the Dukes to a 15-7 record and a spot in the NCAA Tournament in 1999.

Cellucci graduated from the University of Iowa in 1998 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communication studies.

Caroline Nichols

Assistant Coach
First Year
Old Dominion, 2007

Caroline Nichols is in her first season as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff. She was named interim assistant coach June 18, 2010.

"It is a complete honor to be joining the Iowa Hawkeye program," said Nichols. "The tradition and history that surround Iowa field hockey is something I am so excited to become a part of. I look forward to working with and learning from two of the best coaches in the country. I cannot wait to contribute to such a driven team."

"We are thrilled to have Caroline Nichols join our staff," said Griesbaum. "She was a decorated college student-athlete and has continued to leave her mark on the international level, representing the USA on the Women's National Team. As an Olympian, she knows what it takes to excel as an elite level athlete. She is hard working, loyal, and passionate about coaching and competing."

Nichols, a four-year letterwinner at Old Dominion University from 2003-06, was a national all-academic team selection and an all-conference honoree from 2004-06. As a junior, she was named a NFHCA second team all-South Region selection and was named to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) all-tournament team. In 2006, Nichols was recognized as a NFHCA first team all-American and NFHCA first team all-South Region honoree. Additionally, she was named CAA Player of the Year and CAA Defender of the Year, marking the first time in CAA history someone swept both honors in the same season.

Nichols, a two-time member of the NCAA all-tournament team, also has a great deal of playing experience on the national scene. A member of the U.S. National Team, Nichols was a member of the 2008 Beijing Olympic team, the 2008 Olympic Qualifier team and the 2010 World Cup Qualifier Team. In 2006, she was named to the USA World Cup Training Squad and was a member of the Netherlands Tour team in 2007. In 2008, she was a member of the Pan American Cup team.

Nichols earned her bachelor of science in biology with honors from Old Dominion University.

Lauren Pfeiffer

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second Year
University of Iowa, 2009

Lauren Pfeiffer is in her second season as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff. Pfeiffer was a member of the Iowa field hockey program from 2005-08 as a student-athlete.

"We are thrilled to have Lauren back so quickly," said Griesbaum. "Her career as a student-athlete was phenomenal and we will be hard pressed to have anyone surpass her overall performance markers. As Lauren represents Team USA on the National Team, she will also be devoting her time to the coaching side of things. Lauren will be a great addition to our coaching staff, mainly helping with skill development and defensive schemes."

Pfeiffer was a two-time all-American and first team all-Big Ten honoree, helping lead Iowa to three-straight Big Ten Tournament championships and the 2008 NCAA Final Four. A two-time Big Ten Tournament MVP, the Mount Laurel, NJ, native started all 83 games of her Hawkeye career and helped the team to three Big Ten tournament titles. Her 53 career goals rank ninth on Iowa's career goal list. She was a four-time National Field Hockey Coaches Association national academic squad member, and a three-time all-region honoree and academic all-Big Ten selection. During her senior season, Pfeiffer led the Big Ten in shots (129) and goals (20), and ranked second in points (44), for all games. She was named a 2008 Honda Sports Award finalist, and earned a slot on the NCAA all-tournament team after helping the Hawkeyes advance to the national semifinals.

Pfeiffer also has a great deal of playing experience on the national scene. In June 2009, she was named to the 2009-2010 U.S. National Team. She recently competed with the National Team in a five-game test series in Argentina. Pfeiffer was also a member of the 2007 and 2008 HPTC Midwest Region Teams, the 2006 EPTC Midwest Region team and the 2005, 2006, and 2007 U.S. Under-21 squads. In addition, she competed at the 2006 U.S./Canada Challenge and the 2005 Canada/America Challenge.

Pfeiffer graduated from the University of Iowa in 2009 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in marketing.

Meghan Beamesderfer

Undergraduate Assistant Coach

Meghan Beamesderfer is in her first year as a member of the Hawkeye coaching staff. She has been a member of the Iowa field hockey program for the last four years as a student-athlete.

Beamesderfer, a native of Lititz, PA, started every game of her Hawkeye career, helping lead Iowa to three-straight Big Ten Tournament titles and the 2008 NCAA Final Four. She was a two-time all-American, a four-time regional all-American and a three-time all-Big Ten honoree. In 2006, she was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. As a senior in 2009, she led the team in goals (10) and defensive saves (four) and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

The Iowa Field Hockey team will feature a different look in 2010 with the addition of seven newcomers. The Hawkeyes return seven starters from last year's team and 10 letterwinners.

"We are going to have a high level of competition at every position," said Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum. "It is exciting to know that we have skilled players in every line. We have some holes to fill in our penalty corners due to graduation so that will be something we look to solidify right away in preseason. We will look to improve our game at a steady rate throughout the entire season."

Griesbaum is now in her 11th season at the helm of the storied program. She is joined by Associate Head Coach Lisa Cellucci, a former Hawkeye All-American, who is also in her 11th season. Caroline Nichols, a member of the U.S. National Team, is in her first season as a member of the coaching staff. Another former Hawkeye All-American and current U.S. National Team member, Lauren Pfeiffer, returns for her second season as the volunteer assistant coach. In addition, Meghan Beamesderfer, an All-American in 2009, will serve as undergraduate student assistant coach this fall. Gabby Quiggle is the team's strength and conditioning coach.

"I am thrilled to have such a talented, energetic and loyal coaching staff," said Griesbaum. "Lisa returns for her 11th season as a member of the coaching staff. Lisa is in the upper echelon of goalkeeping coaches in the country. She was an All-American goalkeeper for the Hawkeyes and we are fortunate to have her expertise and enthusiasm. Caroline is the newest member of the Hawkeyes. Caroline is a stellar defender on the National Team. She will be actively involved in technical and tactical development of the team. Lauren will once again be our volunteer assistant coach. She will be in her second year on the sidelines after leading the 2008 Hawkeyes to the Final Four. Meghan will be the undergraduate student assistant as she finishes up her last semester before graduation. She is coming off a great senior campaign, earning Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and All-American honors."

