University of Iowa women's basketball coach Lisa Bluder has a simple goal for the 2012-13 Hawkeye women's basketball team; win a tournament game at home to begin and end the season.

Iowa will host the preseason WNIT to open the season and was selected as one of 16 sites to host NCAA Tournament first and second round games in March. Opening with a win would mean advancing to the second round of the preseason WNIT. Ending with a win at home would mean a Sweet 16 berth.

"It's not very often you get the opportunity to host national tournaments that bookend your season," Bluder said. "That's a great honor and we want to make the most of those two tournaments being held in Carver-Hawkeye Arena."

Iowa returns four players with starting experience from a year ago and eight letterwinners. The Hawkeyes also added a group of five newcomers, including four freshmen and a junior college transfer.

"We are very excited about the make-up of this year's roster," Bluder said. "We return a solid group of players and have talented newcomers that will add to the depth of our team."

BACKCOURT

Anchoring Iowa's backcourt will be two All-Big Ten performers in sophomore Samantha Logic and senior Jaime Printy. Logic was named to the Big Ten All-Freshmen team last season and averaged 9.4 points and led the team with 7.1 rebounds per game and 136 assists. Bluder has seen improvements in Logic's game during the offseason and believes she is poised for another successful season.

"She has confidence," Bluder said. "She's not one of our captains, but she certainly is valuable in her leadership role. She's looking to score more, she's physical, she understands what we want out of her and she's just going to be a very good player for us."

Printy was a third team All-Big Ten selection a year ago, despite tearing an ACL with eight games remaining in the season. The Marion, Iowa, native's rehabilitation has gone well and Bluder expects her All-American shooting guard in uniform when the season begins.

"I can't tell you if Jaime will be 100 percent for our opener," Bluder said. "But, I can tell you that she's working as hard as she can to get to that point. I can also tell you that I have 100-percent belief in her when she shoots the ball. She will help our team reach its goals."

Melissa Dixon stepped in to a starting role last year after Printy's injury and wasted no time in making an impact. In her first career start, Dixon poured in 19 points on 5-of-10 shooting from 3-point distance.

"Our team never missed a beat with Melissa moving into the starting lineup," Bluder said. "She is one of the hardest workers on our team and we love the attitude she brings to the court every day."

Junior Theairra Taylor played her first complete season in a Hawkeye uniform last year after suffering knee injuries in each of her first two years. Taylor played in all 31 games a year ago and played her best game in the NCAA Tournament against California, scoring 10 points and recording three steals.

"Theairra will be an impact player for us, there is no doubt about that," Bluder said. "She is taking off right where she left last year in the NCAA Tournament."

Senior Trisha Nesbitt has also battled injuries throughout her career, but enters the 2012-13 season healthy and in form.

"Trisha is one of our tri-captains," Bluder said. "She is finally getting the opportunity to play healthy and she's playing very well in preseason practices."

The Hawkeyes will be without sophomore Kathryn Reynolds, who suffered an ACL injury during off-season workouts in April. Bluder will look to freshmen Claire Till and Kali Peschel, along with junior college transfer Kathy Thomas, to contribute at the guard position.

FRONTCOURT

Bluder has the luxury of looking to arguably the best post player in the Big Ten to lead Iowa's paint attack. Senior Morgan Johnson was a second team All-Big Ten selection last year and was the seventh-best field goal shooter in the nation. She also brings a defensive presence and is closing in on Iowa's all-time blocks record.

"I think Morgan is one of the best centers in the United States," Bluder said. "I love coaching her. I love coaching a kid that comes to practice every day with that much enthusiasm, a positive attitude and just a love for the game and a love for life. She is wonderful to have on the court."

Sophomore Bethany Doolittle served as a backup to Johnson at the center position last year, playing in all 31 games. Doolittle's game took a jump during the offseason and Bluder is looking at getting her on the court at the power forward position in order to see more time on the court.

"Bethany is more versatile and more confident as a sophomore," Bluder said. "She can add some height to our team and that can make an impact. She really is a different player now than she was last year."

Two freshmen, Kayla Timmerman and Nicole Smith, will also see time in the paint. Smith is also coming off an ACL injury and is working her way back to full-strength during the offseason.

SCHEDULE

Iowa will play in three nonconference tournaments; the Preseason WNIT, the FIU Thanksgiving Classic and the San Diego Surf 'N Slam Classic. Other nonconference highlights include intra-state rivalry games against Iowa State, Drake and Northern Iowa, a meeting with Florida State in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge and hosting defending Missouri Valley Conference championship Missouri State. The Hawkeyes are scheduled to face 18 teams who advanced to postseason play a year ago, including nine NCAA Tournament teams.

Six of Iowa's Big Ten opponents advanced to the NCAA Tournament last year (Michigan, Michigan State, Nebraska, Ohio State, Penn State and Purdue). The Hawkeyes will face either West Virginia or LSU at the FIU Thanksgiving Classic, both NCAA Tournament qualifiers. Iowa State and Texas also played in the NCAA Tournament.

"We are in two very competitive holiday tournaments," Bluder said. "These tournaments give us the opportunity to play top caliber women's basketball teams on a neutral court."

"We play in one of the best conferences in America," Bluder said. "We want athletes that want to come here and compete against the very best. They know what they are getting into and they welcome it."

Sally Mason President University of Iowa

Sally Mason became the 20th President of the University of Iowa on August 1, 2007. She holds a full professorship with tenure in the Department of Biology in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

At Iowa, President Mason has spearheaded a sustainable university initiative, making sustainability a central priority of all aspects of the University enterprise.

