

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SEE THE WORLD

When the Hawkeyes travel they do so by charter flight, which allows for the safest and easiest travel possible to and from road games.

As a member of the basketball program at the University of Iowa, education often expands beyond the classroom to various parts of the United States and the world.

Over the years, the Iowa basketball team has visited Alaska, Australia, Hawaii, London, Paris, Hong Kong, San Juan, Puerto Rico, the French Riviera, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium, Amsterdam, England, the Great Wall of China, the Virgin Islands and other exciting parts of the world. This season, the Hawkeyes will spend the Thanksgiving holiday at the South Padre Island Invitational.

Every four years the Iowa basketball team is permitted to take an overseas exhibition trip during the summer. During the 2003 summer, members of the Iowa program traveled in Australia during a five-game, 10-day exhibition tour, visiting Sydney, Brisbane and Cairns. This summer the Iowa basketball program will again travel overseas on an exhibition tour.

Early last season the Hawkeyes took part in the Paradise Jam, an eight team event held in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Iowa started the 2005-06 season by competing in the Guardians Classic for the second time in five seasons. After winning two games on their home floor, the Hawkeyes advanced to the Final Four of the event that also included Kentucky, Texas and West Virginia. Iowa advanced to the title game with a win over ninth-ranked Kentucky before second-ranked Texas handed Iowa its first loss of the year in the title game.

The Hawkeye basketball team returned to Hawaii during the 2005 season, placing second in the EA Sports Maui Invitational. Facing a tournament field that included Louisville,

North Carolina, Stanford, Texas, Tennessee and Brigham Young, the Maui Invitational is one of the top tournaments of the year. The Hawkeyes defeated Louisville and Texas in the first two rounds before a loss to North Carolina, the eventual national champion, in the championship game.

Iowa took part in the Rainbow Classic in 2001, placing third in the eight team tournament in Honolulu, Hawaii. The Hawkeyes won the Maui Invitational in 1987, placed second in the Rainbow Classic in 1995 and also competed in the Maui Invitational in 1997.

Early in the 2002 season, Iowa placed second in the 16-team Guardians Classic, an exempt tournament sponsored by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Iowa defeated Memphis in the semi-finals before a one-point loss to Missouri in the championship game. All four teams which advanced to the semi-finals, played at Kemper Arena in Kansas City, were nationally ranked.

In 1999-2000, Iowa opened the season in the IKON Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, playing two games in Madison Square Garden in New York City, competing against Connecticut, Stanford and Duke. Iowa defeated Connecticut, the defending NCAA champion, in the first round before falling to Stanford in the championship game.

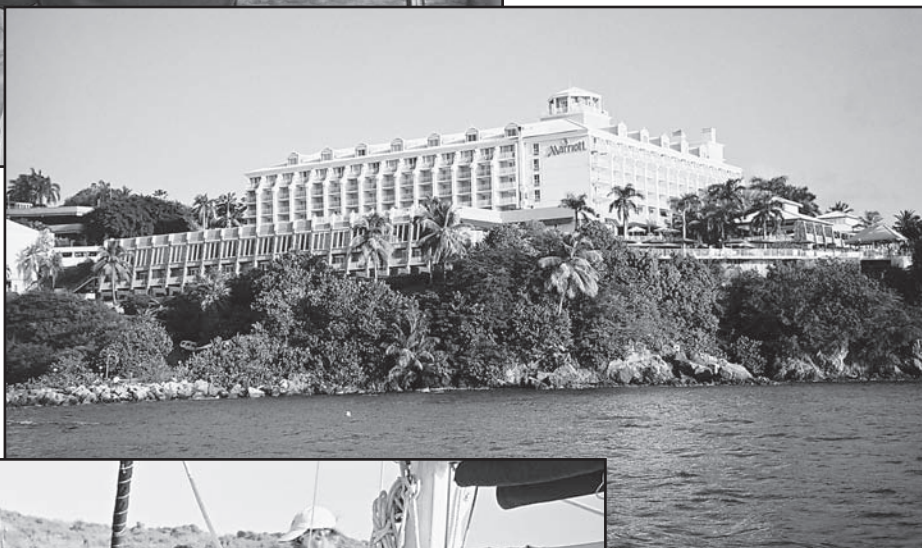

During the 1998 summer, the Hawkeyes spent nearly two weeks in England, playing games against professional clubs there. Yet, more than basketball was being played. The Hawkeyes were able to develop relationships and experience cultures that transcend beyond the basketball court.

IOWA BASKETBALL IN THE SPOTLIGHT

A large gathering of media representatives were on hand in Carver-Hawkeye Arena when Todd Lickliter was introduced as men's basketball coach at the University of Iowa.

The spotlight of media coverage follows the Iowa basketball team throughout the year.

With no professional sports teams in the state of Iowa, Hawkeye athletes are in the spotlight around the state and the Midwest. All Hawkeye games are covered by newspaper, radio and television outlets throughout the state, along with the exposure of having all games televised on regional and national telecasts.

Hawkeye basketball players learn to handle the exposure on almost a daily basis, improving their communication skills throughout their careers while dealing with the media throughout each season.

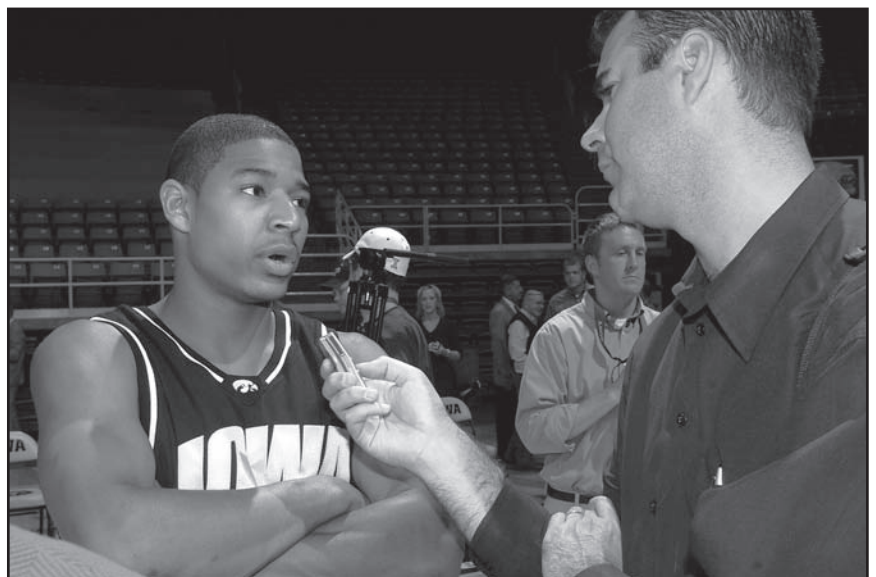

During the 2005-06 season, Iowa appeared on national television 13 times over the course of the season, including a back-to-back games on CBS in the semi-finals and championship game of the Big Ten Conference Tournament. A year ago, nearly one third of Iowa games were also on national television.

During the upcoming season, more than 30 Hawkeye basketball games will be televised. With the addition of the Big Ten Network, a national cable network, an unprecedented number of games will have national television coverage.

A year ago, 30 of 31 Hawkeye basketball games were televised.

The official web site of Iowa athletics is hawkeyesports.com, while information specific to the Iowa basketball program can be found at hawkeyebasketball.com.

With its inception in September, 1996, the University of Iowa athletic department was one of the first intercollegiate departments to develop a web site dedicated to athletics. The Iowa site includes information on all men's and women's athletic programs, ticket information, latest news releases and links that provide information concerning all aspects of the University of Iowa.

hawkeyesports.com has recently undergone a complete re-design of the entire site, including all pages associated with Hawkeye men's basketball. This re-design includes expansion of content in all forms, including editorial, photography, video and audio.

The University of Iowa athletic website ranks among the top 20 athletic websites in the nation, based on total traffic. Iowa's athletic website is maintained and updated by the UI Athletic Department and managed by CSTV. CSTV, part of CBS Corporation, is the leading digital sports media company, connecting more fans to more college sports in more ways that anyone else.

The hawkeyebasketball.com site has the following features:

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

During the course of the 2001-02 season, the Iowa basketball program selected, and honored, its all-Century basketball team. The 20-members of the team were brought to campus and recognized throughout a weekend of activities that put the final touches on season-long activities. All Iowa basketball lettermen were invited to gather in Iowa City for the weekend activities and more than 100 former players were able to attend the festivities.

In conjunction with the all-Century team, an all-Decade team of five players for each decade was also selected. The all-Century team was selected by fan balloting, and Iowa fans were also active in selecting the greatest games in Iowa basketball history.

IOWA SUMMER BASKETBALL CAMPS

Campers attending Iowa's most recent summer camps represented 25 states and five foreign countries. The Iowa basketball individual summer camps have been some of the most highly attended camps in the country.

Each summer, Iowa Coach Todd Lickliter and the Iowa basketball staff conduct youth basketball camps, on campus and around the state of Iowa. Along with the week-long day camps and overnight camps held on the University campus in Iowa City, the Iowa basketball program has also held day camps at different locations around the state.

The two sessions of the camps held on the Iowa campus each summer include the following:

- A camp staff that includes Coach Todd Lickliter, Iowa's assistant coaches and current and former Iowa Hawkeye players
- Four full-court games daily with players of similar abilities and age groups
- Special awards ceremony in Iowa's Carver-Hawkeye Arena
- Additional evening basketball clinics by Iowa camp staff on shooting, ball-handling and other fundamentals
- Free NIKE camp T-shirt
- Swimming, game room, racquetball, pizza, Hawk Shop and two feature movies each evening
- Daily lecture series committed to the total student-athlete, including the areas of academics, drugs and alcohol
- "Hustler of the Day" awards presented each day
- Individual and team trophies and awards

Information concerning any of the Iowa men's basketball camps is available on the UI website, hawkeyesports.com, or by contacting secretary Pam Culver at 1-800-IA-Hoops (424-6677).

Campers attending basketball camp at the University of Iowa have the opportunity to learn, watch and interact with members of the Iowa basketball staff and current and former Hawkeye players.

Former Hawkeye Jeff Horner, the Most Valuable Player in the 2006 Big Ten Conference Tournament, helps distribute awards at Iowa's annual summer basketball camp.

