James M. Hoak Family Golf Complex

Since 2013, The James M. Hoak Family Golf Complex has been the exclusive home of Iowa Golf. The complex was made possible by the Hoak family and the generous support of our donors.

Conveniently located on campus, Hoak provides year-round training for both the men's and women's golf teams.

The Hoak Complex features the Transamerica Performance Studio, highlighted by two indoor-outdoor hitting rooms equipped with Trackman radar. The Performance Studio also includes a 3,150 square foot practice green equipped with PuttView technology.

Other features include men's and women's locker rooms, coaches' offices, workout equipment, and a player lounge with a refueling station.

Next to Hoak is a 14,000 square foot putting green and short game practice area. The Hoak Complex conveniently sits alongside Finkbine's sixth hole, allowing players to wrap up a practice session by playing a few holes.

Finkbine Golf Course

Located on the western edge of The University of Iowa campus, just walking distance from Kinnick Stadium, Carver-Hawkeye Arena and Hillcrest Residence Hall, is Finkbine Golf Course. Founded in 1953 and opened in 1955, Finkbine remains a source of great pride and beauty as the home course for the Iowa golf program.

The 7,280-yard, par-72 layout is prized by the University and Iowa City community alike. A tremendous test of golf, Finkbine was the site of the PGA Amana VIP Pro-Am for more than 20 years featuring the PGA's finest as well as national and local celebrities. In 1991, Finkbine also became the host of the Ben Hogan Tour – Hawkeye Open. Collegiately, Finkbine has been the site for the 1992 and 2002 men's Big Ten Championships, the Hawkeye Intercollegiate and the Big Four Invitational.

Built among the rolling hills and elevation changes of Iowa City, Finkbine challenges golfers of every skill level. The Robert Bruce Harris design features sloped greens and sand bunkering on 17 of the 18 holes. The signature 13th hole is an island green surrounded by water offering multiple tee boxes and two greens.

Construction for Finkbine's brand new clubhouse is underway and will be ready for the start of the 2020 season. The new club house will feature an upper level with a golf shop, dining room, grill room bar, conference room, and an outdoor terrace, and a lower level with a grab and go hospitality area, golfers' lounge, and men's and women's locker rooms.

In the fall of 2003, Finkbine renovated the entire golf course with the addition of bent grass fairways, newly grassed greens and tee complexes. The university maintains Finkbine's lush tees, fairways and greens with a state of the art irrigation system. The driving range and practice facility feature four practice greens, short game areas, sand bunkers and a two tier range.

The Iowa golf teams enjoy a dedicated 10,000 square foot practice green, two practice bunkers and two newly renovated bent grass practice tees. Offering unquestionable golf facility advantages, Finkbine Golf Course is indeed the proud home of the Hawkeyes.

BLUE TOP RIDGE

Designed by world-renowned architect Rees Jones, Blue Top Ridge is a world class golf course, offering breathtaking vistas overlooking two rivers, lakes and diverse terrain. It was voted the No. 51 "Top New Course" in 2010 by Golf Digest.

BROWN DEER

Brown Deer Golf Club is conveniently located two miles north of the University of Iowa campus. Brown Deer features water on eight holes that wind through the hills and valleys of Coralville.

AMANA COLONIES

The Amana Colonies Golf Course is a championship golf course across 300 acres of stately white oak trees and forests. The course features streams, ponds and striking scenery.

ELMCREST

Elmcrest Country Club is a traditional midwestern layout known for its immaculate condition. Iowa native and 2007 Masters winner, Zach Johnson, calls Elmcrest his home course.

CRCC

The Cedar Rapids Country Club was opened in 1904 and is the only Donald Ross design in Iowa. In 1999, the course underwent a $5 million renovation and features some of the region's best golf.

STONE CREEK

Stone Creek Golf Course has been named Iowa's top nine-hole course multiple times. Stone Creek boasts some of the best greens in the Midwest and offers a challenging golf experience.

TYLER STITH

Head Coach
Sixth Season
Alma Mater: Iowa

Tyler Stith is in his sixth season as head coach at the University of Iowa after being named Iowa head coach on Aug. 22, 2014. Stith, a former assistant coach and student-athlete at Iowa, signed a five-year contract extension in the summer of 2019 to keep him in Iowa City through June 30, 2024. He previously served as assistant coach at Minnesota from 2011-14.

