  - (a) the Supplier issuing a written acceptance of the Order; and
  - (b) the Supplier doing any act consistent with fulfilling the Order,at which point the Contract shall come into existence.
- 2.4 The Customer may cancel the Order at any time prior to commencement of manufacture or acquisition of the Goods by the Supplier without liability to the Supplier. Without prejudice to the Customer's rights under clause 4.5, if any Goods have been manufactured or acquired by the Supplier specifically for the purposes of the Order, the Customer may cancel the Order but shall pay for such Goods in accordance with the Order.

- 3.1 The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods shall:
  - (a) correspond with their description and any applicable Specification;

- (b) be of satisfactory quality (within the meaning of the Sale of Goods Act 1979, as amended) and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by the Customer expressly or by implication or which reasonably ought to be known to the Supplier, and in this respect the Customer relies on the Supplier's skill and judgement;

3.3 The Customer shall have the right to inspect and test the Goods at any time before delivery.

3.4 If following such inspection or testing the Customer considers that the Goods do not conform or are unlikely to comply with the Supplier's undertakings at clause 3.1, the Customer shall inform the Supplier and the Supplier shall immediately take such remedial action as is necessary to ensure compliance.

3.5 Notwithstanding any such inspection or testing, or the issue of any test certificate in relation to the Goods by the Supplier or an agreed third party, the Supplier shall remain fully responsible for the Goods and any such inspection or testing shall not reduce or otherwise affect the Supplier's obligations under the Contract, and the Customer shall have the right to conduct or require further inspections and tests after the Supplier has carried out its remedial actions.

4. DELIVERY

4.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:

- (a) the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach their destination in good condition;

- (b) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by any required certificates relating to the chemical and mechanical properties of the Goods and any other documents specified in the Order;
- (c) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note which shows the date of the Order, the Order number (if any), the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable), special storage instructions (if any) and, if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered; and
- (d) if the Supplier requires the Customer to return any packaging material to the Supplier, that fact is clearly stated on the delivery note. Any such packaging material shall be returned to the Supplier at the cost of the Supplier.

4.2 The Supplier shall deliver the Goods:

- (a) on the date specified in the Order (Delivery Date);
- (b) to such location as is set out in the Order, or as instructed by the Customer prior to delivery (Delivery Location); and

4.5 The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments without the Customer's prior written consent. Where it is agreed that the Goods are to be delivered by instalments, they may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment shall entitle the Customer to the remedies set out in clause 5.

4.6 The Customer may defer delivery or cancel the Contract without further liability to the Supplier in the event that the customer of the Customer cancels or delays delivery under its contract with the Customer for which purposes the Goods are being acquired.

5. REMEDIES

5.1 If the Goods are not delivered on the Delivery Date, or do not comply with the undertakings set out in clause 3.1, then, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, the Customer shall have the right to any one or more of the following remedies, whether or not it has accepted the Goods:

- (a) to terminate the Contract;
- (b) to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) and return them to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense;

5.2 If the Goods are not delivered on the Delivery Date the Customer may at its option claim or deduct 1 per cent of the price of the Goods for each day's delay in delivery by way of liquidated damages, up to a maximum of 20 per cent of the total price of the Goods. The Supplier shall pay the liquidated damages to the Customer within 20 Business Days of receipt of the Customer's invoice although the Customer shall be entitled to set off its claim for liquidated damages against any sum owing by the Customer to the Supplier. The Supplier and the Customer agree that the liquidated damages referred to in this clause 5.2 are a genuine reasonable pre-estimate of the losses which may be sustained by the Customer in the event that the Supplier fails to deliver the Goods on the Delivery Date and the Supplier shall not be entitled to claim that the liquidated damages should be construed as a penalty or any claim for the liquidated damages should not be enforced. Payment of liquidated damages by the Supplier shall not release the Supplier from its other obligations under the Contract and the Customer's rights to claim damages for breach of contract.

5.3 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Supplier.

5.4 The Customer's rights and remedies under these Conditions are in addition to its rights and remedies implied by statute and common law.

- 7.6 The Customer shall have no liability to pay interest on any amounts which are considered overdue.
- 7.7 The Customer may withhold payment of any invoice if there is inconsistency regarding proof of delivery, quality, price or other dispute in relation to the Goods.
- 7.8 The Customer may at any time, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, set off any liability of the Supplier to the Customer against any liability of the Customer to the Supplier, whether either liability is present or future, liquidated or unliquidated, and whether or not either liability arises under the Contract.
- 7.9 If the Supplier requires payment by bill of exchange or other instrument, the Supplier shall be responsible for all bankers' or other extra costs incurred by the Customer or the Supplier in relation to such payment.

8. CUSTOMER MATERIALS

The Supplier acknowledges that all materials, equipment and tools, drawings, Specifications, and data supplied by the Customer to the Supplier (Customer Materials) and all rights in the Customer Materials are and shall remain the exclusive property of the Customer. The Supplier shall keep the Customer Materials in safe custody at its own risk, insure the Customer Materials in such amount as is adequate to meet the costs of their replacement with materials of the same specification and quality, maintain them in good condition until returned to the Customer, and not dispose or use the same other than in accordance with the Customer's written instructions or authorisation.

- (c) any claim made against the Customer by a third party arising out of or in connection with the supply of the Goods, to the extent that such claim arises out of the breach, negligent performance or failure or delay in performance of the Contract by the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

The receiving party shall only disclose such confidential information to those of its employees, agents and subcontractors who need to know it for the purpose of discharging the receiving party's obligations under the Contract, and shall ensure that such employees, agents and subcontractors comply with the obligations set out in this clause as though they were a party to the Contract. 11.2 This clause 11 shall survive termination of the Contract.

12. TERMINATION

12.1 The Customer may terminate the Contract in whole or in part at any time before delivery with immediate effect by giving the Supplier written notice, whereupon the Supplier shall discontinue all work on the Contract. The Customer shall pay the Supplier fair and reasonable compensation for any work in progress on the Goods at the time of termination, but such compensation shall not include loss of anticipated profits or any consequential loss.

12.2 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Customer may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier if:
