2024-25
THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
ONE OF THE NATION'S VERY BEST

Iowa City, Iowa. It is the home for one of the nation's leading public universities, the University of Iowa.

It's also the home of one of the nation's most successful college basketball programs, the Iowa Hawkeyes.

29 NCAA Tournament appearances • 3 Final Fours • 8 Sweet Sixteens • 4 Elite Eights • 11 Big Ten Championships

HERE IS A SAMPLING OF IOWA'S MOST RECENT SUCCESS:

Iowa basketball has posted winning seasons 11 of the last 12 years under head coach Fran McCaffery, including 26 victories in 2022, the second most in school history. The Hawkeyes have finished in the Big Ten first division and advanced to the NCAA Tournament six of the past nine completed seasons.

The Hawkeyes won all 17 home games in 2006, posting the first-ever perfect record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Iowa has posted a 238-74 record in Carver-Hawkeye Arena over the past 18 seasons, including a 166-41 mark the last 12 years. Iowa won a school-record 18 home games in 2013.

Iowa earned berths in six of the past nine NCAA Tournaments (winning games in 2015, 2016, 2019 and 2021), and reached the NIT in 2012 (Round of 16), 2013 (runner-up), 2017 (second round) and 2024 (second round).

Iowa has appeared in the NCAA Tournament 26 times over the past 46 years. The Hawkeyes have made three appearances in the NCAA Final Four and have advanced to the Sweet 16 three times since 1987.

The eight winningest seasons in Iowa basketball history, 30 wins in 1987, 26 wins in 2022, 25 wins in 2013 and 2006, 24 wins in 1988 and 23 wins in 1989, 1993, 1996, 2001 and 2019, are an indication of the past success of Iowa basketball. Iowa has posted 20 or more wins in 16 of the past 29 seasons, including eight of the last 12.

Leading the Hawkeye program is head coach Fran McCaffery, who guided Iowa to seven NCAA Tournament berths and four trips to the NIT over the last 13 years. McCaffery has coached eight first-team All-Big Ten honorees, including an All-American six times, over the last 10 seasons (2014-24). McCaffery led three former teams to conference championships and five NCAA Tournaments. In 28 years as a college head coach, McCaffery's teams have averaged nearly 19 wins per year.

In 2022, McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues.

McCaffery has coached two of the most dominating players in college basketball over the past five seasons: Luka Garza (2020, 2021) and Keegan Murray (2022).

IOWA BASKETBALL: GREAT SUCCESS AND GREAT TRADITION

During the 2001-02 season, the University of Iowa celebrated 100 Years of basketball. Iowa's basketball history includes 85 winning seasons, including 31 years in which the Hawkeyes have won 20 or more games.

ESPN released its 2009 college basketball encyclopedia and inside it included its ESPN/Sagarin all-time rankings. The University of Iowa's success on the court garnered the program a ranking of No. 10 in the country!

Iowa basketball teams have advanced to the NCAA Tournament 29 times, advancing to the NCAA Final Four in 1955, 1956 and 1980. In fact, Iowa is one of just 32 Division I programs to advance to the NCAA Tournament on 29 or more occasions. In addition, Iowa has made nine appearances in the NIT postseason tournament.

The start of the Iowa basketball program can be traced back to Jan. 18, 1896. On that date, Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus. In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa, 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

From that first game in 1896, the Iowa basketball program has been recognized as one of the best in the nation. Street & Smith's magazine recently selected its "100 Greatest College Basketball Programs of All Time". In its special publication, the magazine recognized the Iowa program as No. 40 among over 300 Division I programs.

PLAYING WITH PASSION AND A LOVE OF THE GAME: PUSHING THE BALL AND AGGRESSIVELY ATTACKING THE BASKET; FINDING THE OPEN TEAMMATE; CHANGING DEFENSES AND DISRUPTING THE RHYTHM OF THE OPPONENTS; SINKING THE OPEN 3-POINTER; AND HELPING OUT TEAMMATES

When you add those components together, they add up to Iowa basketball, a style of basketball that is all-out fun for 40 minutes, a style of play that is exciting to watch, but more importantly, a style of basketball that players love to play.

As the Iowa Hawkeyes head into the 2024-25 season, the 15th year under coach Fran McCaffery and his coaching staff, Iowa basketball is in the midst of an era that features exciting and fun basketball that players enjoy playing and fans enjoying watching.

"Hawkeye fans and our players enjoy our style of basketball. We compete and play the game the right way. We play an up-tempo style, push the ball, attack the basket and catch the defense off balance. We want to score in the 80s and 90s. Defensively, we change defenses and disrupt rhythm. We give Hawkeye fans an exciting style of basketball to watch. Our players have fun and enjoy what they do on the floor.

"We have a solid foundation and a tremendous environment to work with as we continue to build upon our 29 NCAA Tournament appearances and three Big Ten Tournament championships, with our most recent title coming in 2022. We embrace the Hawkeye tradition and look forward to the challenges ahead."

FRAN MCCAFFERY
Head Coach
University of Iowa

McCaffery took over the Iowa basketball program in 2010 after rebuilding three basketball programs (Lehigh, UNC-Greensboro and Siena) as a head coach. McCaffery is one of just 14 Division I coaches to take four different programs (Iowa, Siena, UNC Greensboro and Lehigh) to the NCAA Tournament. He was the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues.

With Iowa's Big Ten Tournament championship in 2022, McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues.

In five seasons as the head coach at Siena, McCaffery led his team to an average of better than 22 victories per year, including back-to-back 27-win campaigns in 2009 and 2010. He led the Saints to three straight regular season championships and NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-10).

Thirteen of McCaffery's 28 teams boasted third place or better finishes in their respective conference, including capturing league tournament titles six times. McCaffery-coached teams have competed in 12 NCAA Tournaments and five NITs; a 13th NCAA Tournament would have been added to his resume in 2020, if not for the cancellation of the tournament due to COVID-19.

Consider these facts about Fran McCaffery and his coaching career:

He was named MAAC Coach of the Year in 2009 and District I Coach of the Year in 2010 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches

McCaffery has posted 14 20-win seasons as a head coach, including 12 of the last 18 years and eight of the last 12 seasons.

Iowa placed third in the challenging Big Ten in 2015, 2016 and 2021. McCaffery boasts 23 upper division finishes, including 11 of the last 13 seasons.