During Stith's tenure as head coach of the Iowa men's golf program, the Hawkeyes have finished in the top-four of the Big Ten Championships four times, advanced to four NCAA Regionals, and totaled three or more top-three tournament finishes all five seasons.

Stith heads a program that has advanced to NCAA competition in 10 of the last 11 seasons, joining Illinois as the only Big Ten teams selected to NCAA Regional competition in at least 10 regionals over the last 11 years. Iowa has advanced to the NCAA Championship finals three times in the last 11 years.

In five seasons, Stith has coached 11 All-Midwest Region selections, eight All-Big Ten selections, two academic All-Americans, 12 academic All-Big Ten selections, one Big Ten Player of the Year, one Les Bolstad Trophy award winner, and one Big Ten Tournament Champion.

This past year, Stith led Iowa to five top-five finishes, including the Hawkeye Invitational title with a school shattering record 54-hole score of 809 (-43), topping the previous mark by 24 strokes, while also setting a school record for 18-holes with a first round score of 262 (-22). Stith also helped coach junior Alex Schaake to five top-10 finishes, earning Men's Big Ten Golfer of the Year and the Les Bolstad award for leading the Big Ten with a 70.81 stroke average, along with being named a unanimous All-Big Ten First Team honoree. Junior Benton Weinberg was named a second-team All-Big Ten selection.

In his fourth season, Stith directed Iowa to three top-three finishes, including a third-place finish at the Big Ten Championships. Stith also helped mentor Schaake to six top-20 finishes, including placing in the top-five four times, and an individual berth at NCAA Regionals.

Stith captured his first tournament title as head coach of the Hawkeyes in the fall of his second year, guiding Iowa to a team title at the GolfWeek Conference Challenge. Raymond Knoll claimed co-medalist honors with a 54-hole total of 205 (-11; 66, 67, 72) -- the lowest three-round total in program history.

In his first season as head coach at Iowa, Stith guided the Hawkeyes to their seventh straight NCAA Regional. Iowa finished sixth at the event, one stroke behind eventual national champion LSU. Sophomore Carson Schaake led the Hawkeyes to a second-place finish at the 2015 Big Ten Championships after earning co-medalist honors and becoming the first Hawkeye to win the event since Brad Klapprott in 1992. Schaake and fellow sophomore Raymond Knoll earned All-Big Ten honors in addition to garnering PING All-Region honors.

During his time at Minnesota, the Gophers won the 2014 Big Ten title, their first team conference crown since 2007. Jose Mendez captured medalist honors to become Minnesota's first individual Big Ten champion since 2003. The Gophers went on to finish ninth at the NCAA Raleigh Regional, their first regional appearance since 2009. Minnesota won four tournaments during the 2013-14 season, marking the program's first victories since 2006-07.

In Stith's three seasons in Minneapolis, the Gophers' national ranking climbed from No. 104 to No. 68. The Gophers also improved in the classroom, earning GCAA All-Academic Team recognition during all three seasons (2012-14) and the Gopher Athletics' Norman Borlaug Commitment to Academic Excellence Award in 2014.

Stith served as an assistant coach to Hankins for three-and-a-half seasons at Iowa prior to joining the Minnesota staff. During that time, the Hawkeyes' national ranking improved from No. 155 to No. 9. Iowa recorded a school-record 10th-place finish at the 2011 NCAA Championships, eclipsing a previous program-best 17th place finish at the 2009 NCAA Championships. He was named a semifinalist for the Jan Strickland Award in 2011, an honor given to the top assistant in NCAA golf.

As a Hawkeye, Stith was a four-year letterwinner and a team captain during his senior season. The Mount Pleasant, Iowa, native graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in management information systems in 2002.

CHARLIE HOYLE

Assistant Coach Second Season

Alma Mater: Lander University

Charlie Hoyle is in his second season as the University of Iowa's men's assistant golf coach. He was hired July 30, 2018, after previously coaching at Division II Lander University. Hoyle joins a program that has finished fourth or better at the Big Ten Championships in the last five seasons, while also having 10 NCAA appearances in the last 11 years.

As the women's assistant, Hoyle recruited and coached seven women's all-conference players, two NCAA PING All-Regional players, two conference freshman of the year, and one NCAA All-American. Hoyle also helped guide the women's team to an impressive nine team wins.

A native of Lancashire, England, Hoyle played at Lander University in South Carolina from 2006-2010, where he recorded three second-place individual finishes and seven team victories. Hoyle was a two-time NCAA PING All-Region selection and a two-time All-Peach Belt selection, while being voted Lander's Most Valuable Player by his teammates in 2009.

After graduating in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in physical education/exercise studies, he competed professionally, winning 10 events across various mini-tours in the U.S, while also competing in the PGA Tour's Q-School. Hoyle's playing career stretched to Europe on the PGA Europro Tour and other mini-tours.

In his first year, Hoyle helped coach Iowa to five top-five finishes, including the Hawkeye Invitational title with a school shattering record 54-hole score of 809 (-43), topping the previous mark by 24 strokes, while also setting a school record for 18-holes with a first round score of 262 (-22). Hoyle also helped coach junior Alex Schaake to five top-10 finishes, earning Men's Big Ten Golfer of the Year and the Les Bolstad award for leading the Big Ten with a 70.81 stroke average, along with being named a unanimous All-Big Ten First Team honoree. Junior Benton Weinberg was named a second-team All-Big Ten selection.

His coaching career began in August of 2011, after being hired as Lander's men's and women's assistant golf coach. While assisting the men's team, he helped lead the Bearcats to two team wins and recruited and coached six men's all-conference players, three NCAA PING All-Regional players, two conference freshman of the year, and two NCAA All-Americans.

Charles Zwiener Scholarship

Chuck Zwiener served as men's golf coach at the University of Iowa from 1958 through 1989, coaching the Hawkeyes for 32 years.

In his honor, family and friends established the Chuck Zwiener Scholarship in 1992, to be awarded each year to an outstanding member of the Iowa golf team.

Upon taking over the Iowa program in 1958, Zwiener immediately led his first three Hawkeye teams into NCAA postseason action. During his tenure, Zwiener placed six players on the PGA Tour, one of which went on to become a two-time PGA club winner of the year. Nineteen of Zwiener's former players went on to become head PGA professionals. He also led the Hawkeyes to 10 first division finishes in the Big Ten, eight of his student-athletes earned All-Big Ten honors, and his student-athletes had a graduation rate of 100 percent.

For further information, or to make a gift to the Zwiener Scholarship Fund, contact the UI Foundation, 500 Alumni Center, Iowa City, IA 52242.

Jack & Ailene Liechty Scholarship

The E.J. Liechty Scholarship, for men's intercollegiate athletics, was established in 1995 by Ailene Liechty in memory of her husband, E.J. "Jack" Liechty. Since 1997, the annual scholarship has been awarded to a deserving student-athlete who is a member of the Iowa golf team.

Jack Liechty was a devoted supporter of the University of Iowa, especially in the areas of athletics and arts. He was known for his humor and his willingness to lend a helping hand.

Jack was a newspaperman all his life, entering the business in 1930 as the Iowa City circulation manager for the Des Moines Register. He joined the Iowa City Press-Citizen in 1934 as circulation manager, and went on to become president and publisher from 1962-1966. He was named president of Speidel Newspapers, Inc., the parent company of the Press-Citizen, in 1966. Jack retired in 1972, although he continued to serve on the executive committee until 1977, when Speidel merged with Gannett Co., Inc., the nation's largest newspaper company.

Over the years, Jack contributed to many projects across the University of Iowa campus, and in 1983 he received the Distinguished Friend Award from the UI Alumni Association. Jack died in 1994 at the age of 85. His son, John Liechty, was a second team All-American in 1958 and three-time golf letter winner for head coaches Bucky O'Connor and Chuck Zwiener.

James Hoak Scholarship

The James M. Hoak Scholarship is designated for deserving student-athletes on the UI men's golf team. Hoak is a 1940 graduate from the University of Iowa, former Des Moines businessman and currently resides in North Palm Beach, FL. Long-time friend, Clark A. Johnson and Hoak's three sons, David A. Hoak (a 1968 UI business graduate), Jon S. Hoak and

James M. Hoak Jr. made gift commitments to the UI Foundation to establish an endowed athletics scholarship fund in Hoak's name.

While at Iowa, James M. Hoak lettered in golf and roomed with UI football legend Nile Kinnick. Hoak attended the M.B.A. program at Harvard University in the early 1940's and after service in the Navy during World War II, joined the family business, the Wheeler Lumber Company, headquartered in Des Moines. He served as the firm's president for more than 20 years before retiring in 1985. Hoak and his wife, Jane, a 1941 UI graduate, have been UI supporters and volunteers for many years, and are members of the Presidents Club, which recognizes the UI's most generous contributors.