FORWARDS

"We are looking to improve our offensive production and we have to start by discussing the players who will be directly responsible for scoring goals," said Griesbaum. "Rebecca Spengler and Sarah Drake will be returning to the forward line. Becca has a strong understanding of our defensive schemes and we will be looking to her for leadership on and off the field. Sarah is a feisty player. She will bring intensity and grit to our style of play."

Spengler, a team captain, and Drake will be the leaders on the front line. Spengler, a junior, has started 30 career games and her experience will be relied upon. Drake was outstanding in 2009, finishing third on the team with eight goals. The sophomore was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice a year ago.

"Joining them on the forward line will be Hailey Chadbourne, and freshmen Kelsey Mitchell and Kim Scraper," added Griesbaum. "Kelsey has great possession and elimination skills. Kim is a dynamic player in the open field and they both have the ability to draw penalty corners and score goals."

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Chadbourne, a sophomore, saw action in 10 games in 2009. Mitchell, who holds the high school record for career goals in the state of New Jersey (171), and Scraper, will add depth to the forward position.

MIDFIELDERS

"Sarah Pergine will be a solid presence in our midfield," said Griesbaum. "Sarah has the most experience on the team and she will have the job of controlling the tempo of the game as well as keeping the field organized at all times. Geena Lesiak will contribute to our offensive production from both the forward and midfield line. Sarah and Geena have good field sense and will help with our overall production. Marike Stribos comes to the Hawkeyes with a lot of high level hockey experience. She is most comfortable playing in the midfield but her skill set will be valuable anywhere on the field. Aubrey Coleman will also be able to challenge for a spot in the midfield."

Pergine, a senior co-captain, owns the most experience of any Hawkeye returnee. She has started 36 career games and was a member of the 2008 Hawkeye team that advanced to the NCAA Final Four. Lesiak started 17 games as a freshman in 2009 and recorded four goals. They will be joined by freshmen Marike Stribos and Aubrey Coleman.

BACKS

"Jessica Barnett and Chelsea Miller are our returning back field players," said Griesbaum. "They will be called upon to make stops and initiate our attack. Sarah Pedrick is another returner who will add to our effectiveness. Niki Schultheis, Dani Peirson, Aubrey Coleman, and Karli Johansen also possess outstanding skills that will be beneficial in our backfield."

Senior Chelsea Miller, a team co-captain, returns for her final season with the Black and Gold. Miller has appeared in 40 career games and was a member of the Hawkeye team that advanced to the 2008 NCAA Final Four. Barnett had an outstanding freshman campaign, starting all 19 games. She was a main contributor on Iowa's defensive penalty corner unit. Pedrick saw action in three contests as a freshman. This trio will be joined by freshmen Niki Schultheis, Dani Peirson, Aubrey Coleman and Karli Johansen.

GOALKEEPERS

"Kathleen 'Merty' McGraw is returning with the most experience in goal," said Griesbaum. "Merty is a powerful athlete and her skills are steadily improving. Kelsey Boyce is also a returner with some experience. As always, the goalkeeping position is the heart, soul, and mind of the defense. Merty and Kelsey will lead our defensive unit on a daily basis."

McGraw started 16 games as a freshman in 2009, including each Hawkeye victory. She ranked fifth in the Big Ten with 67 saves and third with two shutouts. Boyce saw action in one contest and did not allow a goal.

WHY IOWA?

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

"When deciding on a college I had a checklist of qualities that I was looking for in a school. I wanted a school that had reputable science and math programs and had the option to do graduate work in the physical therapy field. I also wanted a school with a field hockey program that had dedicated coaches who love what they do, a team that was more like a family than a team, and lastly a program that was dedicated to helping me grow as a field hockey player and also as a person. When I came to The University of Iowa all the pieces of this puzzle seemed to fall right into place. The University of Iowa seemed like a home away from home, and the field hockey team seemed to be a family away from my family. Attending the University of Iowa and being a part of the field hockey team has been one of the biggest blessings of my life."

Becca Spengler
Junior - Phoenixville, PA

"After visiting the University of Iowa, choosing a college was not a very hard decision to make. The atmosphere of this University is unlike any other. On my second visit to the school, walking onto Melrose Avenue before a football game in a sea of black and gold was unbelievable. The fan-base and the school spirit are incredible at not only the football games, but at every other event on campus, including field hockey games. The field hockey program here is very unique. The tradition, the pride, the work ethic, and the unity behind the team and the coaches is unmatched. The coaches challenge us to be better every day not only on the field, but in the classroom as well. Being a student before being an athlete is extremely important to our program, and the athletic staff makes sure we have every resource we could ever need to succeed in our academics."

Sarah Pedrick

"The moment I stepped on the University of Iowa campus I realized that Iowa was the place where I belonged. The University in its entirety rings with the feeling of great pride and integrity, from the buildings to the students, and that feeling is contagious. The team and coaches share this feeling as they support each other and work toward common goals, not merely as a group of people, but as a family who realize that they must work together in order to achieve great things. I am honored to have the opportunity to become a part of this Hawkeye tradition, as these hardworking student-athletes continue to support and encourage each other to meet the goals set for the classroom, the field and in life."

Hailey Chadbourne
Sophomore - Pittston, ME

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

"I chose the University of Iowa because I wanted to be a HAWKEYE. But that's not all, of course. While on my first visit to Iowa City I couldn't help but be impressed with the amount of pride and excitement that filled this town in Iowa. Varsity athletics and their athletes were truly appreciated and taken particularly seriously. I knew the field hockey program would also share that respect. I chose the University of Iowa field hockey program because I wanted to be challenged physically. I wanted to leave my college experience being the best possible athlete I could be. And I knew I would also be challenged academically. With Iowa's nationally recognized medical and creative writing programs I felt comfortable that whatever field I decided to study I would come out educated. And as my Dad always told me, 'Go big or go home, Drake!' I went big."

