Tom Brands
Head Coach
University of Iowa, 1992

Five-time Big Ten and three-time NWCA Coach of the Year Tom Brands enters his 16th season as head wrestling coach at the University of Iowa in 2021-22. A 1996 Olympic gold medalist and member of wrestling's Hall of Fame, Brands is only the eighth head wrestling coach at the University of Iowa. The former Hawk-eye wrestler was a four-time All-American and three-time national champion (1989-92) at Iowa. He has a 236-23-1 (.909) overall and 113-10 (.917) Big Ten coaching record at Iowa. He has a 253-43-1 (.852) career mark and a 114-12 (.905) record at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

In 15 seasons as Iowa's head coach, Brands has led the Hawkeyes to four NCAA and six Big Ten team titles, crowning 13 NCAA champions, 23 Big Ten champions and 89 All-Americans. Iowa has had 142 Academic All-Big Ten recipients, including a school-record 17 in 2019-20. The Hawkeyes have qualified 138 wrestlers for the NCAA Championships in the last 15 years, sending the entire 10-man lineup in 2010, 2014, 2015, 2020 and 2021. Iowa has won or shared the Big Ten regular season title 12 times in Brands' 15 seasons.

The program set the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 42,287 when No. 3 Iowa defeated top-ranked Oklahoma State, 18-16, on Nov. 14, 2015 at the Grapple on the Gridiron at Kinnick Stadium. Iowa has led the nation in attendance every year since Brands became head coach in 2006-07, setting an NCAA all-time attendance average of 12,568 in 2019-20.

Brands has been named NWCA National Coach of the Year three times. He was first honored in 2008 after leading the Hawkeyes to their first NCAA team title since 2000. He was recognized in 2020 when the top-ranked Hawkeyes won Big Ten regular season and tournament championships and entered the NCAA Championships as the favorite to win the team title. The tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He most recently won the award in 2021 when Iowa won Big Ten and NCAA team titles.

Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2020 and 2021. He is the only coach in program history to earn the award five times.

Brands served as head coach at Virginia Tech University for two seasons (2005-06), recording a 17-20 dual mark. In his first season with the Hokies, Brands led the team to the 2005 regular season Atlantic Coast Conference title, set a school record for dual meet wins (16) and had a school-record five wrestlers qualify for the NCAA Championships.

Prior to taking the helm at Virginia Tech, Brands was an assistant coach at Iowa for 12 seasons (1993-2004). He helped the Hawkeyes to a 177-27 dual record, seven NCAA and eight Big Ten team titles, while crowning 23 NCAA champions, 73 All-Americans and 36 Big Ten champions. He was named the National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2000.

In 2004, he was one of three coaches for the U.S. Olympic freestyle wrestling team, participating in Athens, and in 2016 he was named a volunteer coach of the United States Olympic team in Rio. Brands also served as assistant coach for the U.S. Freestyle World Teams in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2013, 2014, and 2015. He was named Freestyle Coach of the Year by USA Wrestling in 2002 and 2003. He has coached a number of other U.S. teams in international competition.

As a competitor, Brands won the 1996 Olympic freestyle gold medal at 136.5 pounds in Atlanta, Georgia. He also won a gold medal at the 1993 World Championships in Toronto, two World Cup gold medals (1994, 1995) and was the 1995 Pan American Games champion. He won four U.S. National titles (1993-96) and made four straight U.S. World or Olympic teams (1993-96). Along with his twin brother, Terry, Tom was named 1993 USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, the 1993 John Smith Outstanding Freestyle Wrestler, and 1993 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year. He was inducted into wrestling's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Brands was a four-time All-American at Iowa (1989-92). During his Hawkeye career, he won three NCAA titles and was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 1992 NCAA Championships. Also a three-time Big Ten champion, Brands won 95 percent of his matches at Iowa. His career mark of 158-7-2 includes an undefeated season in 1991 (45-0).

The Sheldon, Iowa, native was born April 9, 1968. He earned his B.S. degree in physical education from Iowa in 1992. He and his wife, Jeni, have three adult children, Madigan, Kinsee and Tommy.

Terry Brands
Associate Head Coach
University of Iowa, 1992

Two-time World Champion and 2000 Olympic bronze medalist Terry Brands is in his 23rd season on the University of Iowa staff. Brands was promoted to associate head coach in 2011 after serving two stints (2008-10 and 1992-2000) as an assistant coach at Iowa.

During the last 13 seasons, Brands has helped Iowa win three NCAA and five Big Ten team titles, crowning 10 NCAA champions, 79 All-Americans, 21 Big Ten champions and 118 academic All-Big Ten honorees. Iowa owns a 191-17-1 dual record since Brands returned to the staff in 2008.

Since returning to campus, Iowa set school records for longest dual unbeaten (84) and winning streaks (69), longest dual road unbeaten (51) and winning streaks (44), most Carver-Hawkeye Arena victories (11) and most dual shutouts (8). Iowa also made another entry in the record books, setting the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 42,287 when it defeated top-ranked Oklahoma State on Nov. 14, 2015, at Kinnick Stadium in the Grapple on the Gridiron.

Brands rejoined the Hawkeye staff in 2008 after a three-year stint (2005-08) as USA Wrestling's National Freestyle Resident Coach in Colorado Springs, Colorado. During his tenure, Brands worked with 2008 U.S. Olympic freestyle gold medalist Henry Cejudo and 2006 World champion Bill Zadick.

He has coached the Hawkeye Wrestling Club since returning to campus, and in 2014 he was named USA Wrestling's Terry McCann Freestyle Coach of the Year.