The Hawkeyes have earned national rankings eight of the past 11 seasons. Iowa went wire-to-wire ranked inside the Associated Press Top 15 during the 2021 season, climbing as high as No. 3.

Led Iowa to 26 wins in 2022, its second highest total in school history and 25 victories in 2013, including a school-record 18 home wins. The Hawkeyes have advanced to six of the past nine NCAA Tournaments.

In 28 years as a head coach, he has led his teams to six conference tournament championships and 17 postseason appearances.

Center Luka Garza became the program's first consensus National Player of the Year in 2021, while forward Keegan Murray earned consensus first-team All-America distinction as a sophomore in 2022.

BARBARA J. WILSON
President, The University of Iowa

Dr. Barbara J. Wilson is the 22nd president of the University of Iowa. Her leadership priorities are focused on people. In her first three years, the university embarked on a new five-year strategic plan, launched transformative faculty recruitment and retention programs, initiated a new program to support first-generation undergraduate students, significantly expanded mental health and well-being programs and services for students and the entire university community, and created a ten-year facilities master plan that will improve academic space at the core of campus and modernize the delivery of education and patient care. During her first three years at Iowa, President Wilson and her development team have raised approximately $1 billion in gifts and commitments to support student, faculty, and health care initiatives. This historic philanthropy is part of the UI Center for Advancement's Together Hawkeyes, a campuswide campaign publicly announced in 2023 that seeks to reach more than 300,000 alumni and friends and raise $3 billion in private support.

President Wilson earned her bachelor's degree in journalism and master's and PhD degrees in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She came to Iowa having served as the executive vice president/vice president for academic affairs of the University of Illinois System. Prior to that, she served in several administrative positions, including interim chancellor, at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, where she was a member of the communication faculty for 21 years. She was also a professor of communication at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and the University of Louisville. President Wilson's research focuses on the social and psychological effects of the media, particularly on youth.

President Wilson's spouse, John Lammers, is a retired professor of communication. They have three grown daughters.

BETH GOETZ

Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair

Beth Goetz was announced as Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair at the University of Iowa on Jan. 18, 2024, after serving five months as UI's interim director. Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff as Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer (COO) on Sept. 7, 2022.

Under her leadership as interim director, several teams and student-athletes enjoyed athletic and academic success.

Seven teams advanced to postseason competition, including women's wrestling winning a national championship and women's basketball finishing as national runners-up for a second consecutive season. Iowa's women's soccer and basketball teams won their respective Big Ten Tournament, football captured the Big Ten West Division with 10 victories, while men's wrestling place fifth nationally and men's basketball advanced to the NIT Round of 16.

The 2023-24 women's basketball season got off to a historic start with the memorable "Crossover at Kinnick" event that saw a record 55,646 fans attend and help raise approximately $250,000 for the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital. Consensus National Player of the Year Caitlin Clark led the Hawkeyes to 34 wins -- equaling the most wins in conference history -- and sell out crowds at every home game and nearly every road contest.

In the classroom, a combined 282 student-athletes earned Big Ten Academic All-Big Ten accolades, while 340 earned Dean's List and/or President's List honors in 2023-24.

Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff from Ball State University, where she had served as Director of Athletics since May, 2018. At Ball State, she directly supervised 19 Division I Intercollegiate sports teams, all head coaches, and the senior athletics department professional staff. Goetz previously served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and interim Athletics Director during the 2015-16 season.

Ball State won 10 Mid-American Conference championships during the time Goetz served as athletics director, including seven during the 2021-22 athletics campaign, the most since 1999-2000. Goetz also guided Ball State to strong marks in the Reese and Jacoby Trophy standings, which honors the top men's and women's athletics programs in the MAC, respectively. The Cardinals placed third in the Reese Trophy standings in 2021-22, their best finish since taking second in 2013. In addition, Ball State reached heights never achieved in the classroom, including back-to-back years with a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and the highest department GPAs on record.

Among the first projects Goetz tackled at Ball State was the creation of a five-year strategic plan titled, Onward, which was created prior to 2019. During her tenure Goetz also hired eight head coaches, launched the NIL initiative Ball You and as a member of the President's Cabinet served on several key campus committees. Goetz' fundraising acumen was on full display while at Ball State, producing increases in sport specific giving and the completion of numerous capital projects including the university's $15 million Scheumann Family Indoor Practice Facility. Revenue generation strategies were highlighted by an increase in ticket sales across all sports and a revamped concessions agreement.

In addition to her previous role as an administrator, Goetz has been selected for national leadership duties. Goetz was named to the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee in 2018 and served as vice chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee in 2021. She was named by Women Leaders in College Sports as the 2022 NCAA Division I FBS Nike Executive of the Year and was recognized by the Indianapolis Business Journal (IBJ) as one of the publications 2021 Women of Influence.

Prior to arriving at Ball State, Goetz was the chief operating officer/senior woman administrator at the University of Connecticut from 2016-18. She served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and the interim athletics director during the 2015-16 year. She was the associate athletics director at Butler University from 2008-13 following a 13-year stint at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, where she was an assistant women's soccer coach (1996), head women's soccer coach (1997-2008) and assistant athletics director/senior woman administrator (2001-08). Goetz was inducted into the UMSL Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

During her college career Goetz was an accomplished Division I student-athlete, playing soccer at Clemson University. She earned All-America recognition at Brevard College (N.C.), where she was inducted into the college's Hall of Fame in 2017. Goetz earned an associate of arts degree from Brevard in 1994 and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Clemson in 1996. She earned her master's degree from the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 2000.

For 14 years, University of Iowa head men's basketball coach Fran McCaffery has maintained enthusiasm and excitement surrounding the Hawkeye basketball program. After more than two decades as a head coach, he has coached his teams to 12 NCAA Tournaments, six conference tournament championships from four different leagues, including the Big Ten, with an overall record of 531-368 (.591). McCaffery recorded his 500th career win as a collegiate head coach on Dec. 8, 2022, and became the winningest head coach in Iowa history with a road win at Minnesota on Jan. 15, 2024.

McCaffery, who is the Big Ten's third longest tenured head coach behind Michigan State's Tom Izzo and Matt Painter of Purdue, has an Iowa record 280 career victories, including a record 136 Big Ten wins.

The positive steps McCaffery has taken the Iowa men's basketball program are par-for-the-course for a coach who has demonstrated his ability to rebuild programs. McCaffery joined Hall of Fame coaches Rick Pitino, Bob Huggins, Eddie Sutton and Lefty Driesell as the only Division I coaches to lead teams to conference tournament titles in four or more different leagues. McCaffery is also one of just 14 Division I head coaches to take at least four different programs to the NCAA Tournament.

McCaffery, 64, was named the University of Iowa's 22nd head men's basketball coach on March 29, 2010. The Philadelphia native has accumulated 23 upper division conference finishes. McCaffery has posted 14 seasons of 20 wins or more as a head coach, including 12 in the last 18 years. McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have placed fifth or better in the Big Ten standings seven of the last 10 seasons, including third place finishes in 2015, 2016 and 2021.

Since taking over the program in 2010, the Hawkeyes have vaulted back to national prominence. Iowa has appeared in a postseason tournament 11 of the last 12 completed seasons (7 NCAA, 4 NIT). McCaffery guided the Hawkeyes to seven of the last 10 NCAA Tournaments (2014, 2015, 2016, 2019, 2021, 2022, 2023) and reached the NIT championship game in 2013.

Over the last five seasons, Iowa combined to win 106 games, finished fifth place or better in the Big Ten standings four times, won a Big Ten Tournament title (2022), competed in three NCAA Tournaments and won 21 games over AP Top 25 opponents.

McCaffery has recruited and coached a consensus All-American four of the last nine seasons.

Luka Garza, the most decorated men's basketball player in Iowa history, was a two-time Big Ten and National Player of the Year, Pete Newell Big Man of the Year, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year, and unanimous consensus first-team All-American. He rewrote Iowa's record book earning consensus 2021 National Player of the Year laurels, including winning the prestigious Naismith Trophy, John R. Wooden Award and Oscar Robertson Trophy. Garza broke Iowa's career (2,306) and single-season (747) scoring records and is the only Big Ten player to amass more than 2,250 points, 900 rebounds, 150 blocks and 100 3-pointers.

One year later in 2022, Keegan Murray earned consensus first-team All-America laurels, was the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year and was a finalist for both the Naismith and Wooden National Player of the Year awards. In the process of posting the best season by an underclassman in program history, Murray surpassed Garza's single season scoring record with 822 points.

In 2023, Kris Murray was voted a consensus third-team All-American, unanimous first-team all-conference by the media, a semifinalist for the Wooden and Naismith and a finalist for the Malone award. Murray was the only Division I player to average 20+ points, 7+ rebounds, 1+ block and make 65+ 3-pointers in 2023.

In 2016, Jarrod Uthoff earned second-team All-America honors. He also was named the Men's Basketball Division I Academic All-American of the Year, becoming the first Iowa men's basketball player to be named a consensus and Academic All-American of the Year.

After going 117 years without a player reaching 700 points in a single season, Garza and Murray exceeded that milestone three consecutive seasons (2020-22). The Hawkeyes had the Big Ten scoring champion three straight years – a feat that had not been accomplished by any team in the league in more than 50 years. Keegan Murray's 23.5 points per game average ranked fifth nationally and first among players from a major conference.

Iowa was ranked as high as No. 3 nationally during the 2016 and 2021 seasons. The Hawkeyes were ranked for 16 consecutive weeks in 2019, the final nine weeks of the 2020 season, went wire-to-wire in 2021 in the top 15 of the AP Poll for the first time since the 1989 campaign and was ranked No. 16 in the final poll in 2022.

During the 2023 and 2024 seasons, Iowa won 19 games in both campaigns, including 10 Big Ten victories. It was the team's record sixth straight 10+ Big Ten-win season. Iowa played in the NCAA Tournament in 2023 and advanced to the second round of the NIT in 2024.

Owen Freeman became the second Hawkeye all-time to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors (and the first in 30 years). Freeman won nine Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors during the course of the season – the second-most by any freshman in league history.

In 2022, the Hawkeyes won four games in four days to capture the Big Ten Tournament title, their third in program history, which ties as third most in the league. Iowa finished fourth in the conference standings and won 26 games; the second highest single season win total in program history.

In 2021, Iowa won 14 Big Ten regular season games, its highest total since 1987. The Hawkeyes earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tying its highest ever seed in tournament history (No. 2 in 1987).

McCaffery's up-tempo style of play is a favorite among his players. Iowa led the Big Ten in scoring in five straight seasons before finishing second in 2024. The team was fifth nationally in both 2021 and 2022. Iowa averaged more than 83 points in consecutive seasons (2021 & 2022) for the first time in 27 years. Additionally, Iowa was tops in Division I in assist-to-turnover ratio in 2021 (2.0) and 2022 (1.74).

In 2020, McCaffery orchestrated one of his best coaching jobs during his Iowa tenure. Working with a depleted team due to injuries and redshirts, he led the nationally ranked Hawkeyes to 20 regular season wins and a likely invitation to the NCAA Tournament, if not for the cancellation of the postseason due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

McCaffery is a proven recruiter and continues to create interest with recruits on a national level due to his tireless work ethic. He has recruited and coached an All-American six of the last nine seasons: Jarrod Uthoff (2016), Peter Jok (2017), Garza (2020 & 2021), Keegan Murray (2022) and Kris Murray (2023). He has mentored an All-Big Ten honoree(s) 12 of the last 13 years, including first-team selections eight of the last 11 seasons: Devyn Marble (2014), Aaron White (2015), Uthoff (2016), Jok (2017), Garza (2020 & 2021), Keegan Murray (2022) and Kris Murray (2023).

He also developed Gabriel Olaseni (2015), Nicholas Baer (2017) and Payton Sandfort (2023) to Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year honors. Garza became the first Hawkeye in 52 years to earn Big Ten Player of the Year honors, achieving the distinction twice (2020 & 2021) and first Hawkeye in 68 years to earn consensus first-team All-America recognition.

Joe Wieskamp was voted to the All-Big Ten second team in 2021 and third team in 2020, while CJ Fredrick (2020), Keegan Murray (2021) and Freeman (2024) became the seventh eighth and ninth players, respectively, during McCaffery's tenure to be voted to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team. Garza and Wieskamp were the fifth highest scoring duo in Division I both in 2020 and 2021, averaging 37.9 points per game in 2020 and 38.9 in 2021. Garza and Wieskamp are the second-highest scoring duo in program history.

