2022-23 THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA ONE OF THE NATION'S VERY BEST

Iowa City, Iowa. It is the home for one of the nation's leading public universities, the University of Iowa.

It's also the home of one of the nation's most successful college basketball programs, the Iowa Hawkeyes.

28 NCAA Tournament appearances • 3 Final Fours • 8 Sweet Sixteens • 4 Elite Eights • 11 Big Ten Championships

HERE IS A SAMPLING OF IOWA'S MOST RECENT SUCCESS:

lowa basketball has posted winning seasons nine of the last 10 years under head coach Fran McCaffery, including 26 victories in 2022, second most in school history. The Hawkeyes have finished in the Big Ten first division and advanced to the NCAA Tournament five of the past seven completed seasons.

The Hawkeyes won all 17 home games in 2006, posting the first-ever perfect record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa has posted a 211-67 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the past 16 seasons, including a 139-34 mark the last 10 years. Iowa won a school-record 18 home games in 2013.

lowa earned berths in five of the past seven NCAA Tournaments (winning games in 2015, 2016, 2019, and 2021), and reached the NIT in 2012 (Round of 16), 2013 (runner-up), and 2017 (second round).

Iowa has appeared in the NCAA Tournament 25 times over the past 44 years. The Hawkeyes have made three appearances in the NCAA Final Four and have advanced to the Sweet 16 three times since 1987.

The eight winningest seasons in Iowa basketball history, 30 wins in 1987, 26 wins in 2022, 25 wins in 2013 and 2006, 24 wins in 1988 and 23 wins in 1989, 1993, 1996, 2001, and 2019, are an indication of the past success of Iowa basketball. Iowa has posted 20 or more wins in 16 of the past 27 seasons, including eight of the last 10.

Leading the Hawkeye program is head coach Fran McCaffery, who guided lowa to six NCAA Tournament berths and three trips to the NIT over the last 11 years. McCaffery has coached seven first team All-Big Ten honorees, including an All-American five times, over the last eight seasons (2014-22). McCaffery led three former teams to conference championships and five NCAA Tournaments. In 26 years as a college head coach, McCaffery's teams have averaged nearly 19 wins per year.

In 2022, McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues.

McCaffery has coached two of the most dominating players in college basketball over the past three seasons: Luka Garza (2020, 2021) and Keegan Murray (2022).

IOWA BASKETBALL: GREAT SUCCESS AND GREAT TRADITION

During the 2001-02 season, the University of Iowa celebrated 100 Years of Basketball. Iowa's basketball history includes 83 winning seasons, including 31 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games.

ESPN released its 2009 college basketball encyclopedia and inside it included its ESPN/Sagarin all-time rankings. The University of Iowa's success on the court garnered the program a ranking of No. 10 in the country!

Iowa basketball teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 28 times, advancing to the NCAA Final Four in 1955, 1956 and 1980. In fact, Iowa is one of just 32 Division I programs to advance to the NCAA Tournament on 28 or more occasions. In addition, Iowa has made eight appearances in the NIT postseason tournament.

The start of the Iowa basketball program can be traced back to Jan. 18, 1896. On that date, Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus. In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa, 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

From that first game in 1896, the Iowa basketball program has been recognized as one of the best in the nation. Street & Smith's magazine recently selected its "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time". In its special publication, the magazine recognized the Iowa program as No. 40 among over 300 Division I programs.

PLAYING WITH PASSION AND A LOVE OF THE GAME: PUSHING THE BALL AND AGGRESSIVELY ATTACKING THE BASKET; FINDING THE OPEN TEAMMATE; CHANGING DEFENSE AND DISRUPTING THE RHYTHM OF THE OPPONENTS; SINKING THE OPEN 3-POINTER; AND HELPING OUT TEAMMATES

When you add those components together, they add up to Iowa basketball, a style of basketball that is all-out fun for 40 minutes, a style of play that is exciting to watch, but more importantly, a style of basketball that players love to play.

As the Iowa Hawkeyes head into the 2022-23 season, the 13th year under coach Fran McCaffery and his coaching staff, Iowa basketball is in the midst of an era that features exciting and fun basketball that players enjoy playing and fans enjoying watching.

"Hawkeye fans and our players enjoy our style of basketball. We compete and play the game the right way. We play an up-tempo style, push the ball, attack the basket and catch the defense off balance. We want to score in the 80s and 90s. Defensively, we change defenses and disrupt rhythm. We give Hawkeye fans an exciting style of basketball to watch. Our players have fun and enjoy what they do on the floor.

"We have a solid foundation and a tremendous environment to work with as we continue to build upon our 28 NCAA Tournament appearances and three Big Ten Tournament championships, with our most recent title coming in 2022. We embrace the Hawkeye tradition and look forward to the challenges ahead."

FRAN MCCAFFERY Head Coach University of Iowa

McCaffery took over the Iowa basketball program in 2010 after rebuilding three basketball programs (Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena) as a head coach. McCaffery is one of just 14 Division I coaches to take four different programs (Iowa, Siena, UNC Greensboro and Lehigh) to the NCAA Tournament. He is the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues.

With Iowa's Big Ten Tournament championship in 2022, McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues.

In five seasons as the head coach at Siena, McCaffery led his team to an average of better than 22 victories per year, including backto-back 27-win campaigns in 2009 and 2010. He led the Saints to three straight regular season championships and NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-10).

Thirteen of McCaffery's 26 teams boasted third place or better finishes in their respective conference, including capturing league tournament titles six times. McCaffery coached teams have competed in 11 NCAA Tournaments and four NIT's; a 12th NCAA Tournament would have been added to his resume in 2020, if not for the cancellation of the tournament due to COVID-19.

Consider these facts about Fran McCaffery and his coaching career:

He was named MAAC Coach of the Year in 2009 and District I Coach of the Year in 2010 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches

McCaffery has posted 14 20-win seasons as a head coach, including 12 of the last 16 years and eight of the last 10 seasons.

Iowa placed third in the challenging Big Ten in 2015, 2016, and 2021. McCaffery boasts 21 upper division finishes, including nine of the last 11 seasons, in 26 years as a head coach.

The Hawkeyes have earned national rankings seven of the past nine seasons. Iowa went wire-to-wire ranked inside the Associated Press Top 15 during the 2021 season, climbing as high as No. 3.

Led Iowa to 26 wins in 2022, its second highest total in school history and 25 victories in 2013, including a school-record 18 home wins. The Hawkeyes won 22 or more games and advanced to five of the past seven NCAA Tournaments.

In 26 years as a head coach, has led his teams to six conference tournament championships and 15 postseason appearances.

Center Luka Garza became the program's first consensus national player of the year in 2021, while forward Keegan Murray earned consensus first-team All-America distinction as a sophomore in 2022.

The 2022-23 Iowa Me's Basketball Team features a nice blend of youth and experience. Iowa returns 11 players, including five of its top seven scorers from last year's Big Ten Tournament championship team, and welcomes four newcomers.

The Hawkeyes will need to replace consensus All-American Keegan Murray and All-Big Ten performer Jordan Bohannon, who combined to average 34.5 points and 10 rebounds per game on last year's NCAA Tournament squad.

Fran McCaffery has a number of players he can turn to in his 13th season as Iowa's head coach. Connor McCaffery, who returns for his sixth season, will likely be the main vocal leader on this year's squad. According to Coach McCaffery, Connor will return to his role from two years ago seeing action at four positions.

"It's great to have somebody like that because it's one thing to say you can play four positions, but you have to remember four positions," said Coach McCaffery. With all the stuff we run offensively and defensively, Connor is always in the right place. He is in the best shape of his life and his game is in a really good place."

Kris Murray has the opportunity to step out of his twin brother's shadow after Keegan left for the NBA after last season. Kris was the team's leading scorer (9.7 ppg) and rebounder (4.3) off the bench last year.

"I am anxious to see him play without his brother. They have never done it," said McCaffery. "I want to see him blossom, not only on the floor but his personality as well. I want to see Kris grow into that position as a leader. He can be one of the better players in our league."

lowa's top returning scorer is Patrick McCaffery, who averaged 10.5 points to go along with 3.6 rebounds in 2022. McCaffery sees Patrick elevating his game to another level this season, including seeing a boost in his rebounding numbers.

"I would not be surprised if he doubled his rebounding numbers, and we will need him to do that," said Coach McCaffery. "Especially if we play small, or we play a small four. With us not having the same five-spot situation as the past, you need your three-man to rebound."

Josh Ogundele and sophomore Riley Mulvey will be looked upon to provide depth along with returning starter Filip Rebraca at the center position. Rebraca averaged 5.8 points and 5.6 rebounds starting all 36 games in 2022, while Ogundele and Mulvey saw limited minutes last season.

"Filip's role is going to be even more expanded," said Mc-Caffery. "He's going to play more minutes and he's at a good place from a confidence standpoint. Riley and Josh have both made strides. Riley really worked on his body and is gaining confidence. Josh provides a level of toughness and physicality that you need in that position. They both complement each other well and I feel comfortable playing either of them."

At the off-guard spot, McCaffery has a couple players with experience in Tony Perkins and Payton Sandfort. Perkins was inserted into the starting lineup in early February and helped Iowa win 12 of its last 15 games, while Sandfort played a valuable role off the bench in his first season. Perkins averaged 7.4 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.6 assists per outing. Sandfort averaged five points and 1.9 rebounds off the bench.

"Tony is no longer a young guy," McCaffery said. "He is an incredibly confident person by nature. Tony is one of the best players in the league and he needs to carry himself that way in the locker room, at practice, and in the weight room to compliment what our older guys are also doing.

"We need Payton to be capable of shooting the ball a high percentage. Not only is he a shot maker, but he is also a play maker. Payton can play both the forward and guard positions, which gives me great flexibility."

Junior Ahron Ulis should see the bulk of the minutes at point guard, while the versatility of freshmen Dasonte Bowen and Josh Dix will allow them to see some time directing the offense. Ulis averaged 3.1 points, two rebounds and ranked second on the team with 73 assists. Bowen comes to lowa City from Boston, Massachusetts, while Dix hails from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Ahron is ready and anxious for the additional minutes this season," said McCaffery. "An injured wrist prevented him from reaching his full potential in the later half of last season. Ahron's wrist was surgically repaired, and he is now a completely different player.

"Dasonte and Josh are both going to play. They are both really good players, gamers, winners, and they both can score. I am excited about those two guys and what they bring to this team."

McCaffery has put together another demanding schedule, which includes games against Duke, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Seton Hall, Iowa State and the usual 20 league contests. He likes the chemistry and makeup of this year's team.

"The guys are great with each other off the floor," McCaffery said. "They are excited. We have put together the toughest schedule we have ever put together and they are excited about that. We'll be ready for the challenge."

Iowa's schedule includes seven weekend home games, something Coach McCaffery and the team is excited about.

"Having a weekend home game makes it easier for our fans, especially if they are traveling any distance."

Gary A. Barta Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair

Gary Barta is in his 17th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa, where he occupies the Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair. The position was endowed in 2017 by the Tippies, longtime supporters of the University of Iowa and Hawkeye Athletics. Henry B. Since the fall of 2020, lowa's athletics programs have won 11 Big Ten championships, along with claiming the football West Division title in 2021. It is the most championships earned by the Hawkeyes in any twoyear period. The Hawkeye football team posted 10 wins in 2021 and earned yet another January bowl invitation.

Hawkeye teams to have earned championships include women's soccer (tournament); field hockey (regular season); wrestling (regular season and tournament); women's basketball (regular season and tournament); men's basketball (tournament); women's gymnastics (regular season); indoor men's track (two) and outdoor men's track.

Five conference titles, along with the football division championship, were earned in 2021-22 as a follow up to six Big Ten championships in 2020-21. Six student-athletes were named Big Ten Athlete of the Year in their respective sports in 2020-21 as lowa earned its highest finish in the IMG Learfield College Director's Cup since 1997.

In 2021-22, Iowa became just the second Big Ten school to have its football team and men's and women's basketball teams play in the Big Ten Championship Game since the football game was introduced in 2011-12.

For 12 years, University of Iowa head men's basketball coach Fran McCaffery has maintained enthusiasm and excitement surrounding the Hawkeye basketball program. After more than two decades as a head coach, he has coached his teams to 11 NCAA Tournaments, six conference tournament championships from four different leagues, including the Big Ten, with an overall record of 493-339 (.593).

McCaffery, who is the Big Ten's third longest tenured head coach behind Michigan State's Tom Izzo and Matt Painter of Purdue, is lowa's second all-time winningest coach. McCaffery concluded his 12th season as lowa's head coach in 2022 with 232 wins.

lowa men's basketball program in 12 seasons are par-for-the-course for a coach who has demonstrated his ability to rebuild programs. McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues. McCaffery is also one of just 14 Division I head coaches to take at least four different programs to the NCAA Tournament.

McCaffery, 63, was named the University of Iowa's 22nd head men's basketball coach on March 29, 2010. The Philadelphia native has accumulated 21 upper division conference finishes. McCaffery has posted 14 seasons of 20 wins or more as a head coach, including 12 in the last 16 years. McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have placed fifth or better in the Big Ten standings six of the last eight seasons, including third place finishes in 2015, 2016, and 2021.

Since taking over the program in 2010, the Hawkeyes have vaulted back to national prominence. Iowa has appeared in a postseason tournament nine of the last 10 completed seasons (6 NCAA, 3 NIT). McCaffery guided the Hawkeyes to six of the last eight NCAA Tournaments (2014, 2015, 2016, 2019, 2021, 2022) and reached the NIT championship game in 2013.