His previous collegiate coaching experience includes three years as head coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga (2002-05), and as an assistant coach at Montana State-Northern (2001-02), the University of Nebraska (2000-01), and the University of Iowa (1992-2000). At Chattanooga, Brands led the Mocs to the 2005 Southern Conference title, crowning three conference champions and two All-Americans. At Iowa, he helped the Hawkeyes win seven NCAA and Big Ten titles, crowning 19 NCAA and 26 Big Ten champions. Iowa's dual record of 115-12-1 during his tenure included three undefeated seasons (14-0 in 1995, 17-0 in 1996 and 18-0 in 2000).

Brands was one of the nation's greatest freestyle wrestlers, winning World titles in 1993 in Toronto, Canada, and in 1995 in Atlanta, Georgia, at 125.5 pounds (57 kg). He won World Team titles as a member of the 1993 and 1995 U.S. World Teams. In 1993, he won a world title the same year his brother, Tom, was a World champion at 136.5 pounds (62 kg). They became the first U.S. brothers to win World Titles during the same year. Terry was named 1993 USA Wrestling Athlete of the Year, 1993 John Smith Freestyle Wrestler of the Year and 1993 Amateur Wrestling News Man of the Year.

Brands placed second at the 1996 U.S. Nationals and the 1996 Olympic Team Trials, falling just short of making the U.S. Olympic Team. He qualified for the 1997 and 1999 U.S. World Teams, but did not compete. In 2000, he made a comeback and won the U.S. Olympic Team Trials at 127.75 pounds (58 kg). He earned a bronze medal at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

A two-time World Cup champion (1994, 1995), Brands won a gold medal at the 1995 Pan American Games. He was a two-time silver medalist at the respected Yarygin Tournament in Krasnoyarsk, Russia. Brands won three U.S. Nationals titles, and was runner-up three times. He was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2006.

Brands was a two-time NCAA champion, three-time All-American and three-time Big Ten champion for the Hawkeyes (1989-92) at 126 pounds. He ended his career at Iowa with a 137-7 record. He ranks fourth in single-season victories (43 - 1990-91), and fifth in career winning percentage (.951) and career wins (137). He ranks sixth in career pins (48) and 10th in single-season pins (18 - 1990-91). He is one of 19 Hawkeyes in program history to post an undefeated season record, going 35-0 in 1991-92.

The Sheldon, Iowa, native was born April 9, 1968. He earned a bachelor of science degree in Human Development from the University of Iowa in 1992. He and his wife, Michelle, have a son, Nelson, and a daughter, Sydney.

Ryan Morningstar
Assistant Coach
University of Iowa, 2009

Ryan Morningstar joined the Hawkeye staff in 2012 and has helped lead Iowa to one NCAA team championship, three Big Ten Conference tournament titles and six Big Ten regular season dual titles.

The Hawkeyes have earned 55 All-America honors over the past eight seasons, crowning six NCAA champions.

Morningstar's collegiate career included four NCAA appearances (2007-10) as a Hawkeye. He earned All-America honors in 2009 and 2010, and was a member of three NCAA championship teams (2008-10).

Morningstar placed third at the NCAA championships and was a Big Ten runner-up at 165 pounds in 2009. He suffered a knee injury during his senior season (2010) but still went on to place seventh at the NCAAs and fourth at the Big Ten Championships. That same year he was named Iowa's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner, and won the Mike McGivern Award, which is given annually to the team's most courageous wrestler.

A four-year letterwinner from 2007-10, Morningstar owns a career record of 110-40. He was a member of the Hawkeye Wrestling Club in 2010-11 and qualified to compete in the 2012 U.S. Olympic Team Trials at 163 pounds (74 kg).

The Lisbon, Iowa, native graduated from Iowa in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in health and sports studies.

Dan Hodge Trophy

The WIN Magazine/Culture House Dan Hodge Trophy, presented by ASICS, is awarded annually to the nation's most dominant college wrestler. It is named for the undefeated, three-time NCAA champion from Oklahoma University. Hodge has the highest pinning percentage in collegiate history, and was known for his dominating style of wrestling. The award was first presented in 1995. Iowa's award winners are Mark Ironside (1998), Brent Metcalf (2008), and Spencer Lee (2020, 2021).

Mark Ironside was a four-time All-American, four-time Big Ten Champion and two-time NCAA Champion from 1995-98. A three-time Big Ten Wrestler of the Year, he was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 1997 Big Ten Championships.

2008

Brent Metcalf was a three-time All-American, two-time NCAA Champion and two-time Big Ten Champion from 2008-10. The 2008 Jesse Owens B1G Athlete of the Year, Metcalf was named Outstanding Wrestler of the 2008 NCAA Championships.

2020

Spencer Lee outscored his opponents, 234-18, in 2020. He scored bonus points in 17 of 18 wins, recorded four first-period falls and nine technical falls, and averaged 5.0 team points per match. He finished the season 18-0 and was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year and NCAA Most Dominant Wrestler.

2021

Spencer Lee outscored his five opponents at the national tournament, 59-8, capturing his third career NCAA title and leading Iowa to the team title for the first time since 2010. Lee was 12-0 in 2021, scoring bonus points in 11 matches and recording five first-period falls. He outscored his 12 opponents, 141-15, and his 91.6 bonus-point percentage led the country.

No team has dominated collegiate wrestling like the University of Iowa Hawkeyes since the mid 1970s. Iowa captured nine straight NCAA titles from 1978-86 and has won 24 of the last 47. During that span Iowa boasts 281 All-Americans and 66 individual champions. Following are summaries of Iowa's 24 NCAA championship seasons.

Iowa posted an undefeated dual season (17-0-1), set a school mark for wins and won its first NCAA title. The team had a school-record five All-Americans, national champs in Chuck Yagla and Dan Holm, and four dual shutouts.

1976

Iowa won its second straight NCAA title and captured 14 of 15 duals. A school-record three Hawkeyes (Brad Smith, Chuck Yagla and Chris Campbell) won NCAA titles. Yagla won his second straight title and was the meet's Outstanding Wrestler. Iowa won the title by almost 40 points and amassed a national record 123 1/4 points.

