

Volunteering
Kingston Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust

Discharge Support Service

Supporting patients to have a better experience between hospital, home and the community

Discharge Support Volunteers provide practical and emotional support to patients following a hospital visit

This service is open to all boroughs and for any patient who:

- Is 65 years old or over
- Is anxious about returning home
- Is worried about how they will manage once home
- Are at risk of loneliness and social isolation

This is a free and confidential service

Contact us on [REDACTED] or email [REDACTED]

Living our values every day

Kingston Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust