(3-1) How to make a reservation (if you have already logged out)

Information Session

The screenshot shows the 'Information Session' page. At the top, there is a header with the 'Study in JAPAN' logo and the text 'Online Fair for Sub-Saharan Africa 2022'. Below the header, there is a list of five topics: '2. Tips for Applying to Scholarships', '3. Sharing Experience by African students in Japan', '4. Fun and Hard Facts about Japanese Language', and '5. Career Path after Graduation'. A note indicates that the sessions are streamed from Kenya (Nairobi) and Japan (Tokyo and Sapporo). At the bottom, there is a black button labeled 'How to register for the fair and reserve sessions' and a larger black button labeled 'Register Here' which is highlighted with a yellow border.

University Consultation

The screenshot shows the 'University Consultation' page. At the top, there is a header with the 'Study in JAPAN' logo and the text 'Online Fair for Sub-Saharan Africa 2022'. Below the header, there are two consultation sessions listed under the heading 'Art/Design' and 'Business/Economics'. Each session is for 12:30 - 13:00. The first session is for Digital Hollywood University, Digital Communication, and the second is for University of Hyogo, School of Economics and... Both session time slots are highlighted with yellow boxes. A yellow callout box with the text '• Click here' has two lines pointing to these two session time slots.