Sarah Drake

"When making the decision of which university would be the best fit for me, I knew that I wanted to be a part of a team that had tremendous pride in their program. The University of Iowa field hockey team not only has that, but they hold themselves to a higher standard than most of the other teams out there. Each person on the team is challenged to make a greater individual commitment for the betterment of the team, and the competitiveness that can be found at Iowa is unlike any other program that I have seen. Iowa provides the environment for a student-athlete not only to grow and progress within their sport, but as a person as well."

Sarah Pergine
Senior - Collegeville, PA

"My commitment to play division one field hockey was an all or nothing decision. I knew that if I was going to dedicate a large sum of time to collegiate athletics I was going to pick a program that would allow me to reach my greatest potential as both an athlete and a student. Initially, Iowa Field Hockey's tradition of success both in the Big Ten and the NCAA caught my eye as a prospective student-athlete. However, after learning more about University of Iowa and its pride and respect for women's athletics it was clear that Iowa was where I would spend my next four years. The state-of-the-art training facilities coupled with nationally respected academic curriculum makes Iowa an exemplary place to be a collegiate athlete."

Kathleen McGraw

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

The 2009 season marked the fifth year the Hawkeyes have played on the new Grant Field. Grant Field is one of the finest facilities in the nation with a state-of-the-art playing surface, permanent grandstand, concessions, rest rooms and a press box.

Whether playing on the new Grant Field, or on the original facility that was introduced in 1989, opponents have usually left Iowa City unhappy.

The Hawkeyes own an overall home record of 125-37, a conference record of 57-19 at home and an 11-2 record in NCAA Tournament games played in Iowa City.

Originally named the Hawkeye Field Hockey Field, the facility was renamed in honor of former University of Iowa Women's Athletics Director and founder of Iowa Field Hockey Dr. Christine Grant on Sept. 22, 1991. The new field was re-dedicated on Oct. 8, 2006.

The Hawkeyes set a home attendance record Oct. 24, 1993 with 1,339 fans watching Iowa defeat No. 4 Penn State, 4-0.

Iowa has gone undefeated on its home field in six separate seasons, including a 40-game home winning streak.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

When people think of collegiate field hockey, their thoughts primarily go out east, where Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East schools are often seen as national powerhouses.

The Big Ten though has quickly become one of the premier field hockey conferences in the nation.

In the 26 years the conference has sponsored field hockey, Big Ten schools have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 71 times. The Iowa Hawkeyes lead the conference with 20 appearances, including three of the last four years.

Last season, Ohio State, Indiana and Michigan State represented the conference in the national tournament field of 16 teams. It represented the tenth time in the last 11 years that the conference has had at least three or more representatives. In 2008, Iowa, Michigan State and Penn State all made the tournament. The Nittany Lions fell to Princeton in the first round. Michigan State defeated defending national champion North Carolina in the first round before falling to Iowa in the second. The Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Semifinals before falling to eventual champion Maryland.

In 2007, Iowa, Penn State, Michigan and Michigan State all advanced to the tournament. Penn State fell to North Carolina in the national championship game. The Hawkeyes were defeated in double overtime against Boston during the first round.

In 2004, Michigan State reached the Final Four, making it the fourth consecutive year the Big Ten has sent a team to the Final Four. The league record for consecutive years in the National Semifinals is eight, when either Iowa or Northwestern reached the Final Four every year from 1983-1990.

In 2003, Michigan advanced to the Final Four for the third time in school history.

In 2002, the Big Ten had a pair of teams in the Final Four for the second-consecutive year when Michigan State and Penn State each won regional tournaments. The Nittany Lions advanced to the championship game and were the national runner-up.

In 2001, the Big Ten ended the year with five of its seven teams ranked in the top 20 by the NFHCA. Both Michigan and Michigan State represented the conference in the Final Four. The Wolverines went on to become the second Big Ten School to win the National Championship. Iowa was the first in 1986.

The Big Ten has been represented in the Final Four 22 times. The Hawkeyes lead the Big Ten Conference schools with 11 Final Four appearances.

Individually, the Big Ten produces some of the top field hockey players in the nation. In the last six seasons, the conference has produced 57

NFHCA All-Americans, 20 of which were on the first team.

The Big Ten Conference began sponsoring field hockey in 1981 with a conference tournament, then began full league play in 1982.

From 1989-91, five conference teams competed in the Midwest Collegiate Field Hockey Conference along with the Northern Illinois Huskies. But when Penn State joined up with the Big Ten in 1991, the league resumed sponsoring a conference season.

In conference play, each team plays each other once, with the season ending with the Big Ten Tournament. The site of the Big Ten Tournament is determined on a rotating basis. The 2010 championship will be held in Evanston, IL.

The Big Ten Network is the first internationally distributed television network dedicated to covering one of America's premier collegiate conferences. Considered to be one of the most successful launches in cable television history, the Big Ten Network became the first network in cable or satellite television history to reach 30 million subscribers within its first 30 days on the air. With more than 350 live sports events, and virtually all of them in high definition, the Big Ten Network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country.

The network is available up to an estimated 75 million households, and in all 50 states and Canada through agreements with more than 300 cable, satellite and telco affiliates. Customers of DIRECTV and DISH Network, have access to the network regardless of where they live, while Verizon and AT&T continue to roll out their FiOS and U-Verse services across the country. On cable, the network is available in 19 of the nation's 20 largest media markets. To get the channel number specific to your area and provider, visit <http://www.bigtennetwork.com/channelfinder>.

The network operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, showcasing a wide array of classic-to-current sports and televising more Olympic sporting events and women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network.

The Hawkeyes have been televised nine times over the last two seasons, three times by the network in 2009 and six times in 2008. The Big Ten Tournament semifinals and finals are televised each year.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Gary Barta Director of Athletics

"Hope is not a strategy," is a common refrain of the University of Iowa's Gary Barta. So, as Barta enters his fifth year as the UI's director of intercollegiate athletics – and his 24th year in athletics administration – he does so diligently working a plan that contributed to historic success for the Iowa Hawkeyes in 2009-10 and is setting the stage for more of the same in the years ahead.

Competitively, two events stand alone at the top of the list of achievements by UI teams in 2009-10: Iowa's dominating victory over Georgia

Tech in the 2010 FedEx Orange Bowl and yet another national championship for the UI wrestling program.