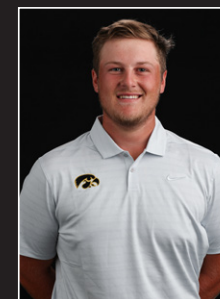

"Jim graduated from the university nearly 68 years ago, and I left campus in 1953, but neither of us has ever lost his enthusiasm for the university, and for its mission of equipping students with the tools to succeed in life after college," said Johnson. "Jim's been so important to the university over the years, and I wanted to do something to honor his love for the U of I while he and his family could enjoy and participate in that recognition."

"The James Hoak Scholarship represents a real win-win for the UI athletics program," UI Athletics Director Gary Barta said. "The student-athletes who earn the Hoak Scholarship will have the distinction of knowing that their awards carry the name of one of our most loyal and generous graduates -- someone who knew Nile personally, and who represents the proud history and integrity of the UI athletics program."

Iowa's new golf complex is the James M. Hoak Family Golf Complex.

Bucky O'Connor Scholarship

The Bucky O'Connor Endowed Scholarship fund now endows both a basketball and golf scholarship at the University of Iowa. Since 1994, the scholarship provides a full ride, tuition, room, board and books for a member of the Iowa golf team.

O'Connor coached the Iowa golf team from 1949-56, and had a dual meet record of 39-30-4. His 1954 team placed second in the Big Ten tournament, and 11th in the NCAA meet.

Also serving as Iowa's basketball coach from 1951-58, O'Connor directed his teams to a 108-54 record, including two Big Ten championships and two NCAA Final Four appearances.

O'Connor joined the Hawkeye staff in 1948 and coached the Hawkeyes until he was killed in an automobile accident in April, 1958.

For further information, or to make a gift to the O'Connor Scholarship Fund, contact the UI Foundation, 500 Alumni Center, Iowa City, IA 52242.

GARY BARTA
DIRECTOR

Gary Barta is in his 14th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa, where he occupies the Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair. The position was recently endowed by the Tippies, longtime supporters of the University of Iowa and Hawkeye Athletics. Henry B. Tippie earned his UI degree in 1949 and was presented an honorary degree in 2009.

Barta is in his first year as a member of the College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee. He was appointed to the selection committee by the CFP Management Committee in February, 2019 and is serving a three-year term.

In 2018-19 Iowa Athletics earned four Big Ten championships: men's outdoor track and field, men's gymnastics regular season (tie), wrestling regular season (tie), and women's basketball tournament. Iowa placed 38th in the Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup standings, its highest ranking since 2000 (29th).

• Win •

Football: Iowa football closed the season with a win over #18 Mississippi State in the 2019 Outback Bowl, posting its ninth win of the season. Iowa football has earned eight or more wins in each of the last four seasons. The Hawkeyes have won 37 games over the past four seasons, matching the third-best three-year win total in school history. Head coach Kirk Ferentz has earned 152 career victories at Iowa, becoming the winningest football coach in school history. Along with the Outback Bowl victory, Iowa also won three of four rivalry trophy games. Three Hawkeye players were named Player of the Year at their position in the Big Ten Conference, while tight end T.J. Hockenson earned the John Mackey Award as the top tight end in the nation.

Women's Basketball: Iowa made history in 2018-19, earning the program's first Elite Eight appearance since 1993. Head coach Lisa Bluder led the Hawkeyes to a 29-7 overall record, matching a program-record for most wins in a single season. Iowa also won its first Big Ten Tournament title since 2001, defeating Indiana, Rutgers, and No. 8 Maryland on consecutive days in Indianapolis. The Hawkeyes ended the year ranked in the top-15 nationally in seven categories: field goal percentage (1st; 51.5), assists per game (2nd; 21.5), total assists (3rd; 775), and assist/turnover ratio (4th; 1.55). Following the season, Bluder was named the Naismith College Coach of the Year, and senior Megan Gustafson earned Consensus National Player of the Year (Naismith, USBWA, AP, ESPNW) recognition.

Men's Basketball: Head coach Fran McCaffery has led Iowa to postseason tournaments seven of the last eight seasons (4 NCAA, 3 NIT). This past season the Hawkeyes amassed 23 victories, the program's second-highest total in 13 seasons, and won an NCAA Tournament game for the third time in five years. Iowa recorded five wins over ranked opponents with only one senior on its squad, a total that matched the most by an Iowa team in 13 seasons. McCaffery coached four Hawkeyes to postseason recognition in 2018-19: Tyler Cook earned second-team All-Big Ten laurels, Jordan Bohannon was named to third-team all-conference, Luka Garza was an honorable mention selection, while Joe Wieskamp became the sixth Hawkeye since 2010 to be voted to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team. McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have registered first-division finishes in the Big Ten six of the last seven seasons; only Michigan State (7) has more upper division finishes than Iowa (6) and Wisconsin (6) during that span.

