

WHERE WE WANT TO BE

HILLSIDE BEACH CLUB, TURKEY

Hillside Beach Club on the Aegean Coast opens fresh for the new season this April. Kids with an artistic flare will love Artside, the art club where they can create mementos of their stay. Activities include marbling, silk-painting, mosaic design, T-shirt-dyeing and stone-painting. The fun doesn't stop there. Kids up to the age of 15 can make the most of a jam-packed activity programme, from pool-diving demos and table tennis to evening football tournaments. And mums looking to channel their children's energy can take part in mother-child yoga sessions. While the little ones are kept entertained, parents can unwind at the sumptuous SANDA Nature Spa, set within the pine forest canopy, where traditional Balinese massage treatments soothe body and mind.

Thomas Cook offers seven nights full-board from £1,990 for two people sharing a superior room with large terrace. Kids under 12 stay free of charge. Flights and transfers are included. hillsidebeachclub.com; thomascook.com