Six years ago, the Hawkeyes amassed 23 victories and won an NCAA Tournament game for the third time in five seasons. The Hawkeyes started 2018-19 strong with McCaffery guiding the team to an undefeated nonconference record – a feat that had not been accomplished in 32 years. Iowa recorded five wins over ranked opponents with only one senior, a total that matched the most by an Iowa team in 13 seasons. McCaffery coached four Hawkeyes to postseason recognition in 2018-19: Tyler Cook earned second-team All-Big Ten laurels, Bohannon was named to third-team all-conference, Garza was an honorable mention selection, while Wieskamp was named to the All-Freshman Team. Bohannon finished his Hawkeye career as the program leader in career assists (704), 3-pointers (455), free throw percentage (.887) and games played (179) and 3-pointers made in a game (10).

Iowa has averaged 21 wins over the last 12 seasons, with its 213 victories between 2013-22 being the most over a 10-year span since 1980-89 (218). McCaffery is the first head coach to lead Iowa to 18 or more victories in six straight seasons (2012-17), while winning 20 games or more eight of the last 12 years.

The past 14 years, McCaffery coached 22 Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Keegan Murray, Kris Murray, Joe Wieskamp and Garza. Keegan Murray was selected with the fourth overall selection of the 2022 NBA Draft, the highest a Hawkeye has ever been picked, and Kris Murray was taken with the 23rd pick of the 2023 NBA Draft. It was the second time in program history that Iowa had first round picks in consecutive years. Wieskamp and Garza were both selected in the 2021 NBA Draft.

McCaffery recruited and coached Aaron White to an illustrious Hawkeye career. White became the first Iowa player to score 1,800 points and collect 900 rebounds, while also leading the team in rebounding all four years. He ranks third in career scoring (1,859) and fourth in rebounding (901). He made more free throws than any other Big Ten player in 50 years, ranking third all-time in Big Ten annals with 618.

McCaffery had another marvelous coaching job in 2017, working with one of the youngest teams in the country and nearly receiving a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Iowa tied for fifth in the Big Ten and was the first team out of the field. Jok led the team, becoming Iowa's fifth Big Ten scoring champion in school history, averaging 19.9 points per game. For half the season, Jok started alongside four rookies -- Iowa's youngest starting lineup in school history. Undaunted, McCaffery and the Hawkeyes progressed as the season went on, ultimately winning four games against ranked teams, including No. 21 Wisconsin and No. 24 Maryland on the road.

In addition to leading the Big Ten in scoring, Jok established new school free throw records in single-game makes (22) and single-season accuracy (.911). Freshman Cordell Pemsl broke the school's single-season field goal percentage mark (.617), while Bohannon rewrote the Iowa freshman record books in assists (175), 3-pointers (89), and double-doubles in points and assists (3).

In 2018, a trio of underclassmen led the squad in sophomores Cook and Bohannon, and freshman Garza. Cook joined Greg Stokes as the only Hawkeyes to total more than 500 points and 200 rebounds their sophomore season, while newcomer Garza became just the fourth Hawkeye rookie in program history to score 400 points. Bohannon became the sixth Hawkeye in program history to total more than 400 points and 150 assists in a season and is the only Division I player to total more than 150 assists and 80 3-pointers as a freshman and sophomore over the last 25 years.

In 2016, McCaffery coached an Iowa team to heights that had not been seen in Iowa City in decades. The Hawkeyes were nationally ranked the final 12 weeks of the season, including ascending as high as No. 3 -- its highest ranking since 1987. Iowa won five games over AP Top-25 teams. The Hawkeyes recorded back-to-back 12-win seasons in Big Ten play for just the third time in school history (1981-82 and 1987-88) and won an NCAA Tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1996-97. Additionally, Iowa swept Michigan, Purdue, and Michigan State (6-0) for the first time since 1954. Uthoff and Jok combined to average 35 points per game, Iowa's third-highest scoring duo the last 40 seasons.

Individually, Uthoff became the fifth consensus All-American in program history. Jok's game erupted garnering second-team all-conference honors as a junior.

In 2015, Iowa's seven true road victories were the most by a Hawkeye team since 1987. And in the NCAA Tournament, McCaffery and the Hawkeyes posted the largest margin of victory ever in a 7/10 match-up, beating 10th-seeded Davidson, 83-52, in the second round. The 31-point win was the largest by any Hawkeye team in a postseason game.

McCaffery and the Hawkeyes have made Carver-Hawkeye Arena one of the most feared arenas to play in nationally. Fans have embraced McCaffery and his team's style of play, with attendance increasing by more than 50 percent since 2010. The Hawkeyes won a school-record 18 home contests in 2013. Iowa won 13 consecutive home contests in 2019-20, its second-longest win streak inside Carver-Hawkeye Arena in a single season. The Hawkeyes have won 13 or more home games in each of the last six seasons (2019-24).

Under McCaffery's direction, Iowa won 20 or more games four straight seasons (2013-16), the program's longest streak in 15 years. The Hawkeyes accumulated 25 victories in 2013, which equal the second-most win total in school history (20 in 2014, 23 in 2019, 22 in 2015, and 22 in 2016).

McCaffery has served as head coach at four institutions: Iowa, Siena, UNC-Greensboro and Lehigh. The four teams had a combined record of 35-84 (.204) the season prior to his arrival. By year three, they had a total record of 89-45 (.664).

McCaffery came to Iowa following a five-year stint at Siena where he led the program to the best stretch in its 70-year history. It earned him entry into the Siena Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018. He led the Saints on an incredible run that ended with three straight conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances. In so doing, Siena became the only program in the country to win its regular season and postseason title from 2008-10.

McCaffery's Saints owned a 112-51 record in his five years with the program. After orchestrating the fifth greatest turnaround in Division I play his first year, McCaffery led Siena to a 20-win season and a MAAC Championship game appearance in his second season. In 2007-08, Siena took its biggest step forward under his direction, earning the MAAC regular-season and tournament championship, as well as an NCAA Tournament first-round win over Vanderbilt. In 2008-09, the Siena program enjoyed unprecedented success. Siena won the regular-season title by equaling a program record with 27 wins before capturing the tournament crown. The Saints went on to defeat Ohio State in double overtime in one of the tournament's most exciting games.

In 2010, McCaffery led Siena to its fourth straight 20-win season, something never before achieved in program history. Siena ran away with the league title, clinching the No. 1 seed in the tournament and ultimately knocking off Fairfield in the MAAC title game.