Currently, she is overseeing campus rebuilding in the wake of the historic 2008 flooding, especially the renewal of an arts campus for the 21st century. Under President Mason's leadership, the UI has successfully met the country's recent economic challenges through careful planning, strategic prioritization, and increased efficiency. Other major accomplishments during President Mason's tenure have been a student success initiative that has led to increased enrollment and student retention, and an expansion of partnership agreements with Iowa's community colleges that offer UI degrees to students throughout the state through on-site and distance learning programs.

The daughter of an immigrant family and the first child to attend college, President Mason received her B.A. in zoology from the University of Kentucky in 1972, her M.S. from Purdue University in 1974, and her Ph.D. in cellular, molecular, and developmental biology from the University of Arizona in 1978. She spent two postdoctoral research years at Indiana University before joining the molecular biosciences faculty at the University of Kansas in 1981, where she received awards for outstanding undergraduate advising and teaching and was awarded a prestigious Kemper Teaching Fellowship. After stints as Acting Chair of the Department of Physiology and Cell Biology and Associate Dean in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, in 1995 she was appointed Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the largest academic unit on the KU campus. President Mason served as Provost of Purdue University from 2001–2007, where she was responsible for planning, managing, and reviewing all academic programs at Purdue's West Lafayette campus and four affiliated branch campuses throughout Indiana.

President Mason is the author of many scientific papers and has obtained a number of research grants from the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the Wesley Research Foundation, and the Lilly Endowment. Her research interests have focused on the developmental biology, genetics, and biochemistry of pigment cells and pigments in the skin of vertebrates, and she served as President of the PanAmerican Society for Pigment Cell Research. Since 2006, President Mason has been appointed by the President of the United States to three terms on the National Medal of Science President's Committee, including a term as chair. She has also served as Chair of the Advisory Committee to the National Science Foundation (NSF) Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR) and Chair of the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) review panel of the NSF Science and Technology Centers Program.

President Mason has held many leadership positions in higher education and national organizations: President of the Council of Colleges of Arts and Sciences; member of the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education (ACE); member of the Executive Committee of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC); Chair of the Iowa Coordinating Council for Post-High School Education (ICCPHSE); and co-chair of the Task Force on National Energy Policy and Midwestern Competitiveness of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs.

Currently, President Mason serves as Chair-Elect of the Board of Directors Executive Committee of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU); member of the Board of Trustees of the Universities Research Association; member of the Board of Directors of Campus Compact, the national coalition of college and university presidents committed to fulfilling the civic purposes of higher education; member of the Board of Directors of the Big Ten Conference, Inc.; member of the Washington Center Council of Presidents; and member of the Board of Trustees of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library Association.

President Mason is married to Ken Mason, an educator and textbook author who teaches biology at the University of Iowa.

"Welcome to a new season of Iowa women's basketball! My husband Ken and I are passionate Hawkeye women's basketball fans and we are looking forward to another exciting season. We take great pride in this team and its coaches. These Hawkeyes truly embody the winning spirit on the court, in the classroom and in the community.

We are proud of our rich tradition in women's basketball! The University of Iowa has established itself as one of the most decorated programs in the Big Ten and nation. Coach Bluder has led her team to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, including the last five years in a row.

Under Coach Bluder's leadership, Iowa has posted nine Big Ten first-division finishes and advanced to the post-season 11 times. Bluder, who is the dean of women's basketball coaches in the Big Ten, exemplifies the type of coach this University is all about. Named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times and WBCA Regional Coach of the Year twice, Coach Bluder and the Hawkeyes enjoy the national spotlight. Our future looks as bright as our recent past.

Lisa Bluder and her loyal coaching staff's level of commitment to her players is unparalleled. The program has a longstanding reputation for developing leaders on and off the court. I'm proud of the program's academic excellence and volunteer efforts around the Eastern Iowa community.

I am proud to be a Hawkeye. I hope you'll join me for another thrilling season of Hawkeye women's basketball at Carver-Hawkeye Arena!"

SALLY MASON
PRESIDENT
THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

Gary Barta Director of Athletics University of Iowa

Now in his seventh year as director of athletics at the University of Iowa and his 26th year in athletic administration, Gary Barta manages an athletics program that continues to gain momentum in two key areas -- on the playing field and in the classroom -- while enhancing the infrastructure that will serve as the foundation for future successes.

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 74 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in 2004-05) ties the best ever posted by UI athletics. That mark was a 13-point increase over the previous year and was nine points above the national average; UI student-athletes will establish another record when the latest figures are released in October. Last fall, the NCAA confirmed that all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark for the fourth straight year.

In figures released last fall, Iowa's score of 86 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate" or GSR, also matched a school record. Five different women's teams at the UI posted perfect 100 GSR scores. Iowa's GSR in football (83), men's (73) and women's (100) basketball all ranked above the national average for their respective sports.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2011-12. A significant number of Iowa's 24 programs reached postseason play. The Iowa football team reached bowl eligibility for the 11th straight season and competing in a bowl game for the fourth straight year and 10th time in the last 11 seasons. The women's basketball program participated in the NCAA Tournament for a fifth straight season and men's basketball returned to postseason action under second-year coach Fran McCaffery, recording an 84-75 win over Dayton in front of 13,190 re-energized fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Hawkeye wrestling program, led by national champion Matt McDonough, made another run at a national title before placing third. The men's golf team placed 22nd nationally in its third appearance in the NCAA Championships in the last four seasons. Additionally, the UI men's track and field placed 23rd in the nation and the UI's men's swimming and diving program placed 26th at its national championship.

Iowa's field hockey team advanced to the NCAA Tournament and the Hawkeye softball team placed second in the Big Ten. Between the men's and women's track and field teams, 34 student-athletes competed at the NCAA Championships and 14 members of the UI men's and women's swimming and diving teams qualified for the Olympic Trials.

