From the blingy and the beautiful to the downright bizarre, we've rounded up some of the world's coolest hotels. Come in and get comfortable...

FOGO ISLAND INN'S MODERN ARCHITECTURE IS STUNNING SILHOUETTED AGAINST THE CANADIAN SKY

It's unlike any inn we've seen before, with modern architecture that looks stunning silhouetted against the sky.

WHAT ELSE? The striking boxy shape affords each room floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the sea, while the rooftop space is given over to wood-fired saunas and outdoor hot tubs.

THE AREA: This is the ideal base to explore Newfoundland's stunning scenery, from watching icebergs float along 'Iceberg Alley' in early summer to trekking along ancient footpaths and hiking up cliffs.

GETTING THERE: Nightly rates from £961. fogoislandinn.ca; Bridge & Wickers offers seven-night trips to Newfoundland, including three nights at Fogo Island Inn, two nights in St John's, two nights in Trinity, car hire and flights with WestJet, from £2,899 per person. ## The family one Hillside Beach Club, Turkey

WHY IS IT COOL? Family holidays can be cool as well, you know. Think bluer-than-blue water, whitewashed walls, bougainvillea and super-stylish suites – as well as a wealth of activities that will keep both you and your little ones entertained.

WHAT ELSE? There's an in-house 'baby chef' and a daily 'baby buffet' at the main restaurant. Yes, really. But there's nightlife too, whether it's in the form of drum and bass DJs that spin the night away at Pasha Bar, or whisky and jazz on the beach – giving you the best of both worlds.

THE AREA? In a location like this, it's really all about the sea. Book yourself onto a boat tour – either private or with a group – that explores nearby islands and the Gulf of Fethiye or takes you out in the evening to watch the sunset. If you're a history buff, visit the Dead Sea, or Kayakoy, which is an abandoned ancient town with Roman roots.

GETTING THERE: Nightly rates start from £185 per person. hillsidebeachclub.com; EasyJet flies from London to Dalaman from £49.99 one way, then it's a 45-minute drive to the resort. easyjet.com

This area is popular with boat trips thanks to beautiful islands and immaculate conditions. Look out for pretty, quiet beaches and ancient ruins scattered on pine-clad hills.