The 2009 MAAC Coach of the Year is the third-winningest coach, by percentage, in league history (68-22, .756). He is the only coach to guide a MAAC program to two NCAA Tournament wins.

The 2008 season will also go down as one of the most memorable in Siena basketball history. McCaffery became just the 31st coach to take three different programs to the "Big Dance", and he was the first to do so with three programs from one-bid leagues (conference's that sent just one team the year his program advanced). Siena pounded Rider in the MAAC title game on its home floor to earn the MAAC's automatic bid. Less than two weeks later, McCaffery put together the perfect game plan and Siena led from start-to-finish in a triumph over Vanderbilt. Many considered the victory the greatest in school history, challenged at the time only by the program's 1989 upset of Stanford in the NCAA First Round.

Siena won 20 games in McCaffery's second season (2007) and tied for third place in the MAAC with a 12-6 finish. McCaffery's Saints were the highest scoring team in the league, and they peaked at the right time, winning seven of their last eight regular-season games and advancing to play for the league championship.

McCaffery's first recruit -- senior Kenny Hasbrouck -- graduated as the most important player in program history. He was named MAAC Rookie of the Year as a freshman, MAAC second team and All-Tournament team as a sophomore, CollegeInsider.com Mid Major

Player of the Year, MAAC first team and MAAC Tournament MVP as a junior and MAAC Player of the Year, MAAC Tournament MVP, NABC All-District and MAAC first team as a senior.

His second class is widely regarded as the best in program history. Edwin Ubiles, Alex Franklin and Ronald Moore finished their four-year careers with a 97-38 (.719) overall record, three MAAC Championships in four title game appearances, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances and two NCAA Tournament first round victories. Ubiles was a two-time MAAC first team, NABC All District first team and MAAC Tournament team selection and the 2007 MAAC co-Rookie of the Year. Franklin, a two-time NABC All District selection, earned 2008 and 2009 MAAC second team and MAAC Tournament team honors. He won the 2010 MAAC Player of the Year award (Siena's second straight) and the 2010 MAAC Tournament MVP. Moore, the pulse of the team, earned 2009 MAAC second team and 2010 MAAC first team honors as well as a spot on the 2010 MAAC Tournament team. He became the MAAC's all-time assists leader in the 2010 MAAC Championship game.

In total, four Saints were named to either the first or second All-MAAC team in 2009, newcomer Kyle Downey was an All-Rookie selection and Clarence Jackson was named MAAC Sixth Man of the Year.

McCaffery took over at Siena from UNC-Greensboro, where he posted a 90-87 record in six seasons. In his first year at the helm, Greensboro placed third in the North Division. He guided the Spartans to the 18th-best improved record among NCAA Division I teams.

In McCaffery's second season, he guided the Spartans to unprecedented heights with a 19-12 record and the 2001 SoCon Tournament Championship. The Spartans defeated Chattanooga in the finals and received the SoCon's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The following year (2001-02), McCaffery led the Spartans to their first 20-win season since joining the conference. It marked the first time the program claimed a share of the SoCon North Division title as well. After falling to eventual tournament champion Davidson in the conference tournament semifinals, the Spartans were awarded a berth into the 2002 NIT.

In his final year in Greensboro, McCaffery brought the Spartans to the brink of the NCAA Tournament before a SoCon Championship game loss to Chattanooga. He led UNCG to a victory over Davidson in the semifinals, defeating a team that had been 16-0 in conference play. A big part of that success was SoCon Freshman of the Year Kyle Hines.

McCaffery spent the 11 years prior to his arrival at Greensboro at Notre Dame as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator, working on the staffs of Richard "Digger" Phelps and John MacLeod.

Among the players he recruited to play for Notre Dame were Pat Garrity, Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, and Troy Murphy, the Big East Player of the Year in 2000 and an eventual first-round NBA draft pick. Garrity was also a first-round NBA draft pick and the Big East Player of the Year in 1997. In addition to Murphy and Garrity, McCaffery was involved in recruiting NBA First Round picks LaPhonso Ellis (1992 Draft, No. 5 Denver), Monty Williams (1994 Draft, No. 24 New York) and Ryan Humphrey (2002 Draft, No. 19-Utah Jazz).

He helped the Irish to NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989 and 1990. Notre Dame reached the NIT finals in 1992 and advanced to the quarterfinals in 1997.

At 26, McCaffery was the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was hired on Sept. 11, 1985, at Lehigh. McCaffery capped his three-year tenure with the Engineers with a 21-win season and an NCAA berth in 1988.

In three seasons as head coach at Lehigh, he compiled a 49-39 overall record and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament in 1988. At the time, he was the youngest head coach to reach the NCAA Tournament. His Lehigh teams had two winning seasons in three years and the 1987-88 squad's 21-10 record remains the best in program history. Lehigh had just four winning seasons in the 55 years prior to his arrival.

McCaffery was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Lehigh from 1983-85 and helped the team to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1985. As recruiting coordinator, he helped sign Darren Queenan, who remains Lehigh's all-time leading scorer. Queenan was second in the nation in scoring in 1988.

McCaffery was assistant varsity coach and head sub-varsity coach at his alma mater, Pennsylvania, during the 1982-83 season. At Penn, he worked for Craig Littlepage, who is now the director of athletics at the University of Virginia.

McCaffery lettered three years as point guard on the men's basketball team at Pennsylvania as one of the first transfers to play for the Quakers. He earned a bachelor's degree from The Wharton School of Finance and Commerce in 1982. In 1985, he received his master's degree in education from Lehigh.

In three seasons as a player, he helped lead Penn to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and Ivy League titles and one berth in the NIT. As a senior in 1981-82, he led the Ivy League in steals and assists and was voted the team's Most Inspirational Player.

Recruited as the successor at point guard to Skip Brown at Wake Forest, McCaffery played one season at Wake Forest (1977-78), helping the Demon Deacons to a 19-10 record. Nicknamed "White Magic," he started 11 games as coach Carl Tacy's team finished runner-up in the ACC Tournament to eventual NCAA runner-up Duke. Wake defeated North Carolina twice in three meetings and won five of the eight games it played at the Greensboro Coliseum.