1978

The Hawkeyes started their nine-year string of national championships and were 15-1 in duals. Iowa's one-half point margin of victory at the NCAA meet gave the Hawkeyes their third title in four years. This team was the first in college history to win the national championship without an individual champion.

1979

Coach Dan Gable's first undefeated and untied (19-0-0) team included NCAA champs Bruce Kinseth and Randy Lewis. Kinseth, who had a school-record 23 pins, was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet. He pinned all four opponents at Big Tens and all five at nationals.

1980

Iowa won its third straight national title with a school-record eight all-Americans, including NCAA champions Randy Lewis (134) and Ed Banach (177). A 34-match dual winning streak was snapped by Cal-Poly, 27-12.

1981

The winningest team (21-1) in Iowa annals boasted nine All-Americans and seven Big Ten champs. Brothers Ed and Lou Banach won NCAA titles. The 10-man lineup had an overall record of 302-45-2. Iowa won the NCAA title by 29 1/2 points.

1982

Three NCAA champions – Barry Davis, Jim Zalesky and Pete Bush – paced the undefeated (16-0-1) national champions. Davis set the Iowa season mark for wins with 46. The Hawkeyes had eight All-Americans and piled up a record 131 3/4 points at the NAAs.

1983

Iowa set a Big Ten record with nine league champs, compiled a 17-1 dual record and won a sixth consecutive NCAA crown. Iowa had nine All-Americans, a tournament record. Ed Banach won his third NCAA title in four years. Carver-Hawkeye Arena opened its doors with a 35-7 victory over Oklahoma.

1984

The Hawkeyes were 16-1 in duals and won both NCAA and Big Ten titles. Jim Zalesky, named Outstanding Wrestler at the NAAs, posted his second straight undefeated campaign and closed his career with 89 straight wins. Five Hawkeyes made the national championship match.

1985

Gable's second perfect season record (18-0-0) was accomplished with nine All-Americans and eight Big Ten champions. Davis, who won his third NCAA title, earned Outstanding Wrestler. For the second year in a row, five Hawkeyes wrestled in NCAA title matches.

1986

The Hawkeyes' record-tying ninth straight national team title was a record-shattering performance. Iowa set all-time NCAA records for points scored (158), margin of victory (73.25) and national champs (five)! Marty Kistler was the Hawkeyes' third straight NCAA Outstanding Wrestler award winner. Six wrestlers won at least 30 matches. The ninth straight NCAA championship tied the all-time record for consecutive titles.

1991

Iowa regained the national title that had eluded it since 1986, crowning nine All-Americans at the NCAA meet in Iowa City. Tom Brands (134) won his second straight title and was joined on the victory stand by Mark Reiland (167). Tom Brands ended the year with a perfect 45-0 record. Iowa's team total of 157 was just one shy of the NCAA record, set by Iowa in 1986. The Hawkeyes won their 18th straight Big Ten title.

1992

Gable's third perfect season (16-0-0) was accomplished by nine All-Americans, including NCAA champs Terry Brands, Tom Brands, and Troy Steiner. Tom Brands won his third consecutive NCAA title and was named Outstanding Wrestler. The Hawkeyes won their 19th straight Big Ten crown (6 champs) and second straight NCAA title. The Iowa-Iowa State dual meet (a 29-8 Iowa victory) drew an NCAA record 15,291 fans in Iowa City.

1993

Iowa rebounded from a midseason slump to win a third straight NCAA title and 20th consecutive Big Ten title. The Hawkeyes fell from the top of the Amateur Wrestling News poll with a 24-20 loss to Nebraska at the National Duals in Lincoln, NE, in late January, but regrouped to go 8-0 down the stretch. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-America honors, headlined by national champs Lincoln McIlravy and Terry Steiner. Steiner was named Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA Meet, and his brother Troy was selected Big Ten Athlete of the Year. Gable was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the first time.

1995

The Hawkeyes won their 15th NCAA title and 22nd consecutive Big Ten title while posting an undefeated dual meet record (14-0). Nine Hawkeyes were named to the All-America team for the sixth time in school history. The All-Americans were Ray Brinzer, Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness, Lincoln McIlravy, Mike Mena, Matt Nerem, Joel Sharratt, Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick.

1996

Iowa finished its second consecutive dual meet season undefeated, posting a 17-0 record. The Hawkeyes won their 23rd consecutive Big Ten title and their 16th national title. Gable was named Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year and sophomore Mark Ironside was selected Big Ten Wrestler of the Year. Seniors Daryl Weber and Bill Zadick and sophomore Joe Williams all won their first NCAA titles. Seven Hawkeyes earned All-American honors, including Lee Fullhart, Ironside, Mike Mena, Mike Uker, Weber, Williams and Zadick.

1997

The Hawkeyes scored an NCAA record 170 team points en route to their 17th national title in Dan Gable's final season as head coach. Iowa crowned five national champions (Jessie Whitmer, Mark Ironside, Lincoln McIlravy, Joe Williams and Lee Fullhart), and eight All-Americans. McIlravy was named Outstanding Wrestler of the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes also won their 24th consecutive Big Ten title, and Ironside was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year for the second consecutive year.

1998

Led by head coach Jim Zalesky, the Hawkeyes won their 25th consecutive Big Ten title and their 18th national title. Seniors Mark Ironside, Jeff McGinness and Joe Williams all won Big Ten and NCAA individual titles. Ironside was named Big Ten wrestler of the Year, McGinness was selected Outstanding Wrestler of the Big Ten meet and Williams garnered Outstanding Wrestler honors at the NCAA meet. Junior Lee Fullhart, freshman Eric Juergens and sophomore Wes Hand earned All-America honors.