And, while the UI athletics department continues to earn high marks in integrity, academic excellence, and athletic performances. Barta also continues to oversee critical improvements and additions to the facilities used by the UI's talented student-athletes while maintaining a balanced and ever-growing operations budget that continues to be self-sustaining.

In addition to the competitive success the Hawkeyes recorded in 2011-12, the UI once again experienced tremendous success at the turnstiles. Iowa has sold every seat in historic Kinnick Stadium in each of the past two seasons, ranking 21st in national attendance both years. The UI will enter the 2012 home football season with all seven home games sold out once again and boasts waiting lists for not only season tickets, but also the premium seating options available inside the Paul W. Brechler Press Box. Attendance at home games of the UI's men's basketball team has climbed more than 30 percent the last two seasons. Iowa's attendance of 13,190 for a first round NIT game in Carver-Hawkeye Arena ranked as the highest attended game of the 2012 tournament.

The UI wrestling team set another national attendance record by averaging 9,014 fans per home meet in 2011-12, leading the nation in attendance for the sixth straight year. The economic impact of the 2012 U.S. Olympic Wrestling Team Trials, hosted by the UI in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, exceeded $5 million, according to survey results released by the Iowa City/Coralville Area Convention and Visitors Bureau. Attendance at home games of the UI's women's basketball games also remained strong as the program once again ranked among national leaders in 2011-12. The UI also registered increases in attendance at home volleyball, soccer, field hockey, women's gymnastics, men's gymnastics, softball and baseball events.

Since 2006, the Hawkeyes have invested more than $150 million in new and renovated athletic facilities. Upgrades included the restoration of historic Kinnick Stadium and Carver-Hawkeye Arena, as well as a new state-of-the-art aquatics center, a boat-house facility for the UI rowing program and an indoor and outdoor tennis complex. Another $60 million worth of improvements are underway in the form of the two phase football training center project and an indoor golf performance facility.

In late summer 2011, the UI completed a $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena. That project included the construction of a practice facility for men's and women's basketball and volleyball, a 10,000-square-foot strength training and cardiovascular center, and an expansion to the Dan Gable Wrestling Complex, in addition to new locker room and support facilities for men's and women's basketball, wrestling and volleyball programs, and office space for the majority of Iowa administrative and coaching staffs.

The Carver project included the installation of a statue of Gable at the facility's main entrance. That project was completed in time for the thousands of fans of the sport of wrestling to enjoy while attending the 2012 USA Wrestling Olympic Team Trials.

Phase I of a two-phase project for the UI football program was completed in August, 2012. Phase I includes the new indoor practice facility for Coach Kirk Ferentz' program that has competed on 10 bowl games over the past 11 seasons. Phase II includes construction of the new Iowa Football Operations Center, which will include new team locker rooms, team meeting rooms, athletic medical training space, video operations, and coaches offices and meeting rooms. Funded entirely through private support and revenue generated by the UI Athletics Department, the project is an important next phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football. It will be constructed adjacent to the Ron and Margaret Kenyon Outdoor Practice Facility, immediately west of Kinnick Stadium and will be connected to the new indoor practice facility.

The 2010-11 season marked the first for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams in the UI's $69 million Campus Recreation and Wellness Center. The Hawkeyes hosted the 2012 Big Ten Championships and the UI men's squad responded by earning its highest Big Ten finish in 15 seasons.

Another of the latest additions to the facilities available to the UI's student-athletes is the Varsity Golf Complex practice facility for the men's and women's golf programs. Located at the southern edge of the UI's award-winning Finkbine Golf Course, the facility is expected to be completed for use this winter. It will provide the Hawkeyes a state-of-the-art facility that offers the opportunity for year-round training and practice. Barta's involvement in the UI campus community extends beyond intercollegiate athletics. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders, that provide counsel to UI President Sally Mason. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level. During his first six years at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Nationally, Barta remains active in the Division IA Athletics Directors Association, the National Association of College Directors of Athletics, and currently serves on the NCAA Football Committee Board of Directors.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why he is currently overseeing a comprehensive review of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and has worked with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan. Another favorite saying of his is, "Vision without resources is irrelevant." Over the course of his career he has been directly involved in raising hundreds of millions of dollars in support of intercollegiate athletics. This has remained a primary focus during his tenure at Iowa, where private support for the Hawkeyes continues to flourish despite a challenging economy.

Under Barta's leadership — and thanks to a talented athletics development staff — the UI has seen year-over-year improvement in annual giving in spite of the difficult economic environment. In addition, under Barta's direction, the UI generated more than $20 million of philanthropic and corporate sponsorship support for the revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena and has already surpassed that level of support for the current football projects.

The UI also generated the $2 million in private support necessary to fully fund the Hawkeyes' new practice facility for its men's and women's golf programs.

As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different UW coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state fund.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several UW athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by UW, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams. The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa and director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University.

Barta earned a Bachelor of Science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from NDSU in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985 and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (14) and a daughter, Madison (12). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

Lisa Bluder is in her 13th season as head women's basketball coach at the University of Iowa and her 28th year overall. Under her direction, the Hawkeyes have advanced to 11 postseason appearances (nine NCAA and two WNIT), including NCAA Tournament berths in each of the last five seasons. The dean of Big Ten coaches, Bluder has posted a 230-144 (.615) record at Iowa and her 28-year record stands at 586-286 (.672). Her 230 wins at Iowa are the second-most of any Hawkeye women's basketball coach, behind Hall of Famer C. Vivian Stringer (269 wins).

Bluder is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2001, 2008 and 2010) and two-time WBCA Regional Coach of the Year (2001 and 2008). She has guided Iowa to a winning record in 11 of her 12 years at Iowa, including nine upper-division finishes in the challenging Big Ten Conference. Bluder has led Iowa to six 20-win seasons in her 12 years.

Bluder has coached numerous players to different awards in her 11 years in Iowa City. She has mentored 14 players to 35 all-Big Ten honors, including 10 first team picks, nine second, 11 third and five honorable mention selections. She has also had two Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winners, a Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year recipient, five members of the Big Ten all-Freshman team and two players named to the Big Ten all-Defensive team, with Kachine Alexander earning the honor twice.

Four players during Bluder's tenure have earned a total of five Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) all-region team accolades and five players have earned a total of nine honorable mention All-America honors.

With Bluder on the Iowa sidelines, student-athletes have been named Academic all-Big Ten 56 times, including a program-best eight honorees in 2011 and 2012. Additionally, Lindsey Meder was a two-time Academic all-American (2001 and 2002).

Iowa closed the regular season with eight-straight wins in 2011-12, securing a second place finish in the Big Ten and its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament berth. Iowa's 11 conference wins were the most since 2001-02 and the fourth-most in school history (during a 16-game conference schedule). The Hawkeyes closed the regular season without their leading scorer, Jaime Printy, who suffered a torn ACL.

Bluder had one of her most successful seasons in 2010-11, leading Iowa to a 22-9 overall record and a third place finish in the Big Ten at 10-6. Iowa's overall win/loss record in 2010-11 was the best for an Iowa team since the 1995-96 campaign. The Hawkeyes were nationally ranked for 14 weeks during the season, reaching No. 14 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 13 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. Iowa received an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight season.

In 2009-10, Bluder led one of the youngest teams in the country to a third place finish in the Big Ten and a berth in the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. The Hawkeyes received an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament, where they knocked off Rutgers in the first round before falling to eventual national runner-up and No. 2 ranked Stanford. Iowa finished the 2009-10 season with a 20-14 record, including a 10-8 mark in Big Ten play.

Bluder guided the Hawkeyes to back-to-back 21-11 overall records during the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons. Iowa won a share of the Big Ten regular season championship in 2008 and finished in a three-way tie for second in 2009. The Hawkeyes boasted a 26-5 home record, advanced to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and appeared in the NCAA Tournament twice during the two-year stretch.

In 2005-06, Bluder guided a young and mostly inexperienced group of Hawkeyes to a 17-12 overall record and a fifth place finish in the Big Ten. Even with a season plagued by knee injuries, the Hawkeyes persevered with strong senior leadership talented play from its freshman class. Iowa received an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament.

Bluder mentored Iowa to a 23-10 overall record and advanced to the WNIT Final Four in 2004-05. The 23 victories are the most by a Bluder coached Iowa team and the most victories since the 1995-96 season. Iowa started the 2004-05 campaign 13-0 and were the last Division I undefeated team standing. Bluder navigated the Hawkeyes through a difficult schedule and ultimately finished the season ranked 38th in the RPI.

In 2003-04, Bluder and the Hawkeyes finished with a 16-13 record while playing the 14th most difficult schedule in the nation and tied for fourth in the league with a 10-6 mark. In addition, eight of its 16 victories came on the road, making the most road wins by a Hawkeye team since the 1993-94 season.

Bluder helped her third Iowa team to another exciting run in the Big Ten Tournament and WNIT in 2002-03. The seventh-seeded Hawkeyes opened the league tournament with a win over Northwestern. In the quarterfinals, Iowa treated its fans to a thrilling upset over 13th-ranked and second-seeded Minnesota. The Hawkeyes opened postseason play with wins over Saint Louis and Marquette before falling the Missouri Valley Conference co-champions Creighton Bluejays in the WNIT.

In 2001-02, Bluder coached the Hawkeyes to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year and a fourth place finish in the Big Ten. Iowa finished with an 18-11 overall record and a 10-6 mark in league play.

In her first season with the Black and Gold, Bluder transformed a struggling program into a 21-game winner. Iowa received the Big Ten's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament with a victory over Purdue to capture the 2001 Big Ten Tournament. Furthermore, the Hawkeyes advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving a No. 4 seed and finished the season ranked No. 16 in the final Associated Press poll. Competing in one of the most demanding conference in the country, Bluder directed the Hawkeyes to a 21-10 overall record, a second-place finish in the conference regular season and captured Iowa's second-ever Big Ten Tournament title. Iowa played the 16th toughest schedule in the country and finished the season ranked 18th in the RPI.

"Our success has always been based on playing up-tempo basketball," said Bluder. "We want to put lots of points on the board. The fast break is our number one offense. That type of basketball is exciting for fans and its fun for our players. When we do get into a half court game, everyone has a role. Our goal is to have four or five players averaging in double figures. We want everyone involved. Defensively, we work hard at never letting anything be easy for our opponent. We play tough player-to-player defense hoping to capitalize on steals to set up our break."

Her presence on the Iowa sidelines turned heads across the country. Virginia and USA Basketball Head Coach Debbie Ryan chose Bluder to help coach Team USA as an assistant coach at the 2001 World University Games in Beijing, China. Team USA marched into the gold medal game against host-team China and won 87-69. Team USA finished the games with a 7-1 mark.

"This was a new experience for me," Bluder said after winning the gold medal. "Just to reach the gold medal game was a thrill. It's something I will always remember. What I think is really wonderful about this experience is each game I felt like Team USA improved. I was honored to be chosen to represent the United States and experience international coaching for the first time."

Bluder has reached six coaching milestones while at Iowa. During her first season, she collected her 200th victory at the Division I level when the Hawkeyes defeated Minnesota. During her third season, Bluder captured career No. 400 in Iowa's triumph over Iowa State. She garnered win No. 300 at the Division I level with Iowa's regular season finale win over Indiana in 2006. Finally, Bluder won career game No. 500 vs. Penn State on Feb. 10, 2008.

