

Iowa vs. Northwestern Postgame Notes
Nov. 10, 2018

POSTGAME NOTES

Iowa (6-4, 3-4) fell to Northwestern (6-4, 6-1) on Saturday, 14-10, at Kinnick Stadium.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

QB Nate Stanley threw one touchdown today. It was his 44th career touchdown pass, moving past Matt Sherman for fourth all-time in school history.

SS Geno Stone's interception in the third quarter was his team-high fourth of the season. Iowa has 12 interceptions since Stone entered the starting lineup Week 5 (two in Weeks 1-4). FS Jake Gervase also intercepted a pass in the third quarter, his third of the year. Iowa has 14 total interceptions this season.

K Miguel Recinos scored four points today (1 FG, 1 PAT), raising his career total to 156, two behind Daniel Murray for 18th all-time. Recinos missed a 38-yard field attempt in the third quarter, snapping his streak of 11 consecutive made attempts. It was his first miss since Week 3.

WR Ihmir Smith-Marsette has a career-high 198 all-purpose yards. He had a 100 kick return yards, a career-high 90 yards receiving, and 8 yards rushing. He matched his career high with four receptions. His 28-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter was Iowa's lone touchdown of the game.

Jake Gervase led Iowa, matching his career-high with 10 tackles. DB Matt Hankins (8), LB Djimon Colbert (7) and DL Cedrick Lattimore (4) matched their career bests in tackles. DL Chauncey Golston set a career high with five tackles.

MISCELLANEOUS
