- Iowa has qualified for four NCAA tournaments over the last six years (2014, 2015, 2016, 2019) and seven postseason tournaments over the last eight seasons (4 NCAA; 3 NIT).
- Iowa has won its last three NCAA Tournament first round games (2015 vs. Davidson; 2016 vs. Temple; and 2019 vs. Cincinnati).
- Iowa's 23 wins are the second most in the Fran McCaffery era, dating back to the 2011 season. Iowa won 25 games in the 2012-13 season.
- The Hawkeyes have now won three victories over conference tournament champions (Iowa State, Oregon, and Cincinnati).
- Fran McCaffery has guided Iowa to 20 wins or more in five of the last seven seasons and upper division finishes in the Big Ten six of the last seven seasons. Only Michigan State (7) has more first division finishes than Iowa (6) and Wisconsin (6) since the 2013 season.
- Iowa went undefeated in regular season nonconference play for the first time since the 1986-87 season, winning all 11 games by a margin of 16.9 points.
- Iowa has improved its win total by nine games after winning 14 contests a year ago. Additionally, Iowa (10) more than doubled its Big Ten win total from last season (4).
- Jordan Bohannon became the seventh Hawkeye to register three 100-assist seasons (Dean Oliver, Jeff Horner, B.J. Armstrong, Andre Woolridge, Mike Gesell, Devyn Marble).
- Jordan Bohannon (261) is two 3-pointers from surpassing Jeff Horner (262) to become Iowa's all-time leader in 3-point field goals made.
- Iowa posted back-to-back buzzer beaters for the first time since 2002. Both of Iowa's buzzer beaters over Northwestern (Bohannon) and Rutgers (Wieskamp) were 3-pointers. Both buzzer beaters in 2002 were made by Luke Recker in the Big Ten Tournament.
- Jordan Bohannon has led the Big Ten in free throw percentage each of the last two seasons. The junior guard missed only seven free throws in 20 league games this season (64-of-71, .901). Bohannon was 37-of-39 (.949) a year ago.
- Jordan Bohannon (1,204 points) has surpassed brother Matt (1,092 at UNI) and Jason (1,170 at Wisconsin) for most points scored in a career by a Bohannon. With the win over Cincinnati, Jordan joins brothers Matt, Zach, and Jason with NCAA Tournament wins.
- Senior Nicholas Baer is the only player in program history to total 750 points, 500 rebounds, 100 blocked shots, 100 assists, 100 steals, and 100 3-pointers.

IOWA RALLIES TO BEAT CINCINNATI AT NCAA TOURNAMENT

Iowa rallied from a 36-31 halftime deficit to defeat No. 7 seed Cincinnati, 79-72, on Friday at Nationwide Arena in Columbus, Ohio.

- Luka Garza led Iowa with 20 points and seven rebounds. The sophomore center has scored 20 points or more two of Iowa's last four games. Garza became the sixth Hawkeye in history to have 20 points and seven rebounds in their NCAA Tournament debut (Carl Cain, 1955; Chad Calabria, 1970; Glenn Vidnovic, 1970; Jess Settles, 1996; Greg Brunner, 2005; Luka Garza, 2019).
- Freshman Joe Wieskamp scored 19 points in his first NCAA Tournament contest as a Hawkeye. Wieskamp is the first Hawkeye freshman with 19+ points & 5+ rebounds in an NCAA Tournament game since Guy Rucker had 19 points and five rebounds against Virginia in the first round in 1997.
- The Hawkeyes trailed by as many as 13 points in the first half before collecting the win on the strength of a 48-36 scoring advantage in the final 20 minutes. Iowa scored at least one point on nine of final 10 offensive possessions.
- Iowa shot a blistering 65.4 percent from the field (17-of-26), including 63.6 percent from 3-point range (7-of-11) in the second half.

HEAD COACH FRAN McCAFFERY

Fran McCaffery, who is signed through the 2023 season, is in his ninth season as the head basketball coach at the University of Iowa and his 23rd year overall as a college head coach. McCaffery has reached the 20-win plateau eight of the last 12 seasons, including four of the last six years.

McCaffery spent five seasons (2005-10) as the head coach at Siena, six years at UNC-Greensboro (1999-2005) and three seasons at Lehigh (1985-88) before joining the Hawkeyes.

McCaffery has three decades of Division I coaching experience. He is nearing the end of his 37th season as a collegiate coach in 2019, which includes 23 years as a head coach and 14 as an assistant. McCaffery is one of 14 coaches to lead at least four different Division I teams to the NCAA Tournament.

McCaffery, 59, holds a career mark of 424-308 (.579) and guided his teams to 12 postseason appearances (nine NCAA & four NIT). He is 174-131 (.570) at Iowa; the second winningest coach in program history. McCaffery led Iowa to NCAA Tournament wins in three of the last five years (2015, 2016, and 2019). Iowa posted consecutive tournament wins (2015 and 2016) for the first time since 1996-97.

Since taking over the Iowa program in 2010, the Hawkeyes have earned seven postseason tournament berths (4 NCAA, 3 NIT). McCaffery coached Iowa to 25 victories in 2013, equaling the second-most win total in program history. McCaffery has guided seven different Hawkeyes to all-conference honors, including four straight first team honorees (2014-17). The last time Iowa had four consecutive first-team all-league honorees was 1945-48.

McCaffery has posted upper division finishes in six of the last seven seasons at Iowa and 18 of 23 seasons as a head coach. He has posted 20 wins or more nine of the last 13 seasons, including five of the last seven years at Iowa (2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2019).

McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have made Carver-Hawkeye Arena one of the most feared arenas to play nationally. Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play with attendance increasing by more than 50 percent since 2010. The Hawkeyes boast a 96-27 (.780) home record the last seven seasons, which includes a school-record 18 wins in 2014.

McCaffery's five years at Siena were the best in its 70-year history. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 (.687) record in his five years with the program. He guided the Saints to four consecutive 20-win seasons. McCaffery's achievements earned the head coach Siena Hall of Fame recognition in 2017.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year and 2010 District I Coach of the Year is the third winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins. McCaffery led his 2008 and 2009 teams to first round NCAA Tournament victories over Vanderbilt and Ohio State, respectively.

In his final two seasons at Siena, he coached the Saints to back-to-back 27-win campaigns and boasted a combined 39-3 (.929) record against MAAC opponents, which included MAAC Tournament contests.

McCaffery began his coaching career as an assistant at Penn (1982-83) and Lehigh (1983-85). After three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he spent 11 seasons as an assistant at Notre Dame (1988-99).

McCaffery played basketball at Wake Forest his freshman year (1977-78) and then concluded his collegiate playing career at Penn his final three seasons (1979-82).

He earned his B.S. degree in Economics from The Wharton School (Penn) in 1982. McCaffery also earned a Master of Education from Lehigh in 1985.

AGAINST THE NCAA FIELD

During the regular season, Iowa posted a 4-9 record against teams in the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes played nine different opponents who were selected for the NCAA Tournament, including seven Big Ten opponents and four nonconference opponents (Oregon and Iowa State).

Seven other Big Ten teams will compete in this year's tournament: Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Purdue, and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes went 2-9 in contests against those teams. Iowa split games with Michigan and Ohio State, lost single games to Maryland, Minnesota, and Purdue, and lost twice to both Michigan State and Wisconsin.

Iowa defeated Oregon and Iowa State in nonconference play. Both Oregon and Iowa State won their respective conference tournaments, as did Cincinnati (American Athletic Conference).

McCAFFERY RECORDS WIN NO. 20

Fran McCaffery and the Iowa Hawkeyes reached the 20-win plateau for the fifth time in seven seasons with its win at Rutgers. McCaffery joins Lute Olson (6) and Tom Davis (10) as the only Iowa head coaches to win 20 or more games in at least five seasons. Both Olson and Davis had 20+ wins over a span of six or seven seasons.

SHOOTING FOR PERFECTION

Iowa had a player make all his 3-point attempts in the first half (min. four attempts) four times this season.

Joe Wieskamp made all four of his 3-point attempts at Indiana (Feb. 7) and was 4-of-4 vs. Illinois (Jan. 20). Junior Isaiah Moss was 4-of-4 at Penn State (Jan. 16) and was 5-of-5 vs. Illinois (Jan. 20).

MR. CLUTCH

Jordan Bohannon, who was tabbed third-team All-Big Ten by the coaches and an honorable mention selection by the media this season, has scored when it matters most down the stretch. The junior guard is averaging 4.0 points in the first half and 7.3 points in the second half this season.

There have been four games (Green Bay, Wisconsin, Northwestern, and Indiana) where he has been held scoreless in the first half but finished in double figures. In 19-of-34 games, Bohannon has scored more points in the second half than the first. He has scored 10 or more points in the second half 12 times this season.

Iowa is 8-4 when Bohannon scores 10+ points in the second half.

Bohannon is two triples from surpassing Jeff Horner (2003-06) to become Iowa's all-time leader in 3-pointers made. Additionally, Bohannon has 117 assists this year, becoming just the seventh Hawkeye to register three 100-assist seasons, joining Dean Oliver, Mike Gesell, Andre Woolridge, Devyn Marble, B.J. Armstrong, and Jeff Horner.

Bohannon ranks among the nation's best in most points in the final two minutes of regulation and final two minutes of overtime this season with 81 points. In the final two minutes of games, Bohannon is shooting 54.8 percent (17-of-31) from the field, 47.6 percent (10-of-21) from 3-point range, and 87.2 percent from the foul line (41-of-47).

Bohannon had 13 points and four assists in the win over Cincinnati, including a basket in the closing seconds of the first half to cut the deficit to five points.

RYAN KRIENER TAKING THE NEXT STEP

Junior Ryan Kriener posted his first career double-double in Iowa's 15-point win over No. 5 Michigan on Feb. 1.

The native of Spirit Lake, Iowa, has registered single-season bests in nearly every statistical category as a junior. His scoring (5.7) and rebounding (3.0) averages have improved, along with his shooting percentages.

Kriener has tallied double figures six times this season. He netted four crucial second-half points on Friday against Cincinnati.

To finally be able to put the Hawkeye jersey on is exciting for our entire family. His game continues to mature. Patrick had a terrific summer. He's doing so much more off the dribble and his 3-point shot is getting better. I think his complete skill set is going to be beneficial to our team."

COOK ELEVATING HIS GAME

Tyler Cook has led the Hawkeyes in rebounding in 14 of Iowa's last 25 games. Cook recorded career point No. 1,000, in Iowa's win over Northern Iowa on Dec. 15. He netted 15+ points and 5+ rebounds in ten straight contests played, dating back to the Michigan State road game on Dec. 3. He is the first Hawkeye to accomplish the feat since James Winters 25 years ago (1993-94).

Cook was tabbed second-team All-Big Ten by the media and third-team by the coaches this season. He was also voted to the 11-player All-District VI team by the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and the NABC All-District 7 Second Team. Cook's honor marks the fifth time in six seasons that a Hawkeye has garnered all-district recognition (Devyn Marble in 2014; Aaron White in 2015; Jarrod Uthoff and Peter Jok in 2016; Jok in 2017; Cook in 2019).

Cook is one of ten Hawkeyes in program history to total 1,300 points and 600 rebounds.

Cook ranks in the top 15 in the league in scoring (13th), rebounding (sixth), and field goal percentage (13th). The St. Louis native registered his team-leading sixth double-double of the season at Ohio State on Feb. 26.

IMPROVING HAWKEYES

Last season, Iowa was 14-19 overall, including a 4-14 mark in conference play. The Hawkeyes more than doubled its Big Ten win total from a year ago and have eight more overall victories than last season.

Iowa's overall win total improvement and conference improvement from a year ago both rank among the best in the country among schools in Power 5 conferences.

Iowa's all-time winning coach, Tom Davis (1987-1999), had his lowest win total as a Iowa's coach in his eighth season (11 wins) and rebounded in his ninth year with 21 victories. Fran McCaffery also had his lowest win total as Iowa's coach in his eighth year (14 wins) and has rebounded this season with 23 wins.

RELIVING BACK-TO-BACK BUZZER BEATERS

Iowa won consecutive games in thrilling fashion, upending Northwestern and Rutgers in mid-February on last-second 3-pointers. The last time the Hawkeyes won back-to-back games at the buzzer was 2002. Luke Recker sank game-winning baskets over Wisconsin (58-56) and Indiana (62-60) at the Big Ten Tournament in Indianapolis.

- Junior Jordan Bohannon scored the game-winning 3-pointer with 0.6 seconds remaining to lift the Hawkeyes to an 80-79 win over Northwestern on Feb. 10. Bohannon scored all 15 of his points in the second half, including 13 points in the final 3:20. Northwestern led Iowa by 15 points (72-57) with 4:30 left in the game and 11 points (76-65) with 2:09 remaining. Iowa out-scored Northwestern 23-7 to rally for the victory.
- Freshman Joe Wieskamp made his first 3-pointer of the game on a banked 3-pointer with 0.2 seconds left to propel the visiting Hawkeyes to a 71-69 win at Rutgers on Feb. 16. Iowa led the Scarlet Knights by two points in the closing seconds before Geo Baker rattled home a 3-pointer with 3.3 seconds remaining to give Rutgers a one-point advantage before Wieskamp's heroics.

McCAFFERY REACHES MILESTONES

Iowa's regular season opener against UMKC was Fran McCaffery's 700th career game as a head coach. The 2018-19 season is McCaffery's ninth as Iowa's head coach and 23rd overall as a collegiate head coach. McCaffery has 424 overall wins and 174 victories while on the Iowa sidelines. He surpassed Lute Olson for second on Iowa's coaching win chart with Iowa's win at Indiana on Feb. 7. Tom Davis is Iowa's all-time winningest coach with 269 wins.

BOHANNON'S WEEK

Bohannon led Iowa to a pair of victories over Indiana (Feb. 7) and Northwestern (Feb. 10), averaging 20 points, 4.5 assists and one steal, while shooting 66.7 percent (8-12) from 3-point range and 54.5 percent (12-22) from the field.

The native of Marion, Iowa, tied a season best with 25 points and also dished out a team-best six assists with no turnovers in a 77-72 win at Indiana. Bohannon scored Iowa's final 11 points, including going 5-of-6 from the free throw line, over the final 90 seconds to preserve the win at Assembly Hall.

Bohannon netted all 15 of his points over the final 5:28 of Sunday's win over Northwestern to cap a 15-point Iowa comeback over the final 4:30, including sinking the game-winning 3-pointer with 0.6 seconds remaining. The last second win was Iowa's first since Adam Woodbury's last second game-winner over Temple on March 18, 2016, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Bohannon made two treys in the final 25 seconds against the Wildcats.

MAKING THE FREEBIES

Iowa has made 37 more free throws than any other Big Ten team. The Hawkeyes have made 603 fouls shots, while Minnesota is second behind Iowa with 566 makes. Iowa has made more free throws than six Big Ten teams have attempted (Rutgers, Northwestern, Purdue, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin). The Hawkeyes rank fourth in the country in free throw makes (593) and 12th nationally in free throw attempts (817).

Individually, Jordan Bohannon ranks second in the conference and is 17th nationally in free throw accuracy (.866, 97-of-112), while Luka Garza is seventh in the Big Ten (.802, 81-of-101).

Bohannon led the Big Ten in free throw percentage each of the last two seasons. The native of Marion, Iowa, missed only seven free throws in 20 league games this season (64-of-71, .901). Bohannon was 37-of-39 (.949) a year ago.

CONSISTENT PLAY OUT OF FRESHMAN WIESKAMP

Joe Wieskamp has been a consistent contributor for the Hawkeyes as a freshman, earning recognition on the five-player All-Big Ten Freshman Team. The shooting guard ranks fourth on the team in scoring (11.1 ppg); second in rebounding (4.9 rpg); tied for second in steals (30). Wieskamp is shooting 43.3 percent clip from 3-point range (58-of-134) and 49.8 percent overall from the field (124-of-249). His 43.3 percentage from 3-point range is fourth in the Big Ten and currently ranks second all-time among Iowa freshmen behind Jake Kelly (.435, 30-of-69). Additionally, his 58 triples is second among Iowa rookies behind Jordan Bohannon's 89 in 2017.

Wieskamp twice earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors. The native of Muscatine, Iowa, sank his first 3-pointer of the game with 0.2 seconds left and Iowa trailing by one point to propel the Hawkeyes to a 71-69 thrilling win at Rutgers on Feb. 16.

Wieskamp matched a personal-best with 24 points in Iowa's win over Illinois. His efforts in Iowa's victories over Illinois and at Penn State in mid-January earned Wieskamp, Big Ten Freshman of the Week accolades on Jan. 21. The rookie helped Iowa set a Carver-Hawkeye Arena team record for field goal percentage, making 68 percent of its attempts (34-of-50) versus the Fighting Illini. He also helped the Hawkeyes total 89 points at Penn State, its highest point total ever at State College, dating back to 1955.

Wieskamp earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week laurels for the second time after totaling 16 points, seven rebounds, five steals, and two assists in Iowa's 15-point win over No. 5 Michigan. The five steals are the most by a Hawkeye in a Big Ten game in two years. Wieskamp became the fourth freshman nationally to register 16+ points, 7+ rebounds and 5+ steals versus a ranked opponent in the last five seasons (LSU's Ben Simmons; NC State's Dennis Smith, Jr.; Pitt's Trey McGowens).

Wieskamp had a 13-point effort in Iowa's win at Indiana -- making all four of his 3-point attempts in the first half -- and scored a team-best 21 points in the comeback victory over Northwestern.

CONNOR MCCAFFERY RETURNS HEALTHY

Connor McCaffery received a medical redshirt following last season. McCaffery (6-foot-5, 205 pounds) has four years of men's basketball eligibility remaining after averaging 13.3 minutes in only four games last December as a true freshman. The native of Iowa City missed two games due to a sprained ankle, eight contests due to mononucleosis, and 19 games after undergoing a tonsillectomy.

McCaffery is the son of head coach Fran McCaffery. Iowa is one of 12 Division I teams in which the head coach has a son on the 2018-19 roster (Alabama, Cal State Bakersfield, Central Connecticut State, Central Florida, Detroit Mercy, Kentucky, Oregon State, Portland, Syracuse, Southern Illinois, Tennessee Martin).

McCaffery is believed to be one of three Division I men's basketball student-athletes who are dual-sport athletes in 2018-19. McCaffery (basketball and baseball), joins South Carolina junior Evan Hinson (football and basketball) and Buffalo sophomore Dominic Johnson (football and basketball).

After Iowa lost in the Big Ten Tournament last weekend, McCaffery went to Duane Banks Field and saw action in three baseball games against Cal State Northridge. McCaffery pinch hit in the first two games of the series, before starting game three in left field. He went 3-for-4 with two doubles against the Matadors.

The prestigious skills development camp was limited to 25 of the nation's top collegiate players, which included a combine experience, drills, off-court workouts, film sessions, and competition.

Cook is the fourth Hawkeye in five years to be invited to this elite basketball camp, joining Aaron White (2014), Jarrod Uthoff (2015), and Peter Jok (2016).

PMSL HAS SEASON ENDING SURGERY

Junior Cordell Pemsal underwent season-ending surgery on Dec. 18.

“Cordell’s procedure removed hardware near his knee from a previous surgery when he was in high school,” said McCaffery.

Pemsal saw action in only two games this season, playing 13 minutes against UMKC (Nov. 8) and 18 minutes versus Iowa State (Dec. 6).

“I tried to give playing this season another shot in the Iowa State game, but after a week of rest and recovery, the chronic irritation caused by the hardware has remained resulting in my inability to play in Saturday’s game versus UNI. After further discussions with the medical staff, we determined that the best course of action is to correct the problem at this time.”

The native of Dubuque, Iowa, has played in 68 career games, averaging 7.2 points and 4.7 rebounds per game.

NUNGE, FREDRICK TO REDSHIRT

Sophomore forward Jack Nunge and freshman guard CJ Fredrick plan to redshirt the 2018-19 season.