Wrestling: The Hawkeyes placed fourth at the NCAA Championships, earning one individual national title and crowning six All-Americans. It marked the 11th time in the last 12 years the Hawkeyes won a team trophy at the national tournament. Sophomore Spencer Lee won the 125-pound NCAA title. Sophomore Alex Marinelli won the 165-pound Big Ten championship. Marinelli, redshirt freshman Jacob Warner, sophomores Austin DeSanto and Kaleb Young, and junior Pat Lugo also earned All-America honors. The Hawkeyes won the Dan Gable Traveling Trophy for the ninth consecutive year by running their win streak against Iowa State to 15 duals. Iowa shared the Big Ten regular season championship, and led the nation in attendance for the 13th straight year.

Rowing: Sixth-year head coach Andrew Carter led Iowa to its third consecutive NCAA Championships appearance in 2019, placing 13th overall with 63 points. Carter guided Iowa's I Varsity Eight to its highest national finish in program history with a 9th place finish in the country. At the Big Ten Championships, the Hawkeyes named three All-Big Ten honorees in Contessa Harold (first-team), Hunter Koenigsfeld (second-team), and Hannah Greenlee (second-team). The Hawkeyes have been nationally ranked a program-best 29 straight weeks, peaking at No. 8.

Field Hockey: Iowa reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2012. Fifth-year head coach Lisa Cellucci guided Iowa to a 14-7 overall record, marking the most wins for the program since 2011. Five Hawkeyes earned postseason awards, including two All-America honorees in sophomore Maddy Murphy (third-team) and junior Katie Birch (second-team). Following the season, Iowa's coaching staff was named the West Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Track & Field: The University of Iowa track and field team closed the 2019 outdoor season with the men's Big Ten title, three individual titles, and one relay title. The Hawkeyes had seven first-team All-Big Ten honorees and added six second-team All-Big Ten selections. Junior Lauluga Tausaga won Iowa's first individual NCAA Outdoor Championship title in 34 years when she threw a school record discus mark, leading the Hawkeyes to their second consecutive top-25 finish. Tausaga recorded three of the Hawkeyes seven school records, including discus, shot put, and hammer. Tausaga was named USTFCCA Midwest Region Female Field Athlete of the Year, Big Ten Female Field Athlete of the Year, and Big Ten Female Field Athlete of the Championships, and director of track and field Joey Woody was named USTFCCA Midwest Region Men's Head Coach of the Year and Big Ten Men's Coach of the Year. Individual Hawkeyes made movement on the all-time record list 49 times (25 women and 24 men). The women won their first Hy-Vee Cup at the Drake Relays, bringing home the Hawkeyes' third trophy in as many years (men 2017, 2018).

Men's Gymnastics: The Hawkeyes garnered three upset wins during the Big Ten regular season (No. 3 Michigan, No. 7 Nebraska, No. 5 Penn State) to clinch a share of the first-ever Big Ten regular season title. Three Hawkeyes earned All-America honors in 2019, including senior Jake Brodarzon, freshman Stewart Brown, and junior Andrew Herrador. Head coach JD Reive earned Central Region Head Coach of the Year, while assistant coaches Tom Buese and Ben Ketelsen captured Central Region Assistant Coaches of the Year honors.

Baseball: Rick Heller and the Iowa baseball team posted its sixth straight 30-win season, finishing 31-24 in 2019. The Hawkeyes qualified for the Big Ten Tournament for a record sixth straight season. Junior Grant Leonard broke the single-season saves record with 14, and senior Cole McDonald became the third straight Iowa Friday night starter to be taken in the top-16 rounds of the MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Swimming & Diving: The Iowa men's swimming and diving team had five NCAA Championships qualifiers.

Men's Golf: The men's golf team, under fifth-year head coach Tyler Stith, advanced to NCAA postseason play for the 10th time in 11 seasons. Junior Alex Schaake became the third Hawkeye to be named men's golf Big Ten Player of the Year. Schaake and junior Benton Weinberg were All-Big Ten and Ping All-Midwest Region honorees.