Over the last three seasons, Iowa combined to win 68 games -- the fourth most over a three-year stretch in program history and most since 1987-89 -- finished each season ranked in the AP Poll -- something that has not been accomplished in over three decades -- and won 17 contests over AP Top 25 opponents.

McCaffery recruited and coached one of the most dominating players in college basketball each of the past three seasons. Luka Garza, the most decorated men's basketball player in lowa history, was a two-time Big Ten and National Player of the Year, Pete Newell Big Man of the Year, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year, and unanimous consensus first-team All-America. He rewrote lowa's record book earning consensus 2021 National Player of the Year laurels, including winning the prestigious Naismith Trophy, John R. Wooden Award, and Oscar Robertson Trophy. Garza broke lowa's career (2,306) and single-season (747) scoring records and is the only Big Ten player to amass more than 2,250 points, 900 rebounds, 150 blocks, and 100 3-pointers.

One year later in 2022, Keegan Murray earned consensus first-team All-America laurels, was the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year honoree and was a finalist for both the Naismith and Wooden National Player of the Year awards in 2022. In the process of posting the best season by an underclassman in program history, Murray surpassed Garza's single season scoring record with 822 points.

After going 117 years without a player reaching 700 points in a single season, Garza and Murray exceeded that milestone in each of the last three seasons. The Hawkeyes have had the Big Ten scoring champion each of the past three years, which is something that has not been accomplished by any team in the league in over 50 years. Murray's 23.5 points per game average ranked fifth nationally and first among players from a major conference.

lowa was ranked as high as No. 3 nationally during the 2016 and 2021 seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked for 16 consecutive weeks in 2019, the final nine weeks of the 2020 season, went wire-to-wire in 2021 in the top 15 of the AP Poll for the first time since the 1989 campaign, and was ranked No 16 in the final poll on 2022.

In 2022, the Hawkeyes won four games in four days to capture the Big Ten Tournament title, their third in program history, which ties as third most in the league. Iowa finished fourth in the conference standings and won 26 games; the second highest single season win total in program history. The Hawkeyes won 12 regular season conference games, marking the seventh time in eight seasons reaching 10 wins in Big Ten play.

McCaffery's up-tempo style of play is a favorite among his players. Iowa has led the Big Ten in scoring each of the last four seasons, including ranking fifth nationally in both 2021 and 2022. Iowa averaged more than 83 points in consecutive seasons (2021 & 2022) for the first time in 27 years. Additionally, Iowa was tops in Division I in assist-to-turnover ratio in 2021 (2.0) and 2022 (1.74).

In 2020, McCaffery orchestrated one of his best coaching jobs during his lowa tenure. Working with a depleted team due to injuries and redshirts, he led the nationally ranked Hawkeyes to 20 regular season wins and a likely invitation to the NCAA Tournament, if not for the cancellation of the postseason due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

McCaffery continues to get the most of his talent, coaching an All-American five of the last seven seasons: Jarrod Uthoff (2016), Peter Jok (2017), Garza (2020 & 2021) and Murray (2022). He has mentored an All-Big Ten honoree(s) 10 of the last 11 years, including first-team selections seven of the last nine seasons: Devyn Marble (2014), Aaron White (2015), Uthoff (2016), Jok (2017), Garza (2020 & 2021) and Murray (2022). McCaffery also developed Gabriel Olaseni and Nicholas Baer into the 2015 and 2017 Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year, respectively. Garza became the first Hawkeye in 52 years to earn Big Ten Player of the Year honors, achieving the distinction twice (2020 & 2021) and first Hawkeye in 68 years to earn consensus first-team All-America recognition.

Joe Wieskamp was voted to the All-Big Ten second team in 2021 and third team in 2020, while CJ Fredrick (2020) and Keegan Murray (2021) became the seventh and eighth players, respectively, during McCaffery's tenure to be voted to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team. Garza and Wieskamp were the fifth highest scoring duo in Division I both in 2020 and 2021, averaging 37.9 points per game in 2020 and 38.9 in 2021. Garza and Wieskamp are the second-highest scoring duo in program history.

Four years ago, the Hawkeyes amassed 23 victories and won an NCAA Tournament game for the third time in five seasons. The Hawkeyes started 2018-19 strong with McCaffery guiding the team to an undefeated nonconference record, something that had not been accomplished in 32 years. lowa recorded five wins over ranked opponents with only one senior, a total that matched the most by an lowa team in 13 seasons. McCaffery coached four Hawkeyes to postseason recognition in 2018-19: Tyler Cook earned second-team All-Big Ten laurels, Bohannon was named to third-team all-conference, Garza was an honorable mention selection, while Wieskamp was named to the All-Freshman Team. Bohannon finished his Hawkeye career as the program leader in career assists (704), 3-pointers (455), free throw percentage (.887) and games played (179), and 3-pointers made in a game (10).

lowa has averaged 21.3 wins over the last 10 seasons, with its 213 victories between 2013-22 being the most over a 10-year span since 1980-89 (218). McCaffery is the first head coach to lead lowa to 18 or more victories in six straight seasons (2012-17), while winning 20 games or more eight of the last 10 years.

The past 12 years, McCaffery coached 19 Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Wieskamp and Garza, who were both selected in the 2021 NBA Draft. Wieskamp was chosen by the San Antonio Spurs, while the Detroit Pistons picked Garza. The University of Iowa was one of only two Big Ten schools with multiple draft picks in 2021.

McCaffery recruited and coached White to an illustrious Hawkeye career. White became the first Iowa player to score 1,800 points and collect 900 rebounds, while also leading the team in rebounding all four years. He ranks third in scoring (1,859) and fourth in rebounding (901). He made more free throws than any other Big Ten player in 50 years, ranking third all-time in Big Ten annals with 618.

McCaffery had another marvelous coaching job in 2017, working with one of the youngest teams in the country and nearly receiving a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Iowa tied for fifth in the Big Ten and was the first team out of the field. Jok led the team, becoming lowa's fifth Big Ten scoring champion in school history, averaging 19.9 points per game. For half the season, Jok started alongside four rookies—lowa's youngest starting lineup in school history. Undaunted, McCaffery and the Hawkeyes progressed as the season went on ultimately winning four games against ranked teams, including No. 21 Wisconsin and No. 24 Maryland on the road.

In addition to leading the Big Ten in scoring, Jok established new school free throw records in single-game makes (22) and single-season accuracy (.911). Freshman Cordell Pemsl broke the school's single-season field goal percentage mark (.617), while Bohannon rewrote the lowa freshman record books in assists (175), 3-pointers (89), and double-doubles in points and assists (3).

In 2018, a trio of underclassmen led the squad in sophomores Cook and Bohannon, and freshman Garza. Cook joined Greg Stokes as the only Hawkeyes to total more than 500 points and 200 rebounds their sophomore season, while newcomer Garza became just the fourth Hawkeye rookie in program history to score 400 points. Bohannon became the sixth Hawkeye in program history to total more than 400 points and 150 assists in a season and is the only Division I player to total more than 150 assists and 80 3-pointers as a freshman and sophomore over the last 25 years.

In 2016, McCaffery coached an Iowa team to heights that had not been seen in Iowa City in decades. The Hawkeyes were nationally ranked the final 12 weeks of the season, including ascending as high as No. 3 -- its highest ranking since 1987. Iowa won five games over AP Top-25 teams. The Hawkeyes recorded back-toback 12-win seasons in Big Ten play for just the third time in school history (1981-82 and 1987-88) and won an NCAA Tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1996-97. Additionally, lowa swept Michigan, Purdue, and Michigan State (6-0) for the first time since 1954. Uthoff and Jok combined to average 35 points per game, Iowa's third-highest scoring duo the last 40 seasons.

Individually, Uthoff joined a prestigious list of Hawkeye greats. The forward became the fifth consensus All-American in program history. He also was named the Men's Baskethall Division I Academic All-American of the Year. Uthoff became the first Iowa men's basketball player to ever be named a consensus and Academic All-American of the Year. Jok's game erupted, boasting the best points per game increase in the Big Ten from 2015 to 2016. Jok garnered second team all-conference honors as a junior.

In 2015, lowa's seven true road victories were the most by a Hawkeye team since 1987. And in the NCAA Tournament, McCaffery and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory ever in a 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson, 83-52, in the second round. The 31-point win was the largest by any Hawkeye team in a postseason game.

McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have made Carver-Hawkeye Arena one of the most feared arenas to play in nationally. Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play, with attendance increasing by more than 50 percent since 2010. The Hawkeyes won a school-record 18 home contests in 2013. Iowa won 13 consecutive home contests in 2019-20, its second-longest win streak inside Carver-Hawkeve Arena in a single season. The Hawkeyes have won 14 home games each of the last three seasons (2019-21).

McCaffery continues to create interest with recruits on a national level due to his tireless work ethic. McCafferv's is a proven recruiter, demonstrated by signing the 25thbest recruiting class in the country prior to the 2013 season. His 2017 and 2018 recruiting classes included talented players from across the country, including Garza (Washington, D.C.), Wieskamp (Iowa), and Fredrick (Kentucky) -- each earning Player of the Year honors.

Under McCaffery's direction, Iowa won 20 or more games four straight seasons (2013-16), the program's longest streak in 15 years. The Hawkeves accumulated 25 victories in 2013, which equal the second-most win total in school history (20 in 2014, 23 in 2019, 22 in 2015, and 22 in 2016).

McCaffery has served as head coach at four institutions: Iowa, Siena, UNC-Greensboro and Lehigh. The four teams had a combined record of 35-84 (.204) the season prior to his arrival. By year three, they had a total record of 89-45 (.664).

McCaffery came to Iowa after five successful years at Siena.

McCafferv's five years at Siena were the best in its 70year history, which earned the head coach entry into the Siena Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018. His efforts earned He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title 2008-10.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 record in his five years with the program. After orchestrating the fifth greatest turnaround in Division I play his first year, McCaffery led Siena to a 20-win season and a MAAC Championship game appearance in his second. In 2007-08, Siena took its biggest step forward under his direction, earning the MAAC regular-season and tournament championship, as well as an NCAA Tournament first-round win over Vanderbilt. In 2008-09. the Siena program enjoyed unprecedented success. Siena won the regular-season title by equaling a program record with 27 wins before capturing the tournament crown. The Saints went on to defeat Ohio State in double overtime in one of the tournament's most exciting games.

In 2010, McCaffery led Siena to its fourth straight 20-win season, something never before achieved in program history. Siena ran away with the league title, clinching the No. 1 seed in the tournament and ultimately knocking off Fairfield in the MAAC title game.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year is the third-winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins.

The 2008 season will also go down as one of the most memorable in Siena basketball history. McCaffery became just the 31st coach to take three different programs to the "Big Dance", and he was the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues (conference's that sent just one team the year his program advanced). Siena pounded Rider in the MAAC title game on its home floor to earn the MAAC's automatic bid. Less than two weeks later, McCaffery put together the perfect game plan and Siena led from start-to-finish in a triumph over Vanderbilt. Many considered the victory the greatest in school history, challenged at the time only by the program's 1989 upset of Stanford in the NCAA first round.

Siena won 20 games in McCaffery's second season (2007) and tied for third place in the MAAC with a 12-6 finish. McCaffery's Saints were the highest scoring team in the league, and they peaked at the right time, winning seven of their last eight regular-season games and advancing to play for the league championship.

McCaffery's first recruit - senior Kenny Hasbrouck graduated as the most important player in program history. He was named MAAC Rookie of the Year as a freshman, MAAC second team and All-Tournament team as a sophomore, collegeinsider.com Mid Major Player of the Year, MAAC first team and MAAC Tournament MVP as a junior and MAAC Player of the Year, MAAC Tournament MVP, NABC All-District and MAAC first team as a senior.

His second class is widely regarded as the best in program history. Edwin Ubiles, Alex Franklin, and Ronald Moore finished their four-year careers with a 97-38 (.719) overall record, three MAAC Championships in four title game appearances, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two NCAA Tournament first round victories. Ubiles was a two-time MAAC first team. NABC All District first team and MAAC Tournament team selection and the 2007 MAAC co-Rookie of the Year. Franklin, a two-time NABC All District selection, earned 2008 and 2009 MAAC second team and MAAC Tournament team honors. He won the 2010 MAAC Player of the Year award (Siena's second straight) and the 2010 MAAC Tournament MVP. Moore, the pulse of the team, earned 2009 MAAC second team and 2010 MAAC first team honors as well as a spot on the 2010 MAAC Tournament team. He became the MAAC's all-time assists leader in the 2010 MAAC Championship game.

In total, four Saints were named to either the first or second All-MAAC team in 2009, newcomer Kyle Downey was an All-Rookie selection and Clarence Jackson was named MAAC Sixth Man of the Year.

McCaffery took over at Siena from UNC-Greensboro, where he posted a 90-87 record in six seasons. In his first year at the helm, Greensboro placed third in the North Division. He guided the Spartans to the 18th-best improved record among NCAA Division I teams.

In McCaffery's second season, he guided the Spartans to unprecedented heights with a 19-12 record and the 2001 SoCon Tournament Championship. The Spartans defeated Chattanooga in the finals and received the SoCon's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The following year (2001-02) McCaffery led the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining the conference. It marked the first time the program claimed a share of the SoCon North Division title as well. After falling to eventual tournament champion Davidson in the conference tournament semifinals, the Spartans were awarded a berth into the 2002 NIT.

In his final year in Greensboro, McCaffery brought the Spartans to the brink of the NCAA Tournament before a SoCon Championship game loss to Chattanooga. He led UNCG to a victory over Davidson in the semifinals, defeating a team that had been 16-0 in conference play. A big part of that success was SoCon Freshman of the Year Kyle Hines.

McCaffery spent the 11 years prior to his arrival at Greensboro at Notre Dame as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, working on the staffs of Richard "Digger" Phelps and John MacLeod.

Among the players he recruited to play for Notre Dame were Pat Garrity, Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, and Troy Murphy, the Big East Player of the Year in 2000 and an eventual first-round NBA draft pick. Garrity was also a first-round NBA draft pick and the Big East Player of the Year in 1997. In addition to Murphy and Garrity, McCaffery was involved in recruiting NBA First Round picks LaPhonso Ellis (1992 Draft, #5 Denver), Monty Williams (1994 Draft, #24 New York) and Ryan Humphrey (2002 Draft, #19-Utah Jazz).

He helped the Irish to NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. Notre Dame reached the NIT finals in 1992 and advanced to the quarterfinals in 1997.

At 26, McCaffery was the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was hired on Sept. 11, 1985, at Lehigh. McCaffery capped his three-year tenure with the Engineers with a 21-win season and an NCAA berth in 1988.

In three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he compiled a 49-39 overall record and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament in 1988. At the time he was the youngest head coach to reach the NCAA Tournament. His Lehigh teams had two winning seasons in three years and the 1987-88 squad's 21-10 record remains the best in program history. Lehigh had just four winning seasons in the 55 years prior to his arrival.

McCaffery was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Lehigh from 1983-85 and helped the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1985. As recruiting coordinator, he helped sign Darren Queenn, who remains Lehigh's all-time leading scorer. Queenan was second in the nation in scoring in 1988.

McCaffery was assistant varsity coach and head subvarsity coach at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, during the 1982-83 season. At Penn, he worked for Craig Littlepage, who is now the director of athletics at the University of Virginia.

McCaffery lettered three years as point guard on the men's basketball team at Pennsylvania as one of the first transfers to play for the Quakers. He earned a bachelor's degree from The Wharton School of Finance and Commerce in 1982. In 1985 he received his master's degree in education from Lehigh.

In three seasons as a player he helped lead Penn to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and Ivy League titles and one berth in the NIT. As a senior in 1981-82 he led the Ivy League in steals and assists and was voted the team's Most Inspirational Player.

Recruited as the successor at point guard to Skip Brown at Wake Forest, McCaffery played one season at Wake Forest, 1977-78, helping the Demon Deacons to a 19-10 record. Nicknamed "White Magic," he started 11 games as coach Carl Tacy's team finished runner-up in the ACC Tournament to eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Wake defeated North Carolina twice in three meetings and won five of the eight games it played at the Greensboro Coliseum.

The McCaffery's have been a champion for Coaches vs. Cancer and the American Cancer Society (ACS). The McCaffery's have been actively involved with the Coaches vs. Cancer program and have raised significant funds to support ACS efforts, including more than $4.5 million since becoming Iowa's head coach in 2010. His efforts were honored during the 2015 Final Four weekend, as McCaffery was honored with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award. The distinction is awarded annually to a college coach who has been engaged vigorously in the Coaches vs. Cancer program's fundraising, education and promotional initiatives and has demonstrated leadership in the fight to save more lives from cancer. The ACS awarded the McCaffery's with the Fighting Spirit Award in 2015.

In addition to their work with the American Cancer Society and Coaches vs. Cancer, the McCaffery's help spearhead the launch of a new Adolescent and Young Adult Cancer Program in Iowa City.

McCaffery, a Philadelphia native who attended LaSalle High School, and his wife Margaret have four children: sons, Connor, Patrick and Jonathan and a daughter, Marit. Connor and Patrick are teammates on the lowa basketball team. In addition to also playing baseball in the spring, Connor excels in the classroom, earning CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team, NABC Honors Court, and Dean's List recognition multiple times.

"We are thrilled Fran McCaffery is leading our men's basketball program. From the first day I met Coach McCaffery he said, 'I want to be the coach at Iowa.' He is a proven winner, a leader, has competed for championships and will continue to do so. Coach McCaffery is committed to student-athletes, their personal lives, and their education. Every one of his student-athletes who has completed their eligibility has graduated."

Gary Barta Director of Athletics University of Iowa

"Fran McCaffery adds a different flavor and is good for the Big Ten. This is a very attractive program for highly skilled players. LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"When a parent passes their kid over to Fran they can rest assured a few things. One, he's going to make sure, to the best of his ability, that he gets a quality degree. Secondly, he is going to do his very best to develop that individual player within the team context. And finally, because of the vast resources of people that he knows outside of the game that he will do his very best, for those who aren't fortunate to play at the next level, to use his influence to make sure they get jobs and have an opportunity to have upward mobility. That's what makes him special."

LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Iowa made an outstanding choice. Fran McCaffery-coached teams are well coached and very well organized."

Ronnie Lester Iowa All-American

"Fran McCaffery is a good solid hire for the University of Iowa. Iowa has been hoping for a winner and I believe one has arrived. "The number one thing about Fran, is that he has a great feel for the game, and, he understands players. He and I spent a lot of time in traversing the state of Iowa, trying to get Iowa kids to come to Notre Dame. Fran has a great knack for setting an offense and he is a great defensive coach. He has great relationships with his players. This is a great fit for Iowa and a great fit for Fran."

John MacLeod Former Head Coach, Notre Dame Former Head Coach, Golden State

They play a great style of basketball; they press, run and jump, fast break and shoot a lot of three's. High school guys always say that they want to go to a coach who is going to let them play... well, Fran McCaffery is that coach who let's his guys play."

Iowa's 2022 squad won 26 games, the second highest total in Iowa single-season history, and captured the school's third Big Ten Tournament championship by winning four games in four days.

Sherman Dillard is in his 12th year with the University of Iowa men's basketball staff bringing a wealth of expertise on and off the court.

Dillard has helped rejuvenate the Iowa basketball program since arriving at Iowa in 2010. Not only has the attendance at Carver-Hawkeye Arena increased by more than 50 percent, but Dillard helped vault the program back to national prominence on a consistent basis. Iowa has been ranked as high as No. 3 nationally during the 2016 and 2021 seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked for 16 consecutive weeks in 2019, the final nine weeks of the 2020 season, and in 2021 went wire-to-wire in the top 15 of the AP Poll for the first time since the 1989 campaign.

Fran McCaffery and his coaching staff have won 20 games or more seven of the last nine years. Dillard and the Hawkeyes have placed fifth or better in the Big Ten standings five of the last seven seasons, including a third-place finish in 2021.

lowa has averaged 20 wins the last 10 seasons, with its 205 victories between 2013-21 being the most over a 10-year span at Iowa since 1986-94.

