Players now enjoy the comfort of leather sofas, a big screen, HD flat-screen TV and computers with high-speed Internet access. The lounge also features plush carpeting and a high-quality sound system, helping make the Iowa locker room the envy of most women's collegiate basketball programs. Additionally, a brand new editing system has been installed in the locker room so players can break down film at their leisure.

Iowa's locker area was also remodeled with large wooden lockers for each player's personal and game use. Also, Iowa's shower area was expanded to provide additional room.

STRENGTH TRAINING

THE HAWKEYES STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of this program consists mainly of two components. The first is to continually develop a scientifically sound program that will maximize strength, power and explosiveness in order to allow the athlete to get the utmost out of their genetic potential, and to reduce the chance of injury. This will primarily be accomplished through the use of ground based free weight exercises and the progressive incorporation of functional movements and plyometrics. The second is to establish a culture which will develop the discipline, character and mental toughness within each athlete and team as a whole so that they are able to make the sacrifices in their training, leave their comfort zone and develop a Championship ATTITUDE. This will encourage them to make the most out of every situation and opportunity given to them in athletics, so that they might know what it is to be fully committed to something in at least one area of their life. When these two converge, they are not only able to reach their full potential, they become champions on and off the playing field.

IOWA HAWKEYES ACADEMICS

ATHLETICS LEARNING CENTER

The $4.6 million Russell A. and Ann Gerdin Athletics Learning Center opened in September of 2003 and gives all Iowa student-athletes a state of the art facility to help them with their educations.

The Athletics Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000 square foot facility that provides a computer center, study areas, classes and meeting places for all Hawkeye student-athletes.

The Learning Center features an auditorium that converts into two classrooms, separate study rooms for under and upper-class student-athletes that feature 28 study carrels, a computer lab, five tutorial rooms, the book loan repository, office space for Iowa's Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

"I THINK THAT THE SUCCESS THAT WE'VE HAD IN THE CLASSROOM SHOWS IOWA'S COMMITMENT TO THE STUDENT-ATHLETE. WITH LINDSEY MEDER BEING ONE OF THE TOP-FIVE ACADEMIC PLAYERS IN AMERICA TWO STRAIGHT YEARS (2001-02) AND HAVING 40 DIFFERENT ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN HONORS THE LAST 10 SEASONS SPEAKS VOLUMES ABOUT OUR COMMITMENT TO ACADEMICS. OUR PLAYERS HAVE PROVEN THAT THEY CAN DO BOTH AT A SCHOOL LIKE IOWA. THEY CAN ACHIEVE SUCCESS BOTH ACADEMICALLY AND ATHLETICALLY."

MEDIA ATTENTION

One of the many benefits of playing for the Iowa Hawkeyes and playing in the Big Ten Conference is the popularity and amount of media coverage the sport generates in the state of Iowa and the Midwest. Whether it's TV, radio, internet, podcasting, newspapers, etc. fans can access information, video and audio clips of the Hawkeyes in a number of different platforms. In addition to extensive radio/internet broadcasts of every Hawkeye game, Iowa fans can watch selected games on KCRG-TV9, the Big Ten Network, CBS, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or www.bigtennetwork.com.

GARY BARTA
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

On behalf of the University of Iowa Department of Athletics, I'd like to welcome you to another exciting season of Hawkeye women's basketball. I am thrilled to start another campaign under our terrific head coach, Lisa Bluder.

Lisa has done a tremendous job leading the Hawkeye program over a long period of time. She is a class act, both on and off the court. Her student-athletes exemplify what we mean when we say "Today's Hawkeyes are Tomorrow's Leaders."

Her student-athletes excel in the classroom, on the court and in the community. She stands for what's good in intercollegiate sport, and specifically, for Hawkeye Athletics. Not only do we have a very competitive team on the court, we have coaches and student-athletes who are looked upon as role models throughout the University and surrounding communities.

Whether it's on the court in front of our great fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, or on the road, we know the Hawkeyes will be competing for championships every season. Please plan to join us for what promises to be an exciting year of Hawkeye women's basketball!

SALLY MASON

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA PRESIDENT

Welcome to a new season of Iowa women's basketball! My husband Ken and I are enthusiastic fans and can't wait to cheer the Iowa Black and Gold on to victory. We take great pride in this team and its coaches. These Hawkeyes truly embody the winning spirit on the court, in the classroom and in the community.

We are proud of our rich tradition in women's basketball! The University of Iowa has established itself as one of the most decorated programs in the Big Ten and nation. Coach Bluder has led her team to seven NCAA Tournament appearances, including the last three years in a row.

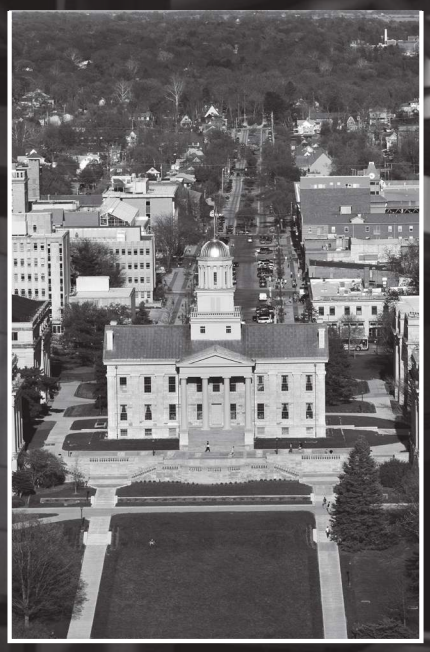

Under Coach Bluder's leadership, Iowa has posted seven Big Ten first-division finishes and advanced to the post-season nine times. Bluder, who is the dean of women's basketball coaches in the Big Ten, exemplifies the type of coach this University is all about. Named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times and WBCA Regional Coach of the Year twice, Coach Bluder and the Hawkeyes enjoy the national spotlight. Our future looks as bright as our recent past.

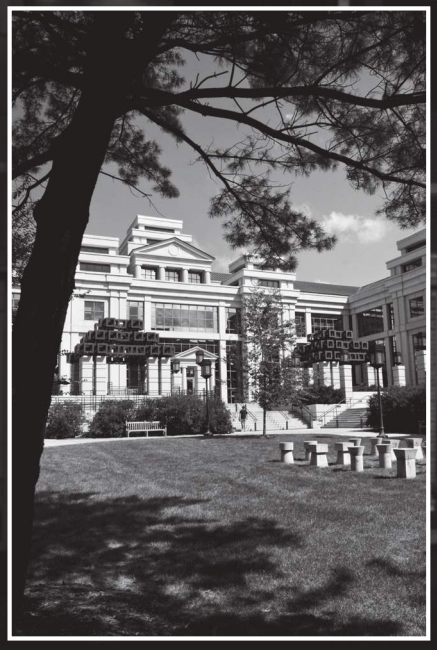

Lisa Bluder and her loyal coaching staff's level of commitment to her players is unparalleled. The program has a longstanding reputation for developing leaders on and off the court. I'm proud of the program's academic excellence and volunteer efforts around the Eastern Iowa community.

I am proud to be a Hawkeye. I hope you'll join me for another thrilling season of Hawkeye women's basketball at Carver-Hawkeye Arena!

A TOTAL PROGRAM

The Iowa football team boasted an 11-2 record a year ago, was ranked as high as fourth nationally, and recorded a dominating 24-14 Orange Bowl victory over Georgia Tech.

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2009-10.

Thirty-seven Hawkeyes earned all-conference accolades, while 15 were recognized as all-Americans. Hawkeye student-athletes excelled in the classroom as well, with 178 earning academic all-Big Ten laurels. The graduation rate of Iowa's student-athletes has improved in each of the past 10 years and has consistently ranked above the graduation rate of all UI students.

Paced by its men's cross country and field hockey teams -- each with perfect APR scores of 1,000 for the second straight year -- all 24 of Iowa's intercollegiate athletics programs achieved at a rate that surpasses the national benchmark established by the NCAA. Iowa's men's tennis, women's golf, women's tennis and volleyball all ranked in the upper 90 percent of its peers.

The support of their efforts and attendance by Hawkeye fans ranks among the best across the country.

While the Hawkeyes compete with the best in the nation in a variety of sports, Iowa boasts some of the most impressive athletic facilities in the nation, operated by one of the most respected departments.

Several new projects are underway on the Iowa campus. Some of the latest additions to the UI campus include the completion of the new Campus Recreation and Wellness Center, which houses the swimming and diving teams, and the state-of-the-art $7 million rowing boathouse. In addition to the brand new swimming and rowing facilities, the Roy G. Karro Athletics Hall of Fame and Visitors Center, the Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center and the Hawkeye Tennis and Recreation Center completed construction in recent years. Furthermore, the UI is in the middle of a $43 million Carver-Hawkeye Arena renovation project that is expected to be completed the summer of 2011.

The 2010 Iowa Hawkeye wrestling team won its 23rd NCAA championship along with its 34th Big Ten title. Iowa crowned eight all-Americans en route to its third-straight national and league championships.

Kinnick Stadium received a major up-grading and renovation that was completed just prior to the 2006 season. The $89 million project included the replacing of the south end zone stands and building of a four-level press box that houses 47 guest suites. New scoreboards, video walls, concession stands and new rest rooms were also part of the project.

Iowa athletes have been recognized as all-Americans in their sport on 268 occasions during the past 18 years, including 15 this past season.

During the 2009-10 athletic year, the Hawkeyes continued their trend of success on the playing fields and in academic pursuits. Below are some examples of recent Hawkeye success.

The Hawkeye wrestling team continued its dominance on the mat claiming its 23rd and third-straight NCAA national championship and its 34th and third-straight Big Ten title. Ten Hawkeyes earned all-American laurels en route to the team championship. Tom Brands was tabbed Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Matt McDonough was honored as the league's top freshman.

Iowa football continued its stellar play, winning 11 of its 13 games in 2009, and earned a national ranking as high as fourth. The year culminated with a dominating 24-14 performance over Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl. The return trip to Miami marked Iowa's sixth January bowl game in eight years. Kirk Ferentz was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Bryan Bulaga was honored as the conference's Offensive Lineman of the Year.

Iowa's field hockey team has won the Big Ten Tournament championship three of the last four years and finished third nationally, advancing all the way to the Final Four in 2008. A total of 39 Hawkeyes have garnered all-Big Ten accolades under Head Coach Tracey Griesbaum.

The Hawkeye baseball team surged last season, winning 11 of its last 14 games to finish third in the Big Ten and earn runner-up honors in the conference tournament. Three Hawkeyes and two incoming recruits were drafted in the Major League Draft following the season.

The women's basketball team had another outstanding season, finishing third in the league, earning runner-up honors at the Big Ten Tournament and advancing to the NCAA Second Round. Lisa Bluder, who was named Big Ten Coach of the Year for the third time, coached Kachine Alexander to honorable mention all-America status and Jamie Printy to Big Ten Freshman of the Year laurels.

Under first-year Head Coach Katie Dougherty, the women's tennis team ascended in the national rankings to 18th and earned a NCAA Tournament berth. Also, Iowa's doubles team of Sonja Molnar and Merel Beelen ranked 14th nationally and competed in the NCAA tournament at the end of the year. Molnar is a two-time all-Big Ten performer and was tabbed the league's Freshman of the Year in 2009.

Head Coach Mark Hankins continued to have his men's golfers play at a high level. The Hawkeyes finished second, only three strokes from first, at the Big Ten Championships and was only one stroke from advancing to its second-straight NCAA Championships when it placed sixth at Regionals this past spring.

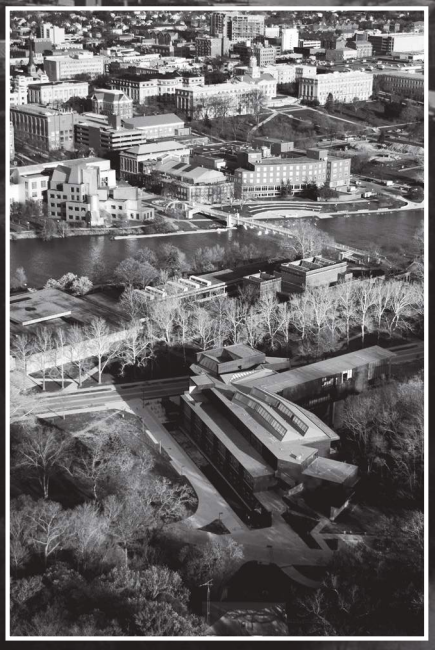

The aforementioned list of team and individual accomplishments are just a sampling of the recent excellence achieved in Iowa City.

Whether it's the top-notch athletic or academic performances, the outstanding community and fan support or the impressive facilities, it's easy to understand why Iowa fans everywhere truly believe, "It's great to be a Hawkeye."

The Iowa women's basketball team finished runner-up at the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament last season.