• Graduate •

- Hawkeye student-athletes set all-time highs with a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and 76 percent Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) for a four-class average. UI student-athletes rank higher than the national average in GSR and FGR.
- Seven UI programs posted a perfect GSR score: soccer, women's swimming, field hockey, men's golf, volleyball, women's golf, and women's gymnastics.
- Hawkeye student-athletes have an average GPA of 3.0 in each of the last four academic years.
- Iowa has the fourth-highest GSR in the Big Ten Conference. Iowa's GSR was among the top five scores within the Big Ten Conference the past two years.
- Over 200 Iowa student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition for the 2018-19 school year.
- Fifty-eight Big Ten Conference Distinguished Scholars
- Over 300 student-athletes earned Dean's List and President's List honors.

• Do It Right •

- UI Athletics Department: 100 percent self-sustaining financially; no tax dollars or institutional funding.

- The University of Iowa Athletics Department and the UI Stead Family Children's Hospital facilitated the "Kinnick Wave" during home football games in 2017, creating national recognition. The "Kinnick Wave" was presented the Disney Spirit Award in 2017.

- Eleventh anniversary: Iowa Football/University of Iowa Children's Hospital "Kid Captain" program

- Student-Athlete Academic Services has sponsored the annual ISAAC Day of Caring for 21 years, with over 250 student-athletes assisting area agencies with spring clean-up, landscaping, sustainability projects, etc. This service opportunity is in collaboration with United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties.

- Student-athletes annually participate in over 4,000 appearances resulting in the accumulation of more than 10,000 hours of community service and programming. Student-athletes participate in several service and educational programming opportunities throughout the year.

- Within the Hawkeye Life Program, student-athletes gain experience in six areas which include Leadership, Community Engagement, Academic Success, Career Development, Health & Well-Being, and Diversity & Inclusion. 2018-19 highlights:

- o Diversity & Inclusion - - Annual Town Hall meeting with all studentathletes on the subject of being champions of respect, inclusion, and equality within athletics. o Leadership - - ISAAC secured a liaison position within UI Student Government (UISG). Student-athletes now have a voice within this group.

- o Community Engagement - - the Hawkeye 5 program was created to encourage all student-athletes to participate in at least five hours of community service each semester. In 2018-2019, 139 student-athletes achieved Hawkeye 5.

- o Career Development - - the Hawks to Professionals (H2P) summer job shadowing program continues to offer experiential learning opportunities for student-athletes during an eight-week shadowing experience and lecture series. Over 40 student-athletes from various sports participate each summer.

- o Health & Well-Being - - the ISAAC Health & Well-Being and Academic Success committees collaborated with Sport Psychology and Sports Nutrition to offer "De-Stress Fest" - stress relief activities such as massages, yoga, and therapy dogs, as well as healthy snacks during finals week in May.

- o Dance Marathon - - Annual event now includes "athlete hour" where 100 student-athletes visit with children and their families during the Big Event. ISAAC and student-athletes raised over $2400 for Dance Marathon in 2018-19.

• Personal •

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City community extends beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate Athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president.

Barta remains active at the conference and national level. He serves on the NCAA DI Council, the NCAA Ad Hoc Committee on Sports Wagering, and the College Football Playoff Selection Committee. He is also regularly involved in NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) and LEAD1 (formerly known as the Division 1A Athletic Directors Association).

From a community standpoint, Barta recently served on the United Way of Johnson & Washington Counties Board of Directors. He is a long-standing member of the UI Partnership for Alcohol Safety Committee and has been a regular participant in numerous Chamber and Convention & Visitors Bureau initiatives during his tenure.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.

Barta, and wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (21), and a daughter, Madison (19). He was born September 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

DID YOU KNOW...

42 percent of UI students are from out of state.

24 University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the top 25 in the nation, including 11 in the top 10.

-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2016

With over 33,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (2.4%) ranks among the nation's lowest (September, 2017).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural Diversity at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

With over 28,000 square feet of space for the use of student-athletes, the Gerdin Athletic Learning Center (GALC) is a structured environment designed to provide student-athletes with many resources to assist in reaching their academic goals. New and selected returning student-athletes may be required to complete an assigned number of hours per week. Each sport team designates its own attendance criteria. The Gerdin Athletic Learning Center has ample space for quiet study or collaborative learning. There are three computer labs where students can work on or print assignments and there are also rooms available for individual and group tutoring.

When a student-athlete considers his future, he should consider prospects beyond golf. He should consider where he wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, he should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.
Herky The Hawkeye

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
