Larissa Libby enters her 19th year as head coach, and 23rd year overall, at the University of Iowa in the 2023 season.

During her tenure in Iowa City, the Hawkeyes have been a consistent top 25 team nationally, as she has led the program to 22 straight NCAA Regional appearances (individually or as a team). During the 2022 season, Libby led the Hawkeyes to the NCAA Regional Final and Adeline Kenlin to NCAA beam runner-up honors. It came on the heels of a 2021 season where Libby led Iowa to the Big Ten regular season title — the first in program history.

The three-time Big Ten and two-time NCAA Regional Coach of the Year has coached six WCGA All-Americans and five first-team All-Americans at the NCAA Championships, including national champion Alexis Maday and Adeline Kenlin. Maday was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2001 and the Big Ten Gymnast of the Year in 2004. Kenlin was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 2021.

The three-time Big Ten and two-time NCAA Regional Coach of the Year has coached 11 WCGA All-Americans and six first-team All-Americans at the NCAA Championships. Libby has coached 14 Big Ten champions, six NCAA Regional champions, 11 NCAA Championships qualifiers, while 54 student-athletes have earned All-Big Ten honors, including 26 first-team selections.

The Hawkeyes have also excelled in the classroom and has had a strong community presence under Libby's watch. Forty-eight student-athletes have been Academic All-Americans.

The GymHawks' program surge continued during the 2022 season under Libby's watch. The Hawkeyes posted five of the top eight scores in program history during the season, won the first session and finished third at the Big Ten Championships before knocking off No. 6 LSU in NCAA Regionals to advance to the NCAA Regional Final for the first time under the current format. The Hawkeyes scored a 197.075 in the Regional Final — the second-highest score and just the third 197 in program history.