1999

Iowa won their eighth NCAA title in the 1990's and their 19th overall at an exciting national meet in University Park, PA. The Hawkeyes' two-point victory margin was the closest in 20 years. Sophomores Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams each won their first national titles, while sophomore Eric Juergens and seniors Lee Fullhart and Jamie Heidt earned All-America honors. Heidt, Schwab and Williams all won Big Ten titles.

2000

The Hawkeyes won seven consecutive matches, scoring 23 1/2 points, in the consolation round to come from behind and win their sixth consecutive NCAA Championship in St. Louis, MO. Iowa crowned one individual national champion in junior 133-pounder Eric Juergens, while juniors Jody Strittmatter, Doug Schwab and T.J. Williams, sophomore Mike Zadick and senior Wes Hand earned All-America honors. The Hawkeyes went 18-0 in duals, and recaptured the conference team title. Big Ten individual champs were Strittmatter, Juergens, Schwab and Williams.

After an eight-year absence, the Hawkeyes regained the top spot on the NCAA Championship podium by winning the school's 21st national title. The team crowned two individual champions - senior Mark Perry (165) and sophomore Brent Metcalf (149) - and had seven All-Americans. Iowa won its 32nd Big Ten title and went 21-1 in dual competition and 8-0 in Big Ten duals. Head Coach Tom Brands was named Coach of the Year by the NWCA, W.I.N. Magazine and the Big Ten. Metcalf was named the Dan Hodge Trophy winner, the Jesse Owens Big Ten Male Athlete of the Year, Outstanding Wrestler at the NCAA and Big Ten Championships and Big Ten Wrestler of the Year.

Despite crowning no individual champions, the Hawkeyes collected their second straight team title at the 2009 NCAA Championships in St. Louis, MO. Iowa scored 96.5 points, edging runner-up Ohio State by 4.5 points, to record its 22nd NCAA team title. It's the closest margin of victory since Iowa won the 1999 team title by two points. It also marks only the second time in school history the Hawkeyes have won the NCAA title without an individual champion. Iowa also accomplished that feat in 1978. The Hawkeyes had a total of five All-Americans in juniors Brent Metcalf (149-2nd), Daniel Dennis (133-7th), Ryan Morningstar (165-3rd), Phillip Keddy (184-4th) and Dan Erikson (Hwt.-4th). The Hawkeyes posted a perfect 24-0 dual meet record, going 8-0 in Big Ten duals, and won their 33rd Big Ten team title. Iowa also set the national collegiate dual meet attendance record of 15,955 when it hosted Iowa State at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Iowa closed out the 2009-10 season on the winner's stand, bringing the Big Ten and NCAA team trophies back to Iowa City. Iowa won its 23rd NCAA and 34th Big Ten titles while crowning three NCAA champions, eight All-Americans and two Big Ten champions. The team was undefeated at 23-0 in dual competition, marking the 13th perfect season in school history. Iowa was also 11-0 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena and 8-0 in Big Ten duals, winning its third straight conference regular season title. Iowa won the 2009 Midlands and 2010 NWCA/Cliff Keen National Duals Division I team titles, ending the season on a 61 dual-match winning streak and shutting out eight opponents - both of which are school records. Seniors Brent Metcalf and Jay Borschel, and redshirt freshman Matt McDonough won individual NCAA titles, while seniors Daniel Dennis, Dan Erikson, Phillip Keddy and Ryan Morningstar, and sophomore Montell Marion each earned All-America honors. Borschel and Erikson were Iowa's two Big Ten champions. McDonough was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, and Head Coach Tom Brands was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third straight season.

The Hawkeyes finished the 2020-21 season as Big Ten and NCAA champions. The conference title was the 37th and the national title was the 24th in program history. Iowa crowned one NCAA individual champion, seven All-Americans, four Big Ten individual champions and 13 academic All-Big Ten honorees. The Hawkeyes were 5-0 overall and 5-0 in the Big Ten, sharing the regular season conference title with Penn State

The Hawkeyes won their 24th national team title at the 2021 NCAA Championships in St. Louis. Iowa crowned seven All-Americans, including Spencer Lee, who won the 125-pound national title for the third straight year and was named winner of the Hodge Trophy for the second consecutive season.

NWCA Division I
All-Academic Team

To qualify for the NWCA all-academic team, a wrestler must have at least a 3.2 cumulative grade-point average, and has either been an NCAA qualifier or won 60 percent of his total schedule - and must have competed in at least 60 percent of said schedule. Wrestlers can also earn a spot on the all-academic team if they were an NCAA All-American and posted a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average.

Head Coach Gary Kurdelmeier and Assistant Coach Dan Gable, both in their third years at Iowa, were optimistic at the beginning of the 1974-75 season, hoping to defend their Big Ten team title and post a winning dual season. The duo not only accomplished those goals, but added the first NCAA team title in school history and the school's ninth undefeated season (17-0-1) to their list of accomplishments. The Hawkeyes also set then-school records for most all-Americans (5) and most dual wins (17) in a season. Dan Holm and Chuck Yagla each won their first NCAA individual title.

The 1982-83 Hawkeyes set records for most Big Ten champions (9), largest victory margin at the Big Ten Championships (118.5), all-Americans (9), and largest point total (155) and victory margin (53) at the NCAA meet. Senior twin brothers Ed (190) and Lou Banach (Hwt.) won their second NCAA individual titles, making them only the second set of twins in NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships history to win individual titles in the same season two straight years.

Iowa celebrated Dan Gable's 10th season as head coach by winning its ninth consecutive national team title at the 1986 NCAA Championships held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. It equaled the longest streak of national titles won by any school, in any sport, also held by the Yale golf team (1905-13) and the Southern Cal track team (1935-43). The Hawkeyes also set NCAA records for total points (158), victory margin (73.25) and number of national champions (5), and tied the record for most finalists (6).