The victory over the Yellow Jackets in Land Shark Stadium in Miami was Iowa's 11th of the college football season and its first in a Bowl Championship Series event since the Hawkeyes' victory over California in the 1959 Rose Bowl. It was the final chapter in a season that opened with a school-record nine straight victories by Kirk Ferentz's squad, a streak that electrified fans of the Hawkeyes and triggered another pilgrimage of fans of the team to their second BCS appearance under Ferentz.

Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad crowned three national champions and eight Hawkeyes earned all-America honors while leading the UI to its 23rd NCAA title in school history. The championship was the third straight under Brands and it came rather handily – Iowa finished 44.5 points ahead of its nearest competitor – and, as more often than not – after yet another Big Ten Conference championship.

As inspiring as the achievements of Iowa's football and wrestling teams were, they weren't the alone. Iowa's women's basketball team overcame a series of injuries to secure 20 victories, reach the championship game of the post-season Big Ten Tournament, and advance to NCAA Tournament play for the third straight year.

The Iowa men's golf team used a second place finish at the 2010 Big Ten Conference Championship to secure an at-large invitation to NCAA Regional play where it finished tied for sixth and just one stroke shy of its second straight appearance in the national championship.

First-year coach Katie Dougherty guided the UI's women's tennis team to its first NCAA post-season action since 2006. The squad was powered by the nationally-ranked doubles team of Merel Beelen and Sonja Molnar.

The Iowa baseball team won seven of its last eight regular season league games to advance to the Big Ten Tournament when the Hawkeyes marched to the championship game for the first time since the 1983 season.

The Iowa men's track and field team advanced 32 athletes to NCAA post-season competition after a fourth-place finish by the men's squad at the Big Ten Championships. That finish was the Hawkeyes' best since 2006 and was sparked by three individual champions.

Barta and the UI Athletics Department also enjoyed historic success out of competition including, most notably, significant improvements to the facilities used by the more than 700 student-athletes who represent the UI in intercollegiate athletics competition.

In September 2009, the University of Iowa and the UI Athletics Department dedicated the $7 million P. Sue Beckwith, M.D. Boathouse, a 20,000-square-foot facility built right on the bank of the Iowa River off of Dubuque Street in Terrill Mill Park.

In November 2009, the UI broke ground on a multi-million dollar addition and renovation of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, the 28-year-old competitive home of the Hawkeye men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs. The Carver-Hawkeye Arena Revitalization Project will greatly improve the practice, strength training, and conditioning facilities for a myriad of sports programs in addition to providing new office space for the vast majority of Iowa's administrative and coaching staffs in addition to new locker room and support facilities for Iowa's men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball teams.

In fall 2010, Barta will join the campus community in celebrating the opening of the $69 million Campus Wellness and Recreation Center. The facility will provide unparalleled recreational opportunity for UI students, faculty and staff, and the greater Iowa City community in addition to being the new full-time home of the UI's men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

The UI also expects to break ground on an addition to the facilities used by the Iowa football program during the 2010-11 year. Funded entirely through private support, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football. The project will include the construction of a new indoor practice facility, upgraded and improved locker rooms, team rooms, strength and conditioning facilities, and spaces used for the day-to-day operation of the UI's football program. The construction of the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility – a facility envied by many collegiate programs and NFL franchises – and the $89 million renovation of historic Kinnick Stadium were phases 1 and 2 of the master plan.

While Iowa continues to move the facilities it makes available to student-athletes forward, the UI's commitment to the academic piece of the student-athlete experience remains paramount – and successful.

According to information released annually by the NCAA, the graduation rate for student-athletes who enrolled at the University of Iowa in the fall of the 2002-03 academic year was 70 percent, six percentage points better than the national average and two points better than a year ago. The graduation rate for UI student-athletes was also four percentage points better than the rate for all UI students.

The football program at the UI – with a Graduation Success Rate of 74 – ranked second only to Cincinnati among the ten teams invited to participate in the five 2010 Bowl Championship Series events. Iowa also ranked third among the seven bowl-bound Big Ten Conference teams.

The UI's field hockey, softball and men's cross country teams were among the NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics programs singled out by the NCAA for Academic Progress Reports (APR) in the top 10 percent of all teams in their specific sport. In fact, for the second straight year all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the NCAA's APR benchmark and compared favorably to their peers in the Big Ten and nationally.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends well beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the cabinet comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provides counsel to UI President Sally Mason.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as well. During his first four years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's post-season bowl game agreements that go into effect this college football season.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external affairs division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA national championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (12) and a daughter, Madison (10). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis, MN.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2009-10.

Thirty-seven Hawkeyes earned all-conference accolades, while 15 were recognized as all-Americans. Hawkeye student-athletes excelled in the classroom, as well with 178 earning academic all-Big Ten laurels. The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students.

Paced by its men's cross country and field hockey teams -- each with perfect APR scores of 1,000 for the second straight year -- all 24 of Iowa's intercollegiate athletics programs achieved at a rate that surpasses the national benchmark established by the NCAA. Iowa's men's tennis, women's golf, women's tennis and volleyball all ranked in the upper 90 percent of its peers.

The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best across the country.

While the Hawkeyes compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa boasts some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects are underway on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus include the completion of the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, which houses the swimming and diving teams, and the state-of-the-art $7 rowing boathouse. In addition to the brand new swimming and rowing facilities, the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center completed construction in recent years. Furthermore, the UI is in the middle of a $43 million

The 2010 Iowa Hawkeye wrestling team won its 23rd NCAA championship along with its 34th Big Ten title. Iowa crowned eight all-Americans en route to its third-straight national and league championships.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovation project that is expected to be completed the summer of 2011.

Kinnick Stadium received a major up-grading and renovation that was completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and new rest rooms were also part of the project.

Iowa athletes have been recognized as all-

The Iowa women's basketball team finished runner-up at the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament last season.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

The Iowa football team boasted an 11-2 record a year ago, was ranked as high as fourth nationally, and recorded a dominating 24-14 Orange Bowl victory over Georgia Tech.