THE IOWA CITY COMMUNITY

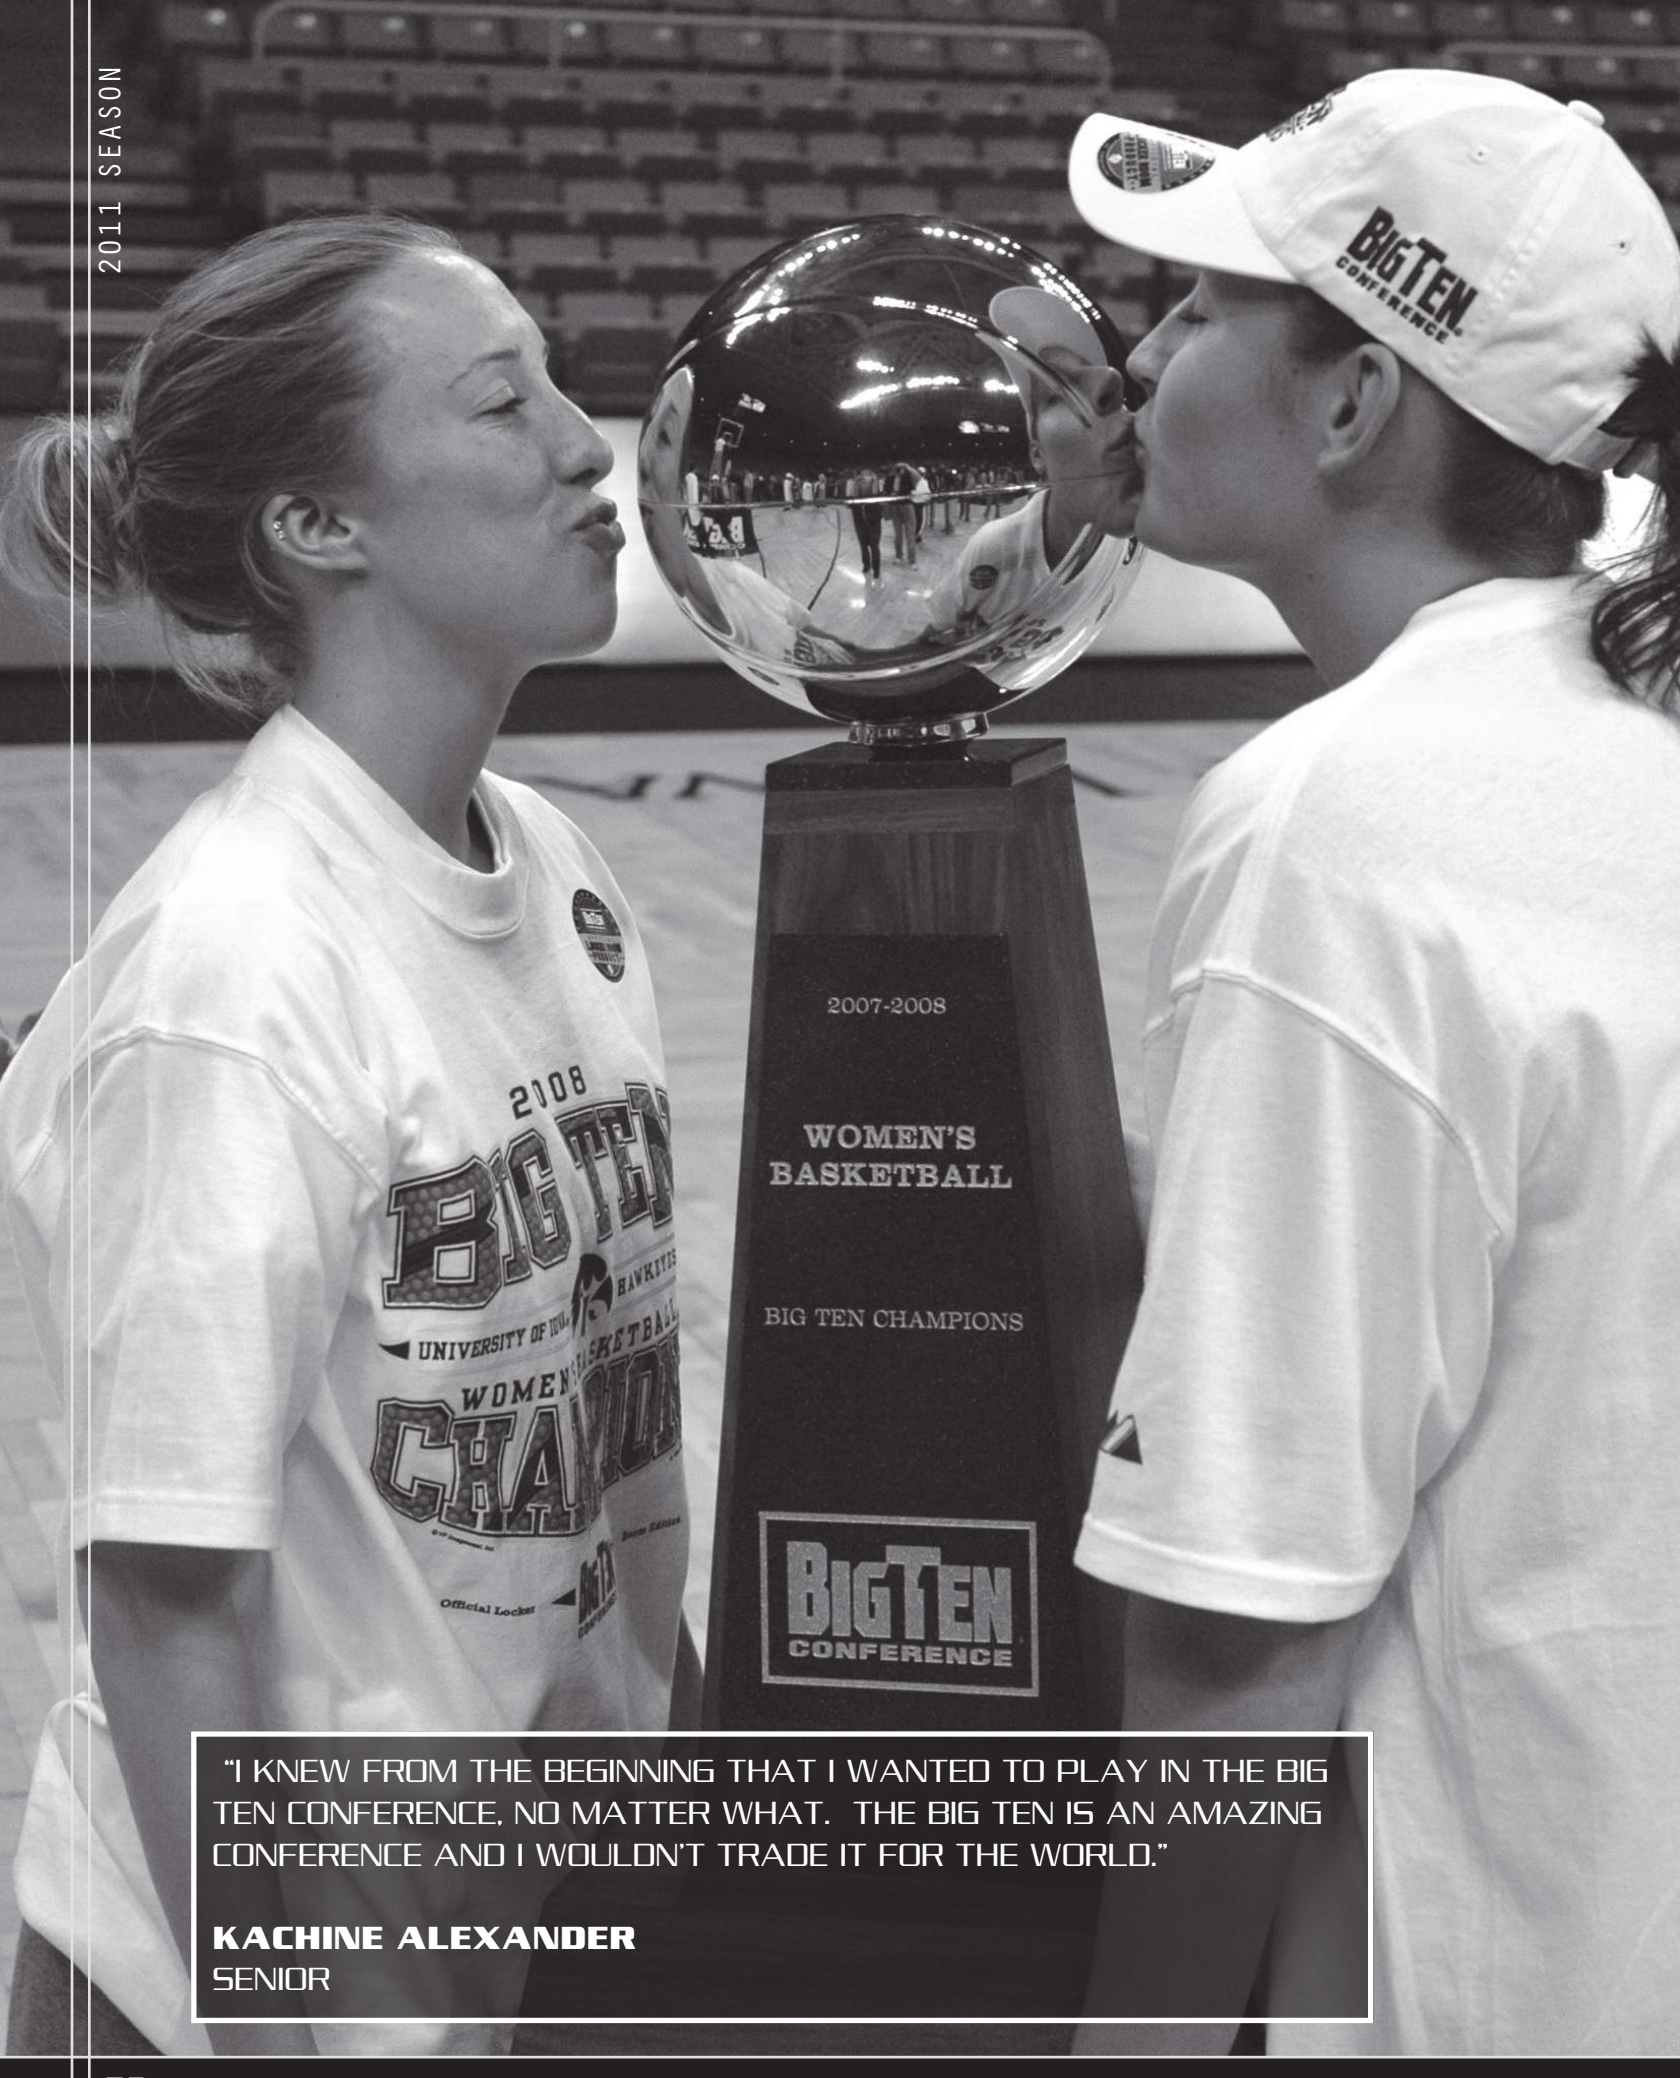

Iowa City is a diverse, highly cosmopolitan community of 60,000 set in the natural scenic beauty of Iowa's rolling hills and woods along the tree-lined banks of the Iowa River. Iowa City has all the art galleries, ethnic foods, historic architecture and vibrant atmosphere of a much larger city, but with the compactness and friendly feeling of a small town.

BIG LIFE. BIG STAGE. BIG TEN.

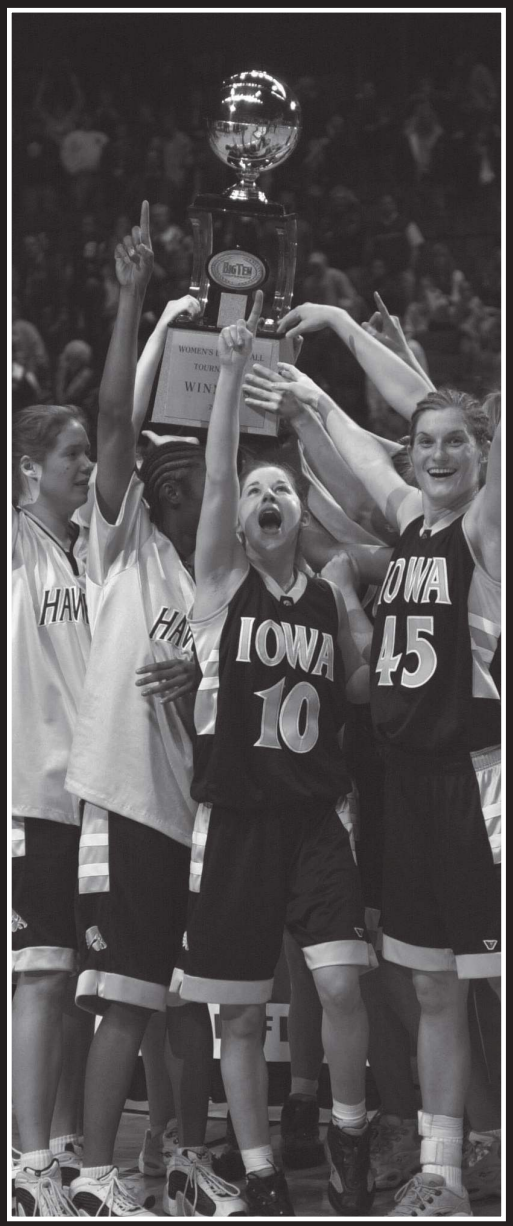

The Big Ten Conference is a union of 11 world-class academic institutions who share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. The conference's 100-plus years of history, strong tradition of competitive intercollegiate athletic programs, vast and passionate alumni base, and consistent leadership in innovations position the Big Ten and its entire community firmly on the Big Stage.

The Big Ten has sustained a comprehensive set of shared practices and policies that enforce the priority of academics and emphasize the values of integrity, fairness and competitiveness in all aspects of its student-athletes' lives, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that each individual has the opportunity to live a Big Life.

The Big Ten Conference has held a league tournament every year since 1995, with every tournament but one being held in Indianapolis.

Fans have embraced the Big Ten Women's Tournament. Nearly 36,000 fans watched in 2008 as Purdue captured the tournament title marked by close games and stellar individual performances.

Conseco Fieldhouse has played host to the conference tournament the last nine consecutive years and 10 overall. In fact, the conference announced in 2006 that it has signed a five-year extension to Indianapolis and the Conseco Fieldhouse to serve as host of the men's and women's tournaments until the year 2012.

BIG TEN/ACC Challenge

The Big Ten/ACC Women's Basketball Challenge enters its fourth year of existence during the 2010-11 season.

The Big Ten/ACC Women's Basketball Challenge matches 11 teams from each conference in head-to-head competition traditionally on the first Wednesday, Thursday and Friday after Thanksgiving, following the men's Big Ten/ACC Challenge.

The Big Ten tied a conference record in 2010, sending nine teams into postseason play. Four teams, including Iowa, earned bids to the NCAA Tournament. Historically, the conference has sent at least one team to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 24 of the last 26 years and had at least one squad participate in five of the last 12 Final Fours.

The ACC was represented by six teams in the NCAA Tournament last season, making it the eighth-straight year the league has had at least six in the Big Dance.

HAWKEYE TRAVEL

The Hawkeyes travel in style, whether it's on the road or in the air.

For shorter trips, the Hawkeyes travel in a spacious Windstar bus, complete with satellite television, DVD players and WiFi internet connection.

The majority of Hawkeye flights are on USA Jet, an airline with spacious leather seating that gives the players an opportunity to relax and study. Most trips are charter flights, which means no airport lines and non-stop flights to and from the nearby Eastern Iowa Airport.

HAWKEYE INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL

During the summer of 2003 and 2007 the entire Iowa basketball team and staff traveled overseas. The Hawkeyes spent 12 days in Italy touring the country and playing four exhibition games. In 2003 Iowa visited the beautiful cities of Rome, Vatican City, Florence, Venice and Lake Como. In 2007 the Hawkeyes were in Greece for 11 days competing against the Greek National Team three times and visiting Thessaloniki, Athens and the Greek Islands.

The Hawkeyes are scheduled for another overseas trip in the summer of 2011. The team is tentatively scheduled for a 12-day trip to Paris, Prague and Vienna.

Not only do the Hawkeyes play in front of thousands of fans in Carver-Hawkeye Arena, but the Iowa women's basketball program also travels to exciting destinations to play in challenging tournaments. Over the past 12 years, Iowa has competed in holiday tournaments in Alaska, Bahamas, California (three times), Cancun (2), Hawaii, New York, Florida (2), Massachusetts and South Carolina. The Hawkeyes head back to Cancun in November this season.

HAWKEYE BASKETBALL CAMPS

BASKETBALL CAMP

The Iowa Girls' Basketball Camp gives young basketball players the opportunity to learn from the Hawkeyes during the summer. Held annually in early June, Coach Bluder and her staff lead instruction in all facets of the game. Campers are able to stay in the residence halls and experience what campus life at Iowa is about. Camp is also a time for young Hawkeyes to meet new friends, and build life-long relationships.

The Iowa Girls' Basketball Elite Camp is also available for those who are willing to take their game to the next level.

For more information, contact the Iowa Sports Camps office at (319) 335-7961, or visit www.iowasportscamps.com.

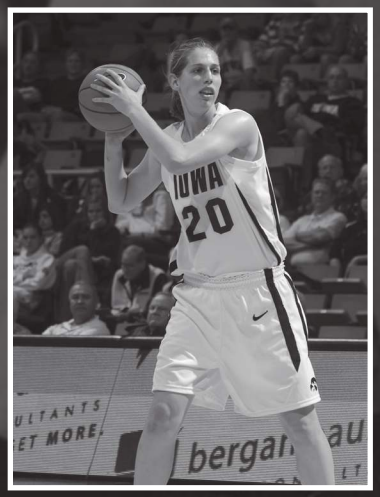

HANNAH DRAXTEN
REDSHIRT SOPHOMORE

"I had always heard about how good the Iowa Women's Basketball program was. After visiting, I was fortunate to experience the University and community first hand. Coach Bluder and her staff are awesome and all the girls are great! It is such a family atmosphere. We work hard, but at the same time we have a lot of fun! The fan support here is amazing and it is exciting to play in front of a crowd that loves Iowa athletics so much!"

THEAIRRA TAYLOR
SOPHOMORE

"Growing up in Minnesota, I'll admit I didn't know a lot about the University of Iowa. But after attending a game in Carver-Hawkeye Arena and walking around campus, I instantly fell in love with the coaches, community and family here in the Hawkeye Nation. I'm proud to say I am a Hawkeye!"

KELLY KREI
JUNIOR

"I grew up a Hawkeye and being able to wear the Black and Gold has always been a dream of mine. My visits to Iowa only reinforced my desire after being able to witness, first hand, the chemistry between the team and the coaches. All of the coaches were very enthusiastic and I couldn't wait to get a chance to play in Carver-Hawkeye Arena in front of so many loyal Hawkeye fans. It's great to be a Hawkeye!

WHAT HAWKEYES ARE SAYING

"The University of Iowa was perfect for me because it included the family atmosphere I had been looking for, along with the academics I had been craving. The coaches are so personable and truly care about my life, both on and off the court. My teammates are just the icing on the cake. They really make it feel like I'm home and that this is where I belong. I am very happy I chose the University of Iowa, and I know that in my heart I am a Hawkeye for life."

TRISHA NESBITT

"The coaching staff and the team were the two main things that attracted me to Iowa. The coaches are more than just a coach to you. Right away you can tell that they are amazing people and really genuinely care about each one of us as people."

THE HAWKEYE FAMILIES

"We were so impressed with the coaching staff and the team on our first unofficial visit that we made another unofficial visit three weeks later. With all the academic programs and help available to student-athletes, our daughter will definitely come away with her degree and a great experience. When Kachine made her decision to become a Hawkeye, she sent Coach Bluder an email with a photo of her dressed in Hawkeye shorts, T-shirt and cap with a double thumbs up sign. The fans and the people of Iowa are absolutely awesome; we believe that Iowa is the best-kept secret in the Midwest."

JENNIFER DAVIS & PETER ALEXANDER

"We are happy that our daughter has found a school and an extended family that she loves. The staff and coaches at the University of Iowa are exactly the way they were during the recruiting process. As parents, you want to know that your child will grow mentally and spiritually as a person. Even though Theairra has been there for just a short time, we can already see the growth. We feel blessed that she has found such a great second home and family."

THEODORE & MICHELLE TAYLOR

"There is truth in the cliché, 'God works in mysterious ways.' Being lifelong Ames residents would make us unlikely candidates to become Hawkeye fans, and even more unlikely candidates to encourage our daughter to become a Hawkeye. After meeting the coaching staff, players and some of the other recruits and their families, there is no mystery why we would want our daughter to be a Hawkeye! In fact, our whole family has converted to being proud Hawkeye fanatics! Go Hawkeyes!"

TROY AND PAM NESBITT

"We first visited the University of Iowa and attended a Hawkeyes women's game when Hannah was in ninth grade. Right away we all knew this was the place we would like her to end up. We really liked Iowa City and the Iowa campus. More importantly, we thought the coaching staff and team were extremely caring and it was the kind of family atmosphere we wanted our daughter in, especially living seven hours away. We loved Carver and the great support of the fans and are very proud to be a part of the Iowa Hawkeye women's basketball tradition."

BRIAN & LORI DRAXTEN

"We are so proud that Kelsey is a student-athlete at the University of Iowa. The top notch facilities and outstanding support from the fans create an unforgettable atmosphere. We feel very fortunate that Kelsey is surrounded by such wonderful people. The coaches, basketball staff, and her teammates have offered endless support and encouragement both on and off the court."

BARRY & CINDY CERMAK

"As parents of Kamille, we are very proud that Coach Bluder and her staff invited her to be a part of their successful program. From the first time we stepped on campus we felt like we belonged and everyone we met was honest and genuine. We feel very comfortable with Kamille being a part of the Hawkeye tradition and also the excitement of the Big Ten atmosphere."

CHRIS & KARLA WAHLIN

"As residents of Iowa City we've been fortunate to have had the opportunity to closely follow the Iowa women's basketball program through the years and couldn't be more proud of our daughter's choice to become an Iowa Hawkeye. Every time we visited, it reinforced what we already knew about Coach Bluder, her staff and the genuine integrity of the Iowa women's program. We've witnessed time and time again the caring the coaches and staff showed toward the women as both athletes and students."