The 1996-97 wrestling team broke the NCAA record for total points (158), which it set in 1986, with its winning total of 170, and recorded the second-largest victory margin (56.50 points) in NCAA tournament history. The Hawkeyes also crowned five NCAA Champions out of six finalists, both tying NCAA records.

ALWAYS ON THE BIG STAGE

Iowa led the nation in attendance for the 14th consecutive season in 2019-20, setting an NCAA average attendance record of 12,568 fans in seven home dates. Official attendance records were not kept in 2020-21. The 2019-20 season marked the 12th straight that Iowa averaged more than 8,000 fans. It also marks the first time in NCAA history that a program put more than 10,000 fans in the building for every home dual.

The previous average dual attendance record was 12,166, set by Iowa in 2015-16, the season that opened with the “Grapple on the Gridiron” at Kinnick Stadium, an event where 42,287 people watched fourth-ranked Iowa defeat top-ranked Oklahoma State, 18-16, on Nov. 14, 2015 at Kinnick Stadium.

The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex was a part of the $47 million revitalization and expansion of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The complex features an extended training space, a new locker room, new coaches locker room, student-athlete video center, and a new office suite.

Carver-Hawkeye Arena has been the home of Iowa wrestling since 1983. The facility is one of the finest of its kind in the world, and it seats 15,077 fans for a dual wrestling meet. The arena is named after the late Roy J. Carver, a long-time friend and contributor to the University. Carver had a love for Iowa athletics and a lifelong affection for wrestling. Carver died in 1981 at the age of 71.

Iowa's basketball, gymnastics, and volleyball squads also compete in the bowl-shaped arena. The multi-purpose building has also been the site of banquets, concerts, exhibition shows, and graduation ceremonies. Besides the main floor, where dual meets are staged, the arena boasts one of the best wrestling training rooms in the nation. The Dan Gable Wrestling Complex features three mats, a locker room, sauna, weight-lifting facilities, and retractable bleachers.

The Board of Regents, State of Iowa approved the schematic design, project description, budget, and financing plan for a $47 million addition and revitalization of the arena that was completed in 2011. The Carver-Hawkeye Arena – Addition and Renovation Project added a practice facility immediately north of the arena for use by the Hawkeye men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs; renovation of the practice, fitness and weight-training facilities utilized by the wrestling program; renovation and expansion of other fitness and weight-training space in the arena utilized by the majority of Iowa's 24 sports; the renovation and expansion of locker rooms in the facility; and the renovation of existing and the creation of new office, meeting, and storage space for use by administrative and coaching staff of the Athletics Department. The project began in the fall of 2009 and the UI Department of Athletics moved back into the facility in July, 2011.

The revitalization of the arena also extends into spaces used by the general public on game days and nights. This includes renovation of select concessions and rest-room facilities, and the creation of hospitality and meeting spaces. There are also club facilities for fans of the Hawkeyes who choose to participate in a variety of premium seating options similar to those available in the Paul W. Brechler Press Box at Kinnick Stadium.

In 2016, a new four-sided centerhung video system was installed in the main arena. The video screen can display any combination of live video, instant replays, statistics, game information, animations and sponsorship messages.

The Hawkeyes have a .911 winning percentage at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa's 255-25 all-time mark in the building includes a record 11 home wins during the 2010 and 2015 seasons. The Hawkeyes have recorded 21 undefeated seasons in Carver-Hawkeye, with the most recent (7-0) occurring in 2018-19. The first event held in the arena was a wrestling meet on January 3, 1983. Iowa beat Oklahoma 35-7. Iowa all-American Tim Riley won the first match contested in the arena.

On Dec. 6, 2008, Iowa set the then-NCAA wrestling dual meet attendance record when 15,955 fans saw the Hawkeyes defeat Iowa State, 20-15, in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

In all, the Hawkeyes have hosted several conference and national tournaments. Four Big Ten (1983, 1994, 2005, and 2016) and four NCAA Championships (1986, 1991, 1995 and 2001) were held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, with Iowa winning the team title five of the eight times. Carver-Hawkeye Arena also hosted the 2012 and 2016 U.S. Olympic trials, the annual N.W.C.A. All-Star Wrestling Classic in 1993 and 1996, and the Cliff Keen/N.W.C.A. National Duals in 1998 and 1999.

In April 2018, Carver-Hawkeye Arena hosted the UWW World Cup, an international dual tournament featuring the top eight wrestling teams in the world.

Hawkeye Visions is on an on-going campaign, which seeks to build an endowment capable of covering the cost, via earnings, of UI student-athlete scholarships. The program currently includes almost 200 scholarships ranging from fully endowed scholarships, partially endowed, in development or scholarships pledged via an estate gift. The following scholarships were given for the specific benefit of Hawkeye Wrestling.

John and Ruth Beckman Wrestling Scholarship

The Beckman Wrestling Scholarship, along with similar scholarships for football and the Hawkeye Marching Band, was established in 1985 by the Beckmans. John worked for Hawkeye Castings, Inc. in Manchester, IA. He passed away in 1991. Ruth passed away in 2006.

John and Mary Ann Colloton Wrestling Scholarship

The Colloton Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1998 with a generous gift from longtime Hawkeye fans John and Mary Ann Colloton of Iowa City. John, who earned degrees from Loras College and the UI, was director of UI Hospitals and Clinics from 1971-93. He is the UI's Vice President Emeritus for Statewide Health Services and received a Distinguished Alumni Award from the UI in 1999. Mary Ann, a 1957 UI graduate, served as a staff nurse at the UIHC from 1957-63 and passed away in 2014. The Collotons also generously established scholarships benefitting football, men's basketball and women's basketball.

Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Wrestling Scholarship

In 2008, Russ and Ann Gerdin extended their Hawkeye legacy with the largest athletic scholarship gift in University history: a $5 million commitment to establish the Russ and Ann Gerdin Family Athletic Scholarship Fund. As part of that gift, the Gerdin Wrestling Scholarship was established. Russ Gerdin was the founder, and former president and chief executive officer of Coralville-based trucking company Heartland Express, Inc. Russ passed away in 2011. The Gerdins have supported the Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center, the UI Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the J. Hayden Fry Center for Prostate Cancer Research, the aforementioned athletic scholarships, and the renovation of Kinnick Stadium.

Donald W. and Marilyn Heineking Wrestling Scholarship

The Heineking Wrestling Scholarship was established in 2003. Since that time, additional Heineking scholarships have been established in women's basketball, volleyball, softball, baseball, football and men's track/cross country, along with a men's basketball manager's scholarship. Don is a 1958 UI business graduate and former president of Security State Bank in Hubbard, IA. He is a member of the UI Foundation Board of Directors, the Johnson County I-Club Board of Directors and the National I-Club Board of Directors (honorary) and a member of the Iowa Scholarship Fund Board of Directors. Don lives in Iowa City and is a member of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation. Marilyn Heineking passed away in February of 2004.

Robert G. and Annalee Jacoby Hockridge Wrestling Scholarship

The Hockridge Scholarship was established by Bettendorf natives, Robert (Bob) and Annalee Jacoby (Jake) Hockridge in 2004. Both Bob and Jake are members of the Presidents Club of the UI Foundation and have been loyal ticketholders and contributors since the early 1970s. Robert is a graduate of the UI with a degree in accounting. He was an executive vice president of finance at Brammer Manufacturing Company prior to his retirement in 1995. Jake received her degree in elementary education from UNI. The Hockridges both passed away in 2015.

Johnson County I-Club Wrestling Scholarship

The National I-Club has dozens of local I-Club chapters that form a strong presence within communities to gather Hawks together, carry the message of the National I-Club, and serve as a united voice of support for Iowa athletics across the state and beyond. The Johnson County is one of those local chapters. The club raises funds by organizing events, game watches, golf tournaments, I-Club luncheons, and more throughout the year. The Johnson County I-Club first established a football scholarship in 2001 and then endowed a wrestling scholarship in 2009. Both scholarships are awarded annually to athletes from the Johnson County area.

Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship

The Gary Kurdelmeier Wrestling Scholarship was established by Gary's family and friends as a tribute to the highly successful UI wrestler, coach and administrator following his death in 1998. Kurdelmeier graduated from the UI in 1959 where he was a Big Ten Champion, NCAA Champion and team captain for the Hawkeyes. He served as UI assistant wrestling coach from 1967-72 and then head coach from 1973-76. During his tenure, the Hawkeyes won three Big Ten Championships, two NCAA team titles and Kurdelmeier was named national coach of the year in 1975. He also secured the future of Iowa wrestling when he and former UI Athletic Director, Bump Elliott, hired Dan Gable as an assistant coach.

William and Kay Pitlik Wrestling Scholarship

Bill and Kay Pitlik of Cedar Rapids, IA, first created an endowed scholarship in 1998 to show their love for the Hawkeyes. Both graduated from the University of Iowa, Kay in 1952 and Bill in 1953. The Pitliks owned and operated Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company for many years in Cedar Rapids. Kay is an avid Hawkeye fan, and prior to Bill's death in 2008, they also endowed scholarships to benefit women's basketball, field hockey and football (2). Kay continues to support UI athletics very generously, in Bill's honor, including a naming gift to the wrestling area in the newly renovated Carver Hawkeye Arena. Kay passed away in 2018.

John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship

The John and Dorothy Sill Wrestling Scholarship was established in 1999 through a generous estate gift by the Sill family. John and Dorothy were both born and raised in small town Iowa. They were married in 1941 and managed a family farm until 1959. They later moved to Manchester, IA, where he was the manager of the Delaware County Mutual Insurance Association and opened his own insurance agency. They were very active in the community and proud supporters of the West Delaware and University of Iowa athletic teams. John passed away in 1989. Dorothy followed in 1999.

Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship

Gary and Camille Seamans established the Iowa Style Wrestling Scholarship in 2001. It is a tribute to the aggressive, determined and dominating style that Hawkeye wrestlers have exhibited under head coaches Gary Kurdelmeier, Dan Gable, Jim Zalesky and Tom Brands. An Iowa City native, Gary received his B.S. in electrical engineering from the UI and enjoyed a successful career in the telecommunications industry, retiring as chairman and CEO of Westell Technologies in 1998. Camille is a native of Dekalb, IL, and is now retired from her role as director of human resources for the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation of Chicago. Gary is a past recipient of the UI Alumni Association's Distinguished Young Alumnus Award.

Barbara
President, The University of Iowa

Dr. Barbara J. Wilson began her term as the 22nd president of the University of Iowa on July 15, 2021. A native of the Midwest, President Wilson has extensive experience with Big Ten institutions. She earned her bachelor's degree in journalism and her master's degree and PhD in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She came to Iowa most recently having served as the executive vice president/vice president for academic affairs of the University of Illinois System, which consists of universities at Urbana-Champaign, Chicago, and Springfield. In this role, she worked closely with the chancellors and provosts on strategic planning, budgeting, and system-wide academic initiatives, and she advocated for the U of I System across the state and nation. Prior to that, she served as head of the Department of Communication, vice provost for academic affairs, executive vice provost for faculty and academic affairs, Harry E. Preble Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and interim chancellor of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. President Wilson was a member of the Illinois faculty at Urbana-Champaign for 21 years. From 2008 to 2018, she was named the Kathryn Lee Baynes Dallenbach Professor in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences in recognition of her scholarship.