The McCafferys' have been a champion for Coaches vs. Cancer and the American Cancer Society (ACS). The McCafferys' have been actively involved with the Coaches vs. Cancer program and have raised significant funds to support ACS efforts, including more than $5.0 million since becoming Iowa's head coach in 2010. His efforts were honored during the 2015 Final Four weekend, as McCaffery was honored with the Coaches vs. Cancer Champion Award. The distinction is awarded annually to a college coach who has been engaged vigorously in the Coaches vs. Cancer program's fundraising, education and promotional initiatives and has demonstrated leadership in the fight to save more lives from cancer. The ACS awarded the McCaffery's with the Fighting Spirit Award in 2015.

In addition to their work with the American Cancer Society and Coaches vs. Cancer, the McCaffery's help spearhead the launch of a new Adolescent and Young Adult Cancer Program in Iowa City.

McCaffery, a Philadelphia native who attended LaSalle High School, and his wife, Margaret, have four children: sons, Connor, Patrick and Jonathan and a daughter, Marit. Connor and Patrick played a combined 11 seasons for their father as Hawkeyes.

"Fran McCaffery adds a different flavor and is good for the Big Ten. This is a very attractive program for highly skilled players. He has a system that advocates putting the biscuit in the basket, putting points on the board. Fran can get elite players, not just because of his system but because he can coach."
Gus Johnson, FOX College Basketball Broadcaster

"I'm a big fan of Fran McCaffery. He does things the right way."
Eric Collins, FS1 Broadcaster

"Fran McCaffery has done an outstanding job rebuilding this program."
Andy Katz, NCAA.com/BTN College Basketball Contributor

"When a parent passes their kid over to Fran they can rest assured a few things. One, he's going to make sure, to the best of his ability, that he gets a quality degree. Secondly, he is going to do his very best to develop that individual player within the team context. And finally, because of the vast resources of people that he knows outside of the game that he will do his very best, for those who aren't fortunate to play at the next level, to use his influence to make sure they get jobs and have an opportunity to have upward mobility. That's what makes him special."
LaPhonso Ellis, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Iowa made an outstanding choice. Fran McCaffery-coached teams are well coached and very well organized."
Ronnie Lester

Sherman Dillard is in his 15th year with the University of Iowa men's basketball staff bringing a wealth of expertise on and off the court.

Dillard has assisted in the rise of the Hawkeye basketball program back to national prominence since 2012. Iowa's coaching staff has guided the Hawkeyes to 20 or more wins in eight of the last 12 years and the team has placed fifth or better in the Big Ten standings seven times in 10 seasons, including a third-place finish in 2021.

Dillard was inducted into the A STEP UP Assistant Coaches Hall of Fame in May, 2024.

In 2022, the Hawkeyes won four games in four days to capture the Big Ten Tournament title, their third in program history, which ties as third most in the league. Iowa finished fourth in the conference standings and won 26 games; the second highest single season win total in program history. Dillard was recognized as one of the Most Impactful High Major Assistant Coaches in Division I Men's Basketball following the season by Silver Waves Media.

Iowa had one of the most dominating players in college basketball during a four-year stretch when Luka Garza was twice named National Player of the Year and was a consensus first-team All-America selection in 2020 and 2021. Keegan Murray was a finalist for the Wooden Award and Naismith Trophy, earned consensus first-team All-America laurels and was named the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year in 2022. Kris Murray was voted consensus third-team All-America, was a finalist for the Karl Malone Award and a semifinalist for the Wooden and Naismith awards.

Dillard and the Hawkeye staff have recruited and coached a first-team All-Big Ten honoree eight of the last 11 years.

Over the last five seasons, Iowa combined to win 106 games, finished fifth place or better in the Big Ten standings four times, won a Big Ten Tournament title (2022), competed in the three NCAA Tournaments and one NIT and won 21 games over AP Top 25 opponents. Iowa had the Big Ten scoring champion three consecutive seasons (2020-22) -- a feat that had not been accomplished by any team in the league in over 50 years.

In 2021, Iowa won 14 Big Ten regular season games, its highest total since 1987. The Hawkeyes earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tying its highest ever seed in the tournament.

Dillard and the Hawkeyes have been one of the highest scoring teams in the Big Ten in each of the last six seasons, including ranking fifth nationally in 2021 (83.7) and 2022 (83.2). Iowa averaged more than 83 points in consecutive seasons for the first time in 27 years and the program has scored 80+ points in four straight seasons for the first time since 1968-72. Additionally, Iowa was tops in Division I in assist-to-turnover ratio in 2021 (2.0) and 2022 (1.74), while ranking third in 2024 (1.85).

The past 14 years at Iowa, Dillard helped coach 22 Hawkeyes to professional contracts, including Keegan Murray, Kris Murray, Joe Wieskamp and Garza. Keegan Murray was selected with the fourth overall selection of the 2022 NBA Draft, the highest a Hawkeye has ever been picked, and Kris Murray was selected with the 23rd pick in the 2023 NBA Draft. It was the second time in program history Iowa had first round picks in consecutive years. Wieskamp and Garza were both selected in the 2021 NBA Draft.

Dillard has helped mentor 14 Hawkeyes to All-Big Ten status during his tenure, including seven first team honorees: Roy Devyn Marble (2014), Aaron White (2015), Jarrod Uthoff (2016), Peter Jok (2017), Luka Garza (2020 & 2021), Keegan Murray (2022) and Kris Murray (2023). In addition to the all-conference accolades, Garza (twice), Keegan Murray, Kris Murray, Uthoff and Jok were All-Americans. Dillard helped develop frontcourt players Gabriel Olaseni and Nicholas Baer, who were each voted Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year in 2015 and 2017, respectively.

He also helped coach nine All-Big Ten Freshman performers (Eric May in 2010; Melsahn Basabe in 2011; Aaron White in 2012; Jordan Bohannon and Tyler Cook in 2017; Joe Wieskamp in 2019; CJ Fredrick in 2020; Keegan Murray in 2021, Owen Freeman in 2024). Freeman became the second Hawkeye all-time (and the first in 30 years) to earn the league's Freshman of the Year honor.

Frontcourt players have enjoyed recent success under the Iowa coaching staff. Over the past five seasons, Iowa bigs have had unprecedented success. Dillard is the second-leading scorer (2,065 points) in James Madison history, and his academic excellence merited him an NCAA post-graduate scholarship. After his collegiate career, he was drafted by the Indiana Pacers in the 1978 NBA Draft. Additionally, Dillard was honored as a CAA "Legend" in 2009.

Dillard worked as a basketball marketing representative for Nike for six years (2004-10). FIRST BASKETBALL GAME PLAYED IN IOWA CITY

Iowa City was the site of the first college basketball game played with five players on a side. The historic event took place in Close Hall on the University of Iowa campus on January 18, 1896.

In that first game, the University of Chicago defeated Iowa 15-12, with neither team using any substitutes.

The game was arranged by Iowa professor H.F. Kallenberg, who had earlier attended Springfield College, and wrote James Naismith for a copy of the rules of the game, and Amos Alonzo Stagg, a friend of Kallenberg who had become the athletic director at Chicago.

Former All-American Don Nelson and head coach George Raveling were inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame in 2012 and 2015, respectively.

While at Iowa (1983-86), Raveling guided the Hawkeyes to back-to-back 20-win seasons and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. Raveling is not only known for making history by breaking down racial barriers as a coach, but also was a part of history when in 1963 he received the original copy of the Martin Luther King, Jr., "I Have a Dream" speech.

Nelson held the record for most wins (1,335) by an NBA coach for 12 seasons (surpassed by Gregg Popovich in 2022) and is one of only two coaches to be named NBA Coach of the Year three times (1983, 1985, 1992). He spent over 40 years of his life as a player, coach and general manager. He led teams to 18 playoff appearances where he amassed 75 playoff wins and is one of only two NBA coaches to win 250 games with three different teams. He also coached Dream Team II to a gold medal in the 1994 World Championships. Nelson, who was named in 1996 as one the NBA's 10 Best Coaches of all time, is the only coach with 1,000+ wins and multiple NBA championships as a player, where he won five titles with the Boston Celtics (1966, 1968, 1969, 1974 and 1976).

As a Hawkeye, Nelson led the Hawkeyes to 45 victories between 1959-62. He left Iowa after the 1962 season with 1,522 points, averaging 21.2 points per game in 72 career games, which currently ranks fourth best for scoring average in the Iowa record books.

 - - Iowa stopped designating an MVP following the 2007 season.*

RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

10 B.J. ARMSTRONG (JERSEY)

B.J. Armstrong's jersey was retired in 1992. Graduated as Iowa's career assist leader (currently fourth), Armstrong ranks fifth in career scoring and was a two-time Hawkeye MVP. A first round draft choice of the Chicago Bulls in 1989, Armstrong played a vital role in Chicago's NBA titles in 1991 and 1992. He moved into Chicago's starting line-up in 1993 as the Bulls won their third straight NBA title. Armstrong concluded his NBA career with Chicago in 1999-00.

12 RONNIE LESTER

Lester is Iowa's seventh all-time leading scorer with 1,675 points. He started 3 1/2 seasons before a knee injury shortened his senior season. He was the Hawkeyes' MVP three times, an All-Big Ten selection twice and an All-American in 1979-1980. Lester played in the NBA for Chicago and Los Angeles. Lester won a World Championship with the Los Angeles Lakers in 1985 and served as vice-president of the Laker organization.

17 MURRAY WIER (JERSEY)

Wier was a four-year starter from 1945-48. He help Iowa to a Big Ten championship as a freshman in 1945. As a senior, Wier became the first officially recognized Division I NCAA scoring leader and Iowa's first-ever consensus first-team All-American, averaging 21 points per game. He set a then-Big Ten record of 272 points in conference play, earning first-team all-league and team Most Valuable Player accolades in 1948.

21 CARL CAIN

Cain was a 1956 first team All-American and All-Big Ten for the Hawkeyes' national runners-up. A 1956 Olympian, Cain was forced into a reserve role for the United States because of a back injury. He was a two-time Iowa MVP and finished his career with 1,054 points.

22 BILL SEABERG

Seaberg was a starting guard on the "Fabulous Five" team that ended up as the NCAA runner-up in 1956. He was third team All-America by Helms and the Hawkeyes' MVP in 1955, when he averaged 13 points.

23 ROY MARBLE (JERSEY)

Marble scored 2,116 points to become the first Iowa player to score 2,000 points. He also recorded 668 career rebounds and 281 assists as the Hawkeyes won 97 games during his career. Iowa earned four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight appearance in 1987 and a trip to the Sweet 16 in 1988. Marble shared team Most Valuable Player honors from 1987-89. Along with being Iowa's career scoring leader for 31 years, Marble currently ranks second in program annals in field goals made (787), field goal attempts (1,459) and free throws made (516); third in free throw attempts (707); and fourth in career steals (183). He led the team in scoring in 1986, 1987, and 1989.

27 CHUCK DARLING

Darling earned first-team All-America distinction and was awarded the Chicago Tribune Silver Trophy as a senior in 1952. A two-time all-conference selection, Darling led the Hawkeyes to second (1952) and third place (1951) Big Ten finishes as an upperclassman. He led the Hawkeyes in scoring in back-to-back seasons in 1951 (16.3 ppg) and 1952 (25.5 ppg), including leading the Big Ten in points per game as a senior. His 25.5 points per game average is the third highest scoring average in program history behind John Johnson (27.9 ppg in 1970) and Fred Brown (27.6 ppg in 1971). He averaged a staggering 17.6 rebounds in 22 games as a junior, a season average that is tops in school history.

31 BILL LOGAN

Logan, a member of the Hawkeyes' 1,000-point Club, topped the squad in scoring three times. A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Logan was second team All-America in 1956 according to Helms and Converse-Taylor. He helped Iowa to a second place Big Ten finish as a sophomore and consecutive Final Four appearances his last two seasons.

33 BILL SCHOOF

Schoof played forward on the "Fabulous Five" team and scored 6.3 points per game. A three-year letterman, Schoof was a starter on Iowa's 1955 and 1956 Final Four teams. In those two seasons he helped the Hawkeyes to a record of 39-13.

40 CHRIS STREET

Chris Street's number was retired following his untimely death in 1993. Street died in an auto accident 15 games into his junior season. A fixture in Iowa's starting line-up since midway through his freshman season, Street was averaging 14.5 points and 9.5 rebounds per contest through 15 games and had recently earned MVP honors at the San Juan Shootout. He established an Iowa record by making 34 consecutive free throws.

