HEAD COACH JEFF GARBUTT, SR.

Jeff Garbutt was named the fourth head coach in the history of the University of Iowa rowing program in October 2021.

In Garbutt's first season as Iowa's head coach, the Hawkeyes placed 5th at the Big Ten Championships - the program's best finish since 2019. During the season, a program record four boats were honored with the Big Ten Boat of the Week award.

Garbutt was an assistant coach on the Iowa staff for seven years from 2013-20. During that time, he helped Iowa reach heights the program had not seen before, qualifying for the NCAA Championships three consecutive years from 2017-19 and reaching No. 7 in the national rankings in 2018, the highest in program history. He returns to Iowa City from La Salle University, where he led the men's and women's rowing programs from 2020-21.

Garbutt was on staff in 2017 and 2018 when Iowa was named College Rowing Coaches Association Region 4 Staff of the Year. In 2017, Iowa broke a 16-year NCAA Championship drought and placed 12th nationally. The following year, the Hawkeyes placed a program-best fourth in the Big Ten and set a school scoring record at NCAA's, putting up 69 points and placing 11th.

CLIMBING THE RANKS

Iowa is receiving votes in the latest edition of the CRCA Pocock Poll. Iowa spent the last two weeks ranked 19th in the country. It was the first time since 2021, the Hawkeyes were tabbed as Top-20 program.

LAST TIME OUT: LAKE WHEELER INVITE

The Hawkeyes picked up four top placements and had an average finish of 2.06 through 15 races. Iowa led the field in second place finishes with eight which was good for fourth overall against a field with three Top-15 opponents and three teams receiving votes in the CRCA Poll. 18 teams competed all together.

B1G/B12 DOUBLE DUAL RECAP

Iowa gave its competition all it could handle in Kansas City, Kansas. The Hawkeyes won six of the seven events in the Big Ten/Big 12 Double Dual against Kansas, Oklahoma, and Minnesota.

THE FIELD: PAC-12 INVITE

The Hawkeyes will face another high-level pool of opponents in No. 4 Stanford, No. 7 California, and No. 12 SMU. The Cardinal defeated the Golden Bears in four out of five races on April 15, 2023. Stanford comes off one of its best seasons in recent history, earning the program's first Pac-12 Championship since 2014.

QUOTE FROM HEAD COACH JEFF GARBUTT

"We are looking forward to heading out to Redwood Shores. It's going to be another great test for our team's progress to prep us for the Big Ten Championship. Cal, SMU, and Stanford are three of the finest programs around so we're excited to see how we compete out there."