Americans in their sport on 268 occasions during the past 18 years, including 15 this past season.

During the 2009-10 athletic year, the Hawkeyes continued their trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits. Below are some examples of recent Hawkeye success.

The Hawkeye wrestling team continued its dominance on the mat claiming its 23rd and third-straight NCAA national championship and its 34th and third-straight Big Ten title. Ten Hawkeyes earned all-American laurels en route to the team championship. Tom Brands was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Matt McDonough was honored as the league's top freshman.

Iowa football continued its stellar play, winning 11 of its 13 games in 2009, and earned a national ranking as high as fourth. The year culminated with a dominating 24-14 performance over Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl. The return trip to Miami marked Iowa's sixth January bowl game in eight years. Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Bryan Bulaga was honored as the conference's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

Iowa's field hockey team has won the Big Ten Tournament championship three of the last four years and finished third nationally, advancing all the way to the Final Four in 2008. A total of 39 Hawkeyes have garnered all-Big Ten accolades under Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum.

The Hawkeye baseball team surged last season, winning 11 of its last 14 games to finish third in the Big Ten and earn runner-up honors in the conference tournament. Three Hawkeyes and two incoming recruits were drafted in the Major League Draft following the season.

The women's basketball team had another outstanding season, finishing third in the league, earning runner-up honors at the Big Ten Tournament and advancing to the NCAA Second Round. Lisa Bluder, who was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time, coached Kachine Alexander to honorable mention all-America status and Jamie Printy to Big Ten Freshman of the Year laurels.

Under first-year Head Coach Katie Dougherty, the women's tennis team ascended in the national rankings to 18th and earned a NCAA Tournament berth. Also, Iowa's doubles team of Sonja Molnar and Merel Beelen ranked 14th nationally competed in the national tournament at the end of the year. Molnar is a two-time all-Big Ten performer and was tabbed the league's Freshman of the Year in 2009.

Head Coach Mark Hankins continued to have his men's golfers play at a high level. The Hawkeyes finished second, only three strokes from first, at the Big Ten Championships and was only one stroke from advancing to its second-straight NCAA Championships when it placed sixth at Regionals this past spring.

The aforementioned list of team and individual accomplishments are just a sampling of the recent excellence achieved in Iowa City.

Whether it's the top-notch athletic or academic performances, the outstanding community and fan support or the impressive facilities, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."

Since its inception in 1979, Athletics Student Services has evolved from a two-person, academic support service to a broad-based, nationally prominent student support services operation. Its purpose is to offer academic and personal support services that will assist student-athletes in making timely progress toward their degrees while preparing to become tomorrow's leaders. Athletics Student Services focuses on four important areas - academic counseling and monitoring, educational and support programs, retention programs and compliance education and services - when working with student-athletes. Following are descriptions of some of the programs, services and opportunities available in those areas.

Gerdin Athletics Learning Center

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to support their educational goals. The Athletics Learning Center is a 20,000 square foot facility which provides a computer lab, study lounges, seminar and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes. The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes with 28 study carrels, a computer lab, tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, offices for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic and athletic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

Academic Counseling & Monitoring

Athletics coordinators work closely with student-athletes and their university-assigned advisors from the time they arrive on campus until the time they leave the University. Along with focusing on academic planning matters such as goal-setting, plans of study, choosing majors and degree requirements, athletics coordinators also help student-athletes understand NCAA, Big Ten and University academic policies. They also solicit feedback from instructors on academic progress made by student-athletes.

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in August of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to support their educational goals.

Career Guidance & Development

Planning a meaningful career and a fulfilling life is an ongoing process of expanding and narrowing choices, beginning when student-athletes arrive on campus and continuing throughout their college career and lifetime. The professional staff works with other career development professionals on campus to offer individual consultation, career development seminars, workshops, referrals to other campus offices and special events like the Senior Recognition Banquet for graduating student-athletes.

Educational Programs

A full menu of educational programs are offered to student-athletes to ensure their academic success and personal development as they grow from Today's Hawkeyes to Tomorrow's Leaders. Through collaboration with other University of Iowa student services offices, and in partnership with the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, programs address such quality of life issues as alcohol safety, healthy lifestyles, tolerance and respect, career development, professional conduct and leadership development.

Retention

Through the retention program student-athletes, who may need tailored academic assistance and structure, are identified and receive individualized learning plans to help them succeed. Such plans may include daily and weekly planning sessions with athletics coordinators and retention staff, tutoring, study groups, mainstreaming into on-campus services like the writing center, math labs and services for students with learning disabilities.

Transition Seminar

All new student-athletes attend an eight-week transition seminar during the fall semester that is geared toward helping them make the transition from high school to college successfully. Seminar topics include time management skills, learning and study strategies, the culture and rules of the university and Division I Big Ten intercollegiate athletics, and personal leadership and life skills concerning alcohol safety, healthy relationships and intimacy, diversity and inclusion, tolerance, values and character.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Located near the Hillcrest, Slater, Quadrangle and Reinow residence halls, the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center is easily accessible to Hawkeye student-athletes. Some of the facility's features include a large computer lab, areas for group and independent study, and meeting rooms.

Minority Enrichment Program

This program offers a culturally supportive environment in which minority student-athletes develop friendships and a support network in the university. A core focus group of students and staff coordinate programs such as guest speakers, holiday celebrations, community service activities with the local neighborhood centers, events with Cultural Centers and networking with minority faculty, staff, professional and business leaders.

Leadership Development through Iowa SAAC

Through the Iowa SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee), student-athlete representatives selected by their coaches and teammates represent the interests and concerns of their teams to Athletics Administrators. They meet regularly to plan community service, personal development, career education and social programs advised and supported by Athletics Student Services staff. They are consulted about emerging department policies and NCAA proposed legislation. SAAC representatives learn about and participate in the athletics governance structure by serving on department advisory committees.

Tutoring

Tutoring is available free of charge to all student-athletes. Tutors, who are graduate and professional students, current and former teachers, help with course content as well as study strategies and are available in virtually all general education program subjects.

Compliance Education and Services

Athletics Student Services administers a comprehensive compliance program to ensure that all staff and student-athletes act in accordance with NCAA, Big Ten Conference and University of Iowa regulations. Staff members oversee and assist with the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. They monitor the continuing eligibility of student-athletes. They oversee and administer student-athlete financial aid. They conduct rules education programs for coaches, staff, student-athletes and boosters. They monitor staff and student-athlete behavior to ensure conformity with the NCAA, Big Ten Conference, University of Iowa and Athletic Department policies and rules.

When student-athletes consider their future, they should consider prospects beyond athletics. A list of all University of Iowa alumni who have distinguished themselves professionally would be difficult to assemble and could never be complete. However, some are truly outstanding in their area of expertise.

Athletic Training & Sports Medicine

Continuing to set the standard in athletic training and Sports Medicine Service, The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with exemplary medical care. Athletic Training Services is the largest component of the University of Iowa Sports Medicine program. UI Sports Medicine is a multidisciplinary healthcare team housed within the UI Sports Medicine Center, as part of University Hospitals & Clinics (UIHC), striving to provide exemplary everyday care for all student-athletes. The team consists of Athletic Training, Orthopaedics, Primary Care, Physician Assistants, Radiology, Physical Therapy, and Nursing. In addition, Athletic Training Services connect student-athletes to UIHC resources and specialty areas. Iowa's staff of 12 full-time licensed athletic trainers and six graduate assistant licensed athletic trainers provide health care services within four athletic training rooms and other ancillary facilities, involving injury rehabilitation and prevention programs among other health care services. When injuries and illness occur Iowa's athletic trainers provide treatment and rehabilitation programs to facilitate appropriate return to participation.

Services from the UIHC, among the world's largest university-owned teaching hospitals, support the efforts of the athletic trainers and other specialty sports medicine staff. Located next to Kinnick Stadium, the hospital offers a cutting-edge environment where staff physicians, sports medicine fellows, sports physical therapists, and athletic trainers care for student-athletes and produce successful outcomes. Dedicated research and education result in outstanding care. In October 2009, the Institute for Orthopaedics, Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation (IOSMR) opened to further enhance the care for student athletes. This new facility houses the UI Sports Medicine Center.

Athletic trainers form a team with orthopaedic and primary care physicians for every Hawkeye sport. Many of the physicians are fellowship trained in their specialty area and lecture locally, nationally, and around the world. In addition, each athlete has access to orthodontists, nutritionists, psychologists, and specialty physicians at the UIHC. Priority access to see physicians and other health care professionals provides expertise for comprehensive health care that returns the student-athlete to practice and competition promptly and safely.

The Hawkeye Strength Training Program

The University of Iowa Strength and Conditioning Department is committed to providing the ultimate training experience for each Hawkeye student-athlete. Our focus is the development of the complete student-athlete through the use of proven scientific methods for reducing the risk of injury, as well as maximizing each student-athletes' athletic potential. Equally as important, our staff will foster a culture of relationship building in which we will seek to enhance the intangible character traits required for each Hawkeye to reach his or her championship potential on and off the playing stage.

Strength & Conditioning Philosophy

The philosophy of this program consists of two components. The first is to continually develop a scientifically sound program that will maximize strength, power and explosiveness in order to allow the athlete to get the utmost out of their genetic potential, and to reduce the chance of injury. This will primarily be accomplished through the use of ground based free weight exercises and the progressive incorporation of functional movements and plyometrics. The second is to establish a culture which will develop the discipline, character and mental toughness within each student-athlete and team as a whole so that they are able to make sacrifices in their training, leave their comfort zone and develop a Championship ATTITUDE. This will encourage them to make the most out of every situation and opportunity given to them in athletics and academics, so that they might know what it is to be fully committed to something. When these two converge, they are not only able to reach their full potential; they become champions on and off the playing field.

The Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Complex Athletic Training Room has excellent facilities to conduct evaluations, treatments, and rehabilitation for the student-athlete.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

An Exceptional Choice

Since 1847, The University of Iowa has distinguished itself as a leader among public universities. Today its programs in health, business, engineering, education, law, the arts, communications, and the sciences are known worldwide for their excellence and innovation.

Outstanding Academic Opportunities

Iowa offers degrees in 11 colleges: Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Liberal Arts and Sciences, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health, and the Graduate College. Undergraduates can choose from more than 100 areas of study.

A Fun Place to Call Home

Iowa City is a classic university town where learning and creating truly matter. The city blends the vibrant University campus and the natural beauty of the Iowa River with nearby shopping, entertainment, and residential areas.

Commanding Resources

The University operates one of the largest research library systems in the country. Iowa equips its classrooms and laboratories with the latest in computer technology. Students benefit from this technology-rich environment coupled with the high personal attention of University faculty and staff. Visit the University's web site at www.uiowa.edu to about its multifaceted education, research and service programs.

More Than a Taste of the Arts

Although temporarily displaced from their buildings by a summer 2008 flood, Hancher Auditorium and the UI Museum of Art continue to offer performances, exhibits and special events in alternate venues. Premier works of art are displayed in most University buildings and plazas throughout campus. Students may participate in theater, music, and dance groups.

