HEAD COACH ANDREW CARTER

Andrew Carter was named the third head coach in program history for the University of Iowa rowing program in July 2013.

Carter has led Iowa to the NCAA Championships in each of the last three seasons, securing just the third and fourth championship appearances in school history. The Hawkeyes have improved one spot in the conference standings in each of Carter's five years at the Big Ten Championships.

During his coaching career, Carter has earned more than 50 championship medals, and over the last 15 years, he has coached nine All-Americans and 41 National Scholar-Athletes.

IOWA HAWKEYES
 HEAD COACH | ANDREW CARTER (7TH SEASON)

BIG TEN INVITATIONAL

THIS WEEK

The University of Iowa rowing team heads to Cincinnati, Ohio, to compete in the 2021 Big Ten Invitational on Saturday and Sunday, April 17-18. The races will take place at Harsha Lake at East Fork State Park in Bethel, Ohio.

THE COMPETITION

- The field includes 16 teams, including all eight schools from the Big Ten -- Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Ohio State, Rutgers, Wisconsin -- and eight additional teams, including Alabama, Brown, Duke, Louisville, Notre Dame, Syracuse, Tennessee, and Virginia.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- The Hawkeyes won three races and took second in six additional races at the Ohio State Duals in Columbus, Ohio, on March 27.
- Iowa's II Varsity Four, I Novice Eight, and II Novice Eight boats won against Indiana and Oregon State. The Hawkeyes dominated, winning each by an average of 24.3 seconds.
- Iowa's second place finishes in II Novice Eight, II Varsity Four, I Varsity Eight, and I Varsity Four behind Michigan and Indiana were all close, each finishing at most three seconds behind the winner.

2020 ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The Hawkeyes roster this year features girls from four countries: USA (50), Canada (3), England (2), Italy (1).
- 13 different states are represented on the Iowa roster.