President Wilson's research focuses on the social and psychological effects of the media, particularly on youth. She is coauthor or coeditor of four books, including Children, Adolescents, and the Media (2014, Sage) and the Handbook of Children, Media, and Development (2008, Blackwell). She also has authored over 80 research articles, book chapters, and technical reports on media effects and their implications for media policy. In 2008, she was elected as Fellow of the International Communication Association. She has served on the editorial boards of 14 academic journals in communication.

Before joining the Urbana-Champaign faculty, President Wilson was a professor of communication at the University of California, Santa Barbara for 12 years, and served there as director of graduate studies in the Department of Communication for much of that time. She began her academic career as a faculty member in communication at the University of Louisville.

President Wilson is a native of Appleton, Wisconsin. Her spouse, John Lammers, is a retired professor of communication. Their grown children include Isabel and Grace as well as John's daughter Emily.

Gary A. Barta
Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie
Director of Athletics Chair

Gary Barta is in his 16th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa, where he occupies the Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair. The position was endowed in 2017 by the Tippies, longtime supporters of the University of Iowa and Hawkeye Athletics. Henry B. Tippie earned his UI degree in 1949 and was presented with an honorary degree in 2009.

Barta is in his third year as a member of the College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee, serving his second year as committee chairman in 2021. He was appointed to the selection committee by the CFP Management Committee in February, 2019 and is serving a three-year term.

Despite the disruption of college athletics forced by the COVID-19 pandemic during the 2020-21 academic year, Iowa Athletics enjoyed a banner year of success across the board. Iowa earned its highest finish in the IMG Learfield College Director's Cup since 1997.

The Hawkeyes claimed six Big Ten Conference championships, including wrestling (regular season and postseason), soccer (postseason tournament) women's gymnastics (regular season), and men's track, claiming both the indoor and outdoor championships. Six student-athletes were named Big Ten Athlete of the Year in their respective sports.

In addition, field hockey advanced to the Final Four, football earned a post-season bowl invitation (game was canceled), men's basketball reached the second round of the men's NCAA Tournament, and women's basketball reached the Sweet 16 of the women's NCAA Tournament. Soccer won its first ever NCAA Tournament game and the baseball and softball teams each placed fourth in the Big Ten, as did the women's tennis team.

The Hawkeye wrestling team won the NCAA Championships along with its Big Ten title, and the men's track team placed 12th nationally at the NCAA Championships, its highest finish since 1967.

2020-21 Hawkeye Athletics Highlights

• Win •

Wrestling: Iowa claimed the Big Ten regular season and postseason championships, Spencer Lee earned a third individual national title. Lee was the winner of the Dan Hodge Trophy and was named Big Ten Wrestler of the Year. Head coach Tom Brands was named NWCA, InterMat and Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year.

Football: After narrow four and one point losses to open the season, Iowa football won six straight games to post an overall 6-2 record, all in Big Ten play. The Hawkeyes were set to face Missouri in the Music City Bowl in late December before that event was canceled due to COVID-19.

Head coach Kirk Ferentz has earned 168 career victories at Iowa, becoming the winningest football coach in school history. Iowa's win at Penn State was victory No. 100 in Big Ten play for Ferentz, who led his team to trophy game wins over Minnesota, Nebraska, and Wisconsin.

Two Hawkeye players were named Player of the Year at their position in the Big Ten Conference, including unanimous consensus All-American defensive tackle Daviyon Nixon.

Men's Basketball: Iowa was nationally ranked inside the top 15 all season, ascending as high as No. 3. Iowa earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, matching the highest seed in program history. Iowa's 14 conference wins are the most in Big Ten play since 1987. The Hawkeyes won eight games against AP Top 25 opponents.

Individually, center Luka Garza was the consensus national Player of the Year and first-team All-American. Garza became Iowa's all-time scoring leader with 2,306 points, which ranks seventh most in Big Ten history. Garza is the fifth Hawkeye under head coach Fran McCaffery to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors in the last eight seasons. McCaffery has guided Iowa to 20 wins or more in seven of the past nine seasons and upper-division Big Ten finishes eight of the past nine years.

Women's Basketball: Head coach Lisa Bluder's team posted a 20-10 overall record and an 11-8 mark in the Big Ten in 2020-21. Iowa made its 26th NCAA Tournament appearance, advancing to the program's eighth Sweet 16. Freshman Caitlin Clark was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year, consensus national Co-Freshman of the Year, consensus All-American, and Dawn Staley Award winner. Clark and junior Monika Czinano were first-team All-Big Ten selections. Bluder and her staff led Iowa to its 12th 20-win season over the last 14 seasons and 14th in Bluder's tenure.

Field Hockey: Iowa advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the 12th time in program history, as Coach Lisa Cellucci was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year. Junior Anthe Nijziel was named Big Ten Player of the Year, Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, and earned All-Big Ten honors. Seniors Ellie Holley and Maddy Murphy also earned All-Big Ten recognition. Holley and Nijziel were named to the NCAA All-Tournament team and the trio were named All-Americans. Fifteen Hawkeyes were named to the Division I National Academic Squad – the most in program history.

Soccer: The women's soccer team won the Big Ten Conference Tournament for the first time in school history, defeating each of the top three seeds. The Hawkeyes earned the automatic bid to the NCAA Championships, and defeated Campbell, 1-0, in the first round for their first-ever NCAA tournament victory.

Track & Field: The Iowa men's track and field team won both the indoor and outdoor Big Ten Conference titles. The outdoor squad ended the season with a 12th place finish at the NCAA Championships, Iowa's highest finish since 1967. Jaylan McConico was named Big Ten Athlete of the Year for outdoor track and head coach Joey Woody was named Big Ten and USTF-CCCA Regional Coach of the Year in both the indoor and outdoor seasons. In women's track, Laulauga Tausaga became a seven-time All-American and was runner-up at the NCAA Championships in discus. Track and field athlete Marissa Mueller was awarded a 2021 Rhodes Scholar, becoming just the second female ever at Iowa to earn that distinction.