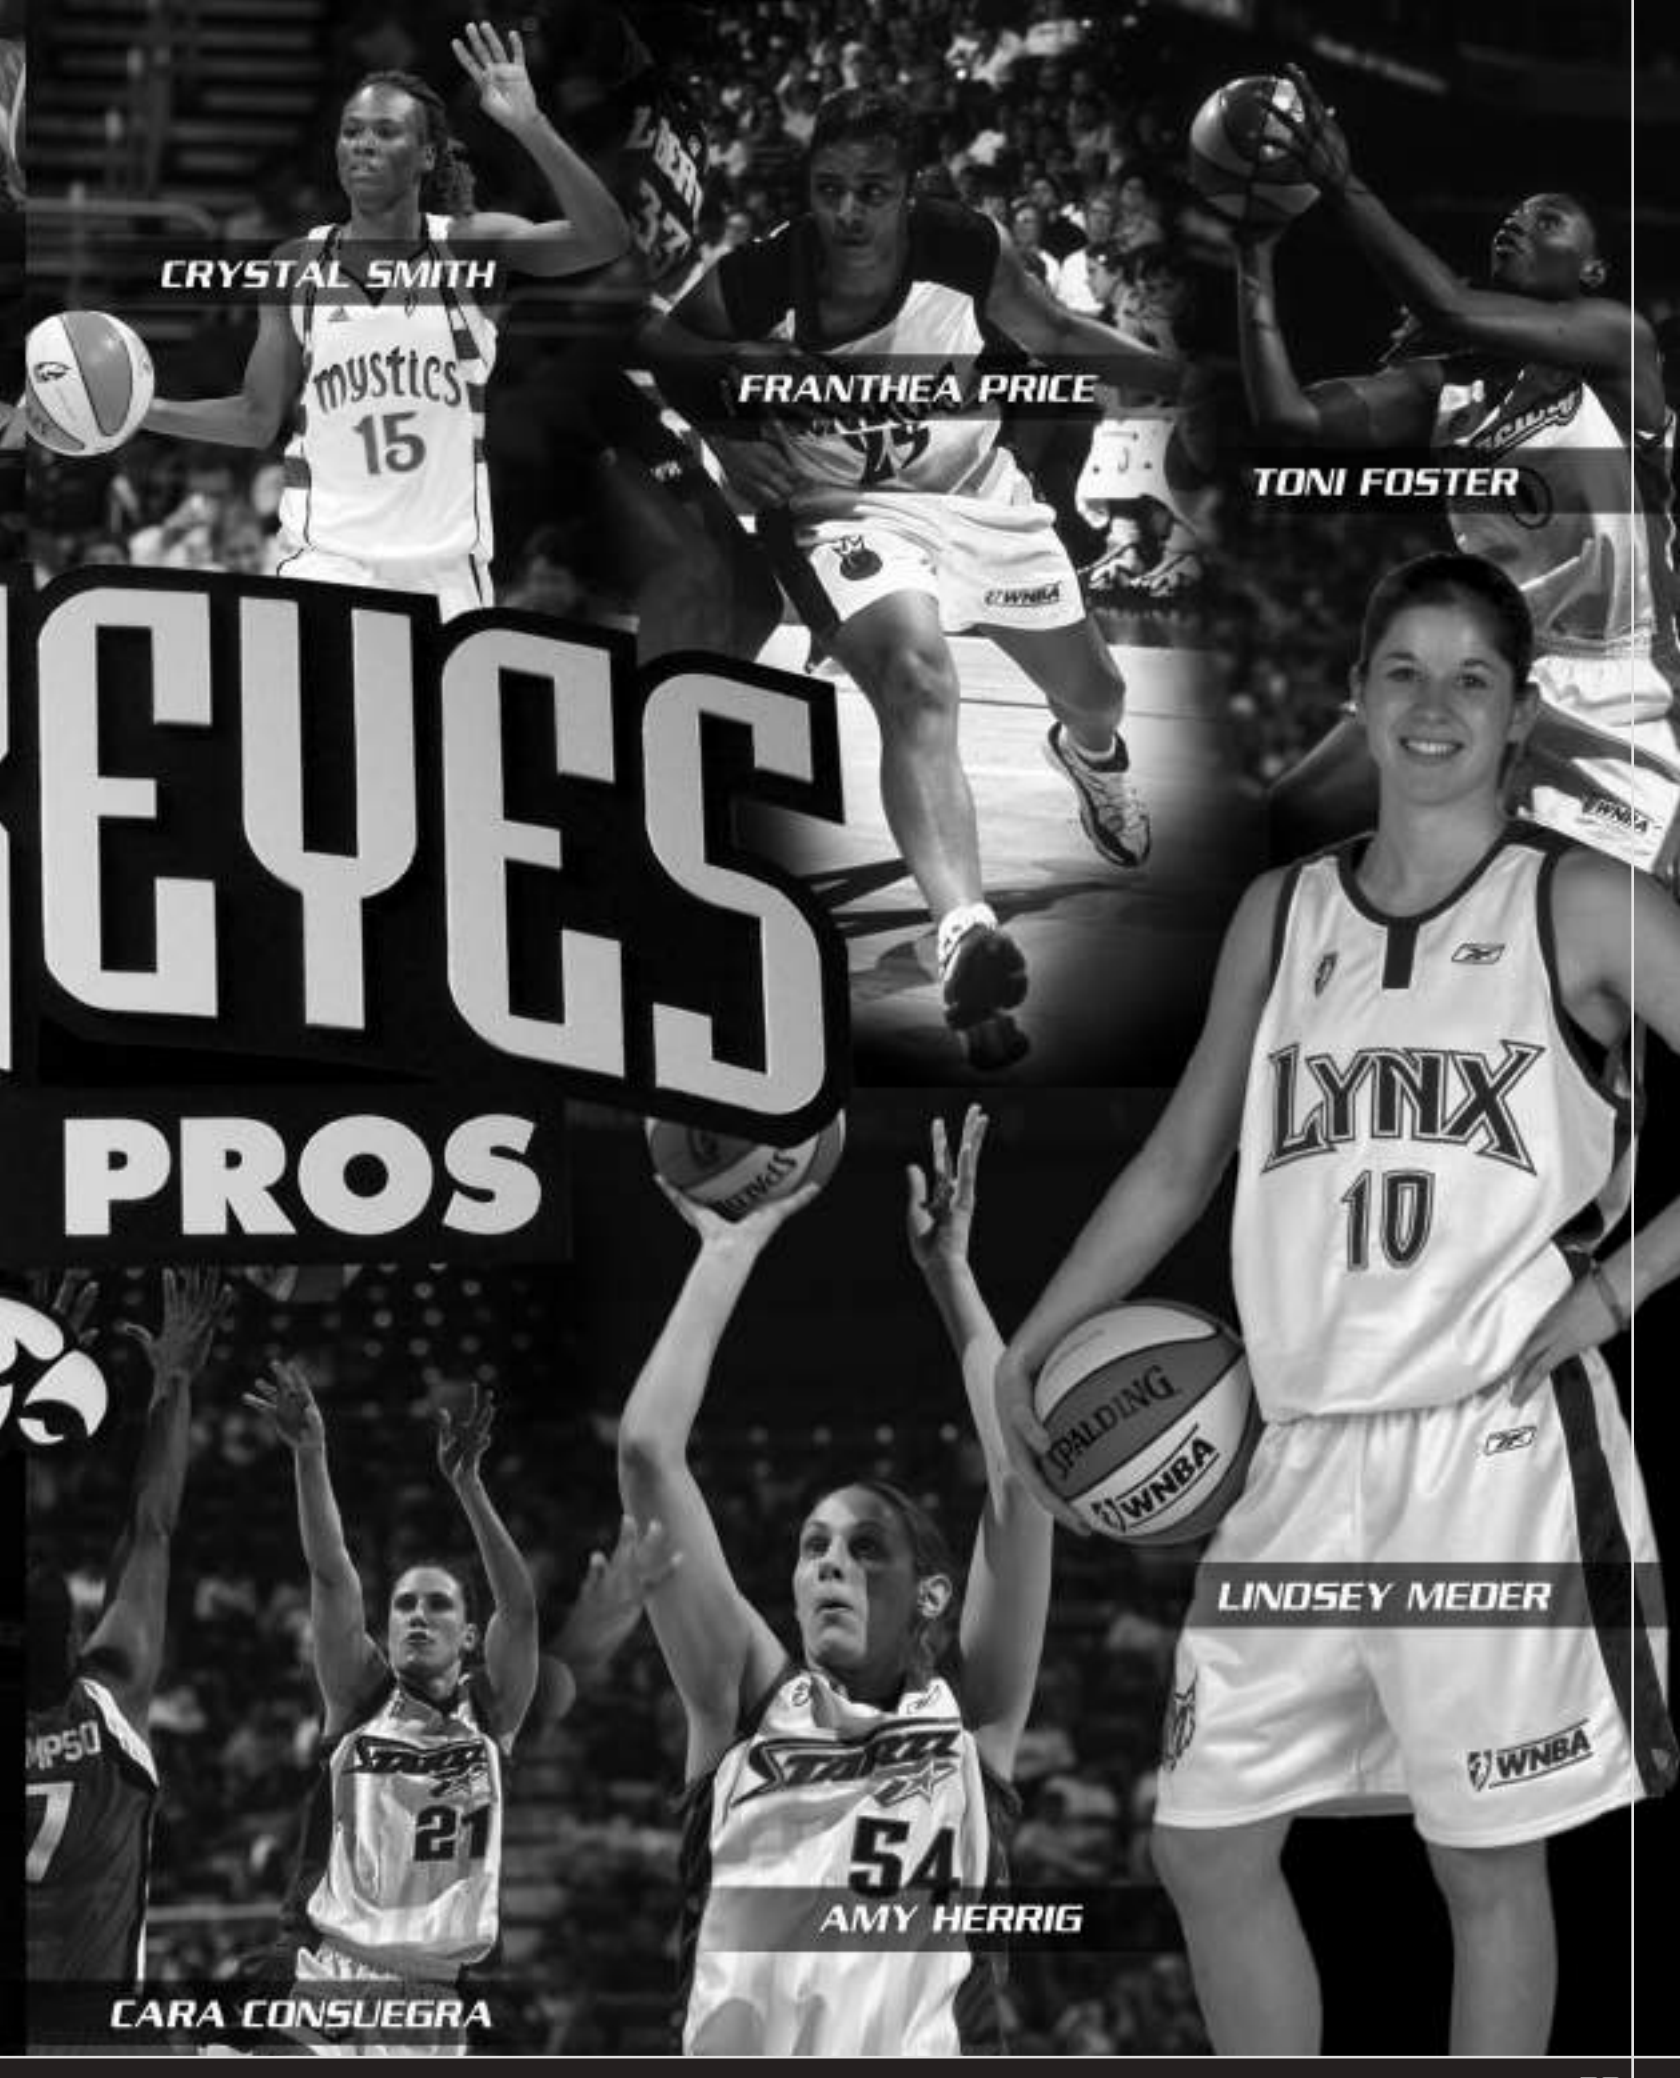

BRIAN & COLLEEN KREI

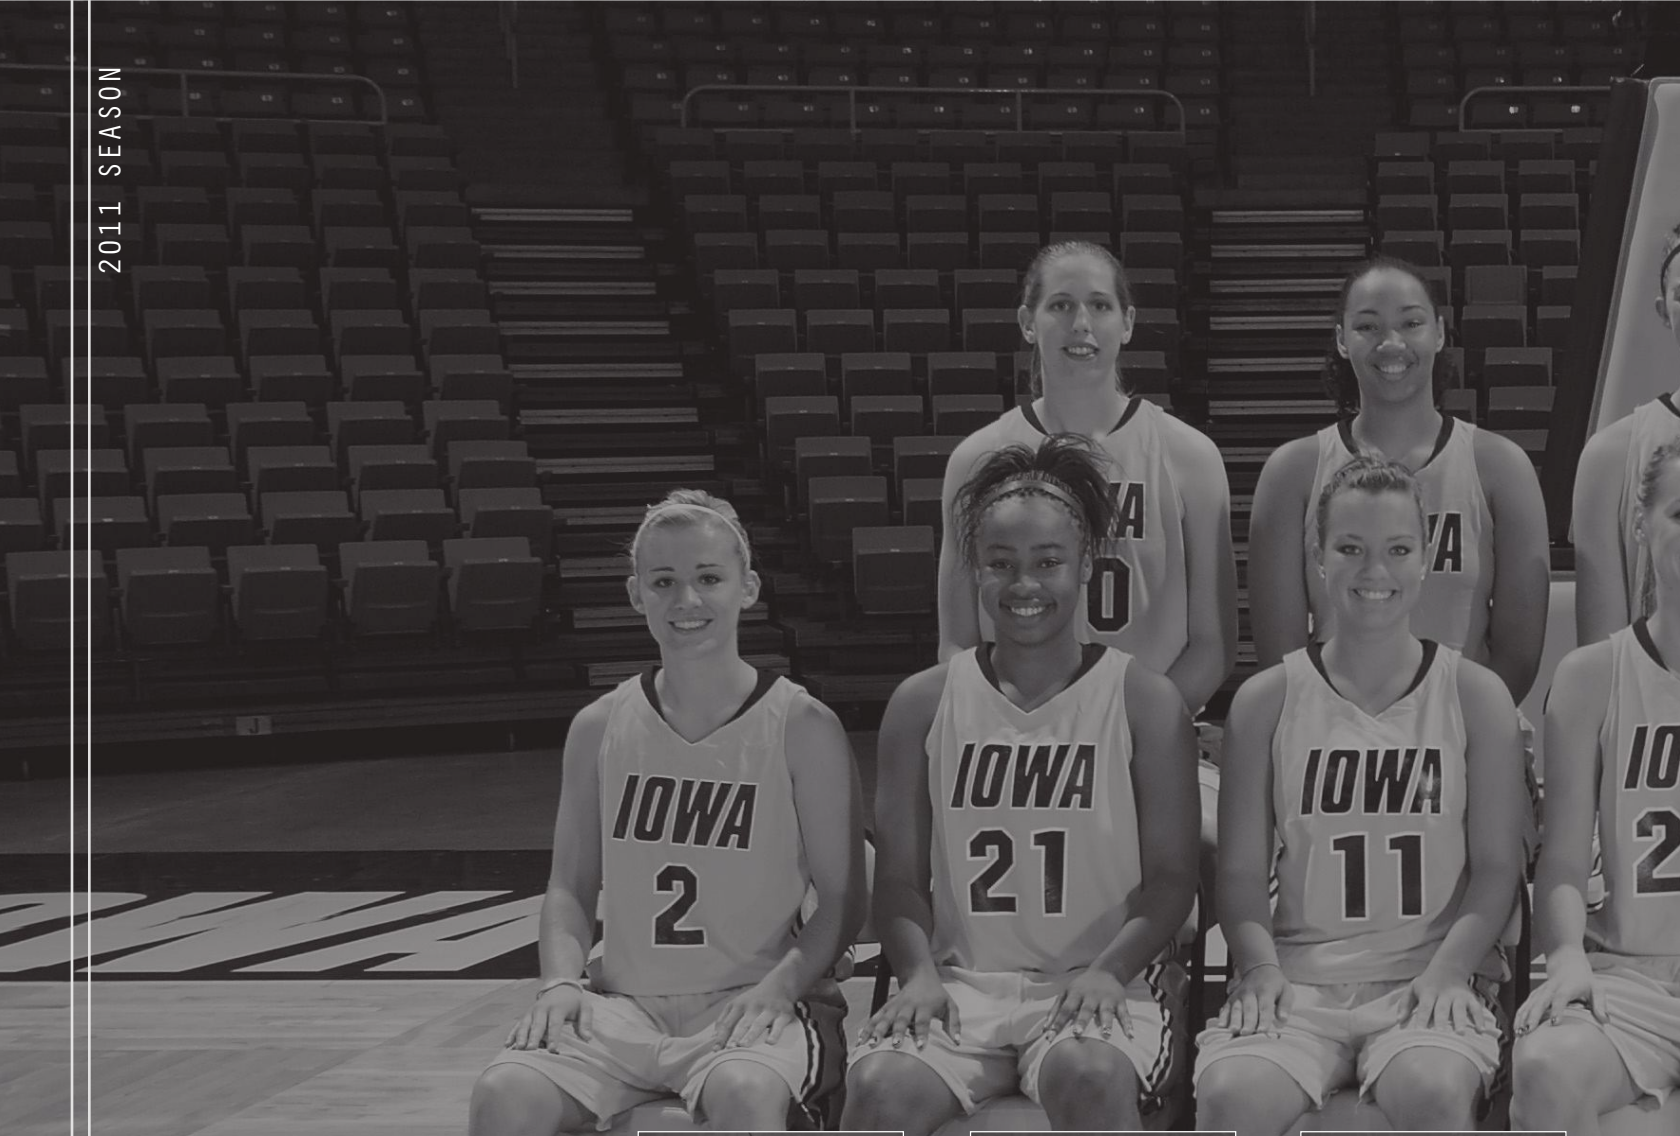

"It brings our family great pride to have Megan wear the Black and Gold uniform and be a part of Coach Bluder's very successful program. Despite Megan's unique situation in joining the team, the coaching staff and teammates welcomed her with open arms and made her feel a real sense of team unity and belonging. All three of our children found a home at the University of Iowa, not only for the academic excellence it provided, but also for the opportunity to be a student-athlete and experience the excitement of being a Hawkeye! We can think of no other place Megan would rather be."

"I BELIEVE THAT LISA BLUDER IS ONE OF THE BEST COACHES IN THE BUSINESS. SHE NOT ONLY TAUGHT ME THE GAME OF BASKETBALL, BUT HOW TO BE A GOOD PERSON. SHE WENT ABOVE AND BEYOND WHAT COACHES DO AND WHAT THEY SHOULD DO. SHE IS SOMEONE THAT I CONSIDER A DOMINANT ROLE MODEL IN MY LIFE - SHE IS A LARGE REASON AS TO WHY I WANTED TO GET INTO THE COACHING PROFESSION! AFTER BEING A PART OF HER PROGRAM FOR FOUR YEARS I CAN HONESTLY SAY I WOULD NOT HAVE WANTED TO SPEND THEM WITH ANY OTHER COACH. SHE IS DEFINITELY SOMEONE THAT I WANT TO EMULATE."

What Others Are Saying

About Lisa Bluder

"Lisa Bluder is one of the top coaches in the Big Ten today. She has coached All-America type players and has made Iowa one of the top teams in the country again. She is a patient teacher of the game and a very good recruiter. Her program is one of the most enjoyable to be around. Her players play hard and are good students in the classroom. It would be a wonderful opportunity for a young player to come to Iowa and enjoy learning the game from Lisa Bluder. You would not only learn to play hard and have a great chance to play in the NCAA Tournament, but you will have made a lifetime friend and mentor."