Time and Space to Play

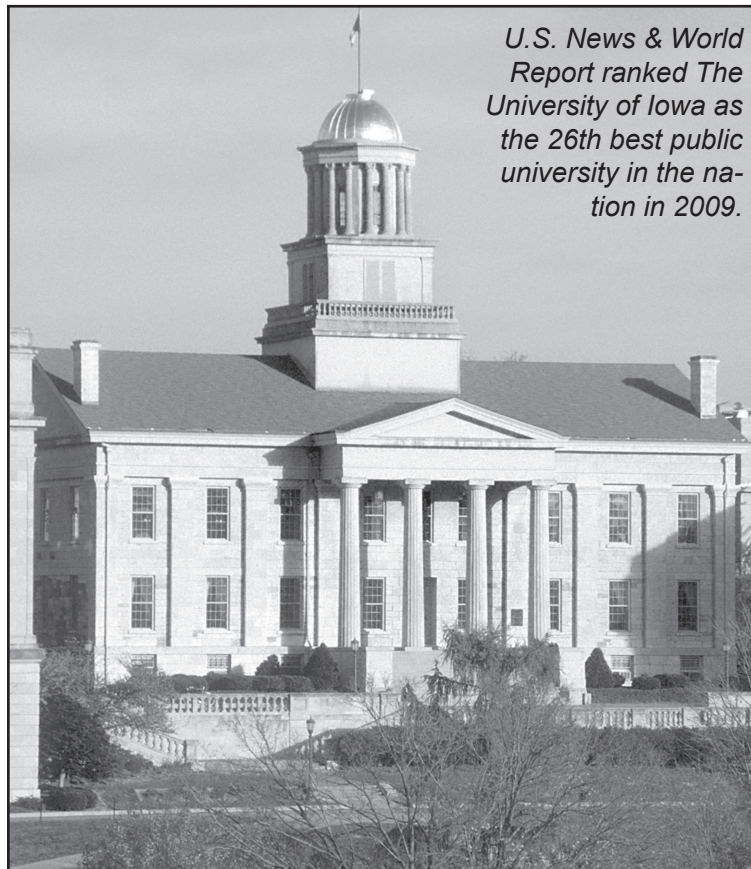

Every year about 90 percent of Iowa's students make use of the University's recreational facilities. Each season offers a full schedule of intramural and club sports, ranging from rugby, tennis, and golf to volleyball, soccer, and swimming. Individual workouts are a part of many students' daily routines. Students also make use of campus walking and running trails, bikeways, ski trails, golf courses, and canoe and sailboat rentals to relax and enjoy leisure time.

What Distinguishes an Iowa Education?

Success. Iowa's philosophy is that if students meet the entrance requirements, the University is going to do everything it can to help students to graduate. An Iowa degree spells success in the job market, giving students the skills to continue learning and growing throughout their careers. Excellence. The faculty is stellar. Students are amazed not only at how much they know but at how enthused they are about sharing that knowledge and getting students excited about their subject.

Comfortable class sizes

Attending a large university does not necessarily mean having large class sizes. More than 30,000 students are enrolled at Iowa, but the UI has a student-to-faculty ratio of 15:1. Large lecture halls host a few of the most popular undergraduate courses, with several hundred students in attendance. However, most lectures are complemented by classroom discussions among smaller groups. Altogether, 92 percent of undergraduate classes have fewer than 50 students in them; 80 percent have fewer than 30 students. Less than 4 percent of undergraduate classes have more than 100 students in them.

U.S. News & World Report ranked The University of Iowa as the 26th best public university in the nation in 2009.

The Colleges

Most freshmen who enroll at The University of Iowa are admitted to either the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences or the College of Engineering. The General Education Program allows students to sample courses in more than 100 areas of study. At Iowa, students are required to take electives, major courses, and general education course work.

Liberal Arts & Sciences

Undergraduate Degrees Offered - Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Science (BS) in 58 major fields; Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) in Music (BM) and of Liberal Studies (BLS). Admission - Freshmen and transfer students are to meet the college's admissions requirements.

Engineering

Undergraduate Degrees Offered - Bachelor of Science in Engineering (BSE) in six majors- biomedical, chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, and mechanical engineering. Admission - Students must meet the college's high admissions requirements.

Business

Undergraduate Degrees Offered - Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) in six majors: accounting, economics, finance, management, management information systems, and marketing. Admission - Usually requires two years of pre-business study in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. Details at www.biz.uiowa.edu/upo/admissions/.

Education

Teacher Education Programs - Elementary Education, Art Education, English Education, Foreign Language Education, Mathematics Education, Music Education, Science Education, and Social Studies Education. Additional teaching minors in Coaching, ESL (English as a Second Language), Hearing Impaired, Journalism, and Talented and Gifted. Admission - Review all admission requirements and program guides at www.education.uiowa.edu/tess/

Nursing

Undergraduate Degrees Offered: Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN).

Admission: Students typically complete one year of pre-requisite courses in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and apply for admission during the second semester of the first year. The College of Nursing has competitive admission. The BSN requires three years of study once the student earns admission.

Pharmacy

Professional Degree Offered - Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD).

Admission - Students must successfully complete required pre-pharmacy course work in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. These requirements may be met in two years but do not guarantee admission. Students must also complete the Pharmacy College Admission Test (PCAT).

Graduate and Professional Degrees

Many student-athletes who have attended The University of Iowa and completed their undergraduate degrees continue their education at the University. Student-athletes who attend graduate or professional school must first complete course work toward a bachelor's degree in their field of study. The University also offers undergraduates the opportunity to participate in research and overseas study programs, as well as internships that will help prepare them for graduate school.

The Tippie School of Management's MBA program was recently ranked 20th best in the country by Forbes magazine.

Housing

Each athletics team has its own rules regarding residence of incoming freshmen. Across the University, about 90 percent of freshmen choose to live on campus in one of the 10 residence halls. Most student-athletes live at least two years on campus.

The residence halls have full-service dining rooms, study lounges, laundry facilities, recreational facilities, vending, and bank machines. Each room has high-speed computer connections for e-mail and Internet access, plus there are wireless networking hot spots in a variety of locations across campus. Iowa also offers wireless networking in 110 buildings and several outdoor areas, providing more than 2,000 access points across campus.

Safety

- 11:55 p.m. - 2:10 a.m.: Free SafeRide buses take students home Fridays and Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters.
- Public Safety offers Nite Ride, a safe means of late night transportation for women only. Nite Ride operates 10 p.m.-3 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
- Special telephones with blue lights are stationed across campus with a direct link to the UI Department of Public Safety.
- University of Iowa Police personnel educate students on safety during summer orientation.
- The Rape Victim Advocacy Program cooperates with the UI Department of Public Safety and participates in Sexual Crime Awareness Week.

Campus

There are six primary bus routes throughout the Iowa campus. The University Campus provides over three million free rides to class and to the dorms for students each year. Some routes run seven days a week, and some run until 2:30 a.m. Campus also operates a specialized transportation service for persons with disabilities.

