Hillside Beach Club, Turkey

This snazzy five-star resort, set in its own private bay near Fethiye in Turkey, is a genuinely stylish all-inclusive find. Surrounded by unspoilt woodland, Hillside Beach Club offers 'full board plus' accommodation, which includes breakfast, lunch and dinner at a choice of three restaurants, including the romantic Pasha On The Bay and the Beach Bar. Complimentary wine and beer is served in the Main Restaurant at mealtimes.

For families, the use of three children's clubs (from tots to teens) – with state-of-the-art gaming, internet areas, dance and DJ classes, plus a wide variety of team sports and water activities – is included in the price.

Guests looking to return home fitter and more serene can make use of complimentary daily classes, such as yoga, Pilates, cha-cha and workouts. There are three main beaches, plus an adults-only enclave called Silent Beach, which is separate from the resort. Hillside Beach Club is known for its watersports, including scuba diving, wakeboarding and water skiing, which cost extra. There are also trips to the ancient city of Patara or a jeep safari in the Taurus Mountains. If you book a paid-for spa treatment, you'll get complimentary use of the Jacuzzi and sauna.

YOUR ALL-IN BILL! Classic Collection Holidays offers seven nights at Hillside Beach Club from £1,046 per person, based on two adults sharing on a 'full board plus' basis, including return flights from London Gatwick (other UK airports available) to Dalaman and private transfers. See classic-collection.co.uk.

Hillside has lovely rooms and beaches – you can even watch a movie from the sand (below)!