ANN MYERS
PHOENIX MERCURY GENERAL MANAGER

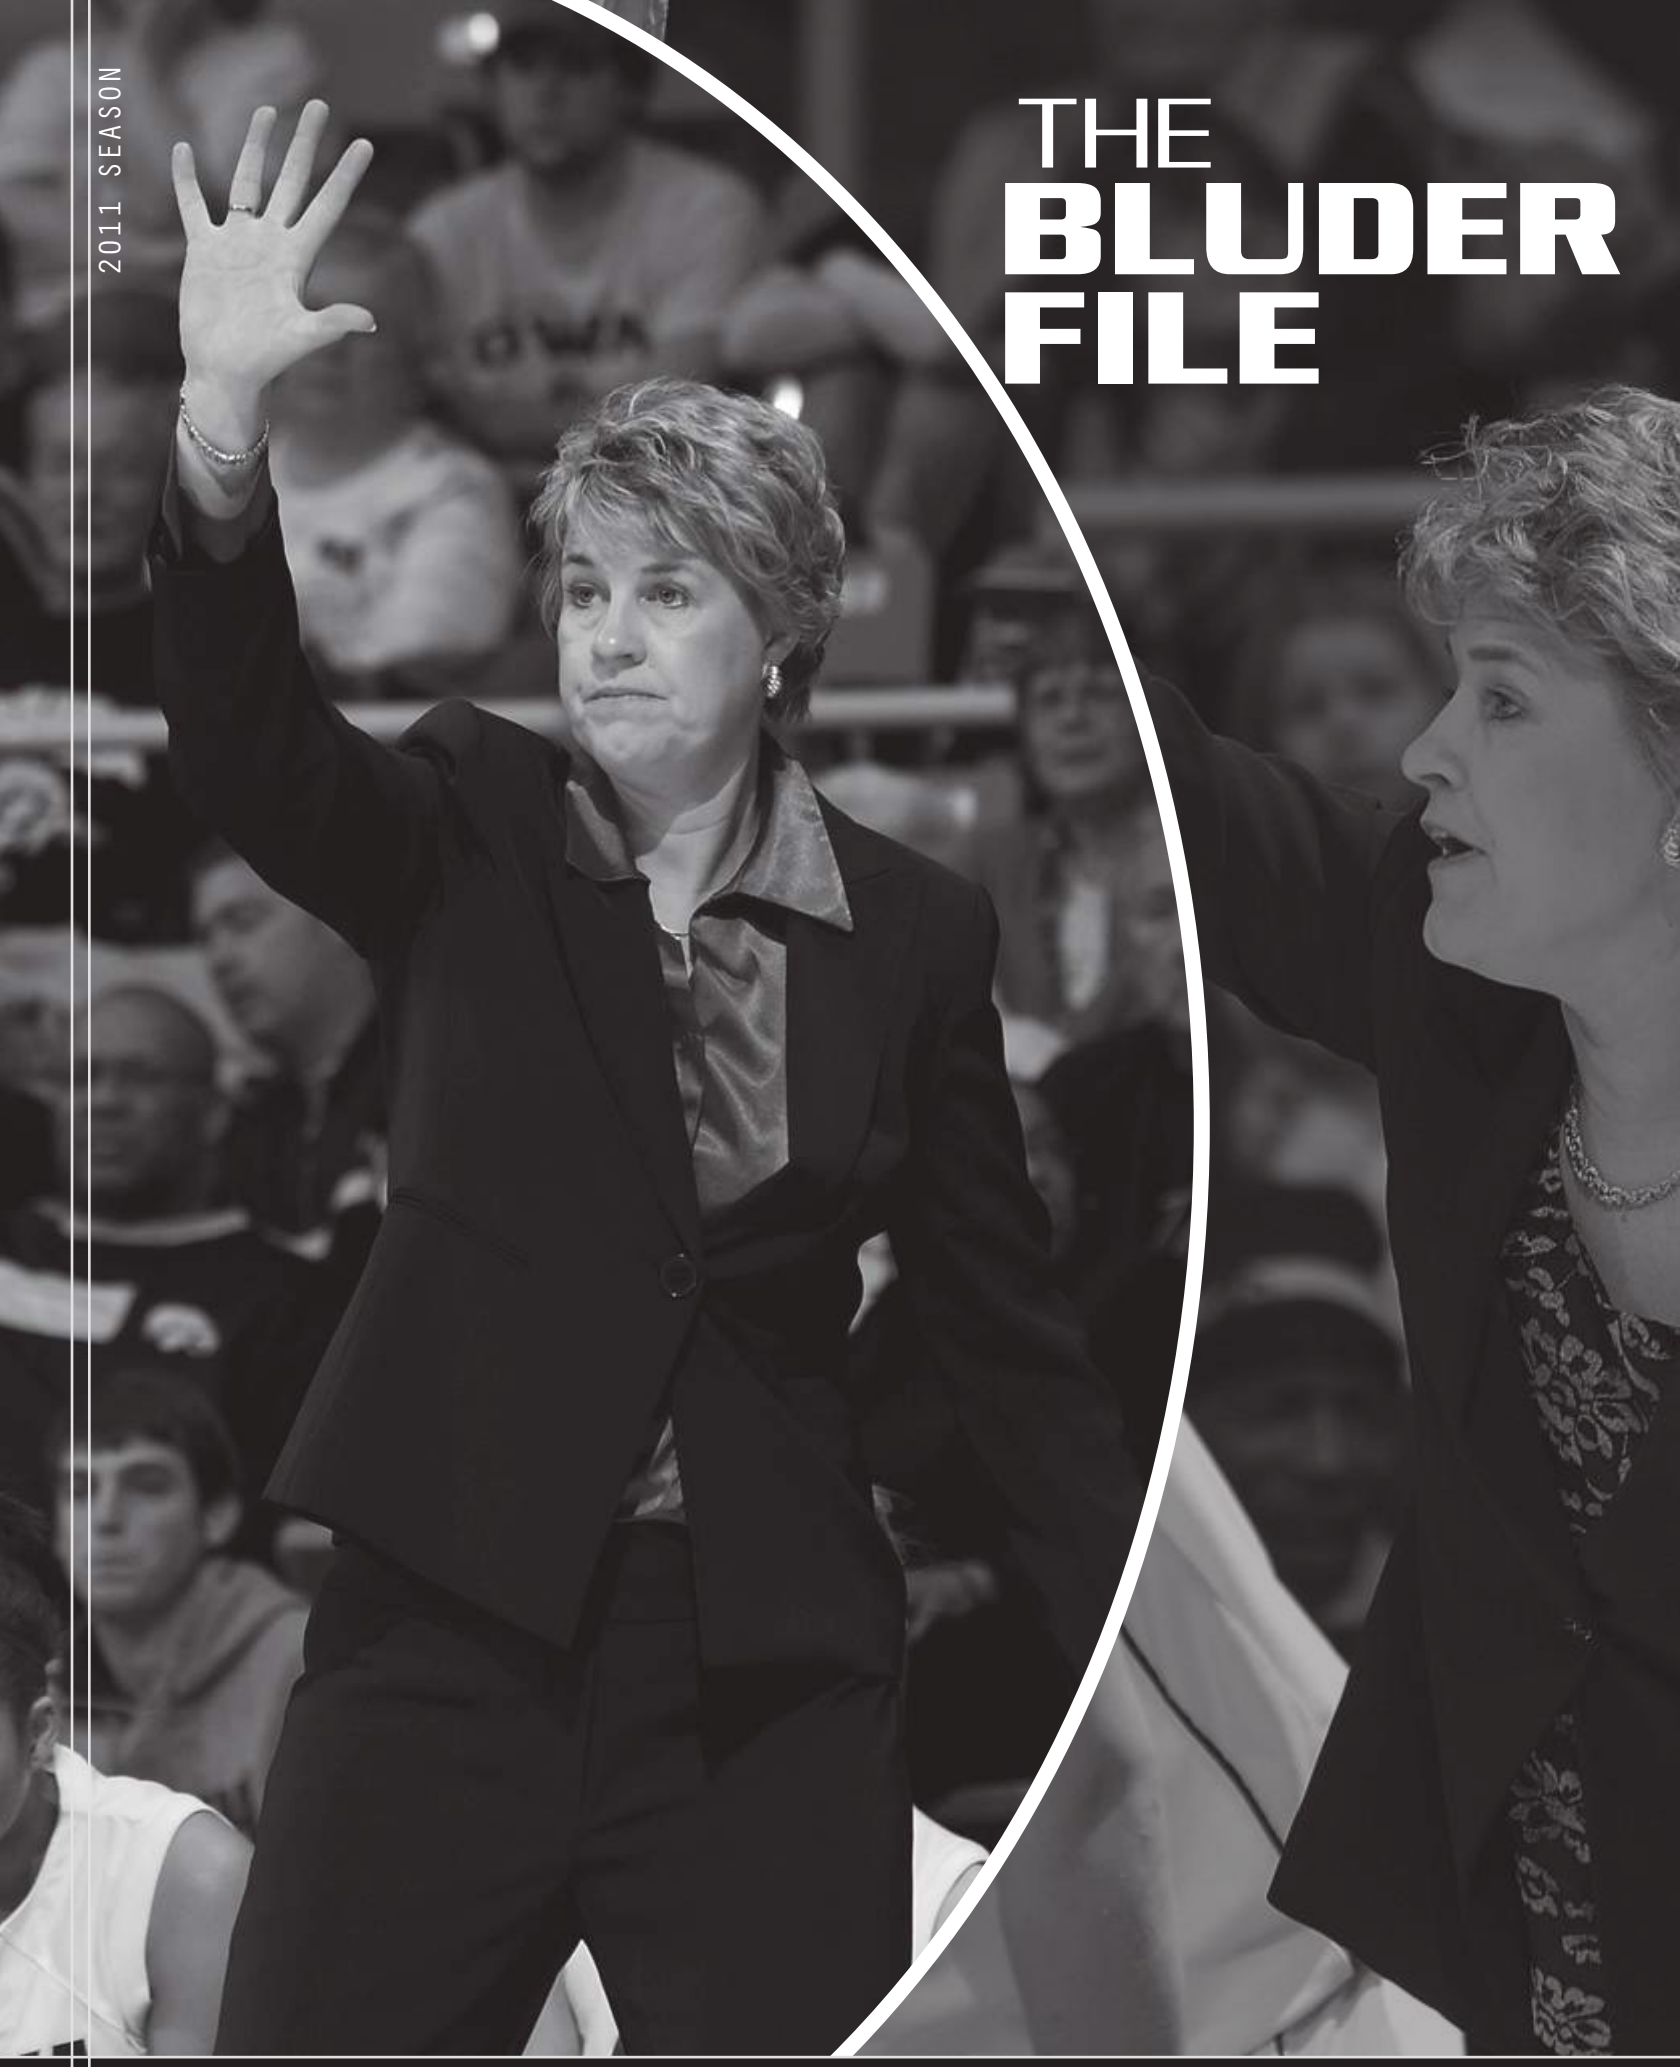

"In the years that I have known Coach Bluder professionally and personally, I have watched her teams play with passion, determination, skill and a tremendous understanding of the game and the personnel of the other team. She has taken all of those traits and successes that she cultivated at Drake and instituted them at the University of Iowa. Lisa's teams have always demonstrated a high basketball I.Q. and strong acumen for the game because of her leadership skills, her working knowledge and her ability to teach basketball at the highest levels. Lisa has wonderful balance in her life with her family and she is a terrific role model for all young women."

Female Athlete: My favorite female athletes are always the ones wearing our Hawkeye uniforms!

Pro Team: New York Yankees, Minnesota Vikings and I still have some loyalty to the Philadelphia 76ers due to my childhood hero of Dr. J!