IOWA BASKETBALL- 2007-2008 OUTLOOK

The 2007-08 basketball season at the University of Iowa will feature a number of new faces, both on the court and on the sidelines, as Todd Lickliter and his staff take over leadership of the Hawkeye program.

Lickliter takes over as Iowa's head coach after leading the program at Butler University for six seasons. Lickliter posted a 131-61 (.682) mark with the Bulldogs, taking two teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. Butler posted a 29-7 overall record a year ago, setting a school record for total wins and conference wins.

Lickliter was named national Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches last season. The Bulldogs advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the second time under Lickliter, falling to eventual national champion Florida (65-57) after opening the NCAA Tournament with wins over Old Dominion and Maryland.

Lickliter's staff at Iowa includes a pair of former Butler University players, as LaVall Jordan and Joel Cornette, members of the Butler staff a year ago, have joined their college coach at Iowa. The third Hawkeye assistant, Chad Walthall, served as the head basketball coach at Loras College for the last seven seasons.

Along with a new staff, the Hawkeye roster includes three new faces, along with three returning starters and six lettermen from a team that posted a 17-14 overall record a year ago. Iowa tied for fourth place in the Big Ten Conference last season with a 9-7 record. Iowa has posted seven straight winning seasons, matching the longest streak in school history. The Hawkeyes won 25 games and the Big Ten Conference post-season tournament in 2006 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in both 2005 and 2006.

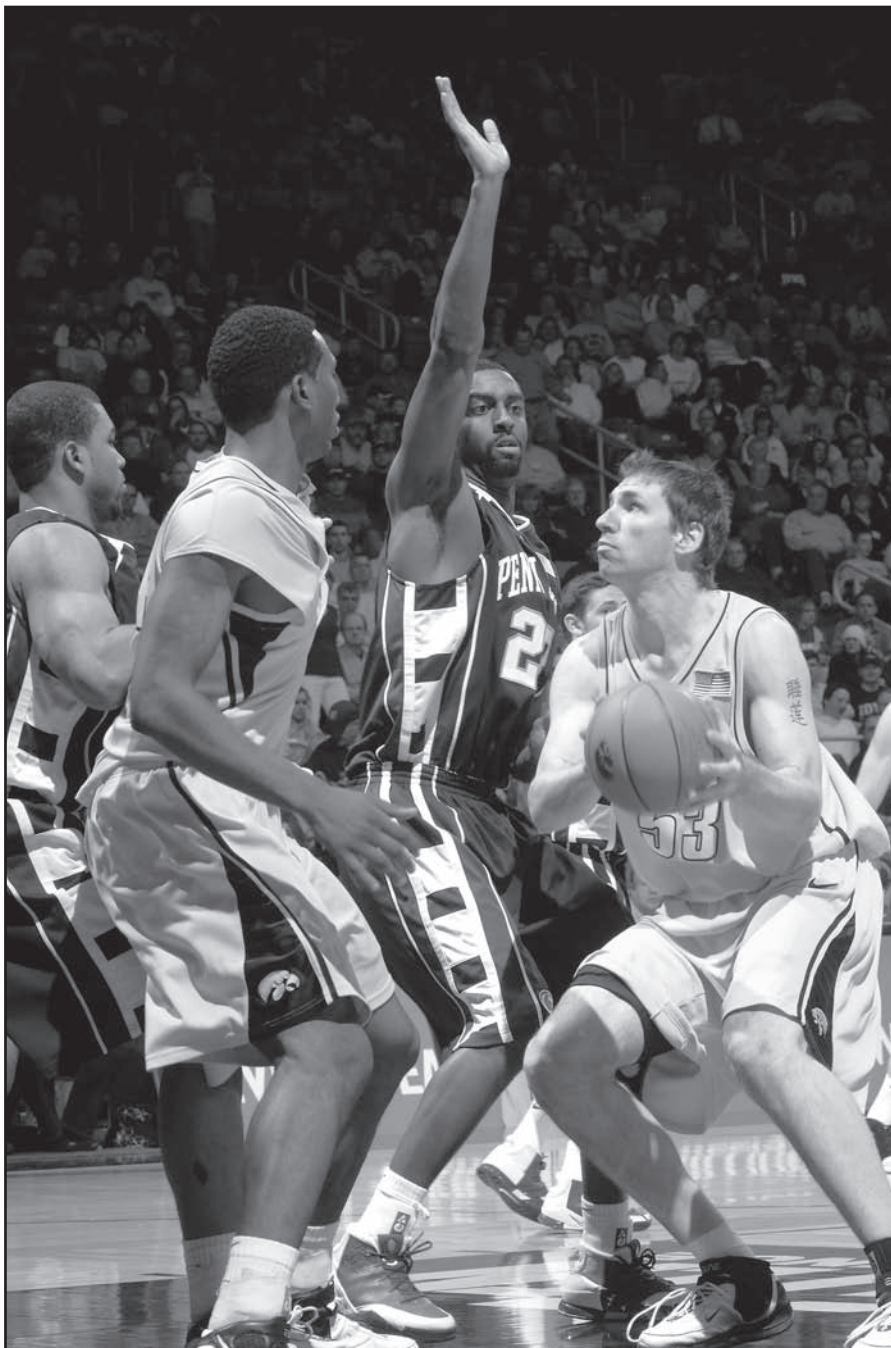

A key to Iowa's success has been playing well in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, where the Hawkeyes will host 18 games this season. Iowa was a perfect 17-0 in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in 2005-06 and last season posted a 14-2 mark. Iowa is 15-1 in Big Ten home games over the past two seasons.

While the Hawkeyes return three starters, Lickliter and his staff must replace the top two scorers and rebounders from a year ago. Guard Adam Haluska, a second round selection in the most recent NBA draft (New Orleans), not only led Iowa in scoring (20.5), but also led the Big Ten in scoring. Haluska earned first team all-Big Ten honors and was also an academic all-American. Along with his scoring, Haluska was second on the team in rebounding (4.6) and steals (53) and third in assists (80).

Forward Tyler Smith, who was named to the Big Ten Conference all-Freshman team, must also be replaced. Smith led the team in rebounding (4.9) and joined Haluska as the only Hawkeye to average over 10 points per game (14.9). Smith transferred closer to his home to be near his ailing father.

The returning starters include junior guard Tony Freeman (6-1, 190), junior forward Cyrus Tate (6-8, 240) and senior center Kurt Looby (6-10, 210). Additional returning lettermen include junior guard J.R. Angle (6-7, 200); senior center Seth Gorney (7-0, 245) and senior guard Justin Johnson (6-6, 190).

Since taking over as Iowa's head coach in April, Lickliter has had a chance to work with his Hawkeye squad and begin preparing for his first year in the Big Ten Conference.

"I think the players have reacted well," said Lickliter. "Change is hard. We've talked about the coach's transition, but the players are going through a transition as well. It's a daily process, us getting to know one another, and, building a trust. I wouldn't be at the University of Iowa if I hadn't had teams that were successful. We have somewhat of a proven track record. This is a system that can be successful, and the players make that happen. They make it happen by committing, and by using their talents and strengths to form a stronger team than the total; the total is greater than the sum of the parts. This group has shown a real desire to be the best they can be."

IOWA BASKETBALL- 2007-2008 OUTLOOK

"We have had to evaluate this group in a short period of time," admitted Lickliter. "They have had success the last two years. They have proven they have the ability to compete and win in the Big Ten Conference. We want to build on that while finding a balance between patience and urgency. It will be a learning process of how we want to play the game. We will focus on doing the best we can do today, at a rate where we can compete at the highest level."

Lickliter built his success at Butler with well-coached basketball teams that valued the basketball on offense and played solid man-to-man defense. Butler, last season, led the nation in fewest turnovers per game. "We want our team to value the basketball, and to be determined to create the shot we want," explained the Hawkeye head coach. "We want to defend with a purpose, and support our teammates. We want to be strong defensively, within the system. We will be primarily a man to man defensive team, but we will also incorporate our defense to give us the best chance to win basketball games."

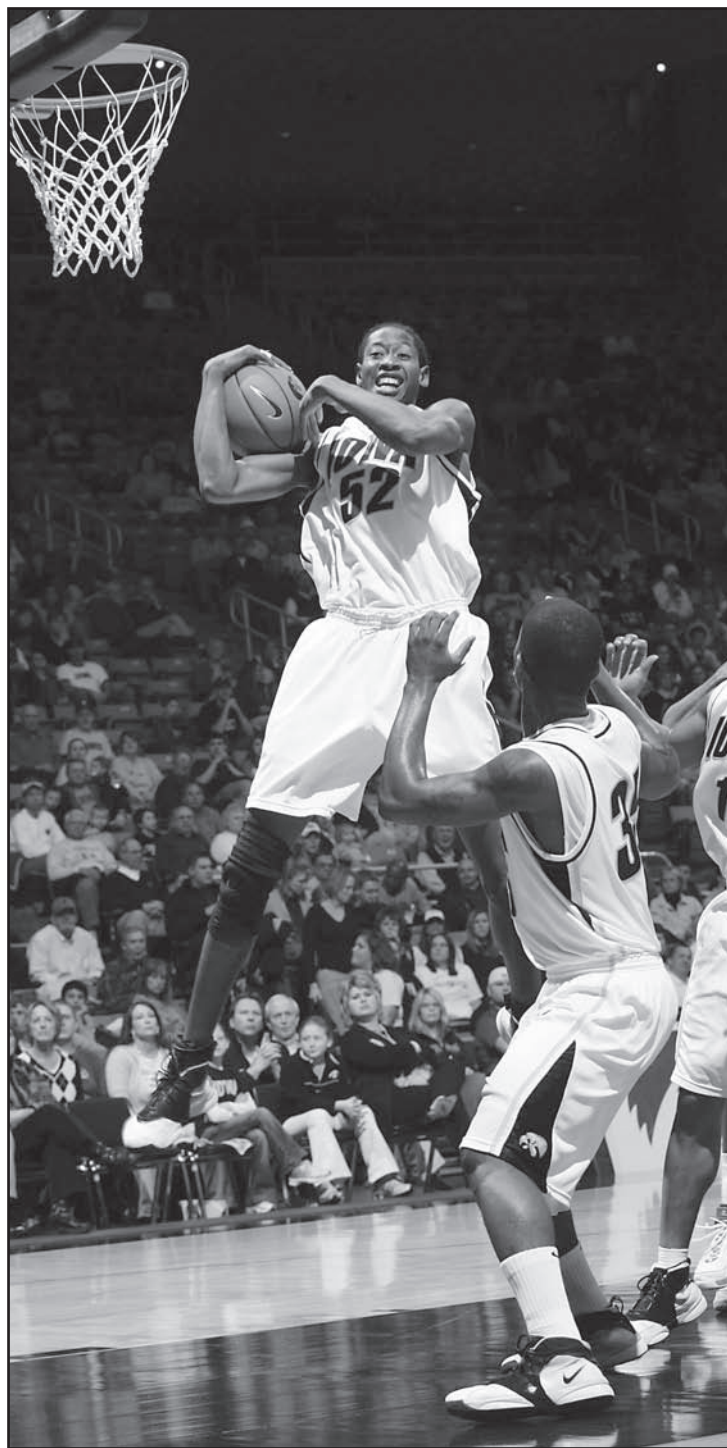

While the Hawkeyes don't return a proven scorer over the course of a full season, Lickliter is confident his first Iowa team can fit together and play well. "We will evaluate where our points come from," noted Lickliter. "We will replace our losses from last season as a team; different players will have that opportunity. We'll have to let the scoring come as we move forward. No one or two players have to replace the losses; we will do that as a team."

Freeman is the most experienced returning player, having started 21 games in his first two seasons. He started 17 of 31 games in 2007, leading the team in assists (3.7) while averaging 7.5 points and 2.9 rebounds per game. He scored a career-high 16 points against highly-regarded Alabama last season.

Looby joined the Iowa program two years ago after a two-year junior college career. He redshirted in 2006 before playing in all 31 games last season, starting 19. He averaged 3.8 points and 4.6 rebounds and led the team with 53 blocked shots, giving the Hawkeyes a defensive presence in the middle.

Tate started 22 games a year ago, in his first season at Iowa, averaging 4.2 points and 4.4 rebounds. He had a career-high 14 points, along with nine rebounds, in a home win over Michigan State and collected 11 points and 10 rebounds in a home win over Purdue.

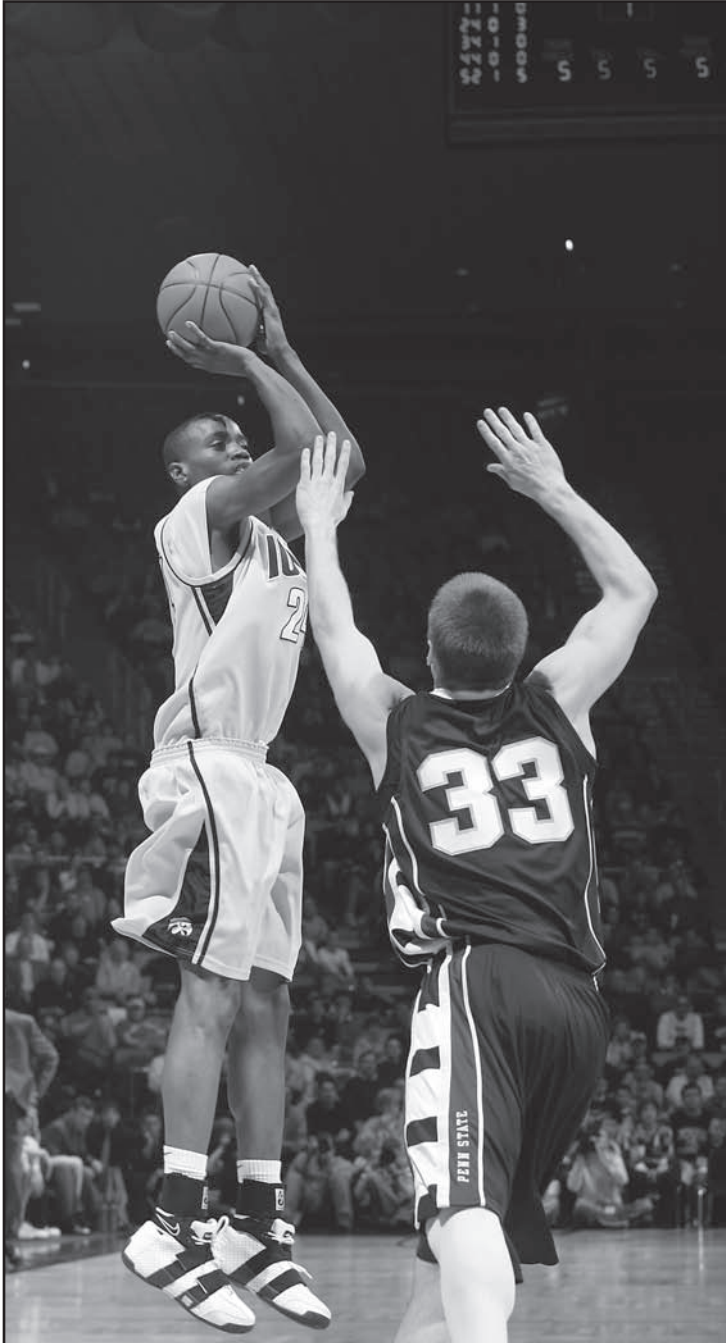

Johnson also joined the Iowa program after playing two years at a junior college. He started seven games as a junior, averaging 5.4 points and 2.3 rebounds. Angle, after redshirting in 2006, started two games a year ago while averaging just under two points per game. Gorney started 17 times as a junior while playing in all 31 games, averaging 5.5 points and 3.8 rebounds. Gorney's career-highs included 12 points against Indiana and nine rebounds against Northern Iowa.

Senior center Kurt Looby ranked fourth in the Big Ten in blocked shots (1.7) for all games last season. His 53 blocked shots ranks eighth best for a single season at Iowa.

IOWA BASKETBALL- 2007-2008 OUTLOOK

Senior guard Justin Johnson ranked as one of the top three-point shooters in the Big Ten Conference in 2006-07.

Additional returning players include sophomore forward David Palmer (6-9, 240) and sophomore guard Dan Bohall (6-4, 193). Palmer, who played one season at Seton Hall, redshirted last season. Bohall saw limited action in 11 games.

The trio of freshmen include point guard Jeff Peterson; forward Jarryd Cole and shooting guard Jake Kelly.

Peterson (6-0, 185) attended DeMatha HS in the Washington, DC area, earning first team all-conference honors as a senior. He averaged 13.9 points, 7.7 assists, 3.4 rebounds and 1.8 steals per game in leading DeMatha to a 33-6 record in his final prep season.

Cole (6-7, 250) gives the Hawkeyes another big body. He earned first team all-state honors as a senior at Winnetonka HS near Kansas City when he averaged 19.1 points, 13.7 rebounds and 5.2 blocked shots per game. He earned all-Metro honors for three seasons and was named Most Valuable Player in his conference as a senior.

Kelly (6-6, 180) attended Carmel, IN HS, averaging 13.7 points and 2.9 rebounds as a senior. He earned first team all-conference recognition and was team MVP for three seasons.

"Jeff, Jake and Jarryd will all fit well in our system," said Lickliter. "They are the type of players, and student-athletes that we want to have in the program. All three can be successful here."

The Hawkeyes open the season with four straight home games before meeting Bradley University in the South Padre Invitational (Nov. 23-24). The Hawkeyes will also meet either Vanderbilt or Utah State in that event before a quick trip home to host Wake Forest (Nov. 26) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. Iowa will host Louisiana-Monroe, Eastern Illinois and Rice in the annual Hawkeye Challenge.

The in-state series includes a home date with Drake (Dec. 14) after road games at Northern Iowa (Dec. 5) and Iowa State (Dec. 8). The Hawkeyes close the non-conference schedule by hosting Southeastern Louisiana (Dec. 29).

The Big Ten Conference has increased its conference schedule from 16 to 18 games, beginning this season. Iowa opens against Indiana at home before road games at Wisconsin and Ohio State. Illinois and Minnesota are the conference teams Iowa plays just once. The Fighting Illini visit Iowa City late in the season, while the only meeting with the Golden Gophers takes place in Minneapolis. The Big Ten Conference Tournament (March 13-16) returns to Indianapolis.

"With the addition of two Big Ten games, you lose a home game, and you add another road game within the conference," pointed out Lickliter. "That only adds to the strength of the schedule. The in-state series is good, yet very demanding. Those games, home or away, are on the level of Big Ten Conference games. It gives us the chance to compete against other well-respected programs within the state and prepare in a conference environment for the Big Ten season."

IOWA BASKETBALL NOTES

IOWA HISTORY

Iowa has played 2,408 games since beginning basketball in 1902. Overall Iowa's record is 1,438-970 (.597). That includes a 902-308 (.745) record in home games, a 536-662 (.447) record in games away from Iowa City, a 684-665 (.507) mark in Big Ten games and a 308-82 (.790) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

IOWA IN CARVER-HAWKEYE ARENA

Iowa has compiled a 308-82 (.790) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa is 147-68 (.684) in Big Ten games and 161-14 (.920) in non-Big Ten games.

THE RETURNING CAST

Iowa returns three starters and six lettermen from 2007. The returning starters include senior center Kurt Looby, junior guard Tony Freeman and junior forward Cyrus Tate.

Freeman started 17 of 31 games a year ago. He led the team in assists (3.7) and ranked third in scoring (7.5) and steals (1.1). Looby started 19 games, averaging 3.8 points and 4.6 rebounds. He led Iowa and ranked fourth in the Big Ten in blocked shots (1.7) per game. His 53 blocked shots rank eighth-best for a single season at Iowa.

Tate started 22 games last season, averaging 4.2 points and 4.4 rebounds per game.

Along with the six returning lettermen, Iowa also returns sophomore guard Dan Bohall and sophomore forward David Palmer. Palmer sat out last season as a redshirt transfer. The Hawkeye roster includes three true freshmen.

With the seven returning players who saw action a year ago, Iowa returns 41.1% of its scoring, 55.3% of its rebounding, 44.1% of its assists and 47.7% of its steals. Iowa's returning players shot 45.7% from the field, 40% from three-point range and 66.5% from the free throw line.

