

Assistant Rural Valuer

About the Company

Herron Todd White is a respected market leader with a positive and focused future. Our people are the key to maintaining our strong reputation for providing high quality property valuations and exceptional customer service for key clients across Australia. We have an unrivalled national presence while maintaining a local focus, prioritising teamwork, flexibility, challenge and fun across our 65 offices and over 800 employees.

About the Role

Due to continued growth, an opportunity has become available in our Central Queensland offices for a highly motivated individual who wishes to become a registered Valuer.

As an Assistant Valuer you will rotate through the business and will be responsible for providing data and reports that support valuer outcomes as you progress to become qualified yourself. The role will have a rural property focus supporting existing rural valuers in the field on inspection, and in the production of rural valuation reports.

This position is ideal for a graduate or student in their final year of study who is motivated to become a registered CPV Valuer with specialist training in rural valuation. This opportunity is available on either a full-time or part-time basis.

About You

To be successful in this role, you will ideally possess:

- Tertiary qualifications in a property related field
- A passion for rural property and associated commodities
- A high degree of computer literacy
- Strong interpersonal, written and verbal communication skills
- Excellent telephone manner and customer service ethic
- Ability to work in a team environment
- High level of organisation and efficiency
- Ability to work within tight time constraints and multitask
- Strong attention to detail
- Self-motivated with a positive attitude

If you think this is the opportunity for you, please submit your resume and covering letter together with copies of your qualifications/transcripts to people@htw.com.au.