During her tenure at Iowa, four former players have gone on to become coaches. Cara Consuegra (UNC Charlotte) and Jennie Lillis (Drake) are currently Division I head coaches. Randi Peterson is the head coach at Coe College, while Wendy Ausdemore served as an assistant at Coe for one season.

Eight former Hawkeyes under Bluder continued their playing careers professionally after graduation. Cara Consuegra, Lindsey Meder, Crystal Smith and Kachine Alexander all had stints in the WNBA. Smith, Alexander, Johanna Solverson, Kristi Smith and Megan Skouby and JoAnn Hamlin also played professionally in Europe.

Bluder, alongside her husband David and daughter Hannah, was introduced as the Hawkeyes' fifth head coach in front of a packed press room in Carver-Hawkeye Arena on April 7, 2000. The native of Marion, IA, came to Iowa after spending 10 successful seasons at Drake University.

Bluder compiled a 187-106 (.638) record at Drake in 10 seasons and a 169-36 (.824) record in six seasons at NAIA St. Ambrose University.

In her 10 years as Drake University women's basketball coach, Bluder brought great success and tradition to the Bulldog program and established herself as one of the top coaches in the country. She led Drake to five 20-plus-win seasons in the last six years, including five post-season appearances. She guided the Bulldogs to eight Missouri Valley Conference tournament appearances, reaching the semifinals six times and winning the tournament four times. Bluder was also named the Conference Coach of the Year three times at Drake.

Bluder's 1999-2000 Drake squad registered a 23-7 record. The Bulldogs won both the MVC regular-season and tournament titles and earned the school's fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament under Bluder.

The 1997-98 team finished the season 25-5, Bluder's best record at Drake, and won the MVC regular-season title, recording Drake's best conference finish with a 17-1 record. The Bulldogs also won the MVC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years. She was named the MVC Coach of the Year for the second straight year as Drake was ranked No. 22 in the final Associated Press ranking.

In 1998-99, Drake posted a 21-10 record in the MVC. It marked the fourth time in five years the Bulldogs reached the 20-win plateau, while advancing to the semifinals of the WNIT Tournament.

Bluder began her coaching career at St. Ambrose University, where she coached six successful seasons building the Bees into a NAIA powerhouse. During her tenure at St. Ambrose, Bluder recorded a 169-36 (.824) mark and guided the Bees to four straight national tournaments, including two consecutive Final Four appearances. The 1990 St. Ambrose team was ranked No. 1 and Bluder was named the NAIA Converse Coach of the Year.

She is also committed to her team's academic success. While at Drake, she coached two Academic All-America Players of the Year in current Hawkeye Associate Head Coach Jan Jensen (1991) and Tricia Wakely (1996). As a team, the Bulldogs ranked fourth in 1995 graduation rate success among teams ranked in the USA Today/CNN final top-25 Coaches' Poll. While at Iowa, Lindsey Meder became the first Hawkeye women's basketball player to be named a first team Verizon Academic all-American while Wendy Ausdemore, who was a 2009 graduate, was a two-time academic all-District honoree.

Student-athletes who have played under Coach Bluder and completed their eligibility have a 100 percent job placement following their career, and all of them have earned their degrees.

Bluder's successful coaching record speaks for itself, however her commitment to her players extends far beyond the records book.

During the summer of 2003, Bluder was elected Division I Midwest Representative of the WBCA Board of Directors. She has also served on the WBCA Kodak All-American selection committee for four terms and the Midwest Regional Advisory Committee for the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championships.

"My players are truly an extension of my family," said Bluder. "I care about them in all aspects of their lives. I want to help them succeed as athletes, but especially as people. I have an open-door relationship with my players. Hopefully, they benefit from my perspective as their coach, as a former athlete and as a mother. They can come to me with anything and get help. Along with that aspect, I consider myself a disciplinarian. I don't have a lot of rules, but I do have a lot of expectations. Those revolve around moral and ethical values that are the foundation of our program."

A graduate of Linn-Mar High School in Marion, IA, Bluder was a three-year starter at Northern Iowa. She graduated from UNI in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in marketing. On Sept. 4, 2008, Bluder was inducted to the Linn-Mar Athletic Hall of Fame. She has also been inducted to the Northern Iowa and St. Ambrose Hall of Fame.

Bluder and her husband David have two daughters, Hannah (14) and Emma (11) and one son, David (9).

Jan Jensen is in her 13th season with the Iowa Hawkeyes, her 10th as associate head coach. A nationally known presence on the recruiting scene, Jensen serves as the recruiting coordinator and also works with the post players. Jensen is in her 24th season in women's college basketball as a player and coach.

The native of Kimbalton, IA, has helped guide Iowa to 11 postseason appearances, including nine NCAA Tournament berths. During her time at Iowa, the Hawkeyes won the 2001 Big Ten Tournament championship and the 2008 Big Ten regular season title. She has also helped lead Iowa to nine first-division finishes in the Big Ten, including the last five seasons.

Jensen is integral in developing and maintaining top-level recruiting classes at Iowa. Jensen helped Iowa land the 11th best recruiting class in the country in 2011, according to ESPN HoopGurlz. In 2001, Jensen spearheaded Iowa's efforts in landing the eighth-best recruiting class in the nation according to the Blue Star Index. In 2008, Jensen and the Hawkeyes garnered the 33rd best recruiting class, according to ESPN HoopGurlz.

Jensen has recruited three McDonald's All-Americans to Iowa (Samantha Logic, Lindsay Richards and Johanna Solverson).