The last three seasons, Dillard and the Hawkeyes won 20+ games and posted NCAA Tournament victories in 2019 and 2021. Dillard recruited and coached two-time unanimous consensus first-team All-American, and Big Ten and National Player of the Year Luka Garza. The center was also the consensus 2021 National Player of the Year, including winning the Naismith Trophy and John R. Wooden Award.

lowa won 15 games over AP Top 25 opponents over the last two seasons (2020-21), tops among all Division I teams. In 2021, Iowa won 14 Big Ten regular season games -- its highest total since 1987 -- and reached 10 league wins for the sixth time in seven seasons. The Hawkeyes earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tying its highest ever seed in tournament history (No. 2 in 1987).

Dillard and the Hawkeyes have led the Big Ten in scoring each of the last two seasons, including ranking fifth nationally in 2021. Iowa averaged 83.7 points per game in 2021, its highest scoring average in 32 years. Additionally, Iowa was tops in Division I in assists per game (19.2) and assist-to-turnover ratio (2.0) in 2021.

In 2019, the Hawkeyes amassed 23 victories, the program's second highest total in 13 seasons, closely behind 25 wins in 2013 when reaching the NIT championship game. Iowa placed third in the Big Ten and won a game in the NCAA Tournament for the third time in five years.

The past 11 years at Iowa, Dillard helped coach 18 Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Joe Wieskamp and Garza, who were both selected in the 2021 NBA Draft. Wieskamp was chosen by the San Antonio Spurs, while the Detroit Pistons picked Garza. The University of Iowa was one of only two Big Ten schools with multiple draft picks in 2021.

Dillard has helped mentor nine Hawkeyes to All-Big Ten status during his tenure, including five first team honorees: Roy Devyn Marble (2014), Aaron White (2015), Jarrod Uthoff (2016), Peter Jok (2017), and Luka Garza (2020 & 2021). In addition to the allconference accolades, Garza (twice), Uthoff, and Jok were All-Americans. Dillard helped develop frontcourt players Gabriel Olaseni and Nicholas Baer, who were each voted Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year in 2015 and 2017, respectively. He also helped coach eight All-Big Ten Freshman performers (Eric May in 2010; Melsahn Basabe in 2011; Aaron White in 2012; Jordan Bohannon and Tyler Cook in 2017; Joe Wieskamp in 2019; CJ Fredrick in 2020; Keegan Murray in 2021).

Frontcourt players have enjoyed recent success under McCaffery and the coaching staff. The last two seasons, Garza had unprecedented success, becoming a two-time National and Big Ten Player of the Year, unanimous consensus first-team All-American, Pete Newell Big Man of the Year, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year. Three years ago, Cook became the ninth player in program history to total more than 1,300 points and 600 rebounds. Baer is the only Hawkeye to ever total more than 750 points, 500 rebounds, 100 assists, 100 steals, 100 blocks, and 100 3-pointers made. Additionally, Dillard helped mentor Jok (19.9 ppg) and Garza (23.9 ppg in 2020; 24.1 ppg in 2021) in becoming Iowa's fifth, sixth, and seventh Big Ten scoring champions in school history.

Dillard has four decades of coaching experience, serving as a college assistant or head coach. He spent his first 15 years as an assistant coach at three institutions. Dillard began his coaching career under Head Coach Lefty Driesell at Maryland, spending six seasons (1979-85). He helped coach the Terrapins to four 20-plus win seasons and six postseason appearances, including five NCAA Tournament berths. The 1980, 1984 and 1985 squads reached the Sweet 16, while the 1984 team won the ACC Tournament.

He then spent three years at California (1985-88) under Lou Campanelli, who was his coach at James Madison. The Bears posted two third-place Pac-10 finishes and two NIT appearances during his tenure in Berkeley. After three seasons at California, he returned to the ACC and Georgia Tech for six seasons (1988-94). While in Atlanta, he helped Coach Bobby Cremins lead the Yellow Jackets to six winning seasons and postseason appearances. Georgia Tech played in five NCAA Tournaments, including the Final Four in 1990 and Sweet 16 in 1992.

Dillard received his first head coaching opportunity at Indiana State (1994-97). During his three seasons in Terre Haute, the Sycamores improved each year (29-52 record). He then left Indiana State to return to his alma mater to replace Driesell. Dillard was the Dukes' head coach for seven years (1997-04). He posted a 93-106 record, sharing a league title and recording three first-division finishes in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). During his tenure, he earned CAA Coach of the Year and NABC District Coach of the Year laurels. His 10-year head coaching record stands at 122-158.

Dillard, a three-time Academic All-American and four-time honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press, played guard at James Madison (1973-78). He led the Dukes in scoring in each of his four years (missed 1976-77 with an injury) and was the team's top rebounder as a freshman. Dillard is the second-leading scorer (2,065 points) in James Madison history, and his academic excellence merited him an NCAA post-graduate scholarship. After his collegiate career, he was drafted by the Indiana Pacers in the 1978 NBA Draft. Additionally, Dillard was honored as a CAA "Legend" in 2009.

Dillard worked as a basketball marketing representative for Nike for six years (2004-10). He served as Global Camp Director, responsible for administrative and operational facets of a series of highly acclaimed camps and academies sponsored by Nike. Those camps included the Nike All-America Camp and select skills academies hosted by NBA stars such as Kobe Bryant, Steve Nash, Vince Carter, Amaré Stoudemire, and LeBron James (until January, 2009).

Dillard is a 1978 magna cum laude James Madison graduate earning a bachelor's degree in physical education and minor in business, and is a member of the school's sports hall of fame.

Dillard and his wife Dena have two sons, Ben (28) and Langston (26). His son Ben was a four-year letterwinner on the Arkansas-Little Rock basketball team.

Matt Gatens is in his first season as an assistant coach under head coach Fran McCaffery. Gatens assists in all aspects of the program including recruiting, opponent scouting, practices, player development and game preparation.

Gatens was a four-year starter for the Hawkeyes from 2009-12. His final two seasons were McCaffery's first two as Iowa's head coach. As a senior, Gatens and the Hawkeyes won seven more games than the previous year and advanced to postseason play (NIT Second Round) for the first time under McCaffery and the first time as a program in six seasons.

The Iowa City native was a two-time All-Big Ten selection, two-time team captain, two-time academic all-conference honoree, recipient of the 2012 Chris Street Award, and voted to the 2009 Big Ten All-Freshman team. Gatens amassed 1,635 points and 239 3-pointers ranking 10th and third, respectively, in Iowa history. In 128 career games, he averaged 12.8 points, 3.6 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.1 steals per contest.

Gatens returns home as an assistant coach after spending the past four seasons (2019-22) on Drake's coaching staff. He served as director of operations his first two years before being elevated to an assistant coach the last two seasons.

