Jane W.

Jane was born July 15, 1927 in Saginaw MI. Her parents William and Emilie had two girls. Jane was the oldest child and her sister Shirley was eight years younger. Her father worked at for Home Dairy in Saginaw.

Jane attended Bethlehem Lutheran School for eight years. Jane loved playing baseball with her neighborhood friends and was close enough to walk to school. Jane spent many of her summers at her grandparent’s farm near Hemlock, helping hoe the fields and helped with haying. Her Aunt Lane was eleven years older than Jane and lived on the farm with the family. Lane was like a big sister to Jane. They enjoyed time together going to the outdoor movies in the summer and she taught Jane the love of playing the piano.

Jane’s father and Uncle Herman bought a grocery and general store in Laporte, MI in 1941. The family moved to her grandparent’s farm in Hemlock. Jane attended school across from the store and would have to work in the store after school until closing time.

Jane continued working at the family store during high school. Jane’s parents joined St. Peter Lutheran Church down the road from the farm. Jane was very involved in the youth choir and Walter League. The group would take trips and picnic in the summer. Jane noticed a handsome young man in the choir named Alvin. They dated for several years. She graduated from Hemlock High School in 1945 and Jane worked in the family store until she married June 12, 1949. Jane and Alvin built a home next door to his parent’s farm and had four children Kathleen, James, Susan and Mary. Alvin farmed his land and Jane had a large garden and fruit trees. Jane canned everything she grew. Jane was very involved in the local 4H group for almost forty years helping everything including judging.

Jane had a true talent as a seamstress and loved designing clothes without even looking at a pattern. Everyone admired her work. Jane and Alvin were a beautiful example and faith and love for their children. After church on Sundays they would often take the family to a park or beach for a picnic.

After the children were grown, Jane was very successful selling Sarah Coventry jewelry at home parties. Jane and Alvin loved to travel by train to visit family and friends. The most memorable was a trip of a lifetime on a Norwegian Cruise. Jane and Al were married wonderful 58 years before he passed in 2007.

Jane’s good friend Frank lost his wife also, and now they enjoy each other’s companionship in their golden years.

Jane has eight amazing grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren. Next time you see Jane, stop by and create new memories.
June Spotlight is shining on Janet G. Janet is a Terrace Specialist Aide. The terrace specialist is primarily involved in supporting the life enrichment department. Janet leads activities in the terrace and assists with meals. She greets residents each day with a cheery smile and a song in her heart!

Janet was born in Springhill, Florida on October 1, 1994. Her parents Greg and Karen moved back to Marlette, MI with Janet and her three brothers to be closer to family. Janet has fond memories of living on her aunt’s farm being surrounded with many animals to care for. A few of her favorite were dogs, cats, chickens, peacocks, turkeys and rabbits. Janet was a part of the 4H club from the first grade all the way through twelve grades. She showed her rabbits and received many awards and reserve championships.

When in high school Janet’s mother worked as the activities director at a convalescent home. Janet volunteered and fell in love with the residents. She was always planning crafts and activities for everyone to enjoy. All her experience makes her a perfect fit for Edgewood.

Janet also loved science, math and history. She was always experimenting and trying new things. Janet was a member of the rocket club, quiz bowl and theater. In her history class they would reenact the Revolutionary and Civil Wars.

Janet graduated from Marlette High School in 2013. She has a thirst for knowledge and is pursuing a degree in Elementary Education from Grand Canyon University online classes.

When Janet is not working she enjoys reading, crocheting, movies and attending the Renaissance Festival.

When you see Janet, her infectious smile and positive attitude will be sure to uplift you. Next time you see Janet thank her compassionate care.