IOWA PROGRAM REACHES 1,400 WINS

The Iowa basketball program reached 1,400 wins (now at 1,438) with a 79-46 victory over Texas-San Antonio on Nov. 26, 2005. Iowa ranks 34th on the all-time list for victories and is one of 41 NCAA Division I programs with as many as 1,400 wins. Iowa's basketball history includes 73 winning seasons and 24 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games. Iowa (with 22) is one of 31 programs to earn more than 20 invitations into the NCAA Tournament.

THE HAWKEYE ROSTER

The Iowa roster includes 11 players. The squad includes three seniors, three juniors, two sophomores and three freshmen.

Along with Iowa native Dan Bohall, the roster includes two players from Illinois and Indiana and one from Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas and St. John's, Antigua.

HAWKEYES SET ARENA RECORD

Iowa set a Carver-Hawkeye Arena (opened in 1983) record with 12 consecutive Big Ten Conference home wins over the course of the 2006 and 2007 seasons. The streak was snapped Jan. 28 when second-ranked Wisconsin won in Iowa City. Following the loss to Wisconsin the Hawkeyes concluded the 2007 season by winning their final four home games, improving to 15-1 in Big Ten games and 31-2 overall over the past two seasons in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Prior to the Badger loss, Iowa had not lost a Big Ten home game since a 75-65 loss to top-ranked Illinois on Feb. 19, 2005.

Iowa's record for consecutive home wins in league play is 14 straight. That mark was set during the 1980-81 and 1981-82 seasons when home games were played at the Iowa Field House.

TOP HOME PERCENTAGE

Iowa has posted a 44-5 (.898) record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the last three seasons. That mark ranks as Iowa's best home court winning percentage over any three year period in which Iowa won at least 40 games.

Iowa's winning percentage in Big Ten home games (20-4, .833) over the last three seasons is also the best percentage since the conference began playing more than 14 league games in 1974.

Following is a ranking of Iowa's best home court record over any three-year period, with a minimum of 40 wins:

PERCENTAGE	RECORD	YEARS
.898	44-5	2005-07
.875	42-6	1987-89
.872	41-6	2004-06
.854	41-7	1991-93
.851	40-7	1985-87
.837	41-8	1995-97

IOWA TOUGH AT HOME

Iowa has won 32 of its last 34 games in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa's recent win streak included 21 straight overall wins and 12 straight Big Ten Conference wins. Iowa has won nine of its last 10 home games against ranked opponents. The Hawkeyes posted a 14-2 home record in 2006-07.

HEAD COACH TODD LICKLITER

Todd Lickliter, the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) national Coach of the Year in 2007, was named Iowa's 21st head men's basketball coach on April 3, 2007.

Lickliter joined the Iowa program after serving as the head coach at Butler University for six seasons. He posted a 131-61 (.682) record at Butler, including a 29-7 mark in 2006-07, in his first position as a college head coach. Butler advanced to post-season play in four of six seasons under Lickliter's direction, including two appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16.

Butler was ranked in the national top 25 for 16 consecutive weeks during the 2006-07 season and became the first team in the history of the Horizon League to be ranked in the top ten. The Bulldogs won three games over top 25 opponents (Tennessee, Gonzaga, Maryland) and recorded eight victories over teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament.

Lickliter played one season at Central Florida, earning his associate degree in 1977, and then transferred to Butler, where he played his final two collegiate seasons, 1977-79. He earned a B.S. degree in secondary education from Butler in 1979.

IOWA SEEKS EIGHTH STRAIGHT

Iowa begins the 2007-08 season seeking its eighth straight winning campaign, which would establish a school record. Iowa's current streak began with a 23-12 record in 2000-01 and includes three seasons of more than 20 wins and six post-season appearances (three NCAA, three NIT).

Iowa also had seven straight winning seasons from 1950 through 1956. Pops Harrison, Bucky O'Connor and Rollie Williams all coached the Hawkeyes during those years. Only a 10-10 record in 1949 kept Iowa from 13 consecutive winning seasons (1944-56).

Harrison coached Iowa to five straight winning seasons from 1944-48, Lute Olson coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1979-83, George Raveling and Tom Davis combined to coach Iowa to winning seasons from 1985-89 and Davis coached Iowa to winning seasons from 1995-99. Iowa had five consecutive winning seasons on three occasions, 1979-83, 1985-89 and 1995-99.

Iowa is one of four Big Ten teams to post a winning record in each of the last seven seasons, joining Illinois, Michigan State and Wisconsin.

HAWKEYES TO HOST BIG TEN/ACC CHALLENGE

Iowa will host Wake Forest on Monday, Nov. 26 as part of the annual Big Ten/ACC Challenge. The game has a 6:05 p.m. start time and will be televised to a national cable audience on ESPN2 as the initial game in the 2007 series of games.

Iowa holds a 2-4 record in the event, including a 2-0 home record and an 0-2 mark in road games and neutral site games. Iowa lost at Virginia Tech 69-65 a year ago.

Iowa lost to Maryland in Baltimore in 2000 before defeating Georgia Tech in Iowa City in 2001. Iowa lost to Duke at the United Center in Chicago in 2002 and lost at Florida State in 2003. The Hawkeyes defeated North Carolina State in Iowa City in 2006 after not participating in the event in 2004 and 2005.

