THE LINEUP

THE FIELD

The 13-team field includes: Arkansas-Little Rock, Boston University, Columbia, Dartmouth, DePauw, Fairfield, Florida Gulf Coast, Harvard, Iowa, Quinnipiac, Pennsylvania, Williams College and Yale.

THE COURSE

The Yale Course was recognized as No. 1 rated, best golf course in Connecticut in 2020 by GOLF Magazine. This 6,076-yard, par-70 course has large greens with deep bunkers and wide, rolling fairways that are the core of Yale's strategic and penal character. The course has been the site of numerous NCAA Regional Golf Championships as well as being the home of the Nike Connecticut Open.

A REVIEW: RED RAIDER INVITE

The Hawkeyes finished second at the Red Raider Invitational last week, firing a 54-hole total of 876 (291-290-295). The score is tied for the fifth-best 54-hole total in program history. Sophomore Kaitlyn Hanna was Iowa's top finisher, tying for 12th place with a three-over par 219 (73-72-74) for the best finish of her career. All five Iowa women's golfers finished in the top 25.

HANNA'S STRONG START

Sophomore Kaitlyn Hanna has posted career low scores in each of Iowa's opening two tournaments of the fall. She tied for 12th at the Red Raider Invitational, which is her first top-20 showing of her career. Over six rounds, Hanna has a team-best 73.50 scoring average.

OF NOTE...

- Sophomore Madison Dabagia matched a career-low round during the second round of the Red Raider Invitational, firing a two-under par 70. It is the low round by a Hawkeye this fall.
- Dabagia and sophomore Kaitlyn Hanna each have two rounds at or below par to lead the team.
- Sophomore Shannyn Vogler notched her third career top 20 finish, tying for 18th at the Red Raider Invitational, while freshman Ximena Benites also tied for 18th for her highest career finish.
- Seven of the eight players on the 2023-24 roster are underclassmen. Junior Paula Miranda is the lone upperclassmen for the Hawkeyes.

UP NEXT

The Hawkeyes will close out the fall season on Oct. 23-25, traveling to Honolulu, Hawai'i for the Rainbow Wahine Invitational.