Under Jensen's tutelage, Hawkeye post players have received numerous honors. She has coached six players to a total of 11 All-Big Ten honors, including two first team selections. Megan Skouby was named the 2006 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and the 2008 Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year, while Jennie Lillis was a 2003 Kodak all-District selection. Skouby, along with Krista VandeVenter, were also invited to the U.S.A. Team Trials during their time at Iowa.

In 2009-10, Iowa's post players broke school records for rebounding and blocked shots. Morgan Johnson broke the school mark for single-season blocks, while the team broke the school record for single-season rebounding.

Before becoming a Hawkeye, Jensen also served as Coach Bluder's first assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Drake University. Her recruiting efforts were enough to land the Bulldogs two top 13 and two top 40 classes.

As a player, Jensen was one of the best Bluder ever coached at Drake. Her senior year, she led the nation in scoring with 29.6 ppg and was the Gateway Conference Most Valuable Player. That year, she was a Kodak Honorable Mention all-

American, a member of the all-Gateway team and the GTE Academic all-American Player of the Year. Jensen was also Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Week.

She currently ranks fourth on Drake's all-time scoring list (1,996), sixth in field goal percentage (.535) and eighth in rebounds (.750). Jensen is one of only two Drake players to have her number retired in the Knapp Center.

After college, Jensen played professionally in the European Professional Basketball League for BTV-Wuppertal in Germany. She played there from 1992-93 and helped her club win the German Club Championship. She then returned to the United States to begin her coaching career.

In 1993, Jensen was inducted to the Iowa Girls High School Basketball Hall of Fame after leading the nation in scoring, averaging 66 points per contest her senior campaign. Couple that with averaging 29.6 ppg her senior year at Drake, Jensen is one of the few players who can say she led the nation in scoring both in high school and at a Division I university.

Jensen graduated from Drake in 1991 with a degree in Public Relations. She earned her Master's in Higher Education five years later.

In February 2007, Jensen received the Drake Double D Award. The award is presented annually to Drake letter-winners for achievements in their chosen field or endeavor and/or community service since leaving Drake. The Double D Award is the highest honor Drake bestows on its student-athletes.

Jensen is also a leader in fundraising for the United Way of Johnson County. The 2006 campaign totaled over $2 million – with a nine percent increase in donations and a 9.7 increase in the number of donations. In March 2007, Jensen was named the United Way of Johnson County Volunteer of the Year for her leadership of the Emerging Philanthropists Society and the Healthy Kids School-based Clinics Initiative.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ASSISTANT COACH JENNI FITZGERALD

Jenni Fitzgerald is in her 13th season as an assistant basketball coach at the University of Iowa. Fitzgerald is in her 26th season in women's college basketball as a player and coach.

The native of Long Grove, IA, has helped guide Iowa to 11 postseason appearances, including nine NCAA Tournament berths. During her time at Iowa, the Hawkeyes won the 2001 Big Ten Tournament championship and the 2008 Big Ten regular season title. She has also helped lead Iowa to nine first-division finishes in the Big Ten, including the last five seasons.

Fitzgerald is responsible for off campus recruiting and coaches the perimeter players for the Hawkeyes. She also handles most of the film breakdown, scouting and directs the summer basketball camps.

Under Fitzgerald's tutelage, Iowa's perimeter players have garnered numerous awards. She has coached 10 players to a total of 23 all-Big Ten honors, including seven first team selections and the 2010 Big Ten Freshman of the Year (Printy). She has also mentored four players that received all-district honors and three honorable mention All-Americans (Consuegra, Alexander and Printy).

The Hawkeyes have broken numerous school records during Fitzgerald's time at Iowa. In 2009-10, Iowa shattered both the single season and Big Ten record for three-pointers made and attempted and tied single season marks for assists, three-pointers made in a single game and free throw percentage.

Individually, Wendy Ausdemore broke or tied seven school records in her four years at Iowa while Kristi Smith became the first Hawkeye ever to amass over 400 points and 100 assists in three seasons. In 2009-10, Kachine Alexander set new school records in free throws made and attempted in a single season, Kamille Wahlin tied the school record for three-pointers made and set a new mark for three-pointers attempted and also became the first player in school history to record 400 career assists and 200 made 3-pointers. Kachine Alexander became the first player in school history, and just the fifth in Big Ten history, to collect 1,000 career points, 800 career rebounds and 300 career assists.

Four former Hawkeye guards that Fitzgerald coached continued their playing careers in the WNBA, including Cara Consuegra, Lindsey Meder, Crystal Smith and Kachine Alexander.

Fitzgerald is very familiar with both Lisa Bluder and fellow assistant Jan Jensen, both of whom she coached with for eight years at Drake University prior to coming to Iowa.

While at Drake, Fitzgerald worked with the guards, directed summer camps and handled the administrative duties for the Bulldog basketball program from 1993-2000.

From 1986-91, Fitzgerald was the starting point guard for the Drake Bulldogs. She was a teammate of fellow Hawkeye assistant coach Jan Jensen. As a senior, Fitzgerald served as her team's captain and was named to the All-Gateway Conference first team. As a junior, Fitzgerald was her team's Most Valuable Player.

Fitzgerald graduated from Drake in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a management major. In January 2009, Fitzgerald was one of three former Drake student-athletes to receive the Drake Double D Award. The award is presented annually to Drake letter-winners for achievements in their chosen field or endeavor and/or community service since leaving Drake. The Double D Award is the highest honor Drake bestows on its student-athletes.

After graduation, Fitzgerald completed her Master of Science degree in Physical Education, with an emphasis in Sport Management, from Southern Illinois University in 1992. While at Southern Illinois, Fitzgerald was a graduate assistant with the Salukis.