Gatens helped guide Drake to four straight 20-win seasons (95 combined wins), the 2019 Missouri Valley Conference regular season title, an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2021, and to two Missouri Valley Tournament championship game appearances.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs, Gatens was on the basketball staff at Auburn, where he assisted in travel, development, scouting, video and camps for the Southeastern Conference Champions. Gatens also aided in the development of the team's guards, including All-SEC selections Bryce Brown and Jared Harper.

Following his Hawkeye career, Gatens played professionally in France, Spain, Turkey and Ukraine. He returned to the United States to play for the Iowa Energy in the NBA Development League, but he suffered a torn ACL just five quarters into the 2016-17 season, ending his playing career.

Gatens was named Iowa's 'Mr. Basketball' and the state's Gatorade Player of the Year as a senior at Iowa City High School. He led his squad to a 4A state title as a senior in 2008 and holds the City High record for career scoring.

Gatens and his wife, Erin, are the parents of a son, Nash, and daughters, Noa and Vayda.

Courtney Eldridge is in his seventh season on the Iowa staff. Eldridge was elevated to assistant coach in April 2022, after serving as the program's director of recruiting and player development from 2020-22 and video coordinator from 2017-19.

Since 2019, Eldridge and the Hawkeyes won 20+ games, have been a mainstay in the national rankings and NCAA Tournament, and won the 2022 Big Ten Tournament championship.

lowa has finished in the upper half of the Big Ten standings five of the six seasons that Eldridge has been on staff, including placing third in 2021 and fourth in 2022.

In 2022, the Hawkeyes won four games in four days to capture the Big Ten Tournament title, their third in program history, which ties as third most in the league. Iowa finished fourth in the conference standings and won 26 games; the second highest single season win total in program history.

While serving as director of recruiting and player development, Iowa has had one of the most dominating players in college basketball each of the past three seasons. Luka Garza was twice named national player of the year and a consensus first-team All-America selection in 2020 and 2021, while Keegan Murray was a finalist for the Wooden Award and Naismith Trophy, earned consensus first-team All-America laurels and was named the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year in 2022. Furthermore, the Hawkeye staff has had a first-team All-Big Ten honoree four of the last six seasons while Eldridge has been on staff.

Over the last three seasons, Iowa combined to win 68 games -- the fourth most over a three-year stretch in program history and most since 1987-89 -- finished each season ranked in the AP Poll -- something that has not been

In 2021, Iowa won 14 Big Ten regular season games, its highest total since 1987. The Hawkeyes earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tying its highest ever seed in the tournament.

Eldridge and the Hawkeyes have led the Big Ten in scoring each of the last four seasons, including ranking fifth nationally in 2021 (83.7) and 2022 (83.2). Iowa averaged more than 83 points in consecutive seasons for the first time in 27 years. Additionally, Iowa was tops in Division I in assist-to-turnover ratio in 2021 (2.0) and 2022 (1.74).

His first three years as video coordinator, Eldridge assisted with film breakdown and compiling player development edits. He also organized in-depth statistical data and various analytic measures for the coaching staff.

Sophomores Keegan and Kris Murray ranked first and fourth, respectively, in team scoring. Keegan averaged 23.5 points, while Kris was Iowa's leading scorer (9.7 ppg) and rebounder (4.3 rpg) off the bench. Keegan also ranks first on the squad in rebounds per game (8.7), blocks per game (1.94), 3-point accuracy (.398, 66-of-166) and free throws made (142); while Kris ranks second on the squad in blocks per contest (0.9), 3-point accuracy (.397, 43-of-111), third in rebounds (4.3) and fourth in steals (29).

Keegan was a phenomenal finisher around the rim, hitting 62 percent on 2-point tries and a team-best 39.8 percent from behind the 3-point arc.

Kris averaged 21.7 points and 9.5 rebounds per 40 minutes played as a sophomore. He posted single season bests in every statistical category, improving his scoring average by +9.1 points per game and rebounding average by 3.7 per outing.

Kris' 31 blocks tie for Glen Worley (2002) for seventh most and his 43 3-point field goals are eighth most by a Hawkeye sophomore.

Kris made at least one 3-pointer in a team-best 17 consecutive games (Jan. 22-March 13). He recorded multiple steals in 10 games and multiple blocks in nine contests.

BOHANNON WINS 3-POINT CONTESTS

The Big Ten's all-time 3-point leader Jordan Bohannon won the 2022 Men's College 3-Point Contest held on March 31, in New Orleans, the site of the Final Four.

Bohannon becomes the second Hawkeye in six years to win the 3-Point Contest; Peter Jok was the last Hawkeye to compete in the event and was crowned champion of the 2017 event in Phoenix.

Bohannon defeated a field that included Brad Davison (Wisconsin), Alfonso Plummer (Illinois), Sasha Stefanovic (Purdue), Carl Pierre (Rice), Alex O'Connell (Creighton) and Davion Mintz (Kentucky).

Bohannon edged Davison in the finals, 18-17. Bohannon went into the final three racks with just five points, but he made eight straight shots, including a perfect rack at the top of the key. Bohannon trailed by three going into the final rack, but he delivered by sinking the first four balls.

Bohannon then went on to win the "Battle of the Champions," edging Kendall Spray of Florida Gulf Coast, 21-19. Bohannon made 11 straight shots and drained his last money ball attempt, which proved to be the difference.

JORDAN BOHANNON HOLDS 5 IOWA RECORDS

Jordan Bohannon, who competed in his sixth season, is the program's career leader in four statistical categories: assists (704), 3-pointers made (455), games played (179), and free throw percentage (.887, 370-417). He sank a school and Xfinity Center record 10 3-pointers at Maryland on Feb. 10, 2022. The 10 triples were one shy of tying the Big Ten record. His 455 triples are the most in Big Ten history and 192 more than any other Hawkeve.

He made 91 treys this season, second most in the Big Ten and 39th nationally.

Bohannon (179) is the NCAA all-time leader in career games played. He is fourth in the NCAA with 455 career 3-point field goals made. The 455 triples are the second most by a player from a major conference (457 by Duke's J.J. Reddick). He ranks third in career scoring at Iowa (2,033) and sixth in field goals made (604).

In four games at the Big Ten Tournament, he averaged 13 points a game, shooting 45.5 percent from the field, 43.3 percent from 3-point range and 90 percent from the foul line. He connected on the game-winning 3-pointer with 1.1 seconds remaining in the semifinal win over Indiana. He was one of two Hawkeyes named to the all-tournament team.

Bohannon, an honorable mention all-conference honoree in 2021 and 2022, is the only Division I player over the last 25 years to make 75+ 3-pointers in five seasons.

Bohannon ranked first in the league in 3-point accuracy (.394) and second in 3-pointers made per game (2.58) in 2021. He was second in the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.07) and fourth in assists per contest (4.4).

He is the only Division I player to amass more than 700 assists and 450 3-pointers.

Bohannon is one of only three Hawkeyes to post four 100-assist seasons (Jeff Horner, Dean Oliver). He has accumulated seven points-assists double-doubles, the most in school history. Bohannon registered a schoolrecord eight games with 10 or more assists.

Note: Iowa home games moved from Iowa Fieldhouse (13,365) to Carver-Hawkeye Arena (15,500) for the final 10 home games in 1983. Due to Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovations, the capacity dropped from 15,500 to 15,400 in 2012 and 15,400 to 15,056 in 2019. Due to COVID-19 pandemic, no attendance rankings kept for 2021.

FIRST BASKETBALL GAME PLAYED IN IOWA CITY

lowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus on January 18, 1896.

In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

The game was arranged by Iowa professor H.F. Kallenberg, who had earlier attended Springfield College, and wrote James Naismith for a copy of the rules of the game, and Amos Alonzo Stagg, a friend of Kallenberg who had become the athletic director at Chicago.

Former All-American Don Nelson and head coach George Raveling were inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame in 2012 and 2015, respectively.

While at Iowa (1983-86), Raveling guided the Hawkeyes to back-to-back 20-win seasons and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. Raveling is not only known for making history by breaking down racial barriers as a coach, but also was a part of history when in 1963 he received the original copy of the Martin Luther King Jr., "I Have a Dream" speech.

Nelson held the record for most wins (1,335) by an NBA coach for 12 seasons (surpassed by Gregg Popovich in 2022) and is one of only two coaches to be named NBA Coach of the Year three times (1983, 1985, 1992). He spent over 40 years of his life as a player, coach and general manager. He led teams to 18 playoff appearances where he amassed 75 playoff wins and is one of only two NBA coaches to win 250 games with three different teams. He also coached Dream Team II to a gold medal in the 1994 World Championships. Nelson, who was named in 1996 as one the NBA's 10 Best Coaches of all time, is the only coach with 1,000+ wins and multiple NBA championships as a player, where he won five titles with the Boston Celtics (1966, 1968, 1969, 1974 and 1976).

As a Hawkeye, Nelson led the Hawkeyes to 45 victories between 1959-62. He left Iowa after the 1962 season with 1,522 points, averaging 21.2 points per game in 72 career games, which currently ranks fourth best for scoring average in the Iowa record books.

10 B.J. ARMSTRONG (JERSEY)

Andre Banks

B.J. Armstrong's jersey was retired in 1992. Graduated as Iowa's career assist leader (currently fourth), Armstrong ranks fifth in career scoring and was a two-time Hawkeye MVP. A first round draft choice of the Chicago Bulls in 1989, Armstrong played a vital role in Chicago's NBA titles in 1991 and 1992. He moved into Chicago's starting line-up in 1993 as the Bulls won their third straight NBA title. Armstrong concluded his NBA career with Chicago in 1999-00.

12 RONNIE LESTER

Lester is Iowa's seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,675 points. He started 3 1/2 seasons before a knee injury shortened his senior season. He was the Hawkeyes' MVP three times, an All-Big Ten selection twice and an All-American in 1979-1980. Lester played in the NBA for Chicago and Los Angeles. Lester won a World Championship with the Los Angeles Lakers in 1985 and served as vice-president of the Laker organization.

17 MURRAY WIER (JERSEY)

Wier was a four-year starter from 1945-48. He help Iowa to a Big Ten championship as a freshman in 1945. As a senior, Wier became the first officially recognized Division I NCAA scoring leader and Iowa's first-ever consensus first-team All-American, averaging 21 points per game. He set a then-Big Ten record of 272 points in conference play, earning first-team all-league and team Most Valuable Player accolades in 1948.

21 CARL CAIN

Cain was a 1956 first team All-American and All-Big Ten for the Hawkeves' national runners-up. A 1956 Olympian, Cain was forced into a reserve role for the United States because of a back injury. He was a two-time lowa MVP and finished his career with 1.054 points.

22 BILL SEABERG

Seaberg was a starting guard on the "Fabulous Five" team that ended up as the NCAA runner-up in 1956. He was third team All-America by Helms and the Hawkeyes' MVP in 1955, when he averaged 13 points.

23 ROY MARBLE (JERSEY)

Marble scored 2,116 points to become the first Iowa player to score 2,000 points. He also recorded 668 career rebounds and 281 assists as the Hawkeyes won 97 games during his career. Iowa earned four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight appearance in 1987 and a trip to the Sweet 16 in 1988. Marble shared team Most Valuable Player honors from 1987-89. Along with being Iowa's career scoring leader for 31 years, Marble currently ranks second in program annals in field goals made (787), field goal attempts (1,459) and free throws made (516); third in free throw attempts (707); and fourth in career steals (183). He led the team in scoring in 1986, 1987, and 1989.

27 CHUCK DARLING

Darling earned first-team All-America distinction and was awarded the Chicago Tribune Silver Trophy as a senior in 1952. A two-time all-conference selection, Darling led the Hawkeyes to second (1952) and third place (1951) Big Ten finishes as an upperclassman. He led the Hawkeyes in scoring in back-to-back seasons in 1951 (16.3 ppg) and 1952 (25.5 ppg), including leading the Big Ten in points per game as a senior. His 25.5 points per game average is the third highest scoring average in program history behind John Johnson (27.9 ppg in 1970) and Fred Brown (27.6 ppg in 1971). He averaged a staggering 17.6 rebounds in 22 games as a junior, a season average that is tops in school history.

31 BILL LOGAN

A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Logan was second team All-America in 1956 according to Helms and Converse-Taylor. 33 BILL SCHOOF

Schoof played forward on the "Fabulous Five" team and scored 6.3 points per game. A three-year letterman, Schoof was a starter on Iowa's 1955 and 1956 Final Four teams. In those two seasons he helped the Hawkeyes to a record of 39-13.

40 CHRIS STREET

Chris Street's number was retired following his untimely death in 1993. Street died in an auto accident 15 games into his junior season. A fixture in Iowa's starting lineup since midway through his freshman season, Street was averaging 14.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per contest through 15 games and had recently earned MVP honors at the San Juan Shootout. He established an Iowa record by making 34 consecutive free throws.

After an All-Big Ten senior season (19.9 scoring norm), Stokes was selected in the 1985 NBA Draft by Philadelphia.

46 SHARM SCHEUERMAN

Scheuerman made his mark at lowa as an athlete and coach. He started on the "Fabulous Five" basketball team and lettered three times in basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1956, Scheuerman returned to coach his alma mater in 1959. His 1961 squad finished 18-6.

55 LUKA GARZA

Luka Garza is Iowa's only two-time Big Ten Player of the Year (2020 & 2021) and only consensus National Player of the Year (2021). Iowa's all-time leading scorer was also a two-time consensus first-team All-American, first-team All-Big Ten, and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Pete Newell award winner. Garza is the only Big Ten men's basketball player to amass over 2,250 points and 900 rebounds. Garza was recognized as the 2021 Big Ten Jesse Owens Male Athlete of the Year.