BIG TEN CONFERENCE®

CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICANS

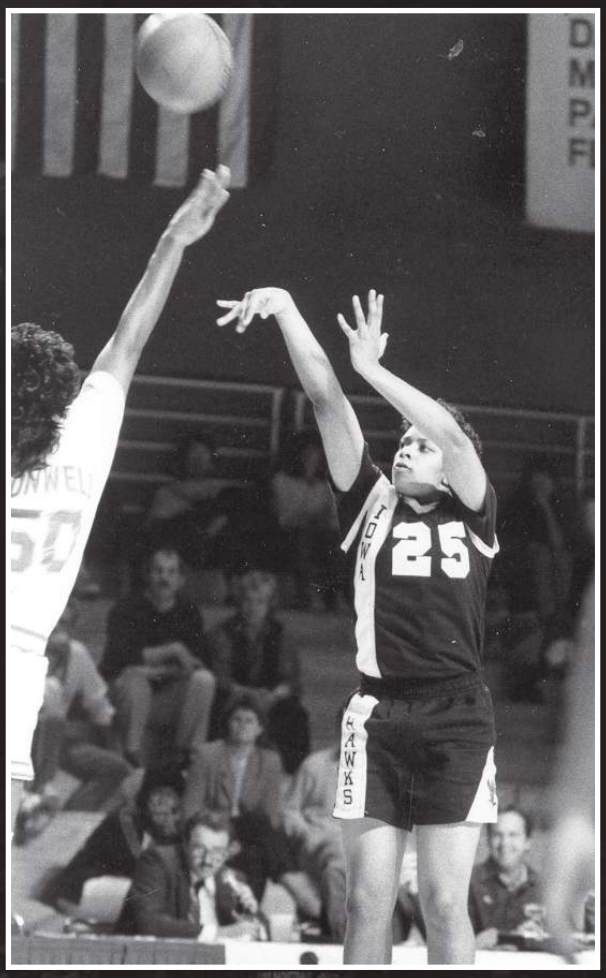

Michelle Edwards (1984-88)

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Michelle Edwards is one of the most decorated players in Iowa women's basketball history. The 5-9 guard, nicknamed "Ice", amassed a career record of 102-22 from 1984-1988. During her four years, Edwards led the Hawkeyes to three NCAA Tournament appearances and two Big Ten titles. In 1988, she was named the Champion Products National Player of the Year, the highest honor in women's collegiate basketball. Edwards garnered several other honors that year including being named a Kodak all-American, a Naismith all-American, a USBWA all-American, the Big Ten Player of the Year, and the University of Iowa Athlete of the Year. In her senior season, Edwards also led Iowa to its first ever national number one ranking, along with a record of 29-2 overall and 17-1 in the Big Ten. She paced the Hawkeyes with an average of 20 points per game, 4.8 rebounds per game, 4.5 assists per game, and 2.9 steals per game. The three-time first team all-Big Ten selection is the only Hawkeye to have her jersey retired (No. 30). Edwards ranks high in several Iowa statistical categories, including second in career assists (431), third in career scoring (1,821), and third in career steals (235). She also ranks second among single season scoring leaders (621) and is tied for first in assists in a single game (12). Edwards played in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and was a member of the U.S. Select Team in 1986. In 1991, she was part of the United States Pan American Team, and she also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988 and 1992. Upon graduation, Edwards played professionally in Italy for nine seasons before joining the WNBA during its inaugural year in 1997. She then spent three seasons with the Cleveland Rockers and two seasons with the Seattle Storm.

Franthea Price (1986-90)

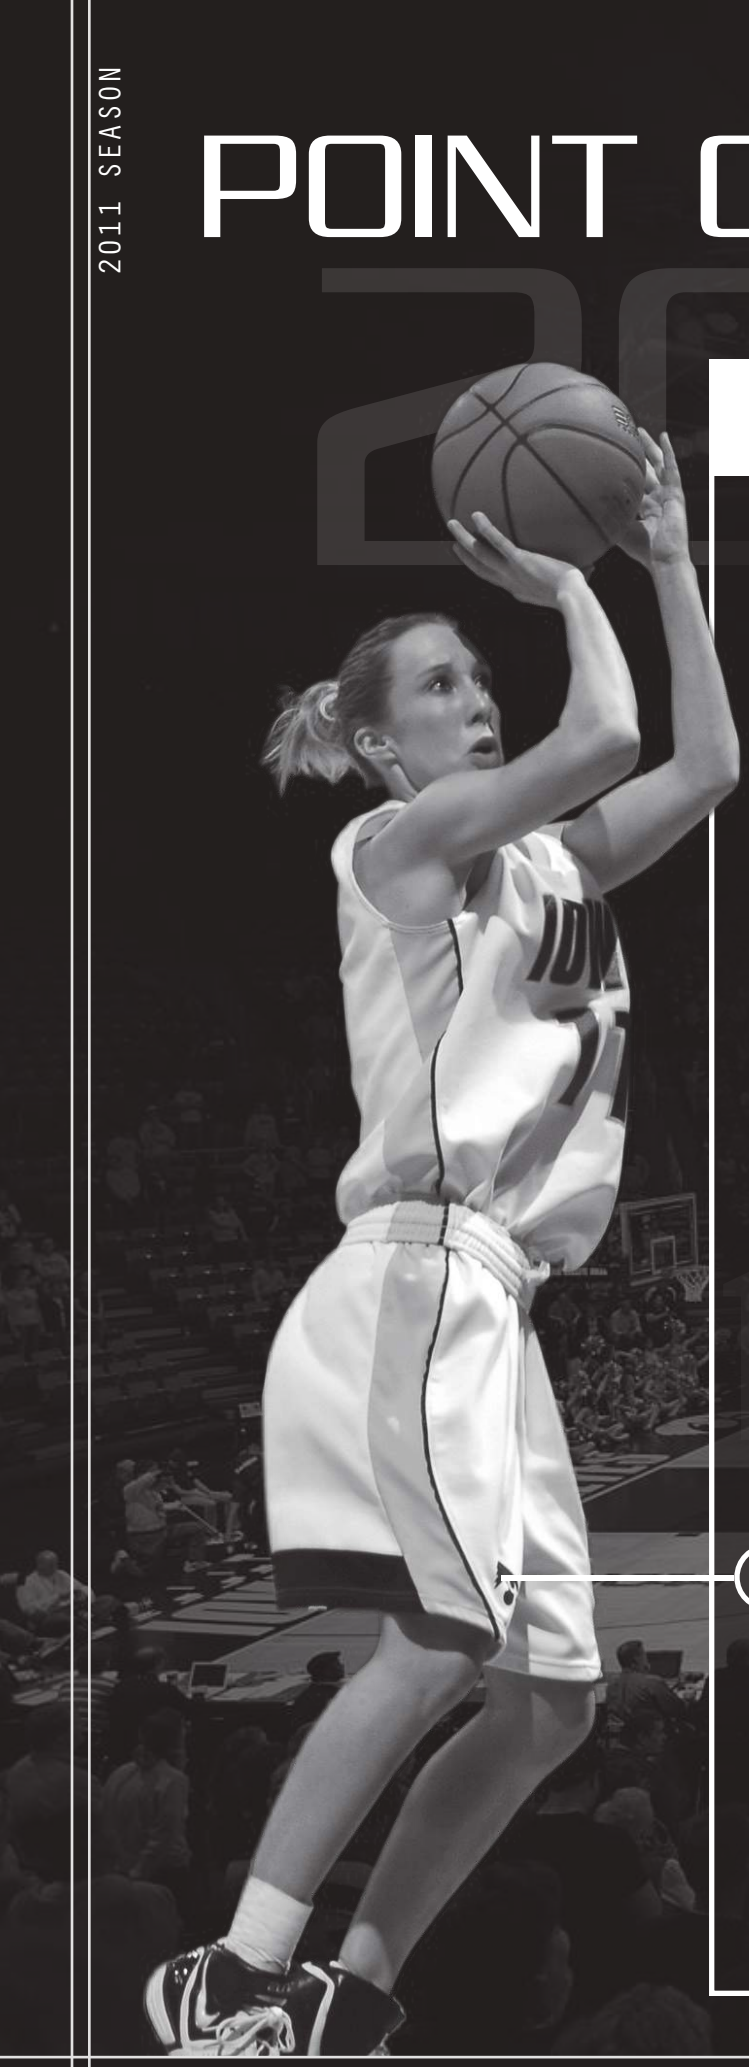

Franthea Price played for the Hawkeyes from 1986-1990, and in her senior season she became the second Kodak all-American in school history. The four-year starter from River Rouge, Michigan, had an impressive career at Iowa, which began with her being named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1987. Price was named to the first team all-Big Ten in 1988 and 1990, and she was named second team all-Big Ten in 1989. In her senior year, Price earned the honor of Big Ten Player of the Year and led the conference in scoring with 19.8 points per game. The 5-9 forward led the Hawkeyes in several statistical categories that year including scoring (21.2), rebounding (7.1), steals (2.9), and three-point field goals (47). A consistent contributor, Price scored in double figures in 34 of her last 35 games. She holds the school record for career steals with 321, and is tied for first for most steals in a single game with nine. Price also ranks fifth in career scoring (1,742), third in career assists (387), and eighth in career rebounds (726). Outside of Iowa, Price was a member of the U.S. World Junior National Team in 1986 and competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1985 and 1986. In 1987, Price won a gold medal as part of the United States William R. Jones Cup team, and she was a member of the United States Select team in 1989. Price also competed in the U.S. Olympic Trials in 1988. After finishing her career at Iowa, Price played professionally in Spain for several years before joining the WNBA Sacramento Monarchs in 1998.

Toni Foster (1989-93)

A 6-1 forward from Chicago, Illinois, Toni Foster was named a Kodak all-American in 1993 and was a finalist for Champion Player of the Year. Foster played for the Hawkeyes from 1989-1993, and led the team in both scoring and rebounding for three consecutive years, a feat accomplished only once previously. A three-time first team all-Big Ten selection, Foster was named the Big Ten Player of the Year in 1993. She was also named the 1993 SportsChannel Player of the Year. During her senior season, Price led Iowa in scoring (15.7), rebounding (8.2), and blocked shots (1.3). She collected 27 double-doubles during her illustrious career, including nine in her senior year. In Iowa's career statistical categories, Foster ranks second in both rebounds (887) and blocks (145). She also ranks sixth in scoring (1,606) and ninth in steals (167). Foster competed in the National Olympic Festival in 1987 and 1991. When the WNBA was formed in 1997, Foster was the seventh overall pick and was selected by the Phoenix Mercury. She spent two seasons with the Mercury before joining the Seattle Storm in 1999 by way of an expansion draft.