In high school, Fitzgerald was Iowa's Female Athlete of the Year in 1986 after being named Miss Basketball and first team all-state in basketball, volleyball and softball. In 1995, she was inducted into the Iowa Girl's Basketball Hall of Fame.

Fitzgerald is the daughter of Bob and Jan Fitzgerald. She has an older sister, Robin, and younger brother, Randy.

Shannon Gage is in her eighth year as an assistant coach, her sixth with the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Gage, who served as Director of Basketball Operations for the University of Iowa women's basketball program from 2003-05, rejoined the Hawkeye staff as an assistant coach in the summer of 2007 after serving as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan for two seasons (2005-07).

Gage provides a wide range of duties for the Iowa staff while playing a heavy role in the Hawkeyes' recruiting efforts. She assists with all aspects of conditioning and individual workouts. She also performs a number of scouting duties.

During her time at Iowa, Gage has helped coach six perimeter players to 15 all-Big Ten honors, including four first team selections and the 2010 Big Ten Freshman of the Year in Jaime Printy. She has also mentored two players that received all-district honors and two honorable mention All-Americans in Kachine Alexander and Jaime Printy.

The Hawkeyes have broken numerous school records during Gage's time at Iowa. In 2009-10, Iowa shattered both the single season and Big Ten record for three-pointers made and attempted and tied single season marks for assists, three-pointers made in a single game and free throw percentage.

Individually, Wendy Ausdemore broke or tied seven school records in her four years at Iowa while Kristi Smith became the first Hawkeye ever to amass over 400 points and 100 assists in three seasons. In 2009-10, Kachine Alexander set new school records in free throws made and attempted in a single season, Kamille Wahlin tied the school record for three-pointers made and set a new mark for three-pointers attempted and also became the first player in school history to record 400 career assists and 200 made 3-pointers. Kachine Alexander became the first player in school history, and just the fifth in Big Ten history, to collect 1,000 career points, 800 career rebounds and 300 career assists.

The native of Tulsa, OK, has performed a myriad of coaching duties at the collegiate level, including the coordination of summer camps, overseeing budgets, monitoring academics and providing support in recruiting.

Prior to appointment as Iowa Director of Basketball Operations in 2003, Gage enjoyed a successful stint professionally in fashion merchandise. The former Southwest Missouri State captain, however, returned to athletics with a desire to coach, having spent much of her life around basketball. Gage's father, Roy Gage, Sr. has been in coaching for more than 30 years, including 17 years of involvement in summer AAU programs for both boys and girls designed to increase collegiate exposure.

As a player, Gage was a four-year letterwinner, part of three Missouri Valley Conference championship teams and three NCAA Tournament teams in 1995, 1996 and as a senior in 1998.

Abby Emmert is in her fourth season as Director of Basketball Operations for the University of Iowa women's basketball program.

The Winterset, IA, native works closely with the Hawkeye basketball staff, helping coordinate and carry out day-to-day activities of the program. Emmert is responsible for arranging team travel and activities, supervising public service opportunities for the team and coordinating summer camps and training tables.

Emmert is also Iowa's chief scheduler, helping to build one of the most exciting and demanding schedules in the country for the Hawkeye program.

Emmert was a member of the Iowa women's basketball team from 2005-08. She was named team co-captain in 2008, and helped lead the Hawkeyes to a Big Ten regular season championship. Emmert also received the Dr. Christine Grant Leadership Award for women's basketball as a senior.

Emmert played in 123 career games as a Hawkeye, including 22 starts. Her 123 games played are the tied for the third-most of any player in Iowa women's basketball history.

She scored 299 career points, collected 144 rebounds and dished out 177 assists. She scored a career-high 17 points against Iowa State as a junior in 2006.

Emmert graduated with a Communications Studies degree from the University of Iowa in 2008, and worked for the United Way of East Central Iowa before taking over as Director of Basketball Operations.

Michelle Edwards (1984-88)

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Michelle Edwards is one of the most decorated players in Iowa women's basketball history. The 5-9 guard, nicknamed "Ice", amassed a career record of 102-22 from 1984-1988. During her four years, Edwards led the Hawkeyes to three NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big Ten titles. In 1988, she was named the Champion Products National Player of the Year, the highest honor in women's collegiate basketball. Edwards garnered several other honors that year including being named a Kodak all-American, a Naismith all-American, a USBWA all-American, the Big Ten Player of the Year, and the University of Iowa Athlete of the Year. In her senior season, Edwards also led Iowa to its first ever national number one ranking, along with a record of 29-2 overall and 17-1 in the Big Ten. She paced the Hawkeyes with an average of 20 points per game, 4.8 rebounds per game, 4.5 assists per game, and 2.9 steals per game. The three-time first team all-Big Ten selection is the only Hawkeye to have her jersey retired (No. 30). Edwards ranks high in several Iowa statistical categories, including second in career assists (431), third in career scoring (1,821), and third in career steals (235). She also ranks second among single season scoring leaders (621) and is tied for first in assists in a single game (12). Edwards played in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and was a member of the U.S. Select Team in 1986. In 1991, she was part of the United States Pan American Team, and she also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988 and 1992. Upon graduation, Edwards played professionally in Italy for nine seasons before joining the WNBA during its inaugural year in 1997. She then spent three seasons with the Cleveland Rockers and two seasons with the Seattle Storm.

