THIS WEEK -- The University of Iowa men's golf team will travel to Memphis, TN, to compete in the Memphis Intercollegiate Monday and Tuesday. Competition will consist of 36 holes Monday and 18 holes Tuesday. Play will begin both days at 8 a.m. Monday will be a shotgun start and there will be tee times at holes one and ten Tuesday.

THE COURSE -- This week's tournament will be played on the Colonial County Club's South Course. The 7,249-yard course is a par 72. The course, designed by Joe Finger, features bent grass greens, bermuda grass fairways and rough, and water hazards come into play on several holes.

PREVIOUS COMPETITION - Memphis is the two-time defending champion of this tournament. Iowa tied for fourth last year and placed 13th in 2004.

LAST TIME OUT -- Iowa finished the Wolverine Intercollegiate in eighth place with a score of 869. Senior Jon Feldick and junior Dan Holterhaus both carded a 217 and finished tied for 23rd.