41 GREG STOKES

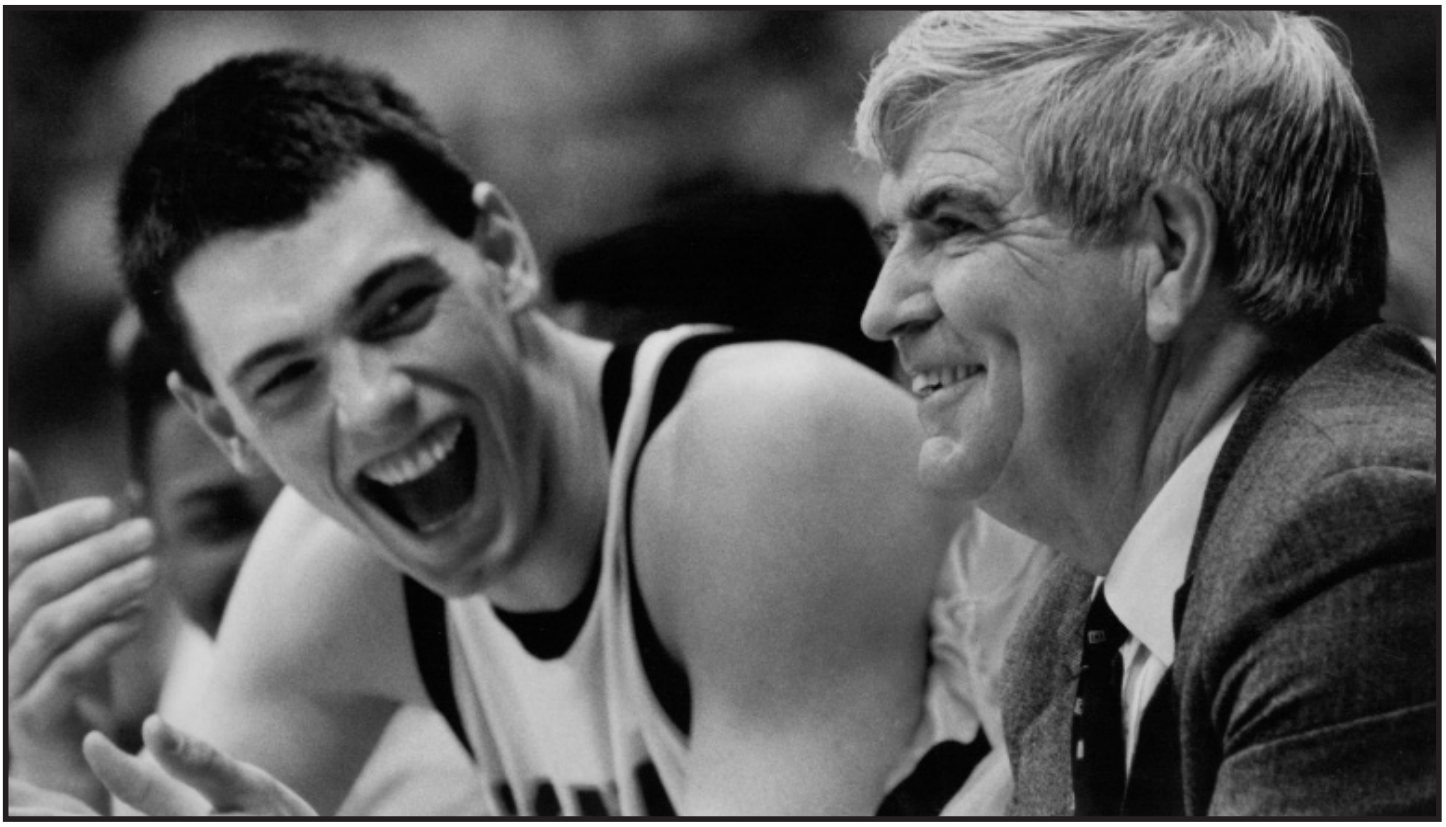
Stokes, a three-year starter in the pivot, is the school's fourth all-time career scorer (1,768 points). He owns the school record for field goal percentage in a game (1.000, 11 of 11). After an All-Big Ten senior season (19.9 scoring norm), Stokes was selected in the 1985 NBA Draft by Philadelphia.

46 SHARM SCHEUERMAN

Scheuerman made his mark at Iowa as an athlete and coach. He started on the "Fabulous Five" basketball team and lettered three times in basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1956, Scheuerman returned to coach his alma mater in 1959. His 1961 squad finished 18-6.

55 LUKA GARZA

Luka Garza is Iowa's only two-time Big Ten Player of the Year (2020 & 2021) and only consensus National Player of the Year (2021). Iowa's all-time leading scorer was also a two-time consensus first-team All-American, first-team All-Big Ten, and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Pete Newell award winner. Garza is the only Big Ten men's basketball player to amass over 2,250 points and 900 rebounds. Garza was recognized as the 2021 Big Ten Jesse Owens Male Athlete of the Year.



The Chris Street Award, named in honor of former Hawkeye Chris Street, is presented annually to "A Hawkeye player who best exemplifies the spirit, enthusiasm and intensity of Chris Street." Street died in an auto accident on Jan. 19, 1993, midway through his junior season.

Iowa's Carver-Hawkeye Arena is located on the west campus in the University's athletic complex, approximately one-quarter mile northwest of Kinnick Stadium. It is a few minutes' drive from Interstate 80 and 380 and about 30 minutes from the Eastern Iowa Airport in Cedar Rapids.

The press section at the arena is located on the west side of the floor.

A hospitality room for the media is located through the main exit ramp off the playing floor. Soft drinks and pocorn are available to the media, along with concession food vouchers.

Postgame news conferences with the head coaches are held in the Press Room. Iowa player interviews are conducted in the Press Room following the coach's interviews.

COACH MCCAFFERY CONFERENCES/INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Coach Fran McCaffery holds media conferences in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and Zoom calls throughout the season. Requested Iowa players are available on days coach McCaffery meets with the media. A schedule of dates and times is provided to media prior to the season. All Iowa practice sessions are closed to the public and media.

All interview requests for members of the Iowa coaching staff and Hawkeye student-athletes should be directed through strategic communications (319) 335-9411. Please refrain from contacting members of the basketball program directly.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for game credentials should be directed in email to James Allan (james-allan@uiowa.edu). Requests should be filed early enough to allow time for processing. Credentials that are not mailed can be claimed at the Will Call window at the Carver-Hawkeye Arena ticket office, located at the east entrance to the arena. Photo identification is required.