Franthea Price (1986-90)

Franthea Price played for the Hawkeyes from 1986-1990, and in her senior season she became the second Kodak all-American in school history. The four-year starter from River Rouge, Michigan, had an impressive career at Iowa, which began with her being named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1987. Price was named to the first team all-Big Ten in 1988 and 1990, and she was named second team all-Big Ten in 1989. In her senior year, Price earned the honor of Big Ten Player of the Year and led the conference in scoring with 19.8 points per game. The 5-9 forward led the Hawkeyes in several statistical categories that year including scoring (21.2), rebounding (7.1), steals (2.9), and three-point field goals (47). A consistent contributor, Price scored in double figures in 34 of her last 35 games. She holds the school record for career steals with 321, and is tied for first for most steals in a single game with nine. Price also ranks fifth in career scoring (1,742), third in career assists (387), and eighth in career rebounds (726). Outside of Iowa, Price was a member of the U.S. World Junior National Team in 1986 and competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and 1986. In 1987, Price won a gold medal as part of the United States William R. Jones Cup team, and she was a member of the United States Select team in 1989. Price also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988. After finishing her career at Iowa, Price played professionally in Spain for several years before joining the WNBA Sacramento Monarchs in 1998.

Toni Foster (1989-93)

A 6-1 forward from Chicago, Illinois, Toni Foster was named a Kodak all-American in 1993 and was a finalist for Champion Player of the Year. Foster played for the Hawkeyes from 1989-1993, and led the team in both scoring and rebounding for three consecutive years, a feat accomplished only once previously. A three-time first team all-Big Ten selection, Foster was named the Big Ten Player of the Year in 1993. She was also named the 1993 SportsChannel Player of the Year. During her senior season, Price led Iowa in scoring (15.7), rebounding (8.2), and blocked shots (1.3). She collected 27 double-doubles during her illustrious career, including nine in her senior year. In Iowa's career statistical categories, Foster ranks second in both rebounds (887) and blocks (145). She also ranks sixth in scoring (1,606) and ninth in steals (167). Foster competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1987 and 1991. When the WNBA was formed in 1997, Foster was the seventh overall pick and was selected by the Phoenix Mercury. She spent two seasons with the Mercury before joining the Seattle Storm in 1999 by way of an expansion draft.

Your hosts at Carver-Hawkeye Arena include UI athletic communications staff members Steve Roe, James Allan, Aaron Blau, Chris Brewer, Darren Miller, Traci Wagner and Matthew Weitzel. Theresa Walenta is the office secretary. The athletic communications staff also includes graduate student Brady Johnson and student staff members Brandee Britt, Kasie Collins, Arlene Freudenberg, Jessa Hansen, Michele McCracken, Lyn Metzger, Jimmy Novak and Kyle Soldwisch.

Roe was named director of athletic communications in July, 2011, after serving as interim director for one year. He joined the Hawkeye staff in 1990 and was named associate director in 1997. The Iowa City native earned his bachelor's degree from Buena Vista University and his master's degree from Northeast Louisiana University. He is the author of "HAWKEYES FOR LIFE", published in 2007. Steve and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Nike, and a son, James, one granddaughter, Teagan (8) and a grandson, Jack (2). Both Nike (law degree) and James (bachelor's degree) earned degrees from the University of Iowa.

Weitzel was named associate director in July, 2012, after serving as assistant director since 1998. Matthew graduated from the University of Iowa in 1997 with a bachelor's of arts degree in journalism and mass communication, with an emphasis in business. The native of Mundelein, Ill., was a student in the sports information office for three years.

Wagner is in her 14th year as an assistant after previously serving as a student assistant for four years and as an intern for two years. A native of Iowa Falls, Wagner earned her degree in 1997 with a double major in journalism and communication studies. Traci and her husband, Jason, have a son, Nicholas, and a daughter, Sydney.

Blau is in his sixth year as an assistant director. Aaron graduated from the University of Iowa in 2007 with a double major in journalism and mass communications and sports studies, along with a minor in American Studies. Blau, a native of Latimer, Iowa, served as a student assistant in the UI sports information office for five years. He and his wife Mandy have a newborn, Jordan.

Brewer is in his fourth year as an assistant director after previously serving as a student assistant for three years. In 2004, the Iowa City native earned his English degree from the University of Iowa and served as a graduate assistant with the Detroit Lions media relations department. He and his wife, Brooke, have a daughter, Elyse, and a son, Del.

Sojka is in his first year as an assistant director, joining the staff in July, 2012. Sojka previously worked in the Iowa athletic communications office as an undergraduate assistant for three years and a graduate assistant for two. The Muscatine High School graduate (2006) earned his bachelors of business administration degree from Iowa in May, 2010, and his master's degree from Iowa in May, 2012.

Miller is in his sixth year as director of new media in the athletics department after spending nearly 20 years working in the newspaper and sports information professions. He is a 1984 graduate of Tipton (Iowa) High School and a 1988 graduate of Wartburg College, majoring in communication arts (journalism/public relations). Miller and his wife Ann have four children: Ashley, Melissa, Brittney and Kyle.

Allan is in his third year as a fulltime assistant at Iowa, joining the staff in November, 2010. It is Allan's second stint in the office, as he served as a student assistant from 2000-04. Allan returned to Iowa City after serving as the sports information director at the University of Missouri-Kansas City from 2005-10, and as the athletics media relations intern at Texas Christian University in 2004-05. The Hampton, Iowa, native earned his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Iowa in May, 2004. He and his wife, Mary Ann, have a son, Jonathan, and are expecting their second child in November.

A member of the Iowa athletic department staff since 1988, Theresa Walenta has been a member of the athletic communications staff for 16 years. She is a lifelong resident of Iowa City.

In Memory

George Wine

1931 - 2012

George Wine, former Sports Information Director at the University of Iowa, passed away July 5, 2012. He was 81.

George was the second SID in Iowa history and served as director from 1968 until his retirement in 1993. From his retirement, George remained close to UI athletics, serving as a contributing editor to hawkeyesports.com, as a department historian, and as a dear friend.

George will always be remembered, and missed, by the Iowa Sports Information staff and those members of the media who have covered Iowa athletics.