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND INVITATIONAL

Iowa will take part in the South Padre Island Invitational in November. The Hawkeyes will host preliminary round games against Florida Gulf Coast (Nov. 18) and Maryland Eastern Shore (Nov. 20) before traveling to South Padre Island. Once on the island, Iowa will meet Bradley on Nov. 23 and either Vanderbilt or Utah State on Nov. 24.

HAWKEYES HOST CHALLENGE

Iowa will host the 26th annual Hawkeye Challenge Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30-Dec. 1. Iowa will meet Louisiana-Monroe in the first round, while Rice will face Eastern Illinois in the opening game Friday evening. Rice participated in the event early in the 1997-98 season, while Louisiana-Monroe and Eastern Illinois will take part for the first time.

Iowa has won four previous meetings with Eastern Illinois and all three meetings against Louisiana-Monroe when that school was named Northeast Louisiana. Iowa's only meeting with Rice resulted in an 81-52 Hawkeye win in the Hawkeye Challenge.

IOWA IN TOURNAMENT PLAY

Iowa has fared well while taking part in regular-season tournaments over the past 25 years. In that time Iowa has won the Great Alaska Shootout (1986-87), the Cal-Irvine Anteater Classic (1986-87), the Maui Classic (1987-88), the San Juan Thanksgiving Shootout (1992-93), the San Juan Christmas Shootout (1997-98), the Big Ten Conference Tournament in 2001 and 2006 and its own invitational 24 times.

IOWA BASKETBALL NOTES

In addition, Iowa was runner-up in the 1985-86 Far West Classic, the 1987-88 All-College Tournament, the 1988-89 Chaminade Classic, the 1991-92 Tampa Tribune Holiday Invitational, the 1994-95 Rainbow Classic, the 1995-96 Great Alaska Shootout, the 1999-00 Coaches vs. Cancer Classic, the 2001-02 Guardians Classic, the 2005-06 Guardians Classic, the 2002 Big Ten Conference Tournament and the 2004 Maui Invitational.

THE HAWKEYE SCHEDULE

Iowa's 2007-08 schedule includes 19 home games, including the opening exhibition game on Nov. 1 against Simpson College. The Hawkeyes will make their first public appearance while taking part in the 16th annual Black and Gold Blowout on Saturday, Oct. 27 and open the regular season Nov. 9 by hosting Idaho State.

Iowa will host nine non-conference games, including an in-state battle with Drake University, a contest with Wake Forest in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and two games in the preliminary rounds of the South Padre Island Invitational.

For the first time since 1997, Iowa will host nine Big Ten Conference games, as the league has expanded the schedule to include 18 league games. Iowa does not play at Illinois this season, while Minnesota does not visit Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

POST-SEASON OPPONENTS

Iowa's 2007-08 schedule includes 15 games against teams that advanced to post-season play a year ago. Iowa will play 11 games against six Big Ten opponents that appeared in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, including two games with national runner-up Ohio State. The Hawkeyes have three games against teams that were in the NIT a year ago, including Michigan and Bradley. Iowa's final game in the South Padre Island Invitational will be against either Vanderbilt (NCAA) or Utah State (NIT).

IOWA VS. THE FIELD

Iowa posted a 6-10 record while playing 11 teams that advanced to post-season play last season. That included a 4-9 record against eight teams that competed in the NCAA Tournament and a 2-1 record against three teams that were in the NIT.

IOWA ATTENDANCE IMPROVES AGAIN

Iowa drew an average of 12,196 fans for its 16 home games during the 2006-07 season. That average ranks as an improvement over each of the last two seasons, as Iowa averaged 12,006 fans in 2006. Iowa annually ranks among the top teams in the nation in home attendance.

IOWA VS. RANKED TEAMS

These are Iowa's most recent wins vs. nationally ranked opponents:

At Home: 81-75 over 25th-ranked Indiana, 2/3/07
 On the Road: 70-67 over 21st-ranked Indiana, 2/11/06
 Neutral Court: 67-60 over 7th-ranked Ohio State, 3/12/06
 In semi-finals of Big Ten Tournament

IOWA ON THE TUBE

Nearly every Iowa game throughout the 2007-08 season will be televised, with the only exception possibly being the final round of the South Padre Island Invitational in November.

The majority of Iowa's non-conference games are scheduled for the Big Ten Network, including the opening exhibition game vs. Simpson College on Nov. 1. Iowa's home game with Wake Forest will be televised on ESPN2. The contest at Northern Iowa will air on FOX, the game at Iowa State will appear on ESPN and CSTV will televise the Bradley game in the South Padre Island tournament.

IOWA AT NEUTRAL SITES

Iowa was 1-3 in neutral site games a year ago, playing three games in the Paradise Jam in November and one game in the Big Ten Conference Tournament.

Iowa's schedule includes at least three neutral site games this season, including two games in the South Padre Island Invitational. Iowa could play between one and four neutral site games while taking part in the Big Ten Conference Tournament in Indianapolis, IN at the end of the season.

IOWA IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Iowa made its 22nd appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2006. Iowa earned the Big Ten Conference's automatic bid by virtue of claiming the league's tournament title.

The Hawkeyes hold an overall record of 27-24 in the tournament, advancing to the Final Four in 1955 (fourth), 1956 (second) and 1980 (fourth). Iowa reached the regional championship in 1987 and lost in the regional semi-final in 1988 and 1999.