Health Services

The University of Iowa provides the student-athlete with the most up-to-date and highest-quality medical care available. Students at Iowa can go to Student Health Service, which is open Monday through Friday. The service is supported by a fee paid by all full-time students. It offers students unlimited free office visits (there is a charge for other procedures done in the office, such as blood tests).

Libraries

The University of Iowa Libraries supports the academic achievement of all student-athletes with specialized courses, one-on-one consultations with librarians, 24/7 access to electronic resources through the web site (www.lib.uiowa.edu), and extended hours, which can accommodate complicated practice and travel schedules. UI Librarians help students find answers, whether they're on a web site, in a book, journal, government document, or database. Librarians also plan and teach students how to find, evaluate, and use information from a variety of sources--skills they will use throughout their lives.

Career Planning

Finding and pursuing a career takes careful planning. The Pomerantz Career Center is extremely valuable for student-athletes and can help identify skills that transfer from athletics to the workplace. The program suggests a timeline each student-athlete may follow throughout his or her stay at Iowa. The components of the program include:

- Individualized career advising
- Career education programs
- Summer job/internship opportunities
- Resume and cover letter development
- Preparing for life after college athletics

Computers

There are 26 Instructional Technology Centers all over the campus which are filled over 1,000 computers. These facilities are open at least 50 hours a week. Some are open 24 hours. Also, the Information Arcade in the Main Library provides a variety of specialized computing tools. The Computer Demo Center provides information for students who want to purchase computers and software.

Skills Labs & Support

Many academic departments offer skills labs to help students improve skills necessary to succeed at Iowa, such as writing, speaking, math, science, and foreign language. Assistance with skills such as note-taking, time-management, and test-taking are available through resources such as the College Transition Seminar (a credit-bearing course offered through University College), University Counseling Services, and Athletic Student Services staff.

Cultural Centers

Four cultural centers on campus provide a welcoming setting where students from various cultures can find cultural, academic, and personal support services: the Latino and Native American Cultural Center, the Afro American Cultural Center, the Asian Pacific American Cultural Center, and the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Resource and Education Center.

IOWA FIELD HOCKEY

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

As a place to live, Iowa City keeps winning awards and accolades - Named one of the 10 most enlightened towns in the country by Utne Reader, listed in the book The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America and selected the number-one place to live in the nation by Editor & Publisher magazine.

Economically, businesses such as Rockwell Collins, American College Testing and Procter & Gamble help keep the city booming. In Coralville, a branch office of Geico Auto Insurance has provided many residents with employment opportunities.

Culturally, Iowa City is alive with concerts, art exhibits, readings, plays and art events of all kinds. Located on the University of Iowa campus, Hancher Auditorium is a nationally-known performance center that brings in the best of Broadway, classical and jazz music, dance and other performances. The University of Iowa Theatre Arts department also produces a full schedule of plays each year, featuring the work of student performers and directors. So whether you enjoy the arts as a spectator or as an outlet for your own creativity, Iowa City has the opportunities.

Residents of Iowa City are not only economically and culturally enriched, they also take advantage of the numerous recreational facilities offered around town. The area's more than 30 parks provide opportunities for year-round activities including boating, hiking, swimming, fishing and skiing.

The city's greatest charm, however, remains the sincere friendliness of its citizens, the cosmopolitan atmosphere and the successful partnership built between the community and the University.

Iowa City is located in eastern Iowa and is an easy trip to such cities as Des Moines (the capital of Iowa), Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Minneapolis. Also, Cedar Rapids, a city of more than 150,000, is just a short drive north of Iowa City. The Eastern Iowa Airport, which links residents to every major airport in the Midwest, nation and world, is only 20 minutes away.

Old Capitol

One of the most recognizable sites in Iowa City is the gold dome of the Old Capitol which is situated in the heart of downtown. Built in 1840, it is Iowa City's most historic building. The Old Capitol was the site of the first governor inauguration as well as the first six Iowa General Assemblies. It is also where the state's Constitution was drafted. When the capital was moved to Des Moines in 1857, the Old Capitol was dedicated to The University of Iowa, becoming the first building owned by the University.

Coralville Lake

Just north of Iowa City is Coralville Lake, an outdoor recreational area that offers a variety of opportunities for the public. Coralville Lake offers picnic shelters, biking, hiking, fishing, boating, swimming, hunting, camping, snowmobiling, cross country skiing, golf and disc golf.

City Plaza

Located downtown and in walking distance of many of the University's dormitories is the City Plaza. It is a perfect place to sit outside and study or hang out with friends. During the fall, spring and summer months there are concerts and art festivals in the "Ped" Mall.

Coral Ridge Mall

The Coral Ridge Mall is a 1.2-million-square-foot shopping center located just minutes from campus. The center combines a mix of over 120 specialty shops and strong department stores including Dillards, JC Penney, Sears, Target and Younkers. Coral Ridge also offers entertainment features such as an NHL-regulation-sized indoor ice arena, state-of-the-art 10-screen movie theatre and a large carousel along with a 1,000-seat food court with sit-down restaurants. Specialty stores include Abercrombie & Fitch, Barnes & Noble, Gap, Old Navy, Scheels All Sports and Pier 1 Imports.

The Hawkeye Nickname

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.

School Colors

For 40 years Iowa was without school colors, but in 1887 a group of 50 seniors met on the steps of the Old Capitol to decide what are now the school official colors. They chose Old Gold, the color of Iowa's vast corn fields and Black, the color of the rich soil.

School Fight Song

The Iowa Fight Song was written in 1950 by Mason City, Iowa, native Meredith Willson. Best known as the creator of Broadway's "The Music Man," Willson was awarded a 1963 University of Iowa Alumni Association Distinguished Service Award for "setting the spirit of Iowa to music." The lively cheer is sung hundreds of times during Iowa athletics events the year around.

*The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Let every loyal Iowan sing;*

*The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the walls and rafters ring (Go Hawks!)
Come on and cheer, cheer, cheer for IOWA
Come on and cheer until you hear the final gun.
The word is Fight, Fight, Fight for IOWA
Until the game is won.*