Men's Tennis: The Hawkeyes were led by individual accomplishments; Kareem Allaf became the program's all-time wins leader with 164 combined singles and double victories and Will Davies tied the school's all-time doubles benchmark with 71 victories. The doubles team of Oliver Okonkwo and Davies were ranked as high as No. 2 nationally, the highest ranking by a doubles team in school history. They became the seventh doubles team in program history to qualify for the NCAA Championships.

Women's Tennis: Freshman Alexa Noel led the Hawkeyes to a fourth place finish in the Big Ten. Noel was named the Big Ten's Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year. Noel won her first 24 matches of the season before falling in the second round of the NCAA Championships. Noel earned first-team All-America honors while being ranked as high as 13th nationally. She is the first All-American in program history.

Baseball: Iowa baseball posted a 26-18 record in the 2021 conference-only season to tie for fourth in the Big Ten. After a slow start the Hawkeyes claimed five straight series wins to improve to 18-12 in late April. Iowa owned the second-best fielding percentage (.977), posted the fourth-best ERA (4.68), and scored the fifth most runs (277) in the Big Ten. Iowa was led by Friday night starter and redshirt junior Trenton Wallace, who became the program's first Big Ten Pitcher of the Year. Wallace and redshirt senior outfielder Ben Norman earned first-team All-Big Ten honors. Wallace and Norman earned ABCA/Rawlings Midwest All-Region first-team honors, with Wallace also becoming the ninth All-American (by Collegiate Baseball and the ABCA) under head coach Rick Heller.

Women's Gymnastics: Women's gymnastics posted a perfect 8-0 record to win its first Big Ten Conference regular season championship, while once again advancing to the NCAA Championships. The Hawkeyes posted four of the top nine scores in program history and highest national ranking, moving as high as No. 7 in the nation. Head coach Larissa Libby earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors, while Adeline Kenlin was named conference Freshman of the Year and three gymnasts earned first or second-team All-America honors.

Swimming & Diving: Iowa swimming and diving broke eight school records during the 2021 season, and the program had five NCAA Championships qualifiers. Academically, the program had 30 Academic All-Big Ten selections and eight athletes were named College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) All-Americans.

Softball: Head coach Renee Gillispie led the Hawkeyes to a 26-18 record and a fourth place finish in the Big Ten, Iowa's highest finish since 2012. Senior pitcher Allison Doocy earned All-Region honors and two Hawkeyes newcomers were named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team.

Men's Golf: Head coach Tyler Stith was named Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year after leading Iowa to a second place finish at the conference championships and Big Ten Match Play event. Iowa fell one stroke short at the spring championships while being led by individual champion Mac McClear. Senior Alex Schaake was voted Big Ten Co-Player of the Year for the second time (2019), and earned honorable mention All-America distinction by GolfWeek, while Schaake and McClear were each named first-team All-Big Ten and All-Midwest Region.

- The University of Iowa Athletics Department and the UI Stead Family Children’s Hospital facilitated the “Kinnick Wave” during home football games in 2017, creating national recognition. The “Kinnick Wave” was presented the Disney Spirit Award in 2017.
- Twelfth anniversary: Iowa Football/University of Iowa Children’s Hospital “Kid Captain” program.
- Student-Athlete Academic Services has sponsored the annual Iowa Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (ISAAC) Day of Caring for 22 years, with over 250 student-athletes assisting area agencies with spring clean-up, landscaping, sustainability projects, etc. This service opportunity is in collaboration with United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties.
- Student-athletes annually participate in over 4,000 appearances resulting in the accumulation of more than 10,000 hours of community service and programming. Student-athletes also participate in educational programming opportunities throughout the year.
- The Gerdin Athletic Learning Center re-opened for in-person meetings in August, 2020, following solely remote work during the spring and summer 2020. During the academic year, student-athletes completed ~30,000 hours of quiet study time, advising appointments, and tutorial sessions.
- Within the Hawkeye Life Program, student-athletes gain experience in six areas which include Leadership, Community Engagement, Academic Success, Career Development, Health & Well-Being, and Diversity & Inclusion. 2020-21 highlights:
 - o Diversity & Inclusion - - 800+ student-athletes, coaches, staff, and administrators took part in DEI related programming during the 2020-2021 academic year. This included the annual Town Hall event discussing the topic of inclusive excellence, all staff meeting discussing the history of DEI at Iowa and specifically Iowa Athletics, and the unsportsmanlike conduct series dedicated to DEI and mental health.
 - o Leadership - - Dance Marathon Fundraising - $1,800 ISAAC alone, but also collaborated with Athletics Marketing for the “Fan Cut Outs” program, resulting in over $12,000 total between the combined efforts.
 - o Five ISAAC student athletes participated in a virtual DM Athlete Hour and talked with families
 - o #B1GVote - Completed the 90% Challenge, voting discussions/talks, etc.
 - o Community Engagement - - Week of Caring economic impact resulted in $4,352 being raised for local agencies and organizations, including Iowa City Animal Center, Ronald McDonald House, CommUnity Food Bank, Iowa City Community School District, and Coralville Central Elementary and Northwest Junior High School
 - o Career Development - - Nearly 300 students attended career related events including a financial literacy series, Polk County I-Club senior recognition, graduate, and professional school fair, and one-on-one career counseling meetings. Academic Services created a H2P (Hawks to Professionals) ICON page which allowed students to participate in virtual career opportunities during the pandemic. 508 unique students have been active on the Icon page since it was made live in July 2020.
 - o Health & Well-Being - - Featured speaker Victoria Garrick (former USC volleyball player) to discuss mental health and disordered eating/body image
